TEAM DALY WINS PNC

- Current Razorback freshman John Daly II and his father John Daly, a former Razorback All-American and two-time major champion, teamed up to win the 2021 PNC Championship with a record-setting, 36-hole score of -27 to hoist the coveted Willie Park winner's belts..
- Team Daly birdied the last hole to hold off a charge from Team Woods, Tiger and his son Charlie.
- Team Daly started the final day one stroke back after an opening-round 12-under par round. The Dalys shot a final-round 57 (-15 with 13 birdies and an eagle). Team Woods carded a par on the final hole to be the clubhouse leaders before Team Daly sank a birdie for the two-stroke win.
- The 36-hole total of 27-under 117 broke the previous tournament scoring record set by Davis Love III/Dru Love in 2018 by one stroke.
- Part of Team Daly was senior Razorback All-American Julian Perico, who served as caddy for the elder Daly.

LEGENDS OF THE FALL / SPRING FORWARD

- Arkansas is coming off perhaps its best fall campaign.
  ^ 4 events, 4 Top 3's 2 wins – a 2nd – a 3rd
  ^ Won its own Blessings Collegiate Invitational and followed it with a win at the inaugural SEC Match Play.
  ^ Luke Long won his first collegiate event, a 3-shot victory at the Blessings Collegiate ^ Mateo Fernandez de Oliveira won his first collegiate event, a playoff at the Jackson T. Stephens Cup.
- Despite the fall team success, three Razorbacks are playing better in the spring compared to last fall.
  ^ Wil Gibson Fall 2021: 74.00 Spring 2022: 72.17
  ^ Luke Long Fall 2021: 71.67 Spring 2022: 71.06
  ^ Segundo Oliva Pinto Fall 2021: 72.63 Spring 2022: 71.61

LONG GETS 1ST CAREER WIN

- Luke Long has had a solid collegiate career – leading his team in scoring three times, having six top-5 finishes and earning All-Region honors – but he had never won an event.
- That all changed when he won the Blessings Collegiate Invitational.
  ^ Long is a Fayetteville native and the event played on Arkansas' home course – Blessing Golf Club.
  ^ In addition, the Blessings has served as Long's home course growing up as well.
- Long, who led after each day, was even at the turn in the final round with two birdies and two bogeys. He then birdied holes 10 and 11 and looked to be in control. However, after back-to-back bogeys combined with a hole-in-one by Mateo Fernandez de Oliveira cut Long's lead to one through 14 holes. Long answered by chipping in for eagle on the par-5, 15th and held on for the 3-stroke win.
- Long is playing at his fourth school in six years (thanks to a redshirt season and an NCAA-allowed COVID season).
  ^ At each of his previous three schools, Long has led his team in scoring average once.
  - 73.55 as a Frosh at SIU-Edwardsville 73.47 as a Soph at Chattanooga 70.71 as a Junior at Houston

MATEO MAKING HISTORY IN CAREER YEAR

- Mateo Fernandez de Oliveira is having one of the best seasons in Razorback golf.
  ^ He has a chance to set the Arkansas single-season scoring record. He currently sits at 70.89 to rank 3rd. Teammate Julian Perico currently holds the school record by posting a 70.38 average in 2019-20,
- Fernandez de Oliveira won his first collegiate tournament.
  ^ Fired a 2-under-par 70 in all three rounds and was tied for the lead after 54 holes. The junior reeled off three pars in a playoff to seal his first career collegiate win.
  ^ Fernandez de Oliveira entered the final round tied for second and was even at the turn with two bogeys and two birdies. He started his back nine (on hole #1) with three pars before back-to-back birdies on his 13th and 14th holes - the par-3 5th and par-4 5th. The junior had two chances to close out the title in regulation but settled for par on each of his closing two holes.
  ^ Fernandez de Oliveira and Palmer Jackson (Notre Dame) started the playoff on #10. Both had long birdie putts and snuggled them close for tap-in pars. The pair went back to the 10th tee. Once again, the pair settled for pars. The playoff then moved to the 16th hole, a 236-yard par 3. Both players hit in bunkers, Fernandez de Oliveira on the left and Jackson on the right. While Jackson was a little closer, Fernandez de Oliveira had the better angle after their sand shots. In turn, Fernandez de Oliveira sank his 10-foot putt while Jackson missed his.
- In addition, Fernandez de Oliveira's career year includes:
  ^ Being on the Final Fall Fred Haskins Award and Ben Hogan Award (February 2022) watch lists.
  ^ Recording his first three career top-5 finishes (1st at Stephens Cup, 2nd at Blessings, 3rd at Carmel Cup)
  ^ Winning the South America Amateur
  ^ Finishing runner-up at the Latin America Amateur
  - Gaining exemption into the final rounds of qualifying for the 2022 US Open and 2022 The Open Championship
  ^ Carding his first EVER career hole-in-one (in the final round of the Blessings Collegiate)
  ^ Ranking 10th on the order of merit for the 2022 Arnold Palmer Cup

LOZADA MISSES FALL, REJOINS TEAM FOR SPRING (BUT REDSHIRTING)

- Manuel Lozada had an impressive freshman campaign last season.
  ^ He was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team and led the team with an opening-round 69 at the NCAA Championship.
- Then, in the summer, Lozada tied for fourth at the Dogwood Invitational. He then went home (Argentina) for the remainder of the summer. In late August, Lozada broke his leg, in addition to other injuries, after a motorcycle accident. He was forced to miss the fall golf season, staying home in Argentina.
- Lozada began playing competitive golf in Argentina again in late November. As the calendar flipped to 2022, he played in both the South America Amateur – finishing 20th – and the Latin America Amateur – finishing 43rd.
- He returned to the Razorbacks for the team's spring opener at Arizona, but still needed medical clearance before playing with the team.
- Overall, it was decided that Lozada would redshirt this season.
