'DOGS RETURN FOUR STARTERS FOR 2017-18 SEASON

With four starters back for the 2017-18 season, including All-Mountain West candidates Deshon Taylor and Jaron Hopkins, Fresno State was hard at work in the offseason to put itself in position to compete for a conference championship and another postseason appearance. Fresno State will host Oregon during non-conference play and compete in the 2017 Cancun Challenge before opening its MW campaign. In addition to Deshon Taylor and Jaron Hopkins, Fresno State also returns two other starters: sharp-shooting guard Jahmel Taylor and forward Bryson Williams. Jahmel Taylor is one of the nation's best 3-point shooters and Bryson Williams, a Fresno native, has an opportunity to build on a successful freshman season, which saw him lead in the team in field goal percentage (105-174, 60.3 percent).

DESHON TAYLOR EARNED ALL-MW HONORS

Fresno State then-redshirt sophomore guard Deshon Taylor was one of the best players in the Mountain West last season, especially down the stretch. He earned third-team All-MW honors from the league's head coaches and second-team All-MW honors from a MW media panel. Taylor scored at least 15 points in all 15 of his starts (Jan. 14 to March 10) and averaged 20.7 points, 3.1 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.6 steals per game as a starter this season. He also set a single-game school-record with 17 made free throws in the Bulldogs' quadruple overtime game at Wyoming on Feb. 8 and finished with the program's third-best single-season free throw efficiency (87.9 percent).

TERRY CLIMBS TO 3RD ON ALL-TIME WINS LIST

In six seasons at Fresno State, head coach Rodney Terry has 107 wins, which ranks him third on the Bulldogs' all-time head coaching wins list. Jerry Tarkanian (1995-2002) had 104 career wins (153* wins prior to having to vacate 49 wins). Terry is the 18th head coach in program history and the fourth Fresno State head coach to coach at least 200 career games. Boyd Grant (1977-86) is first with 194 career wins, while Ed Gregory (1965-77) is second with 172 career wins.

HOPKINS NAMED TO MW'S ALL-DEFENSIVE TEAM

Fresno State senior guard Jaron Hopkins has established himself as one of the premier defenders in the nation for disrupting passing lanes and scoring in transition. Hopkins was named to the Mountain West's All-Defensive team by the conference's head coaches and earned third-team All-MW honors from a MW media panel. Last season, Hopkins averaged a team-best 13.2 points, while also adding 5.5 rebounds, a team-high 3.6 assists and 2.2 steals per game. Hopkins, who played his first two seasons at Colorado, played in all 33 games last season, with 26 starts.

FRESNO STATE, TERRY SIGN CONTRACT EXTENSION

Rodney Terry, who just finished his sixth season as Fresno State's head men's basketball coach, signed a new 5-year contract through 2021. Terry's new 5-year contract with Fresno State, which is retroactive to July 1, 2016, runs through April 30, 2021. Under Terry's leadership, Fresno State won the 2016 Mountain West Championship and returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2016 for the first time since 2001. The Bulldogs have also made back-to-back postseason appearances and have played in a postseason tournament in three of the last four seasons.

BULLDOGS WIN 2016 ORANGE EXPRESS CHAMPIONSHIP

For the second straight season, Fresno State won a nonconference multi-team exempt tournament as the Bulldogs won the 2016 Orange Express with a 3-1 record in the round robin format played at campus sites. In the four-game affair, Fresno State defeated UTSA (69-66), Lamar (83-64) and Oregon State (63-58), and lost to PVAMU (84-78). To win the title, Fresno State won the tiebreaker with Lamar, who also went 3-1 in tournament games, by virtue of the Bulldogs' 83-64 head-to-head win over the Cardinals. Last season, Fresno State won the 2015 Roundball Showcase. Fresno State is now 11-4 since the start of the 2015-16 season in tournament contests.

- Taylor scored a career-high 32 points, including a 17-for-18 clip at the free throw line, in a quadruple overtime game at Wyoming on Feb. 8. His 17 free throws set a school record for most free throws made in a game.

JAHMEL TAYLOR: AN ELITE 3-POINT SHOOTER

Last season, Fresno State then-junior guard Jahmel Taylor was tied for fourth in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage (81-for-181, 44.8 percent), which ranked as the third-best single-season 3-point field goal percentage in program history. He has at least one 3-pointer in 41 of his last 46 games played. Since the start of the 2016-17 season, Jahmel Taylor has 23 games with multiple 3-pointers, including 10 games with four or more 3-pointers. He made 11 consecutive 3-pointers over three games from Dec. 6-14, 2016, which was four shy of tying the national record of 15 (set back from Dec. 15-28, 1990 by Northwestern's Todd Leslie).

George is currently in his eighth NBA season and first with the Oklahoma City Thunder after being drafted 10th overall in 2010 by the Indiana Pacers, who he played for from 2010-17. Johnson is in his third season with the Miami Heat. George is in the fourth of five-year, $90 million extension and Johnson is in the second of a four-year, $50 million extension.

- Paul George also won a gold medal with Team USA during the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio, is a four-time NBA All-Star and has been named twice to both the All-NBA Team and the NBA All-Defensive Team.

- Tyler Johnson scored 1,346 points during his four-year Fresno State career and ranks No. 17 all-time on the Bulldogs' all-time scoring list. Johnson was undrafted, but earned a roster spot with Miami after a strong showing during the NBA Summer League in 2014.

FORMER BULLDOG DESIGNS NIKE SIGNATURE SHOE

In Nike's 44-year history, fewer than one percent of its endorsed athletes have been given a signature shoe. Joining one of the most exclusive clubs in all of sport, former Fresno State men's basketball star Paul George (2008-10) debuted his first signature shoe, the PG1, on an international stage as the Indiana Pacers played the Denver Nuggets in London on Jan. 12. George became Nike Basketball's fourth active signature athlete, and the 21st basketball player to receive a signature shoe from Nike. Fresno State is wearing four versions of the PG1 shoe line this season. Blending George's smooth personality with performance attributes, the PG1 is tailored to PG13's two-way game. The lightweight, low cut PG1 is a true collaboration between George and designer Tony Hardman. The simple, highly functional silhouette features a distinctive forefoot strap anchored by Flywire cable loops providing a dynamic, contained feel, while a forefoot Zoom Air unit delivers low-profile, responsive cushioning.

SAVE MART CENTER

In its 15th year as the home of the Fresno State men's and women's basketball programs and the volleyball and wrestling programs, the Save Mart Center is recognized around the nation as being one of the finest on-campus collegiate arenas, and was named the No. 2 top collegiate venue by Pollstar in 2015, the leading trade publication for the concert and entertainment industry.

With its size, scope, unique architectural features and video, sound and telecom systems, the Save Mart Center serves as a major provider of entertainment and sporting events in the San Joaquin Valley. Seating capacity for the arena ranges from 15,000 to 18,000 seats, with 15,596 listed as the official number for basketball.

The Save Mart Center is a premier entertainment destination for headline events and tours. Designed by Sink Combs Dethlefs (Denver, Colo.), the Save Mart Center is approximately 450,000 square feet and contains 32 private suites, 1,000 Arena Builder seats (commonly referred to as "club seats"), a club level concourse, team locker rooms and athletics training facilities. The entire facility is approximately 48 acres and located off Shaw Avenue adjacent to Highway 168.

The total project value exceeded $100 million and represented the largest privately funded project in the history of the California State University system. The Save Mart Center was financed through revenue from corporate sponsorships, private gifts, leasing of luxury suites, sale of Arena Builder and personal seat licenses, as well as revenue from advertising and signage agreements.

Next to the Save Mart Center is the West Complex, a $17.6 million, two-story, 92,000-square-foot building which features the Student Recreation Center, the Lyles Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship and the Leon and Pete Peters Educational Research Center.

The Save Mart Center has hosted four major collegiate sporting championships, which most recently came in March 2012 when Fresno State hosted an NCAA women's basketball championship regional for the second time. In March 2004, the facility served as the host site for the McCaffrey Western Athletic Conference Basketball Tournament. The following year, the Save Mart Center was the venue for the first and second rounds of the 2005 NCAA women's basketball championship. In 2007 and 2012, Fresno State was one of four schools that hosted the regional semifinals and championship games for the NCAA women's basketball tournament.

RODNEY TERRY

FRESNO STATE HEAD COACH

7TH SEASON | ST. EDWARD'S (1990)

Rodney Terry is in his seventh season as the 18th head coach in Fresno State men's basketball history and led the Bulldogs during their transition into the Mountain West - one of the nation's best and most competitive conferences.

Known as an outstanding recruiting and bench coach, Terry's resume includes coaching two national players of the year and 12 appearances in the NCAA tournament. Under Terry's tutelage, 13 players in the last decade have been selected in the NBA Draft, including nine first-round and five lottery picks (Kevin Durant, LaMarcus Aldridge, D.J. Augustin, T.J. Ford and Tristan Thompson).

Terry has guided Fresno State to postseason appearances in three of the last four seasons, including a NCAA Tournament appearance in 2016 and NIT appearance in 2017. Fresno State is one of eight teams on the West Coast to play in either the NCAA or NIT in each of the last two seasons. Under Terry's direction, Fresno State has also won 20 or more games in three of the past four seasons and the Bulldogs have increased their conference win total in four of the last five seasons.

During the 2015-16 season, Terry guided the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 15 seasons by winning the 2016 MW Basketball Tournament Championship and entered the Big Dance on a nine-game winning streak. Fresno State finished the season with a 25-10 record, including a 13-5 mark and a second place finish in conference play. He coached Marvelle Harris to MW Player of the Year honors as the senior guard became Fresno State's all-time leading scorer. The Bulldogs' 13 conference wins were the program's most since winning 13 conference games during the 2002-03 season. Fresno State also earned a No. 2 seed for the MW Basketball Championships, which was the program's best seed for a conference tournament since 2001. The 'Dogs closed the regular season by winning six consecutive games and eight of its last nine contests. Fresno State won 16 home games to set a new Save Mart Center record for most home wins in a single season and the Bulldogs' 16-2 home record (88.9 percent) led the Mountain West as the best home winning percentage in the league.

In 2014-15, Terry continued his ascension in conference with 10 league wins and posted wins over four of the 68 teams that reached the NCAA Tournament (Boise State, San Diego State, UC Irvine and Wyoming). With the win over then-No. 25 San Diego State, Terry guided the Bulldogs to the program's first victory over a team ranked in the top 25 since 2002. The 10 conference wins marked the third-straight season that Terry led the 'Dogs to more league victories than the previous season. He also coached junior guard Marvelle Harris to first-team All-Mountain West and All-Defensive team honors. Harris was the first Bulldog to earn first-team all-conference accolades since 2008.

In 2013-14, Terry led the Bulldogs to the program's first 20-win season and postseason appearance in seven years with Fresno State reaching the finals of the 16-team College Basketball Invitational. He coached guard/forward Paul Watson to Mountain West Freshman of the Year honors, along with two other all-conference selections in Harris and senior guard Tyler Johnson, who currently plays for the Miami Heat. In league play, he led Fresno State to a fifth-place finish and orchestrated the best turnaround in conference history by guiding the Bulldogs to a 9-9 record in MW play after starting the league slate 1-7. No MW team had started that 1-7 or 0-8 had ever won more than a total of four conference games. The Bulldogs closed the regular season by winning eight of their last ten games.

During the 2012-13 season, Fresno State scored a historic sweep of UNLV, including the program's first-ever road win over the Rebels, and handed Wyoming its second loss of the year after the Cowboys started 14-1. As a league, the MW earned the NCAA's best Ratings Performance Index and had five NCAA Tournament teams.

In his first season at Fresno State in 2011-12, the Bulldogs ranked third in the state of California in attendance playing in the 15,596-seat Save Mart Center to finish ahead of the Pac-12's Stanford, UCLA and USC. Terry instilled a relentless work ethic and passion in the Bulldogs' culture. He guided Fresno State to a series of fearless rallies highlighted by a road win at the Pac-12's Arizona State and a neutral site NIT Season Tip Off win over SMU.

Prior to joining the Bulldog family, Terry was a central architect of Rick Barnes' program at Texas for nine seasons and led the Longhorns to the NCAA Tournament in each of his nine seasons in Austin. This included a trip to the Final Four in 2003, the Elite Eight in both 2006 and 2008 and four Sweet Sixteen showings. Overall, the Longhorns posted a 232-80 (.744) record and produced 20-win seasons in all nine seasons of Terry's tenure. For seven weeks prior to coming to Texas, Terry served on Jerry Wainwright's staff at the University of Richmond after spending the previous four seasons under Wainwright at UNC-Wilmington. Prior to joining the staff at UNCW, Terry served two years as an assistant coach at Baylor (1996-98). He spent one season (1995-96) as the varsity coach at Angleton (Texas) High School and two years as the head coach at Somerville (Texas) High School. Terry posted a 15-13 mark at Angleton and a 49-21 overall record at Somerville, where he led the school to the Class 2A state semifinals in 1993-94. He also worked for two years (1991-93) as an assistant coach at Austin Bowie (Texas) High School. Terry started his coaching career as an assistant coach at his alma mater, St. Edward's University in Austin, Texas. He worked for one season (1990-91) at St. Edward's before moving on to his post at Bowie High. Terry graduated from St. Edward's University in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a minor in physical education. During his collegiate career, he was a three-year starter at point guard and a three-time Academic All-Big State Conference selection. The Hilltoppers won the Big State Conference title during his freshman season in 1986-87, and he also served as team captain during his junior and senior campaigns.

Terry, a native of Angleton, Texas, was born on March 27, 1968.
