TALKING POINTS

- Arkansas will play its first SEC home game of the 2017 season on Saturday when it hosts No. 21 Auburn. This is Arkansas' only SEC home game until Nov. 18 when Mississippi State comes to Fayetteville. The Razorbacks have won two of their last three SEC home games dating back to 2015.
- The Razorbacks have won three of their past four against Auburn in Fayetteville, including the thrilling 54-46 four-overtime victory in 2015. The Tigers lead the all-time series 14-11-1, dating back to 1984, but the teams have split the last 10 meetings.
- Arkansas' losses this season have come against four opponents (Alabama, TCU, Texas A&M, South Carolina) that have a combined 23-4 record. Auburn will mark the fourth team in the current Coaches Poll Top 25 that the Razorbacks have faced through their first seven games.
- Cole Kelley, filling in for injured starting quarterback Austin Allen, completed 23 of 42 passes for 200 yards with one touchdown and one interception last Saturday at No. 1 Alabama in his first career start. Kelley, the 6-7 freshman, completed passes to eight different players on the night with nine completions converting first downs. Kelley's top targets were Deon Stewart (6 catches, 65 yards) and Jordan Jones (four catches, 72 yards, 1 TD). Kelley connected with Jones for 46 yards -- Arkansas' longest play of the night and second-longest play of the season. He's the first Arkansas freshman QB to start a game since Brandon Allen did at Alabama in 2012.
- Jonathan Nance is one of three players in the SEC to record 100+ yards receiving in two SEC games.
- Through six games, Jonathan Nance ranks among the top 10 in the SEC in TD receptions (5, T-3rd) receiving yards (377, 8th), receiving yards per game (62.8, 8th), receptions per game (4.0, T-10th), 20+ yard catches (7, T-6th), 30+ yard catches (5, T-3rd) and 40+ yard catches (3, T-6th).
- Jonathan Nance has caught a touchdown pass in four of six games this season. Four of his five touchdowns have been over 30 yards (49, 44, 34 and 31 yards).
- Arkansas is tied for 10th nationally and ranks second in the SEC in red-zone touchdown percentage (78.26). The Razorbacks are 13 of 15 in the red zone over the last four games, scoring 12 touchdowns.
- Behind double-digit tackle performances in each of Arkansas' three SEC games, DeJon Harris ranks fifth in the SEC in total tackles (55) and second in total tackles per game (9.17). He has totaled 38 tackles against SEC teams to rank fourth in the conference and second in tackles per SEC game (12.67).
- After being named the highest-graded center a year ago by Pro Football Focus, senior Frank Ragnow boasts the top grade among all offensive linemen in college football at 93.7 overall through seven weeks. Ragnow will make his 33rd consecutive start on the offensive line Saturday. Dating back to 2015, Ragnow's stretch of 32 consecutive starts (17 at center and 15 at right guard) is the longest active streak on the team). Ragnow is a candidate for the Rimington Trophy, Outland Trophy, Wuerffel Trophy and Senior CLASS Award.
- David Williams leads the Razorbacks and ranks tied for sixth in the SEC in touchdowns with six (5 rushing, 1 receiving) highlighted by two multi-TD games, including a three-touchdown effort against Texas A&M on Sept. 23.
- This season, 14 different Arkansas players have made a catch and 11 have made multiple catches. Six players have caught a touchdown pass. Jonathan Nance leads the way with five followed by Deon Stewart and Jordan Jones with two each and Cheyenne O'Grady, David Williams and Jared Cornelius with one apiece.
- Arkansas has recorded 400+ yards of total offense in three of its six games this season. Since 2000, the Hogs have totaled 400+ yards an SEC tying-best 112 times. Arkansas has had 33 such games under Bret Bielema, including 23 since 2015 to rank third in the SEC in that span.
- The Hogs have scored 40+ points in three of its six games this season. Since 2015, Arkansas has topped the 40-point plateau 13 times, good for second-most in the SEC. The Hogs are 11-2 in such games during that span.

ARKANSAS OUTLASTS AUBURN 54-46 IN 40T

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - It was a back-and-forth game full of lead changes and big plays, the last of which was Arkansas (3-4, 2-2 SEC) quarterback Brandon Allen's 25-yard touchdown pass to Drew Morgan on the opening play of the fourth extra period. Following a 2-point conversion pass by Allen to Jeremy Sprinkle, the Razorbacks defense finally found a way to stop the Tigers (4-3, 1-3) when it mattered most. Alex Collins led the Razorbacks with 105 yards rushing and a touchdown on 25 carries, topping 100 yards for the fourth time in five games. It was Morgan, however, who took Allen's first pass of the fourth overtime in the right flat and sprinted up the sideline before diving into the end zone for the eventual winning touchdown. The touchdown was Morgan's second in the four overtimes, the longest game for Arkansas since a triple-overtime win over Kentucky in 2003. The two teams traded touchdowns in the first three overtimes, also both converting their 2-point conversions in the third extra period. After Morgan's second touchdown put Arkansas up in the fourth overtime, the Tigers had a chance to try and tie the game while driving into the heart of the Razorback Stadium crowd on the south end of the field. However, Ricardo Louis dropped a pass in the end zone on second down, and White's fourth-down attempt to Louis was broken up by Arkansas safety Josh Liddell. Arkansas appeared to have the game under control for much of the first half, holding the Tigers to 14 yards of offense on their first 14 plays. Auburn recovered after the slow start to force the overtime and nearly won the game in both the first and third overtimes, but the Razorbacks scored on a pair of fourth downs -- including Allen's 6-yard scoring pass to Morgan on fourth-and-3 in the first OT.

One of Arkansas' "Iron Men" the past three seasons, Frank Ragnow has played 2,270 of a possible 2,313 snaps over 32 games. He's played 100 percent of snaps in 23 games. Ragnow will make his 33rd consecutive start on the offensive line Saturday against No. 21 Auburn. As a true freshman in 2014, Ragnow saw action in nine games and participated in 260 snaps. One of the most impressive parts of his career is that he hasn't allowed a sack, playing a total of 1,205 snaps in pass protection.

RAGNOW ON MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICA TEAMS

Frank Ragnow, the No. 1 graded offensive lineman in college football by Pro Football Focus, landed on the analysis site's Midseason All-America Team last week at center. He was also recently selected to Sports Illustrated's 2017 Midseason All-America Team at center.

RAGNOW A CANDIDATE FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Frank Ragnow has been named one of 30 candidates for the 2017 Senior CLASS Award. The Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. In the classroom, Ragnow maintains a 3.31 GPA. He needs just three credit hours to graduate and will earn his undergraduate degree in recreation and sport management in December. He was selected to the SEC Academic Honor Roll last year and was named to the league's 2014-15 First Year Academic Honor Roll as a freshman. A team captain as voted by his teammates, Ragnow is a tremendous ambassador for the University of Arkansas, the Razorback football program, and college athletics. He has consistently volunteered his time off the field to the Northwest Arkansas community.

NANCE DIGS THE LONG BALL

Junior college transfer wide receiver Jonathan Nance has five receptions of 30+ yards (4 TD) through the first six games of the 2017 season. That already matches the most by an Arkansas player in each of the last four seasons. Nance's four touchdown receptions of 30+ yards is tied for the most by an Arkansas player in a single season since Marcus Monk recorded five in 2006. Anthony Lucas' six in 1998 are the most by a Razorback in the last 20 seasons.

CURL MAKING MOST OF OPPORTUNITY

Freshman cornerback Kamren Curl was forced to step into the starting role when junior Ryan Pulley went down with an injury in the season opener. Curl has stepped into the role nicely, playing on the opposite side of senior cornerback Henre' Toliver. A product of Muskogee, Oklahoma, Curl came off the bench with three tackles and a pass breakup in the season opener. After six games, including five starts, Curl is fourth on the team in tackles (25), leads all SEC freshmen in tackles per game (4.2) and is tied for the team lead in pass breakups (4). His four pass breakups are the most by an Arkansas freshman since D.J. Dean finished the 2013 season with four. The last time a Razorback freshman finished the year tops on the team in pass breakups was in 2001 when Lawrence Robinson totaled 20.

O-LINE LINE SHUFFLE

Arkansas' offensive line featured a new look at No. 1 Alabama on Oct. 14. Junior Hjalte Froholdt made his 19th straight start at left guard. Senior Frank Ragnow, making his 32nd consecutive start, was at right guard. Johnny Gibson made his 11th consecutive start, his first at left tackle. His other starts came at right guard or right tackle. Junior Brian Wallace, who started the final 10 games last season at right guard, was at left tackle in his first start this season. Zach Rogers was at center in his first career start. Juniors Colton Jackson and Paul Ramirez were not in the starting lineup. Jackson started the first five games at left tackle and Ramirez started the past two games at right tackle, when Gibson moved to right guard in place of true freshman Ty Clary. Eight offensive linemen have started at least one game this season with three different combinations. Ragnow started at right guard for the first time in 16 games, since Arkansas played Texas State in 2016 and Jake Raulerson started at center. Ragnow started every game in 2015 at right guard.

RAZORBACK NOTEBOOK

K-RICH RECORDS SECOND INTERCEPTION

Senior defensive back and captain Kevin Richardson II recorded his second interception of the season, the third of his career, at No. 1 Alabama on Oct. 14. Richardson's third-quarter pickoff ended Crimson Tide quarterback Jalen Hurts' streak of consecutive passing attempts without an interception at 206. Hurts had not thrown an interception since the second quarter of the Auburn game on Nov. 24, 2016. Richardson's two interceptions are a team high this season. His first interception came at home against New Mexico State on Sept. 30, when he brought down a tipped pass in the end zone.

EUGENE MAKING MOST OF SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Senior outside linebacker Dwayne Eugene Jr. has saved some of his best play for his final season. After six games in 2017, Eugene leads the Razorbacks in tackles for loss (5.5) to rank tied for 16th in the SEC (tied for sixth-most among players who've played fewer than seven games). Eugene has turned in at least 1.0 tackle for loss in four games this seasons, including each of the last three. He entered the 2017 season with just 1.0 tackle for loss in his first 35 games played. Of Eugene's 5.5 tackles for loss, 2.5 have come in the last two weeks against SEC opponents (1.0 at South Carolina on Oct. 7 and 1.5 (0.5 sack) at No. 1 Alabama on Oct. 14). He posted a career-high 2.0 tackles for loss (1.0 sack) against New Mexico State on Sept. 30.

TOLIVER SOLID IN COVERAGE

Among all SEC cornerbacks to log 160+ snaps in coverage, senior cornerback Henre' Toliver is allowing the fifth-fewest yards per snap (0.61) and has produced the fifth-lowest passer rating when targeted (50.3). Toliver is also the Razorbacks' active career leader in interceptions (6), which is tied for No. 6 among active SEC Players. He's tied for the team lead in single-season interceptions in two of the past three seasons, picking off two passes in both 2016 and 2014. Toliver also ranks No. 10 in school history in career interception return yardage (131). His lone interception returned for a score came against Alcorn State on Oct. 1, 2016 and went 70 yards.

SCOOTA LEADS HOGS IN TACKLES

De'Jon "Scoota" Harris leads Arkansas in total tackles this season (55). He notched a season-high 12 stops (11 solo) at South Carolina and matched that total for the second straight game last Saturday at No. 1 Alabama. It was the fourth double-digit tackle effort of his career and his third of the season. He also turned in 11 tackles against Texas A&M. Harris is tied for the SEC lead with double-digit tackles in three league contests this season. His 38 tackles over three SEC games ranks second in the conference. He is the first Razorback with double-digit tackles in three straight SEC games since Martrell Spaight in 2014. Spaight had a streak of seven consecutive games.

He ranks No. 5 in the SEC in total tackles (55), No. 2 in total tackles per game (9.17), No. 2 in tackles per SEC game (12.67), and is one of four players in the SEC with 50+ tackles and at least 5.0 tackles for loss. STUFFING THE STAT SHEET

Team captain and junior defensive back Santos Ramirez has stuffed the stat sheet through six games this season, turning in 29 tackles (20 solo), including 1.0 for loss, forced two fumbles, picked off one pass and broke up four passes.

He wasted little time showcasing his ball-hawking abilities when in the second game of the season against No. 23 TCU on Sept. 9 he racked up eight total tackles, picked off one pass, forced a fumble, and also broke up a pass. Ramirez matched a career-high in tackles (8) at South Carolina to eclipse 100 for his career. Another notable performance for the big-play safety came against New Mexico State when he recorded a team-high tying five tackles (all solo), including 1.0 for loss, a forced fumble and two pass breakups.

Ramirez is known for his heavy hitting and ball-hawking ability. Last season, he delivered a huge hit on Ole Miss quarterback Chad Kelly that forced a fumble out of bounds during a fourth-down scramble late in the fourth quarter to secure the victory for the Hogs. He also returned an interception 24 yards for a touchdown against No. 11 Florida. So far in 2017, Ramirez is one of just four players in the FBS to log 25+ tackles, force two or more fumbles, force at least one interception and break up four or more passes over the first seven weeks.

#PROSTYLEU

Arkansas has been one of the most balanced offenses in the nation over the last two seasons under offensive coordinator Dan Enos. In fact, Arkansas and Boise State were the only two FBS teams to have a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in each of the last two seasons. Even more impressive, Arkansas was the only school that accomplished the feat with two different quarterbacks and two different running backs.

The combo of a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher has been accomplished three times in Arkansas' program history (2010, 15, 16) with two coming under Enos the last two years. Arkansas was one of 14 FBS programs with a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in 2016 and one of just nine FBS programs with a different 3,000-yard passer in 2015 and 2016.

Brandon Allen (2015) and Austin Allen (2016) each passed for 3,000 yards in the last two seasons. The only other time two different Arkansas quarterbacks threw for 3,000 yards in consecutive seasons came in 2010 (Ryan Mallett) and 2011 (Tyler Wilson).

Arkansas was one of just four FBS programs with a different 1,300-yard rusher in 2015 and 2016. It was just the second time Arkansas had a 1,300-yard rusher in back-to-back seasons and the first time two different players accounted for 1,300 yards rushing in consecutive seasons. Darren McFadden rushed for over 1,300 yards in 2006 and 2007.

TOPPING 200

- Bret Bielema's teams are 61-15 (20-8 at Arkansas) when rushing for 200+ yards in a game.
- 21-0 when breaking the 300-yard rushing barrier.
- 11-0 when topping the 350-yard plateau.
- 7-0 when eclipsing the 400-yard mark.

A PERFECT FIT FOR #RBU

Prior to the 2014 season, ESPN.com donned Arkansas as RBU of the 2000s. Bret Bielema is a perfect fit to continue that legacy and currently is the only active FBS head coach with a 1,000-yard rusher in each of the last 11 seasons (2006-Present).

DEFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

When Arkansas' defense pitches in on the scoreboard, it usually means good things for the Razorbacks. The Hogs are 20-5 since 2005 when the Razorback defense scores a touchdown, including an 8-1 mark under Bret Bielema.

Arkansas has combined for six interception returns and three fumble returns for touchdowns in those nine games under Bielema. Henre' Toliver added an entry to that list in the season opener with an 18-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the third quarter of the Hogs' 49-7 win over Florida A&M. It marked the second straight year he has scored a defensive TD.

HEAD COACH BRET BIELEMA AT A GLANCE . . .

The University of Arkansas captivated the college football world by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history in December 2012. Since arriving in Fayetteville, Bielema, who enters his fifth season on The Hill, has in turn captivated the passionate Razorback fan base and the state with the culture he is creating and the standards he is holding the program to.

Backed by his "Five Edges" to success, Bielema represented the qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes responsible both on and off the field and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Over his 11 seasons as a head coach, Bielema has won three conference championships and coached 15 first-team All-Americans, numerous award winners, 42 NFL Draft picks and NFL superstars. Among the NFL players coached by Bielema are three-time Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, Super Bowl winning quarterback Russell Wilson and No. 1 overall draft pick and 10-time Pro Bowler Joe Thomas.

Since his arrival and over 51 games, Bielema, who is the only head coach in Arkansas history to win back-to-back bowl games, has dramatically changed the direction of the program. From his first 20 games as head coach to his most recent 20, Arkansas has gone from tied for 14th in the SEC in wins over that span to a tie for fourth with a 13-7 mark. His three straight winning seasons at Arkansas have featured seven wins over ranked teams, including five against top 15 opponents, and three on the road.

Arkansas' pro-style offense has produced a different 3,000-yard passer each of the last two seasons, making it one of just nine FBS programs to do so, while Bielema has had a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his 11 seasons as a head coach. In fact, the Razorbacks are the only FBS program to have a different quarterback pass for 3,000 yards and a different running back go for 1,300 yards on the ground in each of the last two years.

- Five offensive players were taken in the 2016 NFL draft, the second most from one school, highlighted by Hunter Henry being the first tight end off the board and running backs Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins becoming just the third backfield duo to be selected in the first five rounds of the same draft since 2008.
