STORYLINES

NEXT STOP: FAYETTEVILLE

- Tulsa concludes nonconference play at Arkansas on Saturday, Sept. 26, at 7 p.m. CT on SEC Network+.
- The contest will be the 74th meeting between the Golden Hurricane and Razorbacks.
- The programs last met in 2018, when Arkansas earned a 23-0 victory in Fayetteville.
- Each of the last four meetings has been played at Arkansas, including close Tulsa losses in 2008 and 2012. The Golden Hurricane fell 30-23 in 2008 and 19-15 in 2012.
- Arkansas will be Tulsa's second power-conference opponent of the season. The Golden Hurricane opened the year with a 24-10 victory over Big 12 member Oklahoma State.

THREE AND COUNTING

- Tulsa improved to 3-0 with its 42-0 victory over East Texas A&M, giving the Golden Hurricane its first 3-0 start since 2008.
- The 2008 Golden Hurricane opened the season with eight consecutive victories and finished 11-3 as the Conference USA West Division co-champion and GMAC Bowl champion.
- Tulsa has earned two home victories and one road win during its unbeaten start, defeating Oklahoma State, Sam Houston and East Texas A&M.
- The Golden Hurricane has outscored its first three opponents 89-27, producing an average victory margin of 20.7 points.
- Tulsa will look to improve to 4-0 for the first time since 2008 when it travels to Arkansas.

BY THE NUMBERS

4

Tulsa looks to improve to 4-0 for the first time since 2008 when the Golden Hurricane travels to Arkansas.

6

The Golden Hurricane has forced six turnovers through three games, tied for 13th nationally. Tulsa's plus-four turnover margin is tied for 12th in the country.

9.0

Tulsa leads the American Conference in scoring defense, allowing only 9.0 points per game. The Golden Hurricane has surrendered 27 points through three contests and has not allowed a fourth-quarter point this season.

A SHUTOUT 24 YEARS IN THE MAKING

- Tulsa's 42-0 victory over East Texas A&M marked the Golden Hurricane's first shutout since defeating UTEP 20-0 on Oct. 26, 2002.
- The Golden Hurricane ended a stretch of 286 consecutive games without a shutout.
- Tulsa limited East Texas A&M to 288 total yards, including 125 rushing and 163 passing.
- The Lions advanced inside Tulsa's red zone twice but came away without points on either possession.
- East Texas A&M finished 4-of-15 on third down and 0-of-3 on fourth down.
- The 42-point margin was Tulsa's largest since defeating Jacksonville State 54-17 in 2023.

DEFENSE SETTING THE STANDARD

- Tulsa leads the American Conference and ranks seventh nationally in scoring defense, allowing only 9.0 points per game through its first three contests.
- The six teams ahead of Tulsa nationally are Iowa, Indiana, Penn State, Notre Dame, Oklahoma and Utah.
- New Mexico ranks immediately behind Tulsa at 9.3 points per game, followed by James Madison at 9.7. Those are the only other Group of Six programs ranked among the national top 10.
- The Golden Hurricane has surrendered just 27 total points and three touchdowns across 12 quarters.
- Tulsa has allowed only 10 second-half points this season, with all 10 coming during the third quarter.
- The Golden Hurricane has not surrendered a fourth-quarter point, outscoring its opponents 38-0 during the final period.
- Tulsa ranks fourth in the American Conference in total defense at 342.3 yards allowed per game.
- The Golden Hurricane is one of only two American Conference teams that has not allowed a rushing touchdown this season.
- Opposing quarterbacks have thrown three touchdown passes and three interceptions against Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane ranks second in the conference in pass-efficiency defense with an opponent rating of 110.9.

NO ROOM TO RUN

- Tulsa has limited its first three opponents to 307 rushing yards on 100 attempts—an average of 102.3 yards per game and 3.1 yards per carry.
- The Golden Hurricane ranks third in the American Conference and 41st nationally in rushing defense.
- Tulsa's average of 3.1 yards allowed per carry ranks among the top 40 nationally.
- Oklahoma State rushed for 127 yards, East Texas A&M finished with 125 and Sam Houston was held to only 55.
- None of Tulsa's first three opponents has scored a rushing touchdown against the Golden Hurricane.
- Tulsa is one of only eight FBS teams that has not allowed a rushing touchdown this season, joining Duke, Iowa, Miami, Michigan, Navy, South Carolina and Texas Tech.
- Tulsa and Navy are the only American Conference—and the only Group of Six—programs that have not surrendered a rushing touchdown.

DEPTH IN THE BACKFIELD

- Tulsa's backfield has displayed both depth and versatility through the first three games, helping the Golden Hurricane average 220.3 rushing yards per contest.
- A different running back has led Tulsa in rushing in each victory: Damari Alston with 73 yards against Oklahoma State, Trequan Jones with 125 against Sam Houston and Seth Davis with 90 against East Texas A&M.
- Jones owns Tulsa's lone 100-yard rushing performance of the season. He gained 125 yards and scored two touchdowns on only nine carries at Sam Houston, averaging 13.9 yards per attempt.
- Four Golden Hurricane running backs have already produced a game with at least 50 rushing yards: Jones, Davis, Alston and DJ McKinney.
- Alston leads Tulsa with 186 rushing yards and three touchdowns, while Jones has added 174 yards and two scores. Davis has 90 yards and one touchdown, and McKinney has contributed 70 yards.
- Those four backs have combined for 520 of Tulsa's 661 rushing yards and six of the team's seven rushing touchdowns.
- Tulsa rushed for a season-high 286 yards on 44 attempts against East Texas A&M, averaging 6.5 yards per carry in the 42-0 victory. Davis, Alston and McKinney combined for 214 yards and two touchdowns on 24 carries against the Lions—an average of 8.9 yards per attempt.
- The Golden Hurricane has produced five rushing plays covering more than 20 yards this season: Jones' 81-yard touchdown at Sam Houston, Tristan Lawyer's 56-yard touchdown at Sam Houston, Davis' 51-yard touchdown against East Texas A&M, Alston's 29-yard touchdown against Oklahoma State and Max Tulen's 23-yard fake-punt run against East Texas A&M.
- Three of those five explosive runs came from running backs, while the two others came on fake punts, giving Tulsa five different players with a rushing gain of more than 20 yards.

JONES GOES THE DISTANCE

- Trequan Jones returned the second-half kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, extending Tulsa's lead to 21-0 only 11 seconds into the third quarter against East Texas A&M.
- The return was Tulsa's first kickoff-return touchdown since Lloyd Avant scored on a 100-yard return against Northwestern State on Aug. 29, 2024.
- Avant's touchdown came with 14:28 remaining in Tulsa's 62-28 season-opening victory at H.A. Chapman Stadium.
- Jones ended a stretch of 25 consecutive Golden Hurricane games without a kickoff-return touchdown.
- His return was Tulsa's first kickoff-return touchdown of the season and the longest play by an American Conference team through the opening three weeks.
- Jones has scored touchdowns of at least 80 yards in consecutive games after breaking an 81-yard rushing score at Sam Houston.
- He leads the American Conference with a 33.0-yard kickoff-return average and has accumulated a team-leading 340 all-purpose yards, including 174 rushing yards and 165 kickoff-return yards.
- Jones is tied with Damari Alston for the Tulsa lead with three total touchdowns.

JONES EARNS CONFERENCE HONOR (SEPT. 21)

- Running back Trequan Jones was named the American Conference Special Teams Player of the Week following Tulsa's 42-0 victory over East Texas A&M.
- Jones returned the second-half kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, extending Tulsa's advantage to 21-0 just 11 seconds into the third quarter.
- The 98-yard return was Tulsa's first kickoff-return touchdown of the season and the longest play by an American Conference team through the opening three weeks.
- Jones has handled all five of Tulsa's kickoff returns this season, accumulating 165 yards for a conference-leading average of 33.0 yards per return.
- The touchdown marked Jones' second score of at least 80 yards in as many games after his 81-yard rushing touchdown at Sam Houston.
- Jones leads Tulsa with 340 all-purpose yards, including 174 rushing yards and 165 kickoff-return yards.
- He is tied with Damari Alston for the team lead with three touchdowns through three games.
- Jones becomes Tulsa's second American Conference Player of the Week honoree this season, joining linebacker Chris Thompson Jr., who earned Defensive Player of the Week honors following the victory over Oklahoma State.

PRESSURE FROM ALL ANGLES

- Tulsa recorded three sacks against East Texas A&M, increasing its season total to 10 sacks for 76 yards through three games.
- The Golden Hurricane is tied for 10th nationally in total sacks and is one of only 18 FBS teams with at least 10 this season.
- Tulsa's average of 3.33 sacks per game is also tied for 10th nationally and leads the American Conference.
- The Golden Hurricane has recorded multiple sacks in every contest, collecting two against Oklahoma State, five at Sam Houston and three against East Texas A&M.
- Thomas Davis recorded his American Conference-leading fourth sack of the season against East Texas A&M.
- Davis is tied for third nationally with four sacks, trailing only LSU's Princewill Umanmielen and North Carolina's Xavier Lewis, who have six apiece.
- In addition to his four sacks, Davis leads Tulsa with five tackles for loss and seven quarterback hurries.
- Kyran Duhon ranks second on the team with two sacks, while Dax Collins, Will Upshaw, Zane Woodham and Sam Stone have contributed one apiece.
- Six different Golden Hurricane defenders have recorded a sack, demonstrating Tulsa's ability to generate pressure from multiple positions across the defensive front.
- Tulsa already has nearly half as many sacks as it recorded during the entire 2025 season, when the Golden Hurricane finished with 21. Its current pace would produce 40 sacks over a 12-game regular season.

TURNOVERS TILT TOWARD TULSA

- Tulsa has forced six turnovers through the opening three games, collecting three interceptions and recovering three fumbles.
- The Golden Hurricane's six takeaways are tied for 13th nationally and rank among the leaders in the American Conference.
- Tulsa has forced at least one turnover in every game, producing four takeaways against Oklahoma State and one each against Sam Houston and East Texas A&M.
- The Golden Hurricane is averaging 2.0 takeaways per game after averaging 0.92 during the 2025 season.
- Tulsa forced only 11 turnovers across 12 games last season—seven interceptions and four fumble recoveries—and has already reached more than half of that total in three games this year.
- The Golden Hurricane finished the 2025 season tied for 112th nationally in takeaways but enters the Arkansas game tied for 13th in 2026. Tulsa has committed only two turnovers this season—one interception and one lost fumble—giving the Golden Hurricane a plus-four turnover margin.
- The plus-four margin is tied for 12th nationally. Tulsa finished the 2025 season with a minus-nine margin after committing 20 turnovers and forcing 11.
- Arkansas enters Saturday with two takeaways and five giveaways for a minus-three margin, creating a seven-turnover difference between the teams.

NATIONAL ATTENTION

- Tulsa received votes in both major national polls for the second consecutive week following its 42-0 victory over East Texas A&M.
- The Golden Hurricane received 18 votes in the Sept. 20 Associated Press poll, placing Tulsa 10th among teams outside the Top 25 and effectively No. 35 nationally.
- Tulsa collected 20 votes in the US LBM Coaches Poll, an increase from seven votes the previous week.

THOMPSON CONTINUES HIS COMEBACK

- Linebacker Chris Thompson Jr. recorded a game-high eight tackles and one tackle for loss in the shutout victory over East Texas A&M.
- Thompson leads Tulsa with 26 tackles through three games, averaging 8.7 stops per contest.
- He has produced at least eight tackles in each of Tulsa's first three victories.
- Thompson opened the season with 10 tackles, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery against Oklahoma State, earning American Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors.
- The performance came in his first game since missing the entire 2025 season because of injury.
- Thompson, a team captain and preseason Comeback Player of the Year Award candidate, has helped lead a defense allowing a conference-low 9.0 points per game.

WILLIAMS ANSWERS THE CALL

- Quarterback Dexter Williams II completed 14-of-26 passes for 164 yards and three touchdowns in his first start for the Golden Hurricane.
- Williams threw touchdown passes to three different receivers without committing a turnover or taking a sack.
- He opened the scoring with a 27-yard touchdown pass to Oran Singleton Jr. before connecting with Donnell Gee Jr. for a 24-yard score in the second quarter.

- Williams added a 22-yard touchdown pass to Jackson Shockley during the fourth quarter.
- His three touchdown passes are the most by a Tulsa quarterback in a game this season.

WINNING THE MONEY DOWNS

- Tulsa's opponents have converted only 14-of-45 third-down opportunities, a success rate of 31.1 percent.
- That figure ranks second in the American Conference.
- Opponents are only 2-of-11 on fourth down against Tulsa, giving the Golden Hurricane nine fourth-down stops in three games.
- Tulsa's 18.2-percent opponent fourth-down conversion rate ranks second in the conference.
- The Golden Hurricane offense has converted 8-of-10 fourth-down attempts, including a perfect 3-of-3 performance against East Texas A&M.
- Tulsa also leads the American Conference in red-zone defense, allowing scores on only two of seven opponent trips inside the 20-yard line.

WINNING AWAY FROM HOME

- Tulsa's victory at Sam Houston marked Tulsa's second consecutive road win dating to its 26-25 victory at Army on Nov. 22, 2025.
- The Golden Hurricane overcame a halftime deficit in both victories.
- Tulsa trailed Army by 11 points during the fourth quarter before rallying for the win and faced a 14-10 halftime deficit at Sam Houston.
- Tulsa outscored Sam Houston 13-3 during the second half and held the Bearkats scoreless in the fourth quarter.
- The win was Tulsa's first game at Sam Houston and improved the Golden Hurricane to 2-0 in the all-time series.

BACK-TO-BACK AGAINST THE COWBOYS

- Tulsa defeated Oklahoma State for the second consecutive season with a 24-10 victory at H.A. Chapman Stadium.
- The Golden Hurricane has posted consecutive wins over the Cowboys for the first time since Tulsa won three straight meetings from 1950-52.
- The victory was Tulsa's first at home against Oklahoma State since a 35-20 win on Sept. 12, 1998.
- Tulsa earned a 19-13 victory in Stillwater in 2025, snapping Tulsa's 10-game losing streak in the series.
- The 2025 win was Tulsa's first victory in Stillwater since 1951, giving the Golden Hurricane wins over Oklahoma State in both Stillwater and Tulsa over the past two seasons.
- Tulsa has outscored Oklahoma State 43-23 during the two-game winning streak, holding the Cowboys to an average of 11.5 points.
- The Golden Hurricane defense has limited Oklahoma State to 10 total second-half points across the past two meetings.
- The 10 points are the fewest points scored by OSU in the series since 1990 and the fewest they scored in Tulsa since 1943.
- The 2026 contest marked the 78th meeting in the Gateway First Bank Turnpike Classic, a series that dates to the 1914 season.

FOUR STRAIGHT OUT OF CONFERENCE

- Tulsa will open the 2026 season with four consecutive nonconference games before beginning American Conference play on Thursday, Oct. 1, against North Texas at H.A. Chapman Stadium.
- The Golden Hurricane begins the campaign at home against Oklahoma State on Sept. 5 before traveling to Sam Houston on Sept. 12. Tulsa then hosts East Texas A&M on Sept. 19 and concludes nonconference play at Arkansas on Sept. 26.
- This marks the first time since 2024 that Tulsa will play four straight nonconference games to begin a season.
- In 2024, Tulsa opened against Northwestern State, Arkansas State, Oklahoma State and Louisiana Tech before beginning American Conference play at North Texas on Sept. 28.
- The 2024 and 2026 opening stretches share the same scheduling format, with Tulsa alternating home and road contests over the first four games.
- Tulsa's 2026 nonconference schedule includes two opponents from power conferences—Oklahoma State of the Big 12 and Arkansas of the SEC—along with Conference USA member Sam Houston and Southland Conference member East Texas A&M. This will be the first time since 2023 that Tulsa has played two opponents from the power conferences in the same season, when they played Washington and Oklahoma.
- The Golden Hurricane will face Oklahoma State and Arkansas in the same season for the first time since 2018.
- Tulsa's meeting with East Texas A&M will be the first between the programs, while the Golden Hurricane will face Sam Houston for just the second time. Tulsa won the initial meeting with the Bearkats, 56-3, in 2009.

THOMPSON JR. EARNS CONFERENCE HONOR (SEPT. 7)

- Linebacker Chris Thompson Jr. was named the American Conference Defensive Player of the Week following his performance in Tulsa's 24-10 season-opening victory over Oklahoma State.
- Thompson led the Golden Hurricane with a career-high 10 tackles, including five solo stops, while adding one fumble recovery and one quarterback hurry.
- His 10 tackles surpassed his previous career high of eight, established against South Florida during the 2024 season.
- Thompson helped set the tone on Oklahoma State's opening possession, combining with Hudson Ball to stop the Cowboys on fourth-and-one at the Tulsa 3-yard line.
- In the second quarter, Thompson recovered a fumble forced by Devin Robinson at the Oklahoma State 33-yard line.
- The performance came in Thompson's first game since the 2024 season after he missed the entire 2025 campaign because of injury.
- Thompson's effort helped Tulsa force four turnovers, stop Oklahoma State on four of six fourth-down attempts and limit the Cowboys to 10 points.
- He became Tulsa's first American Conference Defensive Player of the Week since safety Kendarin Ray earned the honor on Sept. 25, 2023.
- The graduate student has been selected as a Tulsa team captain in consecutive seasons and was named to the 2026 Comeback Player of the Year Award Watch List.

TEASE FLIPS SIDES

- Redshirt junior Micah Tease made the move from wide receiver to cornerback during Tulsa's 2026 preseason camp.
- The Tulsa native played receiver during his first three collegiate seasons, spending two years at Texas A&M before transferring home to join the Golden Hurricane in spring 2025.
- Tease appeared in seven games and made two starts for Tulsa in 2025, catching 12 passes for 195 yards and one touchdown.
- His first collegiate start came at Oklahoma State, where he caught two passes for 37 yards in Tulsa's 19-12 victory over the Cowboys.
- Tease recorded career highs with four receptions and 69 receiving yards against Abilene Christian. He later scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 34-yard reception at Memphis.
- The move to defense is not entirely unfamiliar for Tease. During his career at Booker T. Washington High School, he played on both sides of the ball and recorded 51 tackles and five interceptions.
- Tease was rated as a four-star prospect and one of the top four players in Oklahoma coming out of high school. His recruiting evaluation highlighted his athleticism, speed and ability to play either receiver or defensive back at the Power Four level.
- His offensive experience gives him a unique perspective at cornerback, including an understanding of route concepts, receiver releases and how opposing pass catchers attack defensive leverage.
- Tease enters the season with experience in 19 collegiate games, including time on offense and special teams at Texas A&M and Tulsa.
- The 6-foot, 190-pound Tease will wear No. 43 as he begins his first season on the defensive side of the ball for the Golden Hurricane.

AN UNUSUAL OCTOBER

- Tulsa will not play a Saturday home game during October, making the Golden Hurricane one of only 11 FBS programs with that scheduling setup in 2026.
- The Golden Hurricane is the only American Conference program without a Saturday home game during the month and one of only two FBS teams outside Conference USA with that distinction. Washington is the other.
- Tulsa's two October home games will be played in nationally televised weekday windows—North Texas on Thursday, Oct. 1, at 8 p.m. CT on ESPN and Army on Friday, Oct. 23, at 7:30 p.m. CT on ESPN2.
- Tulsa's two Saturday contests during the month will both take place on the road, with the Golden Hurricane traveling to Navy on Oct. 10 and Rice on Oct. 17.
- Tulsa concludes the month with an open date on Saturday, Oct. 31.
- The 11 FBS programs without a Saturday home game in October are Delaware, FIU, Jacksonville State, Kennesaw State, Middle Tennessee, Missouri State, New Mexico State, Sam Houston, Tulsa, Washington and Western Kentucky.
- Nine of the other 10 programs are Conference USA members participating in the league's "Weekday CUSA" schedule, making Tulsa's arrangement especially uncommon outside that conference.

SMALL SCHOOL, BIG STAGE

- With 3,029 undergraduate students, The University of Tulsa has the smallest undergraduate enrollment of any institution competing at the FBS level.
- Tulsa is the only FBS institution reporting fewer than 4,000 undergraduate students.
- Tulsa's total enrollment of 4,154 includes 3,029 undergraduate students and 1,113 graduate and law students.
- Despite its size, Tulsa has won 36 conference championships and appeared in 23 bowl games during its football history.

Rank	School	Undergrad Enrollment (Total Enrollment)
1.	Tulsa	3,029 (4,154)
2.	Air Force	4,000 (4,000)
3.	Navy	4,400 (4,400)
3.	Army	4,400 (4,400)
5.	Rice	4,776 (8,880)

RECRUIT LOCAL

- Tulsa's 2026 roster features 27 players from the Tulsa metropolitan area, demonstrating the Golden Hurricane's commitment to recruiting and retaining local talent.
- The group includes 17 players whose listed hometown is Tulsa, four from Owasso, three from Bixby and one each from Collinsville, Jenks and Mannford.
- Local players represent every phase of the roster, with Tulsa-area talent appearing on offense, defense and special teams.
- The group includes players from several of the area's most successful high school programs, including Bixby, Booker T. Washington, Cascia Hall, Collinsville, Holland Hall, Jenks, Metro Christian, Owasso, Rejoice Christian and Union.
- Tulsa's local contingent includes returning Golden Hurricane players as well as student-athletes who returned home after beginning their collegiate careers elsewhere.
- Head coach Tre Lamb and his staff continue to prioritize relationships with area high school coaches while providing local players an opportunity to compete at the FBS level in their hometown region.

2026 CAPTAINS

- Head Coach Tre Lamb announced the 2026 team captains during fall camp.
- Captain selections include one head coach's pick and four team-voted leaders (two offense, two defense).
- The 2026 team captains are:
 - Baylor Hayes – Quarterback
 - Sevon Morrison – Running Back
 - Chris Thompson Jr. – Linebacker
 - Jaylen George – Defensive Line
 - Malachi Preciado – Offensive Line

COMEBACK CAPTAINS

- Linebacker Chris Thompson Jr. and running back Sevon Morrison were selected to the 2026 Comeback Player of the Year Award Watch List.
- Both graduate students were also elected team captains by their Golden Hurricane teammates.
- Thompson returns after missing the entire 2025 season because of injury. He previously appeared in 12 games during his first season at Tulsa.
- Morrison, a Tulsa native and Edison High School product, enters his second season with the Golden Hurricane after returning home from Kansas.
- Tulsa was one of the programs with multiple players among the award's 94 preseason candidates.

“FREAK LIST”

- Tulsa defensive lineman Kyran Duhon and running back Trequan Jones earned spots on Bruce Feldman's annual Freaks List, which recognizes the most physically gifted athletes in college football.
- Duhon was ranked No. 74 nationally. The 6-foot-5, 260-pound defensive lineman reached 21 mph, posted a 35-inch vertical jump, bench-pressed 425 pounds and squatted 615 pounds.
- Jones came in at No. 79 after reaching 23.6 mph and recording a 42-inch vertical jump, 3.90-second shuttle and 1.48-second 10-yard split.
- Tulsa was one of the programs with multiple players represented among the 101 athletes selected nationally.
- Duhon and Jones both joined the Golden Hurricane through the transfer portal. Duhon previously played at Oklahoma State, while Jones arrived from Old Dominion.

NEW NUMBERS FOR 2026

- Seven returning Golden Hurricane players will wear new jersey numbers during the 2026 season.
- Donnell Gee Jr. moves from No. 18 to No. 0, Zach Williams from No. 18 to No. 1, Devin Robinson from No. 16 to No. 2 and Ashton Williams from No. 15 to No. 5.
- Aquavious Dunbar changes from No. 40 to No. 21, Tristan Lawyer from No. 51 to No. 40 and Micah Tease moves from No. 3 to No. 43 as he transitions from wide receiver to cornerback.

DAVENPORT ELEVATED TO RUNNING BACKS COACH

- Tulsa head coach Tre Lamb elevated Dominique Davenport to running backs coach in January 2026 after he served as the Golden Hurricane's special teams analyst during the 2025 season.
- Davenport has worked alongside Lamb since 2014, including previous stops at East Tennessee State and Gardner-Webb.
- As ETSU's running backs coach and co-special teams coordinator in 2024, Davenport directed a rushing attack that led the Southern Conference and ranked 19th in the FCS with 194.2 yards per game.
- ETSU averaged 4.7 yards per carry and featured two of the conference's top seven rushers, including second-team All-SoCon selection Bryson Irby.
- Davenport helped Gardner-Webb lead the Big South with 2,323 rushing yards in 2022 while coaching Narii Gaither to a 1,019-yard season.
- His 2023 Gardner-Webb backfield featured two players with more than 650 rushing yards and helped the program make its second consecutive FCS Playoff appearance.
- During Davenport's season as Tulsa's special teams analyst, Seth Morgan converted 17 field goals—the seventh-most in a season in program history—and Angus Davies produced the nation's longest punt.

MEET KEVIN BARBAY: OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

- Tulsa head coach Tre Lamb named veteran offensive coach Kevin Barbay the Golden Hurricane's offensive coordinator in January 2026.
- Barbay joined Tulsa after spending the 2025 season as an offensive analyst at Kentucky. He previously served as offensive coordinator at Houston, Mississippi State, Appalachian State, Central Michigan and Stephen F. Austin.
- During five seasons at Mississippi State, Appalachian State and Central Michigan, Barbay's offenses produced 31 games with at least 30 points and 19 games with 500 or more total yards.
- His 2021 and 2022 offenses combined to average 448.0 yards per game and ranked among the nation's top 20.
- In 2022, Appalachian State averaged 34.9 points and 204.4 rushing yards per game while ranking eighth nationally with 21 plays of at least 40 yards.
- Barbay also coordinated Central Michigan's 2021 offense, which averaged 440.7 yards per game and featured national rushing leader Lew Nichols III.

MEET BJ JOHNSON: WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

- Tulsa head coach Tre Lamb added BJ Johnson to the Golden Hurricane staff as wide receivers coach in December 2025.
- Johnson reunited with Lamb after previously serving on his Gardner-Webb staff during the program's 2022 Big South championship season.

- Johnson spent the previous three seasons at Georgia Southern, where he coached five all-conference selections.
- His 2025 receiving corps totaled 190 receptions for 2,495 yards and was led by Sun Belt Newcomer of the Year Cameron Brown, who recorded 63 catches for 1,049 yards and 14 touchdowns.
- In 2023, Johnson helped Georgia Southern rank among the nation's top 20 in passing yards per game as Khaleb Hood set a program record with 101 receptions.
- During his season at Gardner-Webb, Johnson coached two first-team All-Big South receivers, including 1,000-yard receiver and third-team All-American TJ Luther.
- A former Georgia Southern receiver, Johnson finished his collegiate career with 93 receptions for 1,338 yards and later signed with the San Francisco 49ers.

MEET CAM HANEY: CORNERBACKS COACH

- Tulsa head coach Tre Lamb added Cam Haney to the Golden Hurricane staff as cornerbacks coach in January 2026.
- Haney arrived at Tulsa after serving as a defensive quality control coach at Indiana during its 2025 national championship season.
- The Hoosiers' defense recorded 19 interceptions and 50 pass breakups during Haney's season in Bloomington.
- Haney previously served as East Tennessee State's defensive backs coach in 2024, helping the Buccaneers register 49 pass breakups and five interceptions.
- He spent three seasons at Murray State, where the defensive backs produced 14 interceptions and nearly 80 pass breakups from 2021-23.
- Haney played collegiately at Utah State, totaling 110 tackles, 28 pass breakups and two forced fumbles during his career.
- With Haney's addition, Dominique Franks was promoted to pass game coordinator and nickels coach.

ONE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S MOST EXPERIENCED

- Tulsa punter Max Tulen enters the 2026 season as one of the oldest players in college football.
- Born July 12, 1998, Tulen is the third-oldest player on the list and one of only three active players born in 1998.
- The Melbourne, Australia, native will be 28 years old when the Golden Hurricane opens the season against Oklahoma State on Sept. 5.
- Tulen transferred to Tulsa after spending three seasons at Bethune-Cookman, where he earned 2025 HBCU All-America and first-team All-SWAC honors.
- In 25 career games, he has averaged 42.2 yards per punt with 13 punts covering at least 50 yards and 15 downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line.
- Tulen led the SWAC with a 44.6-yard punting average in 2025 and recorded a career-long 64-yard punt against Jackson State.
- His arrival gives the Golden Hurricane an experienced specialist with an unconventional journey from Melbourne to Daytona Beach and now Tulsa.

EXPERIENCE FROM ACROSS COLLEGE FOOTBALL

- Tulsa's 2026 roster features an extensive collection of transfers who have competed throughout the Power Four, Group of Six, FCS, NCAA Division III and junior college ranks.
- The Golden Hurricane has added experience from more than 25 college programs, giving Tulsa a roster filled with players who have competed in a variety of conferences, systems and postseason environments.
- Tulsa's transfers have previously played at Power Four programs including Auburn, Baylor, Kansas, Mississippi State, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Ole Miss, TCU, Texas A&M, Virginia Tech and West Virginia.
- The roster also includes former players from Group of Six programs such as Appalachian State, Cincinnati, Kennesaw State, New Mexico, Old Dominion, South Alabama, Tulane, UAB, UCF, Utah State and Western Kentucky.
- Tulsa has also found talent outside the FBS level, adding players with experience at Bethune-Cookman, East Tennessee State, Idaho State, Mercer, North Central College, Mary Hardin-Baylor, Butler Community College, Georgia Military College and Iowa Central Community College.
- The transfer group provides experience at nearly every position, including quarterback, running back, wide receiver, tight end, offensive line, defensive line, linebacker, cornerback, safety and specialist.
- Quarterback Dexter Williams II arrives after previous stops at Indiana, Georgia Southern and Kennesaw State, where he gained experience as both a passer and runner.
- Tulsa rebuilt its running back room with a collection of transfers featuring Trequan Jones from Old Dominion, Damari Alston from Auburn, Seth Davis from Mississippi State, and DJ McKinney from New Mexico.
- Jones rushed for 792 yards and six touchdowns while averaging 7.5 yards per carry at Old Dominion in 2025. McAtée, a two-time national champion at North Central, rushed for more than 3,000 yards and 40 touchdowns during his career with the Cardinals.

- Tulsa added experienced playmakers to the receiving corps in Jimmy Calloway, Oran Singleton Jr. and Ross. Calloway has played at Tennessee, Louisville and Tulane, while Singleton has made stops at Akron, Hutchinson Community College, Eastern Michigan and West Virginia.
- The offensive line features pJunior College additions Alan Pond and Chaden Sullivan earned all-conference recognition before joining the Golden Hurricane.
- Defensively, Jaylen George brings experience from Nebraska and East Tennessee State. George started 23 games at ETSU and earned first-team All-Southern Conference honors in 2024.
- Defensive lineman Arias Nash previously competed at Mercer and Virginia Tech. During the 2024 season at Mercer, Nash totaled 53 tackles, 12.5 tackles for loss and nine sacks while helping the Bears reach the second round of the FCS playoffs.
- The secondary includes Caldra Williford from Baylor, Willie Goodwyn from Cincinnati, Ty Williams from Oklahoma State, Korbryn Green from Western Kentucky and Rylan Leathers from Idaho State.
- Williford appeared in 11 games for Baylor in 2025, recording 16 tackles and five pass breakups. He previously totaled 34 tackles, two interceptions and eight pass breakups at Tennessee Tech.
- Tulsa also added experience in the specialist room. Punter Max Tulen joined the Golden Hurricane from Bethune-Cookman, kicker Marlon Hauck previously played at Mississippi State and long snapper Aidan Fedigan transferred from UCF.
- The newcomers bring a collection of previous honors that includes All-America recognition, all-conference selections, national championships, FCS playoff appearances and bowl-game experience.
- The diversity of the group gives Tulsa players who have competed in the SEC, Big Ten, Big 12, ACC, Sun Belt, Conference USA, Southern Conference, Big Sky, Southwestern Athletic Conference and at multiple levels of postseason football.

GREEN AND WILLIAMS COLLECT PRESEASON HONORS

- Tulsa cornerback Elijah Green and safety Zach Williams were named to the 2026 Paycom Jim Thorpe Award Preseason Watch List.
- The Golden Hurricane duo also earned HERO Sports Preseason Group of Six All-America honors, with Green selected to the first team and Williams named to the second team.
- Green earned first-team All-American Conference honors in 2025 after leading Tulsa and the conference with five interceptions, tied for the third-most nationally. He also recorded 59 tackles.
- Williams ranked third on the team with 73 tackles while adding seven pass breakups, two forced fumbles and one tackle for loss.
- The Paycom Jim Thorpe Award annually recognizes college football's top defensive back based on performance, athletic ability and character.

PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

- Several Tulsa players received preseason honors on national watch lists, including Phil Steele Preseason All-American and Athlon Sports Preseason All-American teams.

WELCOME TO THE PORTAL HOUSE

- Tulsa introduced the Portal House in January 2026 as the central hub for the Golden Hurricane's transfer portal operations.
- For 14 consecutive days, the space brought film evaluation, recruiting operations, official visits and roster management together under one roof.
- The Portal House helped Tulsa introduce more than 20 transfer additions while providing prospects with a personalized look at the football program, university and city.
- The initiative produced immediate leadership for the Golden Hurricane, as Portal House additions Jaylen George and Malachi Preciado were later elected 2026 team captains by their teammates.
- The Portal House also helped Tulsa add experienced players from programs across the FBS, including Auburn, Baylor, Kansas State, Mississippi State, Oklahoma State, Oregon State, Tulane and Virginia Tech.
- Defensive lineman Kyran Duhon, one of the Portal House additions, earned preseason second-team All-American Conference recognition from Athlon Sports and a place on Bruce Feldman's annual "Freaks List."
- Beyond recruiting, Tulsa documented the process through behind-the-scenes videos, interviews and daily social media coverage, giving fans an inside look at how the Golden Hurricane builds its roster.
- The Portal House combined recruiting, content creation and hospitality into one coordinated operation during one of the most important roster-building periods on the college football calendar.

BACK-TO-BACK FIRST ROUND DRAFT PICKS

- Zaven Collins was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2021 NFL Draft.
- Collins left Tulsa after his junior redshirt season, earning consensus and unanimous All-America honors.
- He won both the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Chuck Bednarik Award, recognizing the nation's top defensive player.
- Tyler Smith was the 24th pick in the 2022 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.
- Smith left Tulsa after his third year. He redshirted in 2019 and earned Freshman All-America honors in 2020.
- Tulsa has now produced four NFL first-round draft picks:
 - Glenn Dobbs (1943)
 - Steve August (1977)
 - Zaven Collins (2021)
 - Tyler Smith (2022)

TULSA HAS FOUR PLAYERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

- Drew Pearson, Tulsa star receiver and Dallas Cowboys legend, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2021.
- Pearson became the fourth former Tulsa student-athlete to receive this honor, joining Bob St. Clair (1990), Jim Finks (1995), and Steve Largent (1995).
- He is only the 22nd undrafted player ever enshrined in the Hall of Fame.
- Tulsa is one of 173 schools with at least one Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee and has four total inductees.
- Only 21 schools have five or more Hall of Famers, while another 10 schools, including Tulsa, have four.
- Among schools in Oklahoma, the Hall of Fame count is: Oklahoma (5), Tulsa (4), Oklahoma State (2).
- Within the American Conference, the Hall of Fame breakdown is: Tulsa (4), Navy (2), Memphis (1). Wichita State, which no longer sponsors football, has one.

WHAT YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT TULSA'S FOOTBALL TRADITION

• New Year's Day Bowl Streak: Tulsa was the first school to play in five consecutive New Year's Day bowl games: Sun Bowl (1942), Sugar Bowl (1943, 1944), Orange Bowl (1945), and Oil Bowl (1946).

• Ellis Jones: An All-American guard in 1945, Jones played with one arm and was a standout on the College All-Star team vs. the Chicago Bears.

• Pro Football Hall of Fame: Four former Tulsa players are enshrined: Bob St. Clair, Jim Finks, Steve Largent, and Drew Pearson.

• Heisman Runners-Up: Jerry Rhome (1964) and Howard Twilley (1965) finished second in Heisman Trophy voting.

• Glenn Dobbs (1940–42): Considered Tulsa's greatest player, Dobbs also coached the Hurricane in the 1960s. Eighth Street near H.A. Chapman Stadium is Glenn Dobbs Drive, dedicated in 2000. A statue of Dobbs was dedicated before the 2013 spring game.

• Zaven Collins (2020): Consensus All-America linebacker who won the Chuck Bednarik and Bronko Nagurski awards as college football's top defender.

• NFL Head Coaches: Four former Tulsa players have served as NFL head coaches: Tommy Hudspeth (Detroit Lions), Sam Rutigliano (Cleveland Browns), Ray Rhodes (Philadelphia Eagles/Green Bay Packers), and Lovie Smith (Chicago Bears/Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Houston Texans).

• College Football Hall of Fame: Tulsa has three former players, two former head coaches, and two former assistant coaches inducted:

• Players: Glenn Dobbs (1940–42, 1961–68), Howard Twilley (1963–65), Jerry Rhome (1963–64)

• Head Coaches: Francis Schmidt (1919–21), John Cooper (1977–84)

• Assistant Coaches: Darrell Royal (1951), Sammy Baugh (1963)

GOLDEN HURRICANE IN TULSA

• In 1922, Tulsa celebrated its first year under the nickname "Golden Hurricane." First-year coach Howard Acher wanted to give his team a strong identity after opening the season with a win over Texas Christian University.

• Before that, the school had been called by many names—the Presbyterians, the Orange and Black, and the Kendallites. After the press described the Tulsa squad as blowing through opponents like a tornado, the nickname "Tornadoes" was initially considered, with "Golden" added for the uniform color. However, since Georgia Tech had already claimed that name, it was evolved to "Hurricane."

• The team embraced the new moniker, and in their next game, the Golden Hurricane lived up to its name by defeating Texas A&M 13-10, with QB Rex Thomas leading the charge with key passes.

HEAD COACH TRE LAMB

Tre Lamb enters his second season as The University of Tulsa Head Football Coach. He was announced as TU's 35th head coach on Dec. 8, 2024, and was introduced in a press conference two days later.

He came to Tulsa following the 2024 season as the head coach at East Tennessee State, where his offensive prowess helped lead the Buccaneers to their first winning season since 2021.

Before joining ETSU, Lamb spent four seasons as the head coach at Gardner-Webb, leading the Bulldogs to back-to-back Big South Conference titles and FCS playoff appearances.

In his 13 years of coaching experience, Lamb has also had a pair of stops at Tennessee Tech as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and a three-year stint as quarterbacks coach at Mercer.

In his first season at Tulsa, Lamb came away with wins over Oklahoma State and Army. The win over Oklahoma State was the program's first win in Stillwater since 1951 and snapped a ten-game winning streak for Oklahoma State. Lamb led the Golden Hurricane back from a 12-point fourth quarter deficit to earn a win at West Point, 26-25. The win was the first at Army since 2007.

With Lamb at the helm, Tulsa's defense improved the passing yards allowed per game by 101.7 yards per game, the second-best pass defensive improvement from 2024 to 2025 in the FBS. Besides improving the pass defense, the TU defense improved by 100.1 total yards allowed per game, the ninth best improvement in the FBS.

Tulsa placed six players on the First and Second All-Conference Teams. TU earned three first team selections, the most since 2020. TU also saw Elijah Green named as a semifinalist for the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award, for the top defensive back in college football.

In his lone season at East Tennessee State, Lamb engineered a bounce-back season. The Buccaneers rushed for 2,330 yards, third best in program history, and the defense held opponents to just 110.5 yards per game on the ground, also the third best in school history.

The Bucs led the Southern Conference in multiple offensive categories under Lamb, including rushing offense, rushing touchdowns, sacks allowed and first downs gained rushing, while finishing second in total offense.

During his tenure at Gardner-Webb, Lamb led the Runnin' Bulldogs to a 10-1 conference record in his final two seasons, including a 5-0 league campaign in 2022. Gardner-Webb capped its dream season with its first conference title in 20 years and the school's first playoff appearance since 1992. The Runnin' Bulldogs then collected their first-ever FCS playoff win with a 52-41 defeat of Eastern Kentucky.

Lamb's offense led the Big South in total points scored (418), touchdowns (56), total offense (441.5), completion percentage (63.4) and completions (281) during the 2022 season. The Runnin' Bulldogs scored at least 30 points in four of the team's five conference games, including three games of 40 or more. Lamb was named the 2022 Big South Coach of the Year.

The 2023 team earned a share of the first-ever Big South/OVC Championship, marking the first time Gardner-Webb had won back-to-back conference titles since 2002-03. Lamb's squad started the year ranked No. 24 in the AFCA Preseason Coaches Poll and No. 25 in the STATS Perform Poll – the first time the Runnin' Bulldogs were ranked in the Coaches Poll since Oct. 5, 2013. Gardner-Webb won its last five regular season games, averaging more than 37 points per game during the streak to help secure a spot in the FCS Playoffs for a second straight year.

The first challenge when taking over as head coach was navigating the COVID-19 pandemic, winning his first game in a shortened 2020 spring season that started in 2021. He opened his account with a 42-20 upset of No. 24 Elon and finished the season 2-2, becoming one of only two coaches in school history to finish their first season .500. In 2021, he was featured as one of the AFCA's top young coaches in the country.

Prior to Gardner-Webb, Lamb served as an offensive coordinator at Tennessee Tech during the 2018 and 2019 seasons. He helped guide the Golden Eagles to one of the largest turnarounds in 2019. After Tennessee Tech combined for two wins in 2017 and 2018, the Golden Eagles won six games during the 2019 campaign. In the 2019 season-opening win over Samford, Tennessee Tech totaled 671 yards of total offense in the 59-58 victory. During the season, Tennessee Tech went on to score 30 or more points five times en route to finishing second in the Ohio Valley Conference in scoring offense and offensive plays.

Lamb started his coaching career at his alma mater, Tennessee Tech, where he was the quarterbacks coach in 2013. Following the 2013 season, Lamb went to Mercer where he served in the same role from 2014 to 2017. During his stint in Macon, Georgia, Lamb mentored John Russ to an outstanding career and helped freshman Kaelan Riley to a spot on the Jerry Rice Award Watch List and Southern Conference Freshman of the Year honors in 2017.

A native of Calhoun, Georgia, Lamb played quarterback at Tennessee Tech from 2009 to 2012 and served as team captain for his final three seasons. He led the Golden Eagles to an OVC title in 2011 – the program's first since 1975 – and the school's first appearance in the FCS Playoffs. During that championship campaign, Lamb led an offense that set nine school records, including single-season marks for points scored (355), scoring average (32.3) and first downs in a season (238). He graduated with a degree in interdisciplinary studies, education and exercise science.

The program's Robert Hill Johnson Award winner, Lamb set three individual school records himself in 2011, establishing new marks for single-game attempts and completions and the single-season record for total offense with 2,555 yards. He finished his career with 5,301 passing yards, which ranks third in program history. He passed for a school-record 481 yards vs. Southeast Missouri State as a senior.

Football coaching runs in the Lamb family. His father, Hal, had a remarkable 21-year high school coaching career at Calhoun High, leading the Yellow Jackets to a 233-37 record, three state titles and 18 consecutive regional titles. Lamb's grandfather Ray also coached three state championship teams. He is the nephew of Anderson College head coach Bobby Lamb and is cousins with Taylor Lamb, a former Appalachian State quarterback and current quarterbacks coach at Virginia.

Lamb and his wife, Carter, have two daughters – Olivia James and Drew Nix.

KEVIN BARBAY

Offensive Coordinator

Year at TU: First

Year Coaching: 23rd

Previous Coaching Stops: Baylor, Texas A&M-Commerce, North Texas, Lamar, Colorado State, Florida, SFA, Central Michigan, App State, Mississippi State, Houston, Kentucky

- Barbay comes to Tulsa after spending the 2025 season as an offensive analyst at the University of Kentucky.
- Barbay has built a reputation for crafting high-powered offenses. During a five-year span coaching at Mississippi State (2023), Appalachian State (2022), and Central Michigan (2019-21), his teams recorded 31 games with 30 or more points and 19 games with at least 500 yards of total offense.
- During the 2022 and 2021 seasons, his offenses combined to average 448.01 yards per game and ranked in the top 20 nationally.
- In 2022, Barbay's Appalachian State offense ranked in the top 25 nationally in multiple categories, including a scoring offense average of 34.9 points per game, a passer rating of 155.80, and a rushing offense average of 204.42 yards. His unit also ranked No. 8 nationally with 21 plays of 40 or more yards.
- While at Central Michigan in 2021, Barbay oversaw an offense that averaged 440.7 yards per game and helped develop Lew Nichols III, who led the nation with 1,848 rushing yards and 16 touchdowns.

GAME 1: Tulsa 24, Oklahoma State 10

Sept. 5, 2026 • H.A. Chapman Stadium
Attendance: 28,520

TULSA, Okla. — Controlling the line of scrimmage and some clutch defensive plays led Tulsa to a 24-10 victory over Oklahoma State on Saturday at H.A. Chapman Stadium. It marks the first time that Tulsa has won back-to-back games in the series since 1952 and was the first win for the Golden Hurricane at home over the Cowboys since 1998.

Tulsa's (1-0) defense was fantastic on Saturday, forcing four turnovers, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, while also recording two sacks. It was the first time the Golden Hurricane forced four turnovers in a game since 2024. The defense held OSU (0-1) to just two-for-four in the red zone and two-of-six on fourth down.

Game Notes

- Tulsa defeated Oklahoma State in back-to-back games for the first time since 1952 when Tulsa completed a three-game winning streak against the Cowboys.
- Tulsa's defense recorded two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. Tulsa's four total turnovers were the most since Tulsa forced four turnovers at home against East Carolina (11/14/2024).
- Since 2000, Tulsa is now 20-7 in home openers.
- This was the 11th time Tulsa and Oklahoma State have played in a season opener and the first time Oklahoma State has opened a season in Tulsa since 2000.

GAME 2: Tulsa 23, Sam Houston 17

Sept. 12 • Bowers Stadium
Attendance: 13,871

HUNTSVILLE, Texas — Tulsa defeated Sam Houston 23-17 on Saturday. Tulsa ran for 241 yards and three touchdowns, highlighted by Trequan Jones' 81-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

Jones rushed for 125 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries. Dax Collins finished with a team-high 12 tackles. Kyran Duhon recorded three tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble. Thomas Davis added four tackles and two sacks.

This victory marked the first 2-0 start for Tulsa since 2015.

Game Notes

- Tulsa recorded 5 sacks in a game for the first time since last year's season opener against Abilene Christian.
- At 4:46 in the third quarter, Tristan Lawyer rushed 56 yards off a trick play on a punt for his first career touchdown.
- Trequan Jones' 81-yard touchdown run was Tulsa's longest rush since Deneric Prince's 84-yard run in 2022 against Temple.
- DL Kyran Duhon and DL Thomas Davis finished the game with 2 sacks, becoming the first Golden Hurricane with 2+ sacks in a game since J'Dan Burnett in last season's opening game against Abilene Christian. It was the first career game for Davis with 2 sacks and the third of Duhon's career.

GAME 3: Tulsa 42, East Texas A&M 0

Sept. 19 • H.A. Chapman Stadium
Attendance: 16,288

TULSA, Okla. — Tulsa Football improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2008 and recorded its first shutout since 2002 in a 42-0 victory over East Texas A&M on Saturday night at H.A. Chapman Stadium. It was the first Golden Hurricane shutout since October 26, 2002 in a 20-0 win over UTEP.

Dexter Williams II completed 14-of-26 passes for 164 yards and three touchdowns. Seth Davis rushed for a team-high 90 yards and a touchdown on nine carries. Damari Alston added 68 yards and a score on the ground while D.J. McKinney finished with 56 yards on seven carries as Tulsa accumulated 286 rushing yards.

Game Notes

- Tulsa's 42 points was the most scored under Head Coach Tre Lamb in 15 total games.
- Tulsa shutout its opponent for the time since defeating UTEP at home, 20-0 (10/26/02).
- To start the third quarter, Tulsa scored when Trequan Jones' 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Jones' kickoff return for a touchdown was the first for Tulsa since Lloyd Avant scored on a 100-yard return against Northwestern State (8/29/24).
- Tulsa's 450 yards gained is the third most under Lamb ranking below 499 yards vs. Abilene Christian (8/30/25) and 497 yards vs. Army (11/22/25).
