FAST BREAK POINTS

- On a quest to secure its first road victory of the season as well as its first triumph over an SEC program in almost a half-century, the Stephen F. Austin men's basketball team travels north to Fayetteville, Ark., for a Thursday night battle with Arkansas inside the walls of Bud Walton Arena. The fifth all-time meeting between the Lumberjacks and Razorbacks will get started at 8:00 p.m. and the game will be televised on the SEC Network.
- Once they tip-off inside the Basketball Palace of Mid-America on Thursday night, the 'Jacks will have done battle with two SEC schools in a single season for the first time in program history. In 2006, SFA faced both Arkansas and Missouri, but at the time Missouri was a member of the Big 12 conference.
- Thanks to a 2-2 record to begin the season, the 'Jacks have finished up their November slate with a mark of .500 or better for the 18th straight year. The last time a Stephen F. Austin men's basketball team wrapped up November with a record below .500 was in 1998-99 when the 'Jacks went 0-3.
- Free throw accuracy has been a strength for the 'Jacks in the early stages of the 2016-17 campaign, and sophomore TJ Holyfield has been one of the biggest reasons why. The Albuquerque, N.M., product is has drilled all 14 of his attempts from the charity stripe and is one of five players in the nation who have not missed a free throw this season.
- SFA's most recent win against an SEC program occurred exactly 46 years ago when it bested Texas A&M 89-82 on Dec. 1, 1970.

FIVE FIGURES

Since Mike Anderson took over as the Razorbacks' bench boss before the start of the 2011-12 season, Arkansas has dominated unranked non-conference opposition at home. The Razorbacks are 50-1 against opponents of that configuration in that span with their only loss coming on Nov. 18, 2015, against Akron out of the MAC.

40.7

Buoyed by the likes of Jaylen Barford and Anton Beard, the Razorbacks have risen to the top of the charts in the SEC in terms of three-point shooting this season. Barford and Beard are both shooting 50-percent from long range and Arkansas' team three-point shooting clip of 40.7-percent leads the SEC and is the 22nd-best in the land.

Through the first five games of the Razorbacks' season, Chris Beard has adopted a reputation as one of the best ball handlers not just in the SEC but in the nation. His assist-to-turnover ratio of 5.33 ranks second among all SEC student-athletes and is the 12th-best number in NCAA Division I men's basketball.

4.0

One of the nation's best defensive players thus far, senior and Preseason SEC Player of the Year choice Moses Kingsley has been busy making life miserable for individuals seeking to score at the basket. A product of Abuja, Nigeria, Kingsley is averaging an SEC-leading 4.0 blocked shots per game. That average is currently the fourth-best in the nation.

Arkansas head coach Mike Anderson was responsible for handing the Lumberjacks one of their 24 losses against current SEC programs. As a first-year head coach at Missouri in the 2006-07 season, Anderson hosted Stephen F. Austin in Columbia, Mo., and directed his Tigers to an 85-56 win over SFA. In that tilt, Antuane Miller pumped in 21 points for the 'Jacks and Josh Alexander added 12 more.

LAST TIME OUT

• Making their first appearance in Fant-Ewing Coliseum since 2010, the Lumberjacks staked Louisiana-Monroe to a lead of as many as 20 points early in the second half before staging a strong comeback attempt that ultimately fell short in a 77-72 setback to the Warhawks on Monday night.

• Integral to the 'Jacks' monster second-half effort was junior guard Ivan Canete who provided 23 of his game and career-high 28 points through the final 20 minutes of action. Canete did the majority of his damage from three-point range, hitting six of his eight tries in the game. Canete became the first SFA player to hit six three-pointers in a game since Demetrious Floyd put in an equal number of long-range buckets in a 104-68 triumph over Houston Baptist in the semifinals of the 2016 Southland Conference Tournament.

• In addition to his high point total, Canete laid claim to new career highs in rebounds (six), assists (five) and three-point field goals made. His six rebounds were a team-high as were his five assists. Those helpers allowed the 'Jacks to submit their highest single-game assist total this season (14).

• Held scoreless through the first three games of his NCAA Division I career, junior Josh Huntley checked in early in the first half and proceeded to go 4-for-5 from the field and added a free throw make in the second half to finish with nine points. The Lauderdale Lakes, Fla., product added four rebounds for SFA as well.

• By way of a 4-for-11 shooting performance, senior guard Dallas Cameron established a new career-high with 15 points. The Pompano Beach, Fla., product added a game-best five assists in 29 minutes of action and was one of three SFA players who finished the game with 10 or more points.

• For the first time this season, freshman Kevon Harris suffered a misfire from the free throw line. Coming into the non-conference tilt, Harris was 9-for-9 at the free throw line but missed the front end of a two-shot try to snap his streak of charity stripe perfection in 2016-17.

• Sophomore TJ Holyfield extended his streak of double-digit scoring efforts to three games by putting in 12 points. That signifies the first time in Holyfield's career in which has put forth 10 or more points in three consecutive contests. The Albuquerque, N.M., product fouled out of the game, marking his second DQ of the season. Holyfield fouled out two of his first four games as a freshman, too.

• After grabbing more rebounds than their opponents in each of their first three games this season, the 'Jacks finished -6 in rebounding against Louisiana-Monroe. It was the first time SFA was out-rebounded by an opponent since March 20, 2016, against Notre Dame in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

• Points in the paint were not difficult to come by for the Warhawks. SFA gave up 40 points in the paint to Louisiana-Monroe and finished at a 40-16 disadvantage in that category. The -24 points in the paint differential for the 'Jacks was their worst since finishing with a -36 figure (48-12) in a 97-55 loss at #21/22 Baylor on Nov. 13, 2015.

• At no point in the game did Stephen F. Austin hold a lead. The last time the 'Jacks never took the lead in a game was back on Nov. 15, 2015, when SFA suffered a 70-60 loss at Northern Iowa as part of ESPN's College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon.

• Through the first 20 minutes of play, the 'Jacks collected nine rebounds compared to 19 by the Warhawks. In the second half, SFA doubled their total to 18 and limited ULM to 14, finishing with a +4 rebounding margin in the frame.

• The five-point loss in Monroe marked the first time since Nov. 24, 2014, that the 'Jacks came up on the wrong end of the scoreboard in a Monday tilt. Coming into their game against the Warhawks, SFA had won 14-straight Monday games since dropping a 67-51 decision at Baylor on the aforementioned date.

• For the first time this season, the 'Jacks connected for 10 or more makes from three-point range. SFA's 12 long range hits represents a season high and marks the 10th time since the start of the 2015-16 season that Stephen F. Austin slung in 10 or more triples. Seven of the 'Jacks' 10 games with 10 or more three-pointers have been at the expense of teams from the state of Louisiana.

• The loss snapped Stephen F. Austin's two-game winning streak against the Warhawks and was also the 'Jacks' first loss against a current Sun Belt program since Jan. 21, 2009, when they fell to UT-Arlington (then in the Southland Conference) by a 52-67 tally. That season marked the first time in program history that the 'Jacks reached the NCAA Tournament.

HOG HITS

- Picked to finish fifth in the race for the SEC title, Arkansas has captured victories in four of its five games to start the 2016-17 season. The Razorbacks' sole setback in that span came at the hands of unranked - and currently undefeated - Minnesota by an 85-71 tally inside Williams Arena in Minneapolis, Minn., on Nov. 22.
- All four of the Razorbacks' wins have come on their home court and the average margin of victory for Arkansas in those games stands at 12.8 points per game.
- The only loss the Razorbacks have experienced against a Southland Conference opponent took place in the 1954-55 season when Arkansas came up on the short end of a 74-68 decision against Northwestern State in Fayetteville, Ark.
- Arkansas is the second team the 'Jacks will face that has made an appearance in the USA Today Coaches Poll. The Razorbacks are receiving votes in the poll for the fourth-straight week and are one of five SEC programs who are either ranked or receiving votes in the latest edition of the poll.

HERE'S LOOKING AT YOU, KID

- One of college basketball's most experienced teams a season ago, the departure of six seniors from the 'Jacks' 2015-16 squad has necessitated the arrival of some new faces.
- In terms of on-court experience, Stephen F. Austin ranks 255th out of 351 NCAA Division I men's basketball teams in Ken Pomeroy's experience listing. Only two teams in the Southland Conference - McNeese and Abilene Christian - are younger than the 'Jacks.

YOU BENCH A LOT, BRO?

- Stephen F. Austin has relied heavily on its brigade of bench players through the early portion of the season. Currently, the 'Jacks are tied for 18th in the nation in terms of minutes played by their bench players (41.5).
- The only other Southland Conference institution which uses bench players more than SFA is Sam Houston State. The Bearkats rank 17th nationally in reserve usage at 41.6 minutes per game.

COOL BOARDERS

- In three of their first four games, the 'Jacks have made it a point to win the rebounding battle.
- SFA has been +8 (Kentucky), +12 (Longwood), +2 (Northeastern State) and -6 (Louisiana-Monroe) on the boards through its first four 2016-17 tilts. The 'Jacks' +12 mark against Longwood served as the team's biggest edge on the glass since a +15 finish in a Southland Conference road win at Northwestern State on March 3, 2016.

NON-CONFERENCE, NON-ISSUE

- In each of its seasons since 2012-13, Stephen F. Austin has posted a record against non-conference opponents at or above .500. Including its 2-2 mark this season, the 'Jacks have produced a 39-13 (.750) record against non-conference foes in that span.

CHARLES BY CHRISTMAS

- Shortly after taking part in the 'Jacks' 2016-17 season opener at No. 2-ranked Kentucky, junior guard Ty Charles suffered a fractured finger. That injury is expected to sideline the Preseason All-Southland Conference Second Team member until SFA's late December trip to Hawaii for the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic.
- The loss of Charles subtracts one of the five remaining players from SFA's 2015-16 squad from its 2016-17 ranks.
- Of the 34 tilts the 'Jacks took part in a season ago, Charles took part in all but one of them and averaged 9.4 points and 4.8 rebounds per game. His 2015-16 scoring average was 2.6 points per game better than the one he produced as a freshman and he succeeded in breaking the double-digit scoring barrier on 13 separate occasions last season.
- Three of those instances were outings of the 20+ point variety, including a career-best 25 on 11-of-12 shooting from the field in a Southland Conference victory over Abilene Christian. Eleven of those 13 double-digit scoring efforts were put forth against Southland Conference competition where Charles averaged 10.1 markers per tilt.
- Charles represents the 'Jacks' top returning scorer, rebounder, assist producer (2.3/game) and steal-getter (1.4/game) from a 2015-16 that went 28-6, captured a third-straight Southland Conference Tournament title and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

TJ CLIMBS THE CHARTS

- Other than seniors Trey Pinkney and Thomas Walkup, only one other member of the 'Jacks' ranks started all 34 games in 2015-16 - freshman forward TJ Holyfield.
- Getting stronger as the season progressed, Holyfield put the finishing touches on his freshman campaign by pumping in a career-high 15 points in Stephen F. Austin's NCAA Tournament second round game against Notre Dame.

- Providing a much-needed defensive presence in the low post, the versatile stretch four blocked 50 shots as a first-year player - good for an average of 1.5 per game.
- Those 50 rejections rank as the third-most in a single season in the 'Jacks' history books and put the sophomore in eighth place on SFA's career blocked shots list. The Albuquerque, N.M., product needs to rack up eight more to move into fifth place all-time in program history.
- This season, Holyfield ranks third in the Southland Conference and 40th in the nation with 2.25 blocked shots per game. Offensively, he is the 'Jacks' leading scorer at 13.8 points per game.

THERE WAS DALLAS, FROM FLORIDA

- No man on the 'Jacks' roster possesses more on-court experience than senior Dallas Cameron, and the Pompano Beach, Fla., product will be looked to in order to provide leadership to a team that is still finding its footing.
- The only four NCAA Division I college basketball players that have a better winning percentage than Cameron over the last three years all play for Villanova. Cameron has won 85-percent of the games he has played in and ranks fifth in SFA's history with 91 career triumphs.

ON THE RISE

- Two things happened in Stephen F. Austin's most recent game at Louisiana-Monroe: the team's number of turnovers decreased and its number of assists increased.
- SFA dished out a season-high 14 assists on 22 made field goals in their setback in the Pelican State. That works out to an assist on 62.6-percent of their baskets - up almost 20-percent from their 48.4-percent of baskets made from an assist through their first three games of the season.

FREE SAMPLES

- A big reason why the 'Jacks have started the 2016-17 campaign with a 2-2 record has been because of their accurate touch at the free throw line.
- In all, 29.6-percent of the 'Jacks' points this season have come from the free throw line. SFA is averaging 20.5 free throw makes per game this season and ranks ninth nationally with a team free throw percentage of 80.4-percent.

CLOSE, BUT STILL A VICTORY CIGAR

- A season ago, many of the final scores for the 'Jacks were not close and in games decided by 10 or fewer points SFA manufactured a record of 4-4.
- In 2016-17, three of SFA's four games have been decided by 10 or fewer points and the 'Jacks are 2-1 in those tilts. Out of the 80 total minutes in SFA's two wins this season, the 'Jacks have led for 31:51, or just under 40-percent of total game time.

A DECADE TO REMEMBER

- With the 2010s almost 60-percent complete, the 'Jacks have found themselves listed among college basketball's elite in that time span.
- Since the 2010-11 season, Stephen F. Austin owns a record of 156-54 which is the best among all NCAA Division I institutions in the state of Texas.
- Breaking that 156-54 mark down even further reveals SFA is in the midst of some elite company. Their winning percentage of .743 through that span is the 15th best among all NCAA Division I college basketball teams.

GOOD WORK, DALLAS

- Senior guard Dallas Cameron recently found himself among a list of 181 NCAA Division I, II, III and NAIA men's basketball players from around the nation who were nominated for the 2017 Allstate NABC Good Works Team.
- Needing just nine more wins to become the fifth player in Stephen F. Austin program history to reach the 100-win plateau, Cameron's inclusion on the list marks the third time in as many seasons in which the 'Jacks have placed a player on the Good Works Team nomination list.
- Over the summer, Cameron embarked on a journey to New Zealand with various other NCAA men's basketball players under the Athletes in Action flag. The purpose of the trip was to spread the word of Christianity through basketball and faith-based meeting with various local groups. Cameron is heavily involved in the SFA chapter of AIA as well.

NEW SHERIFF IN TOWN

- On April 4, 2016, Stephen F. Austin director of athletics Robert Hill introduced Kyle Keller as the head men's basketball coach of the Lumberjacks following the departure of Brad Underwood.

- Keller is just the 12th head coach in the 92-year history of the Lumberjacks' men's basketball program and comes to Nacogdoches following a five-year stint as one of the nation's premier recruiting talents at Texas A&M.
- With Keller helping to helm things in College Station, the Aggies made a return trip to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in five seasons. Thanks to Keller, the Aggies were able to ink four of the top eight players in the state of Texas in their 2015-16 recruiting class.
- While in the tournament, the Aggies advanced to the program's third Sweet Sixteen. It was the first time the squad reached that point since 2006-07.
- All told, Keller has amassed no fewer than 26 years of collegiate coaching experience throughout the Southland Conference, the Sun Belt, the Big 12 and the SEC.
- Keller's assignment as the Lumberjacks' head man is his first NCAA Division I head coaching stop. From 1997-99, he was the head coach of the Tyler Junior College men's basketball team in Tyler, Texas.

TAKING THE 'L' OUT OF THE COLISEUM

- Since it opened its doors as the Lumberjacks' home venue at the start of the 1974 campaign, the William R. Johnson Coliseum has gained a reputation as one of the toughest buildings for visiting opponents to play in throughout all of college basketball.
- Stephen F. Austin has won 30-straight games within the walls of that facility - the fourth-longest active home court winning streak in the nation at the moment. Only Kansas (44 games) and Kentucky (42 games) possess longer active home court win streaks than the Jacks.
- The last time SFA didn't win at the Coliseum was when Northern Iowa captured a 79-77 overtime victory during ESPN's College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon on November 18, 2014.
- When looking only at Southland Conference contests, the Jacks' dominance on their home floor stretches back even farther. No team in the nation owns a longer in-conference winning streak than the 29-game one SFA has constructed against SLC foes and the last time a league opponent defeated Stephen F. Austin at home occurred back on February 15, 2012, when UT Arlington exited William R. Johnson Coliseum with a 51-47 win.

ROAD WARRIORS

- Although Stephen F. Austin's nation-leading nine-game road winning streak came to an end in its season-opening loss at No. 2-ranked Kentucky, the Jacks have enjoyed a great deal of success taking their show on the road over the last half-decade.
 - As a matter of fact, no teams in all of college basketball has registered more road wins over the past five seasons than the Jacks. Stephen F. Austin has won 51 road contests in that span, putting it three games up on MVC institution Wichita State for the nation's lead.
- ROAD WINS SINCE 2011-12
1. Stephen F. Austin | 51
 2. Wichita State | 48
 3. Robert Morris | 48
 4. Albany | 47
 5. Bucknell | 46

COLLEGE BASKETBALL'S ELITE

- Already the second-winningest NCAA Division I men's basketball program in the state of Texas since the year 2000, Stephen F. Austin has further distinguished itself as one of the nation's best teams over the course of the past three seasons.
- Defending national champion Villanova is the only NCAA Division I men's basketball program that has a better total winning percentage than the Jacks since 2013-14. In that span, SFA has posted a record of 91-16, good for a winning percentage of .850.
- Since the 2011-12 season, Stephen F. Austin has gone 138-33 - a record that breaks down to a winning percentage of .807. That represents the third-highest winning percentage in all of NCAA Division I men's basketball during that stretch.
- The nation's best in-conference winning percentage since 2012-13 belongs to the Jacks, too. Stephen F. Austin's 59-1 record against Southland Conference opposition works out to a .981 winning percentage.
- Only seven NCAA Division I men's basketball teams have won 25 or more games in each of the past four seasons: Arizona, Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Michigan State, Wichita State and Stephen F. Austin.
- Stephen F. Austin's 89 wins over the last three seasons are the sixth-most in the nation.
- Stephen F. Austin's 136 wins over the last five seasons are the 11th-most in the nation.

MARCH MADNESS AT ITS FINEST

- In their three NCAA Tournament trips in each of the last three seasons, Stephen F. Austin has succeeded in putting quite a scare into higher-digit seeds.
- SFA and Dayton are the only two double-digit seeds in the last three seasons to win at least one game in multiple NCAA Tournaments.
- Stephen F. Austin became the 20th 14-seed to upset a number-three seed in the NCAA Tournament when the Jacks busted up No. 8-ranked West Virginia last March.
- The Jacks' 70-56 win tied the record for largest margin of victory in a 14-seed over three-seed upset.

SHARING, STEALING & SMASHING

- Paging through the 2015-16 NCAA Division I men's basketball statistical rankings could partially reveal how the Jacks were so successful in that season.
- Stephen F. Austin led the nation in three statistical categories last season including scoring margin (+16.9), turnover margin (+6.5) and turnovers forced per game (18.56).
- On the national scene, only Michigan State totaled a better assists per game average than the Jacks. SFA dished out 18.7 assists per game compared to 20.5 per tilt by the Spartans.
- Last season, no team in the nation could brag about a higher in-conference scoring margin than the Jacks. SFA outscored its league opponents by a nation-leading mark of 23.2 points per game.

FEELING BULLISH

- The poster boy of the Jacks' memorable run in March of last season, Thomas Walkup worked his way onto the 2016-17 training camp roster of the NBA's Chicago Bulls.

Thomas Walkup worked his way onto the 2016-17 training camp roster of the NBA's Chicago Bulls. Although he was one of the team's final cuts after training camp, the Pasadena, Texas, product will remain affiliated with the team by playing for its NBA D-League affiliate - the Windy City Bulls - this season.

- Over the summer, Walkup signed a summer league contract with the NBA's defending Western Conference titleholders - Golden State - and took part in all but one of the team's NBA Summer League engagements.
- A grand total of eight Stephen F. Austin men's basketball players have heard their name called in the NBA Draft, and even though Walkup was not the ninth he still stands a chance to become the ninth player in program history to earn a spot on an NBA roster. The most notable Lumberjack to parlay his college experience into an NBA career is James Silas who enjoyed a 10-year career with the San Antonio Spurs and the Cleveland Cavaliers from 1972-82. Silas' number 13 was the first number the Spurs retired.

PARITY IN THE POLLS

- Perhaps not quite the polling shakeup that transpired in the United States during the 2016 presidential election, there was a new Southland Conference preseason favorite for the first time since 2014 when the league unveiled its preseason prognostications for the 2016-17 campaign.
- Coming off their fourth-straight Southland Conference regular season title and third consecutive Southland Conference Tournament championship, the Jacks' were selected to finish second in both the coaches and sports information directors' polls. Sam Houston State was picked to finish ahead of the Lumberjacks by one point in the coaches poll (138-137) and by two points (137-135) in the sports information directors' poll.
- Stephen F. Austin collected six first-place votes in the coaches' poll and five in the sports information directors' poll. Texas A&M-Corpus Christi received a single first-place vote in each poll and was listed third in each of them with 123 points.
- Since 2008, Stephen F. Austin has won all six of its Southland Conference titles to bring its program total to 23.
- The Jacks are the owners of the three longest winning streaks in the history of the Southland Conference. From Nov. 26, 2013 until March 23, 2014, SFA rattled off 29-straight wins - the first win streak of 20 or more games in conference history. SFA's most recent stretch of consecutive victories was 21 which occurred from Jan. 2, 2016 until March 20, 2016 and the Jacks round out the league's top three winning streaks with a 19-game stretch from Nov. 27, 2014 until Feb. 14, 2015.

COMING UP NEXT

- For the first time in the month of December, the Jacks will take to their home court at William R. Johnson Coliseum and put their 30-game home court winning streak on the line when Centenary College (La.) comes to town on Saturday. Tip-off is scheduled for 2:00 p.m. and all of the action will be streamed nationwide on ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app with Rob Meyers and Tyler DePascal on the call.

THE DRIVE FOR FIVE

- The 'Jacks made Southland Conference history in the 2015-16 campaign by becoming the first team to capture four consecutive outright regular season crowns. Now, Stephen F. Austin seeks to become the 39th NCAA Division I men's basketball program in history to notch its fifth-straight league title in 2016-17.
- If the 'Jacks are successful in that particular quest, they would be the ninth NCAA Division I men's basketball program in the 21st century to lock up five or more consecutive conference crowns. The following teams have already accomplished that feat since the year 2000:

SCHOOL | YEARS | CONF. TITLES | CONF.

Kansas | 2004-pres. | 12 | Big 12
Gonzaga | 2000-11 | 11 | WCC
Murray State | 2009-15 | 6 | OVC
St. Joseph's | 2000-05 | 5 | A-10
Nevada | 2003-08 | 5 | WAC
Butler | 2006-11 | 5 | Horizon League
Xavier | 2006-11 | 5 | A-10
Harvard | 2010-15 | 5 | Ivy League

FOUR SCORE

- The last four Southland Conference Player of the Year winners have worn Stephen F. Austin colors, making the 'Jacks' men's basketball program one of 22 teams in the history of NCAA Division I men's basketball that have laid claim to four or more consecutive conference player of the year award winners.
- Since the year 2000, five other teams besides Stephen F. Austin have boasted their respective league's player of the year four or more times.

SCHOOL | YEARS | # of CONSECUTIVE CONF. POY WINNERS | CONFERENCE

Texas Southern | 2012-16 | four straight | SWAC

Nevada | 2003-07 | four straight | WAC

Vermont | 2001-05 | four straight | America East Conference

- Putting the Lumberjacks in more rarified air is the fact that the last four Southland Conference Coach of the Year award winners have also sat at the helm of Stephen F. Austin.

- Aside from the Lumberjacks' stretch of four straight years boasting their league's coach of the year, there have been just four other occasions in the history of NCAA Division I men's basketball that has transpired.

■ 2017-18 STEPHEN F. AUSTIN SIGNING CLASS

JACK TO THE FUTURE • CAMERON MACK

• Stephen F. Austin men's basketball coach Kyle Keller continued to add major pieces to the 'Jacks' backcourt of the future when he announced Tuesday that Cameron Mack signed a National Letter of Intent to join SFA's ranks in the 2017-18 campaign.

• Cameron Mack | G | 6-3 | 175 | College Station, Texas | Christian Life Prep

Tabbed as the 33rd-best point guard prospect in the nation and fourth-best in the state of Texas, Mack spurned the advances of collegiate basketball suitors that included Baylor, TCU, Arkansas, Murray State, Tulsa, Louisiana Tech, Old Dominion and Boise State in order to join the 'Jacks' ranks in Nacogdoches. A home schooled product, Mack starred for Aggieland HomeSchool as a junior and led the Panthers to a 46-13 record which included a 10-2 showing in district play. Mack put a magnificent cap on his junior year by guiding the Panthers to a national title with a 101-92 victory over New Way Christian Academy in the National Christian HomeSchool Basketball Championships title game. Through the course of his junior campaign, Mack averaged 19.4 points, 4.3 rebounds, 6.7 assists and 2.3 steals per game.

• Last summer, Mack was one of only 80 individuals from around the nation who received an invite to the Under Armour All-America Basketball Camp in Charlotte, N.C. Additionally, Mack suited up for the Houston Defenders - a select team in the Under Armour Association. In 12 games with the Defenders, the three-star recruit pumped in 11.9 points per game, grabbed 3.5 rebounds per tilt and dished out 6.5 assists per game, assisting the squad in obtaining a 10-2 record.

• For his senior season, the three-star recruit has suited up for Christian Life Preparatory High School in Fort Worth, Texas. While in a Knight uniform, Mack has averaged 29.2 points, 6.5 assists, 5.2 rebounds and 2.4 steals per game, guiding the Knights to the championship game of the St. Thomas High School 2016 Basketball Classic with those figures. In the championship showdown against Global Learning Village, Mack dazzled by pumping in a game-best 41 points - nearly 50-percent of the Panthers' 86-point output in the 93-86 setback.

• What They're Saying About Mack

Christian Life Preparatory High School head coach Eugene Harris:

"Cameron is without question the most explosive guard I've ever coached. He's excellent - just an unselfish player who does anything he needs to in order to help his teammates excel. He is an exceptionally hard worker and is a mentor to the underclassmen on our team and to our international players and he is so excited to continue his basketball career as a Lumberjack.

• Stephen F. Austin head coach Kyle Keller: "This is a great day for our program and we feel very blessed that Cameron has signed on to join us. He possesses elite speed, quickness and athleticism who makes everyone else around him so much better. Cameron plays the game with such great passion on both ends of the court and is an extremely disruptive force on the defensive side of the basketball. Offensively, he can finish in the mid-range game, use his speed and athleticism to get to the basket and is on his way to becoming a really good shooter. I am so excited because I believe his signing really elevates SFA to compete at the highest level against the best of the best. Wade Mason developed a strong relationship with Cameron and his mother and was tireless in his pursuit of a young man who is the complete package."

JACK TO THE FUTURE • SHANNON BOGUES

• Stephen F. Austin head coach Kyle Keller was able to sign his first recruit for the 2017-18 season when McLennan Community College sophomore Shannon Bogues (Killeen, Texas) put pen to paper on a National Letter of Intent to join the 'Jacks' squad for 2017-18 and beyond.

• Shannon Bogues | G | 6-3 | Killeen, Texas | McLennan CC

In order to enter William R. Johnson Coliseum for his last two seasons of collegiate eligibility, Bogues must close the books on his two-year stint with the McLennan Community College Highlanders in 2016-17. While in his first season at the Waco-based NJCAA institution, all Bogues did was help the squad go 30-4 and qualify for the NJCAA DI Men's Basketball Tournament for the first time since 1988. While there, he fired in 19 points in the Highlanders' first-ever tournament win - a wire-to-wire 78-70 victory over Marion Military Institute.

• Bogues raked in the hardware from the North Texas Junior College Athletic Conference as a freshman, capturing the league's Freshman of the Year award and earning a spot on the All-NJCCAC First Team by averaging 16.4 points, 3.8 rebounds and a team-high 3.0 assists per game in conference action.

• In total, Bogues took part in all 34 of the Highlanders' 2015-16 tilts and quickly made a name for himself a lights-out long range threat. He averaged 16.1 points, 3.7 rebounds and a team-best 2.9 assists per game while shooting an impressive 66.2-percent (92-for-139) from three-point distance.

• Five games into the Eagles' 2016-17 campaign, Bogues has played in every contest and is piling up points at a rate of 19.4 per game in just 28.4 minutes of action per tilt. Bogues' shooting numbers are impressive as well, as he boasts a 45.7-percent (32-of-70) success rate among all field goal attempts and a 45.8-percent (11-of-24) hit rate from three-point land. The sophomore sits second among the Eagles' ranks in assists per game (2.2) and leads the squad in steals per game (1.4). Additionally, Bogues has brought 3.0 rebounds per game to the table thus far.

• What They're Saying About Bogues

Kevin Gill | McLennan Community College head basketball coach:

"Shannon is a special player because he can play both the point and the wing at a high level. He knows what he needs to do when he needs to do it; he can score when he has to and if he has to put the ball on the deck and handle it he can do that, too. There aren't many players that can do what he can do with the basketball. Shannon has a strong mid-range game and we have to rely on our sophomores to be leaders on this team. That is something Shannon has embraced and I'm looking forward to seeing him play at a DI school with the tradition and notoriety that Stephen F. Austin has."

• Stephen F. Austin head coach Kyle Keller: "We are so excited about Shannon joining our program. He fills a need we have for an experienced guard that is a dual threat as a high-level offensive player and a tough defender. Last season he was an all-region player and he has a good chance to be a junior college All-American this year. Shannon will provide leadership and toughness immediately and we expect him to do great things at SFA. Our assistant head coach Jeremy Cox has built a great relationship with McLennan Community College and that helped us get to know Shannon. We're fortunate that Shannon chose SFA and he is the type of player our fans will enjoy getting to know on and off the court."

JACK TO THE FUTURE • STEFON FISHER

• The first two additions of the Stephen F. Austin men's basketball team's 2017-18 recruiting class addressed needs for the 'Jacks' backcourt. With its third, SFA's focus shifted to adding some bulk to its front line.

• Head coach Kyle Keller announced that Washington, D.C., native Stefon Fisher became the third member of Stephen F. Austin's 2017-18 recruiting class after signing his National Letter of Intent earlier in the day.

• Stefon Fisher | 6-9 | 230 | Washington, D.C. | Oldsmar Christian (Fla.)

For his final season of pre-collegiate basketball deployment, Fisher makes the long journey from his native Washington, D.C., to Oldsmar, Fla., to play for Oldsmar Christian School.

• As a junior at IDEA Public Charter School in the Washington, D.C., area, Fisher took part in 23 contests for a 23-15 Timberwolves' squad that took off on a run to the semifinals of the 2016 DCSAA Boys Basketball Championship. That season, the forward averaged 12.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game on the strength of 55.8-percent field goal shooting.

• Over the summer, Fisher was one of 11 prep players from around the Washington D.C., area who were selected to play for the Under Armour Association's D.C. Blue Devils.

• Prior to his days at IDEA Public Charter School, Fisher suited up at Montrose Christian Academy in Rockville, Md. Montrose owns a national reputation as a prep basketball powerhouse after producing notable NBA players Linas Kleiza, Terrence Ross, Greivis Vasquez and Kevin Durant.

• No fewer than 12 NCAA Division I men's basketball programs made a run at Fisher, including the scholarship offers from Kansas State, Creighton, Illinois State, Kent State, UTSA and UNC-Wilmington before the forward ultimately chose SFA.

• Fisher and the rest of his Oldsmar Christian compatriots are set to ring in their 2016-17 campaign on Monday, Nov. 21 when the Eagles face off against Husdon.

• What they're saying about Fisher:

Oldsmar Christian head coach John Bianchi: "This is the first young man that has committed under Oldsmar Christian since I have taken over as the head coach of the program. Stefon is a special talent with a special future who will be a great college player and a huge key for us this year to try and win a state championship."

Stephen F. Austin head coach Kyle Keller: "We continue go grow our fall signee class with a different and unique piece in Stefon Fisher. This young man has a big body and is a skilled player that has the ability to score around the basket but can also step out and make jump shots if need be. Stefon will have tremendous success at SFA and is another player that fits the style and the way we want to play with his size and talents. My staff continues to amaze me, and in particular Derrick Jones did a wonderful job of building a great relationship with Stefon, his mother, and the coaching staff at one of the best high school programs in the country in Oldsmar Christian."

KYLE KELLER

HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON | OKLAHOMA STATE, '90 | RECORD: 2-2 (.500)

Kyle Keller was named the 12th head coach of the Stephen F. Austin men's basketball team on Monday, April 4, 2016. "Kyle brings a wealth of experience having worked for great coaches like Eddie Sutton, Bill Self and Billy Kennedy. This experience will fit well to continue our SFA basketball culture of winning championships and making NCAA tournament appearances," SFA director of athletics Robert Hill said at Keller's introductory press conference. "He cares deeply for his players and is a wonderful husband and father. We are so happy he has agreed to become a Lumberjack. I look forward to having our fans and students get to know him."

In March of 2016, Keller wrapped up his fifth season as an assistant coach on head coach Billy Kennedy's staff at Texas A&M, bringing his grand total of coaching experience to an even 25 years at locations also including Kansas, Oklahoma State, Louisiana Tech and Texas-San Antonio.

The final season of his half-decade of service on the Aggies' bench also coincided with the squad's return to the NCAA Tournament following a five-year absence. Led on the hardwood by the likes of Jalen Jones, Danuel House and a host of others, Texas A&M matched the program's best run in the national tournament by advancing to the Sweet Sixteen for the third time ever and the first time since 2007.

His new assignment as the Lumberjacks' head man is his first such job at the NCAA Division I level. Keller served as the head coach at Tyler Junior College for the 1997-98 and 1998-99 campaigns.

Keller's name is one synonymous with success on the recruiting trail as the Dallas, Texas, native has established a reputation of one of the nation's best in that particular area. That standing was validated in a major way in 2015 when the Aggies roped in four of the top eight players in the state of Texas, giving the SEC program a consensus top-ten class. Since 2013, the tireless efforts on the part of Keller have resulted in seven ESPN Top 100 players inking with Texas A&M.

Some 21 former pupils of the long-tenured assistant have played or are currently playing in the NBA. A 13-year fixture on the sidelines in the solid Big 12 Conference before A&M's move to the SEC, Keller has been a part of five conference titles, nine NCAA Tournament runs, three Elite Eight appearances and a trip to the Final Four in 2004.

During Keller's tenure in College Station, the Aggies have seen 10 players garner all-conference accolades including a trio of First-Team All-SEC selections in Elston Turner in 2013, Danuel House in 2015 and Jalen Jones in 2016.

In his three seasons in Lawrence, Keller was on staff for 95 wins, three straight Big 12 regular-season championships (2009, 2010, 2011) and two Big 12 postseason championships (2010, 2011). KU entered the 2010 NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed and advanced to the Elite Eight. While he was on staff at Kansas, two Jayhawks were lottery picks in the NBA Draft (Cole Aldrich and Xavier Henry) while Sherron Collins also played in the league for the Charlotte Bobcats.

Prior to his stint with the Jayhawks, Keller served nine years on the Oklahoma State men's basketball staff under head coaches Eddie Sutton and Sean Sutton. As director of basketball operations and assistant coach at OSU, Keller helped in recruiting, coaching, scouting, academics and team travel. In Stillwater, Keller served as an assistant coach from 1999-2002, as the director of basketball operations from 2002-06 and assistant coach from 2006-08.

While at OSU, Keller was instrumental in the development of 11 all-conference performers, including All-Americans Tony Allen, John Lucas and Joey Graham. Keller has also coached numerous NBA players including the aforementioned All-Americans as well as Maurice Baker, Stephen Graham, Desmond Mason, Ivan McFarlin, Melvin Sanders at Oklahoma State and P.J. Brown and Kaniel Dickens during other coaching stints.

Keller was on staff for OSU's run to the 2004 Final Four, two Elite Eight teams in 2000 and 2004 and three Sweet 16 appearances. The Cowboys advanced to postseason play nine times, including six NCAA Tournaments during Keller's tenure. Additionally, OSU's 2006 recruiting class was ranked No. 1 by Rivals.com.

Keller started his coaching career on the Louisiana Tech staff from 1990-94 where the Bulldogs advanced to the postseason twice. From Ruston, he went to Tyler Junior College as an assistant coach the next two years, advancing to the regional playoffs and national tournament. He then served one season on staff at Texas-San Antonio (1996-97) before returning as head coach at Tyler JC.

A native of Dallas, Keller earned his bachelor's degree in business management from OSU in 1990 and his master's degree in human relations and supervision from Louisiana Tech in 1991. He was a student assistant coach as an undergrad at OSU, a staff which included current KU head coach Bill Self. Keller is married to the former Chaunsea Stickler, a native of Liberal, Kan. The couple has a daughter, Kenzie, and a son, Kemper.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT KELLER

BILLY KENNEDY | Head Coach | Texas A&M

"Kyle played a big part in getting our program to the level we reached in 2015-16. He is a tireless worker who has built strong relationships in the state that led to our recruiting success. Kyle has a great feel for the defensive side of the game. His ability to communicate with today's players will keep Stephen F. Austin relevant in college basketball. We will miss him and his family here at Texas A&M."

BILL SELF | Head Coach | Kansas

"I'm very happy for Kyle. He's done a great job at Texas A&M in being the point man on many of their key recruits. He did a tremendous job with us when he was here at Kansas in an administrative role. Before Kansas, he was a focal point in the success that Oklahoma State achieved. It's a very deserving position for a guy that has worked his tail off."

BRAD UNDERWOOD | Head Coach | Oklahoma State

"Kyle is one of the proven elite recruiters not only in the state of Texas, but nationally. For the past five years, he was the premier recruiter for Texas A&M and is responsible for putting together the Aggies' top-ten class in 2015-16. He also has championship pedigree after being with Eddie Sutton, Bill Self and Billy Kennedy. When you couple all that with his east Texas experience from his days at Tyler Junior College, this is a tremendous hire for Stephen F. Austin. Kyle will be an outstanding coach and will undoubtedly continue the growth of Lumberjack basketball."

WILLIAM R. JOHNSON COLISEUM

OVERALL RECORD IN 42 SEASONS
AT WRJ COLISEUM (.757 WIN %)

In its 43rd year of existence, the William R. Johnson Coliseum has an established reputation as one of the finest basketball facilities in the Southwest.

Built in 1974 at a cost of $3.5 million, the coliseum is not only home to both the Lumberjack and Ladyjack basketball programs, but also has served as the site of the 1993 and 1996 NCAA Women's Midwest Regional.

The arena also has served as a concert venue for such acts as Pearl Jam, Alabama, Huey Lewis and the News, Clint Black, The Dixie Chicks, George Strait and Garth Brooks.

The coliseum has undergone numerous renovations in recent years, including a brand new court in 2015. The coliseum, originally sat more than 8,000, before the installation of individual chair back seats reduced the capacity to its current 7,203. Nearly all those seats were filled on February 22 of 2014, when an almost capacity crowd watched the Lumberjacks defeat rival Northwestern State 70-68 on a dunk from Jacob Parker with 0.3 seconds remaining. The official attendance estimate of 7,148 set a new modern-era attendance record for a Lumberjack basketball game.

During summer 1993, a multipurpose scoreboard and message center was added at center court. That scoreboard display was replaced with an updated model in the summer of 2007. Prior to the 1999 season, a large screen video projection system was added in the building, which allowed fans the opportunity to enjoy instant replays, as well as stats and other pertinent information.

The video projection system was replaced prior to the start of the 2006-07 season with a state-of-the-art video board setup from Daktronics. The new system features scoreboards with multiple stat displays at either end of the coliseum, as well as a new video board and message center at the facility's south end and a digital display across the front of the scorer's table.

A second full-size video display was added to the north end of the facility during the 2008-09 academic year.

Originally called the SFA Coliseum, the facility was renamed prior to the 1991-92 season in honor of SFA's fourth president, Dr. William R. Johnson. The Murray Shaw Championship Room is located on the concourse level at the south end of the facility and hosts receptions and meetings throughout the year.

A Lumberjack Hall of Fame display also has been added on the east side of the concourse and contains bronze plaques honoring each individual included who has been inducted.

During the past 30 years, the coliseum has hosted several Southland Conference postseason tournaments, as well as served as the site for the NCAA Regionals.

The facility also serves as host to the Regions I&II Conference A Boys' and Girls' basketball tournament as part of the Texas state high school basketball playoffs.

In 2002-03, the 'Jacks were 15-1 in the coliseum and entered the 2003-04 riding a 14-game winning streak. SFA kept the streak alive with a perfect 16-0 mark at home that year, setting a new coliseum winning streak record and also tying the mark for wins in a single season. When the streak finally ended in the 2004-05 season, it was the longest existing home winning streak in the nation, at 31 games.

In 2013-14, the 'Jacks closed the regular season undefeated at home at 15-0 for a second-straight year to end the regular season on a 33-game home winning streak- which was tied with Duke for the nation's longest-active home court winning streak.

The 2014-15 season ended with 13 consecutive victories at home.

Over the past two seasons, the facility has received numerous upgrades including a new playing surface prior to the 2015-16 season. This past summer, a brand-new Daktronics HD video board was installed as well.

In its 42-year history, there have been six seasons in which the 'Jacks haven't lost a game in WRJ Coliseum. Five of the six undefeated seasons at home have occurred from 2003-04 onward. There have been just five seasons where SFA hasn't posted a record of .500 or better in WRJ.

From Feb. 18, 2012 until Nov. 18, 2014, SFA didn't lose a game on the floor of WRJ Coliseum. That 34-game winning streak was the nation's second-longest stretch when it was snapped by Northern Iowa on ESPN2 on Nov. 18, 2014.
