For the first time in their 25 years as members of the MIAA, Emporia State opened conference play with two road wins last year. Their four road wins in conference are tied for the third most road wins in 25 years of MIAA membership. The win at Neb.-Kearney was the first win in an MIAA opener since an 86-81 win at Northwest Missouri to begin the 2009-10 conference season. It was just the ninth time in 25 seasons that the Hornets have begun conference play at least 2-0 and the previous eight all had at least one home game in the first two played. It was the first time Emporia State opened conference play 2-0 since going 3-0 against Northwest Missouri, Missouri Western and Neb.-Omaha in White Auditorium to open the 2010-11 MIAA schedule. The best start to MIAA play for the Hornets came in 2006-07 as they won their first seven conference games on the way to a 16-0 start to the season. The Hornets lost their first three MIAA home games for the first time since going 0-9 in conference play at White Auditorium in 2000-01.
