THE LAST TIME VS. ARKANSAS

AUBURN 33; ARKANSAS 24

Rayshawn Pleasant intercepted two fourth-quarter passes, returning the first for a go-ahead touchdown and securing Auburn's 33-24 victory with his second on a soggy Saturday at Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Alex McPherson kicked a career-high six field goals, the Tigers forced four turnovers in the final 15 minutes and outscored Arkansas 17-0 in the fourth quarter to earn their first SEC victory.

Trailing 21-10 at the half, the Tigers turned to quarterback Ashton Daniels, who made his Auburn debut.

After Pleasant returned the opening kick of ther second half 49 yards, Jeremiah Cobb rushed for 20 yards on the next play, going over the 100-yard mark on the drive for the second straight game and the fourth time this season, finishing with career highs of 28 carries and 153 yards.

Auburn advanced to the Razorbacks' 4-yard line but had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by McPherson, trimming Arkansas' lead to 21-13.

Auburn's defense forced a three-and-out, then Justin Jones blocked the Razorbacks' punt, giving the Tigers excellent field position at the Arkansas 43-yard line.

Daniels rushed for 15 yards to set up McPheron's 43-yard field goal, pulling the Tigers within one score at 21-16 with 5:05 left in the third quarter.

Arkansas answered with a 27-yard FG after a 50-yard completion to lead 24-16 with 57 seconds left in the third.

On the last play of the quarter, Daniels connected with Eric Singleton Jr. for a 48-yard gain to the Razorbacks' 25.

For the third time in the second half, Auburn's drive ended short of the goal line, leading to McPherson's career-best fourth field goal, a 26-yarder, cutting the Razorbacks' lead to 24-19 with 12:03 to play.

After showing blitz, Auburn dropped eight in pass coverage, with Pleasant intercepting Taylen Green's pass and returning it 49 yards for a pick-six that gave Auburn a 27-24 lead with 9:15 remaining.

Xavier Atkins punctuated his otherworldly performance by forcing a fumble after an Arkansas completion that Sylvester Smith recovered and returned 23 yards, setting up McPherson's 47-yard field goal, his fifth of the game, giving Auburn a 30-24 lead with 6:23 to play.

Atkins led Auburn with 13 tackles, two sacks, four tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Needing a touchdown to take the lead, Arkansas went to the air, but Pleasant was there again, picking off Green at Auburn's 45 and returning it 17 yards, setting up McPherson's final field goal, a 37-yarder with 1:06 to play.

Arkansas elected to receive after winning the toss, a decision that backfired for the Razorbacks when Bobby Jamison-Travis tackled Mike Washington for a 3-yard loss on fourth down at Auburn's 33-yard line.

The Tigers converted on fourth-and-1 from their own 42, picking up 14 yards on Cobb's run up the middle.

Scoring on its first possession for the third straight game, Auburn then took a 7-0 lead on Cam Coleman's spectacular one-handed 23-yard touchdown catch on a well-placed pass from Jackson Arnold midway through the first quarter.

Atkins ended Arkansas' second possession with his sixth sack of the season, knocking the Razorbacks out of FG range.

Pinned at its own 6-yard line after a short Arkansas punt, Auburn put together a 15-play, 76-yard drive, taking a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter on McPherson's 36-yard field goal with 12:05 remaining in the first half.

The Razorbacks responded with a 58-yard catch-and-run from Green to Raylen Sharpe, trimming the Tigers' lead to 10-7.

After Auburn went three-and-out, Arkansas quickly capitalized, opening the drive with a 36-yard pass and taking a 14-10 lead on Braylen Russell's 2-yard touchdown run with 5:24 left in the half.

With a chance to take the lead before half, Cobb opened the drive with a 19-yard run, adding two more 10-yard gains to help the Tigers reach the 15-yard line.

After eight consecutive rushes gained 60 yards, disaster struck when Kani Walker intercepted Arnold's pass and returned it 89 yards for a pick-six that gave Arkansas a 21-10 halftime lead.

Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium, the nation's 11th-largest on-campus stadium with a capacity of 88,043, is in its 83rd year as home to the Auburn Tigers.

On football Saturdays in Auburn, Jordan-Hare Stadium becomes Alabama's sixth-largest city. A record number of 63,500 season tickets were sold before the 2023 and 2024 seasons.

The stadium is named for Ralph "Shug" Jordan, Auburn's all-time winningest football coach, and Clifford Leroy Hare, a member of Auburn's first football team, president of the old Southern Conference and longtime chairman of Auburn's Faculty Athletic Committee.

Legendary coach Pat Dye has also had his name forever attached to Jordan-Hare Stadium, as the turf officially became known as Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium prior to the 2005 Iron Bowl. Dye, who served as coach and athletics director at Auburn (1981-92) and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame (2005), led Auburn to a 99-39-4 record and four SEC titles in his 12 seasons on the Plains.

Auburn's current string of 26 consecutive sellout crowds at Jordan-Hare Stadium, including the Mercer game, breaks the previous program record streak of 17 consecutive sellout crowds, set between the 2013 Georgia game and the 2016 Clemson game.

What is now Jordan-Hare Stadium was dedicated November 30, 1939, at the Auburn-Florida game. Babe McGehee, who passed away in 2005, scored the first touchdown in what was then called "Auburn Stadium," by catching a pass from Dick McGowen. McGowen, who later coached at Auburn under Jordan, kicked the extra point and Auburn tied Florida, 7-7.

That first stadium held 7,500 seats and consisted of what is now the bottom part of the lower west stands. When the stadium was renamed "Cliff Hare Stadium" in 1949, 14,000 seats—the present lower east stands—had been added, raising capacity to 21,500.

Jordan became head coach in 1951 and the stadium underwent three major expansions in 15 years. More than 40,000 seats, virtually half of the stadium's present capacity, were added while Jordan was the coach.

Cliff Hare Stadium became Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973. It was the first stadium in the country to be named for an active coach.

Overall, Auburn has played 467 games in Jordan-Hare Stadium, winning 355, losing 105 and tying seven for a winning percentage of .767 against some of the best teams in college football.

ALEX GOLESH ›› HEAD COACH

Alex Golesh, widely regarded as one of college football's premier offensive minds, has been named Auburn's 33rd head coach following three transformative seasons at South Florida.

With Auburn's 27-24 win over Georgia on Oct. 17, 2026, Golesh became one of only nine active coaches with a victory over the Associated Press No. 1 ranked team.

The 2025 campaign showcased Golesh's offensive brilliance as USF posted a 9-3 record and ranked among the nation's elite in multiple categories. The Bulls finished No. 2 nationally in total offense (501.7 yards per game) and No. 5 in scoring (43.0 points per game), posting 500-plus yards in eight of nine regular season games. Under his guidance, quarterback Byrum Brown became just the 12th player in FBS history to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in a single season.

South Florida's resurgence included a return to the AP Top 25 for the first time since 2018 and consecutive victories over ranked opponents—defeating Boise State and Florida to open the season—a program first. The Bulls ranked in the top 25 of 20 national statistical categories spanning offense, defense, and special teams.

Golesh engineered a remarkable turnaround at USF, compiling 23 wins over three seasons after the Bulls won just four games in the prior three years. His 2023 debut produced the largest single-season improvement in school history, jumping from 1-11 to 7-6, including a historic 45-0 bowl victory over Syracuse—the largest shutout in NCAA bowl history. He became the first coach to lead USF to bowl eligibility in his first three seasons, earning postseason victories in both 2023 and 2024.

Prior to USF, Golesh coordinated Tennessee's explosive offense from 2021-22, transforming the Vols from No. 108 nationally in total offense to No. 1 in 2022. His unit led the country in scoring, total offense, and yards per play while coaching Biletnikoff Award winner Jalin Hyatt and Maxwell Award finalist Hendon Hooker. The performance earned him Broyles Award finalist recognition.

His coaching journey includes successful stints at Iowa State, UCF, Illinois, and Toledo, consistently elevating programs through elite recruiting and player development. Born in Moscow, Russia, and raised in Ohio, Golesh earned his bachelor's degree from Ohio State in 2006. He and his wife Alexis have two children, Corbin and Barrett.

GAME 1 // AUBURN 17, BAYLOR 16 // SEPT. 5, 2026 // ABC // MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM (55,068) // ATLANTA, GA.

Byrum Brown's tie-breaking 11-yard touchdown run gave Auburn a late lead and Eric Winters secured the victory with a game-saving, goal-line tackle to give the Tigers a dramatic 17-16 victory in Alex Golesh's debut Saturday in the Aflac Kickoff Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

After Baylor tied the score at 10-10 with a field goal with 4:34 to play, Brown led Auburn on a 10-play, 75-yard drive, scrambling and finding Chas Nimrod for 26 yards on third-and-5 to the Bears' 18-yard line.

Three plays later from the shotgun, Brown raced to his left and powered into the end zone from 11 yards out for the decisive points, thrilling the Auburn fans who comprised the vast majority of the 55,068 in attendance.

Baylor did not go down without a fight. Facing fourth-and-10, quarterback DJ Lagway found Gavin Freeman for 28 yards to the Tigers' 36-yard line with two minutes remaining. Lagway hit another deep pass down the middle for 27 years to give Baylor first-and-goal at Auburn's 4-yard line. Three plays later, on fourth-and-goal from the 5, Lagway found Freeman for a touchdown that pulled the Bears within one point with 11 seconds to play.

Passing up an opportunity for overtime, Baylor went for the win from 3 yards out. Lagway completed a short pass, but Winters' textbook takedown of Matthew Klopfenstein inches from the goal line saved the day for Auburn.

Preseason All-American Xavier Atkins needed only two plays to impact the game, sacking Lagway for a 7-yard loss. The Bears converted two third-and-longs to cross midfield, but on third-and-2, Winters forced a Lagway fumble that Kaleb Harris recovered at the Tigers' 29-yard line for Auburn's first takeaway.

The Tigers converted the turnover into points on consecutive completions to Jake Johnson for 10 yards and Jeremiah Koger for 30 to set up Alex McPherson's 43-yard field goal. McPherson's 15th consecutive make gave Auburn a 3-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Auburn's defense forced another turnover on Baylor's second possession when edge Jared Smith dropped in coverage and intercepted Lagway at the Tigers' 40-yard line. In the second quarter, Auburn drove 57 yards for its first touchdown of the season. Brown completed to Singleton for 15 yards on third-and-8, then Bryce Cain gained 25 yards on a reverse to set up Jeremiah Cobb's 15-yard touchdown run, giving the Tigers a 10-0 lead with 3:51 remaining in the half.

Baylor converted on fourth-and-3 from its 46-yard line on a 15-yard completion from Lagway to Louis Brown IV. Four plays later, those two teamed up again for a 14-yard touchdown that trimmed Auburn's lead to 10-7 with 1:30 left in the half. Auburn drove 57 yards to the Bears' 18-yard line, but Brown's second interception of the quarter ended the possession in the closing seconds of the half.

The Tigers' defense began the second half with a three-and-out and Auburn's offense followed with a 12-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a missed field goal attempt.

Baylor then moved 58 yards to Auburn's 16-yard line before Rayshawn Pleasant broke up a pass on fourth-and 2 to preserve the Tigers' lead.

GAME 2 // AUBURN 43, SOUTHERN MISS 8 // SEPT. 12, 2026 // SEC NETWORK // JORDAN-HARE STADIUM (88,043) // AUBURN, ALA.

Andre Jordan Jr. scored the fastest touchdown in modern Auburn history, returning an interception for a score on the game's first play to help the Tigers defeat Southern Miss 43-8 Saturday in Kickoff on The Plains at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

After nearby lightning pushed back the kickoff almost an hour, Jordan intercepted an overthrown pass and returned it 20 yards for a pick six after only 10 seconds had elapsed. Unblocked defensive lineman Dallas Walker IV pressured Southern Miss quarterback Ethan Hampton to cause the errant throw for a 7-0 Auburn lead.

Byrum Brown put Auburn ahead 14-0 on a 22-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jonathan Echols, who raced past Southern Miss's linebackers undetected and was all alone at the 5-yard line when he caught Brown's pass.

Jordan made his second career interception on USM's fourth down pass late in the opening quarter, setting up Alex McPherson's 47-yard field goal that gave Auburn a 17-0 lead. Brown and Jeremiah Koger teamed up for Auburn's longest play of the game, a 45-yard completion.

Three plays later, DeShawn Spencer made his first Auburn touchdown catch midway through the second quarter when Brown rolled to his right and found the freshman in the end zone to put the Tigers on top 24-0.

After the visitors put together a 14-play, 75-yard touchdown drive and scored with 24 seconds left in the first half, Brown completed three passes for 33 yards in 16 seconds, advancing to the Golden Eagles' 38-yard line.

From there, McPherson kicked a career-long 55-yard field goal as the half expired, tying for the fifth longest in program history, giving Auburn a 27-8 halftime lead.

Brown showcased his receiving skills in the second half, catching a 5-yard touchdown pass from Christian Neptune for a 34-8 Auburn advantage with 9:56 remaining in the third quarter.Brown completed 18 of 29 passes for 226 yards and two touchdowns, adding 88 rushing yards on 13 carries.

Auburn's defense produced two more points when Cody Sigler pressured USM's quarterback into an intentional grounding penalty from the Golden Eagles' end zone for a safety.

Omar Mabson II's second career touchdown, a 2-yarder with nine seconds to play in the third quarter, gave Auburn a 43-8 lead. Mabson eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the first time in his career, leading the Tigers with 108 rushing yards on 15 carries.

Linebacker Elijah Melendez led Auburn with six tackles, including a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss, a pass breakup and two quarterback hurries.

AUBURN - Womack 1-8

GAME 4 // AUBURN 21, VANDERBILT 15 // SEPT. 26, 2026 // SEC NETWORK // JORDAN-HARE STADIUM (88,043) // AUBURN, ALA.

A special teams touchdown, two timely quick-strike scoring drives and a defense that held Vanderbilt to only one touchdown carried Auburn to a 21-15 win over the Commodores Saturday at sold-out Jordan-Hare Stadium, the Tigers' 35th consecutive Homecoming victory.

After Vanderbilt kicked its third field goal to pull within six points with 6:26 left in the game, Auburn ran out the clock, picking up a vital first down on 20-yard pass from Byrum Brown to Keshaun Singleton on third-and-5.

After another Auburn first down, Jeremiah Cobb gained 21 yards to get to the two-minute timeout, and the Tigers ran out the clock from there with Vanderbilt out of timeouts.

With Auburn leading 14-3 at the half, Vanderbilt opened the third quarter with a 14-play, 75-yard drive that consumed 7 minutes and 53 seconds, converting twice on fourth-and-1 with quarterback runs and scoring on Sedrick Alexander's 3-yard touchdown run.

Auburn forced an incompletion on Vanderbilt's two-point attempt, giving Auburn a 14-9 lead with 7:07 remaining in the third quarter. Auburn answered with its own 75-yard touchdown drive, converting on third-and-7 with a 19-yard completion from Brown to Jeremiah Koger.

Cobb picked up 21 yards on the next play, then after a defensive pass interference penalty, Brown scored from the 2 to give Auburn a 21-9 lead with 4:40 to play in the third quarter.

Vanderbilt followed with another time-consuming drive that covered 16 plays and chewed up seven and a half minutes. Auburn held the Commodores to a field goal that preserved the Tigers' two-score lead at 21-12 early in the fourth quarter.

The teams traded three-and-outs on their first possessions, with Xavier Atkins making a third-down sack, one of seven Auburn tackles for loss in the first half. Atkins led the Tigers with eight tackles, including three TFL.

On Auburn's third drive, Brown found Chas Nimrod over the middle for 11 yards on third-and-5 for the Tigers' initial first down.

One play later, Omar Mabson II rushed for 19 yards, Auburn's longest run of the half. On the next play, Brown tossed a 33-yard touchdown pass to Nimrod for a six-play, 75-yard drive that put the Tigers on top 7-3 midway through the first quarter.

Auburn went three-and-out, but the Tigers' punt pinned the Commodores at their 10-yard line.

Vanderbilt picked up two first downs, but the Tigers forced a punt that Mabson blocked and Cade Carlson scooped up at the 10-yard line and returned for a special teams touchdown and a 14-3 halftime lead for Auburn.

GAME 5 // NO. 17 TENNESSEE 24, AUBURN 14 // OCT. 3, 2026 // ESPN // NEYLAND STADIUM (101,915) // KNOXVILLE, TENN.

Auburn forced turnovers on back-to-back plays to take a halftime lead and rallied again in the fourth quarter, but Tennessee's DeSean Bishop scored three touchdowns to lead the No. 17 Volunteers to a 24-14 victory Saturday at Neyland Stadium.

Trailing 17-14 with 8:17 to play in the fourth quarter, Auburn forced a punt and started a drive at its own 5-yard line.

Two Byrum Brown completions picked up 19 yards, but Tennessee stopped Auburn for no gain on third-and-1 and fourth-and-1, and Bishop scored his third touchdown five plays later to clinch the hard-fought win for the home team.

Bishop gained 220 yards on 34 carries, accounting for 68 percent of Tennessee's 323 yards of total offense.

Leading 7-3 at the half, Auburn picked up a first down on the opening drive of the third quarter before Tennessee forced a punt.

Taking over for starter Faizon Brandon, Tennessee backup quarterback George MacIntyre completed his first six pass attempts, including a 42-yarder to Mike Matttews, helping the Volunteers take a 10-7 lead on Bishop's 25-yard touchdown run on Tennessee's first drive of the third quarter.

Auburn used consecutive Omar Mabson II runs to pick up 23 yards and a first down at Tennessee's 39-yard line, but Tennessee's Dejuan Lane returned an interception 32 yards, and Bishop motored 44 yards on the next play to give the Volunteers a 10-point lead with 5:15 to play in the third quarter.

Trailing 17-7 and pinned at its own 6-yard line early in the fourth quarter, Auburn covered 94 yards in just four plays. Mabson gained 21 yards, then Brown rushed for 57 yards, Auburn's longest play of the game. Brown faked a run, then passed to Arlis Boardingham for a 16-yard touchdown to pull the Tigers within three points with 10:57 to play.

Trailing 24-14 in the final minutes, Auburn drove to Tennessee's 12-yard line but an interception ended the opportunity.

Auburn's Da'Shawn Womack set the tone on Tennessee's second possession, recording back-to-back sacks.

Hampered by penalties and poor field position early, Auburn produced only 25 yards of total offense in the first quarter. The Tigers' defense generated four tackles for loss in the opening quarter while holding Tennessee to only 42 yards.

The Volunteers converted on their field position advantage, taking a 3-0 lead on Cooper Ranvier's 36-yard field goal at the 9:51 mark of the second quarter.

Auburn opened its next possession with a 16-yard completion from Brown to Keshaun Singleton for the Tigers' initial first down of the game.

The possession ended three plays later when Tennessee recovered a fumble at midfield.

On third-and-1 from Auburn's 40-yard line, Cody Sigler forced a fumble that Jared Smith recovered to give the Tigers' their best field position to that point.

Tennessee (4-1, 1-1) then forced a punt, which Auburn downed at the 11-yard line. For the second consecutive play, Auburn's defense created a turnover when Xavier Atkins intercepted Faizon Brandon's pass at the Volunteers' 20-yard line. Atkins led the Tigers with 11 tackles while Elijah Melendez added nine.

Two plays later, Brown scrambled to his right, muscled away from three Tennessee rushers in the backfield and outraced two more Vols to the pylon for a spectacular 7-yard touchdown run that gave Auburn a 7-3 lead with 3:48 remaining in the first half.

Brown rushed for 107 yards and a touchdown while Mabson gained 62 yards on 10 carries. Singleton led Auburn with seven receptions for 54 yards.

GAME 6 // AUBURN 27, NO. 1 GEORGIA 24 // OCT. 17, 2026 // ESPN // SANFORD STADIUM (93,033) // ATHENS, GA.

Alex McPherson kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal as time expired and Auburn, led by quarterback Byrum Brown's dominant running game, upset No. 1 Georgia 27-24 on Saturday.

It's the second straight week the top team in the AP Top 25 lost to an unranked foe after then-No. 1 Texas fell to Oklahoma last Saturday. Auburn's win meant the team ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25 lost in consecutive weeks for the first time since October 1990, according to Sportradar.

Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton led a long game-tying touchdown drive in the fourth quarter but lost a fumble with 58 seconds remaining and the Bulldogs driving for a potential go-ahead field goal.

Stockton, who also threw two interceptions, fumbled on a run from the Auburn 46. Safety Sylvester Smith-Reed recovered for the Tigers at the Auburn 44. A roughing-the-passer penalty on Georgia's Gabe Harris Jr. helped set up McPherson's game-winning kick. Auburn players swarmed the field.

Brown ran for 115 yards and a touchdown on 26 carries and added a scoring pass.

Georgia (6-1, 4-1 Southeastern Conference) saw its streaks of nine straight wins over Auburn and 53 consecutive wins over unranked teams come to an end in a loss that also will end the Bulldogs' short one-week stay atop the AP Top 25.

Auburn (4-2, 2-2) beat the Bulldogs on the ground, outrushing Georgia 192-113. Tailback Nate Frazier returned from a rib injury to start for Georgia but was ineffective, gaining only 19 yards on nine carries.

Georgia trailed 24-14 before rallying with a 42-yard field goal by Peyton Woodring. Stockton led a tying touchdown drive that began at the Georgia 6 and covered 94 yards in 13 plays, capped by his 4-yard pass to London Humphreys.

Stockton's two interceptions doubled his previous season total through six games. The Bulldogs also were hurt by mistakes, including three personal foul penalties.

After Georgia took a 14-0 lead, Auburn scored the next 24 points.

Georgia looked dominant in the opening minutes, even after Stockton had to leave after hitting the field helmet-first on the first play of the game. Ryan Puglisi completed each of his three passes, including a 41-yarder to Craig Dandridge Jr., before Dwight Phillips' 15-yard scoring run.

Stockton returned for the next possession and threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to tight end Lawson Luckie for the 14-0 lead.

Auburn responded with a physical run-first attack led by the 235-pound Brown, who was effective both on designed runs and when taking off after dropping back to pass.

Auburn answered with a 12-play, 69-yard drive, converting two third-and-longs and tying the score at 3-3 on Alex McPherson's 23-yard field goal.

LSU picked up a first down on fourth-and-2 from its 31-yard line, then capped a 14-play, 95-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Leavitt to Trey'Dez Green that put the Bengal Tigers ahead 17-3 in the second quarter.

Ole Miss then blocked the extra point, the first missed PAT in Alex McPherson's career. Rebels cornerback Jaylon Braxton recovered the ball and returned it 92 yards before Auburn's Xavier Newsom, showcasing elite effort, tackled Braxton at the 5-yard line, saving two points for the Tigers.

With Auburn trailing 7-6, AnQuon Fegans intercepted a deflected pass to give the Tigers possession at the Rebels' 31-yard line midway through the second quarter.

After Chambliss' quarterback draw gave the Rebels first-and-goal at Auburn's 1-yard, the Tigers' defense forced a 20-yard field goal that preserved a one-possession deficit before Ole Miss scored touchdowns on its next four drives.
