SCOUTING THE RAZORBACKS

Arkansas won a pair of exhibition games in October, topping NCAA Division II foes Central Missouri (87-60) and Emporia State (94-44). The Razorbacks play eight of their first nine first game at home at Bud Walton Arena. The Razorbacks were picked for fifth in the SEC Preseason Poll.

SCOUTING THE MASTODONS

Fort Wayne concluded last season with the program's first ever NIT berth. The 'Dons earned a share of the Summit League regular season crown in 2015-16.

LAST TIME OUT

Fort Wayne picked up a 97-67 exhibition victory over Capital on Nov. 3. The Mastodons made 14-of-28 3-point attempts against Capital, a NCAA Division III school from Columbus, Ohio. Mo Evans led Fort Wayne with 21 points, six assists and four rebounds. The 'Dons went 21-of-32 from the free throw line.

UP NEXT

Fort Wayne has a quick turnaround to Sunday when they return to campus for the 2016-17 home opener against NCAA Division III Kenyon College. Tip on Sunday (Nov. 13) is set for 2:30 p.m.

FOR OPENERS

The 'Dons are 1-1 in season openers under head coach Jon Coffman. Fort Wayne fell at Valparaiso last season and defeated Manchester in 2014-15.

SEC MOST DEFINITELY

Friday's contest will be Fort Wayne's first against an SEC school since Nov. 9, 2012 when the 'Dons fell at Auburn 61-50. The game at Auburn is Fort Wayne's only other contest against an SEC school.

A GOOD START FOR KASON

In the exhibition against Capital, Kason Harrell contributed 16 points. Last year he only hit double-digits in one game.

AMONG THE MID-MAJOR TOP 25

The 'Dons earned the No. 15 ranking in the first CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 poll of the 2016-17 season. Fort Wayne is the highest ranked Summit League team on the poll. North Dakota State is No. 19 and South Dakota State received votes. The No. 15 ranking is the highest spot a Summit League team has ever received in a preseason Mid-Major Top 25 poll. The 'Dons finished last year at No. 20 in the Mid-Major Poll. The Mastodons peaked at an all-time school-best No. 14 position last February.

2016-17 PRESEASON ALL-SUMMIT LEAGUE HONORS

Two Mastodons earned Preseason All-Summit League accolades. John Konchar was named to the 2016-17 Summit League Preseason First Team. Mo Evans picked up second team accolades. Konchar averaged 13.0 points and 9.2 rebounds per game on his way to 2015-16 Summit League First Team honors last year. Evans averaged 16.9 points per game last year while adding better than five assists per contest.

MORE PRESEASON LOVE

The 'Dons are the consensus No. 1 league preseason pick across national outlets, including Athlon Sports, Lindy's, NBC Sports and The Sporting News.

IRONMAN

John Konchar finished last season 55th in the nation and second in the conference in total minutes (1211:00). His total ranked fourth among all-freshmen in the nation.

FRESHMAN BOARD MEMBER

John Konchar's 8.9 rebounds per game last season ranked sixth in the nation among freshmen.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Fort Wayne has attained an overall home record of 102-37 (.734) in Fort Wayne over the past 10 seasons since 2006-07. The Mastodons are 68-25 (.731) in home games played at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum, and 34-12 (.739) in home games played on campus at the Hilliard Gates Sports Center. Fort Wayne went 12-1 in games in Fort Wayne last season.

WELCOME BACK

The 2016-17 season will see Bryson Scott hit the floor for the first time as a Mastodon. The Fort Wayne native and Northrop High School graduate transferred from Purdue. He sat out last season as a redshirt due to NCAA transfer rules.

FROM ALL OVER

The 2016-17 roster features student-athletes from seven different states as well as Racine Talla who calls Dakar, Senegal home.

NO LONGER TO THE MAX

The graduation of Summit League Player of the Year Max Landis is a big reason only 39.9 percent of last season's scoring is returning this year. Landis finished with a team-best 638 points last season. In the summer, he signed a professional contract with Crelan Okapi Aalstar in Belgium.

THE TEAM 3-POINT STAT

Fort Wayne has made at least one three-point field goal in 391 consecutive games, dating back to a road game at Miami (Ohio) (12/21/03, 0-9). Through March 13, UNLV has the current Division I record at 973 straight games, dating back to Nov. 26, 1986.

AMONG INDIANA / MID-MAJORS

Fort Wayne has posted 65 wins since 2013-14, ranking 3rd among Indiana's 10 Division I programs, behind Valparaiso (76) and Notre Dame (71). The Mastodons are 2nd among those schools considered to be mid-major programs in Indiana (Valparaiso).

Jon Coffman is entering his sixth season at Fort Wayne, and third as head coach of the Mastodons in 2016-17.

Coffman has taken the Mastodons to the postseason in each of his first two seasons as head coach. In 2016-17 the 'Dons won the Summit League regular season title and earned berth to the NIT. The 'Dons finished 24-10 and saw Max Landis and John Konchar earn All-Summit League First Team accolades.

In his first season as head coach, Coffman led the Mastodons to the program's second straight postseason basketball appearance, advancing to the Collegelinsider.com post-season tournament before falling to eventual tournament champion Evansville. His team went 16-15 during the season, earning the fourth seed for the 2015 Summit League Tournament.

Coffman spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach with the Mastodons. The 2013-14 squad ended the season with the eighth-best field goal percentage in NCAA Division I, while ranking 16th in three-point field goal percentage, 20th in total three-point field goals, and 27th in total assists.

Previously he spent two years on staff at Colgate University, where he was an assistant under Emmett Davis who ranks as the all-time winningest coach in school history. At Colgate, Coffman held the top assistant position and oversaw the Raiders' player development, opponent scouting, scheduling and recruiting coordination of Colgate's national recruiting effort. During the two years in Hamilton, N.Y., Coffman helped to coach and recruit two all-rookie league selections, a first team all-league selection and Coffman's fourteenth player to sign a professional contract.

Coffman's coaching career is marked by working with outstanding head coaches that have combined for 1141 wins between them, including two Hall of Fame college coaches whose courts are named in their honor (John Kresse/College of Charleston & Bob Johnson/Emory & Henry College), three coaches that hold their schools' all-time win mark (Emmett Davis/Colgate, John Kresse/College of Charleston & Bob Johnson/Emory & Henry). In addition, he played for Hall of Fame high school coach, Ron Bell, at the Marist School in Atlanta, Ga., who amassed 636 wins and won three State Championships during his high school coaching tenure.

Prior to Colgate, Coffman spent eight seasons on the staff at Stetson University, where he was an assistant under Derek Waugh. Coffman, a high school classmate of Waugh, joined the Stetson staff in 2001 after Waugh was named the youngest Division I coach in the country. Coffman's duties at Stetson included working with the guards, opponent scouting, fund raising, coordinating camps, scheduling and coordinating recruiting. Coffman acted as the recruiting coordinator during his last 5 years at Stetson, and during this period, the Hatters won 33 of their last 44 home games (.750), had their highest conference finish in program history, and set three school records for wins in the Division I era (overall, road and home winning streaks).

While a member of the Stetson University coaching staff, Stetson signed three A-Sun All-Freshman team members, six All-Conference selections, the leading scoring duo in Stetson history (EJ Gordon & Anthony Register), three players that rank in the top 10 all-time scorers in school history (EJ Gordon-1691/Garfield Blair-1583/Anthony Register-1414), 15 All-State players in Florida, Georgia and Alabama, a junior college All-American, the 2009 conference Defensive Player of the Year, the 2003 NCAA steals leader and eight players that have gone on to play professionally. Before leaving Stetson in the summer of 2009, Coffman helped to recruit and lay the groundwork for Stetson to secure the top 2009 & 2010 recruiting classes in the Atlantic Sun Conference according to ESPN.com.

Coffman's tenure also included an upset over the University of Georgia in 2004, which marked the Hatters' first win over an SEC opponent in 21 years. In addition, the 2005-2006 campaign marked one of the greatest single-season turnarounds in NCAA history. While faltering during Stetson's pre-conference season and at one point owning the nation's longest losing streak, the Hatters rebounded to win 12 of their last 14 games and actually held the nation's longest winning streak during February.

At Stetson, Coffman started one of the largest team camps in the state of Florida. In addition, he helped to facilitate the largest Elite Camp in the state, which played a significant role in upgrading Stetson's recruiting efforts in Florida.

Prior to Stetson, Coffman coached under John Kresse at the College of Charleston in 2000-01. While on staff, the Cougars recorded a 22-7 record and the Southern Conference regular season title and a 13-0 record at home. During the 2000-01 season, the Cougars were ranked the top mid-major team in the country for a large part of the year and rose as high as 33rd in the country in the AP Poll.

Coffman began his coaching career in 1997 at Emory & Henry College in Emory, Va. as the top assistant under coach Bob Johnson. While at Emory & Henry, Coffman helped to recruit Justin Call, who earned the Jostens Trophy (Division III National Player of the Year Award) while playing for the Wasps.

Coffman graduated from Washington & Lee University in 1996, earning a bachelor's degree in both economics and geology. He was also a three-year starter for the Generals basketball team and captain of the 1995-96 squad. He still holds three school records, including the mark for most three-pointers in a game (7) and free throws made in a game (18).

After graduation, Coffman worked in finance for two years in San Francisco, Calif. before joining the coaching ranks in 1997.

He and his wife, Tracy, have a eight-year old son, Thomas, and five-year old daughter Lucy and reside in Fort Wayne. Tracy has coached softball collegiately for the past 15 years and is currently the head coach at the University of Northwest Ohio.

WHY MASTODONS?

It all started about 10,000 years ago ...

That's when mastodons roamed the southern Great Lakes region of North America. These stocky versions of modern elephants reached heights of about ten feet at the shoulder, with tusks that curved upward that were six feet or more in length. Mastodons were browsers who fed mostly on leaves and twigs from small trees and shrubs.

One such mastodon found its final resting place about two miles south of Angola, Indiana, on land that would eventually become part of Orsie Routsong's farm. In the fall of 1968, Routsong decided to expand a small pond on his property. An excavator was hired and instructed to pile the excavated material around the edge of the pond. Several days after the excavation was finished a heavy rain storm pounded the piles of dirt.

The next day, a young neighbor boy of Routsong's discovered a large bone in one of the dirt piles. Routsong knew it was something out of the ordinary, so he called Jack Sunderman, chair of the IPFW Geology Department, to identify the bone, and to ask for advice on what to do with it. Sunderman says his first question was, "How big is the bone," with Routsong's answer being "pretty big, maybe 3 or 4 feet long."

When Sunderman got to the farm, he identified the bone as a leg bone of a mastodon. He told Routsong a skeleton like this would have scientific and instructional value if a large portion of it could be located. Routsong agreed, and also agreed to have the IPFW Geology Department do the excavation. Sunderman got two more faculty members, Geoffrey Matthews and Bernd Erdtmann, and several geology students to help in the project.

After all the mastodon bones were collected, cleaned, and preserved, Routsong agreed to have the adult mastodon skeleton placed on permanent display at IPFW; the skull of a nearby baby mastodon is now on loan to Science Central.

In the spring of 1970, The Communicator (IPFW's student newspaper) began a drive to come up with a mascot for IPFW. Some of the suggested choices included the Boiler-Hoosiers, Warhawks, Marauders, Frontiersmen, Pioneers, Elfs, and Hobbits. Those names and others came from student suggestions. Steve Pettyjohn, who served as the student body president in 1968-69, wrote a letter to the editor about the school mascot. In his letter, Pettyjohn extolled the virtues of choosing the mastodon as IPFW's mascot: "It sounds different, strange - that's exactly why. It's different and yes, even strange. For God's Sakes, let's have the courage to be a little different."

In the meantime, former Indiana Congressman Mark Souder, who served as student body president in 1969-70, recalls being lobbied by the Geology Club to choose the mastodon.

According to Nusbaumer, "Souder appointed a committee in student government to select a name although he was lobbying hard for the mastodon." After some discussion on the subject, Souder says a vote was taken by the committee and the mastodon came out the winner. Souder finished his recollection with these thoughts. "History shows that the advocacy of the geology club was correct. The fast, decisive action of the elected student government—though it did not please everyone and was not a precedent that the University desired to see—has also been upheld by history as IPFW regularly scores high in any list of unique university nicknames; even in this era when everybody strives to be different. We did it decades ago."
