▶ DOGS, HOGS MEET IN FAYETTEVILLE FOR THEIR REGULAR-SEASON FINALE

Georgia travels to Arkansas on Saturday afternoon for the regular-season finale of the 2016-17 campaign. The matinee matchup at Bud Walton Arena carries significant tournament implications, both those of the SEC and NCAA variety.

The Bulldogs are 18-12 overall and 9-8 in SEC play...and winners of five of their last six. Georgia is in a three-way tie for sixth in the league standings and could end up as anywhere from the No. 5 to No. 9 seed in next week's SEC Tournament. The Bulldogs were No. 51 in the most recent edition of the RPI and on most bracketologists' bubble.

J.J. Frazier, who on Monday was named both SEC Player of the Week and nbc sports.com's National Player of the Week, headlines Georgia's roster. The 5-10, 155-pound senior has scored 28.3 ppg over the Bulldogs' last six contests, upping his season average from 16.0 ppg to 18.5 ppg in the process.

Frazier's production helped offset the loss of Yante Maten, who has been the SEC's second-leading scorer for much of the 2016-17 campaign. Maten, one of 10 players on the final watch list for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award as the nation's premier center, suffered a sprained right knee 95 seconds in to the Feb. 18 game against No. 13 Kentucky.

Juwan Parker has been Georgia's third-leading scorer for the majority of the season but has stepped up his production in league play. Parker averaged 8.0 ppg in non-conference play but is contributing 10.7 ppg in SEC action, with double-digit scoring outputs in 12 of 17 conference games. That has upped his season average to 9.6 ppg.

Arkansas is 22-8 on the year and 11-6 in the SEC. The Razorbacks have wrapped up a "double-bye" in the SEC Tournament and will be either the No. 3 or No. 4 seed in Nashville. Arkansas is No. 29 in the RPI and by virtually every account has an NCAA bid firmed up.

Dusty Hannahs leads a quartet of double-digit scorers for Arkansas at 14.6 ppg. In addition, Daryl Macon adds 13.5 ppg, Jaylen Barford chips in 12.4 ppg and Moses Kingsley contributes 11.9 ppg.

SERIES HISTORY WITH ARKANSAS

Arkansas owns a 20-15 lead in the all-time series between the Bulldogs and Razorbacks, including a 9-3 mark in Fayetteville.

Last season in Athens, J.J. Frazier topped the 20-point barrier for the fifth time during the 2015-16 campaign, pouring in 26 points in Georgia's 76-73 overtime victory against Arkansas before a sell-out crowd.

Yante Maten, who recorded his fourth double-double of the season with 17 points and 12 rebounds, and Kenny Gaines added 16 points for the Bulldogs.

▶ KEEPING AN EYE ON*ENTERING TODAY'S GAME:*AMONG UGA'S CAREER LEADERS*J.J. FRAZIER IS...

- 116 points from No. 6 Bob Lienhard
- 11 3FGs from co-No. 4s Ezra Williams and Kenny Gaines
- 7 3FGAs from No. 4 Kenny Gaines
- 137 FTs from No. 3 Litterial Green
- 40 FTAs from No. 6 Vern Fleming
- 28 assists from No. 4 G.G. Smith
- 7 steals from co-No. 8s Rashad Wright and Chris Daniels

YANTE MATEN IS...

- 4 points from No. 27 Ray Harrison
- 21 blocks from No. 3 Terrell Bell

Georgia finished the first half on an 11-3 to grab a three-point advantage at the intermission and had a strong opening to the second period to extend the lead to as large as eight points with 12 minutes left.

The Razorbacks gradually cut into that advantage and took their first lead of the half at the 5:29 mark. That represented the first of five lead changes – to go along with five ties – in the waning moments of regulation.

Georgia led 74-68 with 31 seconds in OT left but did not seal the victory until Anthlon Bell's 3-point attempt just past halfcourt failed to draw iron.

A complete box score from that game – as well as results from the last 10 games in the series – can be found in the right-hand column on Page 3 of these Game Notes.

Due to a quirk in scheduling, this is the Bulldogs' first trip to Fayetteville in just over three years. On March 1, 2014, Coty Clarke and Michael Qualls scored 23 and 20 points, respectively, to lead Arkansas to an 87-75 win over Georgia. Kenny Gaines paced the Bulldogs with a game-high 25 points.

LAST TIME OUT

Another stellar performance from J.J. Frazier helped Georgia defeat Auburn, 79-78, after trailing by as many as 16 points on senior night at Stegeman Coliseum.

Frazier scored 31 points in the win – his fourth-straight game with at least 28 points – to help the Bulldogs fight back and go ahead 79-73 with 1:13 remaining.

The Tigers responded with a 5-0 run to cut Georgia's advantage to just one, and stole the ball with 14 seconds left. However, Jared Harper missed a 3-pointer out of a timeout, and Juwan Parker grabbed the rebound to secure the one-point victory.

Frazier was honored along with fellow seniors Kenny Paul Geno, Houston Kessler and Brandon Young prior to the game. They are four of only 12 players to play on three 20-win teams for Georgia.

A CHALLENGING SEC SLATE

Georgia's league schedule has no doubt faced the Southeastern Conference's most challenging league schedule. The SEC's unbalanced slate has teams facing five schools on a home-and-home basis.

Georgia, which was No. 51 in the March 2 edition of the NCAA's RPI, is the only program in the SEC to play the three league teams ranked among in the national polls for the majority of the season – Kentucky, Florida and South Carolina.

All five of the Bulldog's two-timing SEC foes were ranked in the top 100 of the most recent edition of the RPI. That includes two top-10ers – No. 3 Florida, No. 8 Kentucky – another NCAA Tournament "lock" in No. 27 South Carolina, as well as No. 84 Alabama and No. 91 Auburn.

A CHALLENGING SEC SLATE...TAKE II

Georgia's 9-8 SEC record could be considered somewhat deceiving. That tally includes six losses top-25 opponents – Florida, Kentucky and South Carolina.

The Bulldogs are an impressive 9-2 versus the rest of the SEC.

In two of the losses – at Florida and at Kentucky – UGA led with less than 10 seconds left in regulation before losing in overtime.

Four more – both dates with South Carolina, the Kentucky game in Athens and at Texas A&M – were decided in the final minute.

THE REAL FUN STARTS AFTER THE HALF

While J.J. Frazier's sheer numbers of late have drawn considerable attention – and why wouldn't 28.3 ppg over a six-game span grab anyone's eye – his contributions in the second halves of those contests are nothing short of unfathomable.

Over the past six second halves, Frazier is putting up a whopping 19.2 pph (points per half) by shooting 53.2 percent from the field and 88.6 percent from the line. He also has distributed 19 assists (3.2 aph) and played 114 of a possible 120 minutes as outlined in the next column.

FRAZIER EARNS ACCOLADES

J.J. Frazier was named SEC Player of the Week and nbcports.com National Player of the Week on Feb. 27 after averaging 28.5 points in victories over Alabama and LSU.

The 5-10, 155-pound senior from Glennville, Ga., played a critical role in the wins, which came in a span of just 49 hours.

Last Thursday at Alabama, Frazier scored 28 points, nearly half of the Bulldogs' total offensive output in the 60-55 victory. He then topped that with a 29-point, eight-assist outing against LSU on Saturday.

This is Frazier's third SEC Player of the Week recognition. He also was selected on Jan. 26, 2015 and on Dec. 21, 2016.

MAKING UP FOR LOSS OF MATEN

Before and after Yante Maten's injury against Kentucky on Feb. 18 there were signs certain Bulldogs were ready to increase their contributions down the regular-season's home stretch.

"Obviously, our team was mostly built around Yante so we will have to redesign some things, but we aren't going to be able to reinvent ourselves completely this late in the year," Mark Fox said on Feb. 21. "Our other guys are going to have to step up and play a little bit bigger role, and we will have to be a little smarter and stay out of foul trouble and be very efficient with how we play."

In his first career start at Tennessee on Feb. 11, freshman Tyree Crump scored 13 points – including five in stretch of 17 seconds that pushed a one-point lead to 70-64 – in a 76-75 victory. Crump is 10-of-18 (.556) from 3-point range over the last six games.

E'Torrion Wilridge logged career-high minutes in three consecutive outings – 29 against Mississippi State, 32 versus Kentucky and 36 at Alabama. Wilridge dished out a career-high four assists against Mississippi State. Wilridge had 16 assists in UGA's first 25 games but has dished out 11 in the last five contests.

Against Kentucky, Mike Edwards posted his first career double-digit point tally versus SEC competition with 10 points, doing so in a career-most 34 minutes.

OGBEIDE IS TOP BOARDING BULLDOG

Derek Ogbeide inched past Yante Maten to become Georgia's leading rebounder during the Tennessee game on Feb. 11.

Ogbeide has been dominating on the glass of late. He has seven double-digit rebounding tallies in the Bulldogs' last 11 games and an average of 9.8 rpg over that span.

That has helped push his season average to 7.6 rpg, fifth-best in the league. Ogbeide is averaging 8.4 rpg in SEC play, which ranks third among league leaders.

PARKER BACK, PRODUCTION UP

Juwan Parker has enjoyed a successful return to action after missing the last season and a half with the Achilles injury.

Parker has started all but two games – missing the Morehouse to rest his Achilles and coming off the bench at Tennessee – and is averaging 9.6 ppg, 5.5 rpg and 1.9 apg.

Those are considerably higher his career marks entering this year of 4.9 ppg, 3.7 rpg and 0.9 apg.

Parker also has set new career highs for points (17 vs. both Florida & Vandy), boards (11 vs. G. Washington), assists (five vs. G. Washington) and minutes (40 vs. Florida).

The Final Exams break seemed to be good for Parker. In his first 58 games at UGA, from his freshman year through a Dec. 4 matchup with Marquette, Parker reached double figures in the scoring column just once.

GEORGIA MAKING THE GRADE

In addition to its success on the court, Georgia has been stellar in the classroom under Mark Fox. All told, 27 Bulldogs have graduated from UGA since Fox arrived in 2009.

That tally features two current Bulldogs (Houston Kessler and Juwan Parker), 21 more of Fox's players and four former Bulldog—including former NBA players Jarvis Hayes and Damien Wilkins and 2004 SEC Defensive Player of the Year Rashad Wright.

Parker (pictured above with Fox) earned his degree in Management just two and a half years after he arrived in Athens and is pursuing a master's degree in Sport Management.

Georgia's academic improvements and successes under Fox are evident in the two primary tracking systems of the NCAA – the Academic Performance Rate (APR) and Graduation Success Rate (GSR) as outlined below.

STEGEMAN CONTINUES EVOLVING

Stegeman Coliseum, which was christened in 1963 and will be home of Georgia Basketball for the 54th full season in 2016-17, has undergone sweeping renovations in the past two-plus decades.

The first major upgrade came prior to the 1995 season and transformed the seating configuration to its current bowl-shaped layout. That work came in advance of the Coliseum hosting rhythmic gymnastics and volleyball competition during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games.

More updates, including a new video board and sound system, were installed in time for the 2006-07 season.

The most dramatic alteration came in 2011, when Stegeman's outer concourses underwent a 21st century face lift that rendered the arena hardly recognizable from its previous look. The project expanded lobby space on both sides by 10,000 feet and gave new, stories-high glass facades. That renovations also featured the addition of considerable graphics highlighting the past and present of Georgia Basketball.

Most recently in 2016, the arena's east end wall was replaced by a massive graphic highlighting the three programs that compete in the Coliseum (pictured above). Following this season, a second phase will include a new center-hung scoreboard, seats throughout the arena, lighting system and ribbon boards. The cost of the upgrades in 2016 and 2017 is expected to be approximately $7 million.

In addition to the aforementioned, Georgia constructed one of the nation's largest practice facilities adjacent to Stegeman. Opened in 2007, the $30-million, 120,000-square-foot building has become a model other schools have visited and attempted to emulate.

After averaging 8.0 ppg in non-conference play during November and December, he is averaging 10.7 ppg in SEC action.

Parker started the first 14 games for Georgia's 2015 NCAA Tournament team before suffering the Achilles injury. He played limited minutes in four contests during the rest of that season but was out all of last year and redshirted after undergoing surgery in the summer of 2015.

MILESTONES MOUNT FOR FRAZIER

J.J. Frazier joined Georgia's top-10 career scoring leaders during his 36-point outburst against Kentucky on Feb. 18. He joined the top-10s for assists and steals at South Carolina on Feb. 4.

Frazier is now one of just three Bulldogs – along with Vern Fleming and Sundiata Gaines – who is listed on Georgia Basketball's top-10 career leaders ledgers for points, assists and steals.

Frazier's point production against UK was his third 35-point performance at UGA, along with 37 points at Mississippi State in 2014-15 and 35 versus Georgia Tech a year ago.

Frazier and Litterial Green are the only two Bulldogs to score 35 points on three occasions for UGA.

Lastly, Frazier's five 3-pointers against Auburn pushed him 53 on the year. He is one of only six Bulldogs with 50 3-pointers and 100 assists in a season.

Frazier is the only UGA player to have 50 3-pointers and 100 assists in three seasons.

TURTLE FOR 3...MOST OF THE TIME

Twenty-three of Turtle Jackson's 41 field goals this season have been 3-pointers.

In fact, Jackson's first 11 made field goals during 2016-17 were from 3-point range.

Jackson's 3-point heavy tally is not surprising. Last season, 10 of his 13 field goals were 3-pointers and his shooting percentage was better from beyond the arc (33.3 percent) than overall (28.3 percent).

For his career, 33 of Jackson's 54 FGs (.611) have been from farther than 20-feet, 9-inches.

FRESHMEN START, MAKE MARKS

Tyree Crump and Jordan Harris became the 10th and 11th freshmen, respectively, to start for the Bulldogs in the last six seasons of Mark Fox's tenure.

They five current teammates on that list: senior Houston Kessler; juniors Yante Maten and Juwan Parker; and sophomores Mike Edwards and Derek Ogbeide.

DURHAM, WILKINS JOIN CBB HOF

While Kansas – in Kansas City – is obviously the star attraction of the CBE Hall of Fame Classic, Georgia shined brightest at the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame induction ceremonies on Nov. 18. That's when former Georgia coach Hugh Durham and player Dominique Wilkins comprised one-quarter of the Hall's Class of 2016 inductees.

Appropriately, Durham and Wilkins, who together led the Bulldogs to numerous significant firsts, together were Georgia's first inductees into the Collegiate Hall of Fame. And a large contingent approaching 100 friends and family of Georgia Basketball trekked to Kansas City for the ceremonies.

"It has only happened once, I think, Coach (Dale) Brown and Shaquille (O'Neal) at LSU," Durham said. "Dominique and I have remained close through the years. He is the foundation of Georgia Basketball. We can take credit for bringing him in, but he is the face of Georgia Basketball. There's a lot of pride to go in together."

Durham arrived in Athens in 1978 and was charged with turning around a program that hadn't finished .500 in more than a decade. Georgia was 14-14 and 14-13 in Durham's first two seasons before Wilkins arrived as a McDonald's All-American and the most celebrated recruit in school history.

Wilkins was tabbed 1981 SEC Player of the Year as a freshman while leading Georgia to a 19-12 finish and an NIT appearance, the Bulldogs' first-ever postseason bid. Wilkins was named All-American a second-straight time in 1982, the same season he helped lead Georgia to the NIT semifinals.

Wilkins departed after that season and was the No. 3 overall pick in the 1982 NBA Draft before enjoying an illustrious career that included being a nine-time All-Star and seven-time All-NBA pick.

Durham remained in Athens for 17 seasons and is Georgia's winningest hoops coach ever with 297 victories. He led the Bulldogs to the 1983 NCAA Final Four in their first NCAA Tournament appearance. All told, Georgia reached postseason competition 11 times under Durham.

Durham established a national name as head coach at Florida State from 1967-78 before coming to UGA. He led the Seminoles to 230 wins an NCAA runner-up finish in 1972 when they lost to UCLA, 81-76, in the national championship game. After Georgia, he won 106 more games at Jacksonville.

"When you're a coach, you stand here and think about the reason you're here," Durham said.

"If you didn't win games, you wouldn't be here. If you didn't have good players, you wouldn't win games. If you didn't have good assistants, you didn't have good players. If you didn't have an administration that wanted you to do well, then you wouldn't have good assistants. That's the long way of saying there are so many people you represent when you're standing up here."

Wilkins was dubbed the "Human Highlight Film" while in Athens, a nickname that has followed him from being Georgia's career scoring leader when he departed college to 26,668 points and an amazing 24.8 career scoring average in the NBA.

"It's mind blowing," Wilkins said. "It's a special moment in my life to go in with Coach (Durham) because he is like a father to me. You talk about being chosen from 350 D1 schools and to be chosen as one of the greatest. I can't even tell you how that feels. It's special because it's the highest collegiate award you can get."

The Hall of Fame's Class of 2016 also includes players Mark Aguirre (DePaul), Bob Boozer (Kansas State), Doug Collins (Illinois State), Lionel Simmons (La Salle) and Jamaal Wilkes (UCLA) and coach Mike Montgomery (Montana, Stanford and Cal).

Harris made his first start against Louisiana on Dec. 14 and got the nod for 12 straight games before a slight illness prior to the Texas game on Jan. 28.

Crump got his first start at Tennessee on Feb. 11 and put up 13 points. Crump made several critical plays as the Bulldogs rallied from a 14-point, second-half deficit. Most notably, he scored five points in 17 seconds as Georgia pushed a one-point lead to 70-64.

FRAZIER GRABS UGA CAREER FT MARK
J.J. Frazier became the Bulldogs' career record holder for free throw percentage with his third of four FTs made in Georgia's win at Georgia Tech on Dec. 20.

The senior from Glennville, Ga., opened the season at No. 2 among UGA's career leaders in free throw efficiency at 81.1728 percent. That trailed only Jerry Eppling's effort of 82.1561 percent (221-of-269) from 1968-70.

Frazier has connected on 148-of-171 (86.5 percent) of his trips to the line this season, which has raised his career percentage to 83.0303 (411-of-495).

32+34=SOLID PRODUCTION AT THE "5"

The tandem of No. 32 Mike Edwards and No. 34 Derek Ogbeide is giving the Bulldogs very solid production on the low block.

The classmates are combining to contribute a double-double of 11.3 points and 11.2 rebounds per game in 41.6 minutes per game.

Ogbeide is averaging 7.2 ppg and 7.6 rpg in 23.4 mpg. Edwards is at 4.2 ppg, 3.6 rpg and 18.2 mpg.

THE NEXT DR. J?

Rumors that redshirt junior Juwan Parker will receive his doctorate before he leaves the UGA cannot be confirmed nor denied.

Parker was named to the College Sports Information of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America All-District team on Feb. 9.

Parker arrived in Athens in the fall of 2013 with 24 hours of credit already on his transcript via AP exams and dual enrollment classes at the University of Tulsa, where his father is a law professor.

Parker earned his bachelor's in Management from UGA's Terry College of Business in December 2015 and began working on his master's last January. He is on pace to receive his master's this summer, with a full season of eligibility remaining at Georgia.

DOGS AMONG TOP SCORING DUOS

J.J. Frazier and Yante Maten are one of the nation's top guard-forward scoring combos.

In stats through games of March 1, those Bulldogs comprised the eighth-best inside-outside scoring tandem in the nation – and were the only duo from a Power 5 conference – among teams with two scorers in the top-250 nationally as outlined below.

TOP GUARD-FORWARD SCORING COMBOS

FRAZIER PUTS ON A SHOW

Mark Fox succinctly stated how Georgia rallied from a 14-point, second-half deficit at Tennessee on Feb. 11: "We got it done because J.J. Frazier loves playing for this school. J.J. just refused to give in, and he did what seniors do: he led the fight."

Tennessee quickly expanded a two-point halftime lead to 53-39 with 15:13 remaining at Thompson-Boling Arena.

When things looked bleak, Frazier took over the game. A Frazier layup at the 14:55 mark ignited a 19-5 run in which he had a hand in every single point. Frazier scored 11 points on his own and dished out three assists that resulted in eight more digits for the Dogs. That surge knotted the score at 58-58 with 8:21 left. Frazier's heroics didn't stop there.

His layup with 4:09 left gave Georgia its first lead of the half, an assist for a Tyree Crump 3-pointer with 2:26 remaining put the Bulldogs up by six and a three-point play with 21 seconds on the clock put UGA up by five.

JUST CALL HIM A BASKETBALL PLAYER

Yante Maten was named as one of 10 players on the final watch list for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award as the nation's top center on Feb. 3. That came after Maten was on the 25-player preseason watch list for the Karl Malone Award as the premier power forward.

Maten was the only player in the nation who switched from one position to another on the watch lists for the national position player of the year awards administered by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Maten was asked to if he considers himself a forward or a center.

"I consider myself a basketball player, let's just put it like that," Maten stated. "Wherever they want to try to put my game in, that's really up to them. But I just play basketball how I play basketball."

MATEN A CONSISTENT PERFORMER

Yante Maten has been a model of consistency since the start of last season.

In 61 games during his sophomore and junior years, Maten has 54 double-digit scoring outputs (with 21 20-point and four 30-point games), grabbed double-figure rebounds 16 times and posted 15 double-doubles.

A QUARTET OF BITTER PILLS

Georgia won its first two SEC road games at Auburn and Ole Miss before suffering four painful league losses away from Athens.

The Bulldogs were agonizingly close to victory in each outing – at No. 23 Florida, Texas A&M, No. 8 Kentucky and No. 19 South Carolina. That includes a one-point decision in College Station, a two-point setback in Columbia and OT outings against UF and UK.

All told, the Bulldogs led for 91:56 of the 130 minutes played during the first three contests – 35:11 at Florida, 37:10 at Texas A&M, 19:35 at Kentucky. Georgia trailed for just 27:25 in those three games combined.

The Bulldogs led for 11:16 at South Carolina, a game featured eight ties and no less than 18 lead changes.

BULLDOGS SIGN TWO

Nicolas Claxton and Rayshaun Hammonds have signed letters-of-intent with the University of Georgia, head coach Mark Fox announced on Monday, November 14.

Both players inked papers during the NCAA's week-long early signing period. Claxton signed in ceremonies on Nov. 14, while Hammonds did so on the previous Thursday, Nov. 10.

Claxton is a 6-10, forward from Legacy Charter School in Greenville, S.C., and the son of former Bulldog Charles Claxton. Nicolas averaged 12.9 points and 7.1 rebounds last season, as well as blocking 3.0 shots per game. He has helped Charter compile a 49-14 record over the past two seasons.

Claxton represented the U.S. Virgin Islands during the 2015 Centrobasket U17 Championships in San Juan, Puerto Rico. He averaged 11.0 points, 8.0 rebounds and 4.8 blocks per game in five outings, leading the Virgin Islands to a runner-up finish in the tournament. Claxton posted single-game highs of 20 points and 15 rebounds against Mexico in the semifinals, as well as 10 blocks in a group stage matchup with Bahamas.

"Nic is a terrific shooter and passer for a player with his length," Fox said. "He really is going to be a good inside-outside scoring threat. I know he is excited about playing at his parents' alma mater."

Hammonds, a 6-8, forward from Norcross, Ga., was named first-team All-State for Class 6A by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution as a junior after averaging 16.7 points, 10.0 rebounds, 2.0 blocks, 1.7 assists and 1.2 steals per game for the Blue Devils. As a sophomore, Hammonds averaged 14.1 points, 7.8 boards and 1.9 blocks at Norcross.

Over the past two seasons, Hammonds has helped Norcross post a combined 53-8 record and a pair of state tournament appearances. The Blue Devils finished 26-4 last season, losing to eventual state champion Westlake in the Sweet 16. Norcross was 27-7 in the 2014-15 season and lost to Peppelbrook in the state quarterfinals.

"Rayshaun has terrific versatility and can score the ball in a variety of ways," Fox said. "He's coming from a great program, and we are excited he is a Dawg."

Both of Claxton's parents, Charles and Nicole, attended UGA. Charles was a four-year letterwinner for the Bulldogs from 1992-95 and was an All-SEC and Freshman All-SEC performer. Among Georgia's career statistical leaders, Claxton is currently No. 20 in points (1,274), No. 5 in rebounds (840), No. 4 in field goal percentage (.542) and No. 2 in blocked shots (247). He was drafted by Phoenix in the second round of the NBA Draft and eventually played with Boston during the 1995-96 season.

FRAZIER, MATEN TOP MILLENNIUM MARK

Earlier this season, senior J.J. Frazier and junior Yante Maten became the 47th and 48th Georgia Bulldogs to reach 1,000-point career scoring plateau.

Frazier reached the milestone with a 3-pointer at the 17:57 mark of the first half against UNC Asheville on Nov. 14. Maten joined him with a successful free throw with 9:41 remaining in the Bulldogs' game against South Carolina on Jan. 4.

Bulldogs have reached the millennium mark at a relatively steady clip over the past several seasons. Frazier and Maten are the seventh and eighth Bulldogs to top 1,000 career points during Mark Fox's tenure, joining Charles Mann (1,411 points), Trey Thompkins (1,396), Kenny Gaines (1,324), Nemi Djuricic (1,123), Travis Leslie (1,099) and Kentavious Caldwell-Pope (1,013).

DOGS & CATS LEAD SEC

Georgia and Kentucky have been the SEC's winningest and most consistent hoops programs of late.

Georgia and Kentucky are the only two SEC programs to reach the 20-win mark each of the past three seasons.

UGA and UK also are the only league teams to post double-digit SEC win totals during each of the past three campaigns.

In addition, the Bulldogs and the Wildcats are the only teams to advance to the semifinals of the 2014, 2015 and 2016 SEC Tournaments. No other SEC team has reached the semis more than once during that span.

UGA'S MOST...SEC...SUCCESS...EVER

Georgia has been winning within the SEC at the Bulldogs' best rate ever.

Over the past four seasons, UGA has:

- Posted its most SEC wins over two- (23), three- (33) and four-season (42) spans.
- Recorded four straight .500 or better league records – the first time in 84 seasons of SEC play UGA has done so;
- Notched three-straight double-figure SEC win totals – another UGA first.

UGA TOPS SEC GRAD RATE...AGAIN

Georgia received a perfect 100 in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) data released in November. UGA posted the highest GSR possible for a second straight year.

Georgia and Alabama are the only two SEC programs – and among 39 DI men's basketball programs nationally – to post GSRs of 100 each of the past two years.

Georgia's GSR has seen dramatic increases during head coach Mark Fox's tenure, advancing from 36 in 2009-10, to 43 in 2010-11, to 50 in 2011-12, to 63 in 2012-13, to 71 in 2013-14 to 100 in both 2014-15 and 2015-16.

The NCAA introduced the GSR in 2004-05 in response to college and university presidents wanting graduation data that more accurately reflected the mobility among all college students today. The GSR accounts for the academic outcomes of student-athletes who transfer from one institution to another and is based on a six-year cohort prescribed by the U.S. Department of Education.

HISTORIC WIN OVER JACKETS

To find a larger margin of victory larger than Georgia's 60-43 decision over Georgia Tech on Dec. 20, you have to go back to a 69-13 win on 1/19/09...that being Jan. 19, 1909.

The 17-point margin equaled the Bulldogs' most decisive road win over Tech since a 55-38 decision on Dec. 6, 1980.

DOGS EARN 500TH "W" AT STEGEMAN

Georgia's Dec. 17 win over Charleston Southern represented the Bulldogs' 500th victory at Stegeman Coliseum.

Originally named the "Georgia Coliseum," the venue was christened on Feb. 22, 1964, when a standing-room-only crowd of 13,200 witnessed the Bulldogs beat Ga. Tech, 81-68.

Georgia went on to finish 3-1 at the arena that season, including a win over Florida State (with a young assistant coach named Hugh Durham on the Seminoles' bench).

Georgia is in its 54th full campaign in the arena. The facility was renamed "Stegeman Coliseum" on March 2, 1996. The namesake is Herman J. Stegeman, who coached basketball, baseball, football and track & field and also served as Director of Athletics at UGA during his tenure from 1919-39.

FOX GARNERS CAREER VICTORY 250

Mark Fox notched his 250th win in 13 seasons as a head coach with the Bulldogs' Nov. 14 victory over UNC Asheville.

Fox was 123-43 in five seasons at Nevada and was 127-104 in his eighth campaign in Athens when he reached the milestone.

All told, Fox has produced nine 20-win teams and advanced to the postseason nine times – including four occasions at Georgia – during his head coaching career.

A HOMEGROWN ROSTER

Nine of the 15 players on Georgia's 2016-17 roster are Peach State prep products.

That list includes eight of the 14 active players on the Bulldogs' roster – seniors J.J. Frazier, Houston Kessler and Brandon Young; sophomores William "Turtle" Jackson, Connor O'Neill and Derek Ogbeide; and freshmen Tyree Crump and Jordan Harris.

In addition, Christian Harrison, a walk-on transfer from Troy who is sitting out this season, played at Woodward Academy.

POTENTIAL HISTORY-MAKING DOGS

Of the hundreds of Georgia hoops alums that spanned the first century of play, only five could say that they played on three 20-game-winning squads: Larry Brown, Michael Chadwick, Ray Harrison, Jon Nordin and G.G. Smith.

Over the past two seasons alone, seven more Bulldogs have joined that fold: Marcus Thornton, Kenny Gaines, Charles Mann, Kenny Paul Geno, Houston Kessler, Brandon Young and J.J. Frazier.

This year's seniors could become the first UGA players to post four-consecutive 20-win efforts. They also may challenge Georgia's winningest four-year period and the most wins by any Bulldogs ever.

Georgia's most productive four-year span produced 83 wins from the 1994-95 through 1997-98 seasons. Interestingly, there were no four-year letterwinners during that stretch.

The most wins by any Bulldog is 82, the tally posted by Richard Corhen and Gerald Crosby from 1981-82 through 1984-85.

FRAZIER, MATEN ON POY WATCH LIST

J.J. Frazier and Yante Maten were on the Lute Olson Award Preseason Watch List. The award is presented annually to the nation's top Division I player who has played at least two seasons.

Georgia was the only SEC team and one of only nine nationally to have two players on the list along with Cincinnati, Indiana, Kansas, North Carolina, Oregon, Villanova, Wisconsin and Xavier.

There were five SEC reps on the 50-player ledger, which also featured Kentucky's Isaiah Briscoe, Texas A&M's Tyler Davis and Arkansas' Moses Kingsley.

BULLDOGS TRAVEL TO SPAIN

The Bulldogs got an early start on preparations for the 2016-17 campaign with an 11-day tour of Spain in August that included three exhibition games.

Georgia won a trio of exhibition outings by an average of 26.0 ppg, with associate head coach Philip Pearson and assistants Jonas Hayes and Yasir Rosemond served as head coaches for one game each.

Pearson led UGA in the first matchup, a 65-48 victory over the Madrid All-Stars. Yante Maten paced Georgia with 19 points, while Derek Ogbeide notched a double-double of 10 points and 10 boards.

Under Rosemond, the Bulldogs raced to a 118-70 win over the Valencia All-Stars. Mike Edwards led the way with 20 points. J.J. Frazier added 18 points, and freshman Jordan Harris chipped in 17.

Georgia wrapped up the trip by beating the Barcelona All-Stars 96-72 under Hayes. Maten again led UGA in scoring with 23 points, while Tyree Crump contributed 20 points and four assists. Ogbeide collected his second double-double in Spain.

BULLDOGS MOVE BEHIND THE MIC

Former Georgia All-Americans Dominique Wilkins and Jarvis Hayes served as color analysts for telecasts of the Bulldog this season.

Wilkins did so for FOX Sport South's telecast of the season opener at Clemson, the first collegiate game he worked.

"If it hadn't been Georgia, I probably wouldn't have done it, to be honest with you," Wilkins said. "I can't tell you what that university means to me personally, so anytime I can engage and show my face and show my appreciation I want to do it."

Hayes, who joined the SEC Network as a color analyst this season, served in that role for the Furman game. He also did so for three games on SEC Network +, the internet-only, HD-quality version of games available on espn3.com and the espn app.

HAWKS RETURN TO ATHENS

For the fourth consecutive year, the Atlanta Hawks made the short trek to Athens to open training camp in September.

Georgia has one of the nation's largest practice facilities, a $30-million, 120,000-square-foot structure that opened in 2007. The Hawks had access to the adjacent gyms of the Georgia men's and women's programs, as well as the playing floor within Stegeman Coliseum and other facilities.

The Hawks have opened camp in Athens each season under coach Mike Budenholzer.

"These are world-class facilities that are a great environment for our players to come in and focus on basketball," Budenholzer said. "We love this facility. We love coming up to the University of Georgia. It feels like the right place for us to start our season."

"I think the facilities here are spectacular," said Dwight Howard. "Everything here is 'A-1' – the practice facility, the main floor, the weight room – has been unbelievable. We wish we could stay longer."
