SEC Network has proven time and again that it is one of the most successful launches by a network in all of cable television. It placed the Southeastern Conference, its member institutions and sports teams on an international stage with brand recognition in every corner of the country and around the globe.

That was the vision when the SEC and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multi-platform network, which launched on Aug. 14, 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform, SEC Network+, carries SEC live events and programming 24/7.

Complementing the volume of network-produced programming, all 14 schools built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers have been accustomed to for years across ESPN networks.

These school-produced events are made available exclusively through the ESPN App as part of SEC Network+ on connected devices, allowing fans to watch their favorite teams anytime, anywhere.

SEC Network has also become known for its signature studio show, SEC Now, its traveling weekly football pregame show, SEC Nation, and of course, The Paul Finebaum Show, which welcomes callers and guests to share their thoughts on topics surrounding the SEC. On top of the network's wall-to-wall coverage of Saturday SEC football, SEC Network boasts additional football-focused studio shows in the fall: SEC This Morning and Marty & McGee, as well as food and culture favorite, TrueSouth.

2026 SEC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSIVE

ARCH MANNING, QB, TEXAS

• Manning completed 28-of-38 passes (73.7%) for 297 yards and three touchdowns that were all more than 20 yards in leading Texas to a 34-20 road win over No. 18 Missouri. It was Manning's fifth game of the season with multiple passing touchdowns, along with being his fourth game with three or more passing touchdowns.
• In Texas' current three-game winning streak, Manning has completed 62-of-88 (70.5%) passes for 729 yards and seven touchdowns. He has also rushed for two touchdowns to account for nine total in those three games. Manning's first touchdown against the Tigers was a 24-yard score to freshman running back Derrek Cooper in the first quarter that evened the score, 7-7. Later in the third quarter, he connected with freshman wide receiver Jermaine Bishop Jr. on a 25-yard strike that again tied the game, 20-20.
• The last touchdown pass came with just over five minutes left in the game and was a 23-yard score to senior running back Raleek Brown that gave the Longhorns the lead for good, 27-20. Down the stretch, Manning completed eight of his final 10 passes for 103 yards and two touchdowns.

DEFENSIVE

ARION CARTER, LB, TENNESSEE

• Carter totaled a game-high and season-high 13 tackles – 10 solo – and a career-best two sacks and four tackles for loss, leading No. 13 Tennessee to a dominating 34-6 win over No. 6 Kentucky.
• He and the Vols held Kentucky to their lowest point total of the season and held UK out of the endzone. Carter's four sacks were for a loss of 21 yards, including a big one on 4th-and-1 in the fourth quarter that turned the ball over on downs.
• He also had a key tackle for loss on 3-and-7 with the Vols up 13-7. Carter, a Butkus Award semifinalist and finalist for the Campbell Trophy, was the fifth FBS player in over 11 years to log at least 13 tackles, 4.0 TFLs and 2.0 sacks versus an AP top-10 opponent.
• The last to do so was Indiana's T.J. Simmons at Michigan State on Oct. 24, 2015.

• Thompkins' second sack forced a turnover on downs

FRESHMAN

SHADARIUS TOODLE, LB, AUBURN

• True freshman LB Shadarius Toodle made his first career and finished with three sacks. That total is the most for a true freshman in a game in program history and the most for an Auburn player in their debut. It was also the most sacks by an Auburn linebacker in program history.
• He's only the seventh freshman in the SEC since at least 1996 with 3.0 or more sacks in a game. He is the first SEC freshman in the same time period to record 3.0 sacks in his first career game.

THIS IS SEC FOOTBALL

• Sixteen times in the last 20 seasons, a team from the SEC has advanced to the national championship game. The SEC has won 13 of those contests, with two of the losses coming in the game's final seconds. The winner of the SEC Championship Game has advanced to the National Championship Game all but four times since 2006.

• With Florida in January 2009, five different teams from the SEC (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, LSU, Georgia) have played for and won the national championship in the last 16 seasons. All five have multiple appearances and at least one victory since in the national championship game since 2007.

• The SEC won four consecutive CFP National Championships, by three different programs (LSU, Alabama, Georgia), from 2019-2022.

• Not counting games versus each other, the SEC is 17-10 all-time in College Football Playoff games, playing in eight of the 12 CFP Championship Games (winning six of those eight). The SEC is 10-4 in CFP Semifinals, including a streak of 10 consecutive semifinal wins from 2015-2022.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 38-23 (.623) record in BCS/CFP games - more wins, appearances, and winning percentage than any other A4 conference.

• The Southeastern Conference led the nation yet again in 2025 with 451 former players on opening weekend 53-man active rosters, including injured reserve.

• A total of 31 former players from current Southeastern Conference institutions are on the active rosters of the New England Patriots and the Seattle Seahawks, the two National Football League teams who squared off in Super Bowl LX on February 8.

• The SEC is 126-88 (.589) in bowl games since 2006, over 30 wins more than the next closest conference.

• The SEC has now won 77 games in the last 10 postseasons and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 19 seasons.

• In the 12 seasons of the College Football Playoff era, only 10 programs nationally have been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Top-25 Poll (which begins in late October each year) – five of those 10 programs (Alabama, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, Tennessee) are from the SEC. Prior to 2023, no team outside the SEC had been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Poll since 2019, while four schools from the SEC were ranked No. 1 during that time.

• With Georgia and Alabama both earning victories in the CFP Semifinals in both 2021 and 2017, the national championship game has featured two SEC teams twice in the last nine years and three times since the 2011 season.

• The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 18 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008-2019.

• The 2025 SEC Championship game between Georgia and Alabama drew an average of 16.9 million viewers, making it the third-most watched SEC title game ever and a top-10 most-watched game of the 2025 season. This figure represented a 2% increase from the previous year's championship. The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game.

• The SEC finished the 2025 season as the most-watched conference in college football based on minutes watched for a fourth-straight year. The SEC was also #1 in average audience for the 15th consecutive year. The SEC on ABC accounted for more than two-thirds of the 50 most-watched games in the 2025 regular season. The SEC averaged 5.2 million viewers per game (62 games) and accounted for 36% of time spent watching college football on Nielsen-rated networks across all networks.

• In 2025 SEC student-athletes won both the Campbell and Wuerffel Trophies for the first time since 2005.

SEC FOOTBALL BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has six-year agreements with nine football post-season bowls.

The nine bowls are in addition to bowl games in the College Football Playoff system for which SEC teams are eligible to qualify.

The SEC has its current agreements through the 2026 season with the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, the ReliaQuest Bowl in Tampa, the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, the Liberty Mutual Music City Bowl in Nashville, the Kinder's Texas Bowl in Houston, the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, the JLAB Birmingham Bowl and the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl.

In addition, the SEC will continue its relationship with the Duke's Mayo Bowl in Charlotte and the Las Vegas Bowl, participating in Las Vegas in 2026.

The SEC will maintain its current bowl selection process in which the Citrus Bowl has the first selection of available SEC teams after any conference schools have qualified for the College Football Playoff after which the SEC assigns teams to a Pool of Six bowl.

The SEC Pool of Six consists of the ReliaQuest Bowl, TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, Liberty Mutual Music City Bowl, Kinder's Texas Bowl and Autozone Liberty Bowl, as well as the Las Vegas Bowl in 2026. In consultation with SEC member institutions, as well as these six bowls, the conference will make assignments for the bowl games in the pool system.

ESPN Events selects teams to participate in the JLAB Birmingham and Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowls after the Pool of Six have been assigned.

2026-27 College Football Playoff

• The ranking of the teams will continue to be done by a selection committee.

• In February, the CFP announced that the 2026-27 CFP Quarterfinals would take place on Wednesday, December 30, 2026, at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl and Friday, January 1, 2027, at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic, Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and the Rose Bowl Game presented by Prudential, while the CFP Semifinals would take place on January 14, 2027, at the Capital One Orange Bowl and January 15, 2027, at the Allstate Sugar Bowl. For the 2027-28 season, the CFP Quarterfinals are scheduled for Friday, December 31, 2027, at the Allstate Sugar Bowl and Saturday, January 1, 2028, at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl, Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and the Rose Bowl Game presented by Prudential. CFP Semifinals that year would take place on Thursday, January 13, 2028, at the Capital One Orange Bowl and Friday, January 14, 2028, at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

• The format of the 2026-27 CFP is built on a 12-team bracket. The 12 participating schools are the conference champions from the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big Ten Conference, Big 12 Conference, Southeastern Conference and the highest-ranked team from the American, Conference USA, Mid-American Conference, Mountain West, Pac-12 Conference and Sun Belt Conference, along with the next seven highest-ranked teams. The University of Notre Dame will be included in the playoff if it is ranked among the top 12 teams in the final CFP rankings. With the removal of conference historic bowl tie-ins from the bowl assignment process beginning in 2026, the CFP Management Committee approved a format in which the top three seeds, in rank order, select their bowl path in the Playoff.

• The four highest-ranked schools will be seeded one through four and will receive a first-round bye. The remaining schools will be seeded 5-12 based on their final ranking.

• If any of the automatic qualifiers falls outside of the top 12, they will be seeded at the bottom of the 12-team pool. If any are not ranked in the top 25, the committee will evaluate the team(s) using its established selection criteria and determine their relative positions for seeding purposes and seed them at the bottom of the 12-team pool.

SEC FOOTBALL

SEC SUCCESS SINCE 2006

During the last 19 seasons (2006-24), Southeastern Conference football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and in the history of college football. During this tenure, the SEC's achievements have been demonstrated by:

- Triumphs in major bowl games, including the National Championship Game
- Non-conference success in regular season and bowl games
- Defeating highly-ranked non-conference teams
- Success in the polls and rankings
- Individual awards and All-America Teams
- Academic and Community Service Standouts
- Continued accomplishments of former SEC student-athletes in the NFL and NFL Draft

SEC IN THE CFP/BCS ERA (Since 1998)

• The SEC has won 13 of the last 20 national championships, 15 of the 28 BCS/CFP-era National Championships, six runner-up finishes and 29 overall national titles (CFP, AP, BCS, FWAA, Coaches Poll) in SEC history. The SEC has appeared in 16 of the last 20 National Championship Games and in 10 of the 16 BCS Championship Games, winning nine.

• Five different SEC schools have won the National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017, 2020; Florida, 2006, 2008; LSU, 2007, 2019; Georgia, 2021, 2022). Five programs have advanced to the national championship game since 2013. Tennessee (1998) has also won the former BCS crown. Auburn appeared in the 2013 BCS Championship Game, as did LSU in 2011, Georgia in 2017 and Alabama in 2021. A team from the SEC Western Division had advanced to five consecutive national championship games prior to the 2014 season, when Alabama lost in the CFP semifinals. The ACC (Clemson, Miami and Florida State) and Big Ten (Michigan, Ohio State, Indiana) has seen three schools win titles since 1998, while the current Big 12 has none.

• Since 2006, nearly half of the slots in the National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (19 of 40). The Big Ten has six during that time, the ACC has four, while the Big 12 and Pac-12 has three.

• The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS/CFP standings than any other conference since 2006. The league has had all of its 16 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted 36 wins in BCS/New Year's Six/Access bowls - more wins than any other conference.

• Six of the top 10 defensive performances in CFP/BCS history have been registered by SEC teams, more than any other conference. Alabama's shutout of LSU in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game was the first shutout in CFP/BCS history. Alabama defeated Michigan State soundly 38-0 in a CFP National Semifinal in 2015, while defeating Washington 24-7 in 2016 semifinal contest. Alabama dominated Clemson in the 2018 Sugar Bowl Semifinal, holding Clemson to just 188 yards, well short of their average 448 yards per game. In the 2021 CFP Semifinal, Alabama defeated Cincinnati 27-6, holding the Bearcats to 218 yards and a pair of field goals. Georgia's 65-7 victory over TCU in the 2022 national championship game, the Bulldogs held TCU to 188 total yards and nine first downs. Georgia's 63-3 defeat of Florida State in the 2023 Orange Bowl was the largest margin of victory in the entire history of postseason bowls.

• The SEC has now won 77 games in the last nine postseasons. With 12 teams advancing to bowl games in 2016, the SEC became the first conference to send at least 10 teams to postseason bowls in four consecutive seasons. The SEC sent a (then) NCAA-record 12 teams to participate in postseason bowl games in 2014 and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 18 seasons. The SEC established a national-record with nine postseason victories in 2015 and owned the previous record for postseason bowl victories with seven wins in 2007, 2013 and 2014. The SEC qualified a record 13 teams for postseason bowls in 2021 and finished 7-2 in the 2020 postseason, with all seven wins coming against Top-25 competition - the most in history for the conference. The SEC again sent 13 teams to postseason in 2024.

• The SEC is 126-88 (.589) in bowl games since 2006, the best among Autonomy Five leagues by nearly 100 percentage points and over 30 wins more than the next closest conference.

SEC vs. OTHER CONFERENCES

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted the highest non-conference winning percentage (regular season & bowls) than any other conference. The league has a 985-248 record, an .800 winning percentage. The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last 20 seasons (2006-2025). Last season (2025), the SEC was 58-16 (.784), including bowl games.

SEC IN FINAL RANKINGS

• Since 2006, the SEC has had the most teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. The conference has had 113 teams ranked in the final USA Today rankings during that span, including seven in 2025.

• The SEC has either led or tied for the lead with the most teams ranked in the USA Today Top-25 for 18 of the last 20 seasons.

THIS IS SEC FOOTBALL

• Sixteen times in the last 20 seasons, a team from the SEC has advanced to the national championship game. The SEC has won 13 of those contests, with two of the losses coming in the game's final seconds. The winner of the SEC Championship Game has advanced to the National Championship Game all but four times since 2006.

• With Florida in January 2009, five different teams from the SEC (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, LSU, Georgia) have played for and won the national championship in the last 16 seasons. All five have multiple appearances and at least one victory since in the national championship game since 2007.

• The SEC won four consecutive CFP National Championships, by three different programs (LSU, Alabama, Georgia), from 2019-2022.

• Not counting games versus each other, the SEC is 17-10 all-time in College Football Playoff games, playing in eight of the 12 CFP Championship Games (winning six of those eight). The SEC is 10-4 in CFP Semifinals, including a streak of 10 consecutive semifinal wins from 2015-2022.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 38-23 (.623) record in BCS/CFP games - more wins, appearances, and winning percentage than any other A4 conference.

• A total of 31 former players from current Southeastern Conference institutions are on the active rosters of the New England Patriots and the Seattle Seahawks, the two National Football League teams who squared off in Super Bowl LX on February 8.

• The SEC is 126-88 (.589) in bowl games since 2006, over 30 wins more than the next closest conference.

• The SEC has now won 77 games in the last 10 postseasons and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 19 seasons.

• In the 12 seasons of the College Football Playoff era, only 10 programs nationally have been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Top-25 Poll (which begins in late October each year) – five of those 10 programs (Alabama, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, Tennessee) are from the SEC. Prior to 2023, no team outside the SEC had been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Poll since 2019, while four schools from the SEC were ranked No. 1 during that time.

• With Georgia and Alabama both earning victories in the CFP Semifinals in both 2021 and 2017, the national championship game has featured two SEC teams twice in the last nine years and three times since the 2011 season.

• The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 18 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008-2019.

• The 2025 SEC Championship game between Georgia and Alabama drew an average of 16.9 million viewers, making it the third-most watched SEC title game ever and a top-10 most-watched game of the 2025 season. This figure represented a 2% increase from the previous year's championship. The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game.

• The SEC finished the 2025 season as the most-watched conference in college football based on minutes watched for a fourth-straight year. The SEC was also #1 in average audience for the 15th consecutive year. The SEC on ABC accounted for more than two-thirds of the 50 most-watched games in the 2025 regular season. The SEC averaged 5.2 million viewers per game (62 games) and accounted for 36% of time spent watching college football on Nielsen-rated networks across all networks.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2026 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Southeastern Conference's top two teams in the regular season standings will meet in Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 35th-annual title game is set for December 5 and will be televised nationally by ABC.

The game was born as a result of 1992 conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game will be determined during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the two best overall SEC winning percentages.

The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 18 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008-2019.

The 2025 SEC Championship game between Georgia and Alabama drew an average of 16.9 million viewers, making it the third-most watched SEC title game ever and a top-10 most-watched game of the 2025 season. This figure represented a 2% increase from the previous year's championship. The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game. The overtime win for Georgia, which peaked with 19.7 million viewers, delivered the largest audience of the college football season — surpassing the previous high set by the regular season matchup between the same two teams.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned an 11.8 rating and a 24 share, marking the highest-rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game matched the No. 1 Florida Gators (12-0) vs. the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide (12-0).

The SEC Championship Game has drawn 32 capacity crowds in its 34-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

The SEC, along with AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority (GWCCA), have an agreement to host the SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta through 2031. The new agreement allows the SEC the option of adding a five-year extensions through 2036. The Georgia Dome hosted the SEC Championship Game for 23 years beginning in 1994, with capacity crowds in the last 22 consecutive years. By the end of the new agreement, including options, the Championship will have been played in Atlanta a total of 43 years.

SEC FOOTBALL TIE-BREAKING PROCESS

In the event of a tie between teams competing for a place in the Conference championship game, the following procedures will be used in descending order until the tie is broken:

* Head-to-head competition among the tied teams

* Record versus all common Conference opponents among the tied teams

* Record against highest (best) placed common Conference opponent in the Conference standings, and proceeding through the Conference standings among the tied teams

* Cumulative Conference winning percentage of all Conference opponents among the tied teams

* Capped relative total scoring margin versus all Conference opponents among the tied teams

* Random draw of the tied teams

If the regular season standings determine a clear Conference champion and two or more teams are tied for second place, the Conference champion will be the home team in the Championship Game and the tiebreaking procedures will be used to determine its opponent.

If a tiebreaker step produces standings with two teams tied for first place in the Conference, both will qualify for the championship game. To decide the seeding of the two teams, both will progress through the two-team tiebreaker procedures until the tie is broken, which will determine home/away designation for the SEC Championship Game.

The 2025 SEC Championship Game will be held on Saturday, Dec. 6, at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta, Ga.

Complete tiebreaker procedures and examples can be found at

Alabama – Nick Saban, Head Coach, 2007-23

Nick Saban built an unmatched championship record as Alabama's head coach for 17 years, lifting the Crimson Tide to the top of college football through an uncompromising "process." After the 2021 College Football Playoff title over Ohio State, he passed Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only coach with seven national championships in the poll era. He finished his Hall of Fame career after the 2023 season with six titles at Alabama and seven overall. In 28 seasons as a collegiate head coach he won nearly 81 percent of his games, including a 206-29 (.877) record in Tuscaloosa, while winning nine SEC championships at Alabama and 11 total. A nine-time National Coach of the Year, Saban produced 56 first-round NFL draft picks and four Heisman Trophy winners. A former Kent State player, he was head coach at Toledo, LSU -- where he won the 2003 national title -- and the Miami Dolphins before arriving in Tuscaloosa. In 2025 he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as the fifth Alabama coach so honored.

Arkansas – Felix Jones, Running Back, 2005-07

Felix Jones was one of the most explosive playmakers in the history of Arkansas football. A consensus All-American kick returner in 2007 and two-time All-SEC selection, he was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year that same season. In three years as a Razorback he rushed for 2,956 yards, sixth-most in school history, and scored 20 rushing touchdowns. He ranks second at Arkansas with more than 1,700 kick-return yards and still holds the school record in kickoff-return average. Jones shared the backfield with two-time Doak Walker Award winner Darren McFadden and Peyton Hillis; all three later enjoyed lengthy NFL careers. The Dallas Cowboys selected Jones 22nd overall in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft, and he went on to play six seasons in the league. Combined, his college production and professional longevity cemented him as a cornerstone of one of Arkansas's most talented running-back groups.

Auburn – Benji Roland, Noseguard, 1985-88

Benji Roland anchored Auburn's defensive line from 1985 to 1988, a four-year presence whose strength at noseguard defined the Tigers' front. As a senior he earned All-America and first-team All-SEC honors, controlling the middle of the line and helping Auburn claim the 1988 SEC championship while leading the nation in total defense, rushing defense, and scoring defense. The Eastman, Georgia, native was part of back-to-back SEC championship teams and four consecutive New Year's Day bowl appearances. A three-year starter for the Tigers, he finished his career with more than 200 tackles, including 21 tackles for loss, and five quarterback sacks. Selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the 1989 NFL Draft, he later played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Honored on the City of Auburn Tiger Trail, Roland is also a two-time cancer survivor whose impact on the Plains has reached well beyond the stat sheet.

Florida – Chris Doering, Wide Receiver, 1991-95

Chris Doering, a Gainesville native, starred at wide receiver for the Gators from 1991–95. He finished with 149 receptions for more than 2,000 yards and a program-record 31 touchdown catches. He still ranks sixth in career receptions, tenth in receiving yards, and seventh in overall touchdowns at Florida; his streak of seven straight games with a scoring catch ranks fourth in school history. As a senior in 1995 he earned Second-Team All-America honors from the Associated Press and First-Team All-SEC recognition from both the coaches and AP after a 70-catch, 1,045-yard, 17-touchdown season. The 17 scores remain second on Florida's single-season list and tied for fifth in SEC history, while his career 31 receiving touchdowns rank second in league annals. Doering helped Florida win SEC titles from 1993–95, then was drafted in the sixth round of the 1996 NFL Draft by Jacksonville and played 10 seasons in the NFL for the Colts, Broncos, Redskins and Steelers.

Georgia – Mark Richt, Head Coach, 2001-15

Mark Richt arrived at Georgia determined to lift a program that had gone two decades without an SEC title. In 15 seasons he delivered two SEC championships (2002, 2005), five Eastern Division titles and a share of another, compiling a 145-51 record that ranked fifth nationally among active coaches in winning percentage. He was named SEC Coach of the Year in both title seasons and became one of only seven coaches to win two league championships in his first five years, also posting four straight 10-win campaigns from 2002–05. Off the field, 301 Bulldogs earned degrees under his watch, and he received the 2013 Stallings Award for humanitarian service. A noted quarterback developer, Richt guided David Greene, D.J. Shockley, Matthew Stafford and Aaron Murray to record-setting careers while sending 77 players to the NFL Draft. His teams were 60-11 against non-conference foes and 49-16 in opponents' stadiums, building a culture of high standards and lasting unity among Georgia fans.

2026 SEC FOOTBALL LEGENDS CLASS

Kentucky – Randall Cobb, Wide Receiver, 2008-10

Known as "The Swiss Army Knife of College Football," Randall Cobb was one of the most versatile and dynamic players in Southeastern Conference history. He still holds the SEC single-season record for all-purpose yardage and built a reputation for clutch play, scoring come-from-behind, game-winning fourth-quarter touchdowns against four SEC opponents and in-state rival Louisville. A three-year Wildcat, Cobb left early for the NFL and carved out a 13-year professional career with more than 10,000 all-purpose yards and a Pro Bowl selection. Even after turning pro, he returned to campus in the offseasons until he earned his degree, keeping a childhood vow to become the first person in his immediate family to graduate from college.

LSU – Patrick Peterson, Cornerback, 2008-10

Patrick Peterson, a three-year starter at cornerback for LSU, capped his college career in 2010 as the nation's top defensive back, winning the Thorpe Award and Bednarik Award, earning consensus first-team All-America honors, while being named SEC Defensive Player of the Year and Special Teams Player of the Year. That season he posted 42 tackles, four interceptions, and six pass breakups while doubling as an elite returner, scoring twice on punts and ranking among the national leaders in punt and kickoff returns. A first-team All-American in 1989 by the Gannett News Service and a second-team pick by The Sporting News, he also earned first-team All-SEC honors and was a nominee for both the Butkus Award and the Lombardi Trophy. One of four permanent captains as a senior, he helped the Rebels beat Air Force in the Liberty Bowl. Bennett was SEC Player of the Week after the 1988 Alabama game and the 1989 Memphis contest, and he later played in the Senior Bowl before being named to that game's All-Dream Team in 1994. In four seasons he recorded 207 tackles, including 137 solos and two fumble recoveries, and led Ole Miss with 11 tackles for loss in 1989. Selected 18th overall by Green Bay in the 1990 NFL Draft, he played four seasons with the Packers and four more with Indianapolis. He was named to the Ole Miss Team of the Century (1893–1992) and inducted into the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame in 2003.

Mississippi State – Darius Slay, Cornerback, 2011-12

Darius Slay arrived at Mississippi State after two seasons at Itawamba Community College and quickly became one of the SEC's most disruptive corners. In two years in Starkville he totaled 63 tackles, six interceptions, 10 pass breakups and a forced fumble. His signature play was a 72-yard pick-six at Georgia in 2011, the 10th-longest interception return in school history. As a senior in 2012 he earned honorable mention All-America and All-SEC honors after leading the conference and tying for ninth nationally with five interceptions. That season he added 40 tackles and six pass breakups in addition to sealing a win over Arkansas with a late-game interception. The Detroit Lions chose him in the second round of the 2013 NFL Draft. Over 13 professional seasons he became a six-time Pro Bowler, two-time First-Team All-Pro and Super Bowl LIX champion, playing for the Lions, Eagles and Steelers before retiring in 2026 as one of the era's most productive cornerbacks.

Missouri – Sean Weatherspoon, Linebacker, 2006-09

Sean Weatherspoon, a Jasper, Texas, native, became one of the most decorated defenders in Missouri football history. Arriving as a special-teams freshman under College Football Hall of Fame coach Gary Pinkel, he grew into a three-year starter, team captain, two-time All-American, and the only three-time first-team All-Big 12 defensive player in school history. He finished with 413 tackles, third most at Mizzou, plus 43.5 tackles for loss and 13 sacks. In 2008 he led the Big 12 in tackles and returned two interceptions for touchdowns, then earned Alamo Bowl Defensive MVP honors in an overtime win over Northwestern. As a senior captain in 2009 he again led Mizzou in tackles and was a Butkus Award finalist. The Atlanta Falcons made him the first linebacker in school history taken in the first round, 19th overall in 2010. He played seven NFL seasons with Atlanta and Arizona, reached Super Bowl LI, and was inducted into the Mizzou Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017 and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2023.

Oklahoma – Billy Sims, Running Back, 1975-79

Billy Sims became one of the most electric running backs in Oklahoma history under Barry Switzer from 1975 to 1979. After limited work as a freshman and a medical redshirt in 1976, he broke through in 1978, rushing for 1,896 yards and winning the Heisman Trophy as a redshirt junior. He led the nation in rushing that season with 7.4 yards a carry, and earned unanimous first-team All-America honors. In 1979 he added 1,670 yards, including 247 against unbeaten Nebraska, finished as Heisman runner-up, and was again a unanimous All-American. He left Norman as OU's career rushing leader with 4,118 yards (53 TDs) and led the Sooners to Orange Bowl wins over Nebraska and Florida State his final two years. Detroit made him the first overall pick of the 1980 NFL Draft. With the Lions, he was NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, a three-time Pro Bowler, and a first-team All-Pro in 1981 before a knee injury ended his career after five seasons. One of Oklahoma's defining wishbone tailbacks, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1995.

South Carolina - Sidney Rice, Wide Receiver, 2005-06

Sidney Rice, a Gaffney, South Carolina, native, was one of the Gamecocks' most productive wide receivers under Steve Spurrier from 2004 to 2006. After redshirting as a freshman, he exploded in 2005 with 70 catches for 1,143 yards and 13 touchdowns, earning first-team All-SEC honors and started his career with a school-record eight straight games with a receiving score. As a sophomore in 2006 he added 72 receptions for 1,090 yards and 10 touchdowns and was a second-team All-SEC selection. In just two seasons he broke Sterling Sharpe's school record for career receiving touchdowns with 23. Minnesota drafted him in the second round, 44th overall, in 2007. Rice played seven NFL seasons with the Vikings and Seattle Seahawks, made the 2009 Pro Bowl, and won Super Bowl XLVIII with Seattle. A 6-foot-4 target with a basketball background as the state's High School Class 4A Player of the Year, he left Columbia as a two-year football star whose production still ranks among the program's modern receiving standards.

Tennessee – John Henderson, Defensive Tackle, 1999-2001
John Henderson was a dominant force on the Tennessee defensive line from 1999–2001 under Phillip Fulmer. The 6-foot-7 Nashville native became a two-time consensus All-American and two-time first-team All-SEC selection. In 2000 he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman, earned SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors and finished as a Nagurski Trophy finalist after posting 71 tackles, 21 tackles for loss and 12 sacks, helping a Vols defense set a school record by allowing just 817 rushing yards. He was an Outland finalist again as a senior despite an ankle injury. Career totals include 165 tackles, 38.5 tackles for loss and 20.5 sacks, fifth in program history. Henderson helped Tennessee to a 28-9 record, the 2001 SEC East title and three straight bowls, earning outstanding defensive player honors in the 2002 Citrus Bowl. The Jacksonville Jaguars drafted him ninth overall in 2002. He played 10 NFL seasons for the Jaguars and Oakland Raiders and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2025.

Texas – Ricky Williams, Running Back, 1995-98
Ricky Williams arrived at Texas in 1995 as a true freshman fullback and immediately evoked memories of Longhorn Legend Earl Campbell, breaking the Texas freshman rushing record with 990 yards and eight touchdowns. After 1,272 yards and 12 touchdowns as a sophomore, he exploded as a junior tailback in 1997, leading the nation with 1,893 yards and 25 touchdowns, winning the Doak Walker Award and finishing fifth in Heisman voting. Returning for his senior year instead of entering the NFL Draft, Williams rushed for 2,124 yards and 27 scores in 1998, set 21 NCAA records, swept national player-of-the-year honors and won the Heisman in a historic landslide. He eclipsed Tony's Dorsett's 22-year-old NCAA rushing record with 6,279 career rushing yards to go with 72 rushing touchdowns and 46 school records. Texas later retired his No. 34. Selected fifth overall by New Orleans in 1999, he rushed for 10,009 NFL yards and 66 touchdowns in his 11 seasons with the Saints, Dolphins and Ravens, and entered the College Football Hall of Fame in 2015.

Texas A&M – Sam Adams, Defensive Line, 1991-93
Sam Adams, a Houston-area native, became one of Texas A&M's most decorated defensive linemen under coach R.C. Slocum from 1991 to 1993. A three-year letterman and three-time All-Southwest Conference pick, he was SWC Defensive Newcomer of the Year as a freshman, a first-team Freshman All-American, and later a consensus All-American. The Aggies went 30-4-1 in his career and won three straight SWC titles. After a junior season of 78 tackles, 13 tackles for loss, 10.5 sacks and five forced fumbles, Adams was Sports Illustrated National Defensive Player of the Year, SWC Defensive Player of the Year, and a Lombardi Award finalist. While at A&M, he also threw the shot and discus for the track team. Seattle drafted him eighth overall in 1994. In 14 NFL seasons with the Seahawks, Ravens, Raiders, Bills, Bengals and Broncos, he earned three Pro Bowl appearances and two All-Pro honors, and won Super Bowl XXXV with Baltimore. He was inducted into the Texas A&M Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

Vanderbilt – Casey Hayward, Cornerback, 2008-11
Casey Hayward was one of Vanderbilt's most productive defensive backs from 2008 to 2011, serving as a team captain his senior season while being named a 2011 second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America. A two-time All-SEC pick by both the coaches and the Associated Press, he intercepted 15 passes to tie the Commodores' career record and shared the school mark with 34 passes broken up. He picked off six passes in 2010 and seven as a senior, one shy of the single-season record, and posted 17 pass breakups in each of his last two seasons. After playing in the 2012 Senior Bowl, he was selected by Green Bay in the second round of the NFL Draft, 62nd overall. Hayward then played 11 professional seasons from 2012 to 2022 with the Packers, Chargers, Raiders and Falcons. He earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 2017 and second-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl recognition in 2016.

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference is a leader on the national landscape for intercollegiate athletics in the 21st century. Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. These university leaders determine the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its 82-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been in the SEC since its formation in 1933. The league has expanded three times, adding Arkansas and South Carolina in 1991, then Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012, then Oklahoma and Texas in 2024.
