Storylines

- Kentucky won its 48th regular-season SEC championship this year, the school's third straight and the fifth in eight seasons under John Calipari
- UK leads the league with 29 SEC Tournament titles
- The Wildcats are 30-10 all-time in the SEC Tournament championship (1988 SEC Tournament title was vacated). UK is a perfect 3-0 in that round against Arkansas
- Calipari is the first coach in Division I history to win five regular-season conference crowns at three different programs
- Kentucky rallied from double-digit deficits to win four of its last five games played. UK's three straight comeback wins in that fashion to end the regular-season was the first time a UK team posted three straight double-digit comeback wins was the 1998 national championship team, appropriately named the "Comeback Cats"
- Kentucky has overcome five 10-point deficits this season, which is tied with the 2013-14 team for the most in a single season under Calipari
- UK has won 10 consecutive games. It's the longest winning streak for the Cats since the 2014-15 won 38 games to begin the season
- Malik Monk was named the SEC Player of the Year and SEC Newcomer of the Year by the AP, Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches, and joined De'Aaron Fox on the league and AP's All-SEC First Team. Bam Adebayo made the All-SEC Second Team for both. All three made the coaches' All-SEC Freshman Team
- Monk was named to the All-America Second Team by Sporting News, USA Today and NBC Sports. Fox made the USA Today All-America Third Team
- The Wildcats have two triple-doubles this season after entering this season with just one in school history. Fox posted one vs. Arizona State and Isaiah Briscoe followed with one at Ole Miss

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Joe Craft Center lower-level lobby. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the lower level lobby of the Joe Craft Center.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a 20-minute cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

Fox Leads Cats Past Alabama for Fourth-Straight Appearance in SEC Championship

Alabama succeeded in making it the kind of choppy half-court affair the Crimson Tide would need it to be to advance. Kentucky had seen that show before though. The Wildcats found a way to win anyway.

Down in the early going, struggling with turnovers and without Isaiah Briscoe – UK's best player in a win on Friday – for long stretches due to foul trouble, the top-seeded Cats (28-5) overcame Alabama (19-14) in the Southeastern Conference Tournament semifinals, 79-74. Surviving a team desperate for a resumé-boosting win, UK advanced to face Arkansas in Sunday's final.

No one came up bigger than De'Aaron Fox, the player best known for his speed and electric open-floor ability. But on this afternoon, Fox didn't need a free-flowing game to excel. He scored a career-high 28 points in a game that featured just 68 possessions, the second fewest of any UK game this season. Fox hit one of his two 3-point attempts – giving him six makes in his last 11 3-point tries – and a handful of other jumpers.

Fox saved his best for last, and he went to his bread and butter to do it. After trailing by as many as 10 points in the opening minutes, UK had battled back and surged ahead to take a nine-point lead at the 11:24 mark of the second half. The Crimson Tide found a way back in it though, three times closing to within a single point. The last time, Fox took over.

Fox scored nine straight points for UK, attacking the basket and absorbing contact. His clutch play lifted UK to an eight-point lead that was too much for Alabama to overcome.

While Fox closed it out, it was Malik Monk who kept the Cats in it early. Shaking off back-to-back performances in which he failed to score in double digits, Monk scored eight of UK's first 10 points to steady the ship and avoid an even bigger deficit. For the game, he scored 20 points and joined Fox as one of only two UK players to score more than 10.

Coach Cal, however, was pleased with much more than their scoring. Fox and Monk's ability to adjust and willingness to battle is why he would rather have no backcourt combination than UK's.

Additional notes:

- Kentucky has won 10 in a row, its longest winning streak of the season and longest since winning 38-straight to begin the 2014-15 season
- Kentucky leads the series 110-37 and has won eight in a row vs. the Crimson Tide and is 15-2 against the Tide in the tournament
- Alabama came out strong, jumping out to a 17-7 lead, the fourth time in the last five games that UK has trailed by at least 10 points
- It's the fifth time this season UK has overcome a 10-point deficit or greater, tying the 2013-14 team for the most in a season under Cal
- Kentucky shot 52.3 percent from the field. UK is 15-0 this season when shooting at least 50 percent
- UK made 27 of 39 free throws, one shy of its season high in each category
- Alabama won the rebounding 33-28, ending a nine-game streak in which UK had won or tied the boardwork
- UK is 18-3 in the SEC Tournament under Calipari, going to the finals for the seventh time in his eight seasons (4-2 in previous finals)
- Fox had a career-high 28 points and has topped 20 points on nine occasions. It was the most points scored in an SEC Tournament game in program history by a freshman
- With Alabama lurking at 62-61, Fox scored UK's next nine points (extending lead to 71-63), and he scored 12 of UK's final 17 points
- He made 11 of 15 foul shots, career highs in both categories
- Fox is 6 of 11 from 3-point range (54.5 percent) in the last five games
- Monk tallied 20 points, his 18th 20-point effort of the season

SEC Champs!

Kentucky clinched at least a share of the regular-season Southeastern Conference championship with a victory over Vanderbilt on Feb. 28 in an epic 19-point comeback. The Wildcats also locked up the No. 1 seed in the SEC Tournament in Nashville, Tennessee, with the win. The Wildcats did one better on March 5, claiming the title outright with a 15-point comeback victory at Texas A&M.

It marked UK's league-leading 48th SEC championship, 38 more than anyone else in the league. The rest of the league has a combined 50 titles. It was also the fifth time UK has won at least a share of the SEC championship in head coach John Calipari's eight seasons at Kentucky. For Calipari, it was his 15th league crown, spanning three different conferences.

Five x Five x Five

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari added another first to his Hall of Fame career in 2017.

When Kentucky clinched at least a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship by beating Vanderbilt on Feb. 28, he made history as a head coach. Calipari is the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times.

He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, 93, 94, 95 and 96. Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, 06, 07, 08 and 09. Kentucky has captured the SEC five times in 2010, 12, 15, 16 and 17.

Wildcats Seeking Third Straight SEC Tournament Title

Kentucky owns the No. 1 seed in the annual Southeastern Conference Tournament and advanced to the finals with a 79-74 win over Alabama in the semifinals. The Wildcats will take on Arkansas on Sunday to compete for their 30th SEC Tournament championship in program history.

With the victory over Alabama, Kentucky improved to 41-2 in semifinal games. UK improved to 15-2 against the Crimson Tide in the SEC Tournament. Kentucky is 30-10 all-time in the championship (the 1988 SEC Tournament championship was vacated) and 8-1 all-time against the Razorbacks in the conference tournament, including a perfect 3-0 in the championship game. UK downed the Razorbacks for the 2015 title, the last time the teams meet in the league tournament. Kentucky earned a 97-71 win on Jan. 7 in the only matchup between the squads in 2016-17.

The last time UK was the No. 1 seed in the SEC Tournament was in 2015, when the Wildcats advanced to the championship game and defeated Arkansas. The Wildcats went on to a 38-1 record that season. Kentucky has never been lower than a No. 2 seed (conference or division) in the SEC Tournament under Calipari.

UK leads the league with 29 SEC Tournament titles, including four under Calipari. UK has captured each of the last two titles. The Wildcats are 129-25 all-time in the SEC Tournament.

This is the third straight season the tournament will be held at Bridgestone Arena in Nashville and the fourth time in the last five years.

Kentucky has the unquestionable reputation as the league's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 972-270 mark (.783) in regular-season conference play. Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama, Tennessee), and no other team has a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 84 seasons in the SEC
- Kentucky has won 48 SEC titles and 29 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 14 of the last 24 SEC Tournament titles
- UK has won at least a share of five of the last eight SEC regular-season championships under head coach John Calipari
- Kentucky has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in six of Calipari's seven seasons following its 2016 title

Monk's All-America Honors, SEC Player of the Year Highlight Postseason Awards

It's already been a busy awards season for the Wildcats, especially Malik Monk.

The freshman from Lepanto, Arkansas, has hauled in a number of postseason awards thus far, highlighted by Southeastern Conference Player and Newcomer of the Year honors from the Associated Press, SEC Freshman of the Year distinction by the league's coaches, making the Sporting News All-America Second Team, and being named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association's District IV Player of the Year. Monk was also tabbed to both the USA Today All-America Second Team and the NBC Sports All-America Second Team.

The Sporting News distinction is important as it's one of four "major" NCAA-recognized All-America teams that the NCAA uses for its consensus All-America teams. The other three are the AP, the USBWA and the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

De'Aaron Fox was also named to the USA Today All-America Third Team.

But that's not at all. Three Wildcats -- Monk, Fox and Bam Adebayo -- made the All-SEC teams. Monk and Fox were tabbed to the first team (AP and coaches) while Adebayo made the second team (AP and coaches). Kentucky is the only school with three players on either the first or the second teams by both the AP and coaches.

Adebayo, Fox and Monk were also tabbed to the coaches' All-Freshman Team.

Monk is the eighth Wildcat to win the coaches' pick for SEC Freshman of the Year. He is the seventh player in the last eight seasons under John Calipari's direction to claim the distinction. With the freshman trio capturing league honors, Calipari has now coached 21 players who have earned All-SEC accolades by the league coaches. At least one player has been named to the All-SEC Freshman Team in all eight seasons under Calipari, and in seven of the eight seasons multiple players have been tabbed to the squad.

Joining Monk on the USBWA All-District IV Team was Fox. The USBWA All-District IV Team is selected from players in the states of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida.

Derek Willis was named to the SEC Men's Basketball Community Service Team for his exemplary service in the community while Isaiah Briscoe was tabbed to the Sports Illustrated All-Glue Team.

Several Wildcats are on postseason watch lists as well, which you can read about more in the next section. The full list of awards so far:

- Malik Monk - SEC Player of the Year (AP), SEC Newcomer of the Year (AP), SEC Freshman of the Year (coaches), All-SEC First Team (AP/coaches), All-SEC Freshman Team (coaches), USBWA District IV Player of the Year, Sporting News All America Second Team, USA Today All-America Second Team, NBC Sports All-America Second Team, USBWA All-District IV Team, Sporting News Freshman All-America Team

Keep a Watchful Eye on the Cats

Stocked full of some of the nation's top talent, a handful of Wildcats are on a number of national watch lists for national player of the year awards and various national position awards:

- Bam Adebayo - Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award Preseason, Naismith Trophy Preseason, Wooden Award Preseason
- Isaiah Briscoe - Lute Olson Award Preseason
- De'Aaron Fox - Naismith Midseason Top 30, Wooden Award Late Season Top 20, Bob Cousy Award Midseason Finalist, Oscar Robertson Trophy Midseason Watch List, Wayman Tisdale Award Midseason Watch List

Adebayo Repeats as SEC Freshman of the Week

After helping Kentucky win its 48th regular-season Southeastern Conference crown, freshman forward Bam Adebayo was named the league's top-performing freshman on Monday for a second straight week.

Adebayo provided a consistent presence for the Cats in two historic comeback victories this week. He logged 14.5 points, 7.0 rebounds, 1.5 blocks and 1.0 steals per game in wins over Vanderbilt and Texas A&M.

The Little Washington, North Carolina, native began the week with 16 points and six boards as Kentucky overcame a 19-point deficit -- the largest comeback by the Wildcats since Feb. 22, 1997 -- for a 73-67 win over the Commodores.

Adebayo was magnificent in the full-court press, coming up with two steals and a block to aid the Wildcat surge. He also scored 10 of his 16 points after the break and was 6 of 7 from the free-throw line in the decisive second half.

Kentucky found itself in familiar territory on the road at Texas A&M in its quest to clinch the SEC title outright. The Aggies jumped out to a 15-point first-half advantage, but the Cats wasted little time in mounting a comeback and taking a lead before halftime. Kentucky would eventually prevail for a 71-63 win, marking the largest comeback on the road in the John Calipari era.

Adebayo scored 13 points and added a team-high eight rebounds. He also posted two blocks and an assist, while playing a team-high 36 minutes. He was 6 of 7 from the field for the game and had four offensive rebounds as UK logged a game-high 11 second-chance points.

UK's freshman big man has been sensational in the Wildcats' eight-game winning streak to end the regular season. Adebayo has averaged 11.2 rebounds per game over his last five games. He has pulled down at least six during the eight-game winning streak. He has also reached double figures in scoring in six of the eight games.

For the week, Adebayo led the team in rebounding and field-goal percentage. He was third on the team in scoring and second in both blocks and steals for the week.

Kentucky won the SEC Freshman of the Week award a league-leading eight times this season. Adebayo's honor is the second of his career and the 11th weekly award of the season for the Wildcats, most in the conference.

Comeback Cats Part II

For whatever reason, this Kentucky team has played its best ball recently after digging itself into an early hole in the last three regular-season games and the semifinal matchup vs. Alabama.

Following yet another comeback victory -- that latest of which was a 10-point comeback vs. the Crimson Tide in the SEC Tournament -- the Wildcats have rallied from double-figure deficits in four of their last five games. The three consecutive come-from-behind wins to end the regular season marked the first time a Kentucky team has done that in the John Calipari era. As a matter of fact, the last time a UK team won three straight games when trailing by 10 or more points was the 1998 national championship team. The appropriately named "Comeback Cats" won their final three NCAA Tournament games after falling behind by double digits.

All four of UK's recent comebacks have been noteworthy.

UK rallied from a 12-point deficit vs. Florida on Feb. 25 to take a one-game lead in the Southeastern Conference race. The Wildcats then clinched a share of the league title with a 19-point comeback vs. Vanderbilt, which equated to the biggest comeback of the Calipari era and the school's largest comeback since rallying from 22 points down on Feb. 22, 1997 at Vanderbilt. The aforementioned 15-point rally in College Station, Texas, was the largest comeback victory on the road in the Calipari era. The win in the SEC Tournament over the Crimson Tide marked the fourth time in the Cal era UK has rallied from double figures for a victory in the league tourney.

All told, Kentucky has five victories this season when trailing by double figures (UK also came back from 14 against Georgia on Jan. 31), which ties the 2013-14 squad for most victories in comeback fashion in the Cal era. The 2013-14 squad (which became known as the Cardiac Cats) that made an unthinkable run in the 2014 NCAA Tournament behind three last-minute 3-pointers from freshman Aaron Harrison, rallied back from double digits a Cal-era high five times that season, including 13 points against Louisville in the Sweet 16 and 10 against Michigan in the Elite Eight.

Of course, to come back, one must fall behind, and there's been a common denominator in that recently: slow starts. UK has fallen behind early in the four recent comebacks, trailing Florida 18-6, Vanderbilt 25-6, Texas A&M 19-4 and Alabama 17-7.

Calipari Named Coach of USA Men's U19 Team

John Calipari was officially named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Cup Team on March 8 and will lead Team USA at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Championship in July in Cairo.

Calipari will oversee the direction of the team, starting with training camp, June 18-25, at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado. There, Calipari and his staff will select the 12-member USA U19 World Cup Team before heading to Egypt for the FIBA World Championship in Egypt, July 1-9.

Team USA will look for its third straight title at the FIBA World Championship after capturing gold at the 2013 and 2015 tournaments.

Colorado head coach Tad Boyle and Wake Forest head coach Danny Manning will serve as assistants. Calipari was an assistant at Kansas (1983-85) during parts of the careers of Boyle and Manning.

Calipari previously served with USA Basketball as the head coach of the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival East Team, but he has recent international experience as the head coach of the Dominican Republic National Team in 2011 and 2012. His impact on the country was immediate and unprecedented.

In his first year with the team, Coach Cal led the Dominican Republic to a bronze-medal finish at the 2011 FIBA Americas Championship in Mar del Plata, Argentina, defeating archrival Puerto Rico and world power Brazil along the way. The Dominicans came within one win in the semifinal round of qualifying for the country's first-ever appearance in the Olympics. The third-place finish secured a spot at the 2012 FIBA World Olympic Qualifying Tournament as one of 12 teams vying for three open spots to the 2012 Olympic Games in London. There, again, the Dominicans came within one win of making history and qualifying for the Olympics.

Calipari also led the Dominican Republic to a gold medal at the 2012 Centrobasket. It was the first Centrobasket title in eight years for the Dominican Republic and just the third in the country's history.

As for Calipari's new team, the United States drew Group D for preliminary-round games at the FIBA World Championship and will open against Iran on July 1. Team USA will then play Angola on July 2 and will cap preliminary round action versus Italy on July 4 (game times are to be determined).

The United States earned its berth into the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup by virtue of claiming gold at the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship.

Monk Scoring at a Historic Rate

If there's one thing to be said from the first 33 games of Malik Monk's career, it's that he is as dynamic of an offensive player for the Wildcats as any player John Calipari has ever coached. As a matter of fact, he may be Calipari's best scorer ever. At least that's what the numbers say.

Following his record-setting 47 points vs. No. 7/6 North Carolina, his scoring average jumped up to 21.9 points per game. He currently averages 20.5. He is within reaching distance to be the highest scoring average of any player Calipari has coached in college. No Calipari player has ever averaged more than 21.2 points for an entire season (Dajuan Wagner at Memphis in 2002).

The Jerry West Shooting Guard Award finalist is the only freshman in program history with four games of at least 30 points. UK is 4-0 in those games.

Through games played on March 10, Monk is second among all freshmen nationally in scoring and led the Southeastern Conference in scoring throughout the regular season. Monk edged out South Carolina's Sindarius Thornwell at the conclusion of the regular season by .001 of a point. Monk is on pace to be the first Wildcat to capture the conference scoring crown since Jodie Meeks in 2009.

The freshman from Lepanto, Arkansas, has topped the 20-point plateau 18 times this season and reached double figures in his first 30 games before the streak was snapped in the final regular-season game of the season at Texas A&M. He's scored 20 or more points in a half six times, including a Calipari-era record of 30 in the second half vs. the Gators.

At Florida, he surpassed the 500-point barrier, becoming the second-fastest player in school history (23 games) to reach 500 career points. Only Cotton Nash accomplished the feat quicker when he did it in 22 games in 1961-62. With 678 current points, he already ranks second all time among UK freshmen and 13th on the single-season list, regardless of class.

Monk isn't just a one-trick pony either. He can beat you in a variety of ways. Off the bounce, he's as good as anyone in the country. Athletically and at the rack, he's elite with a 42-inch vertical and 22 dunks so far -- many of which have appeared on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays.

Perhaps Monk's greatest strength is his ability to shoot. Through 33 games, Monk has connected on 94 made 3-pointers, behind where Jamal Murray (107) was through the same point in the season when he went on to break the freshman record with 113 3-pointers a season ago. Monk is also within reaching distance of Jodie Meeks (108) when he went on to set the single-season 3-point record in 2008-09 with 117 made 3-pointers. He's made a trey in every game but three.

Monk is averaging 2.85 made 3-pointers per game. If he maintains that average, and UK plays a full 40-game schedule, he would finish the season with 113 3-pointers. That total would be just short of Meeks' school record and just behind the NCAA freshman record of 122 held by Steph Curry.

Monk is currently one of just three freshmen -- Steph Curry and Kevin Durant being the others -- since the 1992-93 season to average at least 20 points, shoot at least 80 percent from the free-throw line, make at least 45 percent from the field and at shoot at least 40 percent from behind the 3-point line.

But Monk isn't just chasing history; he's already made some ...

- His 47 points vs. UNC were ...
  - The most by a freshman in school history
  - The sixth-most points ever by a Wildcat
  - The most points by a Cat since Jodie Meeks' single-game record of 54 points at Tennessee on Jan. 18, 2009
  - The most ever by a John Calipari-coached player in college
  - The most in a game by an SEC freshman since LSU's Chris Jackson scored 55 vs. Ole Miss on March 4, 1989
  - The second-most points by a freshman in Division I college basketball since at least the 1996-97 season
  - The most in school history at a neutral site
  - The most in school history against an opponent ranked in the top 10 of the Associated Press Top 25
  - Tied the second most ever scored against North Carolina. It's the most since Rick Yuknus (Georgia Tech) scored 47 on Feb. 14, 1970. The record is 48 by Dick Groat on Feb. 29, 1952
  - The second-most points by a Cat vs. a nonconference foe. Cliff Hagan scored 51 vs. Temple on Dec. 5, 1953
  - His 18 field goals are the most since Melvin Turpin made 18 on March 8, 1984
  - His eight 3-pointers tied the school record for most 3-point field goals by a freshman
- With 34 points vs. Ole Miss, Monk ...
  - Set the school record for most points by a freshman in a road game
  - Joined Murray as the only freshmen in school history with multiple games of 30 or more points. Murray had three such games last season
- With 26 points vs. Texas A&M, Monk ...
  - Became the first freshman in program history to score 26 or more points in his first two career SEC games

- Became the first UK player to score 26 or more points in consecutive games to begin the SEC season since Dan Issel on Jan. 3 and 5, 1970
- With 26 points vs. South Carolina, Monk ...
  - Set the freshman scoring record for most points against a ranked SEC opponent
- With 37 points vs. Georgia at home, Monk ...
  - Passed Murray (six) for his record seventh 25-point game as a freshman under Calipari at UK
  - Scored the most points for a UK freshman ever vs. Georgia, passing Jamal Mashburn's record of 31 set Feb. 3, 1991
  - Became the third player (Meeks, Miller) in school history with three games of seven or more treys in a season
  - Became the first freshman and the third player in program history (Dan Issel and Meeks) to have 34 or more points at a neutral-site game, a home game and an away game in the same season
- With 33 points vs. Florida at home, Monk ...
  - Became the first freshman in school history with four games of 30 or more points
  - Set the record for most points in a half (30) in the Calipari era at Kentucky
- With 27 points vs. Vanderbilt at home, Monk ...
  - Scored the third most points off of the bench in the Calipari era
  - Scored a combined 50 points over the last two second halves (Florida and Vanderbilt)

How Monk Stacks Up to Calipari's Best Scorers

If traditional numbers aren't enough, KenPom.com's efficiency rankings also put Malik Monk in the discussion for the best scorer under John Calipari. Just looking at some of the top Calipari freshmen scorers alone, Monk stacks up favorably.

Name	Offensive Rating	True Shooting %	Usage Rate	Points Per Game
John Wall	108	56.2	25.7	16.6
DeMarcus Cousins	113.1	57.9	30.5	15.1

Malik Monk	115.6	59.2	25.7	20.5

2017 Senior Class Most Productive in Calipari Era

Kentucky celebrated seniors Dominique Hawkins, Mychal Mulder and Derek Willis prior to a 19-point comeback win against Vanderbilt on Feb. 28. The Wildcats improved to 94-19 all-time on Senior Day, including a perfect 8-0 mark under John Calipari. (Of note to the Senior Night festivities, Willis proposed to his girlfriend, Keely Potts, before the game. She said yes.)

All three seniors are all playing significant minutes for the Cats and producing in a variety of ways. The trio averages a combined 16.2 points, 8.5 rebounds, 3.1 assists, 1.7 steals and 1.2 blocks per game.

Willis is averaging a career-best 5.1 rebounds, Mulder has scored a career-high 145 points, while Hawkins owns a team-best 4.1 assist-to-turnover ratio. The 16.2 points per game for the seniors is the best in the John Calipari era. The 2011-12 team consisting of Darius Miller and Eloy Vargas averaged 11.6 points per game. The 505 points scored on the year is the highest-scoring senior class in the Calipari era.

Having a three-man senior class contributing and all playing at least 11.2 minutes per game under Calipari is a first in his eight-year tenure. As a matter of fact, you have to go all the way back to the 2003-04 season to find another trio of seniors playing more than 10 minutes a game. The 2003-04 class of Cliff Hawkins (30.5), Erik Daniels (30.0), Gerald Fitch (29.8) and Antwain Barbour (17.2) is the last group of seniors who all played at least 10 minutes a game for the Wildcats.

Cats Cleaning up on the Glass

For as big and as strong as the Wildcats are, they've been inconsistent on the glass. When UK was outrebounded by 25 at Florida -- the worst mark in the John Calipari era -- it was clear something needed to change. And it has.

Since that drubbing at Florida, UK either outrebounded or tied nine straight opponents on the glass until Alabama won the battle of the boards by five in the SEC Tournament semifinals. During the nine-game stretch, the Wildcats averaged 41.2 boards a game and outrebounded their opponents by an average of 8.4 an outing.

Bam Adebayo has been the biggest difference of late. He's grabbed at least six rebounds over his last 11 games and is averaging 9.9 boards during UK's 10-game winning streak.

Despite some shaky individual games, and with the help of the recent board play, UK has a plus-5.2 rebounding margin on the season, the 32nd-best mark in the country and tops in the league (as of games through March 10). That includes 12.61 offensive rebounds per game, 28th in the country, which has led to 13.0 second-chance points per game.

The most impressive performance on the glass came against Arizona State when the Wildcats grabbed 59 rebounds, tied for the most of the Calipari era. Against North Carolina, which came into the game with the best rebounding margin in the country, the Cats more than just held their own -- they outrebounded the Tar Heels. It was the first time in UNC's first 12 games the Tar Heels had been outrebounded.

Calipari Notches 23rd Consecutive 20-Win Season

With a road win at Alabama, Kentucky secured its 20th win of the season, its eighth straight 20-win season under John Calipari. Calipari as a collegiate head coach has posted 23 consecutive seasons of 20 or more on-court wins. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (21), Bill Self (19) and Jim Boeheim (17).

CATS IN THE NBA

At the beginning of the 2016-17 season, 24 former Wildcats were on an opening-day roster, more than any other school in the country. The following listing is as of opening day.

More impressive, Calipari has nine seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Mike Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (10) have more. Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 straight in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

Calipari's Best Freshman Trio Yet?

Among the many things Kentucky has been known for since John Calipari's arrival at Kentucky, the Wildcats have featured the nation's best freshmen. From John Wall and DeMarcus Cousins, to Brandon Knight and Terrence Jones, Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist, Nerlens Noel, Karl-Anthony Towns, Devin Booker, Tyler Ulis, and Jamal Murray -- just to name a handful -- UK has seen its fair share of freshman phenoms.

Believe it or not, De'Aaron Fox, Malik Monk and Bam Adebayo may be as impressive of a trio as Calipari has ever coached. They've each had electrifying and jaw-dropping performances, and between the three of them, they lead UK in points, rebounds, assists, blocks and steals.

Combined the trio is averaging 49.8 points, 14.6 rebounds and 7.8 assists per game. For comparison, the 2009-10 freshman trio of Wall, Cousins and Eric Bledsoe -- who likely would be the strongest competition to this year's group -- combined to average 43.1 points, 17.4 rebounds and 10.3 assists per game by the end of the season.

This year's edition of the freshman class isn't just statistically good among past UK greats, they're also some of the elite performers nationally. Monk is second in the country among all freshmen with a 20.5 scoring average and his 2.85 made 3-pointers a game leads all freshmen. Fox is seventh among all freshmen with 4.9 assists per game and 10th with a 2.14 assist-to-turnover ratio. Adebayo is eighth in rebounds (7.8) and in eight blocks per game (1.59).

Unsurprisingly, Monk, Fox and Adebayo are the leading scoring freshman trio in the country. Here's a look at where they stand in the UK freshman record books thus far:

Assists

1. Wall (241)
2. Teague (191)
- T3. Knight (159)
- T3. An. Harrison (159)
5. Fox (152)

Rebounds

1. Randle (417)
6. Mills (277)
7. Bowie (276)
8. Towns (261)
9. Adebayo (256)

3-Pointers

1. Murray (113)
2. Monk (94)

Points

1. Murray (720)
2. Monk (678)
9. Davis (567)
10. Aa. Harrison (549)
11. Fox (498)
17. Bowie (440)
- T18. Adebayo (434)

Steals

1. Rondo (87)
5. Noel (50)
6. Bogans (47)
7. Mills (45)
8. Fox (44)

Blocks

1. Davis (186)

8. Cauley-Stein (60)
9. Labissiere (59)
10. Adebayo (52)

The Big Three: UK's Guards Rank Among National Trio Scoring Leaders

Malik Monk, De'Aaron Fox and Isaiah Briscoe have electrified the country with high-profile scoring performances and triple-doubles. They're also the three leading scorers on the nation's fifth-highest scoring team in the country with 86.1 points per game (as of March 10).

If the team is one of the top-scoring units nationally, well obviously, the trio of guards is going to rank among the nation's leaders. UK's guards are ranked fourth nationally among top-scoring trios made up of backcourt players.

Rank	Trio	Team	Combined PPG
1.	Keene, Rayson, DiLeo	Central Michigan	59.7
2.	Mason III, Jackson, Graham	Kansas	50.1
3.	Graham, Holder, Evans II	Arizona State	49.8
4.	Monk, Fox, Briscoe	Kentucky	49.7
	Evans, Carroll, Forte	Oklahoma State	49.7

Taking Care of the Ball

Through 33 games of the 2016-17 season, it's obvious this Kentucky team can score with the best of them and is likely doing it quickly. With an average possession of 15.0 seconds and scoring 86.1 points per game, one would think ball security would be an issue. Theoretically, the more possessions you have, the more turnovers a team will commit, but not with this bunch.

This team yields a turnover on just 15.9 percent of its possessions. That's the 26th-best mark in the country (through games on March 10). UK averages 11.9 turnovers per game, which is 70th in the country.

During John Calipari's tenure, UK's best seasons in those categories came in 2011 when the team averaged a turnover on just 16.1 percent of its possessions, ranked 10th in the country. The 2015 team averaged just 10.5 turnovers per outing. For comparison's sake, UK's previous fastest team in 2009-10 averaged a turnover on 20.3 percent of its possessions and 14.4 turnovers a game.

Turnovers have been a problem of late, however. UK has turned the ball over a minimum of 14 times in nine of its last 16 games, including a combined 44 in losses to Kansas, Tennessee and Florida. Kansas scored 21 points off of UK's 17 miscues and the Gators capitalized for 17 points in Kentucky's loss in Gainesville, Florida.

High-Percentage Shots

Kentucky has made 50 percent or more of its shots in 15 games this season, including seven straight games before a 41.7-percent day at Tennessee ended the streak. UK went 12 games before shooting 52.3 percent in the SEC Tournament semifinals vs. Alabama for its 15th game with 50 percent or better from the field. It was the first time UK had shot 50 percent or better in seven straight games since doing it eight straight times during the 1983-84 season.

Why such high-percentage numbers? High-percentage shots, of course. UK has scored a whopping 38.52 percent of its points on either layups or dunks and 38.4 points per game inside the paint. Which leads to another question. How are the Wildcats getting such high-percentage baskets?

There could be a number of factors to point to. For one, this Kentucky team likes to play fast and beat other teams down the floor, which can lead to layups and dunks. UK is averaging just 15.0 seconds per possession, the 13th-fastest mark in the country (as of games through March 10).

Defense helps, too. The Wildcats are scoring 18.0 points per game off of turnovers, some of which are easy transition baskets. In that regard, UK is averaging 11.2 fast-break points per game, although Kentucky's fast-break opportunities have significantly decreased in recent games as opponents try to take away the Wildcats' strength. UK's 16 fast-break points at Alabama marked the first time the Wildcats hit double figures in that category since the Auburn game on Jan. 14. UK has posted double-digit fast-break points just three times in the last 16 games.

Fastest Calipari Team Ever?

It's no secret that a staple of John Calipari-coached teams is to play fast. You'll hear him from the sidelines imploring his teams to get out and run and score as many transition baskets as possible.

Well, the 2016-17 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats is just that - really fast, as told by their average possession lasting just 15.0 seconds. As of games through March 10, that mark was the 13th-fastest mark in the nation and the second-best among Power Five programs, trailing only UCLA.

But, for a coach who directs his teams to run the floor, this team takes it to a whole new level. This is the fastest Calipari team while at Kentucky and the fastest by nearly two seconds. According to Synergy Sports, UK averages 19.7 points per game in transition, the third-best mark in the country (through games on March 11).

Average Possession Length and KenPom's Adjusted Tempo Ranking:

2016-17 (UK): 15.0, 13th	2015-16 (UK): 17.7, 219th	2014-15 (UK): 17.7, 98th
2013-14 (UK): 17.9, 156th	2012-13 (UK): 17.4, 106th	2011-12 (UK): 17.8, 142nd
2010-11 (UK): 18.3, 219th	2009-10 (UK): 16.2, 31st

Fox the Next Great Freshman Point Guard Under Calipari

Faced with the unenviable task of replacing 2016 Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year award winner Tyler Ulis, De'Aaron Fox has filled his shoes admirably and made his mark as one of the nation's fastest and craftiest players.

Fox is currently averaging 16.1 points, 4.9 assists, 4.2 rebounds and 1.4 steals. He is one of only three freshmen in the country to average at least 16.1 points and at least 4.9 assists per game. Makelle Fultz (Washington) and Dennis Smith Jr., (NC State) are the others.

His 4.9 assists ranks 51st nationally and first in the Southeastern Conference. The average is seventh nationally among freshmen.

As a matter of fact, through 33 games, Fox has 152 assists. That's already the fifth-most ever by a UK freshman in a single season. He needs nine more dimes to move into third place in the record books.

Fox has four double-doubles by way of points and assists, which includes his historic triple-double against Arizona State -- the second triple-double in school history and first since Chris Mills did it Dec. 27, 1988.

That's not the only history Fox has made. Against Stephen F. Austin, in the season opener, Fox dished out 12 assists to set two program records. The 12 dimes were the most by any Wildcat in his debut, and the most of any player in a season-opening game since assists began being kept in 1971-72.

The Houston native also ranks fourth in the SEC with a 2.1 assist-to-turnover ratio (through games on March 10). His scoring average is ranked eighth in the SEC.

Fox was one of 10 finalists for the Bob Cousy Point Award, awarded annually by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame to the nation's top point guard. Ulis won it last season.

Adebayo Providing Consistent Presence on Offense

After scoring in single digits in two of his first three career outings, freshman big man Bam Adebayo has topped double-figure scoring in 26 of 30 games. There's no question that he has been able to provide a consistent inside presence to complement UK's guard-heavy lineup. He's averaging 13.2 points per game on the season to go along with a team-best 7.8 rebounds per game.

Even more impressive is his efficiency. Adebayo is utilizing a team-best .613 field-goal percentage with players attempting at least three shots a game. He already has 90 dunks on the season, including a career-high eight at Ole Miss. The most by a player in the John Calipari era is Anthony Davis with 92 during the 2011-12 season. Adebayo is currently averaging 2.7 dunks per game, while Davis posted 2.3 slams per outing.

Adebayo has stepped up his game recently. He followed a 22-point, 15-rebound game at Missouri with an 18-point, 15-rebound effort vs. No. 13/12 Florida, accomplishing a pair of milestones in the process. His back-to-back double-doubles were the first of the season and put him in the team lead with five, while his back-to-back 15-rebound games mark the first such stretch since Jared Prickett accomplished the feat on Feb. 6 and Feb. 9, 1994. It was the first time a UK player had posted back-to-back games of at least 15 boards in consecutive Southeastern Conference games since Sam Bowie on March 1 and March 3, 1984.

After a challenge from his head coach to rebound better, Adebayo has been dominant on the glass. He's grabbed at least six rebounds over his last 11 games and is averaging 10.4 boards over his last eight games.

Three is Better Than Two ... More Than 1,000 Times

Kentucky and UNLV have gone back and forth all season long for the claim of having the longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer. Fittingly, both schools reached a historic milestone -- 1,000 straight games -- within a few hours of each other.

UK just beat out the Runnin' Rebels by mere hours, becoming the first school ever to hit a 3-pointer in 1,000 straight games with a trey at Alabama on Feb. 11. Freshman guard Malik Monk, fittingly UK's leader in 3-point field goals this season, got the Wildcats to 1,000 straight games with a 3-pointer from the right wing with 15:26 to go in the first half. UNLV would match it later in the day.

Kentucky passed UNLV for the nation's longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer in its final game of 2015-16. UK has now knocked down at least one 3-pointer in 1,008 consecutive games. UNLV has hit one in 1,006 straight, through games on March 11.

The Cats' last game without a made 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988 a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout. The streak began on Nov. 28, 1998, in an 89-71 win vs. California.

The Wildcats' record during the 1,008-game streak is 779-229.

Keep It 100

For all the offensive weapons John Calipari's teams have featured during his eight seasons at Kentucky, this squad might have the most firepower, as told by the Wildcats' 86.1 scoring average, ranked fifth in the country (as of games through March 10). The best mark in program history during the shot clock era came in 1995-96 when that team averaged 91.4 points per game. The school-record came during the 1970-71 season when that team averaged 95.4 points per game.

UK surpassed the Cal era record for most 100-point games in a season when it dropped 100 on Texas A&M in the SEC home opener. The previous mark was four games during the 2009-10 team. It's the most 100-point games for any UK team since the 1995-96 season when that squad posted nine games of 100 or more.

Three of this season's games came consecutively. UK logged a 101-70 win over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, followed it up with 111 points vs. UT Martin in a 111-76 victory and then dropped 115 on Arizona State in a 115-69 win. It marked the first time the Wildcats had scored 100 or more points in three straight outings since Dec. 16-23, 1977.

UK's 115 points vs. Arizona State are the most of the John Calipari era and the most since the Wildcats netted 115 vs. East Tennessee State on Dec. 30, 2002.

The Wildcats opened the SEC slate with a seven-game streak of scoring at least 85 points a game. That's the most consecutive games of 85 points or more in Southeastern Conference play since doing it eight straight times during the 1976-77 season. UK posted 80 points at Tennessee and 90 in the overtime win over Georgia to enable the Cats to have their first streak of 80-plus points in nine consecutive SEC regular-season games since the 1990-91 season. That team did it 10 straight times.

Kentucky has scored less than 70 points just three times this season.

Winning Big

Kentucky won its first seven games by at least 21 points. The only other team in school history to accomplish that feat was the 1947-48 team, which also ended its streak at seven games. The Wildcats' first nine wins were all by at least 21 points, the first time that's happened since the 1934-35 season.

Among the seven victories, four (Duquesne, Cleveland State, UT Martin and Arizona State) saw the Cats win by at least 31. It was the first time UK had won four consecutive games by at least 31 points since Feb. 2-8, 1954, when it won four consecutive games by that margin.

COMPARING THE CALIPARI ERA

A look at UK's statistics through 33 games throughout the John Calipari era ...

Year	FG%	Opp. FG%	3-Pt. FG%	FT%	RPG	Assists	TOs.	Blocks	Steals	Points	PPG	Record
2016-17	.477	.424	.353	.696	40.2	518	394	176	200	2,840	86.1	28-5

2009-10	.480	.380	.344	.680	41.5	484	484	240	236	2,619	79.4	31-2

UK's current scoring margin is plus-14.3 points per game, the 10th-best mark in the country (as of games through March 10).

When Kentucky beat Ole Miss by 23 points in the Southeastern Conference opener on Dec. 29, it marked the largest victory in an SEC opener for the Wildcats since Jan. 2, 1999, when UK beat Florida by 35 points. With two more blowouts vs. Texas A&M and Arkansas, Kentucky won its first three league tilts by at least 23 points for the first time since 1953-54.

During a six-game stretch for the Wildcats things tightened up, as they didn't win a game by double digits from Jan. 24-Feb. 11. A 25-point win over Tennessee on Feb. 14, snapped the streak.

Sharing is Caring

One of the most defining traits of John Calipari's teams and their success is their willingness to share the ball. Calipari, on an annual basis, brings in the nation's most talented players, most of whom were accustomed to taking the majority of the shots on their high school teams.

At Kentucky, to better prepare them for the next level, they learn to share -- and to prosper from it. Calipari doesn't promise shots to anyone. Instead, he preaches that as the team succeeds, everyone benefits.

Although it hit a bit of a rough stretch during a time in which the team lost three of four, this team may be his greatest example of that yet. With all the talent this team has, it has shared the ball better than any other Calipari team at Kentucky. The Wildcats have 518 assists through 33 games, 34 more than the 2009-10 team had at this point in the season. That group owns the Calipari era record for total assists with 573 by season's end. Their 1.33 assist-to-turnover ratio not only ranks 30th in the country (through games on March 10), it's in the running to be the program's best mark in the shot-clock era (1.41 in 1995-96).

Three players are averaging 2.3 assists or more per game, and Kentucky's 15.7 assists per game ranks 41st in the nation (as of games through March 10). The 1995-96 UK team averaged 21.8 assists per game and set the school record of 783 assists in 36 games.

Against Arizona State, the Wildcats dished out 33 assists (on 44 made field goals), the most in the Calipari era and just two off of the school record. UK also had 25 assists against Cleveland State, the fifth most in the Cal era.

Kentucky dishes out an assist on 51.9 percent of its field goals.

Over a four-game stretch from Jan. 24 to Feb. 4, of which UK lost three of them, the Wildcats averaged only 12.3 assists, including a season-low seven at Florida.

Sophomore Slump? Mr. Do Everything Has Other Plans

Isaiah Briscoe has provided the steady hand to complement UK's dynamic yet youthful backcourt in De'Aaron Fox and Malik Monk. The elder statesman is having a markedly improved sophomore season in leading UK to its second straight Southeastern Conference championship.

Briscoe scored 10 or more points in 11 of UK's 18 league games, logged three or more rebounds in 16 of the 18, had five or more assists in nine of 18 games -- not to mention his historic triple-double against Ole Miss in the league opener. He also became the first UK player since James Young (26 points, 10 rebounds, five assists vs. Mississippi State on Jan. 8, 2014) to have at least 20 points, 10 rebounds and five assists in a single game when he did so with 23 points, 11 rebounds and eight assists vs. Georgia.

The sophomore from Newark, New Jersey, finished the regular season as the only player in the SEC averaging at least 12.9 points, at least 5.6 rebounds and at least 4.4 assists.

In the opening game of the SEC Tournament, Mr. Do Everything guided the Cats to a 71-60 win over Georgia with an impressive stat line of 20 points, six rebounds, two assists and two steals in 34 minutes.

Here's a look at Briscoe's improvement since his freshman year:

2016-17	PPG	RPG	APG	A/TO Ratio	FG%	3FG%	FT%	SPG	MPG
Nonconference	14.8	4.0	3.7	1.7	52.2	30.0	70.9	1.1	29.5
Conference	11.7	6.5	4.8	1.7	44.1	25.8	60.3	0.6	31.1
2015-16	PPG	RPG	APG	A/TO Ratio	FG%	3FG%	FT%	SPG	MPG
Nonconference	10.8	5.6	3.3	1.3	48.6	21.1	47.8	1.3	31.3
Conference	8.5	5.1	3.1	2.2	39.8	05.6	43.6	0.8	32.9

Year of the Triple-Double?

It's funny how history works. Prior to this season, Kentucky had just one triple-double in school history, dating all the way back to the program's inception in 1903. Chris Mills pulled off the initial and only one prior to this season on Dec. 27, 1988, but for all the great players to put on the UK uniform, that was it.

Until this season.

After an almost unbelievable absence of triple-doubles, the Wildcats (De'Aaron Fox and Isaiah Briscoe) have not only ended the drought this season, they've pulled off the feat twice -- in a seven-game span.

Fox was the first. On a night of record-setting accomplishments and a collective offensive outburst from the Wildcats in a 115-69 win over Arizona State in the Bahamas, Fox posted 14 points, a career-high 11 rebounds and 10 assists in 31 minutes of play, Fox recorded just the second triple-double in school history.

Only a month later, Briscoe turned the trick with 19 points, a career-high 11 assists and 10 rebounds in a 99-73 win at Ole Miss. Briscoe had eight points, nine dimes and six boards by half.

With Briscoe's triple-double, Fox and Briscoe became the first pair of teammates in Southeastern Conference history to log triple-doubles in the same season. With the way history has worked this season, could the Wildcats make it three?

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

UK is 211-4 (.981) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest. Two of those three losses (a 21-point lead at Tennessee and a 12-point lead at Auburn) came during the 2015-16 campaign. The only other losses came during the 2012-13 season when UK gave up an 11-point first-half lead and lost 59-55 at Alabama and vs. Kansas this season when the Wildcats failed to capitalize on a 12-point first-half lead. The loss to Kansas was the first to a nonconference opponent when leading by 10 or more in the Calipari era.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 72.4 percent of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 86.1 percent of Calipari's 245 career wins at Kentucky.

Big-Game Cal

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky have a 48-21 record (.695) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams, UK is 5-3 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five under Calipari.

All-time, Calipari is 11-7 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 71-46, including a 41-18 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 23-13 record, including 12-6 at UK.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 48-21 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 197-31 vs. unranked competition, an .864 winning percentage.

The Wildcats' loss to Tennessee during the 2016-17 season was its first since falling at unranked Vanderbilt on Feb. 27, 2016.

Kentucky Elite Under Cal

Since John Calipari took over the program in 2009-10, nobody has more wins than Kentucky, and only the Kansas and Gonzaga have a better winning percentage. UK is 244-52 (.824) during that time span.

1. Kansas: 244-47 (.8385)
2. Gonzaga: 234-46 (.8357)
3. Kentucky: 244-52 (.8243)
4. Wichita State: 232-52 (.8169)
5. Duke: 236-55 (.8109)

*numbers through March 10, 2017

Bounce Back

The Wildcats don't lose very often during the John Calipari era, but when they do, they almost always bounce back.

UK is 38-8 under Calipari following a loss. Kentucky's back-to-back losses to Kansas and Tennessee this season were its first since also losing back-to-back games at Kansas and at Tennessee in 2015-16.

The Wildcats have only lost back-to-back games eight times during the Calipari era and they've never lost three in a row with Calipari on the sidelines -- including avoiding a three-game skid despite trailing by 14 to Georgia in the first half on Jan. 31. The last time UK lost three games in a row was in February 2009 when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Year	Offense (Rank)	Defense (Rank)	Overall
2017	119.1 (14)	92.3 (12)	5th
2016	120.4 (5)	98.0 (53)	6th

A Winning Institution

Both the UK men's and women's basketball teams have posted an eighth straight 20-win season in 2016-17. Kentucky is one of just three institutions (Duke and BYU) in the NCAA that have seen both their men's and women's basketball programs tally 20 or more wins in the last eight consecutive seasons.

National Attention

Kentucky basketball always garners the eyes of the country as UK routinely draws some of the highest national rating numbers on TV for college basketball games. Of course, this season has been no different.

The Wildcats' game vs. North Carolina in the CBS Sports Classic was the most watched college basketball game of the season (to that point) across any network, according to CBS. The game, which is being hailed as an all-time classic after Kentucky won a 103-100 thriller, drew a 2.4 household rating with a 5 share. In other words, 2.4 of all households with a TV set watched the game, while 5 percent of those watching TV at the time tuned in for the game.

The Kentucky-Louisville game was ESPN's best overnight (1.8) for a college basketball game this season, but that was before the Kentucky-Kansas game topped it with a 2.0 overnight rating.

The Duke-North Carolina game would go on to be the highest-rated game of the season, but UK ended up with two of the three most-watched regular-season games of the year. UK-UNC had 3.6 million viewers and UK-Kansas had 3.4 million.

In addition to owning some of the most-watched games this season, UK's matchup with No. 2/1 Kansas on Jan. 28 called for the return of ESPN's popular morning show College GameDay to Rupp Arena for the first time since 2013-14. Additionally, the SEC Network's Paul Finebaum Show ventured away from its Charlotte, North Carolina, studios for an appearance in Rupp Arena on Jan. 27 to preview the SEC/Big 12 Challenge.

College GameDay's visit to Rupp Arena this season marked the sixth time it has visited UK. Only Kansas and Duke have hosted more times with both welcoming the weekly show seven times. The most memorable trip was on Feb. 13, 2010, when a record 22,144 fans attended the show in John Calipari's first season at UK.

The Wildcats were also featured as a part of College GameDay for its trip to Florida. It was UK's 14th ESPN College GameDay appearance, behind only North Carolina (15).

Hold Them to 55

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 63-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer. The Wildcats are 144-5 under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less.

After dropping three of four games, UK "rebooted" and posted back-to-back wins over Alabama and Tennessee by limiting both opponents to 58 points.

Forever Young

Kentucky began the 2016-17 season with two veterans in the starting lineup in senior Derek Willis and sophomore Isaiah Briscoe. However, Kentucky once again checks in as one of the youngest teams in terms of experience, according to kenpom.com. UK ranks No. 341 out of 351 in terms of experience per minute. Only Texas, Iowa, Mississippi State, Washington and Oregon State are younger among Power Five institutions.

UK's Nonconference Schedule Loaded

According to the NCAA's calculations, the Wildcats have played the 10th-toughest nonconference strength of schedule.

UK's 13-game nonconference schedule featured eight teams that made it to a postseason tournament in 2015-16, five teams who finished the year with a top 50 RPI ranking and four nationally ranked opponents at the time of the game. Three of KenPom's top five teams from last season (North Carolina, Kansas and Michigan State) were among UK's nonconference schedule. Five of the Wildcats' nonconference opponents were ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 at the time.

The Wildcats' slate took the Wildcats as far east as the Bahamas for the second game of a two-year deal with Arizona State and as far west as Las Vegas for a matchup with North Carolina in the CBS Sports Classic.

Kentucky also traveled twice to New York, first to play Michigan State in Madison Square Garden, and then against Hofstra at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn.

All told, Kentucky's 2016-17 nonconference opponents combined for a record of 200-157 in 2015-16, a .649 winning percentage. Four teams finished the season ranked in the top 25 of the all-important RPI. Five teams started the season ranked in both the AP Top 25 and the USA Today Coaches Poll.

2017 Shooting Guard Hamidou Diallo Joins Wildcats

Hamidou Diallo, widely considered the top shooting guard in the class of 2017, has signed a financial aid agreement with the Kentucky men's basketball team and is enrolled in classes. He began his first semester at the University of Kentucky on Jan. 11 for the spring term after graduating in May from the Putnam Science Academy in Connecticut.

Diallo (pronounced ha-MUH-do DEE-ah-lo), a top-10 prospect in the 2017 class, is expected to practice with the team this semester and begin game competition in the 2017-18 season, though he is eligible to play in games immediately.

Diallo is the fifth prospect to sign with Kentucky out of the 2017 class, joining five-star signees Quade Green, Nick Richards and P.J. Washington, and four-star signee Shai Gilgeous-Alexander. UK can only comment on prospects who have signed national letters of intent or financial aid agreements. The next national spring signing period is in April, when UK expects to announce any additional signees.

Diallo, from Queens, New York, is Kentucky's third guard in the 2017 class. At 6-foot-5, 190 pounds, Diallo is a long and extremely athletic wing with a ton of upside. A high-flying, high-scoring guard who excels at getting to the basket, Diallo is considered an elite finisher with a potential to be a lockdown defender. Among the major recruiting services (Rivals, Scout, ESPN and 247 Sports), he is rated as high as No. 9 (247 Sports) and no lower than No. 11 (ESPN). Both 247

Sports and Scout consider him the No. 1 shooting guard in the 2017 class.

In his final season in high school, in 2015-16, Diallo led Putnam Science Academy to a 38-3 record with an appearance in the state semifinals. The two-time all-state honoree averaged 19.0 points, 6.0 rebounds and 3.0 assists in his senior season before graduating in the fall. He averaged 17.0 points and 4.0 rebounds as a junior.

Diallo's enrollment marks the second straight midyear enrollee for Calipari and Kentucky. Current redshirt freshman forward Tai Wynyard enrolled early last season.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky has been dominant against teams in the state under John Calipari. UK is 14-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm, including 8-2 vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals came in postseason play. UK had its four-game winning streak snapped this season, but has won all four meetings played in Rupp Arena. Louisville's two wins have come by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Coach Cal took over at Kentucky:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 31, 2011 - UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena
- March 31, 2012 - UK won 69-61 at the Superdome (NCAA Final Four in New Orleans)
- Dec. 29, 2012 - Louisville won 80-77 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 28, 2013 - UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
- March 28, 2014 - UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)
- Dec. 27, 2014 - UK won 58-50 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 26, 2015 - UK won 75-73 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 21, 2016 - Louisville won 73-70 at KFC YUM! Center

All-Time Wins Leader Returned to the Top of the Polls

Kentucky was the top team in the land according to the Associated Press Top 25 and the USA Today Coaches Poll for two consecutive weeks (Nov. 21 and 28).

UK and John Calipari have been tough to beat playing the role of the hunted:

- The Wildcats own an all-time record of 221-30 (.880) as the nation's top-ranked squad
- UK has won 66 of its last 71 contests as the AP's top team
- The Wildcats are 69-7 (.908) as the AP No. 1 team since Calipari's first year at the helm, the best record in the country by a top-ranked team during that span
- In eight seasons under Calipari, the Wildcats have reached No. 1 in six of those seasons
- Calipari is 110-12 (.902) all-time as head coach of the AP's No. 1 team
- Calipari has coached 122 career games as a No. 1 team, the fourth most in NCAA history, trailing John Wooden (228), Mike Krzyzewski (233) and Adolph Rupp (131)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .902 trails only Wooden (.952), and is ahead of active coaches Krzyzewski (.870) and Roy Williams (.849)
- Only Krzyzewski (193) has more wins as a No. 1 ranked coach among active NCAA Division I teams than Calipari
- Prior to the home loss vs. UCLA on Dec. 3, Kentucky had lost just twice at home as the AP top-ranked team in the history of the program and just once in Rupp Arena. Both of those losses came by just one point
- UK has been ranked No. 1 a total of 124 weeks since the AP started ranking teams during the 1948-49 season. Only UCLA (134) and Duke (129) have been atop the rankings for more weeks

Wildcats Sign Four in Fall Signing Period for 2017

Continuing a trend that started with the arrival of head coach John Calipari, the Kentucky men's basketball program has once again put together one of the strongest recruiting classes in the country, signing four of the nation's top players during the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Shai Gilgeous-Alexander, Quade Green, Nick Richards and P.J. Washington have all inked national letters of intent with UK.

All four players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 50 by the major national recruiting services. In a class stocked full of highly regarded players, national analysts are already calling UK's class one of the nation's top hauls for 2017.

In every season in the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed either the nation's No. 1 or No. 2 recruiting class. UK looks to continue that streak with the latest additions of Gilgeous-Alexander, Green, Richards and Washington.

- Gilgeous-Alexander will come to Kentucky out of Hamilton Heights Christian Academy in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Originally from Canada, Gilgeous-Alexander was a member of the 2016 Canadian Men's U18 National Team that captured the silver medal at the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship over the summer. He averaged 7.8 points, a tournament-best 5.4 assists and 3.0 steals per game, second best in the field. ESPN, Scout and 247Sports tab him a top-50, four-star prospect.
- Green is considered a five-star point guard prospect by Rivals, ESPN and Scout. ESPN ranks him as high as the No. 22 overall prospect in the class, while Rivals has him at No. 23, Scout tabs him at No. 25 and 247Sports list him at No. 31. Green, who was named the 2016 Pennsylvania Class 3A Player of the Year as a junior, was a part of the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship team that won a gold medal in Chile. He averaged 18.7 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.8 assists in leading Neumann-Goretti High School to the Pennsylvania state championship last season.
- Richards will be the second player in the Calipari era to join Kentucky out of the Patrick School in Elizabeth, New Jersey. National champion and No. 2 overall NBA Draft selection, Michael Kidd-Gilchrist was the other. Richards is ranked in the top 20 by the major recruiting services, including ESPN (No. 12), 247 Sports (No. 15), Scout (No. 17) and Rivals (No. 19). 247Sports tabs him as the second-best center in the class. He's a consensus five-star prospect.
- Washington, measured at 6-8, 229 pounds, is rated as high as No. 14 overall in the rankings by Scout. 247Sports and ESPN have him at No. 16 and Rivals tabs him No. 17. The five-star prospect is considered the top power forward in the class by Scout. Washington was a member

Wins vs. Losses

In most all of sports it's easy to pinpoint areas of improvement in losses versus a team's wins. The 2016-17 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats is no different. Here's a look at some of the key stats in wins compared with those same stats in losses.

Result	FG%	Opp. FG%	3-Pt. FG%	Opp 3-Pt. FG%	FT%	RPG	APG	TOPG	BPG	SPG	PPG
Wins	.488	.412	.362	.296	.701	41.0	16.3	11.7	5.4	6.0	87.8
Losses	.414	.484	.306	.391	.667	35.6	12.2	13.2	4.8	6.2	76.2

of the 2016 USA Men's U18 National Team that won a gold medal at the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship over the summer. He started all five games and averaged 10.0 points and 4.0 rebounds. Washington also represented the U.S. at the 2015 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Championship.

Future Cats Named McDonald's, Jordan Brand All-Americans

The Kentucky men's basketball team's top-ranked recruiting class will be well represented during the 2017 McDonald's All-American Game in March and the 2017 Jordan Brand Classic.

Joining an elite list that features some of the greatest players to ever play for Kentucky, incoming Wildcats Quade Green, Nick Richards and P.J. Washington were selected to participate in the 40th annual McDonald's All-American Game on March 29 in the United Center in Chicago. The trio will also play in the Jordan Brand Classic at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, New York, on April 14.

The Wildcats have more players than any other school in what are considered the two top high school all-star games.

UK can only publicize prospects who have signed a national letter of intent or a financial aid agreement. The next signing period is in April.

With the selections of Green, Richards and Washington, UK has signed 28 players during the John Calipari era who have been named to the McDonald's All-American Game and 32 to the Jordan Brand Classic. Both are more than any other school in the country during that time period.

Monk's Record Scoring Night Headlines Classic Win vs. UNC

For all the classic games the Kentucky-North Carolina series has featured, the 2016-17 matchup in Las Vegas was right up there with the best of them thanks to a record-setting scoring day from Malik Monk.

The UK freshman guard scored 47 points -- including the game-winning 3-pointer with 22 seconds to go -- to lead the Wildcats to a thrilling 103-100 victory in the CBS Sports Classic at T-Mobile Arena. Monk set all sorts of milestones with the offensive display, most notably crushing the previous UK freshman scoring record of 35 points, set by Terrence Jones (Jan. 11, 2011) and later tied by Jamal Murray (Feb. 6, 2016). Monk tied the program's all-time leading scorer, Dan Issel, for the sixth-most points ever by a Wildcat in a single game, and scored the most points by a Wildcat since Jodie Meeks recorded the single-game record of 54 points at Tennessee on Jan. 18, 2009.

On a day when both teams were at their near offensive peak -- both teams shot better than 50 percent from both the field and 3-point range -- Monk was just better than everyone else.

It was Kentucky's fourth victory in the last five games vs. North Carolina and its second win over a ranked team this season.

Noteworthy:

- Monk's 47 points are the most ever by a John Calipari-coached player in college. They are also the most in a single game by a Southeastern Conference freshman since LSU's Chris Jackson scored 55 points vs. Ole Miss on March 4, 1989, as well as the second-most points by a freshman in Division I since at least the 1996-97 season
- The 47 points tied the second most ever scored against North Carolina. It's the most since Rick Yuknus (Georgia Tech) scored 47 on Feb. 14, 1970. The record is 48 by Dick Groat on Feb. 29, 1952
- Tied for the sixth-most points in a game in school history, the 47 points are the second most ever by a Kentucky player against a nonconference opponent. Cliff Hagan scored 51 points vs. Temple on Dec. 5, 1953
- It was the first time UK has allowed 100 points in a game since losing to VMI 111-103 on Nov. 14, 2008. It was the first time Kentucky won a game in which it allowed 100 or more points since defeating Alabama 101-100 on March 1, 1979
- It was just the second time in UNC history and the first time in a regulation-length game that UNC lost a game in which it scored 100 points
- The Wildcats outrebounded the nation's No. 1 rebounding team (in terms of rebounding margin) 39-35. It was the first time in UNC's first 12 games it was outrebounded
- The game was the most watched college basketball game of the season across any network, according to CBS. It drew a 2.4 household rating with a 5 share. In other words, 2.4 of all households with a TV set watched the game, while 5 percent of those watching TV at the time tuned in for the game
- The Wildcats scored 103 points, the most Kentucky has ever scored vs. the Tar Heels in a win
- UK shot 54.1 percent from the field, marking the seventh time in 11 games the Cats had made more than half their shots
- Kentucky topped the 100-point plateau for the fourth time this season. It tied the most 100-point games in the Calipari era as the 2009-10 team also achieved the feat

Fox Posts Triple-Double in Record Rout of Arizona State

On a night of record-setting accomplishments and a collective offensive outburst from the Wildcats in a 115-69 win over Arizona State in the Bahamas, one achievement stood out above the rest: De'Aaron Fox's triple-double.

With 14 points, a career-high 11 rebounds and 10 assists in 31 minutes of play, Fox etched his name into the Kentucky record books with just the second triple-double in school history. Chris Mills notched the first and only other triple-double for UK on Dec. 27, 1988.

Fox collected his 10th assist with 4:44 left to play to get the triple-double on a Malik Monk 3-pointer. Coincidentally, the 3-pointer and record-setting assist put the Wildcats over the 100-point mark for the third consecutive game, the first time that's happened since December of 1977. Those were just a few of numerous eye-popping stats from UK's dominating performance on Paradise Island in the Bahamas.

- The total of 115 points was the most of the Calipari era and the most since Dec. 30, 2002, when UK scored 115 in a win over East Tennessee State
- With the 46-point drubbing, this season's Wildcats joined the 1947-48 Kentucky team as the only squads in school history to win their first seven games by at least 21 points. No team in program history has ever done it eight straight times to begin the year
- Kentucky's 33 assists are the high mark of the Calipari era. The 33 assists were two off the school record and the most since setting the school record with 35 on March 14, 1996, vs. San Jose State
- The Wildcats took more shots (84) than they ever have under Calipari thanks to the blazing pace of play and tied the Calipari-era mark for the most rebounds in a game
- The 59 rebounds tied Calipari-era mark for the most rebounds in a game
- The last time UK won four consecutive games by at least 31 points was February 1954

UK Leads Nation with 24 Players on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

The Kentucky men's basketball team, the nation's most prolific NBA player-producing program, once again led the country with 24 players on an opening-day NBA roster. Duke came in second with 19.

Of the 449 players in the NBA to start the 2016-17 season, approximately 5.35 percent played college basketball at UK. Following a midseason blockbuster trade that sent DeMarcus Cousins to the Pelicans to join forces with Anthony Davis, Kentucky's NBA dominance is best represented in Phoenix, New Orleans and Sacramento, where a combined eight Wildcats now play at the highest level of the game.

Eric Bledsoe, Devin Booker, Brandon Knight and Tyler Ulis are all part of the Phoenix Suns roster. Former UK stars Davis and Cousins call New Orleans their home, and Willie Cauley-Stein and Skal Labissiere play for Sacramento.

Using figures compiled by spotrac.com, Kentucky players' current contracts alone are valued at more than $659 million. Calipari-coached players only (which includes Derrick Rose and Tyreke Evans but not Jodie Meeks or Rajon Rondo) have nearly $751 million in current contracts. In just the 2016-17 season alone, UK players are slated to make more than $172 million. Calipari-coached players only will make more than $183 million. Over the course of their careers, Calipari players have generated approximately $1.2 billion in total NBA contracts.

The UK players aren't just making the NBA either; they're among the league's best players. The Wildcats are among the league leaders in every major statistical category.

Among the standout performances this season:

- Davis began the season with a 50-point, 15-rebound performance followed by a 45-point, 17-rebound day. According to ESPN Stats & Info, he was the first player to score at least 90 points in the first two games of a season since Michael Jordan (91 in 1986-87)
- In late November, Cousins posted four straight games with at least 30 points, marking the longest such streak by a Kings player since Chris Webber in 2001
- Karl-Anthony Towns posted 47 points and 18 rebounds vs. the New York Knicks on Nov. 30. According to ESPN Stats & Info (at the time), the last six 40-point, 15-rebound games in the NBA were by Kentucky bigs. That streak has since been broken
- Davis had a string of five straight 20-point, 15-rebound performances in late December through early January, making him one of just four players to have done that in the last 30 years, according to ESPN
- John Wall was named the NBA Eastern Conference Player of the Month for December after leading the Eastern Conference in assists (10.7 apg) and steals (2.67 spg) in addition to 24.5 points per game for the month of December
- On Jan. 3, Julius Randle recorded his second triple-double of the season and the third of his career. He and the great Magic Johnson are the only players in Lakers history to record triple-doubles prior to the age of 22
- Booker posted back-to-back 39-point performances vs. Dallas and San Antonio. According to basketball-reference.com, he is the youngest player in NBA history with three 39-point games as well as the youngest player in NBA history to log back-to-back 39-point games. In the game vs. the Mavericks, Booker scored 28 of his 39 points in the fourth quarter, the highest scoring output by a player in a single quarter in Suns franchise history
- Bledsoe posted three games of 40 points or more in a six-game stretch in late January and early February
- Cousins became the fourth player in the NBA this season to have scored at least 45 points and grabbed at least 15 rebounds in a single game when he posted 46 points, 15 rebounds and five assists vs. the Philadelphia 76ers on Jan. 30 when he was with the Kings. Two of the other players are Davis and Towns
- In a head-to-head matchup on Feb. 10, Davis posted 42 points and 13 rebounds while Towns had 36 points and eight boards. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last time two players who went to the same college scored 78 or more points in the same NBA game was on April 11, 2014, when Florida's Corey Brewer (51) and Chandler Parsons (27) combined to score 78 points
- Jamal Murray stole the show at the BBVA Rising Stars Challenge at NBA All-Star weekend with a game-high 36 points, 11 assists and nine 3-pointers en route to MVP honors. His 36 points were the fourth most in the history of the game. Murray scored 27 points in the second half
- Davis set an All-Star Game scoring record with 52 points in addition to 10 rebounds to win MVP. The record 52 points easily surpassed Wilt Chamberlain's previous mark of 42 points set in 1962. Davis became the second player from Kentucky to win MVP honors at the NBA All-Star Game, joining Adrian "Odie" Smith (1966)
- With 39 points and 14 rebounds on Feb. 25, Davis posted his 14th 30-point, 10-rebound game of the season. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, that tied Moses Malone (1980-81) for the most in a season since the merger
- Davis scored 24 points in the first quarter on Feb. 26, the most in any quarter in Pelicans history
- Cousins, making himself at home in his first week in New Orleans, became the first player since Moses Malone (1986) to record 31 points and 10 rebounds in 22 minutes or less on Feb. 26
- In just his fifth career game with the Pelicans, Cousins tied Tyson Chandler's franchise single-game record with 23 rebounds
- On March 8, Towns became the second-youngest player in NBA history (Dwight Howard) to record his 100th career double-double

Davis, Murray Capture MVP Honors at NBA All-Star Weekend

With nine players featured at NBA All-Star weekend, including three All-Star selections, the Kentucky men's basketball team's annual presence in the league's showcase of talent was already one of the headlines. The Wildcats did one better though and stole the show.

Anthony Davis broke Wilt Chamberlain's All-Star Game scoring record with 52 points to go along with 10 rebounds to win most valuable player honors in front of his home crowd. Just days earlier, Jamal Murray was named the MVP of the BBVA Rising Stars Challenge after scoring a game-high 36 points, including 27 in the second half.

Playing alongside the game's greatest players, Davis won broke Wilt Chamberlain's previous scoring record of 42 points set in 1962 in leading the Western Conference to a 192-182 victory over the Eastern Conference. He's the second Wildcat to win All-Star MVP honors, joining Adrian "Odie" Smith (1966).

Fueled by an astounding 18 dunks, Davis was 26 for 39 from the field. The makes and attempts are also game records.

The record night for Davis also marked a first under UK head coach John Calipari as Davis became the first former player coached by Calipari to win MVP honors at the NBA All-Star Game.

Murray kicked All-Star weekend off with a game-high 36 points en route to winning MVP honors in the BBVA Rising Stars Challenge on Friday. Murray's 36 points were the fourth-most points scored by any player in the game's history.

Murray was 13 of 19 from the field, including going 9 of 14 from behind the arc in just 20 minutes. He also contributed 11 assists, four rebounds and a steal. Murray did most of his damage after halftime, scoring 27 second-half points, in helping the World Team down USA 150-134.

Murray was one of four Wildcats to take part in the Rising Stars Challenge. He was joined on the World Team by Trey Lyles. Karl-Anthony Towns and Devin Booker highlighted Team USA. Lyles had seven points, two assists and a rebound. Towns, the 2016 NBA Rookie of the Year, posted 24 points, 11 rebounds and a pair of assists. Booker contributed 17 points and six assists.

Davis' MVP award will find a crowded trophy shelf. Among Davis' most notable awards include winning the 2012 Final Four Most Outstanding Player after leading UK to the national championship, Consensus National Player of the Year, the NABC Defensive Player of the Year and the USBWA National Freshman of the Year. And those were just his college awards.

Davis wasn't the only Wildcat in the NBA All-Star Game. John Wall and DeMarcus Cousins were also selected to Sunday's game as reserves, giving UK more NBA All-Star representatives than any other college program.

Wall, who leads all Eastern Conference guards in assists and steals and has led the Wizards to third place in the Eastern Conference at the All-Star break, posted 12 points to go along with six rebounds, four assists and four steals. Cousins, who was limited in action because of an ongoing trade, scored three points.

It was Davis' fourth appearance in the NBA All-Star Game and his second start. Wall was also making his fourth appearance, while Cousins made his third.

All told, UK had nine players participate in NBA All-Star weekend, more than any other school. Wildcats Dakari Johnson and Alex Poythress were selected for the NBA D-League All-Star Game on Saturday, though Poythress was a late scratch because of an injury. Johnson had four points and three boards.

Four of the eight participants -- Booker, Cousins, Davis and Wall -- in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge were Wildcats, though they were unable to defend Towns' 2016 championship.

All-Americans Play at Kentucky

Three different Cats -- all freshmen -- were named to at least one preseason All-America Team. Bam Adebayo was tabbed a preseason second-team All-American by CBSsports.com and a third-team selection by College Basketball Talk, De'Aaron Fox was named a second-team All-American by Sporting News, and Malik Monk was a third-team pick by CBSsports.com.

Of course, those honors are just preseason, but UK has a track record of All-America honors, especially under John Calipari. Ten different Wildcats have earned All-America honors by one of the NCAA-recognized teams under Calipari.

Justus Moves to Assistant Coach Role; Robic Special Assistant

Joel Justus, who joined Kentucky two seasons ago as the director of analytics and then special assistant to the head coach, moved to one of the three assistant coaching positions for the 2016-17 season. John Robic, who has served as an assistant to Calipari at three different schools since the late 1980s, moved into the special assistant to the head coach role prior to start of practices in late September.

"I feel I have the best staff of people who surround me in the country," John Calipari said at the time of the announcement. "All are strong in areas that I'm weak. All of them understand that the relationships with our current players and working with them every single day to help them get better is the key to their success and this program. No one should look at this in any other way than me trying to shuffle our staff to put them in the best positions to succeed personally and for them to help our program remain the gold standard.

"Kenny (Payne), Tony (Barbee) and I will continue to work on putting the best incoming classes that we can together with young people who want Kentucky as bad as we want them and who understand that the program isn't for everyone. By putting Joel where he is and having him focus on who we need to hone in on, we'll be more prepared than we've ever been, which is scary. Robes will continue to focus on his strength of making us the most well-prepared team in the country and putting our kids in positions to succeed."

#BBN Sets Crowd Roar World Record

Kentucky fans have long been known for being among the loudest anywhere. Now they have the world record to prove it.

With a representative from the Guinness Book of World Records in attendance at the UK-Kansas game, the crowd at Rupp Arena set a world record for the loudest indoor crowd roar when it was measured at 126.4 decibels just before tipoff.

UK Athletics and UK HealthCare's Markey Cancer Center joined forces to encourage fans to #TurnUpRupp and break the previous indoor crowd roar record, which was set by the Sacramento Kings in November 2013. The crowd roar was gauged by natural noise such as cheering and clapping only. No digital or artificial noise was allowed.

The record was short-lived as UK's opponent that day, Kansas, went on to break the record on Feb. 13 against West Virginia.

Keith Bogans Named 2017 SEC Legend

Former Kentucky men's basketball All-American Keith Bogans will represent the Wildcats as a member of the 2017 Southeastern Conference Legends at the SEC Tournament in Nashville, Tennessee. Former greats from all 14 SEC member institutions will be honored at the league tournament, March 8-12 in Bridgestone Arena. University President Eli Capilouto accepted the award on Bogans' behalf during UK's quarterfinal matchup vs. Georgia. Bogans was unable to attend to do personal reasons.

Bogans, a four-year letterwinner from 2000-03, ended his career as one of the program's most prolific scorers. He finished fourth all-time among UK's all-time scorers with 1,923 career points. The 6-foot-5 guard averaged 11.6 points or more in all four seasons at Kentucky, including 17.0 in his sophomore season and 15.7 during his senior campaign.

During the 2002-03 season in which Bogans led the Cats to an SEC regular-season and tournament title, he was named an All-American by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Associated Press, the Sporting News and the Basketball Times. He was also the SEC Tournament MVP as a senior.

Bogans was a three-time All-SEC selection, earning first-team honors in 2003, second-team accolades in 2001 and as a member of the All-Freshman Team in 2000. He was also the league's MVP of the tournament in 2003.

Drafted 43rd overall by the Milwaukee Bucks in 2003, Bogans went on to have a successful 11-year NBA career.

Chuck Hayes Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

Chuck Hayes was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the 2016 class in October.

A fan favorite for relentless defense and tenacious rebounding, he was named the 2005 Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year and still ranks seventh in career rebounds with 910 in program history. He led the team to the 2005 SEC regular-season championship and was a key member on the 2003 and 2004 SEC Tournament titles.

Cousins Wins First Olympic Gold Medal with USA Basketball

Snatching up what seemed like every rebound, former Wildcat DeMarcus Cousins also hauled in the first Olympic gold medal of his career with a strong performance in the championship game of the 2016 Olympics.

With a gold medal on the line, Cousins saved his best for last for USA Basketball. Coming off the bench for a third straight game, Cousins set the tempo early by dominating the paint, sparking Team USA to a 40-15 first-half run, and ultimately to a 96-66 rout of Serbia.

Cousins played as well as he has all tournament, posting 13 points and a game-high 15 rebounds for his third double-digit scoring game of the Olympics. He had 11 points and 12 rebounds by halftime.

The 6-foot-11 forward, who was drafted fifth overall in 2010 after a sensational freshman season at Kentucky, averaged 9.1 points and 5.8 rebounds in eight games at the Olympics. He shot 61.4 percent from the floor, only shooting less than 50 percent in one game during the run.

Cousins is the 10th Wildcat all-time to compete in the Olympics and win a gold medal (not counting Sam Bowie, who was awarded a medal by President Jimmy Carter after the United States boycotted the 1980 Moscow Games), tied with North Carolina and UCLA for the most among all colleges. Cousins is also the third former UK player in a row to win a gold medal. Anthony Davis captured the gold at the last Olympics, in 2012, and Tayschaun Prince was a part of the 2008 gold-medal team. Cousins is the second John Calipari player to win a gold medal, joining Davis.

NEED-TO-KNOW NOTES

Cats Rock at Rupp

UK has won 217 of its last 246 home games, including a 54-game winning streak in the venerable arena to begin the John Calipari era and a recent 42-game winning streak. All-time, the Wildcats are 561-66 (.895) in Rupp Arena.

Among the most notable marks of dominance in the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- The Wildcats are 302-40 (.883) in regular-season SEC games in the building
- Kentucky set a new program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- The Wildcats have gone undefeated at home in five of John Calipari's seven seasons, including 2014-15 and 2015-16
- Overall, UK has posted a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 40 seasons

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 18 of the last 21 seasons entering this year, including a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

- Kentucky averaged 23,462 fans during the 2016-17 season
- UK has averaged 23,000 or more fans in seven of Calipari's eight seasons

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just three times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just twice in Rupp Arena. Prior to the loss to UCLA by three on Dec. 3, the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 53-2 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat the Wildcats at Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 134-6 (.957) at Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- UK is 18-3 (.857) vs. ranked opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- The Wildcats are 116-3 (.975) vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- UK is 68-3 (.958) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari
- Calipari notched his 100th career win at Rupp Arena as UK's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari just 104 games to reach the century mark at home, the fastest of any UK coach

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for the wins in Rupp Arena history.

Calipari currently has 134 victories inside the historic venue. Hall won 122.

Calipari Named Head Coach of USA Men's U19 World Cup Team

John Calipari was officially named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Cup Team on March 8 and will lead Team USA at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Championship in July in Cairo.

Calipari will oversee the direction of the team, starting with training camp, June 18-25, at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado. There, Calipari and his staff will select the 12-member USA U19 World Cup Team before heading to Egypt for the FIBA World Championship in Egypt, July 1-9.

Team USA will look for its third straight title at the FIBA World Championship after capturing gold at the 2013 and 2015 tournaments.

Colorado head coach Tad Boyle and Wake Forest head coach Danny Manning will serve as assistants. Calipari was an assistant at Kansas (1983-85) during parts of the careers of Boyle and Manning.

Calipari previously served with USA Basketball as the head coach of the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival East Team, but he has recent international experience as the head coach of the Dominican Republic National Team in 2011 and 2012. His impact on the country was immediate and unprecedented.

In his first year with the team, Coach Cal led the Dominican Republic to a bronze-medal finish at the 2011 FIBA Americas Championship in Mar del Plata, Argentina, defeating archrival Puerto Rico and world power Brazil along the way. The Dominicans came within one win in the semifinal round of qualifying for the country's first-ever appearance in the Olympics. The third-place finish secured a spot at the 2012 FIBA World Olympic Qualifying Tournament as one of 12 teams vying for three open spots to the 2012 Olympic Games in London. There, again, the Dominicans came within one win of making history and qualifying for the Olympics.

Calipari also led the Dominican Republic to a gold medal at the 2012 Centrobasket. It was the first Centrobasket title in eight years for the Dominican Republic and just the third in the country's history.

As for Calipari's new team, the United States drew Group D for preliminary-round games at the FIBA World Championship and will open against Iran on July 1. Team USA will then play Angola on July 2 and will cap preliminary round action versus Italy on July 4 (game times are to be determined).

The United States earned its berth into the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup by virtue of claiming gold at the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship.

Five x Five x Five

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari added another first to his Hall of Fame career in 2017.

When Kentucky clinched at least a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship by beating Vanderbilt on Feb. 28, he made history as a head coach. Calipari is the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times.

He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, 93, 94, 95 and 96. Kentucky claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, 06, 07, 08 and 09. Kentucky has captured the SEC five times in 2010, 12, 15, 16 and 17.

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and Jojo White.

Calipari Wins 200th Career Game at UK in Record Time

With a thrilling 75-73 victory over rival Louisville on Dec. 26, 2015, John Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky faster than any coach in UK history -- and nearly faster than anyone has ever done it at any other school.

Calipari reached the 200-win plateau in his 240th career game at Kentucky. Rick Pitino, previously the fastest to 200 wins at UK prior to Calipari, didn't capture his 200th Wildcat win until his 249th game. The legendary Adolph Rupp reached 200 during his 250th game.

Not only did Calipari reach the 200-win mark in record pace at Kentucky, he also nearly set the all-time Division I mark. With the win over U of L, he became the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Clair Bee, who achieved the feat in 231 games.

Calipari is one of just 11 head coaches in Division I men's basketball history with at least 200 victories at two different schools and just the fifth coach at Kentucky to reach the 200-win plateau.

He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

Here's a look at some of the more impressive numbers in Calipari's journey to 200 wins:

- UK beat Florida more than anyone else during the first 200 wins, defeating the Gators 11 times
- Likewise, Kentucky beat Louisville (eight times) more than any other nonconference opponent
- Calipari defeated 89 different Division I schools (25.4 percent) of current Division I schools) during the run
- A total of 176 wins came with UK ranked in the AP Top 25, and 66 of them were while UK was No. 1

UMass Raises Banner in Calipari's Honor

As part of a 20th anniversary celebration of the UMass men's basketball 1995-96 Final Four team, the UMass Department of Athletics honored John Calipari on Dec. 16, 2015, prior to its game against New Orleans by raising a banner into the rafters at the Mullins Center.

Calipari's banner joined the retired jerseys of five all-time Minutemen: George "Trigger" Burkey, Marcus Camby, Julius "Dr. J" Erving, Lou Roe and Al Skinner.

- Calipari began his head coaching career at UMass where he turned the Minutemen into a national powerhouse from 1988-96
- In addition to the 1995-96's team's 35-2 record and the Final Four appearance, Calipari led the Minutemen to the 1991-92 NCAA Sweet 16, the 1992-93 and 1993-94 NCAA second round, and the 1994-95 NCAA Elite Eight. UMass won five straight Atlantic 10 titles during that span as well

AHEAD OF THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

- Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to five NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure.
- John Calipari is ahead of the pace with the legend as far as victories to begin his career at UK. Also, Calipari (.825) is ahead of Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

Coach	Games	Record	Next Game (298th Game)
John Calipari	297	245-52	March 12 vs. Arkansas
Adolph Rupp	297	238-59	def. Ohio State 53-48 (Dec. 23, 1944)
Tubby Smith	297	233-64	def. Mississippi State 81-66 (Feb. 1, 2006)
Joe B. Hall	297	225-72	def. Auburn 89-66 (March 4, 1982)
Rick Pitino	270	220-50	End of UK coaching career at 270th game

Nearly Unanimous

John Calipari collected nearly every major national coach of the year award after guiding the historic 2014-15 Wildcats to a perfect regular season and eventually a fourth Final Four appearance in five seasons. Among the awards Calipari won in 2014-15:

- Associated Press National Coach of the Year
- Naismith National Coach of the Year
- NABC National Coach of the Year
- The Sporting News National Coach of the Year
- Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year
- SEC Coach of the Year
- 2015 USBWA District IV Coach of the Year

600 On-Court Victories

With a win over No. 5 Kansas on Nov. 18, 2014, John Calipari claimed his 600th on-court victory as a Division I head coach. He became the 13th active Division I coach to achieve the feat.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. With UK's No. 1 ranking in 2016-17, Calipari has guided six of his last eight and seven of his last 10 teams to the No. 1 ranking (and the ninth time he's done it overall). When Coach Cal's teams have been at the top, they're been difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-12 (.902) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-7 (.908) when his team is at the top of the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass when the Minutemen were No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis when he had the Tigers at the pinnacle of the rankings
- Calipari (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (193) in active coaches with victories as the No. 1 head coach
- Calipari has coached 122 career games as a No. 1 team, the fourth most in NCAA history, trailing John Wooden (228), Krzyzewski (233) and Adolph Rupp (131)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .902 trails only Wooden (.952), and is ahead of active coaches Krzyzewski (.870) and Roy Williams (.849)

There's No Place Like Home

Since the 2000 season, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 287-24 (.923) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 134-6 (.957) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's eight seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opening in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games.

Coach	Streak (Yrs)
1. John Calipari	54 (2010-13)
2. John Calipari	42 (2014-17)
3. Rick Pitino	33 (1992-94)
4. Joe B. Hall	30 (1981-82)
5. Rick Pitino	27 (1995-97)

Life on the Road Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're nearly as good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded an 87-37 (.702) record on the road.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 15 league championships (including the 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017 SEC championships) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Ben Howland has seven conference titles). With a 2016 SEC Tournament championship, Calipari now owns 13 conference tournament titles, eight more than his closest competitor (Howland).

He's tallied a 319-93 (.774) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 111-25 (.816) record since joining the SEC.

30 is the new 20

With a road win at Alabama on Feb. 11, John Calipari notched his 23rd consecutive season of 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (21), Bill Self (19) and Jim Boeheim (17).

More impressive, Calipari has nine seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Mike Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (10) have more.

Calipari became the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 straight in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (14 of 14) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poynthress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's APR, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, UK has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last three single-year reports. Kentucky's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in June, was a 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the second year in a row for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

Under Calipari, the team (scholarship competing players) has also posted a 3.0 grade-point average or better in seven of the last 12 semesters.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, Coach Cal has helped 39 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 28 over his first seven seasons at Kentucky, which is more than double any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than two No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era
- Churned out 28 NBA Draft picks, 21 first-rounders, three No. 1 overall selections, six top-five picks and 14 lottery picks at Kentucky
- Of the 41 players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari, 28 have been selected in the NBA Draft (68.3 percent)
- Of the 18 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, all 18 have been first-round picks. He is 22 for 22 in that regard when including his players from Memphis
- Dating back to the 2008 draft, 33 players under Coach Cal have been taken in the NBA Draft, including 23 first-rounders
- Only coach to produce the top two picks in the same draft (2012 - Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist)
- Produced a top-10 pick in nine straight drafts since 2008. No other school has had a first-rounder in each of the last nine drafts

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 24 top-25 players Kentucky has signed and have completed their college eligibility, 21 were drafted and 18 were selected in the first round. Those draft numbers don't include Isaiah Briscoe or any of the 2016 or 2017 classes, all of whom are still in school or will attend school.

But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Over the course of his career, Calipari's more than 40 NBA pros have made approximately $1.2 billion in NBA contracts alone, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts. Of the players currently playing in the NBA, they've earned approximately $1 billion in guaranteed contracts.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

Kentucky's 38-game winning streak in 2014-15 was historic, but it wasn't completely out of the norm for John Calipari. It was the 18th streak of Calipari's career where his teams have won 10 or more consecutive games during the season, the sixth where they have won 20 or more, the fifth where they have won 25 or more, the first where they have won 30 or more, and the first with 35 or more. Kentucky has a 10-game winning streak as of March 11, 2017. It's longest since the 38-game winning streak in 2014-15. Here's a list of all of them:

1. 38 Kentucky, 2014-15
2. 27 Memphis, 2008-09
3. 26 Memphis, 2007-08
26 UMass, 1995-96
5. 25 Memphis, 2006-07
6. 24 Kentucky, 2011-12
7. 19 Kentucky, 2009-10

Calipari Knows Defense

John Calipari's 2014-15 Kentucky Wildcat team was heralded as one of the best defensive teams ever. However, defense has always been a staple of Calipari-coached teams. Dating back to complete NCAA records beginning in 2001-02, Calipari's teams have been among national leaders in several critical defensive categories.

RECRUITING TRAIL

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players over the past eight seasons than any other school under John Calipari's leadership. A quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past nine classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats.

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 39 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his 24-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up more than 600 victories, 17 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball's first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport's greatest program at Kentucky, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari's on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 39 players realize their dreams and guide them to NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari's help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are twice as many as any other coach, and he's had 28 players drafted during his seven years at Kentucky, including 21 first-round picks.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. He's coached an MVP, three All-NBA players, three Rookie of the Year winners, and 10 players from Calipari's first six teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 14 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including three players who earned their degree in just three years. In seven of the last 12 semesters, Calipari's teams have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

His foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country. In 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, and he organized another one in 2012 for victims of Superstorm Sandy. A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend, and then $1.5 million in 2015.

With Rupp Arena under construction in 2016, Calipari held a celebrity softball game during the annual UK alumni weekend. That game, with the fantasy experience, raised approximately $1.5 million for charity with matching funds, including more than $450,000 that went to Louisiana flood relief efforts.

Calipari was recently named head coach of the of hte 2017 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Cup Team and will lead Team USA at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Championship in July in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that "it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

BIO BLAST

- Sporting News All-America (Second Team), Sporting News Freshman All-America Team, USBWA District IV Player of the Year and USBWA All-District IV Team
- SEC Player of the Year (AP), SEC Newcomer of the Year (AP), SEC Freshman of the Year (Coaches), All-SEC First Team (AP/Coaches) and All-SEC Freshman Team (Coaches)
- Jerry West Award finalist for the nation's top shooting guard, as awarded by the Naismith Hall of Fame
- Leads the SEC in scoring with a 20.5 average. No Calipari-coached player has ever averaged more than 21.2 points for an entire year (Dajuan Wagner at Memphis in 2001-02)
- Has made 94 3-pointers in 33 games, within shouting distance of where Jamal Murray (104) was at the same point last year when he broke the UK freshman record
- Scored in double figures in 31 of 33 games this year and reached 20 or more in 18 of them
- Has scored 20 or more in 12 of the last 22 and 30-plus in four of those
  - First freshman in UK history to score 30 or more points in four games
- At home vs. Florida he scored 33 points, including 30 of UK's 48 in the second half
  - His 30 second-half points were the most by a UK player in one half under Calipari
- Set the UK freshman single-game scoring record with 47 points vs. UNC on 18-of-22 shooting, including eight 3-pointers and the all-important go-ahead trey with seconds remaining. It's the most points any Calipari-coached player in college has ever scored
- Two games later scored 34, with five 3s, in the SEC opener at Ole Miss. It was the school record for most points by a freshman in a road game

MYCHAL MULDER

11

Senior • Guard • 6-4 • Windsor, Ontario
Vincennes University • Communication

BIO BLAST

- Has played double-digit minutes in eight of his last 14 appearances, scoring 12 points -- one shy of his career high -- vs. Auburn, and adding nine at Georgia
- Along with fellow seniors Dominique Hawkins and Derek Willis has made key plays early in double-digit comebacks vs. Vanderbilt and at Texas A&M
- Returned to the lineup at Florida after missing the previous four games due to illness-- Knocked down multiple 3-pointers in four consecutive appearances prior to Valpo and had hit at least one 3-pointer in five straight outings played prior to Hofstra
- Scored in double figures in three straight games for the first time in his career (Nov. 20-25)
- Has scored 145 points in 27 games this season after scoring 12 in 24 appearances last year
- Following his performance at Georgia, Coach Cal said of Mulder: "Mychal's playing as well as he's ever played in a Kentucky uniform right now"
- Junior College All-American who averaged 15.7 points and 6.4 rebounds while connecting on 46.3 percent of his field goals from 3-point range at Vincennes
- Well-rounded athlete who also competed in football and track and field in high school
- One of four players on the 2016-17 roster who were born outside of the United States
- Has a 44-inch vertical, the second-best mark on the team (behind Dominique Hawkins)

BIO BLAST

- Had a career-high 23 points, tying his personal bests for 3-pointers made (three) and free throws made (six) to go along with eight rebounds vs. LSU
- Averaging 5.3 rebounds for the season, third on the team
- Has grabbed at least four rebounds in 24 of his last 31 games
- Pulled down a career-high 16 rebounds against Auburn, the most by a Wildcat since Julius Randle had 16 vs. LSU on March 14, 2014
- Followed that up with 13 points on a perfect 5 of 5 from the floor, including a career-high three 3s and eight rebounds, at Mississippi State
- After not making multiple 3s in any game through the first 16, knocked down multiple 3s in three straight games (two vs Auburn, three at MSU and vs. South Carolina)
- Blocked a career-high three shots at Mississippi State, at Alabama and vs. Valparaiso
- Had a strong performance vs. Michigan State bringing energy off the bench with three steals, two assists, a block, a dunk in addition to going two of two from the line
- After scoring nine points vs. Clarion, Clarion's head coach said of Gabriel: " I love that kid. That kid, he might be the best one of them all"
