LEADING OFF

IT'S PARTY TIME IN FAYETTEVILLE

The Arkansas Razorbacks are the outright SEC champions.

Charlie Welch's walk-off RBI double in the come-from-behind 4-3 win against 9 Florida on Friday night at Baum Walker Stadium will live in the memory of Hog fans for the rest of time. The Razorback pinch hitter drove home Casey Opitz from third to clinch Arkansas' first regular-season SEC championship since 2004 and first outright overall title since 1999.

Arkansas, the nation's unanimous top-ranked team, also clinched its 10th SEC series win of the year. The Hogs and the 2013 Vanderbilt Commodores are the only two SEC teams in history to win all of their conference series in a season.

The Hogs (41-10, 21-8 SEC) now eye a series sweep to close out the 2021 regular season. First pitch is at 2 p.m. on SEC Network+ and the SEC Network Alternate, with Dave Neal (play-by-play) and Kyle Peterson (analyst) on the call.

DEATH, TAXES, HOGS ARE NO. 1

Arkansas remained the unanimous No. 1 team in college baseball for Week 14 of the season, leading all six major polls released Monday. Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, D1Baseball, NCBWA, Perfect Game and USA Today each kept the Razorbacks atop their respective rankings for the fifth straight week.

It is the eighth time this season that Arkansas is the undisputed No. 1 team as well as the 12th consecutive week that the Hogs maintain the top spot in at least one of the six polls. The Razorbacks have the longest streak of consecutive weeks (12) at No. 1 in Baseball America's top-25 poll since North Carolina was ranked No. 1 for 13 straight weeks in 2013.

HISTORY MADE

Arkansas did more than just secure an outright regular-season SEC championship in last night's walk-off thriller at Baum-Walker Stadium. With the win, the Razorbacks have now come out on top in all 10 of their conference series this year, becoming only the second SEC team in history to win all of their conference series in a single season. Vanderbilt also did so during the 2013 campaign.

A ||| RAZORBACK NOTES

TO BE FRANK, YOU'LL HEAR THIS NAME A LOT

If Christian Franklin isn't already a household name, he will be soon.

The Razorback outfielder enters the 2021 campaign as one of the top college baseball players in the country after slashing .381/.467/.619 with three home runs, 11 RBI and a team-best 21 runs scored in 16 games during the pandemic-shortened season. He started every game in center field after manning left field as a Razorback rookie in 2019 when he hit .274 with six home runs and 34 RBI to earn SEC All-Freshman honors.

The Overland Park, Kan., native garnered preseason first-team All-America accolades from four out of the five major college baseball publications this spring, including Baseball America, D1Baseball, NCBWA and Perfect Game. One of Arkansas' four team captains for the 2021 season, Franklin also checked in as the second-best outfielder in D1Baseball's preseason position power rankings.

He rounded out his gathering of preseason accolades with a spot on the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Watch List. The award, which is given to the top amateur baseball player in the country, was previously won by former Razorback outfielder Andrew Benintendi in 2015.

DIAPER DANDY NO MOORE

Arkansas second baseman Robert Moore burst onto the scene as a freshman. Now, in year two, he's ready for more.

Moore, the son of Kansas City Royals general manager Dayton Moore, started all 16 games in his debut as a Hog one year ago. The then-17-year-old freshman slashed .317/.403/.444 with two homers and 17 RBI before the season was cut short due to the pandemic. His 20 hits on the year ranked second among freshmen in the SEC, and his batting average and RBI total were third most among the league's first-year newcomers.

The slick-handed middle infielder earned SEC Player of the Week and Perfect Game National Player of the Week honors last season, becoming the first freshman in program history to do so. The Leawood, Kan., native now heads into the 2021 campaign as a preseason third-team All-American by D1Baseball and preseason All-SEC First Team honoree.

Junior outfielder Christian Franklin, a consensus preseason All-American and one of the four Razorback team captains, was named to the watch list for the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award, which is given to the top amateur baseball player in the country.

Sophomore second baseman Robert Moore burst onto the scene in 2020, slashing .317/.403/.444 with two homers and 17 RBI before the season was cut short.

Moore, also rated the third-best second baseman in D1Baseball's preseason position power rankings, topped off his hype-filled preseason with a spot alongside teammate Christian Franklin on the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Watch List. The award, which is given to the top amateur baseball player in the country, was previously won by former Razorback outfielder Andrew Benintendi in 2015.

GOLDEN BOLDEN

Caleb Bolden's strong outing during the opening weekend of the 2021 season earned him the conference's top weekly honor.

The right-hander was named the SEC Co-Pitcher of the Week (Feb. 23), putting an exclamation point on his impressive performance in the Razorbacks' 4-0 shutout win against No. 9 Texas at the State Farm College Baseball Showdown at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas. His effort out of the bullpen helped Arkansas secure their second victory of the young season as well as their second consecutive win against a top-10 opponent.

Bolden struck out seven batters in four no-hit innings, silencing the nationally ranked Longhorns en route to the Razorbacks' shutout win. The Texarkana, Texas, native entered the ballgame in the fifth and tossed the final four frames, picking up the first save of his college career.

ALL OPITZ DOES IS GET HITZ

Casey Opitz's big weekend at the plate in the Hogs' first SEC series of the year earned him the conference's top weekly honor.

The catcher was named the SEC Co-Player of the Week (March 22) after powering Arkansas to two wins against nationally ranked Alabama. His bat led the Hogs to their first conference series win of the season.

Opitz recorded a hit in all three games of the series, driving in a team-leading four runs. He racked up a season-best three hits and matched his season-high with three runs scored in the Razorbacks' 9-1 win in game two, also launching his first homer of the year in the ballgame.

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL

Matt Goodheart has brought home numerous weekly honors this season, including SEC Player of the Week (March 29), Collegiate Baseball

Newspaper National Player of the Week (April 19) and Perfect Game/Rawlings Player of the Week (April 20).

The Razorback slugger has hit a home run in four consecutive on two occasions this season. His bat powered the Razorbacks to a three-game conference road series sweep at nationally ranked Mississippi State, marking the first time since 2010 that Arkansas has gone on the road and swept the Bulldogs in Starkville.

The Magnolia, Ark., native homered in all three games on the road at Mississippi State, hitting a solo shot in the series opener against the Bulldogs before launching a two-run homer in the second game and swatting another solo shot in the finale.

WALLY TWO TIMES

Cayden Wallace and “immediate impact” belong in the same sentence.

The first-year newcomer has been named the SEC Co-Freshman of the Week twice this season, picking up the award in back-to-back week. The Greenbrier, Ark., native first earned the recognition on April 12 after guiding the Razorbacks to a series win at Ole Miss, slugging his way through the road trip with a homer and a team-high six RBI.

Wallace had at least one hit in all three games of the series and collected multiple RBI in two of the three contests. His biggest moment came in the 18-14 series finale win when he swatted a three-run homer in the third.

He picked up the award for a second time this year on April 19 after a five-RBI week against UA Pine Bluff and SEC foe Texas A&M. He had two multi-hit efforts against the Aggies, matching his season high of three base knocks during the series.

CALL THE KOPPS

One of college baseball’s best relief pitchers is a Razorback.

Kevin Kopps has been flat-out dominant dominant during the 2021 campaign, owning a 0.75 ERA in 60.1 innings of work (26 appearances) on the year. Kopps has struck out 97 batters and limited opposing hitters to a .158 batting average, allowing only five runs while issuing just 15 walks. He has a team-best eight saves, including seven of the multi-inning variety.

True freshman outfielder Cayden Wallace was named the SEC Co-Freshman of the Week after powering the Razorbacks to their first series win at Ole Miss since 2010.

Kopps was named the National Pitcher of the Month for April by the NCBWA. He was also landed on the midseason watch list of the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award, which honor the nation’s top reliever.

ACTION JAXON

It has not taken long for right-hander Jaxon Wiggins to make jaws drop. According to D1Baseball, the freshman phenom has recorded the third-hardest pitch thrown (98 mph) in all of college baseball this season.

Wiggins has clocked in at 98 mph multiple times this year, first doing so in his debut appearance out of the bullpen against No. 10 TCU at the State Farm College Baseball Showdown at Globe Life Field, home of the Texas Rangers, in Arlington, Texas. He began his collegiate career by striking out nine of the first 13 batters he faced, collecting multiple strikeouts in his first four appearances of the season.

FABULOUS FOUR

For the third consecutive year, Arkansas has an SEC-best four preseason first-team honorees. Casey Opitz (catcher), Robert Moore (second base), Christian Franklin (outfield) and Matt Goodheart (designated hitter/utility) landed on the 2021 Coaches Preseason All-SEC First Team.

The Razorback foursome is the most of any program in the conference - a feat Arkansas also achieved ahead of the 2019 and 2020 campaigns. No other school has more than two first-team honorees on this year’s preseason All-SEC squads.

DON'T SLEEP ON THE HOGS

Arkansas was predicted to finish third in the SEC Western Division, collecting two first-place votes from the league’s head coaches. Ole Miss (seven votes) and Mississippi State (three votes) were selected to finish first and second, respectively, in the division.

O CAPTAIN! MY CAPTAIN!

Arkansas’ four team captains for the 2021 season are catcher Casey Opitz, outfielder Christian Franklin, right-handed pitcher Kevin Kopps and right-handed pitcher Zebulon Vermillion.

Senior catcher Casey Opitz, a preseason first-team All-SEC honoree and one of the four Razorback team captains, entered the 2021 campaign rated as the sixth-best catcher in the country by D1Baseball in the publication’s position power rankings.

In his 19th season as head coach of the Razorback baseball program, Dave Van Horn has continued to elevate Arkansas into one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his 18 seasons as head Hog, Van Horn has led Arkansas to six College World Series appearances, 16 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, five SEC Western Division championships and 700 wins and counting.

Ever since returning to his alma mater in 2003 to take over for retiring SEC legend Norm DeBriyn, Van Horn has continued to successfully field nationally competitive teams, while also grooming numerous All-Americans, all-conference and future major league players.

Under his guidance, 30 Razorbacks have been named All-Americans, 42 as All-SEC players, and 111 have been picked in the MLB Draft. Those draft picks are the third-most among all active head coaches in the SEC.

Van Horn is the second-winningest coach in Arkansas history with 700 wins entering the 2020 season. In 2018, Van Horn became only the second active head coach in the SEC with 600 or more wins at their current school. He won his 700th game as the Hogs' skipper in what turned out to be the team's final game of the 2020 season against Grand Canyon.

Including his years at Nebraska, Northwestern State and Central Missouri State, Van Horn has racked up 1,111 wins at four-year institutions, which is 15th-most among all active coaches. He is also one of 10 active coaches with 1,000 or more wins at four-year schools.
