Headlines in 1-2-3

* The Red Raiders close an eight-day, six game and three city road trip this Tuesday and Wednesday at Arkansas. In the first matchup between the two former Southwest Conference foes in Fayetteville since, the Red Raiders and Razorbacks will meet for multiple matchups for the first time since 1991. The Razorbacks enter the matchup this week ranked No. 2 in the D1 Baseball poll, marking the highest ranked opponent the Red Raiders have faced this season. Tech has played No. 7 Oregon State, No. 9 Tennessee and No. 24 Texas previously.

* The Red Raiders will look to rebound this week in Arkansas after a tough series lost at TCU that included a pair of Saturday and Sunday losses after a 7-1 Friday win. On Saturday the Red Raiders fell 4-2 before dropping a 4-3 contest on Sunday. In both games Tech had a chance to tie or take the lead, as in both contests the Red Raiders had the first runners on base with nobody out.

* In Abilene on Wednesday night, the Red Raiders continued to swing the bats well, as the offense exploded for 21 runs, 17 hits and a school-record 9 home runs in a 21-3 run-rule win over ACU. The Red Raiders had four different players hit multiple home runs on the game. The Red Raiders became the first Big 12 squad since at least 2011 to have four players with two or more home runs in a game, while Tech's nine total home runs are the most by a Big 12 team since OSU had 12 home runs in 2019. The Red Raiders are just the second-team Big 12 team since 2003 to hit nine or more homers in the same game.

LAST 10 MATCHUPS

Table with 3 columns: Date, Location, Result. Rows include matchups from 2/20/21 to 4/05/91.

ARKANSAS MIDWEEK NOTES

FIRST TIME IN A WHILE

Former rivals dating back to the old Southwest Conference days, the Red Raiders will play Arkansas in Fayetteville for the first time since 2018 and for just the second time since 1990.

BACK TO BACK IN OMAHA

Minus a 2021 matchup in Arlington, the last two matchups prior between Arkansas and Tech occurred in Omaha at the College World Series in 2018 and 2019.

FAMILIAR FACES ARE NOW WITH THEM

The Red Raiders and Razorbacks have had multiple players who have played for both schools, as former outfielder Easton Murrell began his career in Fayetteville before transferring to Lubbock.

SEC AGAIN

After opening the year with Tennessee, the Red Raiders will once again face a member school of the SEC in Arkansas. The matchup with Arkansas is the first matchup against the SEC since opening night in Arlington.

LEAVING THE STATE

After spending the first 11 games of the season in the State of Texas, and playing 33 of the first 37 games in the State of Texas, the Red Raiders will play a pair of games this weekend in Arkansas.

BEEN A TRIP

Originally scheduled to play Abilene in Abilene last Tuesday (Apr. 9), the Red Raiders contest was instead postponed until Apr. 10. As a result, the Red Raiders left on Wednesday for the season's longest road trip.

P5s ALL WEEK FOR THE SECOND TIME THIS MONTH

For the second time in three weeks the Red Raiders will face five games against Power Five opponents. The last time Tech played all P5 opponents in a week was the first week of April (1-7).

HIGHEST RANKED SINCE UF IN NCAA

The Red Raiders will face the No. 2 Arkansas this week, as the Razorbacks will become the highest-ranked opponent that Tech has faced since the NCAA Regionals last season in Gainesville when Tech faced No. 2 Florida three times.

Preseason Texas Tech Notes

LET 'EM SLEEP

• Despite returning a dynamic and strong core highlighted by a pair of Preseason All-Americans in Kevin Bazzell (Third Team, D1 Baseball) and Gavin Kash (Second Team: D1Baseball, Perfect Game), the Red Raiders were not picked to finish top-three in the Big 12 Preseason poll for the first time since 2016. That season the Red Raiders were picked fifth. Ironically, that season featured Tech's second all-time Omaha trip and also featured the same top-three teams picked ahead of the Red Raiders in 2024. The Red Raiders were last picked fourth in the Big 12 in 2015.

THE KIDS CAN PLAY

• Head coach Tim Tadlock and staff signed and brought one of the nation's best freshman classes in the country ahead of the start of the 2023-24 academic season, as Tech's 2023-24 class was tabbed the No. 11 class according to Perfect Game Baseball and the No. 2 class in the Big 12, behind just Texas. The class featured an impressive four Top-150 PG players including 2023 16th Round pick Mac Heuer and top-ranked SS (in the State of Texas) TJ Pompey. The class also featured PGs No. 76 overall prospect in Landon Stripling as well as Davis Rivers who was ranked the No. 150 prospect in the Class of 2023. In addition to the top-15 ranking by PG, Tech's 2023 freshman class was also ranked as the No. 21 Freshman Class by D1 Baseball.

BACK INSIDE THE TOP-25 AGAIN

• Despite taking Florida to an if necessary Game Seven in the Gainesville regional, the Red Raiders did not finish the season ranked inside the top-25 of the D1Baseball poll. However the Red Raiders abruptly returned to the polls in the annual preseason poll checking in at No. 21 in the publications top-25. So far Tech had peaked at No. 18 in the preseason polls, earning that ranking in the Baseball America Preseason poll. The Red Raiders also slotted in at No. 28 in the Perfect Game Top-40 poll. Other Red Raider spots in preseason polls included a No. 20 ranking by the NCBWA (Baseball Writers) and a No. 22 ranking by USA Today.

GUYS WERE BUSY OVER THE SUMMER

- After the 2023 season ended at the Gainesville Regional, multiple Red Raiders went and spent the summer playing summer ball in various leagues.
- Friday's starting pitcher, Kyle Robinson, kicked off the busy summer by representing the United States on the Collegiate National Team, becoming the first Tech pitcher since Steven Gingery in 2017 to represent the US on the Collegiate National Team. Robinson appeared twice for Team USA pitching 3.1 innings.
- Maybe the most impressive performance of the summer came from rising sophomore Zane Petty who starred for the Santa Barbara Foresters of the California Collegiate League. Petty went 6-1 for the Foresters who won the CCL South Division and advanced to the CCL Championship Series. And while Petty's total numbers were impressive, the former Milwaukee Brewers draft pick was simply lights out in the CCL Tournament pitching 13 shutout innings with 15 strikeouts. Petty earned top pitcher honors for the tournament after pitching seven shutout innings with 8Ks in the NBC World Series finals. Petty ended the Summer with a 2.50 ERA and had 42 Ks in 36 innings pitched. Petty was teammates with Zach Erdman who pitched to a 4.12 ERA in 19.2 innings. Erdman won his lone decision and had 18 Ks in his 19.2 innings of work.
- A pair of Red Raiders were busy in the most prestigious summer league in amateur baseball, as Gage Harrelson and Ryan Free represented Tech with the Bourne Braves of the Cape, helping lead Bourne to the CCL title. Harrelson hit .242 in 28 games while Free struck out 17 batters in 14.1 innings and recorded a team-leading two saves.
- After missing the 2023 season due to injury, Travis Sanders made his return to baseball last summer, playing for the Healdsburg Prune Packers of the California Collegiate League during the 2023 Summer. A 14th Round selection by the Boston Red Sox, Sanders was teammates with another Red Raider, as he played with outfielder/pitcher Damian Bravo. After understandably getting off to a slow start after missing the spring season due to injury, Sanders caught fire towards the end of the summer season recording multiple hits in three of the final seven games of the season and drove in seven of his 10 runs during the eight games of the season. Bravo shined in his summer with the Prune Packers, hitting .301 with four home runs and 37 RBIs in just 44 games played, helping Healdsburg to a 26-9 overall regular season record and a spot in the CCL playoffs. Bravo also pitched once, recording five strikeouts over a dominant two inning scoreless appearance on Jun 14.
- Outfielder Drew Woodcox also had a strong summer for the Red Raiders earning All-Star honors in the Northwoods League where he played for the Minot Hot Tots. Woodcox hit .329 in the wood bat league, hitting 10 home runs amongst his 24 extra base hits. Woodcox drove in 40 runs and recorded an OPS of 1.016.

Preseason Texas Tech Notes

RANKED TEAMS UP AND DOWN THE SCHEDULE

Entering the opening season, Tech put together another dynamic and strong schedule that features 10 games against five different ranked in the preseason D1Baseball Top-25 poll.

The Red Raiders will face two of those top-25 teams right off the bat, as the season opener on Friday is against No. 9 Tennessee at Globe Life, while the matchup with No. 7 Oregon State will come on Wednesday afternoon (Feb. 21) also at Globe Life.

The Red Raiders have also scheduled a two-game midweek series at Arkansas (Apr. 16-17) in addition to a road weekend series at TCU (Apr. 12-14) and Texas (Mar. 8-10).

- Top-25 Teams on the schedule (According to D1Baseball):
• at No. 3 Arkansas (Apr. 16-17)
• at No. 5 TCU (Apr. 12-14)
• vs. No. 7 Oregon State (Feb.21)
• vs. No. 9 Tennessee (Feb. 18)
• vs. No. 16 Texas (Mar. 8-10)

DEPTH AND VERSATILITY WILL BE ON DISPLAY

The 2024 Texas Tech roster will feature multiple players that can play multiple positions on the field. Highlighted by a couple of key position changes, Tech will feature upwards of 13 different position players that can play either multiple infield or outfield spots. Maybe the best encapsulation of this can be found in speedy sophomore Will Burns who ironically enough plays QB for Texas Tech Football in addition to being on the Tech Baseball roster. Of the nine different positions across the diamond, Burns can conceivably play seven of them, including all four infield spots (minus catcher) and all three outfield spots. After starting games at third base, shortstop and second base, Burns has played centerfield at times this spring, in addition to seeing time at second, third and short. Burns is hardly alone in learning a new position this spring, as his double-play partner at times last season, Austin Green, has also traded his middle-infield glove for an outfield one, as Green has almost fully transitioned to playing right field this spring. For perspective five players that recorded over 25 starts at a position last season that will likely start 25+ games at a different position this season.

Players who Started 20+ at a position they won't play in 2024:

- Austin Green: 54 starts at 2B; Will transition to RF
• Tracer Lopez: Played 40 games at SS; Will transition to 2B.
• Kevin Bazzell: 57 starts at 3B; Will transition to the starting catcher role.
• Will Burns: 20 starts at SS
• Gage Harrelson: 25 starts in RF; will play CF.

FROM THE HOT CORNER TO BEHIND THE DISH

One of the key positional changes listed above is Kevin Bazzell moving from the hot corner to behind the dish in 2024. Bazzell started 57 times at third base for the Red Raiders, but will likely assume his more comfortable role catching in 2024. Bazzell transferred from Dallas Baptist to Texas Tech prior to the 2022 season as a catcher. The 2023 Freshman All-American is projected as a top-two round draft pick in this years' 2024 MLB Draft.

SANDERS, WASHBURN AND WASHBURN

While it would potentially be a successful law firm, the trio of Travis Sanders, Jack Washburn and Owen Washburn all suffered various season-ending injuries during the 2023 season. Neither Sanders nor Jack Washburn were able to start their season in 2023 as both players missed the entire season, while Jack's younger brother Owen, was limited to just 18 games last season. Sanders and both Washburn brothers are completely healthy heading into the 2024 season.

MLB DRAFT -> LUBBOCK

Tech enters the 2024 season with three different players on the 40-man roster who were drafted by MLB clubs out of high school including a pair of highly decorated pitchers. Saturday's projected starting pitcher Zane Petty highlights the trio, as the Corsicana native was selected with the 402nd overall pick (13th Round) of the 2022 MLB Draft by the Milwaukee Brewers. Tech's second draftee also came from the 2022 draft, as Travis Sanders was taken just 27 picks later by the Boston Red Sox. Tech's third draftee came just last summer when Mac Heuer was the 488th selection of the 2023 MLB Draft by the Cleveland Guardians. And while nobody else on Tech's 2024 roster was officially drafted, multiple players from the 2022 and 2023 signing classes made decisions to come to school or did not show interest in the MLB Draft process.

Tech Players who enrolled at Tech despite being drafted:

- Zane Petty: 2022 13th Rd Pick (No. 402 Overall), Milwaukee Brewers
• Travis Sanders: 2022 14th Rd Pick (No. 429 Overall), Boston Red Sox
• Mac Heuer: 2023 16th Rd Pick (No. 488), Cleveland Guardians

FRESHMAN PHENOM

Coppell native TJ Pompey is slated to make his collegiate debut Friday night at SS. The dynamic infielder flashed many of his five tools during the fall and spring seasons for Tech. A three-time Perfect Game All-America selection, Pompey was tabbed the No. 82 player in the nation and was the top-SS prospect in all of Texas. Pompey was given a prospect score of "10" by PG, the highest grade that PG awards, and was one of four top-100 prospects in the country that signed with and enrolled at Tech this fall. If Pompey does indeed start opening night at SS, it will mark the second straight year that Tech started a freshman at SS, as Tracer Lopez slotted in at short last season on opening day against Gonzaga.

OPENING DAY K-ROB AGAIN

Texas Tech junior righty Kyle Robinson is projected to take the ball once again for the Red Raiders on opening day. If Robinson does get the start on opening day, he will become the first Red Raider since Davis Martin (2017-18) to start consecutive opening days. Robinson would be just the third Red Raider since 2014 to take the ball on back-to-back openers joining Martin and former Red Raider Ryan Moseley. openers joining Martin and former Red Raider Ryan Moseley.

PRESEASON NOTES

'SUP BRO

You could make an argument that the 2024 Texas Tech Baseball team will be true family affair as Tech's 2024 roster features a pair of brothers in Owen and Jack Washburn. The sons of former MLB World Series Champion, Jarrod Washburn, Owen and Jack will be reunited for the first time since starring for their father at Webster High School up in Wisconsin. Owen and Jack spent a pair of seasons as teammates at Webster. Both Owen and Jack starred for father Jarrod during their season seasons. Both dual-threats, Owen closed a strong 2021 campaign that included the outfielder hitting an eye-popping .741 with seven home runs while turning in a perfect 0.00 ERA with 84 strikeouts and one walk in 34 innings. The elder Washburn (Jack) had a similarly dominant senior season going 12-0 with 0.11 ERA. Jack transferred to Tech prior to the 2023 season but suffered a season-ending injury before the season started and redshirted. Jack is Sunday's projected starter, while Owen could potentially factor into the lineup in either the outfield or DH. The elder Washburn brother closed his high school career 32-3 overall and 211.2 innings pitched with 394 strikeouts.

MLB FAM

Multiple Red Raiders have family members with MLB ties, including the Washburn brothers who as mentioned are the sons of former MLBer Jarrod Washburn. A former World Series champion with the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, Washburn played 12 seasons in the MLB. Tech's other MLB connection on the current team is Ross Stripling who is the uncle of current Red Raider Landon Stripling. Stripling was selected to the 2018 MLB All-Star Game when he was a member of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

HITTING THE PORTAL

In 2024, you have to recruit via the transfer portal. Like many successful programs around the country, Tech has utilized the portal to its benefit, as three of Friday's projected starters will have arrived at Tech via the portal. That group is highlighted by a pair of Preseason All-Americans in catcher Kevin Bazzell and Gavin Kash but also includes former WCC Freshman of the Year and Freshman All-American Cade McGee. Bazzell began his career at Dallas Baptist but transferred before the Spring during his freshman year, while Kash transferred to the Red Raiders after spending his freshman season in Austin with the Longhorns. No stranger to playing baseball in Lubbock, McGee arrives in Lubbock after spending a pair of seasons in the Pacific Northwest at Gonzaga. McGee ironically enough did face Tech a season ago, when the Zags came to Lubbock for a four-game series. The Arizona native went 6-for-16 in that four game series with Six RBIs. Other four-year (D-I) transfers on the 2024 Red Raiders roster include Max Huffling (Abilene Christian), Isaiah Rhodes (Southern Miss), Jack Washburn (Ole Miss/Oregon State) and Drew Woodcox (Rice).

MCGEE IS HEALTHY WHICH SHOULD MEAN SUCCESS

Texas Tech junior Cade McGee arrived at Texas Tech before the start of the 2024 season, and is back and healthy after being limited to just 20 games in 2023 for Gonzaga. A 2022 Freshman All-American and West Coast Conference Freshman of the Year, McGee closed a successful two-year career with the Zags that saw the infielder hit .297 in 74 career games. In addition to hitting for a good average, McGee has also shown power, hitting 16 career home runs in just 283 at-bats. McGee closed his nearly 75-game Gonzaga career with 35 total extra-base hits including 19 doubles.

BOBBY BRAGAN SLUGGER WATCH LIST

The Red Raiders have a long history with the Bobby Bragan Award, and 2024 looks to be no different, as a pair of Red Raiders were named to the awards watch list. Previous award winners of the Bragan include Hunter Hargrove (2017) and Josh Jung (2019). Hargrove was the awards inaugural winner in 2017 while Jung took the award home 2019 before being drafted in the First Round of the 2019 MLB Draft.

The honor for Bazzell closes a big spring for the third-year sophomore who was also named to the NCBWA All-America First Team earlier in the week. The honor is the fourth recognition of the spring for Bazzell who was also tabbed a Third Team Preseason All-American by D1Baseball and was named the No. 5 catcher in all of college baseball.

Bazzell shined during his first campaign in Lubbock, hitting .348 with a team leading 87 hits and 24 doubles. Bazzell also hit 10 home runs and drove in 62 runs, finishing with an ops of 1.024.

The honor for Kash is his fifth of the spring, as the slugger was tabbed a Second Team All-American by both Perfect Game and D1Baseball, before taking home NCWBA Third Team All-America honors.

Kash also made a big impact in his first season with the Scarlett and Black in 2023, as the first baseman hit .327 with a Big 12 leading 26 home runs and 84 RBI. Kash recorded an OPS of 1.089 in 2023 and finished inside the top-10 in program history in: home runs, RBIs and total bases.

TEAM USA X2

The Red Raiders have a pair of pitchers with experience pitching for Team USA as both Kyle Robinson and Jack Washburn have spent summers pitching with the Collegiate National Team. Robinson was a member of Team USA this past spring, while Washburn represented his country after his freshman season in 2021.

WE COME FROM ALL OVER

The Red Raiders of course have a heavy base of Texas based players, but the 2024 iteration is as diverse a roster as HC Tim Tadlock has had during his time as HC of the Red Raiders. In total, 11 different states are represented as Tech's 40-man roster represents all four time zones as well. Player hail from the following states: Arizona (1), California (1), Connecticut (1), Georgia (3), Iowa (1), New Jersey (1), Oklahoma (3), Texas (26), Virginia (1), Washington (2) and Wisconsin (2).

MIDWEEK NOTES (ARKANSAS)

BROUGHT OUT THE BROOMS

The Red Raiders recorded a series sweep over Houston last weekend, for the program's first Big 12 Conference sweep since the 2022 season when the Red Raiders swept Oklahoma State (May 12-14) in Stillwater. The home sweep of Houston is the first home sweep for the Red Raiders since an Apr. 8-10 series against K-State in 2022.

NINE IN SEVEN BRINGS SCHOOL RECORD

The Red Raiders slugged a school-record nine home runs in the victory over ACU, as four different Red Raiders hit multiple home runs (Cade McGee, Gavin Kash, TJ Pompey and Drew Woodcox). Tech became the first Big 12 Team since 2019 to sock nine home runs as the four players with multiple home runs are the most by a Big 12 team since at least 2011.

BRAVO. DAMIAN BRAVO.

Damian Bravo has been suburb in his second season in Lubbock, as the Sophomore has hit a team-best .457 over the season's first 34 games. Bravo has also recorded an on-base percentage of .510 and has a team-best 39 RBIs and 19 doubles. Bravo entered the week as the only player in the country with at least 55 hits and 45 runs scored this season. After hitting .565 (13-23) with three doubles, two home runs and eight RBIs, Bravo was tabbed the Big 12s Player of the Week. Bravo slugged nearly 1.000 for the week, and scored 12 runs. Bravo has a team-best 18 multiple-hit games and 10 multiple RBI games. Entering the weekend he has a six-game hitting streak.

RUNNIN' RUNNIN'

The Red Raiders have clearly been aggressive on the base-paths this season, as the club has now stolen 36 bases in just 37 games played. The Red Raiders went until Mar. 23 against BYU without a caught stealing as the Red Raiders went 28 consecutive stolen base attempts with out a caught stealing. Tech has been caught stealing just three times and already have stolen eight more bases than 2023.

ROLLIN' IN THE DEEP

Another pitcher who changed his warmup song in 2024 was senior Josh Sanders, who will now warmup to Adelle's Rolling in the Deep. So far it seems the warmup song is working for Sanders, as the righty has pitched 30.0 innings thus far, allowing just 18 hits and eight runs (six earned). Sanders has now struck out 33 batters in his 30.0 innings of work. Hitters are hitting just .167 against him. Sanders pitched 6.1 scoreless innings two weeks ago , earning two wins. The righty retired his last 14 batters in a row including three perfect innings in Friday's win over Houston. Sanders struck out 12. Sanders has not allowed a run in his last five appearances (10.2 inning) and has allowed just four hits in those five outings. Sanders pitched 4.1 scoreless last weekend against TCU.

HUGETYRA

Freshman Parker Hutyra has really emerged in his first collegiate season as the freshman has allowed just one run in 13 appearances and 20.1 innings pitched. Hutyra has struck out 22 batters this season, and has not allowed a run since Feb. 21 vs. Oregon State. That stretches 18.1 innings and includes five straight key outings against BYU, UCF, Stanford and TCU. The righty has struck out 15 batters in his last 11.1 innings pitched. Prior to Sunday's appearance in a loss the Red Raiders had won six straight games he'd appeared in. Overall the Red Raiders are 9-4 in his 13 appearances. And while Hutyra has continued to perform at a high level, he did maybe his best work of the season this week against Houston as afer throwing 45 pitches in nearly three scoreless innings, Hutyra entered in a four-run game and fired a scoreless ninth to close out a series sweep.

FOLLOWING A LOSS WITH A WIN

The Red Raiders have consistently followed losses with wins this season. The Red Raiders have yet to lose more than two games in a row this season and have lost back-to-back games just three times (at Baylor, UCF and TCU. Following a loss this season the Red Raiders are 7-3 this season.

IT HAD TO END AT SOME POINT

Entering Saturday's contest having won eight straight overall and five straight Big 12 games the Red Raiders fell 4-2 on Saturday. Over the eight game winning streak which started with the Red Raiders sweeping Stanford in a midweek series and Houston in a Big 12 weekend set, the Red Raiders dropped back-to-back tight games at TCU.

READY FOR A HUGE WEEK AND STRETCH

The two game midweek series against No. 2 Arkansas kicks off another critical week for the Red Raiders who will return home later in the week for a three-game set with No. 22 WVU who currently resides in first place in the crowded Big 12 standings. In fact the Red Raiders after last weekends series have just four Big 12 series remaining (WVU, @KU, OU, @OSU). Each large in its own right, the four remaining series could easily decide the outcome of Tech's season as they come against the No. 1 (WVU/OU), No. 3 (OSU) and No. 8 (KU) teams in the Big 12 standings. Arkansas and WVU both enter the week on long streaks, as Arkansas rides a 23-game home winning streak while WVU enters the weekend having won seven straight Big 12 games. Arkansas is 25-1 this season at home and has won 14 straight non-conference games. The Razorbacks 23 game winning streak is the second-longest streak in the country behind UNC (27). The Red Raiders also have a similar home streak, as Tech has won eight straight since a loss to BYU back on Mar. 21. Tech enters the week at 36 in the RPI and will face No. 6 Arkansas and No. 27 WVU this week. In addition to the five matchups this week against Arkansas (No. 2 RPI) and WVU (No. 27 RPI), the Red Raiders still have a home series with No. 20 Oklahoma as well as a road series with No. 23 Oklahoma State and No. 92 Kansas.

MiLB/MLB and Prospect Notes

DOWN ON THE FARM

The Red Raiders are entering a bit of a golden generation when it comes to MLB players, highlighted by 2023 MLB All-Star Starter and World Series Champion Josh Jung and 2022 World Series Champion Parker Mushinski. Former Red Raider John McMillon also made his MLB debut on August 17, 2023 for the Kansas City Royals. Multiple Red Raiders are on the precipice of reaching the majors in 2024, as Tech will look to have multiple Red Raiders make an MLB debut for the third straight season. Heading into the 2024 MLB season the Red Raiders have 23 active players across the various levels of MiLB and five active major leaguers: Josh Jung, Martin, McMillon, Mushinski and Kilian. Heading into the report of pitchers and catchers/the conclusion of the 2023 season, Tech has seven players at the Triple-A level highlighted by Clayton Beeter (Yankees) and Mason Montgomery (Rays). In total 10 different Red Raiders ended 2023 in Double-A highlighted by former 2021 Big 12 Player of the Year Jace Jung (Tigers) and SAL Pitcher of the Year Chase Hampton (Yankees). The younger brother of Josh, Jace Jung is currently a consensus top-100 prospect (Baseball America, ESPN and MLB) while Hampton recently was named the No. 2 prospect in the Yankees system.

NOT A BAD ROOKIE YEAR

In his first full season at the MLB level, Josh Jung accomplished just above everything he could. The front runner for Rookie of the Year until he missed 32 games with a broken left thumb, Jung served as the starter for the American League in the 2023 All-Star game, becoming the first rookie in franchise history to start the All-Star Game. Jung joined former Tech hurler AJ Ramos as the only two former Red Raiders to earn an All-Star nod. Prior to getting hurt, Jung was hitting .274 with 22 homers and 67 RBIs, leading the majors amongst rookies in homers, RBIs, hits (117), runs (70) and extra-base hits (47) at the time of his injury.

Jung's absence proved critical for the Rangers who went from 68-47 when Jung got hurt to 82-67 on the day he returned, meaning the club went 12-20 without him. Returning with 12 games remaining, Jung helped the Rangers to an 8-5 close, as the club clinched a wild card spot. In his first postseason, Jung made an immediate impact, hitting .308 over 65 at-bats. The infielder hit three homers, drove in eight runs, scored 13 times and played in all 17 Postseason games. Jung drove in the first run of Texas' postseason journey when he plated Nathaniel Lowe on a sac-fly. Jung hit at least .300 in every round of the playoffs except the Championship Series including a .350 performance during the World Series. Jung's best round of the postseason came during the Division Series against Baltimore, as the former Red Raider went 5-for-12 (.417) over the three game sweep of the 101-win Baltimore Orioles.

Including the postseason (139 games), Jung hit .271 with 26 home runs and 78 RBIs. Jung finished his rookie campaign with 147 hits in 543 at-bats.

THE SECOND JUNG CAN PLAY TOO

A former first round pick to the Tigers (12th overall), Jace Jung has shined in his short stint in the Tigers minor league system, 29 home runs in less than 600 at-bats at both High-A West Michigan and Erie.

Known for his power bat and strong left-handed power, Jung also shined defensively for the Seawolves, as the infielder earned the MiLBs 'Gold Glove' for the second base position after recording a .993 fielding percentage for the Sea Wolves. Jung helped Erie win the 2023 Eastern League Championship in 2023, after hitting .284 with 14 home runs and 39 RBIs in just 47 games played.

Jung also played in the prestigious Arizona Fall League last fall and was also named the No. 60 overall prospect by Jim Calias last week and the No. 2 overall second base prospect in all of baseball. The 2021 Big 12 Conference Player of the Year, Jung projects to potentially make his MLB debut for the Tigers during the 2021 season.

BACK-TO-BACK CHAMPS

Whether it's the College or MLB World Series, Red Raiders have appeared in the World Series often the last decade. On the collegiate level, Tech has been to Omaha and the CWS four times in the last nine full seasons (2020 excluded due to the COVID-19 pandemic). On the pro level, a Red Raider has won back-to-back World Series titles beginning with Parker Mushinski and the Houston Astros in 2022, before Mushinski's college teammate, Josh Jung won the World Series in his first full season with the Texas Rangers.

HAMPTON ON THE RISE

Drafted in the Sixth Round of the 2022 MLB Draft, former Tech righty Chase Hampton continues to shine in the minors. Hampton began his first full professional season in the Yankees organization with the Hudson Valley Renegades of the South Atlantic League before being called up to the Somerset Patriots of the Eastern League midway through 2023. Regardless of whether it was in High-A or AA, Hampton shined, pitching to a 3.63 ERA. Hampton struck out 145 batters over 106.2 innings of work. Hampton was named the South Atlantic League's top pitching prospect in 2023 after throwing 47.0 innings for the Hudson Valley Renegades and pitching to an ERA of 2.68. Hampton punched out 77 batters and allowed just 16 walks over those 47.0 innings featuring his trademarked mid-90s fastball. After being tabbed the No. 53 overall prospect in baseball by Baseball America, Hampton was recently included on ESPN's Top-100 prospect, checking in at No. 82.

BEETERS DEBUT

Former Texas Tech Red Raider Clayton Beeter became the first of what will quite a few Red Raiders to make their MLB debut this season, when he pitched the ninth inning of the Yankees 7-1 victory over Houston. Ironically, the game also featured an appearance from another Red Raider, as Parker Mushinski also pitched in the contest. Beeter threw a scoreless ninth inning needing just three pitches to close out the Yankees second win of the season. Beeter became the first Yankee since Hall of Famer Mariano Rivera (2003) to pitch a three-pitch inning.

DAN LAW FIELD AT RIP GRIFFIN PARK | CLUBHOUSE PROJECT

On May 20, 2021, Texas Tech unveiled plans for a new baseball team facility at Dan Law Field at Rip Griffin Park.

Construction began in January 2022 for phase one of the two phase project. Phase one began by adding to the existing footprint, with the plan to double the square footage of the existing field house to greater than 25,000 sq. feet of space upon its completion. This first phase of work had minimal impact to the baseball team as they were able to continue to utilize its existing locker room, batting cages, training area, equipment room and film room.

Phase one work included building a new locker room, coaches' offices, coaches locker room, expanded training area, hot and cold plunge tubs, hydrotherapy tub, and a new public lobby. Phase one is near completion with most all furniture and equipment installed in the facility.

Phase two was finished in October of 2023 and included the demolition of the interior of the existing field house as well as the addition of five new batting cages, a cardio room, and A/V equipment room and a new player lounge and nutrition area.

The project cost approximately $14.5 million and has been funded exclusively through philanthropic gifts.

Tim Tadlock is set for his 12th season as Texas Tech's head baseball coach in 2024. During his tenure, Tadlock has built his alma mater into a national powerhouse, leading the Red Raiders to four College World Series in the last nine contested seasons and winning three of the last seven Big 12 Championships.

A two-time National Coach of the Year, Tadlock was named head coach of his alma mater on June 8, 2012, becoming the ninth head coach in program history. He owns a collegiate career record of 855-344 in 20 years as a head coach with nine seasons at Grayson County College (435-127) and the last 11 at Texas Tech (420-217).

Under Tadlock, the Red Raiders have become a national contender year in and year out. Tech is one of six schools in the nation to advance to the College World Series four times since 2014, including consecutive trips in 2018 and 2019 for the first time in school history. Tadlock put his teams in a position to host five consecutive regionals, making Texas Tech the only school in the country to accomplish the feat from 2016-2021, and has advanced to NCAA postseason play for the last seven consecutive seasons overall (2016-23).

During Tadlock's previous 12 seasons, the Red Raiders have recorded five 45+ win seasons and three Big 12 titles. Individually, Tech has had 15 individuals earn All-America honors - five who were First Team All-America selections - 15 Freshman All-America honors, a College Baseball Foundation National Pitcher of the Year, a Brooks Wallace Award Winner, and two Bobby Bragan Collegiate Slugger Awards. At the conference level, Tech has accumulated 74 All-Big 12 selections (first and second team), four Big 12 Players of the Year, two Big 12 Pitchers of the Year, three Big 12 Freshmen of the Year and a Big 12 Newcomer of the Year.

The Red Raiders have had 62 student-athletes selected in the MLB Draft under Tadlock, including a school-record 11 in 2018. In 2021, a school-record seven Red Raiders were selected within the top 10 rounds. Overall, Tadlock has coached 172 MLB Draft picks, including at least one draft pick during the last 27 seasons, and has coached five first-round selections, 21 players taken in the top five rounds and 55 selections in the top 10 rounds of the draft during his coaching career.

With the remarkable team success, Tech fans have packed Rip Griffin Park in Tadlock's 10 seasons. In 2015, Texas Tech sold out its season ticket allotment for the first time ever following its first appearance in the CWS. And since, Texas Tech season tickets have been sold out each ensuing season. The 2022 season marked the eighth straight that season tickets have sold out prior to the start of the season. Tech has consistently ranked among the national leaders in attendance, finishing in the top 15 each year since 2015 while compiling a 185-50 home record in that span.

Tadlock returned to his alma mater for the 2012 season as the program's associate head coach and recruiting coordinator. During his one season in this role, the Red Raiders had a school-record nine MLB Draft picks, including first-round selection center fielder Barrett Barnes, who became the third highest draft pick in school history with the 45th overall pick.

After beginning his college coaching career as an assistant at Hill College (1993-96) for four seasons, Tadlock became the head coach at Grayson County Junior College, where he led the Vikings to back-to-back National Junior College Athletic Association World Series titles in 1999 and 2000. During his nine seasons at Grayson, Tadlock posted a 435-127 (.774) overall record while being named National Coach of the Year following both title runs (1999-2000).

After a prep career at Denton High School and two years at Hill College, Tadlock was a two-year starting shortstop for the Red Raiders while helping Texas Tech to its first-ever 40-win season as a senior in 1991 (42-18). In his two-year career at Tech, Tadlock played in 120 games, batted .289 (120-for-415) with 96 runs scored, 19 doubles, four triples, eight home runs, 68 RBI, 71 walks, 65 strikeouts and was 28-of-41 in stolen bases. Tadlock played for legendary coach Larry Hays while at Texas Tech.

Tadlock graduated with his bachelor's degree in physical education from Texas Tech in May 1992. He also earned a master's degree in education in August 1994 from the University of Texas at Tyler. Tadlock and his wife, Kelly, have two children, daughter, Chloe, and son, Benjamin. Tadlock is originally from Denton, Texas, and was born in 1968.
