- Mo State is 23-26 all-time in the NCAA Tournament with Super Regionals in 2003, 2015 and 2017 and a College World Series trip in 2003. The Bears are an at-large selection for the eighth time in program history, earning a bid on the strength of a No. 23 RPI, 16th-ranked non-conference schedule and seven RPI top 33 wins in 2026.
- Three Bears earned all-CUSA honors, led by Logan Fyffe and Curry Sutherland on the First Team and Ross Felder adding an all-Freshman Team nod.
- The Bears have homered in 202 of the last 239 games, including 47 of 53 this season, and rank 10th nationally with 526 long balls since the beginning of the 2022 season, when head coach Joey Hawkins took over as hitting coach. Mo State ranks 2nd in Conference USA and 14th nationally this year with 104 homers, while leading the league in slugging (.533) and OBP (.403) and sitting in the top 51 in the NCAA in all three slash categories. The current roster has combined for 206 round-trippers in their time at Mo State.
- According to TruMedia, Missouri State leads the nation in barrel percentage at 25.5%, defined as batted balls at an exit velocity of 95+ mph and launch angle between 10 and 35 degrees. - Junior Caden Bogenpohl ranks 16th nationally with 52 walks this season after drawing 53 and 55 (season record) his first two years. He broke Bill Mueller's career record, held since 1993, on May 8 in 59 fewer games played than Mueller. Bogenpohl ranks 4th among active Division I players in career walks (160) and 16th with 180 runs scored.
- Senior Taeg Gollert ranks 2nd among active NCAA players (all divisions) with a Missouri State-record 72 career doubles, and also owns the Mo State career record with 117 extra-base hits. NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Missouri State is 23-26 all-time in the NCAA Tournament with Super Regionals in 2003, 2015 and 2017 and a College World Series trip in 2003. The Bears have won at least one game in each of their last 10 regional appearances.

AGAINST THE FIELD

Mo State is 32-60 all-time against Arkansas including a home-and-home split this season, winning 15-14 in Springfield and losing 12-4 in Fayetteville. The Bears are 4-3 against the Hogs in NCAA Tournament play, with meetings in 1999, 2015 and 2017, all in Fayetteville. Since the beginning of the 2015 season, Missouri State is 10-9 against Arkansas, joining Florida, Georgia, LSU and Vanderbilt as the only programs nationally above .500 against the Hogs (minimum 10 meetings) over that span.

The Bears are 33-32 all-time against Kansas with a 14-19 record in Lawrence. KU won the last meeting at Hogle Ballpark, 9-8 on April 4, 2023.

Missouri State has never played Northeastern in baseball.

HAWK AT HOME

Missouri State is 40-10 at home under Joey Hawkins and boasts a .330 batting average and .618 slugging percentage with 116 total home runs and a 10.1 scoring average in those 50 games. Mo State is also 13-1 in home weekend series (3+ games) under Hawkins and 9-1 in conference series.

In 2026, the Bears are 21-3 at home, batting .329 and slugging .621 with 58 homers and an 10.3 scoring average. The 21 wins are the most at home since 2016, while the .875 winning percentage is the program's highest mark since 1982.

The 17-0 home start is the best in program history, marked the longest home winning streak in program history and was the longest active streak when it ended on April 19 vs. Western Kentucky. The Bears were one of two unbeaten home teams along with Air Force when they suffered their first defeat.

TEAM RECORDS

Missouri State has set two program records so far this season. The Bears stole 10 bases on March 8 against Memphis, tying a school single-game record set twice previously, in 1985 and 1986. Jax Ryan (3), Jackson Beaman (2), Charlie Carter (2), Caden Bogenpohl (1), Taeg Gollert (1) and Logan Fyffe (1) swiped bags in the game.

The Bears have also been hit by 91 pitches this season, eclipsing the previous season record of 80 set in 2004.

NON-CON SUCCESS

MSU has been solid against non-conference competition over the last decade, compiling a 179-137 (.566) record in regular-season games versus non-league foes since the start of the 2015 season. The Bears have won 87 of their last 125 regular-season non-conference home games.

BEARS IN THE PRO RANKS

Missouri State has had 23 players selected in the first 12 rounds of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft since 2010. In 2025, Drake Baldwin became the 24th Bear to play in the majors when he got the 2025 Opening Day start at catcher for Atlanta, eventually becoming the second Mo State alum to earn National League Rookie of the Year honors (Ryan Howard, 2005)

Drake Baldwin (Braves), Jake Burger (Rangers), Pierce Johnson (Reds) and Drew Millas (Nationals) began the 2026 season on Big League rosters.

Overall, the Bears have produced 163 players who have gone on to sign professional contracts over 62 years as a varsity program.

ROUTE 66 STADIUM

Hammons Field was renamed Route 66 Stadium on April 23, 2026, with the first official game under the new moniker taking place against Jacksonville State on May 1.

The new name comes with a first-of-its-kind naming rights collaboration between Missouri State, the Springfield Cardinals, O'Reilly Auto Parts, the City of Springfield and Mercy to create a destination for travelers near and far.

PROS ON STAFF

Head coach Joey Hawkins and two Mo State assistants have played or coached professional baseball, or both.

Hawkins reached as high as Double-A in the St. Louis Cardinals organization as a player and coached there from 2019-21, serving as hitting coach for High-A Peoria prior to coming to Missouri State as an assistant in the summer of 2021.

Associate head coach Geoff Jimenez worked in the minor leagues for both Philadelphia and Seattle, and came back for his second stint at MSU after working as assistant hitting coach for Double-A Arkansas in 2022.

Pitching coach Deck McGuire was the 11th overall pick in the 2010 MLB Draft and pitched in the big leagues for Cincinnati, Toronto and the Los Angeles Angels as well as in the Korean Baseball Organization, where he threw the 14th no-hitter in league history as a member of the Samsung Lions.

BEARS ON AIR

Missouri State baseball returns to the radio airwaves in southwest Missouri this season with games broadcast on KBFL 96.9 FM and 1060 AM in Springfield. Additionally, a 30-minute weekly episode of Inside the Den with head coach Joey Hawkins airs on those same stations on Wednesdays at 7 p.m. beginning March 18.

The full schedule plus postseason competition will be live on The Jock with the exception of dates that conflict with Missouri State men's and women's basketball games and select other live sporting events on the station.

All games will continue to be on the Varsity Network app provided by Learfield as well. Fans can download the app for iPhone or Android use for instant access to free game day audio streams and receive push notifications to remind them of games starting or upcoming audio broadcasts.

HEAD COACH JOEY HAWKINS

Head Coach

Missouri State (2015)

64-44

2nd year at MSU and overall

20-7 record in weekend series

14-4 in conference series

7-3 in CUSA series

13-1 in home series (3+ games)

Joey Hawkins was named Missouri State's third head baseball coach on June 4, 2024. Hawkins played shortstop for the Bears from 2012-15 and was a team captain his final two seasons, returned to his alma mater as hitting coach and recruiting coordinator in June 2021 and was promoted to associate head coach one year later.

Hawkins was the fourth-youngest Division I head coach at 31 years old at the time of his hire.

Since Hawkins took over as hitting coach in 2022, the Bears rank 10th nationally with 526 home runs, including 5 of the top 9 single season totals in program history and three of the top eight in Missouri Valley Conference history at the time the Bears departed the league following the 2025 campaign. A total of 15 Bears have combined for 25 seasons of double-digit home runs under his tutelage. In addition to its long ball prowess, MoState has also posted three of the top five seasons in school history in terms of walks drawn under Hawkins' watch.

Hawkins has mentored a total of 13 players to 18 all-conference selections, including 9 first-team all-league picks as a head coach. Five Bears have earned specialty awards under his tutelage, including MVC Player of the Year citations for Spencer Nivens (2023) and Nick Rodriguez (2025), one MVC Freshman of the Year (Zack Stewart, 2023), one MVC Newcomer of the Year (Max Knight, 2025) and one MVC Defensive Player of the Year (Tyler Epstein, 2025). Rodriguez, Knight, Stewart and Caden Bogenpohl each earned All-America honors as well.

Eight of Hawkins' pupils at Missouri State - four hitters from his time as an assistant and four more players as a head coach - have signed pro contracts through 2025, including a pair of top five round draft picks in Drake Baldwin and Nivens. Baldwin made his MLB debut with Atlanta on Opening Day in 2025 and went on to win National League Rookie of the Year honors that same season.

A fan favorite during his time as a Missouri State player, Hawkins spent four seasons with the Bears from 2012-15 and was the MVC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. He owns the top two single seasons in school history for sacrifice bunts and assists, holds MSU's career sacrifice record with 62, and led the NCAA in that category during the Bears' historic 2015 campaign that saw the team earn the No. 8 national seed and win the Springfield Regional on the way to a school-record 49 victories.

After college, Hawkins was drafted by St. Louis in the 40th round and spent two years playing professionally, advancing to the Double-A Springfield Cardinals in 2016.

Hawkins began his collegiate coaching career in 2017 as the recruiting coordinator and hitting coach at Jefferson College and joined the Division I ranks at Saint Louis University later that year in the same capacity.

Hawkins returned to professional baseball in the St. Louis Cardinals organization in 2019, beginning as a hitting coach in the Gulf Coast League, worked as a hitting coordinator at the Cardinals' alternate site facility in 2020 with some of the organization's top prospects, and served as hitting coach for the High-A Peoria Chiefs to start the 2021 season.

Hawkins is married to former MSU softball player and three-time all-MVC selection Ashley Brentz, and the couple has three children, daughters Kinsley and Quinn and son Cooper. He graduated from Missouri State with a sports management degree in December 2015.
