USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO COVERAGE

Any accredited media entity using "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, post-practice/postgame interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage (see note below regarding policy on game video on web), or other electronic transmission as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. That three (3)-minute package may contain no more than two (2) minutes of game highlights. Its usage must be only as supporting edited video/audio for a reported video/audio story and not simply as a raw video post/rebroadcast/streamed highlights or interview sessions. Accredited media entities may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance written permission of The University of Texas athletics department. Video is for news usage only and may not be sponsored or sold. This policy includes all games, matches, practices and events involving any of Texas' athletics programs. It includes all media events — press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews.

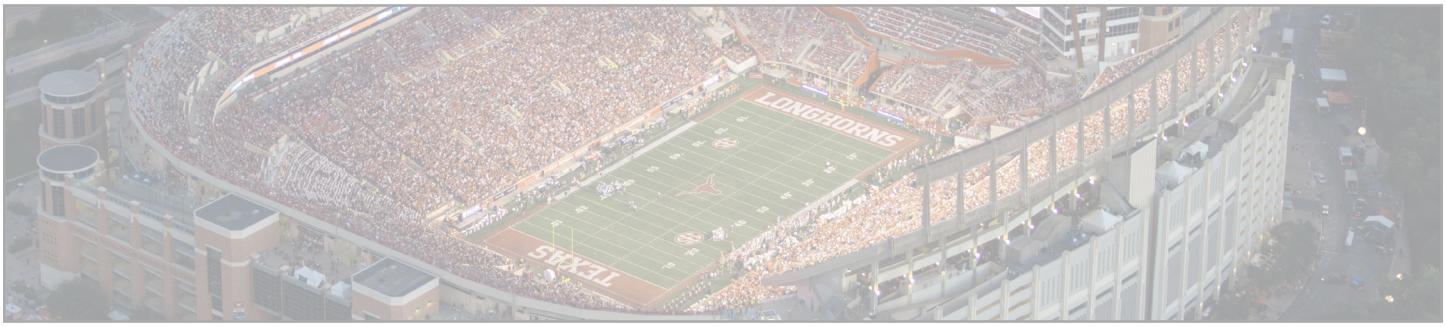

NOTE REGARDING USE OF GAME VIDEO: Policy permits entities to use up to two (2) minutes of video on air (whether taken from the network feed or shot themselves) or on the entity's website. Reports and features must be filed postgame and not during the game. If a game/event is contracted to a network television partner, all highlights may remain on a website no longer than 48 hours following the game/event's conclusion. Highlights may not be used via social media platforms except as a link back to the website/URL hosting the highlights.

EXCEPTION: With advance written permission from the UT Athletics department, media entities will be permitted to rebroadcast the Steve Sarkisian weekly Monday press conferences in its entirety. Video from that 20-minute press conference can be used for either over the air rebroadcast or web postings. Live distribution of the weekly Monday press conference is not permitted. If posted on a website, it must be removed 48 hours after the conclusion of the press conference.

THE OPENING KICKOFF

• No. 8/8/6 Texas Football Texas Football returns home to host the Arkansas Razorbacks at 2:35 p.m. CT Saturday, Nov. 21, at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium. The game will broadcast on ESPN with Dave Pasch (play-by-play), Dusty Dvoracek (analyst) and Taylor McGregor (reporter) on the call.
• Texas' seven wins against teams with a winning record are the most in the FBS. Nine of Texas' 10 games this season have come against FBS teams with a winning record.
• Texas' nine wins against AP Top 25 opponents over the last two seasons are the most of any FBS program.
• Texas finished the 2025 season with a 10-3 record, highlighted by three wins over top-10 opponents in a season where the Longhorns faced five top-10 teams – both were the most of any FBS program. Texas ended the season with a 41-27 victory vs. No. 18/17/18 Michigan in the Cheez-It Citrus Bowl on Dec. 31 in Orlando.
• Under Sarkisian, Texas has turned in three-straight 10-win seasons, marking the first time the Horns have recorded three-consecutive 10-win seasons since registering nine-straight from 2001-09.
• In addition to its third-straight 10-win season and top-15 ranking, the season featured a fourth-straight top-25 final ranking for the first time since 2006-09. It is also the first time Texas has put together three-consecutive 10-win seasons since 2007-09.
• 2025 featured wins over Oklahoma, Texas A&M and Arkansas in the same season in back-to-back years for the first time since 1969-70. The Longhorns concluded the season winning seven of its last eight games.
• Texas currently boasts 979 all-time wins, the fifth-most in college football history. UT holds an all-time record of 979-400-33 (.705).
• Head coach Steve Sarkisian has led his programs to postseason appearances in 10 of his 13 seasons as a head coach, including a current streak of five-straight postseason appearances while at Texas. Sarkisian guided the Longhorns to back-to-back CFP Playoff Semifinal appearances in 2023 and 2024 – the only program to advance to the CFP Semifinals in both of those years. In 2022, the Longhorns finished 8-5 with an Alamo Bowl appearance. He led Washington to four-straight bowl games following the 2010-13 seasons and guided USC to the Holiday Bowl in 2014. His Washington team played in the 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl, a game he did not coach in after taking over the Trojans' program. Sarkisian was the head coach for the Huskies' Alamo Bowl appearance against Baylor in 2011.
• Steve Sarkisian holds a 56-22 record at Texas and a 102-57 mark in 13 seasons as a head coach.

RANKINGS ROUNDUP

• Texas is best in the FBS in several AP Top 25 ranking notables. The Longhorns' seven-straight wins over AP Top 25 opponents dating back to 2025 are the most in the FBS. It almost doubles the next best mark of four by Georgia. Texas' 19 wins over AP Top 25 teams, dating back to 2023, tops the list with Georgia in second at 18 during that time. The Horns' five wins (and perfect 5-0 mark) over Top 25 teams lead the way this season. Their three Top 25 road wins also leads the FBS.

FULL CIRCLE FOR THE MANNING FAMILY

• Senior quarterback Arch Manning's grandfather, Archie Manning, led Ole Miss on a 75-yard TD drive capped by a 9-yard TD pass to Steve Hindman with 55-seconds remaining to lift the Rebels to a 27-24 victory in a night game at No. 14 LSU on Nov. 2, 1968.

ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

• Manning's four-yard TD pass to RB Raleek Brown with just three seconds left in Texas' 22-21 win at No. 21 LSU was the Longhorns' latest game-winning TD in regulation since Bret Stafford hit Tony Jones for an 18-yard TD as time expired at Arkansas in 1987.

REMEMBER NOVEMBER

• Texas has won 15 of their last 16 November games under Coach Sarkisian, a run that dates back to 2022 and includes a 6-1 record versus Top 25 opponents. All totaled since 2022, the Longhorns are 16-2 in November games with a 7-2 mark against Top 25 teams. Since joining the SEC in 2024, the Horns are 9-1 in November, including 5-1 versus the Top 25.
• Texas sports a league-best winning percentage of 83 percent (5-1) vs. Top 25 ranked SEC teams in November.

• In UT's inaugural season in the SEC in 2024, Sarkisian led Texas to the best regular season record in the conference (7-1) and an SEC Championship Game berth, and the Longhorns became the only program to earn a spot in the CFP semifinals in 2023 and 2024. Texas' 13-3 record in 2024 matched the school-record for wins and included a second-straight final top-five ranking (No. 3 Coaches Poll/No. 4 AP), marking the first consecutive top-five finishes for the Longhorns since 2008-09.

MCDONALD, SPETIC EARN SEC WEEKLY HONORS

• No. 8/8/6 Texas Football senior defensive back Jelani McDonald and senior kicker Gianni Spetic earned weekly honors from the Southeastern Conference (SEC), the league office announced Monday. McDonald was named the SEC's Defensive Player of the Week, while Spetic was selected as the SEC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Week.
• McDonald was also named the Associated Press' National Player of the Week on Monday.
• McDonald and Spetic are two of six Longhorns to claim at least one SEC weekly honor this season, including senior linebacker Rasheem Biles, senior left tackle Trevor Goosby, senior quarterback Arch Manning and junior defensive lineman Maraad Watson. Biles has earned three Defensive Player of the Week accolades this season while Manning has collected two SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors.
• McDonald compiled a tremendous three interceptions while also tying for the team lead in tackles with 11 and adding another pass breakup in leading Texas to a 22-21 road victory at No. 21 LSU on Nov. 14. McDonald's three interceptions tie for the second-most in program single-game history and are the most since 1997. He is the first SEC player and fourth FBS player with three interceptions in a game this season, and he becomes the first SEC player to accomplish that feat since 2020, including the first to do it on the road since 2019. McDonald's first interception came with just under two minutes left in the first quarter. With the game tied, 7-7, and LSU having moved from its own 12-yard line to its 34, the Tigers threw a deep pass over the middle that McDonald maintained focused to pull in after it deflected off of the hands of a teammate. On LSU's next possession, McDonald struck for his second interception, this time in the red zone, as the Tigers threw it into the end zone from the 9-yard line, and McDonald pulled it in to prevent a potential score. He then repeated the feat to open the second half for his third interception. After the Tigers had driven to the Texas 5-yard line, he stopped another potential score with another interception in the end zone to keep the deficit at just four, 14-10. In the fourth quarter, McDonald produced a critical third-down tackle to keep LSU two yards short of a first down deep in their own territory and force a punt. That was one of four-straight punts the McDonald and the Texas defense forced after the Tigers had taken a 21-10 lead, including three three-and-outs. On those drives, LSU ran a combined 15 plays for minus-one yard. In all, the defense limited and Tiger offense that came into the came leading the SEC and ranking sixth in the FBS with 504.1 yards per game to just 366. LSU had also led the SEC and ranked fifth in the FBS with 324.9 passing yards per game entering the game and was limited to 80 fewer than that at 244. It was McDonald's first career multi-interception game of his career, and he now has four this season and eight in his career. The Longhorns are one of just 10 FBS teams this season to have multiple games of three or more interceptions. McDonald is also tied for the team lead in tackles this season with Rasheem Biles with 78.

• Spetic connected on all three of his field goal attempts, all over which were over 40 yards along with one PAT in helping Texas to the road victory at Tiger Stadium. The three field goals of over 40 yards in one game is believed to be a program first. Spetic's first field goal came from 42 yards out with 3:22 left in the second quarter to cut the Longhorns' deficit to 14-10 heading into halftime. He then converted back-to-back attempts, first with 1:35 to go in the third quarter to pull the Longhorns within 21-13, and then with 11:37 left in the fourth quarter to make it 21-16. Those points set the stage for the Texas offense to later produce the game-winning touchdown with three seconds to go in the game. Spetic is now 17-of-18 on field goals this season for 94.4 percent, which is second in the SEC and fifth in the FBS. His 1.7 field goals made per game are also second in the SEC and is 10th in the FBS. His only miss this season came from 53 yards out, and he is now a perfect 15-of-15 from inside of 50 yards.

MANNING TABBED SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

• Senior quarterback Arch Manning was named the Southeastern Conference's (SEC) Offensive Player of the Week and a Manning Award Star of the Week on Nov. 9. It was Manning's fourth career SEC weekly honor and his first since receiving SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 14.
• Manning was named a Top 10 finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award on Nov. 6.
• Manning completed 28-of-38 passes (73.7%) for 297 yards and three touchdowns that were all more than 20 yards in leading Texas to a 34-20 road win over No. 18 Missouri on Nov. 7. It was Manning's fifth game of the season with multiple passing touchdowns, along with being his fourth game with three or more passing touchdowns. In Texas' current three-game winning streak, Manning has completed 62-of-88 (70.5%) passes for 729 yards and seven touchdowns. He has also rushed for two touchdowns to account for nine total in those three games. Manning's first touchdown against the Tigers was a 24-yard pass to freshman running back Derrek Cooper in the first quarter that evened the score, 7-7. Later in the third quarter, he connected with freshman wide receiver Jermaine Bishop Jr. on a 25-yard strike that again tied the game, 20-20. The last touchdown pass came with just over five minutes left in the game and was a 23-yard score to senior running back Raleek Brown that gave the Longhorns the lead for good, 27-20. Down the stretch, Manning completed eight of his final 10 passes for 103 yards and two touchdowns. In Manning's last two games, he has thrown six touchdowns and zero interceptions.
• Against Mississippi State on Oct. 31, Manning connected on 16-of-20 passes for 220 yards and three touchdowns. Manning completed 11 of his final 12 passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns against the Bulldogs. Manning helped Texas knock off No. 7/7 Ole Miss on Oct. 24 after throwing for 212 yards and one touchdown, completing 18-of-30 passes. He accounted for three touchdowns against the Rebels after scoring two rushing touchdowns. Against Florida on Oct. 17, Manning completed 14-of-20 passes for 173 yards and a touchdown. In the Allstate Red River Rivalry against Oklahoma on Oct. 10, Manning connected on 19-of-31 passes for 260 yards and three touchdowns. In Texas' win at No. 14/13 Tennessee on Sept. 26, Manning completed 14-of-19 passes for 201 yards to help UT secure its second ranked win of the season. In the Horns' 30-6 victory over UTSA on Sept. 19, Manning went 17-of-33 for 164 yards and two touchdowns. Manning was Texas' leading rusher with 50 yards on the ground on nine attempts (5.6 ypc). Following the win against No. 1/1 Ohio State on Sept. 12, Manning was named the SEC's Co-Offensive Player of the Week. He completed 23-of-37 passes for 195 yards and a touchdown against the Buckeyes. Manning orchestrated three-consecutive touchdown drives to end the game (all at least 12 plays and 72 yards) and rally from a 23-3 deficit. On those three drives, he completed 13-of-18 passes to seven different receivers for 125 yards and one touchdown and rushed three times for 26 yards. Two of his completions came on fourth downs in Texas territory that kept two of the scoring drives alive. The Longhorns became the only team in the past 15 years to close a victory with three-straight touchdown drives of 12 or more plays. It marked the third-largest comeback win by any FBS team against an AP No. 1 team this century, while Texas became the first non-conference opponent this century to score 21-plus points in the fourth quarter against Ohio State (first overall team since Michigan in 2022). Manning has thrown a touchdown pass in four-consecutive games against a Top 5 opponent, the longest streak by an FBS quarterback since a six-game run by Ohio State's Will Howard in 2024. • He has led five fourth-quarter comebacks in his career after doing so against Kentucky, Mississippi State and Michigan last year.

BILES, WATSON EARN SEC WEEKLY HONORS AFTER MISSISSIPPI STATE VICTORY

• Texas Football's Rasheem Biles and Maraad Watson earned weekly recognition from the Southeastern Conference (SEC), the league office announced on Nov. 2. Biles received his third SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week honor of the season, while Watson was selected as the SEC's Co-Defensive Lineman of the Week for the first time in his career.
• The duo led Texas to a 31-3 victory over Mississippi State on Oct. 31 at DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium. The Longhorns limited the Bulldogs to just 187 yards of total offense for just 2.8 yards per play and just three points. Mississippi State was held to 68 yards on the ground and 119 yards in the air. Coming into the game, the Bulldogs had averaged 439.1 ypg and 6.3 yards per play. As a whole, the defense recorded seven sacks and nine tackles for loss.
• It marked the second-consecutive week Biles has been named the SEC's Co-Defensive Player of the Week after he was selected on Oct. 26. The senior linebacker earned his first SEC weekly honor of the year on Sept. 7. Biles was selected as a semifinalist for the Butkus Award on Oct. 28.
• Watson became the fourth Longhorn to earn SEC weekly honors this season, joining Biles, senior offensive lineman Trevor Goosby and senior quarterback Arch Manning.
• Biles compiled eight tackles, three sacks for 26 yards lost, four tackles for loss for a total of 27 yards, and two forced fumbles, one of which was returned for a 61-yard touchdown by Watson, as Texas held Mississippi State to only three points in a 31-3 victory. The three points the defense allowed even came following a turnover by the Longhorns offense in their own territory. The Columbus, Ohio product's three sacks and two forced fumbles were both career highs. The three sacks are also tied for the most in game this year by a true linebacker in the FBS. Both forced fumbles came on the same plays as sacks, the first of which changed the helped change the complexion of the game. Just before the half with Texas holding a 10-0 lead, and Mississippi State at the Longhorns' 34, Biles sacked the quarterback and knocked the ball loose. Watson scooped it up and ran it 61 yards for a touchdown to extend to the lead to 17-0 at halftime. Later in the third quarter, after the offense had turned the ball over at the Texas 28 and the Bulldogs had moved it to the 14, Biles made another key play, disrupting what would have been a pass by a receiver to register a sack where the player attempted to get rid of the ball, but the tackle forced him to throw it backwards for a lateral that bounced out of bounds and ended up as a fumble for a loss of 15 yards. Two plays later, Mississippi State kicked a field goal for their only points of the game. Biles had opened the game with a tackle for loss on first down of the series that ended Mississippi State's first possession. Early in the fourth quarter, he produced his third sack, which created a three-and-out and gave the ball to the offense, which scored for the 31-3 final margin.
• Watson, a junior defensive lineman from Irvington, N.J., scooped and scored for the 61-yard fumble return

GOOSBY NAMED CAPITAL ONE ORANGE BOWL-FWAA COURAGE AWARD NOMINEE

• Goosby was announced as a nominee for the 2026 Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award, the FWAA announced on Sept. 16. Goosby, a fourth-year left tackle, has overcome open-heart surgery as a teenager, along with multiple other injuries, to become a leader for the Longhorns. Goosby underwent open-heart surgery as a 16-year-old after doctors noticed a heart murmur during a physical for athletes who had previously had COVID-19. Further testing uncovered Atrium Septal Defect, a birth condition in which a hole separates the heart's upper chambers. Goosby had previously shown no known signs of the condition outside of fatigue during basketball games.
• At SEC Media Days in Tampa, Fla., this summer, Goosby wore a pin lapel that said "Every 15 minutes," calling attention to the fact that a child is born with a heart condition every 15 minutes in America. Goosby held a camp that benefitted The Children's Heart Foundation (CHF), the nation's leading organization dedicated solely to funding research on congenital heart defects, in July 2026. As part of the initiative, Goosby personally matched donations made to The Children's Heart Foundation through the campaign.
• Goosby earned the Outland Trophy's National Player of the Week and Co-SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week following Texas' win over No. 1/1 Ohio State on Sept. 12.
• Texas has won two of the last three Outland Trophies and five overall. Former Longhorn left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. won the prestigious award in 2024 and former Texas defensive tackle T'Vondre Sweat took home the trophy in 2023. Former Texas defensive tackle Scott Appleton (1963), linebacker Tommy Nobis (1965) and defensive tackle Brad Shearer (1977) have also won the award. Earlier this week, Goosby picked up his second career SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week honor.
• Goosby powered Texas to its first 20-plus-point comeback in the fourth quarter against a No. 1 team in 22 years in Texas' 24-23 win over No. 1/1 Ohio State at DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium on Sept. 12. It was the second-largest fourth-quarter comeback and the fourth-largest overall comeback in program history. The Longhorns moved to 2-0 and captured their 11th-consecutive victory at home, including their fourth-straight win at home against a ranked opponent, which leads the nation.
• Goosby was the top-graded offensive lineman and allowed no sacks and just one pressure on 46 pass blocks against Ohio State. The Longhorns' offense manufactured three-consecutive touchdown drives to end the game. Goosby's impact was most important in the fourth quarter, as each of the Longhorns' three-consecutive touchdown drives to end the game took at least 12 plays and covered at least 72 yards to overcome a 23-3 deficit. The first two drives (15 and 13 plays) included clutch fourth-down conversions in Texas territory to keep the rally alive.
• In the fourth quarter alone, Goosby and the offensive line helped the Longhorns compile 150 yards of total offense – 83 passing and 67 rushing – in outgaining the Buckeyes, 150-52. Including the final drive of the third quarter, Texas totaled 236 total yards in the last 21 minutes of the game. • Simmons was named a semifinalist for the Lombardi Award on Nov. 4 and the Chuck Bednarik Award on Nov. 10.

Despite missing the Ole Miss and Mississippi State games due to injury, Simmons leads Texas with 10.5 sacks and 16.5 tackles for loss to go along with 33 total tackles (20 solo), two forced fumbles, four quarterback hurries and one fumble recovery. Simmons leads the SEC and ranks second in the FBS in total sacks (10.5) and sacks per game (1.31), while he leads the SEC and ties for third in the FBS in tackles for loss with 16.5. Simmons leads the FBS in tackles for loss per game (2.00). He is the only FBS player to average more than 2.0 tackles for loss per game. Simmons ranks second in the SEC in forced fumbles with two.
• Against LSU on Nov. 14, Simmons was credited with eight tackles (three solo), including a 0.5 tackle for loss.
• Simmons was back in action against Missouri on Nov. 7.
• Simmons has a tackle for loss in 12 of his last 13 games.
• Simmons moved into third place on Texas' all-time sacks leaders (31.5), after adding his fifth in as many games against Florida on Oct. 17.
• Against Oklahoma on Oct. 10, Simmons recorded four tackles with 3.0 of those being a tackle for loss, inlcuding 2.0 sacks, to go along with a forced fumble. It was Simmons' second-consecutive game with multiple sacks and his sixth career multi-sack effort.
• Simmons had a record-breaking game in Texas' 20-17 win at No. 14/13 Tennessee on Sept. 26, sweeping National Player of the Week honors from the Chuck Bednarik Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Walter Camp. Simmons set the Texas school record for sacks in a game with 5.5 for a massive 55 combined yards lost, while also forcing a fumble and recording nine tackles (six solo) and a pressure in leading the Longhorns to a 20-17 victory at No. 14/13 Tennessee on Sept. 26. With the 5.5 sacks, Simmons became the first FBS player in the last 20 seasons to have 5.0 or more sacks in a game against a ranked team. Simmons' 5.5 sacks tied the SEC single-game record, which was set by Mississippi State's Greg Favors against Ole Miss in 1996. He has also posted at least one sack in eight of his last nine games. It was just the sixth time since 1975 a Texas player has had 4.0-plus sacks, with the last being 4.5 by Alex Okafor against Oregon State in the 2012 Alamo Bowl. In all, Simmons and the defense limited a Tennessee offense that had entered the game with the nation's No. 4 rushing offense (298.7 ypg), No. 7 scoring offense (47.7 ppg) and No. 14 total offense (510.3 ypg) to just 70 rushing yards for 1.7 yards per carry, 10 points (one of Tennessee's two touchdowns came on a punt return) and 221 total yards with 80 of those coming on a fourth-quarter drive. The Longhorns totaled 10 sacks on the day, second-most in program history and fourth-most by an FBS team against a top-25 opponent since sacks became an official NCAA stat in 2000. Simmons' first sack of the game was for a loss of seven yards and came in the first quarter on a third-and-12 at the Tennessee 40-yard line to force a three-and-out. Although his next tackle wasn't a sack, it also came on third down for a three-and-out on the first possession of the second quarter. Later in the second, Simmons secured a sack for a loss of 16 yards on another third down, although the drive continued following a penalty after the play. However, later during that drive, Simmons forced an incomplete pass with a pressure on second down of a series that resulted in a turnover on downs. In the third quarter, with Texas having just retaken a 13-10 lead, Tennessee pushed the ball toward midfield at their own 45, but Simmons came away with back-to-back sacks for a combined loss of 21 yards to force a punt. For his final sacks, he once again generated multiple sacks during the same series, which was the second on Tennessee's first possession of the fourth quarter. The first sack on first down that he shared with Hero Kanu for a six-yard loss, and then he came through again on third-and-16. He also stripped the ball on that play, and although it ended up bouncing out of bounds, it still forced a punt. Simmons even had an additional half-sack on the field that was negated by a facemask penalty on another player during Tennessee's final possession. Simmons now has 14.5 career sacks against Top 25 teams, with at least one in each of his last seven games against a ranked opponent.

On the following Vanderbilt possession, Simmons registered a tackle for no gain and a half tackle for a four-yard loss, helping limit the Commodores to a field goal on the possession. His next sack came in with 6:23 left in the fourth quarter and Texas leading 20-6. Oklahoma was at the UT 35-yard line with a 3rd-and-20 and it forced a fourth down that Oklahoma went for but failed to convert to give the ball back to Texas. WELCOME BACK TO THE FORTY, COACH MUSCHAMP

• Will Muschamp is back on the Forty Acres as Defensive Coordinator. Muschamp previously directed some of the top defenses in Longhorn history during his tenure in Austin from 2008-10, playing a vital role as Texas finished the 2008 season ranked No. 3 before advancing to the BCS National Championship Game during the 2009 season.
• In Muschamp's time at Texas, the Longhorn defense ranked No. 1 in the nation with 119 sacks and ranked in the top-10 nationally allowing 2.9 yards per rushing attempt (third), 96.7 rushing yards per game (fourth) and 297.4 yards per game (seventh), all Big 12 bests during that span. Along with a BCS National Championship Game appearance in 2009, the Longhorns also won the Big 12 Championship. In the 2009-11 NFL Drafts, Muschamp had a combined 12 players drafted with 10 in the first four rounds.
• Muschamp served as the Defensive Coordinator at Georgia from 2022-23, helping guide the Bulldogs to a 28-1 record and 2022 National Championship (15-0).
• Muschamp was the Defensive Coordinator for the 2003 LSU National Championship Team along with working with two SEC Championship squads.

TEXAS IN THE TOP-5

• Texas opened the 2026 season at No. 5 in the Associated Press poll.
• Since 2000, Texas has recorded 15 top-10 preseason rankings in the AP poll. Overall, Texas has 37 preseason top-10 rankings.
• It is the ninth time in the last 10 seasons in which Texas has been ranked in the preseason AP Top 25. It is also Texas' third-consecutive preseason AP Top 10 ranking after UT opened the 2025 season ranked No. 1 and the 2024 season ranked No. 4.
• The Longhorns will face seven preseason AP Top 25 opponents this season, including No. 1 Ohio State, No. 8 Texas A&M, No. 9 Ole Miss, No. 10 Oklahoma, No. 11 LSU, No. 20 Tennessee and No. 25 Missouri. Texas goes on the road to face four of those teams while taking on Oklahoma

P Mac Chiumento booted six punts for 50+ yards at Florida State in 2025.

WR/RB Ryan Niblett was named to the All-America First Team by the FWAA in 2025.

K Gianni Spetic made his first eight field goals as a Longhorn, the first UT kicker to do so since 2008.

STEVE SARKISIAN

HEAD COACH

One of the nation's premier coaches who has steadfastly returned Texas Football back to prominence, Steve Sarkisian is in his 26th year of coaching and 13th as a head coach. In his sixth season at Texas, his Longhorn rebuild has been patient, deliberate and highly successful, producing one of the nation's winningest programs over the past three seasons with two College Football Playoff appearances. Sarkisian's process and efforts include a steady growth of on-field results through player development and recruiting, combined with a strong team culture, both of which have positioned the program for continued long-term success. The Longhorns finished 5-7 in 2021 and improved to 8-5 with an Alamo Bowl bid in 2022 before turning in a historic season in 2023 with a 12-2 record, Big 12 Championship, No. 3 final ranking and College Football Playoff semifinal appearance. More history was made in year four in 2024. In UT's inaugural season in the SEC, Sarkisian led Texas to the best regular season record in the conference (7-1) and an SEC Championship Game berth, and the Longhorns became the only program to earn a spot in the CFP semifinals in both 2023 and 2024. Texas' 13-3 record in 2024 matched the school-record for wins and included a second-straight final top-five ranking (No. 3 Coaches Poll/No. 4 AP), marking the first consecutive top-five finishes for the Longhorns since 2008-09. In 2025, Sarkisian turned in a 10-3 season and Cheez-It Citrus Bowl victory over Michigan. It was UT's third-straight 10-win season and the first time Texas has put together three-consecutive 10-win seasons since recording nine-straight from 2001-09. He enters the 2026 season with a 48-20 record at Texas and a 94-55 mark in 12 seasons as a head coach.

A huge part of the Texas' success under Sarkisian is reflected in the program's recruiting, player development and historic numbers of Longhorns selected in the NFL Draft. Texas has produced top-five recruiting classes in each of the past five years, and the Longhorns have won the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year, Lombardi, Thorpe, and Doak Walker awards, along with the Outland and Wuerffel trophies, while having four consensus first-team All-Americans and 24 first-team all-conference picks during that time. Sarkisian's squad set a UT record for NFL Draft Picks (in a seven-round draft) in 2024 with 11 (second-most of any program) and eclipsed that mark with 12 (third-most of any program) in 2025, including a school-record-tying three first-round selections. The 12 picks in 2025 are tied for seventh-most of any program in the history of the seven-round NFL Draft, while 11 in 2024 is tied for 10th. The Longhorns set a school record with 11 players invited to the NFL Combine in 2024 and shattered that mark with 14 in 2025. For the third-straight year in 2026, Texas had at least six players drafted after having only four previous draft of that many since the draft went to seven rounds in 1994. Texas' 29 draft picks over the last three years leads the country along with Georgia and Ohio State. Texas' 23 draft picks between 2024 and 2025 led the nation during that period. Texas had 32 players in the NFL when Sarkisian arrived in 2021, and in just five seasons under his leadership, 41 of his players are currently on NFL rosters, including 34 from just the 2023-25 teams alone.

Texas finished the 2025 season with a 10-3 record, highlighted by three wins over top-10 opponents in a season where the Longhorns faced five top-10 teams – both were the most of any FBS program. In addition to its third-straight 10-win season and top-15 ranking, the season featured a fourth-straight top-25 final ranking for the first time since 2006-09. It is also the first time Texas has put together three-consecutive 10-win seasons since 2007-09. Texas' 10 wins against top-25 opponents, including five against the top-10, over the last two seasons are the most of any FBS program. 2025 featured wins over Oklahoma, Texas A&M and Arkansas in the same season in back-to-back years for the first time since 1969-70. The Longhorns concluded the season winning seven of its last eight games. Texas took care of the ball and finished the season ranked fifth in turnover margin (1.08) and had the fifth-fewest turnovers lost (9). UT also ranked second nationally in fumbles lost with just two across 13 games. All-American returner Ryan Niblett helped Texas rank second nationally in punt returns with an average of 22 yards per return. Texas' defense totaled 16 interceptions, which stood 12th nationally. Eight players received All-SEC Coaches' Team selection, including three All-SEC First Team picks. Trevor Goosby, Colin Simmons and Michael Taaffe were named to the All-SEC First Team, while Ryan Wingo, Anthony Hill Jr., Malik Muhammad and Ryan Niblett were selected to the All-SEC Second Team. DJ Campbell was placed on the All-SEC Third Team. Four Longhorns garnered All-America status in Hill Jr., Niblett, Simmons and Taaffe. Two of those were first-team accolades with Taaffe's being from the AFCA and Niblett's from the FWAA. In his first season as an everyday start, QB Arch Manning completed 248-of-404 passes for 3,163 yards and 26 touchdowns, averaging 243.3 yards per game. Manning's 3,163 passing yards were the 10th-most in the program's single-season history. Manning was also second on the team with 399 rushing yards and 10 rushing scores. Simmons led Texas defensively with team-highs in sacks (12.0), tackles for loss (15.5), quarterback hurries (15) and forced fumbles (3) while compiling 43 tackles, two pass break-ups and one fumble recovery. Simmons' 12.0 sacks led the SEC and ranked fifth nationally.

In 2024, Texas posted school-record-tying 13 wins and earned a spot in the College Football Playoff semifinals for a second-straight year. It was just the third time in school history the Longhorns won 13 games and Sarkisian was again named a Bear Bryant and George Munger Coach of the Year finalist. Texas' 25 wins in 2023 and 2024 were the most for the Longhorns since matching that total in 2008-09 and Sarkisian led his squad to a No. 1 ranking in one of the major polls for four-straight weeks, marking the program's first No. 1 ranking at any point in a season since 2008. Texas ranked third in the FBS in both scoring defense at 15.3 ppg and total defense with an SEC-best 283.4 yards allowed per game. The Longhorn defense forced an SEC-leading 31 turnovers (2nd FBS) including an FBS-best 22 interceptions, and nearly three sacks (2.88/15th FBS) per game. Offensively, the balanced Longhorn attack averaged 278.8 passing yards (14th FBS), 158.8 rushing yards and 33 points (29th FBS) per game. Sarkisian's explosive offense produced 21 plays of 40 or more yards (10 of 50+) and saw running backs Jaydon Blue and Quintrevion Wisner each have a rush and reception of 40-plus yards. Wisner rushed for 1,064 yards, extending Sarkisian's streak to 13-straight seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher during his tenure as a head coach or offensive coordinator. Five players earned All-America honors (OT Kelvin Banks Jr., DB Jahdae Barron, DT Alfred Collins, LB Anthony Hill Jr., DB Michael Taaffe). Banks became the Longhorns' second-straight Outland Trophy winner and the first Texas player ever to sweep the Lombardi Award and Outland. Barron won the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back (and was UT's first-ever defensive back to be a Nagurski Award finalist), EDGE Colin Simmons claimed the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award and was tabbed a Freshman All-American, while center Jake Majors was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete/Campbell Award finalist. Seven Longhorns earned All-SEC honors with QB Quinn Ewers, TE Gunnar Helm, RB Quintrevion Wisner and DB Andrew Mukuba joining Banks, Barron, and Hill. Banks earned the SEC's Jacob Blocking Trophy, which is given annual to the league's most outstanding blocker. Four different UT offensive linemen earned SEC Lineman of the Week honors. The Longhorns had school record 14 players invited to the NFL Combine in February 2025, 12 of whom were later drafted.

The 2023 season had Texas Football attain heights not seen on the Forty Acres in over a decade. Sarkisian was named a finalist for the Bear Bryant, George Munger and Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year awards after leading the Longhorns to their first Big 12 Championship since 2009, winning 12 games for the first time since that season and reaching the College Football Playoff for the first time in program history. At that time, the 12 wins marked just the fourth time in school history that the Longhorns had 12 or more victories in a season. He was also tabbed the Big 12 Coach of the Year by The Associated Press. Texas earned a No. 3 final ranking in The Associated Press Poll, its highest finish in 15 years since earning the No. 2 spot in 2009. The Longhorns were one of only five Power-5 programs that ranked among the top 15 in scoring offense (35.8 ppg) and scoring defense (18.9 ppg), finishing 15th nationally in both. Sarkisian's versatile and balanced squad ranked ninth nationally in total offense (477.5 ypg), led the Big 12 in total defense (336.7 ypg/34th FBS) and was bolstered by one of the nation's top special team's units. Led by Outland Trophy winner and unanimous first-team All-American defensive tackle T'Vondre Sweat, Texas ranked third nationally in rushing defense (82.4 ypg). The Longhorns' ground game, which was led by Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award finalist Jonathon Brooks' 1,139 yards in 11 games, and three total backs with 100-yard rushing games, ranked 24th in the FBS (188.4 ypg). Texas averaged 289.1 yards per game passing (17th/FBS). Seven Longhorns earned first-team All-Big 12 honors with Sweat voted the league's defensive player of the year, defensive tackle Byron Murphy II selected defensive lineman of the year, wide receiver Adonai Mitchell chosen offensive newcomer of the year, and linebacker Anthony Hill Jr. tabbed defensive freshman of the year. The Longhorns had 11 players invited to the NFL Combine in February 2024, which at the time was the most ever in program history.
