This Weekend In The SEC

Alabama (2-7) at Texas A&M (3-6)

After opening league play against three SEC Eastern Division opponents, Texas A&M is 3-6, a record it has held three of the last four seasons after three weekends. It finished 16-14 in 2017 and 13-17 in 2018. We'll find out what 2021 holds in seven more weeks. Alabama finds itself staring at a 2-7 mark in SEC play for the third time in the last four seasons after dropping six of its last seven league contests. The Tide has dropped its last nine SEC series dating back to the 2019 season. The Aggies have won the last five series over the Crimson Tide, including back-to-back sweeps in 2017-18. The Crimson Tide last won a series in Bryan-College Station in 2014.

Arkansas (7-2) at Ole Miss (7-2)

Arkansas is coming off three one-run games in a series win over Auburn and sits at 7-2 in the league standings for the first time since 2017. It has won seven of its last eight conference games, including a sweep over Mississippi State in its first SEC road series. Likewise, Ole Miss is 7-2, matching its best start since 2004. The Razorbacks face an uphill battle as the Rebels have won 24 of their last 30 home series dating back to 2014. Ole Miss has won four consecutive and seven of the last eight series over Arkansas. There's only been one sweep in the last 10 series (Ole Miss in 2016). The Rebels have won the last four series at Swayze Field. The last Arkansas series win in Oxford came in 2010. Since Arkansas joined the SEC in 1992, the series meetings and regular-season games are deadlocked at 14-14 and 42-42, respectively. Each team has a 7-7 series record on their home field.

Mississippi State (5-4) at Auburn (1-8)

Mississippi State is looking to build off a series sweep over Kentucky when it hits the road for the second time in SEC play. The Bulldogs are 5-4 in league play, sitting above the .500 mark after three weeks of action for the fourth time in the last five seasons. State has won six of its last eight SEC road series dating back to 2018. Auburn has limped out of the gate with one victory in nine tries for the third time since 2007. It has dropped its last five series dating back to 2019. State has won five of the last nine series, including three sweeps (two in Auburn 2014 & 2016). The Tigers took back-to-back series in 2017 & '18 with the Bulldogs winning in Starkville in 2019.

Florida (5-4) at Tennessee (7-2)

After winning eight of 10 road series in 2017 & 2018, Florida is 1-5 in its last six road trips, including being swept four times. The Gators (5-4) took the series at home versus Ole Miss last weekend and are above .500 after three weekends for the sixth time in the last seven seasons. Tennessee (7-2) is off to its best start in SEC play since 2001, when it began 8-1. In fact, it has won five consecutive conference series dating back to the final two weekends of the 2019 campaign. The Volunteers have won seven of their last 11 home series. It hasn't accomplished that since parts of the 2005-06-07 seasons. Tennessee has won two of the last three series after the Gators posted an eight-series win streak over the Volunteers from 2009-16. There hasn't been a sweep in the series since Florida accomplished it in 2011. UT last swept Florida in 2001 in Gainesville and hasn't done it in Knoxville since 1994.

Georgia (3-6) at Vanderbilt (8-1)

Georgia is 3-6 to begin SEC play for the first time since 2017. The Bulldogs have split their last four conference games after starting 1-5. Vanderbilt is riding a six-game conference winning streak and is 8-1 in SEC play for the first time since the magical 2013 season when it started 14-1 en route to the all-time best record of 26-3. The Commodores return home where they have won seven consecutive home series dating back to the 2018 season. In fact, since 2016 Vanderbilt is 17-3-1 in its last 21 home series. Georgia snapped a 10-series (2009-18) Vanderbilt win streak in 2019 in Athens. The last series win by the Bulldogs in Nashville came in 2008. The Commodores have swept three of the last six series (2014-15-16) over the Bulldogs.

LSU (1-8) at Kentucky (5-4)

LSU sits at 1-8 in SEC play for the first time since 1969. The Tigers have dropped six consecutive league games for the first time since 2010. Since 2018, LSU is 2-9 in SEC road series. Even after getting swept at Mississippi State last weekend, Kentucky sits above .500 after three SEC weekends for the first time since 2017. In 2018 (3-6) & 2019 (1-8), it owned a combined 4-14 record after the first three weekends. Kentucky has won two of the last three series over LSU and the last three series in the Bluegrass State dating back to 2010. The teams met annually between 2004-13, but have only played three series since 2014. Five of the last nine series have resulted in sweeps – four by LSU, one by UK.

Missouri (3-6) at South Carolina (6-3)

Last week, Missouri won its first series of the season by defeating Texas A&M, 2-1. The Tigers are looking to win three straight SEC regular-season games for the second time since ending the 2017 season with five consecutive victories. Missouri is 2-8-1 in its last 11 SEC road series. South Carolina (6-3) is one of the hottest teams in the SEC the last two weeks with five league wins and is off to its best start since 2017. South Carolina has swept Missouri in its three trips to Columbia (2014-16-18) since joining the SEC in 2013. In seven series meetings, the road team has one series victory and that was posted by the Gamecocks in 2013 in CoMo.

Seeding

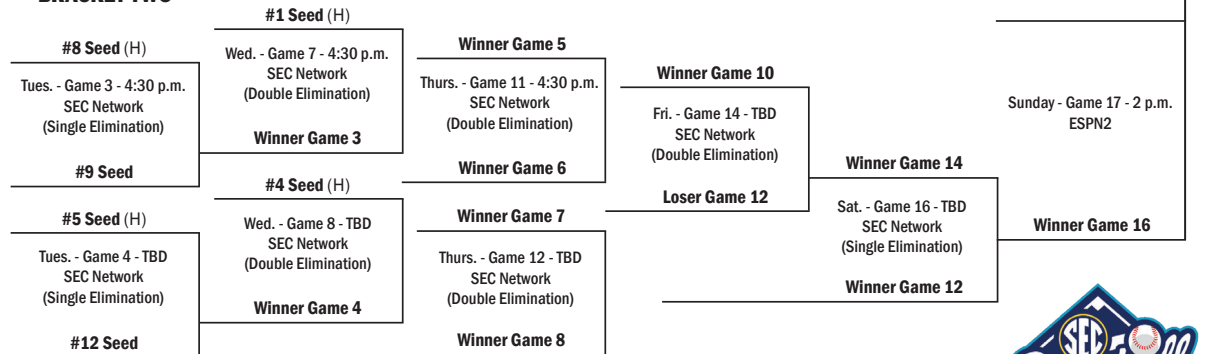

The two division champions shall be automatically seeded number one and number two based on winning percentage in conference competition. The rest shall be seeded numbers three through 12 based on winning percentage without regard to division. Ties will be broken in the following manner:

- Two-Team Tie. The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:
 - Won-lost results of head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
 - If two-teams are divisional opponents:
 - Won-lost percentage within their division (over the 18-game SEC division schedule).
 - Won-lost percentage of the two teams versus the No. 1 team in their division (and proceeding through the No. 7 team, if necessary).
 - If two teams are not divisional opponents:
 - Won-lost record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed using common opponents only (and proceeding through the No. 12 seed, if necessary).
 - Coin flip by the Commissioner
- Three-Team Tie (or more). The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken: (Note: If the three tied teams have three different records against each other, they shall be seeded in best-percentage order.) Otherwise, once the tie has been reduced to two teams, the two-team tiebreaker procedure will be used.
 - If all three teams are common opponents: Total won-lost percentage of games played among the tied teams.
 - Won-lost percentage of the tied teams versus the No. 1 seed and proceeding through the No. 12 seed, if necessary, using common opponents only.
 - If three or more teams still are tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw.
