STARTING 9

- Missouri State (10-12, 3-0 Missouri Valley Conference) visits second-ranked Arkansas (23-2) at 6 p.m. Tuesday to begin a stretch of seven consecutive weeks with a midweek game against a Power Four opponent.
- MoState is 30-59 all-time against Arkansas with a 15-37 record in Fayetteville. The Bears are 6-6 against the Hogs in Fayetteville since the beginning of the 2015 season, last winning there in 2022.
- The Bears have homered in 124 of the last 153 games, and rank 12th nationally with 348 long balls since the beginning of the 2022 season, when first-year head coach Joey Hawkins took over as hitting coach. MoState's 114 homers last season ranked second in school and fourth in MVC history.
- Zack Stewart (36), Caden Bogenpohl (23), Taeg Gollert (23) and Nick Rodriguez (22) all have at least 20 homers in their MSU careers, and the current roster has combined for 148 round-trippers in their time at MoState.
- Missouri State's pitching staff leads the MVC and ranks 46th nationally with 9.9 strikeouts per nine innings. The Bears' 2.28 K/BB ratio also leads the Valley and ranks 66th nationally, and the Bears have struck out at least seven hitters in all but three games this season.
 Michael Yusypchuk and Jackson Holmes have earned MVC Pitcher of the Week honors this season, while Tyler Charlton (2nd - 36), Yusypchuk (3rd - 34) and Holmes (5th - 32) are all in the top five in strikeouts.
- Several Bears are climbing MSU career charts, while another stands out as a rarity in college baseball this season. Taeg Gollert currently sits 13th in school history with 47 career doubles and 18th with 71 extra-base hits. Zack Stewart is 12th on career homers (36) and 20th with 70 extra-base hits. Nick Rodriguez ranks 15th in MoState history with 91 career walks. Max Knight, meanwhile, is one of two Division I players (Tulane's Michael Lombardi) with at least 10 pitching appearances and 20 RBIs.
- Four former Freshman All-Americans are on the MSU roster. Nick Rodriguez received the honor in 2022 at Charleston Southern, Garrett Ferguson and Zack Stewart each landed on multiple such teams for MSU in 2023, and Caden Bogenpohl did the same last year for the Bears.
- D1Baseball tabbed the Bears as the favorite to win the MVC this season, with sophomore Caden Bogenpohl as its preseason player of the year and Michael Yusypchuk as its freshman of the year. The MVC coaches poll was released on March 17 and also tabs the Bears to win, with Bogenpohl and Nick Rodriguez earning all-MVC honors.
- The 2025 season will be Missouri State's 35th and final year in the MVC. The university accepted an invitation to Conference USA on May 10, 2024, and will officially join that league on July 1, 2025. The baseball Bears own the most league wins (474) and highest MVC winning percentage (.582) of any current league school with six regular season championships and five tournament titles in 34 seasons.

LEADING OFF

Missouri State (10-12, 3-0 Missouri Valley Conference) visits second-ranked Arkansas (23-2) at 6 p.m. Tuesday to begin a stretch of seven consecutive weeks with a midweek game against a Power Four opponent.

Four of those games are at home, with Arkansas making a return trip on April 29, with Oklahoma State, Missouri and Central Florida also visiting Hammons Field later this spring.

The Bears are back home March 28-30 for an MVC series with Belmont after sweeping the opening weekend of league play for the first time since 2017.

SERIES HISTORY

MoState is 30-59 all-time against Arkansas with a 15-37 record in Fayetteville. The Bears are 6-6 against the Hogs in Fayetteville since the beginning of the 2015 season, last winning there in 2022. Arkansas won both games of a two-game midweek set at Baum-Walker Stadium last season, and the Bears won in 2023 in Springfield in addition to the 2022 road win.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

D1Baseball's preseason Missouri Valley Conference poll has the Bears pegged as the favorite to win the league in 2025. Sophomore Caden Bogenpohl is the outlet's preseason player of the year, and Michael Yusypchuk is tabbed as the MVC's top freshman.

The MVC coaches poll, released on March 17, also tabs the Bears to win the league, with MoState receiving five first-place votes and edging Southern Illinois and Murray State for the top spot. Bogenpohl and Nick Rodriguez earned preseason all-conference honors from the league's managers.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

The Sports Field Management Association named Hammons Field the 2024 Professional Baseball Field of the Year. The SFMA Field of the Year honor is awarded to the best natural grass field among all 120 teams across all levels of affiliated Minor League Baseball.

NON-CON SUCCESS

MSU has been solid against non-conference competition over the last decade, compiling a 163-129 (.558) record in regular-season games versus non-league foes since the start of the 2015 season. The Bears have won 76 of their last 113 regular-season non-conference home games.

BEARS IN THE PRO RANKS

Missouri State has had 21 players selected in the first 12 rounds of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft since 2010. In 2023, Drew Millas became the 23rd Bear to play in the Major Leagues when he was called up by Washington.

Jake Burger (Marlins), Dylan Coleman (Astros), Pierce Johnson (Braves) and Drew Millas (Nationals) appeared in a Big League game in 2024.

Overall, the Bears have produced 159 players who have gone on to sign professional contracts over 61 years as a varsity program.

NEW MAN IN CHARGE

For the first time since 1983, the Bears have a new coach. Joey Hawkins, who played for the Bears from 2012-15 and served as assistant coach from 2022-24, is just the third head coach in program history. Bill Rowe managed the Bears from 1964-82 before becoming the school's athletic director. Keith Guttin, who played for MSU under Rowe, succeeded him in 1983 before retiring after the 2024 campaign. In their respective first seasons, Rowe went 6-12 overall in 1964, while Guttin's 1983 club went 32-11 and led the nation with a .367 batting average.

PROS ON STAFF

Head coach Joey Hawkins and all three MoState assistants have played or coached professional baseball, or both.

Hawkins reached as high as Double-A in the St. Louis Cardinals organization as a player and coached there from 2019-21, serving as hitting coach for High-A Peoria prior to coming to Missouri State as an assistant in the summer of 2021.

Assistant coach Geoff Jimenez worked in the minor leagues for both Philadelphia and Seattle, and came back for his second stint at MSU after working as assistant hitting coach for Double-A Arkansas in 2022.

Pitching coach Deck McGuire was the 11th overall pick in the 2010 MLB Draft and pitched in the big leagues for Cincinnati, Toronto and the Los Angeles Angels as well as in the Korean Baseball Organization, where he threw the 14th no-hitter in league history as a member of the Samsung Lions.

Assistant coach Jeremy Cologna spent the 2023 and 2024 seasons coaching at several levels in the New York Mets organization before returning home to Springfield for his second stint with the Bears.

BEARS ON AIR

Missouri State baseball returns to the radio airwaves in southwest Missouri this season with games broadcast on KBFL 96.9 FM and 1060 AM in Springfield. Additionally, a 30-minute weekly episode of Inside the Den with head coach Joey Hawkins will air on Wednesdays at 7 p.m., beginning March 12.

The full schedule plus postseason competition will be live on The Jock with the exception of dates that conflict with Missouri State men's and women's basketball games and select other live sporting events on the station.

All games will continue to be on the Varsity Network app provided by Learfield as well. Fans can download the app for iPhone or Android use for instant access to free game day audio streams and receive push notifications to remind them of games starting or upcoming audio broadcasts.

THE VALLEY ON ESPN

The Valley on ESPN, part of the Missouri Valley Conference's media rights agreement with ESPN, will feature a number of MSU home games, road conference contests, and the MVC Tournament, with production done by home institutions. Select games are produced for the MVC's exclusive ESPN package. Games can be viewed on ESPN+ and the ESPN app.

HEAD COACH JOEY HAWKINS

Head Coach

Missouri State (2015)

10-12

First year at MSU and overall

Joey Hawkins was named Missouri State's third head baseball coach on June 4, 2024. Hawkins played shortstop for the Bears from 2012-15 and was a team captain his final two seasons, returned to his alma mater as hitting coach and recruiting coordinator in June 2021 and was promoted to associate head coach one year later.

Hawkins, who turned 32 in March, is the fourth-youngest Division I head coach behind only VCU's Sean Thompson, Manhattan's Steven Rosen and Youngstown State's Trevor Charpie.

Since Hawkins took over as hitting coach before the 2022 season, the Bears rank 12th nationally with 348 home runs, including three of the top seven single season totals in program history and the Nos. 4 and 6 seasons in Missouri Valley Conference history. The Bears have led the Valley in home runs in all three of his seasons on staff while pacing the conference in slugging percentage twice.

Hawkins has mentored eight players to a total of 10 all-MVC selections, with Spencer Nivens earning Joe Carter MVC Player of the Year honors in 2023 and Zack Stewart picking up the league's Freshman of the Year award that same season. Both earned Freshman All-America honors during their rookie years as well. In 2024, Caden Bogenpohl set MSU freshman records with 20 home runs and 53 walks on the way to a Freshman All-America citation of his own. Four hitters - Drake Baldwin, Dylan Leach, Dakota Kotowski and Nivens - have signed professional contracts, with both Baldwin and Nivens going in the top five rounds of the MLB draft.

A fan favorite during his time as a Missouri State player, Hawkins spent four seasons with the Bears from 2012-15 and was the MVC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. He owns the top two single seasons in school history for sacrifice bunts and assists, holds MSU's career sacrifice record with 62, and led the NCAA in that category during the Bears' historic 2015 campaign that saw the team earn the No. 8 national seed and win the Springfield Regional on the way to a school-record 49 victories. He started the final 157 games of his MSU career at shortstop.

After college, Hawkins was drafted by St. Louis in the 40th round and spent two years playing professionally, advancing to the Double-A Springfield Cardinals in 2016. He was also drafted out of high school from Whitby, Ontario.

Hawkins began his collegiate coaching career in 2017 as the recruiting coordinator and hitting coach at Jefferson College in Hillsboro, Mo., and joined the Division I ranks at Saint Louis University later that year in the same capacity.

During the 2018 season at SLU, Hawkins was an instrumental part of the Billikens club that swept the Atlantic 10 regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. SLU led the A-10 in scoring, batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, RBI and doubles, while the defense posted a .974 fielding percentage.

Hawkins returned to professional baseball in the St. Louis Cardinals organization in 2019, beginning as a hitting coach in the Gulf Coast League, worked as a hitting coordinator at the Cardinals' alternate site facility in 2020 with some of the organization's top prospects, and served as hitting coach for the High-A Peoria Chiefs to start the 2021 season.

Hawkins is married to former MSU softball player and three-time all-MVC selection Ashley Brentz, and the couple has two children, daughter Kinsley and son Cooper. He graduated from Missouri State with a sports management degree in December 2015.
