Brenda Welch-Nichols has taken the Sam Houston women's basketball program to new heights in her 10 years as the Bearkats' head coach.

Highlights of Nichols' tenure at SHSU include the university's first women's Southland Conference championship and NCAA Division I post-season tournament appearances in the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) and Women's National Invitational (WNIT).

Nichols' players have combined to set 27 school records and have earned All-Southland Conference honors 12 times.

An all-league player and top scorer for the Kats' first Southland Conference squad in 1988, Nichols returned to her alma mater as the University's 10th women's basketball head coach on August 23, 2006. The development of the program since that day has been amazing.

BUILDING SUCCESS AT SAM

In Nichols' first season in 2007, the SHSU women won only two conference games. The team suffered through a 1-27 season in 2008. But during those early years a strong and steady recruiting effort laid the foundation for record-setting seasons.

In 2013, Sam Houston earned its first Southland Conference regular season women's basketball championship. The team followed up with its post-season tournament finals appearance in the program's 28 years in the league and an appearance in the Women's National Invitational Tournament.

The WNIT and WBI berths stand as Sam Houston's first ever NCAA Division I women's basketball national tournament appearances.

ment appearances.

Sam Houston's 18-14 overall record in 2012-13 marked the program's third consecutive winning season. Sam Houston had produced only two other winning seasons (in 1988 and 1996) in the University's 27 years at the NCAA Division I level.

The 18 wins both in 2012 and 2013 equaled the school mark for most victories in one year (tying the 1996 squad). The 53 victories during the past three seasons mark the most in a three-year period for Sam Houston's 31-year history as an NCAA program.

After taking the Bearkats from last place to first, Nichols earned Southland Conference "Coach of the Year" honors in 2013.

MORE THAN 25 YEARS IN THE GAME

Nichols was the leading scorer for the 18-9 Sam Houston squad in 1988, coming to Huntsville after two years as an NJCAA All-American at Western Texas Junior College. Her 17.8 career scoring average stands as the second highest mark in Bearkat women's basketball history.

Prior to returning to Huntsville as Sam Houston head coach, Nichols was head coach at Mercer University in Macon, Ga.; served as an assistant at South Alabama and Memphis and was head coach at Okaloosa-Walton Community College and Western Texas.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at Pensacola Junior College in Florida where Bob Marlin, who directed the Bearkat men's basketball program to three conference titles between 1999 and 2010, was then coaching.

Brenda Welch-Nichols enters her 11th season with the Sam Houston State program in 2016-17, looking to build on last season's Southland Conference Tournament championship run in which the Kats advanced to the finals for the second time in four years.

NEW-LOOK TEAM IN 2016-17

- Sam Houston returns just five players from a season ago (Lydia Baxter, Ashleigh Cooper, Angela Delaney, Morghen Day and Jasmine McCants), welcoming seven freshman and four transfers to this year's squad.
- Only three of those players - Angela Delaney, Morghen Day and Jasmine McCants - have made starts in a Bearkat uniform heading into Friday's opener at Arkansas.
- The Bearkats lost eight letterwinners from a season ago including Southland Conference Tournament Most Valuable Player, Angela Beadle. Sam Houston is also looking to fill the shoes of Shernise Robertson, the Southland Conference scoring leader with 17.7 points per game.

TURNING HEADS AT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT

- Sam Houston entered the 2016 Southland Conference Tournament as the seven-seed but could not be slowed down in its run to the league title match.
- In a span of three days, the Bearkats bested five-seed Nichols (73-64) in the first round, three-seed Stephen F. Austin (78-70) in quarterfinals and two-seed Northwestern State (78-71) in the semifinals to advance to the championship game for the second time in four years.
- The Bearkats eventually fell to top-seed Central Arkansas, 69-62, after trailing by just one with 3:01 remaining. The three wins in the event were a program best with all coming against teams that had defeated Sam Houston during the regular season.

KATS SELECTED NINTH, TENTH IN PRESEASON POLL

- With a predominately new squad, the Kats were picked to finish ninth in the Southland Conference by the league's sports information directors and 10th by the conference coaches.
- The Bearkats picked up 66 points in the coaches poll and 60 points in the SIDs poll. Defending champion Abilene Christian is the favorite entering the season, garnering 11 of 13 first-place votes by the SIDs and 10 by the coaches.

KEEP THE BUS RUNNING

- Sam Houston will spend 10 of its first 12 games away from the friendly confines of Bernard G. Johnson Coliseum including eight straight between Nov. 25 and Jan. 5.
- The road trips themselves pose as equal of a challenge as the games on the slate. The Bearkats trek 502 miles to take on Arkansas (Fayetteville, Ark.), 404 miles to face Marshall and UTRGV (Edinburg, Texas) and 297 miles to square off against LSU (Baton Rouge, La.)

GETTING ACCLIMATED WITH ARKANSAS

- Sam Houston and Arkansas meet for the seventh time on Friday and for the third time in the last four seasons. The Razorbacks have claimed the first six matchups in the series including a 67-47 victory against the Bearkats a season ago.
- Only three players on this year's roster - Angela Delaney, Jasmine McCants and Ashleigh Cooper - appeared in the game at Bud Walton Arena a season ago -- with all coming off the bench. Delaney collected a pair of rebounds and added three points in 17 minutes.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

- Among Southland Conference competitors, Sam Houston ranked third in field goal percentage defense (.401), fourth in free throw percentage (.723), fourth in blocked shots (3.22 per game) and fourth in assists (14.06 per game).
- Sam Houston is seeking a strong improvement in the turnover department. The Bearkats ranked 326th nationally and last in the Southland Conference for turnover margin (-4.22).

CLIMBING THE WIN COLUMN

- Entering her 11th season as head coach, Brenda Welch-Nichols ranks second in Bearkat women's basketball lore with 112 wins. The former Bearkat player is just 21 victories shy of catching all-time leader Rebecca Bilsing who assumed the helm between 1973 and 1982.
- Nichols already ranks as Sam Houston's career leader in Southland Conference wins, boasting 72 since taking over in 2006-07. With 112 victories, the Bearkat alum ('89) ranks 18th among win totals among league head coaches all-time.

OUT OF THE GATES AGAINST THE SEC

• For the third time in the last four seasons, Sam Houston opens its season on the road against an opponent from the Southeastern Conference. The Kats began play against Arkansas for the 2013-14 season and and tipped off the 2014-15 campaign at LSU.

• Sam Houston is seeking its first season-opening victory since defeating UT-Tyler in the 2011-12 season opener. This season also marks the fifth straight starting away from home.

RENOVATED JOHNSON COLISEUM AWAITS KATS

• Bernard G. Johnson Coliseum, the home to Sam Houston basketball since 1976, underwent significant upgrades during the offseason including the rehaul and expanding of its locker rooms, new coaches offices and meeting rooms, expanded club seating, upgraded concourse and concessions as well as new temporary courtside seating.

• The team will also break in a new maplewood floor. The 6,110-seat facility had a brand new video board installed during the fall 2015 semester. The board is 17 feet, 9.3 inches tall by 31 feet, 1.6 inches wide and offers the capability for live video, statistics, timing and scoring info.

KATS TUNE-UP IN EXHIBITION PLAY

• Sam Houston fell 85-68 to Our Lady of the Lake in its lone exhibition game of the preseason on Sunday. After trailing 28-26 at the end of the first quarter, the Bearkats were outscored 43-25 between the second and third quarters.

• Despite the result, the game provided the opportunity for seven Sam Houston players to get their first taste of in-game action. Freshman guard Jennifer Oramas and junior transfer Ann Nwosah each put up 13 points and six rebounds in 32 minutes and 18 minutes respectively.

SAM TURNS TO SENIOR DUO FOR GUIDANCE

• For the first time in five seasons, Sam Houston carries as few as two seniors on its roster. Seniors Morghen Day and Jasmine McCants will play a significant role in helping transition a roster that includes seven freshman and four transfers.

• Day, a senior from Rockwall, has logged 1,766 minutes (20.5 per contest) and is a three-year letterwinner who has played 86 games in the backcourt. A season ago, Day started 12 times and posted a season-best 12 points at Lamar and five assists at Incarnate Word.

• McCants is in her second season with the program after transferring from Alabama Southern. The Pensacola, Fla., native ranked as the team's second-leading rebounder and fifth-leading scorer in 2015-16.
