AROUND THE HORN

- The Mavericks begin the week at 7-10 overall and 1-2 in the Summit League after opening their conference schedule with a win and two losses vs. North Dakota State last week.
- Preston Tenney picked up the lone win for Omaha in the series, improving to 2-2 on the year after a solid five innings in game one of Saturday's doubleheader. His 92 pitches were the most he's thrown yet in a game.
- Rans Sanders earned his third save of the season with two shutout innings to close out game one against the Bison. He also struck out three batters and allowed just one hit and no walks.
- Mike Boeve made his return to the lineup for the NDSU series as a DH after missing the previous two games with a minor leg ailment. He did not miss a beat as he reached base in 10 of 13 plate appearances, going 4-for-7 in the series and walking four times without striking out once.
- Harrison Kreiling is also looking like his old self again as he made just his second appearance of the season after coming back from injury and went five strong innings against the Bison, holding them scoreless in three of the five innings. He also made his share of impressive plays in the field, including a diving toss to first to get the runner after initially taking a line drive off the bottom of his cleat.
- Cam Frederick, who continues to fill in for Boeve at third, remained red hot at the plate in Saturday's doubleheader, going 3-for-3 with two RBIs, two runs and a walk in game one, and going 3-for-4 with a double and a run in game two.
- Sid deMayo also had a notable game last week as he recorded his first career hit in game two of the doubleheader with a single to left.
- Cooper Prosski was the only Mavericks pitcher to not give up a run in the final game vs. NDSU, going two shutout innings without allowing a hit.

Boeve and Riedel Named Preseason Players to Watch

The Summit League also announced its 2023 Players and Pitchers to Watch, with Mike Boeve being named for the second consecutive year and Caleb Riedel for the first time.

Boeve took a massive leap forward in his sophomore season. Starting all 57 games at third base last year, he finished the season with a .364/.491/.584 slash line (1.075 OPS), clubbing eight home runs and 23 doubles along the way, as well as driving in 33 runs and scoring 46. Not only did every single one of these rank in the top 10 in the Summit League, but his .491 OBP ranked 27th in the entire NCAA while his 23 doubles were the 20th most. On top of all of this, Boeve also strung together a 29-game hitting streak from April 3-May 26.

Boeve was named First Team All-Summit for the second straight season, as well as the Summit League Player of the Year and made the American Baseball Coaches Association/Rawlings Central All-Region Second Team.

Riedel burst onto the scene as a rookie last year, starting 13 games and firing 60.1 innings. During this time he posted the second-best ERA in the nation at 1.49 as he allowed just 12 earned runs total. He also owned a 1.18 WHIP, struck out 65 batters, and held opposing hitters to a .229 BA. Over a 27-inning stretch spanning five games from February 27-April 15, Riedel did not allow a single earned run.

Riedel was also a First Team All-Summit selection and was named the Summit League Newcomer of the Year.

Preseason All-American

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) released its 2023 Preseason All-America Teams on February 2, and Mavericks ace Caleb Riedel was named Third Team All-American.

Riedel is one of just two Summit League players to be recognized this year, with the other being Oral Roberts relief pitcher Cade Denton who was named First-Team All-American.

SEASON NOTES

2022 Season in Review

The Mavericks had an up and down 2022 season, initially coming out to a 2-10 start capped off by five straight losses to USC, No. 10 Arkansas, and Valparaiso. Omaha's only wins during this time were a 15-0 routing of San Jose State and a stunning 9-4 win at UCLA. Mike Boeve and Cam Frederick each went 2-for-4 in that win and drove in a pair of runs, while Jackson Gordon had the start and fired three shutout innings.

After a rough start to the season, Omaha turned things around and went 7-5 over their next 12-game stretch, notching key wins over Creighton (5-3), Nebraska (4-3), and taking a pair from Rutgers (1-0, 3-2). Noah Greise mashed three doubles and drove in five runs during this stretch, including the lone run in the 1-0 shutout of Rutgers. Caleb Riedel and Joey Machado tossed five and four innings apiece in the shutout. Boeve also remained hot during this time with 10 hits and seven RBIs, including three-straight games with a home run.

The Mavericks continued to gain momentum as they again went 7-5 over their next 12 games, beating a couple of Power 5 opponents in Nebraska (6-5) and Kansas (11-10). Garrett Kennedy had a career day at Kansas, going 3-for-5 and driving in six runs, including three on a second-inning homer. This stretch culminated in a three-game Summit League sweep of Western Illinois that brought Omaha to 16-20 with a 10-5 conference record. Wyatt Sellers and Harrison Kreiling picked up the wins in the final two games of the sweep, combining for 5.1 innings without allowing an earned run.

This momentum would be short lived, however, as the Mavericks proceeded to lose three in a row to Nebraska and Penn State. Though they rebounded with a 9-0 shutout over Kansas, led by a three-RBI performance from Devin Hurdle and six scoreless innings from Kreiling, they struggled to find consistency on offense and wound up getting shutout in back-to-back games vs. Oral Roberts to drop to 20-28 (12-9).

With only four games left, Omaha seemed primed to end the season on a high note as they took down Minnesota 10-7 on the road. Kreiling fired six more shutout innings while Drew Reetz led the offense with a double and two RBIs. Unfortunately, the team faltered down the stretch and ended the regular season by getting swept by St. Thomas.

This trend of up and down performances would continue into the Summit League Tournament as the Mavericks exploded in the opening game with a 10-2 win over North Dakota State in which Greise drove in three and scored three and Eduardo Rosario brought home a pair as well. Riedel also had his longest outing of the season with eight innings pitched. The next day, however, they fell 8-12 to Oral Roberts.

In the final elimination game of the tournament, Omaha rode a strong pitching performance from Charlie Bell and an early two-run homerun from Rosario to a 5-3 victory over NDSU to advance to the Summit League title game. Unfortunately, the Mavericks saw their hopes of an NCAA Tournament berth end the very next day in a 2-21 loss to ORU in the championship.

Despite how things ended, several Mavericks ended the season with impressive stat sheets. Boeve won Summit League Player of the Year with a .364/.491/.584 slash line, eight home runs, 23 doubles, 12 steals, and 33 RBIs. Rosario and Greise finished second and third on the team in OPS at .768 and .761, respectively, with Rosario also leading the Mavericks with 34 runs batted in.

Defensively, Eddie Satsky recorded 387 putouts at first place and helped turn 25 double plays, all without making a single error. His .278 batting average is also second among all returners this year.

On the mound, Reidel owned a miniscule 1.49 ERA and struck out 65 batters in his debut season to cruise to Summit League Newcomer of the Year. Kreiling (3.06 ERA) and Bell (3.82 ERA) also dominated, each owned a sub 1.40 WHIP and striking out 49 and 69 batters apiece.

SEASON NOTESAthletes of the Week*March 6

Mike Boeve picked up his first Summit League TicketSmarter Peak Performer of the week honor on March 6 after he went 8-for-12 with two doubles, seven RBIs, and scored eight runs, meaning that of the 38 runs Omaha scored against K-State and BYU that week, Boeve accounted for 15 of them. He also never struck out while simultaneously drawing six walks.

This was the fourth time Boeve has earned this honor in his career.

March 13

Caleb Riedel had one of the most dominant outings of his career against Stonehill on March 10, firing six shutout innings in which he allowed just two baserunners. He also struck out a career-high 13 batters, four more than his previous high.

This is the first Pitcher of the Week honor of Riedel's career.

Super Rosario

In Omaha's 16-4 rout of BYU on March 4, Eduardo Rosario turned in quite possibly the greatest offensive performance of his career. Batting 3-for-5 with a double and a home run, Rosario accounted for nine of Omaha's runs with seven RBIs and two runs scored. Those seven RBIs were the most by any Maverick since Chris Esposito against Mizzou back on February 27, 2021.

Cam's the Man

While Mike Boeve missed a couple of games due to a minor leg ailment, Cam Frederick stepped up big time as he led Omaha's offense to a couple of massive victories over Stonehill and Nebraska. In the former, Frederick went 3-for-5 and drove in four runs thanks to a pair of towering home runs. This was the first two-homer game of his career. Then, in the Nebraska game, Frederick went 4-for-5 and reached on an error as he drove in two with a go-ahead double in the sixth.

Combined, Frederick batted 7-for-10 with six RBIs, four runs, and three XBHs.

Double Down

Starting with their 16-4 win over BYU, the Mavericks would end up scoring double-digit runs in four-straight games, besting Stonehill 10-0 and 13-3, before heading to Lincoln and toppling Nebraska 10-6. Overall, the Mavericks outscored their opponents 49-13 while outhitting them 47-24.

Comparatively, through the team's first 10 games of the season, the Mavericks were outscored 91-32.

A driving force behind this offensive surge has been Omaha's ability to consistently drive the ball for extra bases. In these four games, the Mavericks racked up a total of 20 XBHs, including 15 doubles. Including the first two games of the BYU series, this number climbs to 29 XBHs and 22 doubles. Eduardo Rosario (2), Eddie Satsky (2), Drew Lechnir (2), Devin Hurdle (3), Brennen Bales (3), Noah Greise (3), and Haiden Hunt (3) all recorded multiple doubles during this six-game span.

Five Below

Last season, Omaha's 4.75 team ERA ranked 67th in the nation out of 293 D1 programs. Of the six pitchers to make at least two starts in 2022, five had an ERA below 4.00: Caleb Riedel (1.49), Charlie Bell (3.82), Mark Timmins (3.31), Harrison Kreiling (3.06), and Joey Machado (2.96).

Though Timmins and Machado have both since graduated, the Mavericks bolstered their pitching staff with the addition of seven new pitchers this offseason, headlined by right hander Preston Tenney who looks to become a key member of the starting rotation after striking out 201 batters in 173.2 innings while at Northeast CC and earning a start in the opening series at UCLA.

Mining the Junior College Ranks

Of the 13 newcomers to join the Mavericks this season, 10 had prior experience at the junior college level: Haiden Hunt (Chattanooga State CC), Joel Benes (Cloud County CC), Rans Sanders (Cloud County CC), Kai Reum (Iowa Central CC), Luke Gainer (Iowa Western CC), Matt Goetzmann (Southeast CC), Preston Tenney (Northeast CC), Cade Baker (Hutchinson CC), Brennen Bales (Northeast CC), and Alex Potter (Northeast CC). Out of 32 total players, Omaha now has 22 former JUCO players on the team.

Zach Lechnir (CMU), Drew Lechnir (CMU), and Brady LeJeune DeAcutis (Texas Tech) are the only newcomers with no prior JUCO experience. Likewise, only Harrison Kreiling, Sid deMayo, Garrett Kennedy, Jackson Gordon, and Mike Boeve were recruited by Omaha right out of high school.

A Veteran Lineup

With more than two-thirds of the team arriving via the transfer portal over the last couple of seasons, the Mavericks find themselves in the unique position of having no freshmen or sophomores on the team.

"It wasn't by design," noted Porter about the all upperclassmen lineup. "We always try to get the best talent out of Omaha and the state of Nebraska. There's enough players here to win championships."

Porter vs. Power 5

Since taking the helm of the team in 2017, Head Coach Evan Porter has led the Mavericks to 19 wins over Power 5 opponents. In 2022, Omaha racked up eight wins against these schools, stunning No. 21 UCLA 9-4 on February 23, before winning their first of two games against Nebraska that season a couple weeks later.

Omaha then took two out of three from Rutgers in mid-March, followed by another two wins against Kansas, including a 9-0 shutout on May 3. The Mavericks then wrapped up their Power 5 slate with a 10-7 win at Minnesota on May 17.

One of the most decorated players in UNO history and UNO Hall of Fame Class of 2018 inductee, Evan Porter is in his seventh year as head coach of the Omaha baseball program in 2022. He previously spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the Mavericks from 2013-16.

In just his third season at the helm, Porter led his team to the program's first NCAA Division I Baseball Regional berth after the Mavericks captured The Summit League Regular Season and Tournament championships. Porter was also named Summit League Coach of the Year and saw eight of his players earn All-Summit honors. His team finished 31-24-1 and more than doubled in wins from the previous season en route to an appearance in the Los Angeles Regional against No. 1 UCLA. The Mavericks also finished the 2019 with a .984 fielding percentage, which marked the nation's best. The team also saw Payton Kinney earn Summit League Pitcher of the Year, Tournament MVP and Rawlings/ABCA All-America Third Team honors.

In 2020, the Mavericks were limited to just 14 games, but saw a multitude of highlights. Despite a shortened season, Omaha recorded a 10-4 record, which marked the program's best start in the Division I era. The Mavericks sat atop the league standings and ended the season on a six-game winning streak.

The following year, Omaha played almost a full season, going 22-25 overall and securing the No. 3 seed in the Summit League Conference Tournament by going 14-12 in conference play. The team was bested, however, in the first round by the eventual champions from North Dakota State.

In 2022, the Mavericks continued to find success under Porter, reaching the Summit League postseason for the third time in a row after ending the regular season 12-12 in the conference. Fourth-seeded Omaha faced top-seeded North Dakota State twice in the tournament, first in the opening round and later in the elimination game, winning both contests and making it all the way to the finals.

Porter was four-year starter at shortstop from 2005-09 and a two-time All-American. He was also a three-time all-region selection from 2007-09, earning awards from Daktronics and Rawlings/ABCA. Additionally, Porter was a two-time All-NCC pick (2007-08) and was first-team All-MIAA in 2009.

Porter's name runs through the Omaha record books, as he remains the program's all-time leader in games played (239), at-bats (869), hits (323), doubles (75), home runs (43), runs batted in (249) and total bases (527). His 97 hits recorded as a senior were a UNO single-season record that still stands, and his 23 doubles and 76 RBI in his junior year both rank second on the single-season charts.

A member of the UNO squad that earned a berth to the 2007 NCAA Division II College World Series, Porter was part of two Maverick teams (2006, 2008) that set a school record with 45 wins. During his time, UNO made four straight NCAA regional appearances and won the 2008 NCC championship.

Following his senior campaign, Porter was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 23rd round. He has played professionally overseas for the Solingen Alligators in Germany (2010), Gothenburg Sharks in Sweden (2011), Victoria Park Reds in Australia (2011-12), ADO Aamigo0 Lakers in Holland (2012) and Sölvesborg Firehawks in Sweden (2014, 2016).

A native of Omaha and a product of Millard North High School, Porter graduated from UNO with his bachelor's degree in business marketing in 2009 and his master's of business administration in 2016.
