SEC Network has proven time and again that it is one of the most successful launches by a network in all of cable television. It placed the Southeastern Conference, its member institutions and sports teams on an international stage with brand recognition in every corner of the country and around the globe.

That was the vision when the SEC and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multi-platform network, which launched on Aug. 14, 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform, SEC Network+, carries SEC live events and programming 24/7.

Complementing the volume of network-produced programming, all 14 schools built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers have been accustomed to for years across ESPN networks.

These school-produced events are made available exclusively through the ESPN App as part of SEC Network+ on connected devices, allowing fans to watch their favorite teams anytime, anywhere.

SEC Network has also become known for its signature studio show, SEC Now, its traveling weekly football pregame show, SEC Nation, and of course, The Paul Finebaum Show, which welcomes callers and guests to share their thoughts on topics surrounding the SEC. On top of the network's wall-to-wall coverage of Saturday SEC football, SEC Network boasts additional football-focused studio shows in the fall: SEC This Morning and Marty & McGee, as well as food and culture favorite, TrueSouth.

THIS IS SEC FOOTBALL

- Sixteen times in the last 19 seasons, a team from the SEC has advanced to the national championship game. The SEC has won 13 of those contests, with two of the losses coming in the game's final seconds. The winner of the SEC Championship Game has advanced to the National Championship Game all but three times since 2006.
- With Florida in January 2009, five different teams from the SEC (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, LSU, Georgia) have played for and won the national championship in the last 15 seasons. All five have multiple appearances and at least one victory since in the national championship game since 2007.
- The SEC won four consecutive CFP National Championships, by three different programs (LSU, Alabama, Georgia), from 2019-2022.
- Not counting games versus each other, the SEC is 16-7 all-time in College Football Playoff games, playing in eight of the 11 CFP Championship Games (winning six of those eight). The SEC is 10-3 in CFP Semifinals, including a streak of 10 consecutive semifinal wins from 2015-2022.
- Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 35-18 (.660) record in BCS/CFP games, more wins, appearances, and winning percentage than any other A4 conference.
- The Southeastern Conference led the nation yet again in 2024 with 439 former players on opening weekend 53-man active rosters, including injured reserve.
- A total of 35 former SEC players were on active rosters of Super Bowl LVI between the Kansas City Chiefs and the Philadelphia Eagles.
- The SEC is 122-78 (.610) in bowl games since 2006, the only FBS league with a .600 or better winning percentage and nearly 40 wins more than the next closest conference.
- The SEC has now won 73 games in the last nine postseasons and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 18 seasons.
- In the 11 seasons of the College Football Playoff era, only nine programs nationally have been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Top-25 Poll (which begins in late October each year) – five of those nine programs (Alabama, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, Tennessee) are from the SEC. Prior to 2023, no team outside the SEC had been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Poll since 2019, while four schools from the SEC were ranked No. 1 during that time.
- With Georgia and Alabama both earning victories in the CFP Semifinals in both 2021 and 2017, the national championship game has featured two SEC teams twice in the last eight years and three times since the 2011 season.
- The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 17 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008-2019. The only year it was not #1 was 2020 when the SEC did not have a traditional schedule due to the pandemic.
- The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game. The overtime win for Georgia, which peaked with 19.7 million viewers, delivered the largest audience of the college football season — surpassing the previous high set by the regular season matchup between the same two teams. Overall, the SEC title game last season delivered the third-largest regular season college football audience ever on the ESPN family of networks.
- The SEC finished the 2024 season as the most-watched conference in college football based on total minutes consumed for a third-straight year. The SEC was also #1 in average audience for the 14th consecutive year. The SEC on ABC accounted for more than two-thirds of the 50 most-watched games in the 2024 regular season.
- The SEC received 105 of the total NFL Combine invites in 2024 - which accounted for nearly one third of the national total.

2025 Media Days Preseason Poll

Texas was predicted to win the 2025 SEC Championship, according to a preseason poll of media covering SEC Football Media Days.

The Longhorns received 96 votes to be crowned SEC Champion on December 6 in Atlanta at Mercedes-Benz Stadium, with Georgia being picked to be the Texas’ opponent in a rematch of the 2024 SEC Championship Game. Georgia received 44 votes to win the SEC Championship.

The participants of the SEC Championship Game will be determined during the regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the two best overall SEC winning percentages.

Only 10 times since 1992 (33 years) has the predicted champion prior to the season at SEC Media Days proceeded to win the SEC Championship Game.

SEC FOOTBALL BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has six-year agreements with nine football post-season bowls. The nine bowls are in addition to bowl games in the College Football Playoff system for which SEC teams are eligible to qualify.

The SEC has its current agreements through 2025 with the Cheez-It Citrus Bowl in Orlando, the ReliaQuest Bowl in Tampa, the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, the Music City Bowl in Nashville, the Kinder's Texas Bowl in Houston, the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, the JLab Birmingham Bowl and the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl.

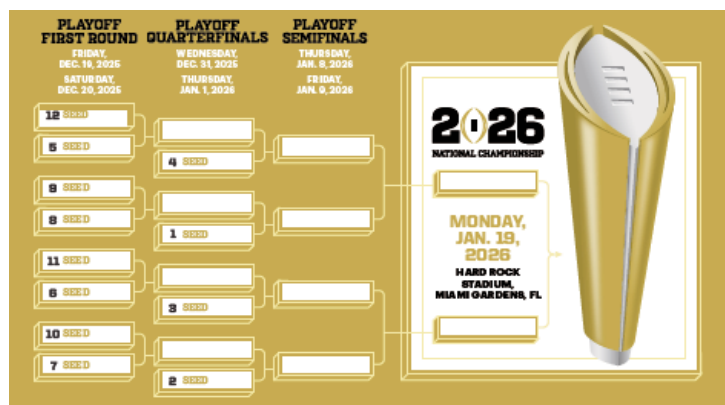

In addition, the SEC will continue its relationship with the Duke's Mayo Bowl in Charlotte, participating in that bowl game in 2025.

The SEC will maintain its current bowl selection process in which the Citrus Bowl has the first selection of available SEC teams after any conference schools have qualified for the College Football Playoff after which the SEC assigns teams to a Pool of Six bowl. The SEC Pool of Six consists of the ReliaQuest Bowl, TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, Liberty Mutual Music City Bowl, Kinder's Texas Bowl and Autozone Liberty Bowl, as well as the SRS Distribution Las Vegas Bowl in 2024, and the Duke's Mayo Bowl in 2025.

In consultation with SEC member institutions, as well as these six bowls, the conference will make assignments for the bowl games in the pool system. ESPN Events selects teams to participate in the JLab Birmingham and Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowls after the Pool of Six have been assigned.

2025-26 College Football Playoff

- The ranking of the teams will continue to be done by a selection committee.
- A new policy in 2025 will guarantee the five highest-ranked conference champions a place in the Playoff, but will no longer include a bye for the four highest-ranked champions. The 12-team bracket will now be seeded directly based on the final ranking of the CFP Selection Committee, with the four highest-ranked teams receiving a first-round bye. If one or more of the five highest-ranked conference champions are ranked outside the top 12, that team or teams would move up to the 12th seed, 11th seed, etc., based on the number of conference champions outside the top 12.
- The teams ranked Nos. 5-12 will play in the CFP First Round with the higher seeds hosting the lower seeds either on campus or at other sites designated by the higher-seeded institution (No. 12 at No. 5, No. 11 at No. 6, No. 10 at No. 7 and No. 9 at No. 8).
- The four highest-ranked teams will be assigned to Playoff Quarterfinals bowls on Selection Day in ranking order and in consideration of current contract bowl relationships (for example: if the highest-ranked team is from the Big Ten, that team would be assigned to the Rose Bowl Game).
- The College Football Playoff bracket will follow the selection committee's rankings, with no modifications made to avoid rematches between teams that may have played during the regular season or are from the same conference.
- The bracket will remain in effect throughout the playoff (i.e., no re-seeding).
- The No. 1 seed would receive preferential placement based on geography for the Playoff Semifinal site assignment.
- All 11 games will be under the CFP umbrella with the administrative policies determined by the CFP.

ESPN Events selects teams to participate in the Birmingham and Gasparilla Bowls after the Citrus Bowl and Pool of Six.

SEC BOWL SUCCESS

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS SINCE 1992

Since the first SEC expansion in 1992, the SEC has the most national championships (AP, USA Today) with 17. During that time, the SEC has had more teams with national titles than any other conference (6). Here is a breakdown:

SEC (17) Florida (2008, 2006, 1996), LSU (2003, 2007, 2019), Tennessee (1998), Alabama (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017, 2020), Auburn (2010), Georgia (2021, 2022)
 ACC (5) Florida State (1993, 1999, 2013), Clemson (2016,18)
 Big 12 (5) Texas (2005), Oklahoma (2000), Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997)
 Big Ten (5) Ohio State (2002, 2014, 2024), Michigan (1997, 2023)
 Pac-10 (2) Southern California (2003, 2004)
 Big East (1) Miami, Fla. (2001)

The SEC was the first conference to claim four consecutive Associated Press (first poll - 1936), National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (first poll - 1959), Football Writers Association of America (first poll - 1954) and USA Today or UPI Coaches Poll (first poll - 1950) national championships.

SEC IN BOWL GAMES

• Since 2006, the SEC has accrued more bowl wins (122) and appearances (200) than any other conference. The conference's .610 bowl winning percentage is first among A5 leagues during that time.

SEC	122-78	.610
Big Ten	83-87	.488
ACC	77-101	.433
Big 12	72-70	.507
American	60-57	.513
Mountain West	59-49	.546
Pac-12	57-61	.483
Conference USA	53-61	.465
Sun Belt	47-35	.573
MAC	36-67	.350
Independents	28-20	.583

• The SEC is 16-7 (.696) in College Football Playoff games (not versus each other) and 4-2 in College Football Playoff National Championship Games (not versus each other). The SEC has appeared in eight of the 11 CFP National Championship Games, winning six. The SEC finished 9-2 in BCS National Championship Games (LSU 2-1, Florida 2-0, Alabama 3-0, Tennessee 1-0, Auburn 1-1), 8-1 vs. non-SEC competition. The SEC had the most wins (17) and the highest winning percentage of any conference that has three-or-more appearances in BCS bowl games. The SEC was 17-10 in BCS games (.630 percentage), 16-9 (.640) in non-conference. Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 32-18 (.640) record in BCS/CFP games, more wins, appearances and winning percentage than any other A4 conference.

• Eleven different SEC teams, including all seven from the former SEC Western Division, have made BCS/New Year's Six bowl game appearances since 2006: Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Tennessee, Texas and Texas A&M.

SEC SUCCESS SINCE 2006

During the last 19 seasons (2006-24), Southeastern Conference football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and in the history of college football. During this tenure, the SEC's achievements have been demonstrated by:

- Triumphs in major bowl games, including the National Championship Game
- Non-conference success in regular season and bowl games
- Defeating highly-ranked non-conference teams
- Success in the polls and rankings
- Individual awards and All-America Teams
- Academic and Community Service Standouts
- Continued accomplishments of former SEC student-athletes in the NFL and NFL Draft

SEC IN THE CFP/BCS ERA (Since 1998)

• The SEC has won 13 of the last 19 national championships, 15 of the 27 BCS/CFP-era National Championships, six runner-up finishes and 29 overall national titles (CFP, AP, BCS, FWA, Coaches Poll) in SEC history. The SEC has appeared in 16 of the last 19 National Championship Games and in 10 of the 16 BCS Championship Games, winning nine.

• Five different SEC schools have won the National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017, 2020; Florida, 2006, 2008; LSU, 2007, 2019; Georgia, 2021, 2022). Five programs have advanced to the national championship game since 2013. Tennessee (1998) has also won the former BCS crown. Auburn appeared in the 2013 BCS Championship Game, as did LSU in 2011, Georgia in 2017 and Alabama in 2021. A team from the SEC Western Division had advanced to five consecutive national championship games prior to the 2014 season, when Alabama lost in the CFP semifinals. The ACC (Clemson, Miami and Florida State) and Big Ten (Michigan, Ohio State) has seen three schools win titles since 1998, while the current Big 12 has none.

• Since 2006, over half of the slots in the National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (19 of 38). The Big Ten has six during that time, the ACC has four, while the Big 12 and Pac-12 has three.

• The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS/CFP standings than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 15 of its 16 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006. Vanderbilt is the only team to not appear in the BCS/CFP rankings during this time, however, the Commodores finished ranked in the Top 25 in both 2012 and 2013 after bowl games with 9-4 records. The BCS/CFP does not produce a poll following bowl games. The Commodores were also ranked in the AP/Coaches Poll in 2024 two weeks prior to the first CFP poll of 2024.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted 35 wins in BCS/New Year's Six/Access bowls - more wins than any other conference.

• Six of the top 10 defensive performances in CFP/BCS history have been registered by SEC teams, more than any other conference. Alabama's shutout of LSU in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game was the first shutout in CFP/BCS history. Alabama defeated Michigan State soundly 38-0 in a CFP National Semifinal in 2015, while defeating Washington 24-7 in 2016 semifinal contest. Alabama dominated Clemson in the 2018 Sugar Bowl Semifinal, holding Clemson to just 188 yards, well short of their average 448 yards per game. In the 2021 CFP Semifinal, Alabama defeated Cincinnati 27-6, holding the Bearcats to 218 yards and a pair of field goals. Georgia's 65-7 victory over TCU in the 2022 national championship game, the Bulldogs held TCU to 188 total yards and nine first downs. Georgia's 63-3 defeat of Florida State in the 2023 Orange Bowl was the largest margin of victory in the entire history of postseason bowls, holding FSU to only 209 yards.

• The SEC has now won 73 games in the last nine postseasons. With 12 teams advancing to bowl games in 2016, the SEC became the first conference to send at least 10 teams to postseason bowls in four consecutive seasons. The SEC sent a (then) NCAA-record 12 teams to participate in postseason bowl games in 2014 and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 17 seasons. The SEC established a national-record with nine postseason victories in 2015 and owned the previous record for postseason bowl victories with seven wins in 2007, 2013 and 2014. The SEC qualified a record 13 teams for postseason bowls in 2021 and finished 7-2 in the 2020 postseason, with all seven wins coming against Top-25 competition - the most in history for the conference. The SEC again sent 13 teams to postseason in 2024.

• The SEC is 122-78 (.610) in bowl games since 2006, the only Autonomy Five league with a .600 or better winning percentage and nearly 40 wins more than the next closest conference.

SEC vs. OTHER CONFERENCES

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted the highest non-conference winning percentage (regular season & bowls) than any other conference. The league has a 927-232 record, an 80.0 winning percentage. The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last 19 seasons (2006-2024). Last season (2024), the SEC was 63-16 (.797), including bowl games.

SEC IN FINAL RANKINGS

• Since 2006, the SEC has had the most teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. The conference has had 106 teams ranked in the final USA Today rankings during that span, including seven in 2024.

• The SEC has either led or tied for the lead with the most teams ranked in the USA Today Top-25 for 17 of the last 19 seasons.

THIS IS SEC FOOTBALL

• Sixteen times in the last 19 seasons, a team from the SEC has advanced to the national championship game. The SEC has won 13 of those contests, with two of the losses coming in the game's final seconds. The winner of the SEC Championship Game has advanced to the National Championship Game all but three times since 2006.

• With Florida in January 2009, five different teams from the SEC (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, LSU, Georgia) have played for and won the national championship in the last 15 seasons. All five have multiple appearances and at least one victory since in the national championship game since 2007.

• The SEC won four consecutive CFP National Championships, by three different programs (LSU, Alabama, Georgia), from 2019-2022.

• Not counting games versus each other, the SEC is 16-7 all-time in College Football Playoff games, playing in eight of the 11 CFP Championship Games (winning six of those eight). The SEC is 10-3 in CFP Semifinals, including a streak of 10 consecutive semifinal wins from 2015-2022.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 35-18 (.660) record in BCS/CFP games, more wins, appearances, and winning percentage than any other A4 conference.

• The Southeastern Conference led the nation yet again in 2024 with 439 former players on opening weekend 53-man active rosters, including injured reserve.

• A total of 35 former SEC players were on active rosters of Super Bowl LVI between the Kansas City Chiefs and the Philadelphia Eagles.

• The SEC is 122-78 (.610) in bowl games since 2006, the only FBS league with a .600 or better winning percentage and nearly 40 wins more than the next closest conference.

• The SEC has now won 73 games in the last nine postseasons and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 18 seasons.

• In the 11 seasons of the College Football Playoff era, only nine programs nationally have been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Top-25 Poll (which begins in late October each year) - five of those nine programs (Alabama, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, Tennessee) are from the SEC. Prior to 2023, no team outside the SEC had been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Poll since 2019, while four schools from the SEC were ranked No. 1 during that time.

• With Georgia and Alabama both earning victories in the CFP Semifinals in both 2021 and 2017, the national championship game has featured two SEC teams twice in the last eight years and three times since the 2011 season.

• The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 17 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008-2019. The only year it was not #1 was 2020 when the SEC did not have a traditional schedule due to the pandemic.

• The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game. The overtime win for Georgia, which peaked with 19.7 million viewers, delivered the largest audience of the college football season - surpassing the previous high set by the regular season matchup between the same two teams. Overall, the SEC title game last season delivered the third-largest regular season college football audience ever on the ESPN family of networks.

SEC IN THE NFL

• The Southeastern Conference led the nation yet again in 2025 with 451 former players on opening weekend 53-man active rosters, including injured reserve.

• The SEC has had more of its former players on NFL rosters in the last 10 seasons than any other conference. Since 2012, the SEC has averaged 368 players per year on NFL opening weekend rosters.

• During the last 20 completed NFL seasons (2005-24), the SEC had had five of its former players named NFL MVP (2005, Shaun Alexander, RB, Alabama with Seattle; 2008-09-13, Peyton Manning, QB, Tennessee with Indianapolis and Denver; 2015, Cam Newton, QB, Auburn with Carolina).

• During the last 18 Super Bowls (2006-24), three former SEC players have been named game MVP five times (2006 – Hines Ward, WR, Georgia with Pittsburgh; 2007 – Peyton Manning, QB, Tennessee with Indianapolis; 2008 and 2012– Eli Manning, QB, Ole Miss with New York Giants. Von Miller of Texas A&M was named MVP of Super Bowl 50, although his final year was the Aggies final season prior to joining the SEC.

• The SEC led the nation's conferences in NFL Draft picks for the 19th consecutive year in 2025 with 79 selections.

• The 79 selections set a record for a conference in a single NFL Draft, shattering the previous mark of 65 (which was also held by the SEC).

• This marks the 11th straight year for the SEC to see 50 or more players taken in the NFL Draft. Only four times in the last 30 years has another conference other than the SEC seen 50 or more players drafted.

• A total of 15 SEC teams had selections in the 2025 NFL Draft.

• This is the ninth consecutive year the SEC has seen 25 or more players selected through the first three rounds of the NFL Draft.

• The SEC has averaged over 50 selections per draft since 2006.

• Georgia led the SEC with 13 players drafted. Texas was second with 12, while Ole Miss had eight selections. Alabama, LSU and Florida all saw seven former players selected.

• For the 14th time in the last 15 years, the SEC once again tied or led the nation in First Round NFL Draft selections, as the league produced 15 opening-round draft picks.

• The 15 selections in the opening round tied for the most in the history of the NFL Draft (set by the SEC in 2020).

• This is the fifth time in the last six years, and seventh in the last nine, the SEC has produced 10 or more First Round selections.

• During the last 21 NFL Drafts, the SEC has a nation-leading 194 players taken in the opening round, an average of over nine per season.

• The SEC had six of the first 15 selections and nine of the first 20 of the 2025 NFL Draft.

• The SEC now has 170 First Round NFL Draft selections since 2010.

• Since 2010, the SEC has nearly double (170) the total amount of First Round selections than the next closest conference (Big Ten – 88).

• Nine different SEC teams had a player taken in the First Round of the 2025 NFL Draft.

• The SEC now has 61 Top 10 picks since 2009 and 67 since 2007.

• Since 2009, Top 10 NFL picks by league: SEC (61); Big 12 (28); B1G (28), ACC (27); Notre Dame (5); AAC (3); MAC (3); BYU (2); Mountain West (1).

• Georgia and Texas led the SEC with three First Round selections in the 2025 NFL Draft.

• Alabama has a First-Round selection in each of the past 17 NFL Drafts, the longest streak in SEC and college football history, as well as the most First Round picks nationally since 2007 with 49.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2025 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Southeastern Conference's top two teams in the regular season standings will meet in Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 34th-annual title game is set for December 6 and will be televised nationally by ABC.

The game was born as a result of 1992 conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game will be determined during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the two best overall SEC winning percentages.

The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 17 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008- 2019. The only year it was not No. 1 was 2020 when the SEC did not have a traditional schedule due to the pandemic.

The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game. The overtime win for Georgia, which peaked with 19.7 million viewers, delivered the largest audience of the college football season — surpassing the previous high set by the regular season matchup between the same two teams. Overall, the SEC title game last season delivered the third-largest regular season college football audience ever on the ESPN family of networks.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned an 11.8 rating and a 24 share, marking the highest-rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game matched the No. 1 Florida Gators (12-0) vs. the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide (12-0).

The SEC Championship Game has drawn 31 capacity crowds in its 33-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

The SEC, along with AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority (GWCCA), have an agreement to host the SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta through 2031. The new agreement allows the SEC the option of adding a five-year extensions through 2036. The Georgia Dome hosted the SEC Championship Game for 23 years beginning in 1994, with capacity crowds in the last 22 consecutive years. By the end of the new agreement, including options, the Championship will have been played in Atlanta a total of 43 years.

SEC FOOTBALL TIE-BREAKING PROCESS

In the event of a tie between teams competing for a place in the Conference championship game, the following procedures will be used in descending order until the tie is broken:

- * Head-to-head competition among the tied teams
- * Record versus all common Conference opponents among the tied teams
- * Record against highest (best) placed common Conference opponent in the Conference standings, and proceeding through the Conference standings among the tied teams
- * Cumulative Conference winning percentage of all Conference opponents among the tied teams
- * Capped relative total scoring margin versus all Conference opponents among the tied teams
- * Random draw of the tied teams

If the regular season standings determine a clear Conference champion and two or more teams are tied for second place, the Conference champion will be the home team in the Championship Game and the tiebreaking procedures will be used to determine its opponent.

If a tiebreaker step produces standings with two teams tied for first place in the Conference, both will qualify for the championship game. To decide the seeding of the two teams, both will progress through the two-team tiebreaker procedures until the tie is broken, which will determine home/away designation for the SEC Championship Game.

The 2025 SEC Championship Game will be held on Saturday, Dec. 6, at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta, Ga.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME RACE RECAPS

1992 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida and Georgia (6-2 in the SEC) were co-champions in the Eastern Division. The Gators won the tie-breaker by virtue of a 26-24 win over the Bulldogs earlier in the season. Alabama (8-0) was the outright Western Division champion, even with a game against Auburn in the final weekend, which the Tide won, 17-0.

1993 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division and Alabama won the Western Division. The Gators finished 1/2 game ahead of Tennessee (UT tied Alabama, 17-17). Alabama, at 5-2-1, finished two games ahead second-place Arkansas. Auburn was 8-0 in the SEC, but was ineligible for the conference title.

1994 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, two games ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with an 8-0 SEC mark, three games ahead of Miss. State.

1995 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 8-0, one game ahead of Tennessee. Arkansas won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, one game ahead of Auburn and Alabama.

1996 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 8-0, one game ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, tying LSU. However, the Tide defeated the Tigers, 26-0, earlier in the year to win the tie-breaker.

1997 - Eastern Division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Tennessee defeated Vanderbilt, 17-10, to win the division on the final weekend. Tennessee, at 7-1 in the SEC, finished one game ahead of Georgia and Florida. Auburn had won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, tying LSU. However, Auburn defeated LSU, 31-28, earlier in the year to win the tie-breaker.

1998 - Western Division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Miss. State defeated Ole Miss, 28-6, on Thanksgiving night, to win division on final weekend. Arkansas and Miss. State finished in tie for the division title. However, Miss. State defeated Arkansas, 22-21, earlier that season to win the tie-breaker. Arkansas defeated LSU 41-14 on the final weekend, but when State defeated Ole Miss, the chase for the Championship Game had been won. Tennessee had clinched the Eastern Division before the final weekend and defeated Vanderbilt, 41-0, to finished the SEC at 8-0.

1999 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, one game ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with a 7-1 SEC mark, one game ahead of Miss. State.

2000 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, two games ahead of South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee. Auburn won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, one game ahead of LSU. LSU lost to Arkansas in the final weekend, 14-3. Even if the Tigers would have beaten the Razorbacks, Auburn would have won the tie-breaker over LSU due to a 34-17 win earlier in the season.

2001 - Both races go down to the final weekend. Due to game postponements on Sept. 15, games were reschedule for Dec. 1. On that weekend, Tennessee defeated Florida, 34-32, in Gainesville, and LSU defeated Auburn, 27-14, in Baton Rouge, to clinch berths in the SEC Championship Game. The Vols won the East with a 7-1 mark while LSU had a 5-3 mark and tied with Auburn for the West, but won the head-to-head tiebreaker.

2002 - Western division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Georgia clinched the Eastern Division championship on Nov. 16 after defeating Auburn, 24-21, in Auburn. The 7-1 Bulldogs finish one game ahead of Florida, which was 6-2. Arkansas wins the Western Division on the season's final weekend, defeating LSU, 21-20, in Little Rock on Nov. 29. The Razorbacks, LSU Tigers and Auburn Tigers are tied at 5-3 but Arkansas wins the head-to-head tiebreakers.

2003 - Both races decided on final weekend. Tennessee defeats Kentucky, 20-7, to force a three-way tie for Eastern Division championship between Vols, Georgia and Florida. Using tie-breaker involving the BCS standings, Georgia has the highest BCS ranking and has defeated Tennessee (next highest ranking) during regular season to secure SEC Championship Game berth. LSU defeats Arkansas, 55-24, and Ole Miss beats Mississippi State, 31-0, to force a tie for the Western Division championship. LSU's 17-14 win over Ole Miss the week before earns the Tigers the Western Division berth.

2004 - Auburn clinches berth in the SEC Championship Game on Oct. 30, tying the earliest since the game began in 1992 (Alabama, 1993). The Tigers (8-0) finish two games ahead in the standings of second-place LSU (6-2). Tennessee clinches berth as Eastern Division representative with 38-33 win against Vanderbilt on Nov. 20. The Vols (7-1) would win their next game on the following weekend against Kentucky to claim the division title outright. Georgia was second in the Western Division with a 6-2 mark.

2005 - Georgia (6-2) clinched Eastern Division Championship with a 45-13 win over Kentucky on Nov. 19. The Bulldogs finish one full game ahead of South Carolina and Florida in the standings. LSU clinched Western Division title with a 19-17 win over Arkansas on Nov. 25. The Tigers finished tied for the Western Division title (7-1), but defeated Auburn, 20-17, on Oct. 22, to win the tie-breaker.

2006 - Florida (7-1) clinched Eastern Division Championship and berth in the SEC Championship Game on Nov. 4, by defeating Vanderbilt, 25-19. Arkansas clinched the Western Division title and SEC Championship Game berth with a 28-14 win over Mississippi State on Nov. 18.

2007 - LSU (6-2) clinched Western Division berth in the SEC Championship Game on Week 11 after Alabama and Auburn both lose. Tennessee (6-2) gets Eastern Division berth with 52-50 four-over-time victory over Kentucky in Week 13. The Vols win the tie-breaker with Georgia (6-2), defeating the Bulldogs 35-14 in Week 6.

2008 - Alabama (8-0) clinched Western Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 11 (Nov. 1) after defeating LSU, 27-21. Florida (7-1) clinched Eastern Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 12 (Nov. 8) after defeating Vanderbilt, 42-14.

2009 - Florida (8-0) clinched Eastern Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 9 (Oct. 31) after defeating Georgia, 41-17. Alabama (8-0) clinched Western Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 11 (Nov. 14) after defeating Mississippi State, 31-3.

2010 - Both spots in the SEC Championship Game were clinched on Week 11 (Nov. 13). Auburn (8-0) clinched Western Division berth with a 49-31 win against Georgia. South Carolina (5-3) clinched Eastern Division berth with a 36-14 win against Florida.

2011 - Georgia (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 12 (Nov. 19) with a 19-10 win over Kentucky while LSU (8-0) clinched its berth in Week 13 (last weekend of the regular season) with a 41-17 win over Arkansas

2012 - Georgia (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 11 (Nov. 10) with a 38-0 win over Auburn. Alabama clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 13 (Nov. 24) with a 49-0 win over Auburn.

2013 - For the first time since 2003, both races were determined on the final weekend. Auburn (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game with a dramatic 34-28 win off a 109-yard missed field goal return for a touchdown on the game's final play at Auburn. SEC newcomer Missouri (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game with a 28-21 home win over Texas A&M.

2014 - For the second straight season, both divisional races were determined on the final weekend. Missouri won the SEC East outright by closing the season with three straight SEC wins, including two on the road for their second straight trip to Atlanta. Alabama won the Western Division outright as well, with Ole Miss defeating Mississippi State in the Egg Bowl, while Alabama topped Auburn in the Iron Bowl.

2015 - Florida (7-1) won the Eastern Division, clinching a spot after defeating Vanderbilt on Nov. 7. Alabama (7-1) claimed the Western Division with a victory over Auburn in the Iron Bowl on the final day of the regular season. It was the fourth straight season where the Western Champion was the Iron Bowl winner.

2016 - Florida (6-2) won the Eastern Division, clinching a spot after defeating LSU in Baton Rouge on Nov. 19. Alabama claimed the Western Division with a victory over Mississippi State on Nov. 12. This marked the first time since 2010 that saw the SEC Championship Game set prior to the final weekend of the regular season.

2017 - Georgia (7-1) won the Eastern Division, clinching a spot on Nov. 4 after defeating South Carolina 24-10 in Athens. Georgia's clinching of a spot in the SEC Championship Game on Nov. 4 is the earliest a team has done so since Florida (Oct. 31) in 2009. Auburn (7-1) claimed the Western Division with a victory over Alabama the final day of the regular season. Alabama and Auburn were co-champions of the division, with Auburn representing the SEC Western Division in Atlanta due to head-to-head tiebreaker.

2018 - Georgia won the Eastern Division, clinching a spot on Nov. 3 after defeating Kentucky 34-17 in Lexington. Alabama claimed the Western Division with a 29-0 victory over LSU in Baton Rouge later that same day. It is the earliest that both participants in the SEC Championship Game have ever been determined.

2019 - Georgia won the Eastern Division for the third consecutive year, clinching a spot on Nov. 16 after defeating Auburn 21-14 in Auburn. LSU claimed the Western Division for the first time since 2011 with a 56-20 victory over Arkansas in Baton Rouge on Nov. 23.

2020 - Florida clinched the Eastern Division while Alabama claimed the Western Division on Dec. 5, two weeks prior to the SEC Championship Game. Due to COVID-19, the regular season was derived of 10 conference games only.

2021 - Georgia clinched the Eastern Division on Oct. 30, tying the earliest any division had ever been clinched. Alabama claimed the Western Division on Nov. 20, two weeks prior to the SEC Championship Game.

2022 - Both spots in the SEC Championship Game were claimed on Nov. 12, as Georgia defeated Mississippi State to claim the Eastern Division title, while LSU's victory over Arkansas, combined with Alabama's win over Ole Miss, clinched a spot in the game for LSU. It marked the fifth time in the last six seasons Georgia has advanced to the SEC Championship Game.

2023 - Both spots in the SEC Championship Game were claimed on Nov. 11, as Alabama defeated Kentucky to claim the Western Division title, while Missouri's victory over Tennessee clinched a spot in the game for Georgia. It marked the sixth time in the last seven seasons Georgia has advanced to the SEC Championship Game.

2024 - Georgia clinched a spot in the SEC Championship Game on Nov. 24 following losses by Alabama and Texas A&M. Texas secured their slot and the No. 1 seed after defeating Texas A&M on Nov. 30. Georgia would be the No. 2 seed.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME RACE RECAP

The earliest a berth has been clinched in the SEC Championship Game is Oct. 30 (Georgia, 2021; Auburn, 2004; Alabama, 1993).

In 17 of 62 divisional races (including 2023), a championship game berth has not been decided until the weekend prior to the SEC Championship Game. That occurred in 1997 (Tennessee), 1998 (Mississippi State), 2001 (Tennessee and LSU), 2002 (Arkansas), 2003 (Georgia and LSU), 2005 (LSU), 2007 (Tennessee), 2011 (LSU), 2012 (Alabama), 2013 (Auburn and Missouri), 2014 (Alabama and Missouri), 2015 (Alabama) and 2017 (Auburn).

2024 SEC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2024 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The 32nd annual SEC Football Championship Game was played on Dec. 7 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta, with No. 5 Georgia defeating No. 2 Texas 22-19 in overtime. This was the first overtime in the history of the SEC Championship Game. The SEC Champion has now advanced to the Playoff each year since its inception.

Gunner Stockton, a little-known backup who had barely played for Georgia, came off the bench after an injury to Carson Beck and led the Bulldogs to an improbable win in the SEC Championship.

The Bulldogs (11-2) won their third SEC title under coach Kirby Smart, but the trophy comes with an even bigger prize - a first-round bye in the new 12-team College Football Playoff.

Georgia came into the game ranked fifth by the CFP, but now it is assured of playing in the Sugar Bowl quarterfinal game on New Year's Day in pursuit of its third national title in four seasons.

Texas (11-2, No. 2 CFP) was denied an SEC title capper on its first season in the league and will host a first-round game on either Dec. 20 or 21. Both of its losses have been to the Bulldogs, who prevailed 30-15 when the powerhouse programs met in Austin during the regular season.

Stockton, a third-year sophomore, had played only six games in his college career - all of them mere mop-ups of blowout wins. He guided the Bulldogs to a touchdown and two field goals before taking a hard hit on a run in overtime that sent his helmet flying.

Beck, who could barely lift his arm, came back in the game for first-and-goal at the 4. All he had to do - and could do, it appeared - was hand off to Trevor Etienne, who powered into the end zone to end the first overtime game in the SEC championship's 33-year history.

MVP: Georgia's Daylen Everett was named the MVP after recording two interceptions to tie the championship game record. His is the third defensive back to win the honor joining LSU's Tyrann Mathieu (2011) and Alabama's Antonio Langham (1992). He is the sixth defensive player to earn the award.

NOTES

- Georgia won its 15th SEC title (second in conference history) and fifth SEC Championship Game, tying LSU for the third most in history. The Bulldogs are the first two-loss SEC champion since 2007 when eventual national champion LSU beat Tennessee.
- Georgia became the sixth team to trail at half and win (trailed 6-3). It is the first time since 2018 when Alabama trailed Georgia 21-14 at halftime and won 35-28.
- This is the first overtime game in championship game history.
- Georgia's Gunner Stockton is first quarterback to lead his team to victory in a relief role since Alabama's Jalen Hurts came on for Tua Tagovailoa in 2018 against Georgia.
- Tonight's attendance of 74,916 is the fifth largest at Mercedes-Benz Stadium for the championship game.
- Georgia out-rushed Texas 141-31, marking the 20th consecutive year that the winner out-rushed its opponent.
- This was the eighth rematch of a regular season meeting and the first since 2017. Georgia defeated Texas 30-15 on October 19 in Austin. The team that won the regular season game is 6-2 in the rematch.
- Texas' Bert Auburn set a championship game record with four field goals and six attempts. The previous mark was three done five times, most recently by LSU's Cade York in 2019, and five attempts by Alabama's Ryan Pflugner in 1999.
- Auburn tied the record for most points by a kicker with 13 (4 FG, 1 PAT). LSU's Cade York had 13 in 2019 with 3 FG, 4 PAT.
- For the fifth time in championship game history a team recorded two 100-yard receivers as Texas' Matthew Golden (162) and DeAndre Moore Jr (114) each topped the century mark. It was the first time since 2022 it happened with LSU's Malik Nabers (128) and Kayshon Bouttle (107). Golden's 162 receiving yards ranks as the sixth highest in championship game history.
- The 19 combined points after three quarters are the lowest since 17 in 1998 when Tennessee led Mississippi State 10-7.
- Texas' Quinn Ewers finished with 358 passing yards which ranks as the seventh highest in championship game history.
- Georgia's 9:22 scoring drive in the fourth quarter is the longest drive in championship game history (scoring or non-scoring). The previous mark was 8:47 by Alabama in 2009.
- The seven combined field goals (3 by Georgia, 4 by Texas) is a championship game record. LSU (3) and Tennessee (2) combined for five in 2001.
- Georgia tied the championship game record with six sacks set by LSU versus Georgia in 2003. Mykel Williams tied the individual sack mark with two done 12 times.
- The 32 combined points was the lowest scoring championship game after four quarters. The previous low was 33 in 2002 when Georgia beat Arkansas, 30-3.

Alabama - C.J. Mosley, Linebacker, 2010-13

C.J. Mosley was one of the most decorated linebackers in Alabama history, playing in 51 games from 2010 to 2013 and helping lead the Crimson Tide to national championships in 2011 and 2012. A three-year starter, he earned consensus All-America honors in 2012 and was a unanimous All-American in 2013. That same year, Mosley won the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and was named SEC Defensive Player of the Year. He ranks third all-time in tackles at Alabama with 319. Selected 17th overall by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2014 NFL Draft, Mosley played 10 seasons in the NFL, including with the New York Jets, earning five Pro Bowl selections, multiple All-Pro honors, and a spot on the NFL All-Rookie Team. Off the field, Mosley earned a public health degree from Alabama and now co-leads Legacy Trust Sports Group, mentoring athletes and supporting their professional development.

Arkansas - Kenoy Kennedy, Safety, 1996-99

Kenoy Kennedy was a standout safety for the Arkansas Razorbacks from 1996 to 1999, known for his physical style and leadership. Over four years, he totaled 287 tackles and led the team in tackles in both 1998 (95) and 1999 (98), also leading in pass breakups with 10 in 1999. Kennedy earned second-team All-SEC honors in 1998, and first-team All-SEC and third-team All-America honors in 1999. His impact was recognized by his inclusion on the Razorbacks' All-Decade Team for the 1990s and his 2014 induction into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor. Kennedy was drafted 45th overall by the Denver Broncos in the 2000 NFL Draft. He played eight NFL seasons, five with the Broncos and three with the Detroit Lions, compiling 536 tackles and 10 interceptions. His toughness and consistency made him a reliable defender at both the college and professional levels.

Auburn - Cam Newton, Quarterback, 2010

Cam Newton is one of the most decorated players in Auburn and Southeastern Conference history. In 2010, Newton led Auburn to a perfect 14-0 record, winning both the SEC and BCS National Championships. A native of College Park, Georgia, he became the third Auburn player to win the Heisman Trophy and also won the Walter Camp, Maxwell, Manning, and Davey O'Brien awards. The Associated Press National Player of the Year, Newton threw for 2,854 yards and 30 touchdowns while rushing for 1,473 yards and 20 touchdowns, plus a receiving touchdown. He was the first SEC player to pass for over 2,000 yards and rush for more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Newton played 11 NFL seasons, earning Rookie of the Year in 2011 and MVP in 2015, leading the Carolina Panthers to Super Bowl 50. Newton became the fourth player in Auburn history to have his number retired on October 11, 2025.

Florida - Brandon Spikes, Linebacker, 2006-09

Brandon Spikes, a Shelby, North Carolina native, is a standout figure in SEC history, known for his grit, leadership, and commitment to growth. As a dominant linebacker at the University of Florida, he led the Gators to two National Championships (2006, 2008) and earned three First-Team All-American and All-SEC honors. In 47 games (39 starts), he tallied 307 tackles, 31.5 tackles for loss, six sacks, and a school-record four pick-sixes. A finalist for the Butkus, Bednarik, and Nagurski Awards, Spikes anchored one of the SEC's most feared defenses. Drafted by the New England Patriots in 2010, he played six NFL seasons with the Patriots and Bills, amassing 349 tackles, six forced fumbles, and 20 tackles for loss. After retiring, he returned to UF to complete his undergraduate degree and is now pursuing an MBA at the Warrington College of Business. As Director of Player Development for GatorMade, he mentors student-athletes in leadership, purpose, and professional success.

Georgia - Randy Johnson, Offensive Guard, 1973-75

Randy Johnson, a native of Rome, Georgia, was a standout offensive lineman at the University of Georgia in the mid-1970s. A three-year starter, he earned consensus All-American honors in 1975 and was twice named First Team All-SEC. That year, he also won the Jacobs Blocking Award and was recognized as SEC Lineman of the Year. Known for his power and technique, Johnson was praised by coach Vince Dooley called him the most naturally gifted blocker he ever coached. Johnson captained the Bulldogs to a 9-3 season and a 1976 Cotton Bowl appearance. Drafted by the Seattle Seahawks in 1976, he played three seasons in the NFL. After completing his degree in Health and Physical Education in 1984, he dedicated 30 years to teaching and coaching before his retirement. Johnson was inducted into Georgia's Circle of Honor in 2021 and is also a member of the Floyd County Hall of Fame.

2025 SEC FOOTBALL LEGENDS CLASS

Kentucky - Jacob Tamme, Tight End, 2004-07

Jacob Tamme was a standout tight end at the University of Kentucky, earning All-America as a senior and All-SEC as a junior and senior. He finished his college career with 133 receptions, 1,417 yards, and 11 touchdowns—ranking first in UK history and second in SEC history for catches by a tight end. Tamme helped lead Kentucky to wins over Clemson, Florida State, and No. 1 LSU. He was recognized for his leadership with the Bobby Bowden Award and named UK's Most Inspirational Player. A top student, he was an Academic All-American and SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Tamme played nine NFL seasons (2008–2016), appearing in the Super Bowl with the Colts, Broncos, and Falcons. Off the field, he co-founded the “Swings for Soldiers Classic,” supporting injured veterans, runs Tamme Valley Farm, and works in wealth management. He also serves on the Board of Governors for Champions Blue, the new management model for UK Athletics.

LSU - Tyrann Mathieu, Cornerback, 2010-11

Tyrann Mathieu made a huge impact in just two years at LSU, becoming one of college football's most dynamic defensive players. As a sophomore in 2011, he was a unanimous first-team All-American, won the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player, and was named SEC Defensive Player of the Year. He finished fifth in Heisman Trophy voting—a rare feat for a defensive back—and was MVP of the SEC Championship Game after returning a punt for a touchdown. Known for his play-making ability, Mathieu forced a school-record 11 career fumbles and scored four defensive touchdowns. He also excelled as a punt returner and led LSU to multiple big wins, including an SEC title. Mathieu played 12 NFL seasons, drafted in the third round by Arizona in 2013. He appeared in 180 games with 171 starts, winning a Super Bowl with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2019. A three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowler, Mathieu retired in 2025 with 838 tackles and 36 interceptions.

Ole Miss – William “Bill” Smith, Punter, 1983-86

William “Bill” Smith was one of the most dominant punters in college football history. A native of Little Rock, Arkansas, Smith starred at Ole Miss, where he earned All-America honors in 1985 and 1986, and was named to the All-SEC team for three consecutive years from 1984 to 1986. Known for his booming leg, Smith averaged an impressive 44.3 yards on 254 career punts. He set an NCAA record with a 50-yard punt in 32 consecutive games and remains No. 2 in SEC history for career 50-yard punts (86) and games averaging 40 or more yards (36). His 92-yard punt and 84.5-yard single-game average against Southern Miss in 1984 still stand as SEC records. Smith capped his college career with appearances in the Senior Bowl and the Blue-Gray Game. Though he didn't make a lasting mark in the NFL, he was later honored with a spot in the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame in 2016.

Mississippi State - Gabe Jackson, Offensive Guard, 2009-13

Gabe Jackson is one of the most accomplished offensive linemen in Mississippi State history. A four-year starter at left guard from 2010 to 2013, Jackson started all 52 games of his college career—demonstrating both durability and dominance. Widely regarded as the top guard prospect for the 2014 NFL Draft, he earned first-team All-America honors from Bleacher Report and second-team selections from Walter Camp, USA Today, and Athlon Sports. Jackson was twice named first-team All-SEC and, as a senior, anchored an offensive line that powered a record-setting MSU offense. That season, he did not allow a single sack and earned the C Spire Conerly Trophy, awarded to Mississippi's top collegiate player—a rare honor for an offensive lineman. Selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders, Jackson enjoyed a 10-year NFL career, starting 132 of 136 games. Known for his consistency, he never allowed more than five sacks in a season and played for the Raiders, Seahawks, and Panthers.

Missouri - Mitch Morse, Offensive Lineman, 2010-14

Mitch Morse established himself as one of the most versatile and consistent offensive linemen in University of Missouri history. After redshirting in 2010, the Austin, Texas, native appeared in all 13 games in 2011, earning First-Team Academic All-Big 12 honors. From 2012 to 2014, Morse displayed rare versatility, starting at center, right tackle, and left tackle as Mizzou made back-to-back SEC Championship Game appearances. His senior season at left tackle earned him All-SEC honors, capping a college career that also included three SEC Academic Honor Roll selections and recognition on the SEC Community Service Team. Known for both his intelligence and leadership, Morse was a pillar of Missouri's offensive line and academic community. Morse was selected in the second round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs and went on to start all 143 games of his 10-year career. He earned a Pro Bowl nod in 2022 with the Buffalo Bills and finished his career in 2024 with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Oklahoma - Lucious Selmon, Nose Guard, 1970-73

Lucious Selmon, the eldest of the iconic Selmon brothers, left an enduring legacy at the University of Oklahoma. From 1971 to 1973, he was a cornerstone of a dominant Sooner defense, helping lead OU to an outstanding 32-2-1 record. A two-time first-team All-Big Eight selection, Selmon earned unanimous All-America honors in 1973 and was named the Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year. That season, he also finished seventh in Heisman Trophy voting—a rare feat for a defensive lineman. With 255 tackles and 31 tackles for loss, he finished tied for first all-time among OU defensive linemen in both categories. Selmon played a key role in back-to-back Big Eight titles and Sugar Bowl wins, and later gave back to the program as an assistant coach for 19 seasons. He was drafted by the New England Patriots in 1974 and later coached with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1995–2002, contributing to multiple playoff runs.

South Carolina - Connor Shaw, Quarterback, 2010-13

Connor Shaw, the winningest quarterback in South Carolina history, left an enduring legacy during his career from 2010 to 2013. A native of Flowery Branch, Georgia, Shaw posted a remarkable 27-5 record as a starter, including a perfect 17-0 mark at Williams-Brice Stadium. He ranks in the top 10 in eight major career categories at USC, including first in touchdowns responsible for and second in passing touchdowns. Known for his accuracy and toughness, Shaw delivered some of the program's most iconic performances—such as completing 20 straight passes in a 2012 win over Missouri and leading a dramatic comeback against #5 Missouri in 2013 despite injury. In his final game, the Capital One Bowl, he accounted for five touchdowns and earned MVP honors. Shaw's NFL career, which included time with the Cleveland Browns and Chicago Bears, was shortened by injury. He later returned to South Carolina in key staff roles and now works as a consultant, remaining closely connected to his alma mater.

Tennessee - Kevin Burnett, Linebacker, 2000-04

Kevin Burnett was a standout linebacker and inspirational leader at the University of Tennessee from 2000–04. A two-time team captain, he helped guide the Volunteers to back-to-back 10-win seasons, including the 2004 SEC Eastern Division title and a dominant 38-7 Cotton Bowl win over Texas A&M. That season, he earned first-team All-American and All-SEC honors, finishing with 120 tackles and ranking third in the SEC in tackles per game. Burnett also shined in 2003, earning second-team All-SEC and leading Tennessee to the Peach Bowl after key wins over Florida and Alabama. He concluded his college career with 274 tackles, 14 tackles for loss, and eight sacks, and was a semifinalist for both the Butkus and Bednarik Awards. Off the field, Burnett was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member and earned both undergraduate and master's degrees.

Texas - Derrick Johnson, Linebacker, 2001-04

Derrick Johnson is one of the most decorated defensive players in University of Texas history. From 2001 to 2004, he helped lead the Longhorns to four straight double-digit win seasons, three top-six national finishes, and victories in the Holiday, Cotton, and Rose Bowls. A two-time consensus All-American and three-time All-Big 12 first-teamer, Johnson earned the 2004 Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Butkus Award as the nation's top defensive player and linebacker, respectively. He finished his career with 458 tackles (No. 3 in school history), 65 tackles for loss (No. 1), and 30 pass breakups—still a record for Texas linebackers. Johnson also made big plays in big moments, recording 175 tackles in 18 games against ranked opponents. Drafted 15th overall by the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005, Johnson spent 13 of his 14 NFL seasons with the franchise, becoming its all-time leading tackler. Off the field, he founded the Defend the Dream Foundation, impacting thousands of students through educational outreach and library makeovers.

Texas A&M - R.C. Slocum, Texas A&M, 1989-2002

R.C. Slocum, the winningest coach in Texas A&M history, led the Aggies from 1989 to 2002, compiling a 123-47-2 record over 14 seasons. Known for his disciplined teams and defensive strength, Slocum guided A&M to four conference titles, including the 1998 Big 12 Championship, and remains the winningest coach by percentage in Southwest Conference history. A two-time consensus National Coach of the Year finalist, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012. His leadership extended beyond the field, with 53 years of service in college athletics, including two stints as Texas A&M's interim Director of Athletics. Slocum also served on the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and held leadership roles in the American Football Coaches Association. Off the field, he's been deeply involved in philanthropy, supporting organizations like MD Anderson, Make-A-Wish, and Special Olympics. Honored with the 2023 HALO Award, Slocum is celebrated not just as a coach, but as a mentor, leader, and community builder.

Vanderbilt - Jordan Matthews, Vanderbilt, 2010-13

Jordan Matthews is one of the most accomplished wide receivers in Vanderbilt football history. From 2010 to 2013, he rewrote the program's record books, setting career marks for receptions, receiving yards, and touchdown catches—records that still stand. A two-time first-team All-SEC selection and team captain in 2013, Matthews earned All-America honors from multiple outlets, including USA Today and the Associated Press. Known for his consistency and clutch play, he holds school records for most 100-yard receiving games in both a single season and career. Matthews capped his stellar college career as MVP of the 2013 BBVA Compass Bowl and represented Vanderbilt at the 2014 Senior Bowl. Selected 42nd overall in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, Matthews went on to play 11 seasons in the NFL with four organizations. His professional career was marked by steady production, and he remained a respected presence on and off the field throughout his time in the league. Matthews returned to Vanderbilt as an offensive consultant in 2025.

PRESS RELEASE

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE ANNOUNCES 2026-29 FOOTBALL OPPONENTS

BIRMINGHAM, Alabama (September 23, 2025) – The Southeastern Conference on Tuesday announced the opponents and sites for SEC football games for the 2026 through 2029 seasons.

The SEC announced in August it would play a nine-game conference schedule starting with the 2026 season. In the new format, each SEC school will play every other SEC school at least once every two years, and every opponent home and away over four years, making it the most fair and balanced schedule in the history of the Conference.

Under the new format, each school will play three annual opponents focused on maintaining many traditional rivalries and each team's remaining six games will rotate among the remaining conference schools. The SEC will continue with a single-standings, non-divisional structure.

Annual Opponents

- Annual opponents were determined with consideration given to traditional rivalries, competitive fairness, geography and alignment with existing non-conference home/away commitments
- Annual opponents will be evaluated after each four-year cycle to maintain continued competitive balance

Rotating Opponents

- The remaining six conference games will come from a rotating pool of the other conference teams
- The rotating schedule is designed so that a team will play every other conference opponent at least once every two years and twice (once at home and once away) over a four-year period

Balance

- With nine conference games, eight schools will play five home games each season and eight schools will play four home games
- Home/away determination was made with the intent of providing seven home games for each school while balancing existing home/away commitments to annual non-conference rivalry games.
- To meet the scheduling priorities established by the conference and its members, the 2026 conference schedule includes cases where schools play at the same venue in back-to-back years. This has occurred in the past when the SEC has changed football scheduling formats.

In addition to the conference opponents, SEC teams are required to schedule at least one additional high quality non-conference opponent from the Atlantic Coast, Big Ten or Big 12 conferences or Notre Dame each season.

The complete 2026 SEC Football Schedule to include dates of games will be announced later this year.

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference is a leader on the national landscape for intercollegiate athletics in the 21st century. Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. These university leaders determine the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its 82-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been in the SEC since its formation in 1933. The league has expanded three times, adding Arkansas and South Carolina in 1991, then Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012, then Oklahoma and Texas in 2024.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

- Men's Basketball – Florida
- Men's Swimming and Diving – Texas
- Gymnastics – Oklahoma
- Equestrian – Georgia
- Women's Tennis – Georgia
- Softball – Texas
- Men's Outdoor Track & Field – Texas A&M
- Women's Outdoor Track & Field – Georgia
- Baseball – LSU

SEC HIGHLIGHTS IN 2024-25

- The SEC placed three teams in the inaugural 12-team College Football Playoff
- The SEC finished the 2024 season as the most-watched conference in college football for a third-straight year. The SEC was also No. 1 in average audience for the 14th consecutive year.
- The SEC also led the nation's conferences in NFL Draft picks for the 19th consecutive year in 2025 with 79 selections, a record for a single conference.
- The SEC set a conference record with 24 combined men's and women's basketball teams earning bids to the NCAA Tournament. This year a record 14 men's teams and 10 women's teams made the field. The previous record of 16 was set in 2024.
- In men's basketball, all 16 SEC teams have made at least one NCAA Tournament appearance since 2022.
- In women's tennis, Georgia and Texas A&M made it an all SEC national championship match for the second consecutive year.
- Rowing became the 22nd sport sponsored by the Southeastern Conference.
- Texas won the fourth overall national championship for the SEC in softball and the first since 2015.
- Texas A&M shared the NCAA men's outdoor title and Georgia claimed the women's outdoor championship. The SEC has now won 5 consecutive men's crowns and 3 women's titles in the last 4 years.
- LSU won the SEC's 17th national championship in baseball. It was the SEC's sixth consecutive baseball national championship by 5 different programs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE CAREER TOUR

Thirty-one Southeastern Conference student-athletes participated in the ninth SEC Career Tour in Atlanta. The goal of the career tour is to provide exposure for SEC student-athletes who are seeking career opportunities in various fields. The program allows student-athletes to connect with human resource recruiters and submit resumes for jobs and gain valuable knowledge of professional branding.

SEC IN NCAA'S TOP 10

Three SEC student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA's prestigious Top 10 Award, more than any other conference. The award recognizes former student-athletes for their successes in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

- Kiki Malloy, Tennessee, Softball
- Marc Anthony Minichello, Georgia and Pennsylvania, Men's outdoor track & field
- Cassie Pruitt, Auburn, Women's gymnastics

These individuals were honored at the NCAA Convention in January. The Today's Top 10 awardees were selected by the NCAA Honors Committee, composed of representatives from NCAA member schools and conferences, as well as nationally distinguished citizens, including past awardees.

SEC AMONG HONDA AWARD WINNERS

- Jordan Bowers, Gymnastics, Oklahoma
- Aaliyah Butler, Track & Field, Georgia
- Maria José Marin, Golf, Arkansas
- Doris Lemngole, Cross Country, Alabama
- Darja Vidmanova, Tennis, Georgia

BEST OF THE BEST

Winners of the highest honors in their respective sports:

- The Bowerman (top women's collegiate track & field athlete for 2024) – Parker Valby, Florida
- USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year for 2025 – Bri Ellis, Arkansas
- Golden Spikes Award (top amateur baseball player in 2025) – Wehiwa Aloy, Arkansas
- ITA Men's National Player of the Year – Timo Legout, Texas
- Men's Basketball Sporting News National College Player of the Year – Johni Broome, Auburn

SEC HALL OF FAMERS LIGHT UP VEGAS

Three former players from SEC schools, and a former SEC coach and commissioner were among the inductees in the 2024 class of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame during ceremonies held in Las Vegas in December.

- Tim Couch, Kentucky
- Dan Hampton, Arkansas
- Antonio Langham, Alabama
- Dewey Selmon, Oklahoma
- Kevin Smith, Texas A&M

In addition, Alabama's Jalen Milroe was honored as a National Scholar Athlete and finalist for the Campbell Trophy, widely recognized as the "Academic Heisman."

TOP DRAFT PICKS

The SEC provided high draft choices in professional sports drafts in football, basketball and baseball.

- NBA 2025: The SEC led all conferences with 13 players selected in the 2025 NBA Draft. Those 13 players represented nine different schools.
- MLB 2025: The SEC led all conferences with 107 players selected in the 2025 MLB Draft. No other conference had more than 61 players drafted, and all 30 Major League clubs drafted at least one SEC player.
- WNBA 2025: Ten SEC players were selected in the 2025 WNBA Draft, including three of the top-9.
- NFL 2025: The SEC led the nation's conferences in NFL Draft picks for the 19th consecutive year in 2025 with 79 selections. The 15SEC selections in the opening round tied for the most in the history of the NFL Draft.

SEC CONTRIBUTION TO PROFESSIONAL SPORTS

The SEC continues to be a training ground for professional sports

- NFL - A total of 439 players from SEC schools, which led all conferences, were listed on NFL active rosters during the opening weekend of the 2024 season.
- NBA - 103 players from SEC schools were on NBA opening day rosters, the most of any conference
- WNBA – A total of 26 former SEC players were on WNBA opening day rosters in 2025. Nine WNBA teams had at last one former SEC player on its roster.
- MLB - A total of 80 players formerly from the SEC's 16 schools were named to Major League Baseball opening day rosters. That was 17 more than any other conference.

LEADERS IN ATTENDANCE

- SEC Football has led the nation in football attendance for 26 consecutive seasons and enjoys over a 13 thousand per game and half million overall edge over its next closest conference peer. The SEC's average attendance (79,805) was nearly 3,000 more per game than 2023, a season which saw the highest average attendance in the league since 2016. The SEC is up nearly 10% over the last three seasons.
- SEC Men's Basketball led the nation in 2025 by averaging 11,648 fans per game. The SEC ranked second nationally in overall attendance with a conference record 3,168,245 fans attending games during the 2025 regular season. The top 3 attendance leaders in men's basketball in 2025 were from the SEC. Kentucky led the nation with a total attendance of 366,007 (20,334 average), Arkansas ranked second with 341,935 fans (18,996 average) and Tennessee was third with 340,436 fans (20,026 average).
- SEC Women's Basketball has led all conferences in total attendance 10 times, including 6 consecutive years (2015-2020). Overall, the league has had over a million in a season 6 times.
- SEC Baseball has led the nation in attendance 28 years in a row. Total attendance for games on SEC campuses totaled a record 3.5 million. Excluding the shortened 2020 season and reduced capacities of the 2021 seasons, total baseball home attendance on SEC campuses exceeded the 2 million mark for the 13th consecutive seasons in 2025.
- SEC Softball led the nation in attendance with more than 840,000 fans, over 100,000 more than the other three major conferences combined. The SEC had 11 of the top 15 school in national after attendance, including 4 of the top 5 (Alabama, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas A&M). The Sooners led the nation in average attendance with 3,705 fans per home game, followed by the Crimson Tide (3,632) and the Razorbacks (3,023).
- SEC Soccer led the nation during the 2024 season in attendance by averaging 1,425 fans per game and in total attendance (245,062). The SEC has had at least five teams rank in the Top 25 nationally in attendance in 11 of the last 13 years (not counting the COVID affected 2020 campaign).

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF CROWNS THE NATIONAL CHAMPION IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL.
BELOW IS EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO BE READY FOR THE POSTSEASON.

The College Football Playoff Selection Committee will rank the top 25 teams.

The 12 participating teams will be the five highest-ranked conference champions, plus the next seven highest-ranked teams.

SEEDING

The top four teams in the CFP Selection Committee final rankings will be seeded 1-4 and receive a first-round bye. The remaining teams will be seeded 5-12 based on their final ranking.

If any of the five highest ranked conference champions falls outside of the top 12, they will be seeded at the bottom of the 12-team pool.
