ROSTER NOTES

Due to the spread of COVID-19, the 2020 baseball season was cut short. The NCAA will allow all participating student-athletes are able to retain their year of eligibility. Per SEC guidelines, the experience level of participating players has been advanced to mirror academic progress. Seniors listed with an asterisk still have one year of eligibility remaining should they choose to exercise that option.

NUMBER RETIREMENT

THURSDAY, APRIL 22 • VS. LSU

HONORING A REBEL LEGEND

Ole Miss legend and Major League Baseball All-Star Don Kessinger will have his jersey number retired on Thursday, April 22, as the third-ranked Rebels open a three-game series against LSU at Swayze Field.

Kessinger's No. 11—the number he wore as he earned six All-Star and two Gold Glove selections as the shortstop for the Chicago Cubs—will be displayed on the outfield wall at Oxford-University Stadium. He will join Jake Gibbs as the only two Rebel baseball players to have their numbers retired.

"Few individuals have represented Ole Miss with more grace and prestige than Don Kessinger," said Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Keith Carter. "He competed at the highest level of the sport of baseball and set a standard for future Rebels. As a student-athlete, he was a rare two-sport All-American, and as a coach, he provided leadership and personal guidance to countless young men. We are honored to celebrate his lifetime of success, his contributions to Ole Miss and the person that he is by placing his jersey number in its rightful place alongside Jake Gibbs in Swayze Field."

"I'm excited this honor is being bestowed upon Don Kessinger," said head baseball coach Mike Bianco. "As many people know, this will only be the second number in Ole Miss baseball history to be retired. Don is arguably the greatest player who has ever put on the uniform here. He's had a sensational career, not only as a Rebel, but in his long, illustrious career in Major League Baseball as a member of the Chicago Cubs. I've always appreciated Don and what he has meant not only to Ole Miss, but to me personally. He's been a great ambassador to Ole Miss baseball and pillar in our community."

Kessinger excelled in both basketball and baseball for the Rebels from 1962-64, earning All-SEC and All-America honors in both sports. In basketball, he averaged 22.2 points per game to rank fourth in Ole Miss history as well as 11th with 1,553 career points. On the diamond, Kessinger's feats were equally impressive. His .400 career batting average still remains No. 1 in the Ole Miss record book, an effort which is also sixth on the SEC career chart. Kessinger's best year at the plate came in 1964 when he led the SEC by hitting .436, a performance which remains as the best single-season effort in Rebel baseball history. His nine career triples and 44 career steals place him 10th on each Ole Miss all-time list.

"I am thrilled, honored, overwhelmed and humbled by this gesture," Kessinger said. "I will be forever grateful that my number will be hung next to the great Jake Gibbs in the outfield. I am also so privileged that I have had the honor of representing Ole Miss through the years in two sports. My teammates, coaches and those Ole Miss fans who have encouraged my career will never be forgotten. I have also been blessed by the amazing young men I got to coach at Ole Miss. They taught me so much. I could not be where I find myself today without the support of all. And to my family, I am thankful for your constant love, support and encouragement through my athletic career. But most of all, I am grateful to my Heavenly Father for gifting to me the skills, the health and the ultimate successes I have had. I pray that I have honored Him above all."

Following a successful collegiate career, Kessinger moved on to Major League Baseball where he put together an impressive 16-year career. He started with the Chicago Cubs in 1964 and played at Wrigley Field until 1975. During that time as the Cubs' starting shortstop, Kessinger played in six All-Star Games, earned two Gold Glove Awards and set a then-Major League record for consecutive errorless games at shortstop with 54 in 1969. In his last season in MLB, 1979, Kessinger served as a player-manager for the White Sox.

Named an SEC Legend, as well as a member of the Chicago Cubs, Ole Miss Sports, Mississippi, Arkansas, Chicago and National High School Halls of Fame, Kessinger kept close to baseball following his MLB career. In 1991, he returned to his alma mater to become head coach of the Rebels, taking over for the legendary Gibbs. Kessinger won 185 games over six seasons, and in 1995, he led Ole Miss to its first-ever 40-win season, as well as its first NCAA Regional berth since 1977.

Kessinger's sons, Keith and Kevin, both followed in his footsteps and had outstanding Rebel careers before moving on to professional baseball. The Kessinger legacy continued when Don's grandson, Grae Kessinger, became the second All-American shortstop in the family, earning first-team honors in 2019.

2020 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Mike Bianco led Ole Miss to a 16-1 record before the arrival of COVID-19 brought a swift end to the 2020 season. The Rebels, ranked third nationally, were on a 16-game win streak and were tied for college baseball's best record. For his efforts Bianco was named National Coach of the year by Collegiate Baseball.

THE DEAN OF THE SEC

Bianco is in his 21st season as the head coach of the Ole Miss Rebels, making him the longest-tenured among SEC baseball, football and men's basketball coaches. He is the winningest active coach in the conference.

OXFORD'S WINS LEADER

Bianco became the all-time wins leader at Ole Miss on March 9, 2013, with a non-conference win over Lipscomb to surpass Rebel legend Jake Gibbs with his 486th win as the skipper in Oxford. On March 6, 2016, he won his 600th game to become just the ninth coach in SEC history to record at least 600 wins. On May 11, 2018, Bianco became just the fifth coach in history to record 700 wins with an SEC school, as well as earning his 800th career win with a victory over Auburn.

SWAYZE 500

Bianco chalked up his 500th career home victory when Ole Miss beat Belmont 4-3 on Saturday, March 6, 2021, at Swayze Field. The Rebel win came courtesy of Kevin Graham as his go-ahead home run in the eighth inning broke a 3-3 tie that stood since the third. Taylor Broadway earned the win, closing it out with two scoreless, hitless innings.

BRONZE IN BIRMINGHAM

On Friday, April 26, 2019, Ole Miss rolled to a 13-3 victory over Texas A&M, giving Bianco his 739th win as the head coach in Oxford, moving him to third all-time in SEC history ahead of South Carolina's Ray Tanner. Earlier that month, Bianco's Rebels turned in a dominant 12-4 victory over Florida (April 5), giving him his 300th career win in SEC play.

PRO PIPELINE

Bianco has coached 21 future MLB Rebels in his 20 seasons and has seen 116 of his players selected in the Major League Baseball draft. A total of 10 Rebels have been selected in the last two MLB drafts, including third-round pick Anthony Servideo (Baltimore Orioles) and fourth-round pick Tyler Keenan (Seattle Mariners) in 2020's shortened draft.

PLAYING IN JUNE

Bianco has coached Ole Miss to the postseason in 16 of his 19 full seasons. That puts Ole Miss third in the SEC in NCAA Tournament appearances during his tenure. The Rebels have hosted an NCAA Regional in three of the last four full seasons, one of just four SEC teams and 10 teams nationally to do so.

CONSISTENT WINNERS

Ole Miss is one of just five programs in the nation with 22 straight 30-win seasons, excluding last year's shortened campaign. The Rebels are one of just two SEC teams with back-to-back 40-win seasons and were well on their way to a third at 16-1 when the 2020 season was cut short.

BEATING THE BEST

Under Bianco, Ole Miss has won two SEC Tournament titles—most recently in 2018. The Rebels were just three outs away from back-to-back titles in 2019 but fell in a championship game thriller to eventual national champion Vanderbilt. Ole Miss has also won three SEC Western Division titles—most recently in 2018 and one outright SEC regular-season crown (2009).

SEC PEDIGREE

Bianco's winning ways can be traced back to his playing days. After spending two seasons at Indian River (Fla.) Community College, he played two seasons for Skip Bertman at perennial national-power LSU in 1988 and 1989. He was the starting catcher and team captain for the Tigers' 1989 team that finished third at the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska. He homered in LSU's 6-3 win over Miami (Fla.) in the 1989 CWS to help advance the Tigers to the semifinals. Bianco was inducted into the Indian River Community College Hall of Fame in 2003. He was also named to the All-Alex Box Omaha Era Team by LSU in 2008. In 2010, Bianco was inducted into the Seminole High School Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL BACKGROUND

Bianco, 53, was born May 3, 1967, and is a native of Seminole, Florida. He is married to the former Camille Marquette, and the couple has five children: sons, Michael, Benjamin, Andrew and Samuel, and one daughter, Catherine. Ben is a senior on the baseball team at Louisville, Drew is a junior on the LSU baseball team and Sam is a freshman for the Louisiana baseball team. The athleticism doesn't stop there—Catherine was named All-State in volleyball for Oxford high this season.

TEAM NOTES

REBS VS. HOGS

Ole Miss and Arkansas have met 99 times with the Razorbacks holding a 51-48 all-time lead. The Rebels and Hogs split eight meetings in 2019—a series win for Ole Miss in Fayetteville, a split of two games at the SEC Tournament in Hoover and an Arkansas series win at the Fayetteville Super Regional. The three Super Regional games were all decided by eight or more runs—before that, seven of the previous eight meetings had been decided by two runs or fewer.

BIANCO V. VAN HORN

Mike Bianco and Dave Van Horn have faced one another as head coaches 64 times, with Bianco holding a 38-26 advantage in the all-time series. This weekend, the two will pass legendary LSU and Mississippi State coaches Skip Bertman and Ron Polk, who faced one another 66 times between 1984-2001, for the most meetings between two SEC head coaches. That includes nine contests in the SEC tournament, one non-conference meeting at the Dairy Queen Classic in Minneapolis in 2007 and a three-game series in 2019 for the Fayetteville Super Regional. The two also crossed paths five times between 1995-97 while Van Horn was the head coach at Northwestern State and Bianco an assistant at LSU. LSU won three of those five meetings.

FIRST SEC SETBACK

Ole Miss outscored Florida 14-12 over the weekend in its first ever trip to Florida Ballpark, but the Rebels left Gainesville with their first SEC series loss of the season. The Gators scored late to win a 4-1 pitchers' duel in Game 1. The following night, the Rebels answered back with six runs in the final two innings of an 8-2 victory to even the series at two. It appeared more late-game magic was on the way in Game 3 when brought the game to within one with a two-run seventh inning, but the home team held off a late rally of a 6-5 final.

HISTORIC SEC START

Ole Miss started SEC play at 6-0 for the first time since the 1964 team started 11-0 in league play en route to a College World Series appearance. Ole Miss swept both Alabama and Auburn to start SEC play, the first time since 2001 that the Rebels swept both Alabama schools in the same season. It's also the first time Ole Miss swept consecutive SEC series since going 6-0 against Alabama and Tennessee in 2013. This was Ole Miss' first SEC road sweep since taking three from No. 17 Kentucky in 2014. Mike Bianco's Rebels are the first team to start SEC play at 6-0 since South Carolina in 2016 and the only SEC West team to start 6-0 since he came to Oxford in 2001.

WEST AND HIGHLY FAVORED

Ole Miss was picked to win the SEC Western Division by the conference coaches, garnering seven of the division's 14 first-place votes. This marked the first time since 2008 that the Rebels were picked to win the SEC West. Ole Miss was projected to finish sixth in the division last season. After three weeks of SEC play, the Rebels are tied for first in the division at 7-2.

ONE-RUN MAGIC

Ole Miss is 7-2 on the season in one-run games. Ole Miss has won nine straight 1-0 games. The last time Mike Bianco's squad lost a 1-0 contest was Feb. 24, 2007, against Wright State, a game that was shortened to five innings due to weather. Ole Miss also has 10 come-from-behind wins.

FIRST NO. 1 RANKING

Baseball America, D1Baseball, Perfect Game and NCBWA made Ole Miss the consensus No. 1 team in the nation after Week 1, the first No. 1 ranking in program history. The Rebels hold a high ranking of No. 3 despite its first SEC series loss last weekend.

RECORD-SETTING STREAK

Ole Miss opened the 2020 season with a defeat at home to No. 1 Louisville, led by eventual first round MLB Draft pick Reid Detmers. Starting the next day, Ole Miss went on the greatest tear in program history, reeling off 20 straight victories before finally snapping the spell on Feb. 26, 2021, with a 3-2 loss to UCF. The streak spanned 378 days. The Rebels finished tied for the fifth-most consecutive wins in SEC history (Record: 24 - Texas A&M, 2015) and the longest win streak in the conference since Mizzou won 20 straight in 2017.

PITCHING NOTES

WELCOME TO THE GUN SHOW

Gunnar Hoglund has made four consecutive starts in series openers, his first in the lead role of the Rebel rotation. Over those four starts, the junior out of Hudson, Florida, has gone 26.0 innings with five runs (four earned) allowed on 15 hits and six walks with 42 strikeouts. Hoglund is No. 2 in the nation with 70 strikeouts on the season, just one behind the national leader, Vanderbilt's Jack Leiter (71). Hoglund's 14 strikeouts against ULM were two shy of the program record and the most by a Rebel since Drew Pomeranz struck out 15 in 2010. Ole Miss is 22-6 in games where Hoglund pitches, including wins in 10 of his last 11 starts. Hoglund has struck out 10 or more in five of his seven starts this season.

Ole Miss also ranks in the top 50 nationally in strikeout-to-walk ratio, WHIP, walks per nine innings, ERA, shutouts and hits per nine innings. The Rebels struck out 16 Texas Tech batters on Feb. 21, their most against a ranked team since fanning 16 against No. 23 UNCW in 2017. The Rebels struck out 42 batters over opening week-end in Texas. Ole Miss' 18 strikeouts against Arkansas State were its most since Game 2 against Xavier last season. The Rebels matched that season-best mark in an April 3 win at Florida.

DOUG DAY

Doug Nikhazy has come back strong after missing two starts with a strained pectoral muscle. In his two recent starts at Alabama and Florida, Nikhazy went 11.0 innings with just one unearned run allowed on three hits and five walks with 18 strikeouts. Nikhazy's 11 strikeouts at Florida were a season-high and tied his career-best in SEC play. In two previous starts before injury, Nikhazy notched a 2.39 ERA over 11.1 innings with three runs allowed on five hits with 19 strikeouts and three walks.

BROADWAY IS CLOSED

Taylor Broadway has been a dominant force at the back end of the Rebel bullpen in 2021, ranking third in the nation and first in the SEC in saves with seven. Ole Miss is 10-1 this season when Broadway pitches, including nine scoreless outings.
