FIU ALL-TIME VS. THE SEC

FIU will be facing an opponent from the Southeastern Conference for the first time since 2009 and the fifth time in program history when it travels to face Arkansas on Saturday.

The Panthers are 0-4 in previous match ups with SEC foes – with the most recent a loss at Florida in 2009.

MITCHELL LOOKING FOR 1,000 YARDS

Junior wide receiver Kris Mitchell enters Saturday's game at Arkansas with 845 receiving yards – he is 155 shy of becoming the third player in FIU program history to eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving number in a single season.

Mitchell would join Tyrese Chambers (1,074/2021) and T.Y. Hilton (1,038/2011 & 1,013/2008).

Mitchell has recorded at least 73 yards in eight of 10 games this season, including a 201-yard and 109-yard effort.

He has notched a total of 11 catches over 20 yards this season and five grabs of 40 or more yards in 2023.

Mitchell currently ranks 21st among all FBS players in receiving yards and tops in Conference USA.

DONOVAN = DOMINANCE

Senior linebacker Donovan Manuel has been one of the unquestioned leaders of the Panthers' defense in 2023.

Manuel currently ranks among the nation's leaders in a number of defensive categories including:

- Tackles for Loss – 13th in FBS – 1st in CUSA (1.4)
- Forced Fumbles – 3rd in FBS – 1st in CUSA (0.40 pg)
- Total Tackles - 13th in FBS - 2nd in CUSA (9.9 pg)
- Solo Tackles - 10th in FBS - 2nd in CUSA (5.4 pg)

Manuel has recorded double-figure stops in four of 10 games overall. He has totaled 14.5 TFLs and 99 tackles to lead the Panthers in both categories through 10 games.

He has tabbed nine or more tackles in eight of 10 games overall entering Saturday.

Manuel has registered at least 2.0 TFLs in three of the last four games and six of 10 overall in 2023.

PANTHERS LOOKING FOR WIN NO. 5

FIU will be looking for its fifth win of the 2023 season when it faces Arkansas on Saturday in Fayetteville.

The Panthers have posted four wins over the first 10 games of 2023 and one more win would eclipse last year's win total of four and mark the most wins for FIU in a single season since 2019 when it finished 6-7 overall.

FIU SEEKING THIRD ROAD VICTORY

The Panthers' 33-27 double overtime victory at Sam Houston on Oct. 18 marked their second victory of the 2023 season and matched their road win total from last season.

FIU is one road victory shy of posting its most road victories since 2018 – when it tabbed four road wins in five games.

ALL-TIME SERIES VS. ARKANSAS

Saturday's game between FIU and Arkansas will mark the second meeting between the programs.

The Panthers dropped a 58-10 decision to the Razorbacks in the lone previous meeting on Oct. 27, 2007.

ARKANSAS-FLORIDA CONNECTION

The Razorbacks have six players on their active roster that hail from the state of Florida.

Jaheim Singletary	Jacksonville, Fla.	Riverside
Joshua Braun	Live Oak, Fla.	Suwanee

PERFECT WHEN JENKINS TOSSES TD PASS

FIU freshman quarterback Keyone Jenkins is off to a solid start during his rookie campaign under center for the Panthers with six touchdown passes over his initial eight starts.

The Panthers are a perfect 4-0 this season when Jenkins tosses at least one touchdown pass entering Saturday's meeting with Arkansas.

GAME NOTES

SCOUTING ARKANSAS

The Razorbacks enter Saturday's action with an overall record of 3-7 and a 1-6 mark in Southeastern Conference action. Arkansas has lost five of its last six games overall – with the lone win coming in a 39-36 victory in overtime at Florida on Nov. 4.

While Arkansas dropped its last contest by a 48-10 margin at home to Auburn, the Razorbacks narrowly lost to then-No. 11 Alabama on the road, 24-21 and at then-No. 16 Ole Miss, 27-20.

Arkansas will be playing its second straight home contest and its sixth overall when it hosts the Panthers on Saturday night – the Razorbacks are 2-3 on their home turf with wins over Western Carolina and Kent State. They have lost their last three home games.

The Razorbacks are averaging 318.3 yards of offense and 26.1 points over their opening 10 contests and are allowing 357.5 yards and 26.7 points on average to their opponents.

Arkansas has displayed a balanced offensive attack as it is averaging 12.8 rushing and 196.5 passing yards per contest.

Through 10 games, Arkansas has scored a nation-leading four defensive touchdowns.

In addition, Arkansas signal caller KJ Jefferson is 44 yards shy of becoming the Razorbacks all-time leader in passing yards and one passing touchdown shy of becoming the program's leader in that category.

LAST TIME VS. ARKANSAS

Darren McFadden scored on four short runs, and Arkansas took advantage of seven turnovers by Florida International in a 58-10 victory.

GAME NOTES

McFadden, last year's Heisman Trophy runner-up, rushed for only 61 yards. All of his touchdowns were from 3 yards or closer. Felix Jones ran for 89 yards and a touchdown.

Arkansas quarterback Casey Dick left in the second quarter with a concussion and sore ribs after being hit in the backfield. Nathan Emert replaced him and threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Monk late in the half.

Monk, the Razorbacks' career leader in touchdown catches, caught his first two passes of the season. He had barely played to this point because of a preseason knee injury. The crowd, which appeared smaller than the announced 60,750, gave Monk a nice ovation after his first catch, a 6-yarder in the first quarter.

Dick was 4-of-6 for 36 yards with an interception, and Emert was 13-of-25 for 154 yards. Fullback Peyton Hillis caught six passes for 77 yards for Arkansas.

The Panthers turned the ball over on their second offensive play. Wayne Younger's pass was caught by Moses Hinton, who fumbled, giving Arkansas the ball at the FIU 20. The Razorbacks settled for a field goal, but McFadden scored from 3 yards out on their next possession to make it 10-0.

Another FIU fumble gave Arkansas the ball at the 11, but Dick was intercepted in the end zone. Younger was then intercepted by Jerell Norton, who returned the ball 23 yards to the 32. McFadden scored on a 1-yard run, outrunning the defense to the left side. His third touchdown, from 2 yards out, was on a similar play but to the right.

Jones scored on a 16-yard run late in the third quarter, and McFadden added a 2-yard scoring run in the fourth. McFadden had never run for more than two touchdowns in a game.

The Razorbacks' Michael Smith broke free for an 81-yard touchdown run in the final minute, and FIU then used its remaining time outs on its final possession. The Golden Panthers didn't score, and when it was over, Arkansas defensive coordinator Reggie Herring appeared to gesture toward the FIU sideline while running off the field.

Younger was 9-of-26 for 93 yards with five interceptions, although he got loose for several impressive scrambles against the Arkansas pass rush. He ran for 110 yards in the first half - more than McFadden and Jones combined - and finished with 124.

Younger threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to Greg Ellingson in the second quarter on fourth-and-10.

JENKINS TIES RECORD FOR RUSHING TDS BY QB

FIU freshman quarterback Keyone Jenkins has registered a total of five rushing touchdowns over the last eight games - which ties the mark for the most ever by a FIU freshman quarterback - matching Alex McGough's total from 2017.

In addition, Jenkins has scored a rushing touchdown in a stretch of five consecutive games (Sept. 16-Oct. 18) - the program record for most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown by any player is six (6) - set by Darriet Perry in 2009.

PANTHERS MATCH BEST 4-GAME START

The Panthers' 3-1 start to 2023 matched their best four-game start in program history, which they also accomplished in 2017 and 2011.

MITCHELL ADDED TO BILETNIKOFF AWARD WATCH LIST

Junior wide receiver Kris Mitchell has been added to the 2023 Biletnikoff Award Preseason Watch List, it was announced by The Tallahassee Quarterback Club (TQC) Foundation, Inc., the Florida-based creator and sponsor of the prestigious Biletnikoff Award.

The Biletnikoff Award annually recognizes the college football season's outstanding FBS receiver. Any player, regardless of position (wide receiver, tight end, slot back, and running back) who catches a pass is eligible for the award. As such, the Biletnikoff Award recognizes college football's outstanding receiver, not merely college football's outstanding wide receiver.

The semifinalists, finalists, and award recipient are selected by the highly distinguished Biletnikoff Award National Selection Committee, a group of 650 prominent college football journalists, commentators, announcers, Biletnikoff Award winners, and other former receivers. Foundation trustees do not vote and have never voted.

Mitchell was one of five players added to the list, which now totals 59 candidates for the prestigious honor.

DEFENSE STIFFENS IN RED ZONE

The Panthers' defense has tightened when it has mattered most this season as FIU currently boasts the 57th best red zone defense in FBS and third in Conference USA.

FIU has allowed scores on 31-of-38 opponents red zone chances and 19 touchdowns.

JENKINS FOURTH AMONG ALL FBS FRESHMEN IN PASSING YARDS

True freshman quarterback Keyone Jenkins has wasted little time making his presence known since taking over as starter the last eight games.

He currently boasts a total of 1,900 passing yards over his nine starts entering Saturday's game at Arkansas - which currently ranks as the 63rd-highest total in FBS - and fourth-most among all freshman nationally.

His average of 211.1 passing yards per game sits as the fourth-best mark in Conference USA and the 56th best mark in the nation.

In addition, Jenkins has shown a knack for the big play with an average of 13.01 yards per completion - the 32nd best total among all FBS quarterbacks.

The product of Miami Central High completed passes to eight different receivers while completing 20-of-32 passes for 291 yards in the Panthers' 46-39 win over North Texas on Sept.9.

That followed a 292-yard performance in his first career start vs. Maine on Sept. 2 which shattered the record for most passing yards ever by a true freshman at FIU - a record that had stood since 2002.

In his first road test, he went for 284 yards and two TDs in a 24-17 win at Connecticut - which also saw him complete passes to seven different receivers. He also added 24 yards on the ground and a rushing TD in the win over the Huskies on Sept. 16.

JENKINS UNDER CENTER

True freshman quarterback Keyone Jenkins has known little but winning in his recent seasons as a starting signal caller dating back to his prep career at Miami Central.

Jenkins won each of his last 26 starts at Miami Central while also guiding the Rockets to three consecutive state titles from 2020-22.

He opened 3-0 as a starter for FIU prior to a loss against Liberty on Sept. 23.

ARKANSAS TO MARK SEVENTH NATIONAL TV GAME

The FIU football team's contest at Arkansas on Saturday, Nov. 18 will kick off at 7:30 p.m. ET and will air to a national audience on ESPN2.

The game at Arkansas will represent the Panthers' seventh nationally-televised game this season, following five previous appearances this season on CBS Sports Network and one on ESPN2.

The seven nationally-televised games are the most in a single season in program history.

PETERSON NAMED CUSA DEFENSIVE POW

Junior linebacker Reggie Peterson was recognized as the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week, for the period ending October 22.

Peterson recorded a game-high 10 tackles (nine solo) and registered his second career interception, which he returned for 61 yards in FIU's 33-27 double-overtime win at Sam Houston on Wednesday night.

GAMES NOTES

The Fort Pierce, Florida, native now has three games with nine or more tackles this season and a pair with 10 or more.

Peterson is the third FIU player to be selected by Conference USA for a weekly award this season following previous selections of junior wide receiver Kris Mitchell and sophomore running back Kejon Owens.

FIU POSTS OT ROAD WIN AT SAM HOUSTON

Freshman quarterback Keyone Jenkins connected with junior wide receiver Kris Jenkins for a 25-yard scoring pass on the opening play in the second round of overtime to lift the Panthers to a 33-27 victory over Sam Houston on Oct. 18 in a Conference USA clash.

The Panthers defense held up their end on the following Sam Houston possession – as they pushed the Bearkats backwards with back-to-back sacks and kept them off the scoreboard to seal the victory.

The teams traded touchdowns on their opening possessions of overtime – with Sam Houston scoring on a 25-yard run by Noah Smith on its first play in the extra session before the Panthers answered with a one-yard quarterback sneak by Jenkins to push it to a second round of overtime.

Trailing 20-17 with under 90 seconds remaining, Jenkins picked up a key first down with a 23-yard run on a fourth and 18 to keep FIU's final drive in regulation alive and set up junior placekicker Chase Gabriel for a clutch 36-yard field goal that tied the game at 20-20 and sent the contest into overtime.

With the game tied at 17-17, FIU had possession deep in its own territory following a pooch punt by Sam Houston, that backed the Panthers up to their own three-yard line. Jenkins had the ball slip out of his hands on a pass attempt which was then recovered by Sam Houston's Jevon Leon at the FIU 17.

The Bearkats capitalized with a 32-yard field goal by Colby Sessums to claim a three-point edge with 1:24 on the clock to set up the FIU rally.

Sam Houston quarterback Keegan Showmaker finished 31-of-47 passing for 306 yards and two touchdowns. Smith caught nine passes for 91 yards in the defeat.

Jenkins completed 26-of-38 through the air for 190 yards and a touchdown. Mitchell snagged eight catches for 81 yards and a touchdown. The Panthers also added DeMarcus Van Dyke as cornerbacks coach.

Van Dyke joins the Panthers after spending the past five seasons in various roles on the coaching staff at the University of Miami.

He joined the Hurricanes' staff in 2018 as a defensive quality control analyst before being shifted to the role of assistant director of recruiting in 2019. He was promoted to cornerbacks coach for Miami in 2021.

MIKE MACINTYRE NAMED SIXTH HEAD COACH OF FIU FOOTBALL

Mike MacIntyre was officially announced as the sixth coach in the history of the FIU football program on Dec. 9, 2021.

The consensus 2016 national coach of the year, MacIntyre was born in the Magic City and resided in the area while his father was an assistant coach for the University of Miami.

"Throughout this process, Coach MacIntyre rose to the top," Carr said. "He has a passion for student-athletes and building genuine relationships with them. He's a builder, with proven success taking two struggling programs and elevating them to national relevance. He is a two-time national coach of the year. He's a brand builder who will promote FIU throughout the South Florida community and the state of Florida. We could not be more excited to bring his energy and passion to campus."

GAME THEMES AND FAN FITS

The FIU Athletics department announced FIU Fan Fits for the 2023 football season on Thursday, giving fans a game-by-game schedule of what color to wear to each game at FIU Football Stadium.

Nov. 25 - FIU vs. Western Kentucky - Fans Choice!

After Thanksgiving, find your way to FIU Football Stadium to celebrate our Panthers on Senior Day. It's the last game of the season, so it's fans choice! Wear navy, white, or gold as we send our seniors off in style.

2023 TAILGATING

Tailgating for Panther fans is all set to return to the Cuban Memorial Area of Tamiami Park this fall, but new in 2023 is the fact that it will be available all six home games! Tamiami Park is a great spot to have some fun before heading into the stadium.

Remember, join the Panther Club at the $150 level or above, and you receive free priority parking and tailgating space closer to the stadium every home game this season.

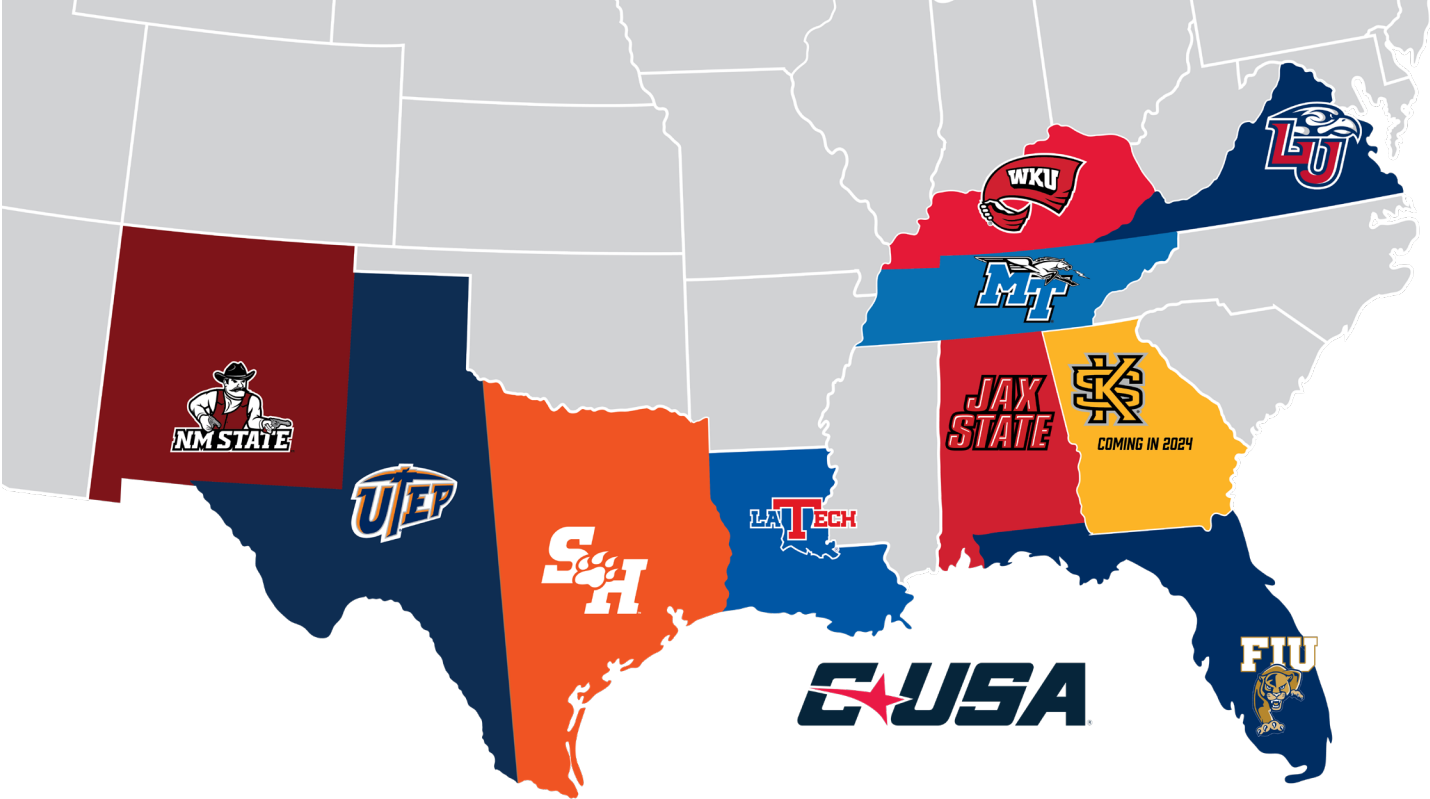

RETURN OF PANTHER WALK

Join the spirit squads, the band, and all of Panther Nation, as the team makes its way to the stadium with Panther Walk. Starting approximately two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff, the Panthers will walk through Tamiami Promenade and through Gate 6 at the northeast corner of the stadium to prepare for the game. Come on out and cheer on the squad!

EXCLUSIVE FIU FIELD DESIGNS

Introduced in 2022 and returning this fall is the FIU's unique field design marketing. FIU is the only football team in the nation that has a different field design for every home game. This year, be on the lookout for more vice colors and even a Sun-blazer!

Mike MacIntyre is entering his second season with the Panthers after being named head coach of the FIU football program on Dec. 9, 2021.

MacIntyre wasted no time upon arrival in changing the culture of the FIU program as the 2022 Panthers posted a 400 percent increase in victories from the previous season and recorded the most wins since 2019.

A total of eight Panthers earned All-Conference USA status in 2022 - with another four honored with mention to the Conference USA All-Freshman squad, highlighted by defensive back Demetrius Hill, who became the first FIU player since 2018 to be named to the FWAA Freshman All-America Team.

Always with an eye on the future, MacIntyre has elevated the recruiting aspect of the program as the Panthers were recognized as having the top recruiting class among all returning Conference USA programs during the 2023 early cycle.

A Miami native, MacIntyre was born in the Magic City and resided in the area while his father was an assistant coach for the University of Miami.

MacIntyre is a 33-year veteran of collegiate coaching and has previously served as the head coach at the University of Colorado (2013-18) and San Jose State University (2010-12) – where he led both programs to nationally recognized turnarounds in wins during his tenure. MacIntyre also has experience coaching in the NFL under legendary coach, Bill Parcells.

He was the consensus national coach of the year in 2016 after guiding Colorado to a 10-4 finish and the Pac-12 South Division Title. While with San Jose State, MacIntyre led the Spartans to the program's first ranking in the final BCS standings (No. 24) following a 10-2 mark in 2012.

MacIntyre arrived at FIU after holding the position of defensive coordinator at Memphis for two seasons (2020-21).

The 2021 season saw MacIntyre's defense lead the American Athletic Conference in defensive touchdowns and ranked 23rd nationally.

During the 2020 campaign under MacIntyre, the Tigers ranked 13th in the nation in turnovers gained (20), 17th in the country in interceptions (12) and 19th in red zone defense (.744).

Under his guidance, Memphis defensive lineman O'Bryan Goodson was named First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and defensive back Quindell Johnson earned second-team all-conference accolades. Defensive lineman Morris Joseph earned honorable-mention all-league.

MacIntyre spent the 2019 season as Ole Miss' defensive coordinator and did a tremendous job in turning around the defense in his lone campaign in Oxford, Miss. It was MacIntyre's second stint at Ole Miss, as he also coached there from 1999-02.

Ole Miss made impressive jumps in several defensive statistical categories. The Rebels held opponents to nearly 10 fewer points in 2019 than in 2018 and also held foes to nearly 100 fewer rushing yards per game over those same two seasons.

Ole Miss' total defense under MacIntyre jumped nearly 40 spots in the NCAA rankings. The Rebels limited opponents to just under 70 fewer total yards per game.

MacIntyre has made turnarounds a trademark of his career, which was evident in his six seasons as the head coach at Colorado. In 2013, he took over a Colorado team that was coming off a 1-11 season. Four years later he directed the Buffs to a 10-4 mark and their first appearance in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

In 2016, Colorado was tied with five other programs for the most improved overall nationally and the most improved all-time in Pac-12 league games. The Buffaloes became just the ninth team among Power-5 schools since 1972 to win 10 or more games after finishing the previous season with four or fewer wins.

For his efforts in 2016, MacIntyre earned consensus National Coach of the Year honors after leading the Buffaloes to their first 10-win season in 15 years.

In 2015, the Buffs defense improved by as many as 50 spots nationally in many major defensive areas. The biggest jump came in points allowed per game, slicing off 11.5 from the previous year, the fifth-best improvement in all of FBS.

The turnaround at Colorado came just a few years after MacIntyre similarly resuscitated a San Jose State team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 10-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. MacIntyre garnered Grant Teaff National Coach of the Year recognition that season. His San Jose State teams won 12 of his final 14 games there.

In recording their first 10-win season since 1987, the Spartans did it with a defense that ranked among the national leaders in numerous statistical categories. The opportunistic Spartans were the co-national leaders with 20 fumble recoveries and were tied for fourth in turnovers gained (33).

MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke, where he was reunited with David Cutcliffe, who was the Rebels' coach during MacIntyre's first stint in Oxford.

In his first season in Durham (2008), the Blue Devils allowed 67.4 fewer yards and 9.8 fewer points per game than the previous season. The AFCA named MacIntyre its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year as his defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span.

Prior to returning to college ball, MacIntyre spent five seasons in the National Football League with the New York Jets (2007) and Dallas Cowboys (2003-06), where he coached defensive backs.

Working for legendary coach Bill Parcells, the Cowboys returned to the NFL playoffs in 2003 and again in 2006 after missing out on postseason competition during the 2000 through 2002 seasons.

MacIntyre served as Ole Miss' secondary coach during the 2001 and 2002 seasons after spending his first two years in Oxford as the wide receivers coach. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.

At Ole Miss, among his recruits were two high-profile student-athletes, quarterback Eli Manning and linebacker Patrick Willis. He has mentored many current and former NFL players, including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Georgia, working two years (1990-91) in that capacity. He then coached one year as the defensive coordinator at Davidson (1992), four years at UT Martin (1993-96) and an assistant coach two seasons at Temple (1997-98).

A 1989 Georgia Tech graduate, he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety and punt returner for legendary head coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85.

COACH MIKE MACINTYRE BIO

MacIntyre earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Georgia Tech and his master's in education with an emphasis on sports management from Georgia in 1991.

MacIntyre and his wife, Trisha, have three children: Jennifer, Jay and Jonston.
