STORYLINES

■ ON THE ROAD: No. 15/14 Tennessee seeks its first win in Fayetteville since 2001 as it travels to take on Arkansas at 4:15 p.m. ET/3:15 p.m. CT Saturday on SEC Network. The Volunteers have dropped four straight games in Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. This is Tennessee's first SEC road game of the year, though the Vols beat Georgia Tech by 21 points in Atlanta in Week 2. UT is back into the top 15 of both polls and is 4-1 overall and 1-1 in league play with only a slim 20-17 loss to No. 1 Texas. Arkansas is 2-3 and 0-2 in SEC play with losses to No. 2 Georgia (45-17) and at Texas A&M (34-7) last weekend. The Vols own a 17-0 record against teams under .500 at the time of the game under head coach Josh Heupel.

■ FIRST SEC WIN: Sr. RB DeSean Bishop rushed for career highs of 220 yards and three touchdowns on 34 carries, helping Tennessee overcome a 7-3 halftime deficit to earn a 24-14 victory over Auburn last Saturday in Neyland Stadium. Those marks were all the most by an SEC player this season. So. QB George MacIntyre came on in relief of starter Fr. Faizon Brandon with 3:42 in the second quarter and finished 8-of-10 passing for 86 yards. MacIntyre directed all three of Tennessee's second-half touchdown drives. Defensively, the Vols were paced by Sr. LB Amare Campbell and Jr. S Dejuan Lane, who each notched nine tackles. Lane tallied a pair of sacks, 2.5 tackles for losses, a quarterback hurry and a third-quarter interception. Campbell, meanwhile, added a sack and TFL. Jr. nickel Tevis Metcalf, making his first career start, came up with his first career pick, ending an Auburn threat late in the contest after the ball was tipped by So. DL Mariyon Dye. P Jackson Ross was a huge field position weapon, landing five of his six punts inside the Auburn 11-yard line, including three inside the 5-yard line. Bishop scored on runs of 25, 44 and five yards and notched the first 200-yard rushing game by a Vol since Eric Gray against Vanderbilt on Nov. 30, 2019.

■ HEUPEL ERA: Josh Heupel is in his sixth season at the helm and is the longest tenured UT coach since Phillip Fulmer coached from the end of 1992 through 2008. This is Heupel's ninth season as an FBS head coach, and his 77 victories since the start of the 2018 season are tied for fifth nationally among active FBS head coaches. With the win over Auburn, Heupel tied College Football Hall of Famer Bowden Wyatt for fifth in UT all-time wins. Wyatt was 49-29-4. One more victory gives Heupel sole possession of fifth. Heupel's 49 wins are the fourth-most by a Vol coach through the first 70 games of a tenure, trailing only Gen. Robert Neyland (63), Fulmer (59) and Bill Battle (52). Heupel faced 26 ranked teams in those 70 games.

■ PENN STATE CONNECTION: Tennessee's defense is thriving with Penn State transfers helping lead the way under new coordinator Jim Knowles. DT Xavier Gilliam has been a monster, racking up 8.5 tackles for loss (3rd in SEC, tied for fourth in nation), four sacks (5th in SEC) and four QB hurries. LB Amare Campbell is second on the team in tackles with 31, including four TFLs (2nd on team). S Dejuan Lane has a team-high four passes defended (2 PBU, 2 INT), and he's tied for the SEC lead with two interceptions. The remaining PSU connection includes co-DC/secondary coach Anthony Poindexter and LEOs coach Andrew Jackson. Tennessee is allowing just 15.2 points per game, which is third in the SEC and 20th in the FBS.

■ METCALF BROTHERS: The Vols feature a pair of brothers in the secondary and both started together last game against Auburn. TJ and Tevis Metcalf return to Arkansas this week. TJ played for the Razorbacks from 2023-24, while Tevis was on the roster in 2024. The two played in the game the last time these two teams met in Fayetteville in 2024. TJ is third on the team in tackles with 23. Tevis owns seven tackles and an INT.

NOTING THE TENNESSEE-ARKANSAS SERIES

- Tennessee and Arkansas are meeting for the 22nd time and the third straight year. The Vols lead the all-time series 14-7, but the Razorbacks have captured four out of the last five meetings. The last two matchups - both in the Josh Heupel era - have been decided by five points or less.
- UT is seeking its first win in Fayetteville since Sept. 8, 2001, when the Vols opened SEC play with a 13-3 win. Arkansas held a 3-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter of that contest, but UT scored 13 unanswered highlighted by a Travis Stephens 3-yard TD with 1:05 to play. Casey Clausen, then a sophomore, was the last UT quarterback to win there.
- Tennessee has lost four in a row in Fayetteville since that game. Only punter Jackson Ross (born June 22, 1999) was alive on the current Tennessee roster the last time the Vols won there. The only other win for the Vols in Fayetteville was on Oct. 7, 1995.
- The Vols won last year's meeting in Neyland Stadium, 34-31, and they are seeking back-to-back wins against the Razorbacks in the series since 2001-02.
- Josh Heupel is 1-1 against Arkansas as a head coach. He owned a 2-0 record against Arkansas as the offensive coordinator at Missouri (2016-17). The Tigers won those contests, 28-24 (2016 in Columbia) and 48-45 (2017 in Fayetteville).
- Arkansas Associate Director of Sports Performance David Young served as Assistant Director of Sports Performance at Tennessee from 2022-25 on Heupel's staff.
- Tennessee safeties TJ Metcalf (2023-24) and Tevis Metcalf (2024) played for Arkansas before transferring to Michigan and then Tennessee.
- The two teams will meet again in Knoxville during the 2028 season (date TBD).
- A total of 706 miles separate the two campuses.

NOTEBOOK

QB GEORGE MACINTYRE IN RELIEF

- Tennessee sophomore quarterback George MacIntyre saw the most meaningful action of his career in the 24-14 win over Auburn on Oct. 3. The Franklin, Tennessee, native spelled freshman Faizon Brandon with 3:42 left in the second quarter, and he would go the rest of the way.
- MacIntyre led the Vols to three touchdown drives in the second half, including back-to-back touchdown drives to start the third quarter. He finished 8-of-10 passing for 86 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions.
- MacIntyre enrolled at Tennessee in January 2025 and redshirted last season. He's played in six career games, including four this season, but has not started a game in his career.

TRUE FRESHMAN QB FAIZON BRANDON DEBUTS

- Tennessee is starting a new quarterback for the fifth straight season as true freshman Faizon Brandon took the reins after earning the job in preseason camp. The Vols and Kentucky are the only SEC teams to start a new QB for five straight years from 2022-26. The Vols started Hendon Hooker (also a Greensboro native) in 2022, Joe Milton III in 2023, Nico Iamaleava in 2024 and Joey Aguilar in 2025.
- Brandon, a five-star recruit out of Greensboro, North Carolina, guided Grimsley High School to a 35-1 record in his three years as a starter. He saw a 25-game win streak as a starter come to an end against top-ranked Texas on Sept. 26. That was his first loss since the end of his sophomore year in high school. Brandon enrolled at UT in January, went through spring practice, and head coach Josh Heupel officially named him the starter on Aug. 24. Brandon originally committed to the Vols on Aug. 3, 2024.
- Brandon at Grimsley High School
2025 Sr.: 6-0; injured thumb in Week 1 and returned for playoffs; Class 7A state champions
2024 Jr.: 16-0; Class 4A state champions
2023 So: 13-1; lost in Class 4A state quarterfinals
- Brandon is the third true freshman QB Josh Heupel has started as a head coach. At Tennessee, Nico Iamaleava's one true freshman start was the 2024 Citrus Bowl as the Vols defeated Iowa, 35-0. At UCF, Dillon Gabriel started the final 12 games of the 2019 season. Gabriel, now with the Cleveland Browns, produced a 9-3 record and led a UCF offense that ranked second nationally (540.5).
- Brandon is the first UT quarterback to wear the No. 11 since Joshua Dobbs did so from 2013-16. Dobbs is in his 10th NFL season and is the backup QB for the Detroit Lions.
- At 18 years, three months and four days old on Sept. 5 against Furman, Brandon was the youngest quarterback to ever start a Tennessee game in history. Erik Ainge was previously the youngest at 18 years, three months and 20 days in 2004. Peyton Manning was 18 years, six months and eight days during his first start as a true freshman in 1994. Brandon was born on June 1, 2008.

DEFENSIVE NOTABLES

- Tennessee's defense under new coordinator Jim Knowles has shined through five games.
- The Vols lead the FBS and SEC with 23 sacks for a loss of 118 yards. They have churned out at least four sacks in all three games against Power Four competition, including six for a loss of 33 yards against No. 1 Texas on Sept. 26. It was the third time Tennessee posted six-plus against an SEC (or any FBS) opponent during Heupel's tenure, including the second in a regulation affair. The other occurrences were on Sept. 27, 2025, in an overtime win at Mississippi State and on Sept. 30, 2025, in a victory over South Carolina.
- Tennessee also leads the SEC and ranks fifth in the nation in tackles for loss with 42 for a loss of 172 yards. The Vols finished with 10 TFLs against No. 1 Texas on Sept. 26. It marked the program's first time reaching double figures against an SEC opponent since amassing 11 in an overtime triumph at Mississippi State on Sept. 27, 2025.
- Including the Auburn game last week, the Vols have combined for 18 tackles for loss in SEC play. They are averaging 9.0 tackles for loss in SEC play, which is second to only Texas' 12.0.
- Tennessee has three players in the SEC's top 10 in sacks led by So. DL Mariyon Dye (5th SEC) and Jr. DL Xavier Gilliam (5th SEC) with four apiece. Sr. DL Tyree Weathersby has 3.5 to his credit, including a career-best 2.5 against top-ranked Texas, which is eighth in the SEC. Ten different players on the roster have at least one sack, including seven players with multiple sacks.
- Gilliam, the Penn State transfer, also owns 8.5 tackles for a loss of 26 yards. He is third in the SEC and tied for fourth in the nation in that category. He's recorded at least 0.5 TFL in four of five games and multiple TFLs in three contests.
- The Vol defense has issued only two touchdowns in the first half this season (10 quarters), and the starting unit has surrendered only five touchdowns for the entire season. Texas and Auburn each put up two.
- In four home games, opponents have managed only five touchdowns in 16 quarters against the Vols in Neyland Stadium.
- Opponents have managed only seven offensive touchdowns on 58 drives this season (12.1 percent) against Tennessee. No. 1 Texas punted seven times on 12 drives against the Vols, while Auburn punted seven times as well last weekend.
- Tennessee boasts the SEC's third-best pass defense, allowing only 162.6 yards per game. That mark is 19th in the nation.
- The Vols are issuing 15.2 points per game, which is third in the SEC and 20th nationally. Tennessee and Texas have surrendered the fewest offensive touchdowns in the SEC. The Vols have issued seven, while Texas has issued five.
- The Vols are fifth in the SEC and 29th in the nation in total defense, allowing only 294.8 yards per game.
- Tennessee has forced eight turnovers this season, which is tied for fourth in the SEC. The Vols' five picks are fifth in the league. They have forced a combined five turnovers in both SEC games.
- Jr. S Dejuan Lane, stepping up for an injured Edrees Farooq, has been a dynamic transfer safety from Penn State. In five starts, Lane leads the Vols in passes defended (4) and interceptions (2). Lane was spectacular in Week 4 against Auburn, registering a team-high nine tackles, two sacks, 2.5 tackles for loss, one QB hurry and a significant interception. Lane's nine tackles were a career high as collegian. He previously had a top mark of six on Dec. 27, 2025, against Clemson in the Pinstripe Bowl, while at Penn State. He notched his third-career interception, including his second as a Volunteer, midway through the third quarter that hauled an Auburn drive. He returned the interception 32 yards to the Auburn 44-yard-line.

- Lane was the third SEC player—two are Volunteers—since 2005 to record at least nine tackles, 2.5 TFLs, 2.0 sacks and an interception in a game, including the second to do so in league play. South Carolina's Melvin Ingram achieved the feat on Oct. 1, 2011, against Auburn, while Tennessee's Malik Jackson did so on Nov. 6, 2010, at Memphis.
- Lane was just the fourth FBS player to post that stat line in the last eight seasons (2019-26). He joined South Florida's Mac Harris (Sept. 9, 2025, against South Carolina State); Clemson's Jeremiah Trotter Jr. (Nov. 4, 2023, against Notre Dame); and Troy's TJ Harris (Oct. 9, 2021, against Georgia Southern).

KNOWLES KNOWS BEST

- First-year UT defensive coordinator Jim Knowles has led the Vols to a vast improvement in multiple categories. Below is a look at the Vols through five games in 2026 as compared to last season through Game 5.

Stat Through Game 5	2026 under Knowles	SEC	FBS	2025	SEC	FBS	Difference
Scoring Defense	15.2	3rd	20th	29.0	15th	102nd	-13.8 (+82 FBS improve)
Total Defense	294.8	5th	29th	373.4	14th	76th	-78.6 (+47 FBS improve)
Passing Defense	162.6	3rd	19th	258.2	16th	115th	-95.6 (+96 FBS improve)

DESEAN BISHOP PICKS UP WHERE HE LEFT OFF

- DeSean Bishop, a candidate for the Walter Camp Player of the Year and Maxwell Award, returned for his senior season at running back after a 1,000-yard campaign last fall. He was the first 1,000-yard rusher to return the following season for the Vols since Jalen Hurd came back in 2016 after rushing for 1,288 yards in 2015.
- Bishop, a former walk-on, is striving to be just the second UT player all-time to produce multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Johnnie Jones did it in 1983 (1,116) and 1984 (1,290).
- In 2026, Bishop has picked up where he left off and already half way to 1,000 again. His 540 total rushing yards rank third in the SEC and 11th in the FBS through five weeks. A total of 354 of his 540 rush yards have come after contact according to PFF. He is averaging 108.0 yards per game rushing, which is also third in the SEC and 13th in the country.
- Meanwhile, Bishop's seven rushing touchdowns are second in the SEC and sixth in the FBS. Bishop is one of three SEC players averaging over 100.0 ypg rushing this season, joining Florida's Jadan Baugh (122.6) and Missouri's Jamal Roberts (121.2).
- Bishop is fourth in the SEC and 26th in the nation in all-purpose yardage per game (115.6).
- Bishop saw a streak of seven straight games with a rushing touchdown come to an end against No. 1 Texas on Sept. 26. But he made up for that the following week against Auburn with three scores. He's now scored a touchdown in 13 of his last 15 games and four of five games this season. The seven straight tied for the second longest streak in school history, matching Arian Foster (2005) and Gene McEver (1928-29). The school record is held by Dylan Sampson, who Bishop backed up in 2024. Sampson did it in 11 consecutive games.
- Bishop is one of just three Power Four players - one of two P4 running backs - with at least 540 rushing yards and at least seven rushing touchdowns this season. The others: Florida RB Jadan Baugh (613 yds, 11 TD) and West Virginia QB Michael Hawkins Jr. (574 yds, 11 TD);
- Bishop has rushed for 2,071 yards for his career, hitting the 2,000-yard mark in the win against Auburn on Oct. 3. A total of 1,138 yards have come after contact according to PFF.
- Bishop stands at 26 career rushing touchdowns, which is tied for eighth in UT career annals.

DESEAN BISHOP VS. AUBURN

- DeSean Bishop had a career day against Auburn on Oct. 3. He finished with 34 carries for 220 yards and three touchdowns. All three marks were the highest by an SEC player this season. The 220 rushing yards by Bishop ranked No. 12 on Tennessee's single-game leaderboard, while the 34 carries tied for No. 11 and the three rushing touchdowns placed co-ninth.
- Bishop's 200-yard rushing game was the first by a Vol since Eric Gray rushed for 246 against Vanderbilt on Nov. 30, 2019. Bishop's 34 carries were the most by a Vol in any game since Jalen Hurd carried it 34 times against Missouri on Nov. 21, 2015. Bishop could have had more as a 40-yard touchdown run was taken off the board in the second quarter following a blocking penalty.
- Bishop was the second Volunteer this century to post 200-plus yards and three scores on the ground in a single game. He joined Eric Gray, who did so on Nov. 30, 2019, against Vanderbilt. Bishop and Gray are two of the only three Tennessee players in the last 25 seasons (2002-26) to amass 200-plus rushing yards in a contest. The other one was Arian Foster, who did so on Nov. 19, 2005, against Vanderbilt.

- The last time Auburn allowed 220-plus rushing yards to a single player was on Nov. 28, 2015, when Alabama's Derrick Henry hit that mark.
- Bishop was just the 20th SEC player—24th occurrence—in the last 30 seasons (1997-2026) to rack up at least 220 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns in a single game. From that list, he was the 16th SEC competitor—17th instance—in that span to achieve the feat against a fellow SEC team. The only other one to do so against Auburn was LSU's Leonard Fournette on Sept. 9, 2015.

ARION CARTER RETURNS, GIVES BACK

- The Vols' senior captain linebacker Arion Carter returned to the field against Georgia Tech in Week 2 after serving a one-game NCAA suspension.
- Carter declared for the 2026 NFL Draft on Dec. 13, 2025, but withdrew from the draft before the deadline on Jan. 16 due to surgery for a foot injury he played through during the 2025 season.
- Carter is fully healthy after leading the SEC in tackles per game last fall with 7.60.
- Despite the NCAA suspension against Furman, Carter did serve as the Vols' lone captain in the contest. Carter is a semifinalist for the NFF Campbell Trophy, and he earned his degree in public health in August.
- For every tackle Carter makes this season, he is donating $427 to Nashville-area cancer treatments at Sisters Network Nashville. Carter's girlfriend, Mariah, battled breast cancer, and Carter cut his hair in the summer to honor her. In addition, Carter will also donate $500 for each sack, $1,000 for each interception or forced fumble and $5,000 if he scores a defensive touchdown.
- Carter has produced a team-high 33 tackles this season, including 20 solo. He is averaging 8.25 tackles per game, which is sixth in the SEC. He also has 4 TFLs, one sack, three QB hurries and two fumble recoveries to his credit. He's generated over $14,500 so far for cancer research.
- Carter churned out a game-high 11 tackles against No. 1 Texas, marking the third-highest total of his career. It was his fourth career double-digit tackle game. His efforts contributed $4,697 to cancer research.
- Carter has collected at least 0.5 TFL in three straight games entering the Arkansas contest.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

- In Josh Heupel's 70 games as Tennessee's head coach, the Vols have won the turnover battle 33 times, lost it 17 times and pushed it 20 times.
- The Vols own a 26-6 record when winning the turnover battle in his tenure.
- Tennessee owns a +33 combined turnover margin during Heupel's tenure. The +0.45 margin per game from 2021-present ranks 12th nationally and is first in the SEC.

- Two out of the four highest single-season team rushing totals in program history have occurred in the Heupel era - second in 2024 (2,936) and fourth in 2021 (2,832). The school record is 3,068 in 1951.

- He is one of five SEC kickers who have been perfect on field goals this season, joining Texas' Gianni Spetic (7-of-7), Alabama's Conor Talty (8-of-8), Florida's Patrick Durkin (7-of-7) and Texas A&M's David Olano (7-of-7).
- Dating back to last season at Louisville, Ranvier has made nine of his last 10 field goal attempts.

- Josh Heupel owns a 20-4 record following a loss in the same season as a head coach, including a 15-3 mark at Tennessee and a 5-1 record at UCF. He added to that total with the win over Auburn following the loss to No. 1 Texas.

Guard Sham Umarov also started 10 games last year due to some injuries on the line.
- The Vols have eight offensive linemen who have started games at the FBS level, combining for 113 total starts:

BACK IN ADIDAS

- On July 2, 2026, Tennessee Athletics and adidas officially began a 10-year partnership. The one-of-a-kind partnership between two giants in their respective fields makes Tennessee a flagship university among adidas' substantial roster of partner schools. adidas now serves as the official footwear, uniform, apparel and sideline partner of Tennessee Athletics.
- The two powerhouse brands previously aligned from 1995-2014. During that time, Tennessee won a national championship in football (1998) and consecutive national titles in women's basketball (2007-08), along with numerous additional athletic successes.
- Tennessee took the field in its 2026 opener in adidas uniforms for the first time since beating Iowa in the Gator Bowl on Jan. 2, 2015.
- Inspired by the classic, block athletic numbers so familiar to the Vols' rich football history, fans will notice bold numerals on the jerseys.
- The text from one of the Vols' oldest and most famous pregame traditions is now emblazoned on the inside of each uniform collar - "I Will Give My All for Tennessee Today."

SOLD OUT: 70,500 SEASON TICKETS PURCHASED AGAIN

- Tennessee exhausted its football season ticket inventory for the fourth straight season with 70,500 purchased.
- The Vols have a season ticket wait list of over 30,000 entering the 2026 campaign. Tennessee has produced a departmental record 97 percent season ticket renewal rate in back-to-back years.
- Tennessee's sellout streak extended to 31 straight games for last Saturday's Auburn contest.

100 YEARS OF GENERAL NEYLAND

- On Sept. 25, 2026, the Friday before the Vols hosted Texas, represented the 100-year anniversary since Gen. Robert Neyland coached his first game as head coach of Tennessee. On Sept. 25, 1926, Neyland defeated Carson-Newman, 13-0, and thus launched one of the greatest head coaching tenures in college football history.
- The iconic Neyland coached the Vols from 1926-52, including two interruptions for military service (1935, 1941-45). Tennessee won four national championships (1938, 1940, 1950, 1951) and finished 173-31-12 under his watch, including five SEC championships.
- In 2010, a statue was dedicated to him on the west side of a stadium that bear's his name. The statue moved to the new Champions Corner on the southwest side of the stadium prior to this season.

HONORING DOLLY

The Vols are honoring the legendary Dolly Parton this season with a sticker on the back of their helmets. Parton, an East Tennessee native, passed away on Aug. 25, 2026. Parton made a memorable appearance inside Neyland Stadium when the Vols hosted Georgia on Nov. 18, 2023, performing a rendition of "Rocky Top" after being escorted out by Peyton Manning.

"All that she's meant across the world, this country, she's certainly the Queen of East Tennessee. A lady that was extremely proud of her roots. You look at her impact, just her ability to give back. She means a lot to people across this country, but certainly here inside the state of Tennessee, too."

- Head Coach Josh Heupel on Aug. 31, 2026

HEAD COACH JOSH HEUPEL

Sixth Season • @CoachJoshHeupel

- 2022 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year
- 2022, 2018 National Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2027 College Football Hall of Fame Ballot as Player
- Coached in three national title games and 21 postseason games
- Four 10-Win Seasons in Eight Years as a Head Coach
- 22 NFL Draft picks last five seasons
- Won eight conference championships
- 2000 National Champion QB and Heisman finalist

Former national champion quarterback Josh Heupel took the reins of Tennessee football in 2021 and has guided the proud program to a national resurgence during a five-year stretch that is the best on Rocky Top in more than two decades. The 2022 Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year and two-time National Coach of the Year finalist was officially announced as Tennessee's 27th head football coach on Jan. 27, 2021, by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White, who he worked alongside at UCF.

Heupel owns a stellar 77-29 overall record (.726) and a 44-22 conference mark as an FBS head coach. His 77 victories since the start of the 2018 season rank fifth nationally among active FBS head coaches, and he is one of only four active FBS head coaches to lead multiple programs to New Year's Six Bowl appearances in the College Football Playoff era.

In six seasons, Heupel's remarkable revival of the Volunteers has seen him produce a 49-21 overall record, 11 victories over Top 25 teams, the school's first New Year's Six berth in the CFP era, three top-20 poll finishes and a College Football Playoff berth. Heupel's .700 winning percentage is the second-highest by a Vol coach in the last five decades. His then-45 were the third-most through the first five full seasons by a UT coach, trailing only Fulmer (50 from 1993-97) and Bill Battle (46 from 1970-74).

The Vols' on-field success has correlated in the classroom as Tennessee has shattered the program record for GPA in five consecutive fall semesters under Heupel. The Vols produced semester records for GPA in the fall of 2025 (3.26) and the spring of 2026 (3.28). UT generated a program-record 80 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients in the fall of 2025, which ranked second among SEC teams.

#1/1 Longhorns Edge #14/13 Vols, 20-17

No. 14/13 Tennessee fought until the final play, but No. 1/1 Texas held on for a 20-17 victory before a Checker Neyland crowd of 101,915, including United States President Donald J. Trump. It was the first-ever regular season meeting between the two teams and first since the 1969 Cotton Bowl. Texas opened with a 9-yard touchdown run from Raleek Brown before Tennessee answered with a 33-yard Cooper Ranvier field goal. The Longhorns added a 22-yard field goal in the second quarter to take a 10-3 halftime lead. The Vols tied the game early in the third when Qua Moss returned a punt 57 yards for his first career touchdown. Texas regained the lead with a 44-yard field goal before Brown added a 4-yard touchdown run with 5:41 remaining in the fourth quarter to make it 20-10. Tennessee answered late, as freshman quarterback Faizon Brandon connected with Mike Matthews for a 30-yard touchdown with 1:22 remaining, capping a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Arion Carter then recovered the ensuing onside kick by Jackson Ross at the Tennessee 49, giving the Vols one final opportunity. After Brandon's deep pass into the end zone fell incomplete on the game's final play, Texas escaped with the victory. Brandon finished 17-of-29 for 145 yards and a touchdown, while the Tennessee defense limited Texas to 61 rushing yards and recorded six sacks and 10 tackles for loss. Carter led the Vols with 11 tackles, while Tyree Weathersby added six tackles and 2.5 sacks. ESPN College GameDay was on hand for the rare noon kickoff, including the last hour in the stadium. It was the Vols' first noon kickoff on ABC inside Neyland Stadium since Sept. 19, 1992, when they beat Florida.

Bishop’s Career Day Propels #17 Vols Past Auburn

No. 17/17 Tennessee overcame a 7-3 halftime deficit to defeat Auburn, 24-14, at Neyland Stadium, fueled by a career day from senior running back DeSean Bishop and a stout defensive effort before a sold-out crowd of 101,915. After Cooper Ranvier's 36-yard field goal gave the Vols an early lead, Auburn answered with a touchdown before halftime. Tennessee took control in the third quarter, as Bishop scored on runs of 25 and 44 yards on consecutive possessions to give the Vols a 17-7 advantage. Auburn pulled within three, 17-14, early in the fourth, but Tennessee's defense came up with a critical fourth-down stop at its own 24-yard line with 7:18 remaining. Five plays later, Bishop powered in from five yards out to complete his career-high three-touchdown performance and push the lead to 24-14. Auburn threatened again late, reaching the Tennessee 12-yard line, but sophomore nickel Tevis Metcalf recorded his first career interception at the 1-yard line with 57 seconds remaining to seal the victory. Bishop finished with career highs of 220 rushing yards and three touchdowns on a personal-best 34 carries, posting the 12th-highest rushing total in Tennessee history. Defensively, Dejuan Lane recorded two sacks and an interception, while he and Amare Campbell led the Vols with nine tackles apiece.
