HONORING FOOTBALL LEGEND MONTE KIFFIN: 1940-2024

This season, the Rebels will wear helmet decals in memory of coaching legend Monte Kiffin, who passed away on July 11. Kiffin coached football for 55 years, which includes 29 seasons in the NFL where he became known for his prowess as a defensive mastermind -- culminating in a Super Bowl victory with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In recent years, Monte had spent time in Oxford with his son, current Ole Miss head coach Lane Kiffin, serving as a mentor to the Rebel coaching staff and as a frequent and delightful sight up and down the halls of the Manning Center and around the Ole Miss campus.

LAST FIVE GAMES AGAINST ARKANSAS

Oct. 7, 2023 • Oxford, Miss. • #15 Ole Miss 27, Arkansas 20

Ole Miss held Arkansas to 288 total yards of offense, the fewest for Ole Miss against an SEC opponent since 2019 en route to a 27-20 win. The Rebels held Arkansas to just 36 yards on the ground, the fewest yielded by Ole Miss against an SEC opponent since 2014. Ole Miss' defense shined all around, finishing with a season-high five sacks and two interceptions.

Nov. 19, 2022 • Fayetteville, Ark. • Arkansas 42, #14 Ole Miss 27

Ole Miss tallied 703 total yards of offense, including 463 yards on the ground, but fell in an early hole and drop the SEC road contest 42-27 to Arkansas. Quinshon Judkins and Zach Evans became the first two Rebels to eclipse the 200-yard rushing mark in the same game. Ultimately, the Razorback ground game was just as effective as Arkansas held on for the win.

Oct. 9, 2021 • Oxford, Miss. • #17 Ole Miss 52, #13 Arkansas 51

In a back-and-forth shootout, Ole Miss and Arkansas combined for just shy of 700 rushing yards as the Rebels just edged the Razorbacks in a wild victory. Ole Miss claimed a 24-14 advantage out of halftime, but Arkansas fought back to tie the game four separate times in the second half. Ultimately, the Hogs attempted to break the tie with a two-point conversion on the game's final play, but the Rebel secured the victory.

Oct. 17, 2020 • Fayetteville, Ark. • Arkansas 33, Ole Miss 21

The Ole Miss offense had scored 35 or more points in each of their first three games in 2020, but the Arkansas defensive gameplan befuddled the Rebel air attack, resulting in six interceptions for the Razorbacks. Despite the heavy turnovers, the Rebels were right in the game, trailing by five with the ball late in the fourth quarter—but the sixth interception of the game from Matt Corral was returned by Grant Morgan for six Razorback points, sealing the Rebel defeat.

Sept. 7, 2019 • Oxford, Miss. • Ole Miss 31, Arkansas 17

A balanced offensive attack and the revamped Ole Miss defense took center stage against Arkansas, powering the Rebels to a 31-17 victory in the 2019 SEC opener at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on Saturday. The Rebels (1-1, 1-0 SEC) stymied the Razorbacks to 361 yards of total offense, the fewest allowed by Ole Miss since stifling UT Martin to 334 yards on Sept. 9, 2017. Ole Miss had a superb day on offense as well, tallying 483 yards behind big days from quarterback Matt Corral and running back Scottie Phillips.

OLE MISS HEAD COACH LANE KIFFIN

Lane Kiffin is in his fifth season at Ole Miss and has led the Rebels to four consecutive bowl berths, including two New Year's Six appearances, under his guidance since 2020. In 11 years at the NCAA level, Kiffin has posted an all-time record of 101-51, including a 40-17 mark at Ole Miss. Kiffin led the 2023 Rebels to the best season in Ole Miss history in terms of wins, notching an 11-2 overall record capped by a 38-25 Peach Bowl victory over Penn State. The Rebels finished No. 9 in both final versions of the AP and Coaches polls, the highest finish overall since 2015 (No. 9 Coaches) and their highest in the final AP poll since 1969 (No. 8). In 2022, Kiffin led the Rebels to the Texas Bowl, thanks to another dynamite offense that ranked No. 3 nationally in rushing offense (256.6) and No. 8 in total offense (496.4) in 2022. Kiffin guided the Rebels to a 10-3 record in 2021, the first 10-win regular season in school history. The Rebels finished the season ranked No. 11 in both the AP and AFCA Coaches Poll, its highest final ranking since 2016. Ole Miss ranked top-20 in the FBS in nine different offensive categories in his first season in 2020. In December 2016, Kiffin took over an FAU program that had won a total of nine combined games over the previous three seasons. Kiffin proceeded to take the Owls to new heights over the last three years, including two conference titles and two 10-win seasons. In his head coaching stops at USC, Tennessee and FAU, Kiffin has shown a propensity in helping turn programs around. Kiffin graduated from Fresno State in 1998 after playing quarterback for three seasons (1994-96) for the Bulldogs. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Fresno State under Pat Hill in 1997 and 1998.

ARKANSAS HEAD COACH SAM PITTMAN

Arkansas head coach Sam Pittman sits in his fifth season coaching the Razorbacks, helping to lead the squad to a record of 27-29 since taking over in 2020. Pittman has led the Razorbacks to seven-plus wins in two of the last three seasons, as well as bowl eligibility in three of the last four years. He is the first Arkansas head coach since Houston Nutt (1998-2000) to lead the Razorbacks to 2-0 starts in three consecutive seasons (2021-23). In 2021, Pittman helped coach the Razorbacks to a 9-4 record, finishing the season ranked No. 21 in the AP poll along with earning a 24-10 Outback Bowl victory over Penn State marking the program's first bowl appearance since the 2016-17 season. Prior to taking the helm at Arkansas, Pittman served as head coach for Hutchinson Community College, where he helped lead the Blue Dragons to an 11-9-1 record over two seasons. Pittman also has experience in offensive line and assistant head coaching roles for various Power 5 programs including Georgia, Tennessee, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri.

WIN NO. 100 FOR LANE KIFFIN

With Ole Miss' 27-3 win at South Carolina, head coach Lane Kiffin passed the century mark in his coaching career with his 100th total victory. Kiffin is 101-51 overall and 40-17 in his five seasons with the Rebels, which joins a 7-6 record at Tennessee (2009), a 28-15 mark at USC (2010-13) and a 26-13 split at Florida Atlantic (2017-19). Kiffin is one of only four coaches in the SEC with 100 wins across all levels of college football alongside LSU's Brian Kelly (289), Alabama's Kalen DeBoer (111) and Georgia's Kirby Smart (100). But in FBS-only victories, Kiffin is among a company of just 17 active coaches with 100 wins while at an FBS school -- one of three in the SEC alongside Kelly (190) and Smart (100).

In that stretch, Kiffin's Rebels are 35-12 overall, with seven of those 12 losses coming to top-25 teams -- five within the top-10, and twice against the No. 1 team in the nation.

REBELS AMONG THE PFF RANKS

Ole Miss has also garnered respect via Pro Football Focus, leading the SEC and tied for fifth overall in team rating (93.9). The Rebel defense leads the FBS in run defense (96.7) and tackling (90.5), while ranking second nationally in overall defensive rating (94.3; SEC No. 2) and fifth in pass rushing (84.1; SEC No. 2). Offensively, Ole Miss leads in passing (90.8) while also ranking top-10 in receiving (7th, 81.5; SEC No. 1) and overall offensive rating (10th, 85.1; SEC No. 1).

ELITE DEFENSE

Under Lane Kiffin, the explosive Rebel offensive units have received a lot of attention, but the 2024 Ole Miss defense not only ranks as among the most stifling in the FBS this season, but is on pace to become one of the best in recent program history. The Rebels lead the FBS in six defensive categories -- scoring defense (11.0 ppg), touchdowns allowed (8), rushing touchdowns allowed (1), rushing defense allowed (76.6 ypg), yards per rush allowed (2.13) and tackles for loss (81) -- while leading the SEC in two others in sacks (33) and red zone defense (60.0 percent). At 33 sacks and 81 TFL, the Rebels are nearly at their entire season total for 2023 of 35 sacks and 82 TFL -- which constituted the first three-year stretch of at least 35 sacks in Ole Miss history. Right now, the Rebels' FBS-leading 76.6 rushing yards allowed per game would rank fourth in Ole Miss history and would be the best since 1966. Only one Rebel defense has held opponents below the century mark this millennium: the 2008 Rebel squad that ended with an 85.5 yards per game clip.

STUFFED THE SOONERS

Ole Miss dominated the line of scrimmage against Oklahoma in the Sooners' first trip to Oxford, racking up nine sacks for 50 yards and 15 tackles for loss for 79 yards. Those nine sacks tie for the most ever yielded by an Oklahoma offense, and are tied for the third-most in Ole Miss history and rank behind only 10 in 1996 against Vanderbilt and behind only an 11-sack effort against Mississippi State in 2008. The 15 TFL, meanwhile, were the most against an SEC opponent since charting 17 against Mississippi State in 2000. In terms of yards lost, both the 79 total yards lost are the most since 120 against Mississippi State in 2008, while the 50 lost via sack are the most since 54 against State in 2022.

Single-Game Sacks, Ole Miss History

Year	Opponent	Sacks
2008	Mississippi State	11
1996	Vanderbilt	10
2024	Oklahoma	9
2021	Liberty	9

POWERFUL PERFORMANCE FROM PERKINS

Against Oklahoma, sophomore DE Suntarine Perkins put together one of the best individual defensive efforts in recent Ole Miss history, sacking the Sooners four times for a loss of 14 yards in addition to 5.0 total tackles for loss and 11 total tackles. Those 4.0 sacks rank as the most by an individual Rebel defender since 1993, when Cassius Ware recorded four sacks against Georgia, and his 5.0 TFL stand as the most since Khari Coleman's 5.0 against Troy to open the 2022 season. In less than two full seasons with the Rebels, Perkins already owns 12.0 sacks and 17.5 TFL, and this season his 8.5 sacks already put him in a tie with Greg Hardy (2008) and Renard Brown (1995) on the all-time single-season list at Ole Miss. In sacks, Perkins is tied for the SEC lead and is tied for fourth nationally, and in TFL he ranks second in the SEC and tied for fourth nationally as well.

LOCK THE VAUGHT ENDZONE

Ole Miss recently held South Carolina to just three points, its fewest against an SEC opponent since doing the same to Texas A&M in 2015 and one of only seven games since the turn of the millennium in which the Rebels have held an SEC opponent out of the endzone. In total, that marked the 29th such game in available records since at least 1964. The Rebels allowed their first touchdown of the season at the 14:12 mark of the second quarter to Georgia Southern on a halfback pass, ending its touchdown-less streak at 195:48 of game time -- the longest such streak by a Rebel defense since 1959, when Ole Miss shut out eight of its 11 opponents and only gave up 21 points all season long.

No Touchdowns Allowed vs. SEC Opponents, Since 2000

Year	Opponent	Score
2024	South Carolina	W, 27-3
2015	Texas A&M	W, 23-3
2014	Tennessee	W, 34-3
2014	Vanderbilt	W, 41-3

2004	Mississippi State	W, 20-3
2003	Mississippi State	W, 31-0

CAUSING MAYHEM

The Ole Miss defense has been ever-present in the backfield, currently leading the FBS in tackles for loss (81) and total forced yards lost at 344 -- averaging 10.1 TFL for 43.0 yards lost per game this season. The Rebels have five games with double-digit TFL this season, the most since the 2008 squad that ended with five such games under its belt. Of those five double-digit efforts, three have featured at least 13 TFL (Furman, 16; Oklahoma, 15; Georgia Southern, 13), and three have featured at least 50 yards of loss (Oklahoma, 79; Furman, 62; Kentucky, 55). The 16 TFL against Furman are the most by a Rebel defense since notching 17 against Mississippi State in 2000. Ole Miss is coming off a 35-sack season during its historic 2023 campaign, which marked the first time since the sack became an official college statistic in 1983 that the Rebels have recorded at least 35 in three consecutive seasons. In the Kiffin era, Ole Miss has recorded multiple sacks in 41 games, at least 5.0 tackles for loss in 39 games, and at least 4.0 sacks in 23 games. In games under Kiffin with at least 5.0 tackles for loss, Ole Miss is 29-10, and in games with at least 4.0 sacks, the Rebels are 14-4.

HIDE YOUR QB

More than half of Ole Miss' season total of 344 forced yards lost have come via the QB sack, with the Rebels racking up 215 yards when dragging the opposing QB down. Ole Miss owns three of the SEC's top-10 current pass rushers in DE Suntarine Perkins (T-1st, 8.5) DE Princely Umanmielen (T-7th, 5.5) and DE Jared Ivey (T-9th, 5.0). Not far behind them are DT Walter Nolen (2.5), LB Chris Paul Jr. (2.5) and DT JJ Pegues (2.5). Ivey just recently cracked the all-time top-10 at Ole Miss in sacks, ranking 10th all-time at 14.0 total, with Perkins knocking on the door at 12.5.

FEARSOME FRONT

The Ole Miss defensive line entered 2024 with a considerable amount of hype, and per PFF grades the Rebels have lived up to that pressure brilliantly. Among both edge and interior linemen, Ole Miss owns four of the top-50 overall in DT Walter Nolen (T-10th, 84.7), DE Jared Ivey (T-10th, 84.7), DE Princely Umanmielen (16th, 83.9) and DE Suntarine Perkins (50th, 77.8). In run defense, Ole Miss owns two of the top-four interior linemen in DT JJ Pegues (3rd, 90.4) and Nolen (4th, 90.3). Combined, Ole Miss' five main starters on the line -- Ivey, Nolen, Pegues, Perkins and Umanmielen -- have tallied up 133 tackles, 43.5 TFL for 209 yards, 24.0 sacks for 152 yards and 21 QB hurries.

D-FENSE!

Helping propel the Rebel defense toward the top of the FBS this season has been a powerful mix of Ole Miss veterans and newcomers through the portal. LB Chris Paul Jr. currently ranks as PFF's top-rated defender across all positions at an overall grade of 91.2, followed by additional top-50 ratings in run defense (3rd, 90.7), coverage (8th, 90.3) and tackling (44th, 85.1). In run defense alone, Ole Miss owns four top-10 ranked defenders nationally in Paul Jr. (3rd), DT JJ Pegues (6th, 90.4), DT Walter Nolen (7th, 90.3) and S Trey Washington (9th, 90.1).

TOUGH SLEDDING

South Carolina was the first Rebel opponent this season to break 100 yards rushing, snapping the longest consecutive streak holding opponents below the century mark at Ole Miss since the 1999 Rebels did so six times to open the season and seven times within their first eight games. In available records, this Ole Miss defense is the first to hold four consecutive opponents to fewer than 50 yards rushing in the same season since at least 1969, when reliable game-by-game team stats become available. The three straight sub-50 yard performances to start were the first such streak since 1993, and the two sub-30 efforts by the Rebel defense were also the first since the 1999 season.

INTO THE FIRE

The Rebels put massive work into the portal this past offseason, and nowhere is that more noticeable than on defense, where a bevy of newcomers have immediately made their presence felt. On the year, 39.5 of Ole Miss' FBS-leading 81 tackles for loss have come from newcomers, led by junior LB Chris Paul Jr. (8.0 for 31 yards) and DE Princely Umannielen (8.0 for 43 yards), as well as 6.0 from DT Walter Nolen (17 yards). Paul Jr. is also Ole Miss' current leading tackler at 59 total stops, 2.5 sacks, seven QB hurries and three pass breakups. Fellow LB TJ Dottery played one game for the Rebels in 2023, but is enjoying success in his first full season at Ole Miss as the team's second-leading tackler at 53 total stops. Overall, five of Ole Miss' top-10 tacklers this season are in their first full campaigns with the Rebels: Paul Jr. (59), Dottery (53), CB Trey Amos (32), DT Walter Nolen (27) and S Jadon Canady (25).

RACKING UP THE YARDS

Kiffin's dynamic Ole Miss offenses have single-handedly dismantled the Rebel record books, recording three of the top-five and four of the top-10 offensive seasons in school history since 2020. With those big single-season numbers come monster single-game numbers as well. Kiffin owns 26 games during his Ole Miss tenure with at least 600 yards of total offense, as opposed to just 16 times total from the beginning of the Ole Miss football program in 1893 until Kiffin's arrival in 2020. At the 700-yard plateau, Kiffin's Rebels own five of the seven total 700-yard games in Ole Miss history, as well as six of the top-eight performances all-time.

HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

In the Kiffin era, the Rebel offense ranks as the most prolific in the nation, leading the FBS in yards per game since the beginning of the 2020 season at 503.8 yards per game. In that same stretch, Ole Miss ranks sixth among all FBS schools in rushing yards per game at 211.1, as well as 10th in passing yards per game at 292.7 -- which makes the Rebels the lone FBS team to rank within the top-10 in both categories.

Ole Miss is once again running a lightning-quick offense in 2024, currently leading the SEC and ranked sixth in FBS at 22.9 seconds per play. On the season, Ole Miss owns 20 scoring drives under two minutes and 10 under one minute. Included in the latter total are two furiously fast drives against Furman in the season opener: a 7-second drive that featured Austin Simmons' first collegiate pass, a 35-yard touchdown strike to Cayden Lee, as well as a 9-second score on a 61-yard bomb from Jaxson Dart to Tre Harris. In the Kiffin era, Ole Miss is 33-8 when scoring first.

LEGENDARY STATUS

Senior QB Jaxson Dart has etched his name all over Ole Miss' record book in three highly successful seasons leading the Rebel offensive attack, but a win Saturday would make him the winningest quarterback of Ole Miss' modern era. At 24-9 as a starter at Ole Miss, Dart is tied with Eli Manning (24-13) and Bo Wallace (24-15) as the lone Rebels to reach the 24-victory plateau. For this scenario, Ole Miss' modern era is considered since the first career start by Archie Manning on Sept. 21, 1968 at Memphis. Verifying games started prior to Manning's 1968 season is inconsistent via available records, as well as considering that underclassmen rarely started and the quarterback was less of a permanent position in John Vaught's offensive scheme. One unverified source has College Football Hall of Famer Jake Gibbs at 23-3-1 as the starter of Ole Miss' powerhouse teams from 1958-60, while several other QBs during the highly successful 1950s would have potentially high (but unlikely) win totals as well.

THROWIN' DARTS

Senior QB Jaxson Dart ranks among the top signal-callers in college football this season, currently leading the SEC and resting within the FBS top-10 in seven different categories. Dart leads the nation in yards per attempt (11.0), and on the year he has a season passing line of 173-of-245 (70.6 percent) for 2,695 yards, 15 touchdowns, three interceptions and a passing efficiency of 180.8. Dart started the 2024 campaign better than any SEC quarterback since the dawn of the new millennium, with his 1,554 yards through four games standing as the most by an SEC quarterback since 1998, when Kentucky's Tim Couch put up 1,577 yards in his first four contests. Dart's four consecutive 300-yard outings to open the 2024 season made him one of just two SEC quarterbacks to do so in the last 20 years alongside Arkansas' Ryan Mallett in 2010, and dating back to his 379-yard performance against Penn State in the Peach Bowl last December, Dart's five consecutive 370-yard games ranked as the longest streak in the SEC in the last 20 years.

LEAD THE WAY

Senior QB Jaxson Dart stands among the more decorated signal-callers nationwide in 2024. Dart is one of two active QBs to own 10,000 career passing yards and 1,000 yards rushing, as well as one of five at 11,000 yards of total offense. However, Dart stands alone as the lone FBS quarterback at 10,000 passing yards (10,386) and 1,200 rushing yards (1,253). Dart owns a career line of 749-of-1,154 (64.9 percent) for 10,386 yards, 67 TD and a career rushing line of 1,253 yards and 14 scores on 336 carries. TRE-MENDOUS

Arguably no receiver has had as big an impact this season as Ole Miss senior wideout and preseason All-American Tre Harris, who prior to missing the Oklahoma game led all FBS receivers in total receiving yards (987) and receiving yards per game (141.0). Harris' 804 yards through five games were the most by any receiver pre-October in the College Football Playoff era, and were the most by a Power-5 receiver since Oregon State's Brandin Cooks tallied 807 before October in 2013 (per Connor O'Gara). Despite missing the Oklahoma game, Harris still leads the FBS in receiving yards per game (141.0) and leads the SEC in total receiving yards (987; FBS No. 2), receptions per game (8.4; FBS No. 3) and all-purpose yards per game (141.0; FBS No. 9). Harris' six receiving touchdowns rank third among SEC receivers and 19th nationally, and his PFF receiver grade of 90.1 leads all FBS wideouts. No other power conference receiver has three games with 170 receiving yards to match Harris' outings against Georgia Southern (225), Furman (179) and Kentucky (176). Harris' lowest yardage output was 81 at South Carolina, hauling in at least 94 yards in his other six games this season. On the FBS active career lists, Harris ranks tied for tied for third in receiving touchdowns (28), fourth in receiving yards (3,489), fourth in receiving yards per game (69.8), eighth in receptions (219), ninth in yards per catch (15.9) and 17th in receptions per game (4.38).

DYNAMIC DUO

Ole Miss senior wideouts Tre Harris and Antwane Wells Jr. stand in a league of their own among fellow active receivers, currently sitting as the lone teammate duo at all levels of college football with at least 3,000 career receiving. Harris ranks seventh on the active lists at 3,489 yards on 219 receptions and 28 touchdowns, while Wells ranks 11th at 3,228 yards on 207 catches with 32 touchdowns. For Wells, that includes 1,853 in two superb seasons at James Madison while it was in the FCS in 2020 and 2021. Harris, meanwhile, amassed 1,517 yards and 14 TD in 31 games played at Louisiana Tech from 2020-22.

BIG GAME TRE

Last season, Tre Harris set the tone early, breaking the Ole Miss single-game record for receiving touchdowns against Mercer (4) in his Rebel debut. Later in the season, Harris carved the Texas A&M defense for what was then a career-high 213 yards, making him still today the lone Ole Miss receiver with a 200-yard game and a four-touchdown game, as well as one of just six FBS receivers since 2021 with a 200-yard game and a four-score game in the same season. With his new career-high 225-yard effort against Georgia Southern -- the fifth-best game in Ole Miss history -- Harris stands in even more rarified air as only the third Rebel to ever record multiple career 200-yard receiving games, and among his FBS peers, one of 11 to have done so since his career began in 2020.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Ole Miss receivers Tre Harris and Cayden Lee currently stand as the lone teammate duo nationally with 13 or more receptions of 20 yards this season, with Harris tied for second at 14, while Lee is tied for eighth at 13. Harris ranks second nationally at 987 yards on 59 catches with six touchdowns, while Lee has 31 receptions for 488 yards and one TD -- including a career-high nine catches for 132 yards at No. 10 LSU on Oct. 12.

SURE HANDS

On the career lists, Tre Harris ranks among an even more elite company as one of just five active FBS receivers at 3,000 yards and 25 receiving touchdowns.

BIG TARGET

Senior TE Caden Prieskorn is steadily climbing up Ole Miss' all-time rankings among tight ends, owning 47 catches for 723 yards and six touchdowns in his Rebel career. He currently ranks top-10 in all three of those categories, tied for seventh in receiving touchdowns, sitting eighth in receiving yards, and ranked 10th in receptions. In his overall career, Prieskorn owns 102 receptions for 1,404 yards and 13 scores, and he is coming off a debut season with Ole Miss in 2023 that saw him earn Peach Bowl Offensive MVP honors.

GIVE JJ THE ROCK!

Ole Miss senior DT, Wuerffel Trophy semifinalist and Chucky Mullins Award winner JJ Pegues isn't just a great defender or a caring member of the Oxford community; he's also the not-so-secret offensive weapon for the Rebels. In his career, Pegues has scored six touchdowns since coming home to Lafayette County: a one-yard receiving touchdown in the 2022 Egg Bowl, and five rushing scores so far this season. Since 2015, Pegues is among 13 total FBS defenders to score at least five rushing touchdowns, and one of two defensive linemen in that span alongside UConn's Jelani Stafford in 2023 (6). Offensive prowess is no stranger to Pegues, though, who was a top-10 prospect nationally coming out of Oxford High School as a tight end before switching to defensive tackle while at Auburn. At five touchdowns for 30 points this season alone, Pegues is the all-time leading points scorer by Chucky Mullins Award winners, and he is the first winner to score those points on offense. On the season, Pegues owns 27 tackles, 10.5 TFL for 43 yards, 2.5 sacks for 19 yards, four QB hurries and the first fumble recovery of his career.

Ronnie Heard, SS	1999	6	INT return TD (at LSU)

BIG BOOT

Lou Groza Award watch list member Caden Davis is 15-of-18 on field goals this season, including 6-of-8 from 40 yards or further -- but none longer than his 57-yard behemoth in overtime at LSU. Davis' long boot set a new Tiger Stadium record and it ranks tied for the third-longest in Ole Miss history with Bryan Owen's 57-yarder against Tulane on Nov. 5, 1988. Davis now stands alongside Cloyce Hinton as the lone kickers in Ole Miss history with multiple 55-yard field goals, with Davis owning makes from 56 (Tulane, 2023) and 57 (LSU, 2024), while Hinton nailed the two longest ever by a Rebel kicker from 59 (Georgia, 1969) and 58 (Houston, 1970). Earlier this season, Davis broke the Ole Miss single-game record with 10 PATs, and on the year he already owns 74 points. Davis played a crucial role in Ole Miss' historic 2023 season, scoring 99 total points for the Rebels after going 18-of-23 on field goals and a perfect 45-of-45 on PATs. Davis' perfect PAT season in 2023 ranks him among only 20 such seasons in Ole Miss history, the first since 2015.

WELCOME BACK!

Senior RB Henry Parrish Jr. is in his third non-consecutive season with the Rebels, but against Middle Tennessee he put up the best rushing game of his career and one of the best scoring outputs in Ole Miss football history. Parrish carved the Blue Raiders for a career-high 165 yards and four touchdowns on the ground on just 14 carries, while also adding one catch for 16 yards. Those four TDs rank tied for second-most in Ole Miss history behind Showboat Boykin's still-standing SEC record seven touchdowns against Mississippi State on Dec. 1, 1951. Parrish's day against MTSU also ranked as the most since Matt Corral found the endzone four times against Tulane in 2021, and the most by a non-QB since Dexter McCluster scored four times against Tennessee in 2009. Of those four scores, three came in the first half, making him the first Rebel to score three in a half since Snoop Conner against Arkansas in 2021. In his career, Parrish Jr. owns 2,713 yards and 25 touchdowns rushing -- 1,472 yards and 15 TD in a Rebel uniform.

HEAD COACH LANE KIFFIN

Lane Kiffin is in his fifth season at Ole Miss and has led the Rebels to four consecutive bowl berths, including two New Year's Six appearances, under his guidance since 2020.

Kiffin led the 2023 Rebels to the best season in Ole Miss history in terms of wins, notching an 11-2 overall record capped by a 38-25 Peach Bowl victory over Penn State. Kiffin owns the only two 10-win regular seasons in Ole Miss history, and alongside legendary coach John Vaught, is one of two Rebel coaches with multiple 10-win seasons overall.

Ole Miss succeeded in 2023 with a balanced attack, finishing within the top-15 in the final FBS ranks in yards per completion (10th, 14.5), passing efficiency (12th, 162.9) and total offense (13th, 461.9), while also leading the nation in fewest turnovers (7) and leading the SEC and ranking fifth nationally in turnover margin (+11).

The Rebels once again ranked amongst the top of the nation in multiple offensive statistics in 2022. Ole Miss was No. 3 nationally in rushing offense (256.6) and No. 8 in total offense (496.4), helped in large part by freshman running back Quinshon Judkins and his school record 1,567 rushing yards and 16 rushing touchdowns.

Kiffin guided the Rebels to a 10-3 record in 2021, the first 10-win regular season in school history. That included a perfect 7-0 mark at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The Rebels finished the season ranked No. 11 in both the AP and AFCA Coaches Poll, their highest final ranking since 2016.

Kiffin's second year at Ole Miss was once again highlighted by one of college football's most exciting offenses. For the second straight season, the Rebels led the SEC in total offense (492.5 ypg). The Rebel defense ranked as one of the top-five most-improved units in the FBS, allowing 13.6 fewer points per game this season compared to 2020.

Kiffin quickly turned the Rebels into an offensive machine in 2020, leading the program to an Outback Bowl win over No. 7 Indiana and a 5-5 record against an all-SEC schedule. Ole Miss ranked top 20 in the FBS in nine different offensive categories, including having the No. 3 team in the country in total offense, shattering the school record with 555.5 yards per game. The Rebels broke the SEC record for total offense in conference games (562.4 ypg), besting LSU's mark of 550.0 yards per game set during the Tigers' run to a national title in 2019.

The offensive explosion by the Rebels came as no surprise, as Kiffin has shown a propensity in helping turn programs around. In his first season at FAU, USC and Tennessee, Kiffin's team improved in win differential (+3.33), scoring (+10.2), passing (+34.5 ypg) and rushing (+51.3 ypg).

In December 2016, Kiffin took over an FAU program that had won a total of nine combined games over the previous three seasons. Kiffin proceeded to take the Owls to new heights over the last three years, including two conference titles and two 10-win seasons.

Kiffin led the Owls to a 10-3 record in 2019, including a 49-6 win over UAB in the Conference USA Championship Game. The Owls led the nation in interceptions (19) and turnovers gained (29). FAU also led C-USA in scoring offense (34.1), red zone offense (0.911), fumbles lost (3) and turnover margin (1.58).

In his first season in Boca Raton, Kiffin started 1-3 but reeled off a program-high 10 consecutive wins to finish the 2017 campaign at 11-3. The Owls' 11 victories were two more than the previous three seasons combined and earned the program votes in national polls. The seven-game improvement tied for the fifth-best turnaround in FBS history.

The Owls captured their second conference title in program history, the first since joining C-USA and first since 2007. FAU remained a perfect 3-0 in bowl play by defeating Akron in the Boca Raton Bowl, 50-3.

Kiffin joined the FAU Owls after three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he served as the Tide's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award in 2014, which goes to the country's best assistant coach.

His final season with the Tide, Kiffin mentored Jalen Hurts, the first freshman to start at quarterback in head coach Nick Saban's career. Hurts finished 13-1 as the starting QB and guided Alabama to an SEC title and to the National Championship game. Hurts was a Freshman All-American, the SEC Offensive Player of the Year and the SEC Freshman of the Year.

In 2015, Kiffin oversaw the development of quarterback Jake Coker, who finished his career 14-0 as a starter at Alabama and led the nation in completion percentage over the final 10 games of the season at 72.2 percent. Coker threw for 3,110 yards with 21 touchdowns, which ranked as the second-most passing yards in school history. On the ground, Kiffin fed Heisman Trophy running back Derrick Henry the ball a school-and SEC-record 395 times for a record 2,219 yards and 23 touchdowns.

One of Kiffin's first responsibilities at Alabama was identifying and then developing quarterback Blake Sims in 2014. Kiffin oversaw Sims' rise to the top of the Alabama depth chart en route to a school-record 3,487 passing yards while completing 64.5 percent of his passes. Sims was selected second-team All-SEC, named to the Senior Bowl, tabbed as a finalist for the Manning Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award.

He spent the previous three-plus seasons as the head coach at Southern California, where he compiled a record of 28-15. Kiffin's 2012 USC squad went 7-6 overall and 5-4 in the Pac-12 South, good for second place. Wide receiver Marquise Lee was a unanimous first team All-American and won the Biletnikoff Award while also being named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year.

Prior to his tenure at Southern California, Kiffin served as the head coach at Tennessee in 2009. He led the Volunteers to a second-place finish in the SEC East and an appearance in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Prior to his first head coaching job, Kiffin spent six years as an assistant coach for Pete Carroll at Southern California, including two years as the offensive coordinator (2005-06). Kiffin was promoted to passing game coordinator in 2004 and helped Matt Leinart win the Heisman Trophy as he passed for 3,322 yards with 33 touchdowns and just six interceptions.

Kiffin graduated from Fresno State in 1998 after playing quarterback for three seasons (1994-96) for the Bulldogs. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Fresno State under Pat Hill in 1997 and 1998.

Kiffin attended Bloomington Jefferson High in Bloomington, Minnesota, where he played football, basketball and baseball. He has two daughters, Landry and Presley, and one son, Knox.

GAME ONE #6 OLE MISS 76, FURMAN 0

Aug. 31, 2024

Attendance: 66,105 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — Lane Kiffin's No. 6 Rebels dominated Furman from start to finish in a 76-0 in Ole Miss' 2024 season opener. The Rebels' 76 points were the most in a single game in the Lane Kiffin era and tied for the most since 1935.

Ole Miss outgained Furman by an even 600 yards: 772-172. The Rebels totaled 529 yards through the air and 243 on the ground while holding the Paladins to just 146 and 26, respectively. The 772 yards of total offense were the second-highest total in program history.

Dart put up a full game's worth of stats in just one half. He was 22-for-27 with 445 total yards, six total touchdowns and no interceptions at halftime, and Ole Miss led 52-0 at the break, allowing the Heisman candidate to check out early. Dart became the first SEC QB since Joe Burrow in 2019 with more than 350 passing yards in a half, tallying 418 through the air.

Tre Harris led the way on the receiving end with 179 yards and two touchdowns on eight receptions. Cayden Lee, Caden Prieskorn, Antwane Wells Jr. and Dae'Quan Wright all hauled in touchdown passes as well.

On the ground, Ole Miss averaged 6.6 yards per carry with Matt Jones leading the way at 68 yards and two TDs on just three touches.

Ole Miss' defense didn't allow a single red zone appearance and held Furman to 3-for-17 on third downs attempts. It's the first time since 2014 that the Rebel defense held a team to under 10 first downs. The Rebel offense amassed 37 first downs, while the defense yielded just eight.

GAME TWO #5 OLE MISS 52, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 3

Sept. 7, 2024

Attendance: 66,427 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — Jaxson Dart made Ole Miss history through the air, Henry Parrish Jr. had a four-touchdown day on the ground and the No. 5 Rebels rolled once again, dominating Middle Tennessee 52-3 to start the 2024 season at 2-0.

Dart completed 24 straight passes to set an Ole Miss record and finish just two completions shy of the single-game NCAA mark. Prior to Dart's assault on the record book, the story was the ground game, where Parrish burned the Blue Raiders for 165 yards and four scores on just 14 carries.

Ole Miss outgained Middle Tennessee 655 to 279 in its 24th 600-yard game under head coach Lane Kiffin. The balanced Rebel attack notched 397 yards through the air and 258 on the ground. The Rebel defense has not allowed a touchdown in two games to start the year and held the Blue Raiders to just 28 yards rushing at a rate of 1.1 yards per carry.

Dart finished 25-for-27 for 377 yards and two total touchdowns, one rushing and one passing. Tre Harris continued his Biletnikoff Award campaign with a team-high nine receptions for 130 yards. Antwane Wells Jr. caught his first touchdown pass as a Rebel and totaled 78 yards as one of nine Rebels with a reception on the day. Parrish averaged 11.8 yards per carry on 165 yards to lead the ground game, while Matt Jones added in his third rushing TD of the season.

Chris Paul Jr., TJ Dottery and Trey Washington tied for the team lead with six tackles apiece. Yam Banks matched Paul with a team-high 1.5 tackles for loss. Banks and Washington each added a pass breakup, while Jadon Canady led that category with two deflections. John Saunders Jr. pulled down the game's lone interception, while Princely Umanmielen logged his first sack in an Ole Miss uniform, in addition to a team-high two QB hurries.

GAME THREE
#5 OLE MISS 40, WAKE FOREST 6

Sept. 14, 2024
Attendance: 32,849 • Allegacy Stadium • Winston-Salem, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — A myriad of miscues kept Wake Forest in the game, but it was never in doubt as No. 5 Ole Miss was dominant once again in a 40-6 victory in its first road trip of the 2024 season.

Ole Miss raced out a 20-3 lead in the first quarter and never looked back, but it wasn't a perfect outing from Lane Kiffin's Rebels, who were penalized 11 times for 114 yards and turned the ball over twice.

Despite an uncharacteristic number of mistakes, the Rebels still thoroughly controlled the action, outgaining the Demon Deacons 650-311, including just 46 yards rushing by the home team. The Ole Miss defense also forced two turnovers of its own, as well as two turnovers on downs, and held its opponent out of the end zone for the third straight game to start the season as the Rebels have now outscored their opponents 168-9.

Jaxson Dart posted Heisman Trophy numbers once again, going 26-for-34 through the air for 413 total yards (377 pass, 36 rush) and three total touchdowns. Henry Parrish Jr. stayed hot on the ground, amassing 148 yards and two touchdowns on 23 carries (6.4 YPC). Tre Harris also continued his Biletnikoff Award-worthy pace, leading Ole Miss with 127 receiving yards and 11 catches. Cayden Lee was next with five receptions for 83 yards, while Antwane Wells Jr. and Jordan Watkins each had long touchdown catches.

TJ Dottery was Ole Miss' leading tackler on the day with eight stops. Louis Moore and Jared Ivey were next with six apiece. Ivey added two sacks and a QB hurry, while Moore shared a sack and recovered a fumble. Suntarine Perkins had an interception and a sack. JJ Pegues combined on a sack, had two QB hurries and a first-down run for good measure.

GAME FOUR
#5 OLE MISS 52, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 13

Sept. 21, 2024
Attendance: 67,505 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — The No. 5 Ole Miss football team closed out a perfect 4-0 non-conference schedule with a dominant 52-13 win over Georgia Southern in front of a record crowd of 67,505 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss outgained Georgia Southern 607-194 on the night, holding the Eagles to just 37 yards rushing and 157 passing. The yellow flags were a thorn in Ole Miss' side for the second straight week as the Rebels overcame 11 penalties for 133 yards for a still-decisive victory.

Lane Kiffin's Rebels have outscored their opponents 220-22 through four games. The Ole Miss defense yielded its first touchdown of the 2024 campaign early in the second quarter. The Rebels went 195:47 of game time before allowing their first TD of the season, the program's most consecutive game time without allowing a touchdown since 1959.

Jaxson Dart continued his Heisman Trophy-caliber pace, going 22-for-31 through the air for 382 yards and four touchdowns, adding 36 yards on the ground. Tre Harris was unstoppable as he finished 23 yards shy of the program's single-game receiving record, catching 11 passes for 225 yards and two touchdowns. Henry Parrish Jr. once again led the ground game, tallying 89 yards and a score on 13 carries.

Chris Paul Jr. paced the Rebel defense with 10 tackles, including two tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks. Khari Coleman wasn't far behind with nine tackles and a forced fumble. Princely Umanmielen and Walter Nolen were disruptive as usual up front. Nolen totaled four tackles, including a shared sack, and added a QB hurry.

GAME FIVE KENTUCKY 20, #5 OLE MISS 17

Sept. 28, 2024

Attendance: 67,616 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — The No. 5 Ole Miss football team could never find its rhythm offensively in its Southeastern Conference opener against Kentucky, falling 20-17.

It was a defensive battle throughout, and the slow game pace favored Kentucky, as the visitors dominated time of possession 39:43 to 20:17, and the Wildcats were able to execute late offensively, scoring on a fumble recovery in the end zone to tip the scales. Ole Miss had just 55 total yards and one first down in the fourth quarter of the defeat, falling to 4-1 (0-1) on the year. Rebel fans set a new attendance record with 67,616 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss narrowly outgained Kentucky, 353-336. Penalties once again hurt the Rebels, who were flagged eight times for 53 yards, all in the first half. Jaxson Dart was sacked four times, while Ole Miss notched five sacks on the day.

Dart finished 18-for-27 passing with 261 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions, adding 22 yards on the ground. Henry Parrish Jr. tallied 62 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries. The Harris had a phenomenal day individually, hauling in 11 catches for 176 yards and a touchdown.

TJ Dottery logged a team-high 10 tackles and added three QB hurries. Santarine Perkins was outstanding as well with six tackles and a pair of sacks. It was also another big outing from Princely Umanmielen, who had three tackles for loss, including 1.5 sacks. Trey Amos led the Rebel secondary with three pass breakups, while Trey Washington had one breakup, a forced fumble and seven tackles. Walter Nolen led the Rebel D-line with seven tackles, including one for a loss.

Up 17-13 late in the fourth, it looked like the Rebels had a quick stop, but the Wildcats rolled the dice on a 4th-and-7 deep, and Vandagriff hit a 63-yard gain to Brown. It looked again like Ole Miss would escape danger when Trey Washington jarred the ball loose on a Gavin Wimsatt run, but UK's Josh Kattus recovered the fumble in the end zone for the go-ahead touchdown.

GAME SIX #11 OLE MISS 27, SOUTH CAROLINA 3

Oct. 5, 2024

Attendance: 79,837 • Williams-Brice Stadium • Columbia, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — The No. 11 Ole Miss football team passed its first SEC road test with flying colors on Saturday, turning in a dominant 27-3 victory at South Carolina for its first conference win of the 2024 season.

The Rebels were outstanding defensively, notching a pair of turnovers, six sacks and 10 tackles for loss, holding South Carolina to just 313 total yards and turning the Gamecocks away twice in the red zone. Offensively, Ole Miss left some points on the field, including a fumble through the end zone, but racked up 425 total yards and mounted a 24-3 lead at halftime to take control early in a victory that was never in doubt.

It was win No. 100 for head coach Lane Kiffin's career, including 39 during his Ole Miss tenure. Kiffin is one of 30 active FBS coaches to surpass the century mark in career wins and one of just three in the SEC alongside LSU's Brian Kelly and Alabama's Kalen DeBoer.

Jaxson Dart finished 14-for-27 with 329 total yards (285 passing, 44 rushing) on a solid day against one of the nation's top pass-rushing defenses. Henry Parrish Jr. led the way rushing with 81 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries.

Antwane Wells Jr. had a team-high 97 receiving yards, while Jordan Watkins led Ole Miss with five catches for 72 yards. Tre Harris had three catches for 81 yards but departed the game early due to injury. Ole Miss' 425 total yards is the most given up by the South Carolina defense this season.

TJ Dottery had a team-high 13 tackles, including two for a loss, a sack and a pass breakup. Santarine Perkins was second with 12 tackles, matching Dottery's sack and two TFLs. Trey Amos had an INT and led all DBs with eight tackles. Walter Nolen had a spectacular day with a fumble recovery and a team-high three tackles for loss and tied Jared Ivey with a team-best two sacks.

Ole Miss held South Carolina to only three points, the fewest allowed by a Rebel defense against an SEC opponent since holding Texas A&M to three in 2015. The Rebel defense had six sacks, setting a season-high for the second week in a row and now have 24 sacks on the season.

GAME EIGHT
#18 OLE MISS 26, OKLAHOMA 14

Oct. 5, 2024
Attendance: 67,926 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — No. 18 Ole Miss football used an overwhelming pass rush to pitch a shutout in the second half and beat Oklahoma 26-14 in the first Southeastern Conference meeting between the two schools.

The Rebels found themselves trailing 14-10 at halftime against the SEC newcomers, but the defense dominated the second half, allowing just 94 total yards and zero points to comfortably complete the comeback. Ole Miss had nine sacks on the day, including seven in the second half to win in front of a record crowd of 67,926 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss outgained the Sooners 380-329 on the afternoon, including 311-182 through the air. Each team overcame seven penalties, with the Rebels being penalized for 94 yards.

Lane Kiffin became the fastest head coach to 40 wins in Ole Miss history at 57 games, joining John Vaught, Billy Brewer and David Cutcliffe as the fourth 40-win coach in program history.

Jaxson Dart turned in a strong day, going 22-for-30 for 311 yards and one touchdown, adding 24 yards on the ground. Henry Parrish Jr. led the rushing efforts with 44 yards and a score on 15 carries. Caden Prieskorn was Ole Miss' leading receiver with five catches, 71 yards and a touchdown. The Rebel offensive line turned in an outstanding performance against a dangerous pass rush. Oklahoma entered the game at No. 2 in the SEC and No. 3 in the nation with 25.0 sacks on the year but notched just one on Dart at The Vaught.

The Ole Miss pass rush dominated the game, totaling nine sacks for a loss of 50 yards and 15 tackles for loss in total. The nine sacks were tied for the most ever given up by an OU team and tied for the third-most in Ole Miss history, two shy of the school record 11 set in 2008. Sutarine Perkins stuffed the stat sheet with 11 tackles, including team-highs with five TFLs and four sacks, the most by a Rebel since Cassius Ware had four against Georgia in 1993. JJ Pegues and Princely Umannielen each had two sacks, while Akelo Stone added one.
