STORYLINES

GAME PREVIEW

- Vanderbilt hosts Arkansas on Saturday at FirstBank Stadium. It will be the 11th meeting all-time between the two schools since 1949.
- Arkansas leads the series 7-3 but Vanderbilt won the previous meeting, 45-31, in 2018.
- The Commodores last hosted the Razorbacks in 2011 and will be looking for their first win at home in the series.

SHERRILL STRIKES

- With a total of 529 receiving yards this fall, Junior Sherrill ranks 12th in FBS and fourth among SEC players.
- With 55 yards in Week 6 vs. Ole Miss, the wideout became the ninth Commodore in program history to reach 2,000 career receiving yards.
- Sherrill caught seven passes for 107 yards and a touchdown at Georgia in Week 5. He moved into a tie for eighth on the school's all-time receiving touchdowns list with 16, matching Carl Parker's total from 1985-87.
- Sherrill was tied for the team lead in receiving touchdowns and ranked second in receptions and receiving yards in 2025.
- The wideout totaled a career-best 123 receiving yards on eight catches against Iowa in the ReliaQuest Bowl.
- The Nashvillian has made at least one catch in 43 straight games. That marks the longest active streak in FBS and longest by a Dore since at least 1996.
- Sherrill has tallied at least four catches and 50 receiving yards in each of his last 11 games.

THE SEA SNAKE

- CJ Heard leads Vandy in tackles with 43 and in forced fumbles with two. He grabbed his second career interception in Week 6 vs. Ole Miss.
- Heard's 32 solo stops this season are second in the SEC and rank 13th in FBS.
- He has led the Dores or shared team-high honors in tackles in all but one contest this season.
- In the Delaware win, Heard totaled eight tackles and recorded his first career multi-sack game with two.
- His 86.1 PFF grade this season is best among starters on the Commodore defense.

- He finished the 2025 season tied for most tackles on the team with 71 while adding two sacks, five quarterback hurries, an interception, forced fumble and fumble recovery.

MARRIED TO THE GAME

- Sedrick Alexander recorded his 25th career rushing score in Week 5 against Georgia, moving him into sole possession of third on Vanderbilt's all-time rushing touchdown list.
- It was his 31st overall touchdown, which ranks second on Vandy's career list.
- Alexander has recorded a rushing or receiving touchdown in six of the last seven regular season contests.
- The Texan carried the ball into the end zone 11 times in 2025, sixth-most in a season by a Commodore.
- Alexander added four receiving touchdowns last fall for 90 total points, fourth-most in a season at Vandy.
- The senior has totaled 1,737 yards on the ground for his career while adding 625 through the air.
- His 1,469 snaps entering the season were the most of any returning running back at the NCAA FBS level.

BROCKET LAUNCHER

- Brock Taylor tied the program record for points in a season with 99 in 2025 and broke the school's mark for extra points with 60.
- He scored the first points of the 2026 campaign for Vanderbilt, connecting on a 32-yard field goal on the team's opening drive in the win over Austin Peay.
- His three made field goals in the Week 4 contest at Auburn tied a career high and at that time marked the third occasion in Vandy's previous five games that he connected on multiple kicks.
- Taylor ranks second on Vandy's all-time scoring list with 226 points.
- Taylor ranks first all-time in career field goal percentage after recording the top two marks on Vandy's season record list the last two years.

GAME NOTES

THE LINEBACKERS

- Bryan Longwell and Nick Rinaldi highlight Vanderbilt's linebacker squad.
- Longwell registered 13 tackles twice last fall and recorded a tackle for loss in eight of 13 games.
- The senior has made a tackle in 43 straight games, the fourth-longest streak by a Commodore since 2002. He tied the team lead in tackles last season after also pacing Vandy in 2024.
- A former walk-on, Rinaldi continued his exceptional work in 2025. After a career-best season featuring 52 tackles, six tackles for loss and five sacks in 2024, Rinaldi piled up seven tackles behind the line and 3.5 sacks in 2025.
- His seven tackles behind the line of scrimmage were fourth-most on the team.
- Rinaldi was named the 2025 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the first Commodore to receive the honor since its inception in 2003.
- Senior Bryce Cowan has increased his tackle total each of the last two seasons, finishing last fall with a career-high 31 stops. Despite having a limited snap count playing behind Longwell and former Commodore Langston Patterson, Cowan tied a school season record last year after forcing five fumbles.
- In the NC State win, Cowan recorded his first interception since 2023.
- With the experienced trio above on the field for most defensive snaps, sophomores Josiah Broxton and Austin Howard have found other ways to contribute to the Commodores' successful start this fall. The former returned a punt 27 yards for a touchdown in the Week 1 victory over Austin Peay, while the latter followed with a blocked punt he recovered in the end zone in Vandy's defeat of Delaware in Week 2.

THE RETURN OF ISSA

- Issa Ouattara, who missed all but one game in 2025 due to injury, made a big impact in his return to the field Week 1 against Austin Peay.
- His two sacks were a career high in both sacks and TFLs and he blocked a PAT which was returned for two points.
- Ouattara matched his season-high total with four stops in the NC State win.
- A native of Germany, Ouattara was named a team captain for the second year in a row ahead of the 2026 campaign.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

- Jared Curtis was named SEC Freshman of the Week on Sept. 21 after his first career start in a 35-31 win over NC State. It marked the 10th Freshman of the Week award for the Commodores.
- Curtis recorded 341 yards of total offense and threw for three touchdowns in the win. The rookie completed 20-of-34 passes for a career-high 277 yards and registered a team-high 64 rushing yards on 12 carries.
- Curtis threw for 205 yards in the second half, including going 8-of-13 for 163 yards and two scores in the last 15 minutes to help Vandy overcome a 10-point deficit in the final quarter. The signal caller helped the Commodores to their biggest comeback win since Nov. 12, 2012.

CARDIAC COMMODORES

- Vanderbilt rallied from 17 points down to defeat NC State 35-31 with a last-second fumble recovery in the end zone on Sept. 19 at FirstBank Stadium.
- The Commodores trailed the entire game until the final second when Miles Capers forced a fumble as the NC State quarterback sought to run out the clock and take a safety. Cayden Daniels recovered the loose ball for the win.
- It was Vanderbilt's largest comeback win since erasing a 17-point deficit at Ole Miss on Nov. 10, 2012.
- Vanderbilt has now won four straight against ACC opponents following the NC State victory, beating Virginia Tech in each of the last two seasons and also taking down Georgia Tech in the 2024 Birmingham Bowl.
- With the victory, Vanderbilt has won 10 home games in a row for the first time since winning 12-straight games at then Dudley Field between 1928-30.
- The Commodores have won 11-straight games against nonconference teams at FirstBank Stadium, marking the program's longest winning streak at home in such games since winning 10 straight from 2015-19.

SPECIAL TEAMS, SPECIAL PLAYS

- The Dores scored off blocked kicks in back-to-back weeks for the first time since at least 2002, as during Week 1 Vanderbilt had a blocked PAT returned for a two-point conversion and in Week 2 Austin Howard blocked a punt and landed on the loose ball in the end zone.
- Vandy also returned a punt for a touchdown in each of its first two games, marking the first time since 2012 that the Dores have had multiple punt returns for touchdowns in the same season.

FIRST TOUCHDOWNS

- When freshman quarterback Jared Curtis connected with tight end Walter Taylor on a 19-yard touchdown in the Week 2 win over Delaware, it marked both Curtis' first collegiate passing score and Taylor's first collegiate receiving touchdown.
- The last time two Vanderbilt players recorded a first passing touchdown and first receiving score on the same play was Nov. 14, 2015, against Kentucky when Kyle Shurmur threw a touchdown pass to offensive lineman Kyle Anderton.

TEAM 6

- Head coach Clark Lea is in his sixth season at the helm of the Commodores, who are coming off the program's first ever 10-win season in 2025.
- The 2026 roster features 14 returners (eight on defense, six on offense) with five or more career starts at Vanderbilt.
- The Commodores received eight votes in the Preseason AP Top 25 poll and 37 votes in the US LBM coaches' poll.
- Vandy's schedule includes four games against ranked opponents, three against current top-10 teams.

THE SECONDARY

- Paul Hornung Award Watch List honoree Martel Hight returns for his senior season after grabbing a career-high four interceptions in 2025. He tallied his eighth career pick and first of the 2026 campaign in the Week 2 win over Delaware.
- CJ Heard is also back for the Dores. He finished the 2025 season tied for most tackles on the team with 71 while adding two sacks, five quarterback hurries, an interception, forced fumble and fumble recovery.
- After making a total of four stops in 17 appearances over two seasons at rival Tennessee, Jordan Matthews joined the Dores last fall and posted 20 tackles including 18 solo and made his first career start in Vandy's season-opening win against Austin Peay.
- The Commodores are looking to another transfer to contribute to the group this season with the addition of Ricardo Jones, who recorded 46 tackles and six interceptions on his way to earning second-team All-ACC honors at Clemson in 2025.
- After making five appearances a year ago, Cayden Daniels has emerged as a significant contributor to the unit this fall. He made his first career interception in the win over Delaware, then in Week 3 he broke up two passes before recovering a fumble in the end zone for the game-winning score in Vandy's defeat of NC State.
- Freshman Mason Lewis has wasted little time contributing to the unit, posting a combined 25 stops while starting each of the last four contests. In addition to making five tackles at Auburn, he was credited with his first two passes defended in his SEC debut.

RUNNING IT BACK

- Vanderbilt returns its three leading running backs from a season ago in Sedrick Alexander, Makhilyn "MK" Young and Jamezell Lassiter.
- Alexander rushed for 567 yards on 105 carries and recorded a team-leading 11 touchdowns in 2025.
- Young found the end zone six times last season and totaled 414 rushing yards on 46 carries, averaging 9.0 yards per carry.
- Against Auburn, Young had season-high totals with 10 carries for 46 yards.
- Alexander and Young were both named to the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Watch List.
- Lassiter averaged 15.9 yards per carry, scoring twice with 143 yards on nine attempts.
- He caught a career-best two passes in the Week 4 contest at Auburn.

THE O-LINE

- The Dores were selected to the Joe Moore Award Watch List.
- Cade McConnell anchors a talented group up front for the Dores in 2026.
- McConnell earned preseason second-team All-SEC honors from Phil Steele.
- Lyndon Cooper joined the squad after making 25 starts over the last two seasons at Pittsburgh. Cooper earned recognition on the Rimington Trophy Watch List this preseason.
- Kevo Wesley is the most experienced member of the program, now in his seventh season as a Commodore.

TEAM CAPTAINS

- Issa Ouattara, Nick Rinaldi, Cole Spence and MK Young were selected as the team captains this fall.
- Sedrick Alexander, Blaze Berlowitz, Miles Capers, Bryce Cowan, CJ Heard, Martel Hight, Ricardo Jones, Bryan Longwell, Cade McConnell, Junior Sherrill and Brock Taylor were named to the Leadership Council.

GAME NOTES

RINALDI IN THE COMMUNITY

- This season, Nick Rinaldi is partnering with the Tennessee Special Olympics to host at least one athlete on the Friday prior to every home game to join the team at practice.
- On Saturday, that athlete will join Rinaldi for the team’s special entrance, Star Walk, before heading to their seats provided by Rinaldi.
- Against Delaware, Rinaldi hosted over 200 Special Olympics athletes, families and staff at the game.

BIGGER THAN THE GAME

- For every touchdown scored this season by Sedrick Alexander, he will donate $280 to the ALS Association in honor of Chris Johnson, who also wore #28.
- So far this season, Alexander has scored five touchdowns, totaling $1,400.
- Multiple coaches and teammates will join in the cause in addition to Blair Durham of Bart Durham Injury.

HISTORY MADE

- Vanderbilt won 10 games last season for the first time in program history. Vandy’s six SEC wins were also the most in school history.
- The Dores’ only two losses in the regular season came at Alabama, ranked No. 10 in the AP rankings, and at No. 20 Texas.
- Vanderbilt finished the regular season with the 11th-best strength of record and the 25th-best strength of schedule according to ESPN.
- Vandy beat Tennessee for the first time since 2018, South Carolina for the first time since 2008, Auburn in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1949-50, and LSU for the first time since 1990, and went undefeated at home for the first time since 1982.

GOVERNORS OVERTHROWN

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Vanderbilt football opened the 2026 campaign with a 28-9 victory over Austin Peay in front of a sold-out crowd at FirstBank Stadium.

The Commodores (1-0, 0-0 SEC) delivered strong performances on defense and special teams in the season-opening victory. Vandy returned a blocked PAT for two points in the first quarter and added a 27-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter. Additionally, the Dores held the Governors (1-1, 0-0 UAC) to 178 total yards on Saturday.

Graduate Blaze Berlowitz made the most of his first collegiate start, as the Cushing, Oklahoma, native combined for 194 total yards and posted a quarterback rating of 147.0. Berlowitz ran for a 7-yard touchdown in the second quarter and connected on 11 of his 16 passing attempts.

Graduate Issa Quattara made his presence felt in a big way in his return to the field after missing all but one game last season. The Cologne, Germany, native had his first career multi-sack game, with 2.0 sacks, and blocked a PAT, which Martel Hight picked up and returned 88 yards to give Vandy two points.

Senior Sedrick Alexander ran for a game-high 60 yards and added a score as well. Alexander's dash for six with 5:24 left to play in the third quarter marked his 22nd career rushing score, breaking a tie with KeShawn Vaughn for fourth on Vanderbilt's all-time rushing touchdown list.

Senior wide receiver Junior Sherrill hauled in a team-best four catches for a game-high 70 yards. Sherrill's performance against Austin Peay put him over 1,500 receiving yards at the collegiate level. He has now made at least one catch in each of his last 38 games.

Special teams accounted for the first eight points of the 2026 season, as junior Brock Taylor had a pair of 30-plus-yard field goals sandwiched around Quattara and Hight's heroics after an APSU touchdown that gave Vanderbilt an 8-6 lead. Taylor added a pair of PATs to his ledger on Saturday, as the Knoxville, Tennessee, native has now accounted for 200 points at Vanderbilt.

The special teams unit found the end zone again in the third quarter. Sophomore Josiah Broxton fielded a short punt and ran it back 27 yards untouched to give Vandy a 28-9 advantage. It was the first career touchdown for the linebacker out of Tallahassee, Florida.

Vanderbilt had a total of six players combined for 5.0 sacks. Along with Quattara's 2.0 sacks, graduate Brian Allen Jr., collected a sack, while graduate Nick Rinaldi, junior Glenn Seabrooks III, graduate Edwin Kolenge and graduate Hayden Bray each had a half sack. Rinaldi and junior CJ Heard paced the defense with six tackles each.

The Commodores return to action on Saturday, as Vanderbilt hosts Delaware. Kickoff against the Blue Hens is set for 3:15 p.m. CT. For more information and exclusive content on the Vanderbilt football team, follow @VandyFB on Instagram, Facebook, TikTok and Twitter.

ANOTHER SELLOUT, ANOTHER WIN

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – The RV/RV Vanderbilt football team picked up its second victory of the season Saturday evening, using a big second half to ride out a 35-26 win over Delaware in front of a sold-out FirstBank Stadium.

The Commodores scored in a variety of ways, running for three touchdowns, adding one in the air and recovering a blocked punt in the end zone. Vanderbilt is now 2-0 for the fifth consecutive season, marking the first such run since 1934-38. The Dores have also won 10 consecutive home nonconference games for the first time since 2015-19.

Freshman quarterback Jared Curtis led the way for Vandy, rushing for two touchdowns and finding Walter Taylor from 19 yards out for his first career passing touchdown. He's the first Vanderbilt freshman to record three touchdowns since Sept. 17, 2022.

The passing game found its groove under the first-year signal-caller, who finished 14-of-22 for 210 yards and a touchdown. Jayvontay Conner hauled in a career-high six catches for 87 yards, and Junior Sherrill added five snags for 94 yards.

The Commodore defense was a mainstay in the Delaware backfield, with four players combining for six sacks. CJ Heard led the way with two sacks and two forced fumbles, the first time a Vandy player has forced multiple fumbles since Nov. 10, 2018. Miles Capers' seven tackles included a career-high four TFLs.

The game swung the Dores' way after halftime, when the Fightin' Blue Hens (1-1) took a 17-14 lead into the break. The hosts went 70 yards in nine plays to retake the lead, and after Delaware went three-and-out, Austin Howard blocked a punt and fell on the loose ball in the end zone to make the score 28-17.

Curtis' touchdown toss to Taylor extended the lead to 18. The Hens cut the margin to nine before Cayden Daniels' first career interception sealed the win for the Dores.

Vanderbilt will conclude a three-game homestand next Saturday, hosting NC State at 11:45 a.m. in the final nonconference tilt of the season.

DORES PUNCH LAST

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – With three seconds remaining, Vanderbilt's Miles Capers punched a victory out of the grip of defeat when the Commodores recovered the loose ball in the NC State end zone to stun the Wolfpack, 35-31.

Vanderbilt led for exactly one second Saturday afternoon in a sold-out FirstBank Stadium, trailing by 17 on multiple occasions, but it was enough to pick up an 11th consecutive home nonconference win and improve to 3-0 for the second season in a row.

Facing fourth-and-7 at their own 5-yard line and six seconds remaining, NC State (1-2) tried to drain the remaining clock and seal a 31-28 victory. Quarterback CJ Bailey hovered around his own end zone, but before his knees touched the turf, Capers knocked the ball free, and Cayden Daniels fell on the loose ball for a Commodore touchdown with one second left.

It's the largest comeback victory of the Clark Lea era and Vanderbilt's first 17-point deficit to be erased since a 27-26 win over Ole Miss on Nov. 10, 2012.

NC State jumped out to a 14-0 advantage in the first quarter and stretched the lead to 17 with a field goal midway through the second. The Dores got on the board just before halftime with Curtis finding Sherrill for a 12-yard score with 12 seconds left in the second quarter.

After a Keenan Jackson touchdown catch gave the Wolfpack a 24-7 lead with 8:52 remaining in the third quarter, the Dores swiftly responded. Tristen Brown hauled in a career-long 33-yard catch to set up a Mahkilyn Young rushing touchdown, which made the score 24-14 just two minutes later.

Vandy cut the deficit to three early in the fourth quarter through Sedrick Alexander, but NC State went on a nine-play, 75-yard drive to push it back to 10 with 9:35 remaining. Curtis and Sherrill connected for a 43-yard touchdown, the second multi-touchdown performance of Sherrill's career.

The Commodore defense got the stop it needed as NC State failed to pick up a fourth down in Vandy territory, but a Wolfpack interception inside the 5-yard line with just over a minute to go set up the game's final moments.

Vanderbilt concluded its three-game homestand and will open conference play on SEC Network at Auburn Saturday at 3:15 p.m.

COMMODORES FALL ON THE ROAD

AUBURN, Ala. – Vanderbilt outscored Auburn in the second half Saturday, but the Tigers held on to win 21-15 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

The Commodores outgained the Tigers, 311-279, but Auburn converted seven of its 15 third-down attempts while Vanderbilt was just 4-for-17.

Vanderbilt opened the scoring in the first quarter as Brock Taylor drilled a 39-yard field goal after Miles Capers snagged his second career interception.

Auburn responded with a 33-yard touchdown pass from Byrum Brown to Chas Nimrod to go up 7-3 on the ensuing drive. With 8:56 to go in the second quarter, the Tigers blocked a punt and returned it for a touchdown to take a 14-3 lead.

Both teams had chances to add to the scoreboard in the closing minutes of the first half, but missed field goals at both ends of the field kept the score at 14-3 heading into the break.

The Commodores got the ball first to start the third quarter and drove 75 yards on 14 plays, finding the end zone on a 3-yard rush by Sedrick Alexander. Alexander's 30th career rushing touchdown moved him into a tie for second on Vanderbilt's all-time rushing touchdown list.

Vandy went for two after the Alexander score, but failed on the attempt, as Auburn's lead remained at five. The Tigers put together a touchdown drive of their own to take a 21-9 advantage.

Taylor connected on his second field goal in the third quarter and added his third in the fourth, as the Commodores made it a 21-15 game with just over six minutes remaining.

Auburn was able to pick up enough first downs to run out the clock and end Vanderbilt's streak of back-to-back wins in the series.

Jared Curtis finished with 245 total yards of offense, as the freshman quarterback threw for 199 yards and added a team-high 46 yards on the ground. Junior Sherrill totaled 95 yards on six receptions, as he has now had a catch in 41-straight games.

Vanderbilt falls to 3-1 on the season and 0-1 in SEC play. The Dores will face No. 2 Georgia next Saturday on the road.

COMMODORES DROP ROAD CONTEST AT GEORGIA

ATHENS, Ga. – Vanderbilt trailed No. 2 Georgia by a touchdown at halftime Saturday at Sanford Stadium before the Bulldogs scored 17 unanswered points to win 38-14.

The Commodores (3-2, 0-2 SEC) outgained the Bulldogs (5-0, 2-0 SEC) in the first half and controlled the time of possession before Georgia flipped the script in the second half, limiting Vandy to 59 total yards while holding the ball for more than 20 minutes.

Junior Sherrill went over 100 yards receiving for the fourth time in his career, tied for 10th-most in program history. Sherrill caught a season-high seven passes for 107 yards and a touchdown. Blaze Berlowitz got the start under center and threw for 190 yards and a touchdown.

On defense, CJ Heard led the Dores with nine total tackles. Heard added a sack and a pass breakup. Bryan Longwell and Bryce Cowan finished with six tackles each.

After Georgia scored on their opening drive in the first quarter, Berlowitz pulled the Commodores even with a 60-yard touchdown pass to Sherrill. The longest play of the season for Vanderbilt moved Sherrill into the top 10 for career receiving yards and a tie for eighth on Vandy's all-time receiving touchdowns list.

Sherrill owns the longest active reception streak in FBS with a catch in 42 consecutive games.

Georgia responded with a three-play scoring drive and then took a 21-7 lead with 3:58 remaining in the second quarter.

Berlowitz and the Commodores closed out the first half with a 10-play, 75-yard drive capped by a Sedrick Alexander rushing touchdown from two yards out to pull within a touchdown heading into halftime. Alexander has scored in all five games this season and now ranks second in program history with 25 career rushing touchdowns and is third in total touchdowns with 31.

Vanderbilt's 14 first-half points were the most allowed by Georgia's defense in the first two quarters all season. The Bulldogs had held opponents to just 12 first-half points combined in their first four games this fall. Berlowitz registered 162 yards through the air in the first two periods.

The Bulldogs extended their lead on the opening drive of the third quarter and controlled the ball for most of the second half. After Vanderbilt led time of possession going into the break, Georgia held the ball for 20:07 in the final two periods and outgained the Commodores 256-59.

The home team added a field goal and a touchdown in the fourth quarter to defeat the Commodores 38-14.

Vanderbilt returns home and will host No. 9/12 Ole Miss next Saturday at FirstBank Stadium.

DORES FALL TO OLE MISS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Ole Miss scored 24 points off four Vanderbilt turnovers as the No. 9/11 Rebels cruised to a 52-17 win over the Commodores on a rain-filled Saturday afternoon at FirstBank Stadium.

Ole Miss raced to a 42-3 halftime advantage while outgaining the Dores 284-158 in the opening 30 minutes. Three Vanderbilt turnovers aided the Rebels' fast start as the visitors tallied touchdowns off each of the takeaways.

Trinidad Chambliss finished the day 20-for-30 for 213 yards with three touchdowns through the air while adding a fourth on the ground to lead the Rebels. Maki Frazier led the Ole Miss rushing attack with 73 yards on 13 carries. The Rebels racked up 196 total yards on the ground.

Jared Curtis finished 19-of-32 through the air for 222 yards with one touchdown and a pair of interceptions. Makhilyn Young led the Commodores on the ground with 40 yards on nine carries. Vanderbilt totaled 240 yards through the air and 103 on the ground.

After going three-and-out on the opening drive of the game, Ole Miss scored a touchdown on each of its next four drives to take control of the game. Trinidad Chambliss accounted for four first half touchdowns, throwing for three scores and adding a 10-yard scamper for six. The Rebels feasted on first half turnovers, converting a pair of Vanderbilt fumbles and an interception into 21 points.

Curtis connected with JaCory Thomas for a 13-yard touchdown strike to cap a 12-play, 75-yard drive to open the second half. The touchdown catch was Thomas' first of the season and sixth of his career. Jamezell Lassiter added a late touchdown run for his first score of the season to finish off a 10-play, 53-yard drive.

Junior Sherrill caught five passes for 55 yards to become the ninth Commodore to gain 2,000 career receiving yards. He's now recorded a reception in 43 straight contests to extend the longest active streak in the FBS.

Brock Taylor connected on a 45-yard field goal and added a pair of extra points to move into second on Vandy's all-time points list with 226.

Vanderbilt returns to FirstBank Stadium next Saturday to host Arkansas in a 6 p.m. kickoff.
