2015 REVIEW

2015 SEASON NOTES

UNCOMMON

AT A GLANCE

Arkansas went 8-5 (5-3 SEC) and won six of its last seven games, including a 45-23 decision over Kansas State in the 2016 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. It was the 41st bowl appearance in school history. With the win, Arkansas became the only SEC West program to win a bowl game each of the last two seasons (2014, 2015). In addition, it was the Razorbacks' third consecutive bowl win, the longest bowl winning streak in program history. At 8-5 (5-3 SEC), Arkansas posted a winning record in SEC play and its most overall wins in a single season since 2011. The Razorbacks played nine teams in the regular season that earned a bowl bid, including seven that won its bowl game. Arkansas' opponents combined for a 100-52 record.

ROAD WARRIORS

Highlighted by back-to-back wins at No. 19 Ole Miss and No. 9 LSU, Arkansas went 3-1 in true road games in 2015. All three road wins came against SEC programs that finished in the final Associated Press Top 25 poll.

UNPRECEDENTED OFFENSE

The Razorbacks led the SEC in scoring in conference games, averaging 34.4 points per conference game. Arkansas averaged 46.3 points over the last seven games, nearly 10 points more than any other SEC program over its final seven games. The Razorbacks scored 50+ points four times over the final six regular season games, breaking the previous program single-season record of three set in 1910, 1916 and 2007. Arkansas scored a touchdown in 26 of its last 29 quarters and points in 28 of 29.

BALANCE BREEDS SUCCESS

The Razorback offense was wildly successful primarily due to the incredible balance between the passing and rushing attacks. Arkansas was the only school in the SEC and one of eight nationally to have both a 3,000-yard passer and 1,000-yard rusher during the regular season. Arkansas has produced a 1,000-yard rusher each of the last three seasons under head coach Bret Bielema, four total during that span.

PRO-STYLE U

Arkansas' pro-style offense produced some of the best statistics in program history and landed several players on All-America and national award lists. The Razorbacks were joined by Stanford as the only two programs to have a semifinalist for the Manning Award (quarterback), Doak Walker Award (running back) and John Mackey Award (tight end).

ON ANOTHER LEVEL

In the month of November, Brandon Allen was simply lights out. He paced the SEC with 14 touchdown passes (third-most nationally) and a 179.21 passer rating (fifth-best nationally). His 14 touchdown passes were the most by an SEC quarterback in the month of November since Tyler Bray (Tennessee) tossed 14 in 2012, while his 179.21 passer rating was the best since Aaron Murray's (Georgia) 215.80 in 2012.

Allen led the SEC with a 161.40 passer rating on third down. He also directed the Razorback offense to a 46.88 third down conversion percentage, which was tops in the SEC and ranked 15th nationally.

Allen finished his senior campaign with 3,440 yards passing and 30 touchdowns. With 406 passing yards against Mississippi State, Allen became only the fourth player in school history to surpass 7,000 career passing yards. With 7,463 career passing yards, Allen ranks third all-time in school history. He made 38 career starts at quarterback for his career, including his final 34 games – the longest streak for an Arkansas quarterback since joining the SEC in 1992. He also finished second in program history in career pass completions (583), second in attempts (1,016) and third in completion percentage (57.4).

DOMINIQUE REED burst onto the scene after the first month of the season, scoring a touchdown in six straight games, including all four SEC road games.

AC3 RUNS INTO RECORD BOOKS

Alex Collins entered the 2015 season 14th in school history with 2,126 career yards rushing after joining Darren McFadden as the only Razorbacks to ever begin their careers with back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. He then used a school record-tying 10 100-yard rushing efforts to help total 1,577 yards rushing as a junior, soaring to second all-time in program history in career rushing yards with 3,703. He became only the third player in SEC history to open his career with three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons on the ground, accompanying McFadden and Georgia great Herschel Walker.

Collins' 10 100-yard rushing performances – which led the SEC along with Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry – also included five 150-yard performances to equal McFadden's mark set in 2007. Overall, he racked up 1,577 yards on the ground to rank 12th among FBS running backs.

In the 2016 AutoZone Liberty Bowl, Collins found the end zone for the 20th time on the season to break Arkansas' single-season record that was set in 1969.

Collins also ended the 2015 campaign and his collegiate career ranked second in 100-yard games (17) and fourth in rushing touchdowns (36).

UNCOMMON

Despite suffering a season-ending foot injury prior to the vote, senior running back JONATHAN WILLIAMS was elected by his teammates as one of four team captains for the 2015 season.

UNDER 100

The Razorbacks held 12 of their 13 opponents below their season rushing average. Arkansas' defense did not allow a running back to rush for more than 100 yards in regulation. Most notably, the Razorbacks held both LSU's Leonard Fournette (91) and Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry (95) of national champion Alabama below 100 yards rushing. The nation's two leading rushers averaged 162.75 and 147.93 yards respectively.

28 OR LESS

Arkansas has held its opponent to 28 points or less in 19 of 26 games played under defensive coordinator Robb Smith. The Razorbacks are 13-6 when allowing 28 points or less since Smith joined the program prior to the 2014 season.

THE BUFFET BUSTERS

All five starters of the offensive line were featured on the cover of the 2015 media guide. The five-man front line weighed in at more than 1,600 pounds and was the largest offensive line of any NFL or Power 5 team for the second straight season.

PROTECTING THE PRECIOUS JEWEL

The Razorback offensive line led the SEC in fewest sacks allowed for the third straight year (14.0). Arkansas also was one of only 12 teams nationally that allowed 14.0 or fewer sacks. Arkansas has not allowed a sack in 15 of 38 games played under head coach Bret Bielema. All five starting offensive lineman finished the season with an overall grade of at least 72 percent. Senior left guard Sebastian Tretola led the way with a grade of 77 percent over 901 plays.

THE BEST TIGHT END IN THE NATION

Hunter Henry led all FBS tight ends with 739 receiving yards on 51 receptions – each career highs – and hauled in three touchdown passes during the 2015 season en route to winning the John Mackey Award and being named a consensus first team All-American. Henry earned first team All-America nods from four of the five outlets used to determine which players receive consensus status – American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Associated Press (AP), Sporting News and the Walter Camp Football Foundation (WCFF). The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) was the only outlet to not name Henry first team All-America as the organization did not name a tight end to either of its teams.

TEAM CAPTAINS

The players voted and elected their own team captains prior to the season. Despite suffering a season-ending injury prior to the vote, senior running back Jonathan Williams was elected by his teammates along with senior quarterback Brandon Allen, junior linebacker Brooks Ellis and junior defensive lineman JaMichael Winston. With Williams not on the field for every game, Arkansas presented the fourth captaincy to another player most weeks. Arkansas' rotating captains during the 2015 season are listed below.

NO. 18 ARKANSAS 48, UTEP 13

GAME 1
SEPT. 5, 2015 | FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 67,708 | TV: ESPNU

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. — With new offensive coordinator Dan Enos calling the plays for the first time since leaving his job as head coach at Central Michigan, quarterback Brandon Allen was at his best — and most efficient — in leading No. 18 Arkansas to a 48-13 win over UTEP in the season opener.

Allen threw for a career-high 308 yards and matched his best with four touchdown passes, doing so while completing 14 of 18 passes.

Keon Hatcher caught two of Allen's touchdown passes, finishing with six catches for 106 yards, but it was Allen who shined the brightest while extending his streak of pass attempts without an interception to 108.

That's the second-best streak of his career, following a stretch of 116 passes without an interception last season.

Aaron Jones led the Miners with 15 carries for 70 yards rushing, but UTEP was unable to overcome a series of second-half miscues in the blowout loss.

The Miners were outgained 490-204 in total yardage, with quarterback Mack Leftwich finishing 9-of-14 passing for 120 yards. The sophomore, however, opened the second half by throwing an interception, and UTEP's next two drives ended with poor snaps on punt attempts, leading to quality field position for Arkansas.

Following the interception and first of the bad snaps, Arkansas needed only two plays to score a pair of touchdowns to open the second half.

Alex Collins, who finished with 127 yards rushing on 12 carries, had the first from 7 yards out, while Kody Walker ran in from 3 yards out to put the Razorbacks up 42-10.

Allen threw for touchdowns on each of Arkansas' first four drives of the game, including a perfectly placed 38-yard touchdown pass to Hatcher late in the second quarter. He also connected with Drew Morgan and Jared Cornelius for scores during the half, in which he finished 10-of-13 passing for 256 yards.

GAME 2
SEPT. 12, 2015 | LITTLE ROCK, ARK.
WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 49,591 | TV: SECN ALT.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK. — Arkansas fell to Toledo 16-12 at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Brandon Allen had another impressive day. He finished the game 32-of-53 with 412 yards through the air. The 412 passing yards was the third highest single-game total in Razorback history.

However, Allen and the offense struggled to put points on the board. His one interception came in the third quarter when Toledo picked him off in the back of the endzone after his intended receiver fell down.

Alex Collins had 54 of Arkansas' 103 yards on the ground, totaling 20 carries and one touchdown.

Hunter Henry caught eight passes for 117 yards, the third 100-yard receiving game of his career.

Defensively, Henre' Toliver led the team with eight total tackles and had one tackle for loss.

Toledo scored first on a 5-yard pass from Phillip Ely, a transfer from Alabama, to Corey Jones that gave the Rockets a 6-0 lead after a failed two point conversion attempt.

Arkansas responded in the second quarter with a 21-yard run by Collins to cap an eight-play, 89-yard drive that gave the Razorbacks their only lead of the afternoon.

Toledo kicked a field goal with 1:06 left in the half to take a 9-7 lead into halftime.

After Arkansas stalled on its first drive of the second half, the Razorback defense forced a three-and-out. Jared Cornelius had a long punt return for a touchdown but a penalty called the return back and an interception left the Razorbacks with an empty drive.

The Rockets extended their lead to 16-7 later in the third quarter after a Jones-Moore 11 yard run.

Arkansas kicked a field goal and Toledo took an intentional safety, giving the Razorbacks one more chance with 52 seconds left in the game. Allen led the offense down to the Rockets' 16-yard line where Toledo's defense stood strong, keeping Arkansas out of the endzone as time expired.

SEPT. 19, 2015 | FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 73,334 | TV: ESPN2

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. — The Razorbacks got the ground game rolling again behind the 170-yard effort from Alex Collins on 28 carries, but it wasn't enough in a 35-24 loss to Texas Tech at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Freshman running back Rawleigh Williams III was able to grind out 31 yards on eight carries.

Brandon Allen had another efficient day from the pocket, completing 16 of 21 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns.

Arkansas started the day with its first three-and-out series of the season. Texas Tech went 77 yards in eight plays to take a 7-0 lead early in the game.

Arkansas bounced back and was able to tie the game at 21 just before halftime with a 24-yard touchdown reception by Drew Morgan.

Arkansas kept it a one-possession game until the beginning of the fourth quarter. After a 22-yard field goal from Cole Hedlund to cut the Texas Tech lead to four, Tech drove 83 yards on nine plays to expand their lead to 35-24.

The two teams combined for over 900 yards of offense and just one punt.

Hunter Henry scored on a 7-yard pass from Allen in the second quarter.

Texas Tech outgained the Razorbacks 486-424 in total yardage but Arkansas was able to control the ball most of the game by possessing it for 36:43.

Arkansas' defense did force two interceptions but was not able to force Texas Tech to punt the entire game.

Morgan led all Razorback receivers with four receptions for 45 yards.

ATTENDANCE: 67,339 | TV: ESPN

ARLINGTON, TEXAS — Arkansas fell to Texas A&M at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, in overtime for the second year in a row.

Brandon Allen went 20 of 25 through the air, a season-high completion percentage (.800), for 225 yards and one touchdown and one interception.

Alex Collins ran for 151 yards on 26 carries and one touchdown. Freshman running back and North Texas native Rawleigh Williams III ran for 46 yards on eight carries and one touchdown as well.

Arkansas outgained Texas A&M in total yardage 457 to 423.

The Razorback rush defense was stout by only allowing the Aggies to 65 rushing yards on 20 carries. The defense was able to get into the backfield and record two sacks while also picking up five tackles for loss.

Arkansas got on the board first late in the first quarter on a 17-yard touchdown strike from Allen to Drew Morgan. Texas A&M quickly responded on a 44-yard catch and run touchdown by Christian Kirk to tie the game at seven early into the second quarter.

Texas A&M was able to get a 23-yard field goal before half to send it into halftime, 10-7 Texas A&M.

The Aggies came out to start the second half on a 6:56 drive that resulted in a 22-yard field goal and gave the Aggies a 13-7 lead. Arkansas was able to answer on a 4-yard touchdown run by Collins to take a 14-13 lead. The Hogs got the ball back and scored early in the fourth quarter on a Rawleigh Williams 3-yard touchdown run to extend the lead to 21-13.

With 4:11 left in the game, Texas A&M started on its own 15-yard line. The Aggies drove 85 yards in 1:21 to make it 21-19. A&M went for two and converted on a Josh Reynolds reception from Kyle Allen to tie the game 21-21. Texas A&M got the ball back with 1:04 left in the game after forcing a fumble. Aggie kicker Taylor Bertolet missed a 38-yard field goal to send the game to overtime.

In overtime, Texas A&M got the ball first and went 25 yards in two plays capped off by a 20-yard touchdown strike to Christian Kirk from Kyle Allen to take a 28-21 lead. Arkansas got the ball and the game came down to a fourth-and-4 situation. Brandon Allen's pass to Drew Morgan was broken up by De'Vaunte Harris to end the game.

ATTENDANCE: 101,265 | TV: ESPN2

KNOXVILLE, TENN. — The Razorbacks went to Knoxville, Tennessee and beat the Volunteers, 24-20, in front of a 100,000-plus person crowd.

Brandon Allen went 11 of 24 in the air for 219 yards and one touchdown.

Alex Collins led the way on the ground for the Hogs with 154 yards on 27 carries. True freshman Rawleigh Williams III recorded the first 100-yard game of his career with 100 rushing yards on 14 carries.

Drew Morgan had a big day with 110 yards receiving with five catches, topping the 100-yard plateau for the second consecutive week.

Arkansas' defense was led by freshman linebacker Dre Greenlaw. Greenlaw recorded 10 tackles, one tackle for loss and one quarterback hurry. Defensive lineman Tevin Beanum had five tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss, and one fumble recovery.

Tennessee started the game with a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Arkansas stalled on its first possession and Tennessee got the ball back with a 7-0 lead.

Tennessee proceeded to drive 89 yards in 3:23 on 11 plays to take a 14-0 lead early in the game. Arkansas responded with a 75-yard drive of its own on four plays capped off with a Collins 4-yard touchdown run.

Early in the second, Allen found Dominique Reed for a 33-yard touchdown reception. It was Reed's first as a Razorback.

The Vols and Hogs traded field goals later in the second to send the game into halftime tied at 17.

Arkansas was able to take its first drive in the second half down the field and score on a 1-yard run by Alex Collins to take a 24-17 lead.

The Razorback defense only gave up 90 yards in the second half and was able to hold Tennessee to a lone field goal, giving Arkansas a 24-20 victory.

TUSCALOOSA, ALA. — No. 8 Alabama defeated Arkansas 27-14 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

For the fifth time this season, Arkansas limited its opponent to their lowest scoring output of the year, but struggled to find its rhythm on offense. The Razorbacks manufactured just 220 yards of total offense to Alabama's 396.

Defensively, junior linebacker Brooks Ellis led the way for the Razorbacks, posting a career-high 15 tackles (13 solo), including 2.5 for loss.

Alabama out-gained Arkansas 204-77 in the first half, but the Razorbacks led 7-3 due to quality defense and a timely turnover.

In Alabama's first two drives, the Crimson Tide marched inside the Arkansas 10 both times. But the Razorback defense held strong, allowing only a field goal on the opening drive.

On Alabama's third possession, Arkansas defensive back Josh Liddell intercepted Jake Coker at the Arkansas 31. However, the Razorbacks were unable to capitalize on the turnover.

With 2:26 remaining in the half, redshirt freshman Santos Ramirez picked off Coker, and the Razorbacks took over at the Alabama 12-yard line. This time, Arkansas made the Crimson Tide pay.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen found junior wide receiver Drew Morgan wide open in the middle of the end zone for an easy 4-yard touchdown pass.

The defensive battle continued for the first 13 and a half minutes of the third quarter, but momentum quickly shifted Alabama's way when Coker threw an 81-yard touchdown pass to freshman wide receiver Calvin Ridley to give the Crimson Tide a 10-7 lead with 1:39 remaining in the quarter.

Alabama followed up with scoring drives on three of its next four possessions to extend its lead 27-7.

With 2:44 left in the contest, Arkansas put together a five-play, 74-yard drive that resulted in a 54-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Dominique Reed.

But that would be all for the Razorbacks as the Crimson Tide went on to win 27-14.

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. — Behind an electric crowd of 72,008 and a clutch performance by senior quarterback Brandon Allen, Arkansas downed Auburn, 54-46, in four overtimes at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

On two occasions, Arkansas' fate came down to one play. Allen answered the call on both. The second was the game winner — a 25-yard strike to junior wide receiver Drew Morgan followed by a successful two-point conversion in the fourth overtime.

Allen finished the day 19-of-31 with 233 yards, three touchdowns and one interception while running back Alex Collins grounded out 105 yards and one touchdown on 25 carries.

Arkansas wasted little time finding the end zone on the game's opening drive. Two rushes by Collins and three first-down grabs by Hunter Henry for 52 yards helped set up an end around to Dominique Reed for an 11-yard score.

Arkansas went up 14-0 when Allen guided the Razorbacks on a 10-play, 60-yard drive that ended in a 23-yard scoring toss to junior tight end Jeremy Sprinkle.

A 7-yard rushing touchdown by Collins at the 2:14 mark in the third quarter broke a 14-14 tie and also moved Collins into sole possession of 10th place on the school's career rushing touchdowns list.

With a tied game down the stretch Arkansas took a 24-21 lead with a 25-yard Cole Hedlund field goal with 1:07 remaining in the game. However, Auburn moved the ball into Arkansas territory and kicker Daniel Carson booted through a 41-yard field goal to tie things up again and ultimately send it to overtime.

In the first overtime, Auburn got the ball first, went 25 yards on three plays and capped its drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Peyton Barber. For Arkansas, on fourth and three and the game on the line, Allen zipped a 6-yard touchdown pass to Morgan while Hedlund followed with the PAT to even the score.

Both teams exchanged touchdowns in the second and third overtimes and were also successful on the two-point conversion in the third.

On the first play of the fourth overtime, Allen connected with Morgan for a 25-yard go-ahead touchdown pass that would be the game winner.

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. — Behind a career-high five-touchdown performance and a 173-yard outing by junior running back Alex Collins, Arkansas took down UT Martin 63-28 in Saturday's Homecoming affair at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

The win improved Arkansas' record to 4-4.

With his impressive performance, Collins surpassed Cedric Cobbs (26) for fifth in program history with 28 rushing touchdowns for his career. The Fort Lauderdale, Florida, native also moved into fourth place on the school's all-time rushing list with 3,086 yards, surpassing Felix Jones' total of 2,956 set from 2005-07. Additionally, Collins broke the 100-yard rushing barrier for the 13th time in his career, which tied Jones for fourth in the school record books.

Arkansas outgained UT Martin in the first half by 10 yards. Interceptions by Rohan Gaines and Brooks Ellis proved to be difference makers.

Brandon Allen, who was 11-of-15 for 186 yards and one touchdown in the first half, marched the Razorbacks down the field on their first scoring chance, capping the 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Collins. It was the second week in a row that Arkansas scored on its opening drive.

Allen finished the day 14-of-19 with 265 yards and two touchdowns.

The senior signal caller moved past both Casey Dick (5,856) and Matt Jones (5,857) for career passing yards and is now fourth all-time with 6,057.

At the half, the Razorbacks led 35-14.

Arkansas would eventually add four more touchdowns to its ledger, ending its scoring with a 35-yard touchdown pass from sophomore quarterback Austin Allen to Jeremy Sprinkle at the 14:08 mark in the fourth quarter.

Defensively, Dre Greenlaw paced the Razorbacks in tackles for the fourth time in six starts with 10, and the Razorbacks had two interceptions in a game for the third time this season.

ATTENDANCE: 60,680 | TV: CBS

OXFORD, MISS. — Behind the arm of senior quarterback Brandon Allen and his career-high 442 passing yards and six touchdowns, Arkansas took down No. 19 Ole Miss 53-52 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Tied 38-38 with 10:30 left in the contest, Ole Miss forced the Razorbacks to punt for the first time in their previous five drives and the Rebels took advantage of the stop. Ole Miss quarterback Chad Kelly led the Rebel offense 81 yards down the field in six plays, capping the drive with an 18-yard go-ahead scoring toss to junior wide receiver Quincy Adeboyejo.

But Allen and the Razorbacks responded. The senior signal caller connected with Dominique Reed for a 17-yard game-tying touchdown with 53 seconds left.

After the Rebels turned it over on downs on the ensuing possession, the Razorbacks attempted a 47-yard game-winning field goal, but it was blocked by Ole Miss defensive back Tony Bridges, sending the contest to overtime.

It took the Rebels just three plays to find the end zone in the first overtime period to take a 52-45 lead.

Facing a fourth-and-25, tight end Hunter Henry reeled in a 14-yard pass from Allen, then flipped the ball backwards as he was being tackled. Running back Alex Collins picked it up and ran it 26 yards to the Ole Miss 11 for a first down, extending the game.

Two plays later, Allen connected with junior wide receiver Drew Morgan in the end zone for Morgan's third touchdown reception of the contest.

Head coach Bret Bielema decided to go for two. Allen was sacked on the initial attempt, but a facemask penalty against Ole Miss would give the Razorbacks another chance.

On the second two-point conversion attempt, Allen dove into the end zone on a 1-yard keeper to lift the Razorbacks to a 53-52 victory.

BATON ROUGE, LA. — In front of an electric crowd of 101,699, Arkansas knocked off No. 9 LSU 31-14 at Tiger Stadium, keeping the Golden Boot for the second straight year.

The win improved the Razorbacks to 6-4 overall and 4-2 in league play, making them bowl eligible for the second consecutive season.

Arkansas manufactured 440 yards of total offense and limited LSU to 330. Credit the defense, which sacked LSU quarterback Brandon Harris five times and harassed him into throwing one interception.

Senior quarterback Brandon Allen finished the day completing nine of his 16 passes for 141 yards and a touchdown, while Arkansas also grounded out 299 rushing yards. Junior running back Alex Collins was responsible for a bulk of the damage with 141 yards on 16 carries, followed by Kody Walker with 88.

With his production, Collins surpassed Dickey Morton (3,317) for third in program history with 3,335 rushing yards for his career. The Fort Lauderdale native has now eclipsed the 100-plus yard mark on the ground in 8-of-10 games this season, which is the second-most in a single season in program history behind Darren McFadden's 10 in 2007.

The Razorbacks jumped out to an early 7-0 lead with 8:06 left in the first quarter after Allen threw a 52-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Dominique Reed.

After holding LSU scoreless on the ensuing possession, Collins exploded for a season-long 80-yard touchdown run, putting him over 100 yards on the ground for an SEC-leading eighth time this year.

The Razorbacks got the ball back after Greenlaw forced a fumble that was recovered and returned to the LSU 11 by Brooks Ellis. It took Collins just two plays to break through into the end zone and extend Arkansas' lead to 21-0 at the 3:55 mark in the second quarter.

With just over 10 minutes remaining and Arkansas holding a 24-14 lead, sophomore wide receiver Jared Cornelius broke off a career-long 69-yard touchdown run to make it 31-14.

Looking to trim the deficit, LSU marched down to the Arkansas 11, but junior defensive back DJ Dean picked off LSU's Harris in the end zone to essentially close the door.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — In a scoring frenzy that featured several ties and lead changes, Arkansas fell 51-50 to Mississippi State at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Despite the setback, Brandon Allen turned in another incredible performance. The senior signal caller had scoring throws of 20, 5, 9, 3, 39, 10 and 18 yards, and finished 30-of-43 passing for 406 yards, becoming just the second player in SEC history to throw seven touchdowns in a league game.

Allen broke his own single-game passing touchdown record of six that he set earlier this season at Ole Miss. His seven touchdown passes also gave him 63 for his career, snapping the school record of 62 set by Ryan Mallett.

Jeremy Sprinkle and Hunter Henry, the SEC's leading tight end corps, hauled in five of Allen's seven touchdown passes. Sprinkle paced the Razorbacks with three touchdown receptions while Henry reeled in two touchdowns on a team-high 129 yards receiving.

Defensively, five Razorbacks tallied eight or more tackles. Junior linebacker Brooks Ellis had a career-high 15 stops while sophomore defensive back Kevin Richardson recorded 10 tackles and made his first career interception.

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. — Highlighted by junior running back Alex Collins' 130 rushing yards and three touchdowns, Arkansas rolled past Missouri, 28-3, on Senior Day at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

The Razorbacks manufactured 310 yards of total offense while holding the Tigers to just 171 yards.

Collins' 130 yards rushing marked his sixth 100-yard game in SEC action, equaling Darren McFadden's program record set in 2007. He leads the SEC with nine 100-yard rushing games this season, and his 17 touchdowns are tied for second-most in Arkansas single-season history and fourth-most currently in the FBS. Collins also moved past Ben Cowins for sole possession of fourth in Arkansas history with 33 career rushing touchdowns.

The Razorbacks took a 21-3 advantage over the Tigers into halftime. Collins found the end zone three times in the first half on runs of 4, 7 and 25 yards while the defense held Missouri to just 93 yards of total offense, surrendering only a 35-yard field goal.

Arkansas extended its lead 28-3 when junior running back Kody Walker capped a five-play 34-yard drive with a 9-yard touchdown run at the 2:33 mark in the third quarter.

Defensively, the Razorbacks held strong throughout the second half, forcing four punts, one turnover on downs and one interception while allowing just 78 yards en route to a 28-3 victory.

MEMPHIS, TENN. – Alex Collins ran for 185 yards and three touchdowns and Arkansas capped its late-season surge with a 45-23 victory over Kansas State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Ranked 18th to open the season, Arkansas stumbled through a 1-3 start that knocked the Razorbacks out of the Top 25. Arkansas (8-5) turned things around and won six of its last seven games.

Collins overwhelmed Kansas State's defense in front of a sellout crowd of 61,136, the fourth-largest crowd in the game's 57-year history.

Kansas State (6-7) finished a season below .500 for the first time since Bill Snyder began his second stint as coach in 2009.

Brandon Allen was 20-of-26 for 315 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Kansas State's Kody Cook, starting at quarterback for the first time, went 12-of-24 for 163 yards with a touchdown.

Collins had touchdown runs of 22 yards and 13 yards in the first 17 minutes. He also had a 68-yard burst on his first kickoff return of the season, which set up Jared Cornelius' 13-yard touchdown on an end around.

Kansas State trailed 31-23 late in the third quarter and appeared ready to make a stop when Arkansas knocked out the Wildcats with a one-two punch.

Facing third-and-13, Allen found All-America tight end Hunter Henry down the left sideline for a 43-yard completion. On the next play, Collins spun away from a couple of defenders, eluded the grasp of a third and dragged a couple more into the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown.

The game pitted two friends and former colleagues against each other. Arkansas coach Bret Bielema worked as an assistant coach on Snyder's Kansas State staff from 2002-03.
