During the 2024 season, Federico led the Warhawks to wins over NCAA regional finalists Coastal Carolina and Southern Miss as part of their 25 win season, which was the most since 2021. Two ULM pitchers that Federico coached signed free agent contracts with Major League Baseball organizations including Parker Seay (New York Yankees) and Chipper Menard (Baltimore Orioles).

UPGRADES AT "THE LOU"

The ULM baseball team has introduced a new premium seating area experience behind home plate for the 2025 season.

The upgraded Charles R. McDonald Stadium Club features brand new premium seating behind home plate installed by DreamSeat. The front row of the new premium seating area includes 28 SuiteMax 3.5 padded chairs complete with embroidered ULM logos, padded armrests with cup holders and a 12" drink rail for food and drinks. The second row consists of five half-moon bar-height tables, each seating four. Spectators at these tables will have the comfort of the DreamSeat Ventilator swivel mesh-back chairs, which include armrests. Fans will also have the ability to enjoy quartz, pub-height tables along the back wall of the premium seating area. These tables allow spectators to stretch their legs and enjoy the game while standing and rooting on the Warhawks with their friends and family. Stadium Club members also have access to a fully stocked hospitality room with food and beverage, access to private restrooms and personal assistance from our ULM Scouts. A formal dedication ceremony will take place later this season.

NEW FACES FOR A NEW SEASON IN 2025

ULM PICKED 13TH IN SUN BELT CONFERENCE PRESEASON POLL

The ULM baseball team was selected to finish 13th in the Sun Belt Conference in the preseason SBC Coaches' Poll, announced Feb. 5 by the SBC office.

The Warhawks finished with 34 points, sitting behind 12th-place Marshall at 46 points and ahead of Arkansas State at 24 points. Southern Miss earned five first-place votes and was picked to win the league with 179 points. Troy was predicted to finish second with 178 points and four first place votes while the Ragin' Cajuns were slotted third with 174 points and a trio of first place votes. Coastal Carolina earned two first place votes and was picked fourth.

Six Sun Belt baseball programs—including each of its four NCAA Baseball Regional representatives from 2024—were noted in at least one of the five major national preseason polls. The Sun Belt Conference is one of four conferences with four-or-more teams represented in the NCAA baseball field last season.

Coastal Carolina, which has appeared in five of the last six NCAA tournaments, earned the conference's highest ranking at No. 23 in the Perfect Game Preseason Top 25, while also receiving votes in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Preseason Poll and the USA Today Sports Baseball Coaches Preseason Poll.

After narrowly missing the NCAA baseball field a year ago, Troy was the lone Sun Belt program to be ranked in 3-of-5 national preseason polls. The Trojans earned the No. 25 position in the D1Baseball Preseason Top 25 and the USA Today Sports Baseball Coaches Preseason Poll and the No. 28 spot in the NCBWA Preseason Poll.

Southern Miss—the two-time defending Sun Belt tournament champion that has qualified for eight-straight NCAA tournaments—was ranked No. 27 by the NCBWA and No. 37 by Perfect Game, while also receiving votes in the USA Today Sports Baseball Coaches Preseason Poll.

Michael Federico begins his eighth season as head baseball coach at ULM in 2025. He has led the Warhawks to the Sun Belt Conference Tournament in three of the last six seasons that the championship was contested. He was hired as head coach at ULM prior to the 2018 season and served as the club's pitching coach from 2018-22.

Team captain, head coach, pitching guru, recruiting ace and winner are just some of the terms used to define Federico. He is a Louisiana native, raised in Slidell, and has more than 20 years of experience in college baseball coaching.

During the 2024 season, Federico led the Warhawks to wins over NCAA regional finalists Coastal Carolina and Southern Miss as part of their 25 win season, which was the most since 2021. Two ULM pitchers that Federico coached signed free agent contracts with Major League Baseball organizations including Parker Seay (New York Yankees) and Chipper Menard (Baltimore Orioles).

In 2023, he guided ULM to another win over a Power-5 conference opponent with a victory over Mississippi State in Starkville, marking the fifth such victory in his tenure. He also coached pitcher Nicholas Judice, who was selected in the eighth round of the 2023 MLB Draft by the New York Yankees. He was ULM's first Top-10 round draft pick since Matt Green in 2005.

In 2022, ULM qualified for the Sun Belt Conference Championship and advanced to the quarterfinals before falling to nationally ranked Texas State in a rain-shortened single elimination format. He helped coach outfielder Mason Holt to First-Team All-Sun Belt Conference honors after the senior hit 16 home runs, the third-most in a single season in ULM history. Holt and pitcher Lucas Wepf each signed free agent contracts with Major League Baseball following the season, with Holt inking with the Los Angeles Angels and Wepf with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

In 2021, Federico's Warhawks achieved a .500 record in a full season for the first time since 2012, finishing 26-26. ULM also placed third in the Sun Belt Conference West Division, which was its highest spot in the conference standings since 2012. The Warhawks knocked off four Top-10 opponents in the season, picking up a win at No. 3 Ole Miss, a midweek win over No. 9 Oklahoma State at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, and a series win at No. 6 TCU. ULM earned series victories in each of its final six series of the season and knocked off SEC foe Alabama.

Individually, Federico coached junior third baseman Grant Schulz and sophomore second baseman Travis Washburn to Second Team All-Sun Belt Conference honors. He guided the Warhawk pitching staff to a 4.86 ERA while Lucas Wepf (2.36 ERA, 2-0, 3 saves), Trey Lindsay (3.18 ERA, 2-2, 3 saves) and Carson Orton (3.37 ERA, 0-2, 9 saves) formed a dynamic trio out of the bullpen, setting the team single-season saves record with 16.

Federico's 2020 squad was primed to show the growth in the program. The Warhawks started the season 12-2 before dropping the final three games before the season ended abruptly due to the COVID-19 pandemic. At the time of the stoppage, ULM led the Sun Belt Conference in batting average (.311, 15th NCAA DI), on base percentage (.433, 4th DI), runs scored (155, 7th DI), scoring (9.1 rpg., 5th DI), stolen bases (36, 10th DI) base on balls (105, 4th DI) and triples (6).

In 2019, Federico led the Warhawks to a four-win improvement over 2018, and a return to the Sun Belt Conference tournament. ULM won three games in the tournament and reached the semifinals. Third baseman Chad Bell slugged a school-record 21 home runs and was selected first team All-Sun Belt Conference, while utility player Andrew Beesley earned second team All-SBC honors. Bell was also named to the American Baseball Coaches Association All-Region team. Bell (19th round), outfielder Trent Tingelstad (22nd round) and pitcher Trey Jeans (33rd round) were each selected in the 2019 MLB Draft. Pitcher Cole Gray was signed as a free agent by the Oakland Athletics.

In his first season with the Warhawks, ULM nearly doubled its win total from 2017, posting 23 victories while the team earned run average dropped by over half a run. Federico also coached relief pitcher Keegan Curtis, who was selected in the 22nd round of the 2018 MLB Draft by the New York Yankees, after Curtis posted a 2.88 ERA with seven saves.

Prior to arriving at ULM, Federico spent nine seasons at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, where he served as assistant coach, responsible for pitchers and catchers. During those nine seasons Southern Miss won five Conference USA Championships and participated in four NCAA Regional Tournaments.

The 2017 season culminated in a school record of 50 wins. His time at Southern Miss was also highlighted by 24 players being drafted including 15 pitchers. Federico coached four Conference USA Pitchers of the Year, one Conference USA Player of the Year and a Conference USA Freshman of the Year. In 2012, Southern Miss was recognized for a recruiting class that ranked third nationally and in 2015 Federico was named Assistant Coach of the Year by Conference USA. In the 2015 season Southern Miss posted a conference low ERA of 3.14 while setting a school record with 10 shutouts.

Prior to joining Southern Miss in 2009, Federico was an assistant baseball coach at the University of Memphis, where he was responsible for pitchers and catchers. He helped lead the Tigers to a NCAA Regional appearance in 2007, its first berth since 1994. Memphis enjoyed back-to-back 30-plus win seasons in 2006 and 2007. During his five years at Memphis, the Tigers had 13 players drafted including seven pitchers.

Federico enjoyed tremendous success as a head coach at Meridian Community College in Mississippi, leading his squad to two World Series appearances in his three seasons as head coach. He was honored as Region XXIII and Southeastern District Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2004. In 2004, he led the Eagles to 46 wins and finished in ninth place in the World Series tournament. His time at MCC also included 15 players and 9 pitchers being drafted.

Prior to becoming the head coach, he served two seasons as an assistant at Meridian, helping guide the Eagles to a fifth-place finish at the 2000 NJCAA World Series. In all, MCC visited the NJCAA World Series three times over Federico's five total seasons.

He started his coaching career as graduate assistant and volunteer coach at Southern Miss in 1997. The Golden Eagles participated in the 1999 NCAA Regional during his last season there.
