SCOUTING THE RAZORBACKS

Arkansas enters the week ranked number one in the latest Baseball America poll and number two in D1 Baseball, coming off a 2-1 series win over Auburn in Fayetteville in which all three games were decided by one run. The Razorbacks are batting .280 as a team with 46 home runs on the year, ranking third nationally, and a .501 slugging percentage, ranking eighth in the nation. Six players are batting .300 or better as four have driven in 20 or more runs on the season. On the mound, the Arkansas pitching staff boasts a 3.88 ERA through 232.0 innings pitched, combining for 252 strikeouts and limiting the opposition to a .213 batting average.

LAST TIME OUT

Little Rock stumbled in a three-game sweep at the hands of its rivals in Jonesboro, falling to Arkansas State 10-2, 4-0 and 10-6 at Tomlinson Stadium. The Trojan bats struggled all weekend, batting just .192 against the Red Wolves pitching staff, including going 21.2 innings without a run - its longest stretch of the season. Eldrige Figueroa (.400) and Jorden Hussein (.300) were the only Trojans to bat over .300 while Tyler Williams drove in four of Little Rock's eight runs on the weekend.

TYING HOGAN

With the weekend sweep of Texas State March 19-21, head coach Chris Curry sits at 76 Sun Belt Conference wins, moving him into a tie with Hall of Fame coach Gary Hogan for the most conference victories in program history. Curry is 76-76 all-time in league play as his .500 conference winning percentage is the highest in program history as well.

PLAYING WITH THE LEAD

Little Rock has taken advantage of being in front as the Trojans are 12-2 this season in games in which they have held a lead at any point in the game. Little Rock's lone losses in which it held a lead was the 10-7 defeat to 22nd-ranked Southern Illinois on Mar. 26 (Trojans led 3-0 in the 2nd) and at Arkansas State on Apr. 1 (Trojans led 1-0 in the 1st and 2-1 in the 2nd).

FACING THE BEST

Heading into the midweek series at Arkansas, Little Rock has faced 25 ranked opponents during head coach Chris Curry's tenure, posting an 8-17 record and coming off a 2-1 series victory at 22nd-ranked Southern Illinois. Little Rock is 1-4 under Curry in games against top-10 foes with the victory coming in the win over the ninth-ranked Razorbacks in 2019.

NOT SHYING AWAY

Arkansas is the third of four teams on the slate for Little Rock that reached either the NCAA Super Regionals or College World Series in 2019. The Trojans have already faced Oklahoma State (Super Regional) and Auburn (College World Series) this season, going 1-3 in those games, and have a pair of midweek tilts remaining at Ole Miss (Super Regional) on April 20 and May 4.

WILLIAMS DOING IT ALL

Sophomore Tyler Williams continues to show why he is the Sun Belt's top prospect for 2022, batting .341 on the year while leading the team in slugging percentage (.637), at bats (91), hits (31), doubles (8), triples (2), home runs (5), RBI (26), total bases (58) and stolen bases (5). Williams has reached base safely in all 23 games of 2021 and boasts a team-best seven multi RBI games this season.

SUN BELT'S BEST

Little Rock enters the weekend second in the Sun Belt in batting average (.280), despite dropping 13 points following its .192 performance at Arkansas State. Jorden Hussein leads the conference in batting average at .413, ranking 34th nationally, with John Michael Russ fourth at .364 and Tyler Williams eighth with his .341 average. Hussein is second in the conference in on base percentage at .476, with Russ right behind in fourth at .462.

TURNING TWO

Little Rock begins the week as one of the nation's top double play-turning teams, leading the Sun Belt with 21 on the year. The Trojans' 21 double plays rank 21st nationally and they rank 22nd in double plays per game (0.91), logging a season-high three at Southern Illinois on March 27 and again against UA Pine Bluff on March 31.

RUSS ON POSEY WATCH LIST

Senior catcher John Michael Russ was named to the 2021 Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year watch list last week, marking the second-straight year the Trojans have had a catcher named to the list (Kale Emshoff - 2020). Little Rock's team captain in 2021, Russ is batting .364 in the cleanup spot with 10 RBI and 12 walks, ranking second on the team with 28 hits. He has also been solid behind the plate with a 1.000 fielding percentage and just three passed balls in 21 starts.

STRONG IN RELIEF

Little Rock's bullpen has been a key to the Trojans' success this season, posting a 4.49 ERA while allowing the opposition to just a .241 hitting percentage. The staff has combined for 102 strikeouts, opposed to just 62 walks, allowing 50 earned runs in 100.1 innings of relief.

QUICK HITTERS

- Little Rock's batters enter the week hitting .269 with two outs, .324 with runners in scoring position and .355 with the bases loaded.
- Hayden Arnold threw a career-high 119 pitches Friday against Arkansas State, becoming the second pitcher for the Trojans to surpass 100 pitches in a game this season (Aaron Funk vs. Texas State).
- Little Rock has scored three or more runs in 19 different innings this season, scoring five or more on five different occasions.
- This week will mark a homecoming for two northeast Arkansas on the Trojan roster in Nathan Lyons (Bentonville) and John Boushelle (Fayetteville).

Little Rock native Chris Curry is in his seventh season at the helm of the Trojan baseball program, named head baseball coach at Little Rock on July 1, 2014. Curry has made his mark in Little Rock with an overall record of 129-159, making post-season appearances in four of his first five seasons.

Curry's 2020 squad was making noise early in the season with Kale Emshoff and Aaron Funk emerging as Player of the Year candidates for the Sun Belt Conference. The duo ranked among the league leaders in a number of categories and had the Trojans gelling before the global coronavirus pandemic shut the season down on March 11, 2020.

The shutdown had an impact on the MLB Draft as well as it was limited to just five rounds, keeping Emshoff from possibly going down as the highest-ever draft pick in program history. The redshirt junior catcher was signed as a free agent by the Kansas City Royals and is ranked as one of their top-20 prospects, bringing Curry's count to nine Trojans signed by Major League programs since arriving at Little Rock.

2019 was a banner year for Curry and the program as Little Rock won 29 games, the most for the program since 2010, as the Trojans set a new benchmark for conference wins in a season with 18. Going 18-11, Little Rock earned the number three overall seed in the 2019 Sun Belt tournament, tied for its best seeding in program history.

One of the most memorable moments of the season came on April 2, 2019, when Little Rock earned a convincing 17-7 win over Arkansas, the reigning national runners-up, at Baum-Walker Stadium in the first meeting between the two schools. That spearheaded an impressive 8-0 record against teams from the Natural State as Little Rock became the first program in the state's history to defeat the other four Division I schools in the same season.

Individual accolades rolled in for the Trojans as Riley Pittman and Chandler Fidel were both named first team All-Sun Belt selections, followed by Pittman being named a CoSIDA Google Cloud Second Team All-American after becoming the program's all-time home run leader. Little Rock claimed the Sun Belt Conference's Academic Team achievement for the third-straight year (2017, 2018 and 2019) while extending the program's streak to 10-straight semesters of a team GPA above a 3.0.

Curry and the Trojans made their third consecutive Sun Belt Conference Tournament appearance in 2018. Little Rock finished the season with a 28 wins, the most since 2013. The Trojans won their fifth straight series against Texas State — a feat that had never been accomplished against another Sun Belt team since Little Rock joined the league in 1992. The Trojans reached an RPI of 31 during March, the highest in program history, with Justin Garcia being selected in the 17th round of the MLB Draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks.

In his second season in 2016, Curry was named the Sun Belt Conference's Coach of the Year after leading the Trojans to a 17-13 Sun Belt record and a third-place finish during the regular season, both program records. The Trojans were able to win six Sun Belt series for the year, tying the program record. Curry took the Trojans back to the Sun Belt Conference Tournament for the first time since 2013.

Little Rock had a pair of wins over No. 16 Louisiana, winning the season series for the second straight year against the Ragin' Cajuns. Under his guidance, the Trojans earned three All-Sun Belt selections while Ryan Scott earned Sun Belt Student-Athlete of the Year and Louisville Slugger First Team All-American.

Before coming to Little Rock, Curry was a top assistant and pitching coach at Northwestern State for two years and previously worked on the baseball staffs at Arkansas, Arkansas Tech, Hendrix and Meridian Community College.

In Curry's second year at Northwestern State, the Demons won 33 games and tied a school record with a 17-win improvement from the previous season, including a Southland Conference record 14-win increase in league play. NSU also boasted the Southland Conference Freshman of the Year and a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American in right-handed pitcher Adam Oller. Center fielder Bret Underwood, who Curry recruited, was taken by the San Francisco Giants in the 20th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Off the field, the Demons posted a team GPA of 3.0 or higher in each of the four semesters under Curry and head coach Lane Burroughs.

Prior to his stint at Northwestern State, Curry served as head coach of Meridian Community College from 2011-12. He went 69-44 in two seasons at Meridian, capturing a Miss-Lou Conference Championship and earning Coach of the Year honors in 2012. Curry coached two junior college All-Americans and produced the NJCAA national home run leader in both seasons. Two of his players were selected in the 2012 Major League Baseball Player's Draft while the team raised its cumulative GPA from 2.62 to 3.30 with Curry at the helm.

Curry worked as an assistant coach under head coach Dave Van Horn at Arkansas from 2009-10. He worked with the catchers and assisted with hitting duties in his time with the Razorbacks, which included a College World Series appearance in 2009 and an NCAA Super Regional in 2010.

In 2009, Arkansas led the Southeastern Conference in runners caught stealing after placing last in the league in that category the year before Curry's arrival. The Razorbacks led the SEC with just three passed balls in 2010.

Curry's coaching career began as an assistant coach at both Hendrix (2007) and Arkansas Tech (2008), coming following the completion of Curry's seven-year pro playing career. He made appearances in major league spring training games from 2002-05 and allowed him to catch big leaguers Kerry Wood, Carlos Zambrano, Mark Prior and Tom Gordon.

Curry worked his way up to the Chicago Cubs' Triple-A affiliate between 1999-02. He finished his pro career as an All-Star with the independent Northern League's Gary Southshore Railcats in 2006.

Curry played his high school baseball at Conway High School and was an All-State pitcher and catcher for the Wampus Cats. He played two seasons at Meridian CC and was Baseball America's No. 1-rated junior college prospect in the nation in 1998. He was the starting catcher for Team USA's Junior College All-Star Team that same year.

Following two All-Miss-Lou Conference and All-Region 23 seasons at Meridian CC, Curry signed with legendary coach Ron Polk at Mississippi State. He led all SEC catchers in fielding percentage in 1999 before being chosen by the Chicago Cubs in the ninth round of the 1999 MLB Draft.

A veteran of seven years as a catcher in professional baseball with the Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants organizations, Curry's selection by Chicago marked his fourth time being drafted. He was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the 26th round as a high school senior in 1996 and twice by the Detroit Tiger, first in the 17th round in 1997 and again in the 52nd round in 1998.

Curry was a 1998 Cape Cod League All-Star and in 2018 was inducted into the Mississippi Junior College Hall of Fame for his playing career while at Meridian.

He is married to the former Chassity Cossey of Hamburg, Arkansas. The couple has one son, Caleb Christopher, and one daughter, Lily Marie.
