FUTURE BASKETBALL FACILITY

ON OCTOBER 18, 2011, THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED ITS LONG TERM PLAN FOR FACILITIES IMPROVEMENTS. PART OF THAT PLAN WAS A BASKETBALL PRACTICE FACILITY WHICH IS TENTATIVELY SET TO RESIDE JUST SOUTH OF BUD WALTON ARENA. INCLUDED IN THE BUILDING ARE COURTS FOR BOTH THE MEN'S AND WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAMS, LOCKER ROOMS, NEW OFFICES FOR THE BASKETBALL STAFF, UPDATED STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING AND TRAINING FACILITIES AMONG OTHER THINGS. THE BUILDING IS ESTIMATED TO BE ANYWHERE FROM 70,000-85,000 SQUARE FEET AND COST APPROXIMATELY $20-25 MILLION. ON SEPTEMBER 9, 2012, THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS BOARD OF TRUSTEES APPROVED CONSTRUCTION OF THE PROJECT AS WELL AS THE ARCHITECTS AND GENERAL CONTRACTORS.

FAYETTEVILLE — Big Ten. Big stage. Big crowd. Big scare. Big victory. It was all there for Arkansas' basketball team Saturday afternoon as the Razorbacks held on to beat No. 20 Michigan 66-64 before an announced crowd of 19,050 at Walton Arena and a CBS national television audience. "To me, it was fitting that we win, but it went down to the last second," Razorbacks Coach Mike Anderson said. "We were very fortunate."

Michigan, which came into the game leading the Big Ten Conference race, never led Saturday, but the Wolverines had a chance to win on freshman point guard Trey Burke's three-point shot over Julysse Nobles. "I started to go down, then bounced back up. It was a wild celebration by the fans. Arkansas honored its 1994...

THE COACHES

The Razorback Nation welcomed home one of its own on March 23, 2011, when Mike Anderson was named the 12th head men's basketball coach in Arkansas history. A longtime assistant and associate head coach at Arkansas, Anderson spent nine years as a head coach at the University of Alabama-Birmingham and Missouri before returning to the Razorbacks. He is now charged with bringing back the winning tradition that was synonymous with the Razorback program throughout the '80s and '90s.

"It is a tremendous honor to be named the head men's basketball coach at the University of Arkansas," Anderson said upon being hired. "I am extremely excited to once again be a part of this special University and Razorback Athletics. With the continued passionate support of all Razorback fans, I am confident that we will have the opportunity to succeed on and off the court and continue to build on the University of Arkansas' championship tradition."

Anderson didn't waste any time delivering on his message as his first Razorback team won a school record 17 home games, posted the 10th longest home winning streak in school history, excelled in the classroom and knocked off three ranked teams. The success on and off the court translated into fan support, as Arkansas returned to the top 25 in national attendance. The Razorback fans also packed the house on a pair of occasions, recording a pair of sell outs at Bud Walton Arena, the first since the 2008-09 season.

Anderson's ability to change the direction of programs is nothing new. He inherited a program at Missouri that had been sub-.500 for two consecutive years and had the Tigers dancing to the Sweet 16 three years later. He guided Missouri to an overall record of 111-56 (.665) in five years with 13 wins over ranked opponents, four NCAA Tournament victories and a 75-13 mark at home.

Adapting his style of play from his mentor and Hall of Fame coach, Nolan Richardson, Anderson's teams are known for playing "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball." His up-tempo style and tough defense allowed Missouri to make the biggest turnaround in college basketball during the 2008-09 season when the Tigers went from 16-16 in Anderson's second season to 31-7 a year later. The turnaround of the Missouri program was not lost on the national analysts as he was named the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) National Coach of the Year and the Clair Bee Coach of the Year in 2009 after he led the Tigers to the Big 12 Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament Elite 8.

Anderson's teams are regulars among the nation's elite in several statistical categories and his up-tempo game plan keeps opponents and fans alike on their toes. The 2010-11 Missouri Tigers ranked No. 2 in the nation in steals per game (9.7) and turnover margin (5.4), 10th in the country in scoring offense (80.8) and among the top 30 in four other categories (scoring margin, assists per game, assist-turnover ratio, blocked shots per game).

While his first season at Arkansas didn't produce the lofty numbers that he ended with at Missouri, the Razorbacks did finish the year 19th in the nation in turnover margin (3.3) and 27th in steals per game (8.3). Under Anderson's watchful eye, the Razorbacks' turnover margin in 2011-12 increased 200 percent from the previous season going from 101st in the nation to 19th.

Anderson led Missouri to the NCAA Tournament in each of his final three years with the program. His 2008-09 squad marched all the way to the Elite 8, defeating nationally ranked Marquette and Memphis, before falling to Connecticut. He returned the Tigers to the post season in 2009-10, leading Mizzou to the second round of the tournament and completed the trifecta with a second round exit in 2010-11.

Missouri's success was due in large part to Anderson and his coaching staff who searched for the best talent available to fill the needs of "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball." That search led to back-to-back Big 12 Newcomers of the Year, Missouri's first Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Sixth Man of the Year and multiple All-Big 12 honors. Missouri's 2010 recruiting class was the best in the Big 12 and ranked in the top 10 in the nation by every recruiting service.

Anderson's first head coaching stop was at UAB where in four years he amassed an 89-41 (.685) record with the Blazers. His teams made four consecutive post-season appearances including three NCAA Tournament runs and his 2003-04 squad went all the way to the Sweet 16 as it defeated No. 2 Kentucky in the second round.

He was named the Ray Meyer Conference USA Coach of the Year in 2004 after leading the Blazers to an overall record of 22-10 and a share of the league's regular season championship. UAB's first round NCAA Tournament victory over Washington was the Blazer's first since the 1986 season and the Sweet 16 run was a first since the 1981 UAB season.

While many believed that UAB would be rebuilding following its run to the Sweet 16, Anderson and his coaches went back to work developing talent and recruiting and produced a 22-11 record the following year. The Blazers advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and defeated Southeastern Conference Western Division Champion, LSU, in the first round of the Big Dance.

Anderson's success at both UAB and Missouri made him the ideal candidate to fill Arkansas' coaching vacancy when it opened. A 10-day search ended when Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long made his hiring official on the evening of March 23.

"We are extremely excited to welcome home Mike Anderson to the University of Arkansas as our new head men's basketball coach," Long said. "Mike is one of the outstanding head coaches in college basketball. His teams play an exciting brand of basketball that has already proven successful at both UAB and Missouri.

"Under Mike's leadership, I am confident the Razorbacks will be successful in the future on and off the court. The decision to hire Mike Anderson as head coach is based on my firm belief that he is the right person to lead the Razorback program today and in the years to come."

A part of the history and tradition that is Arkansas basketball, Anderson was a volunteer assistant, assistant, recruiting coordinator and assistant head coach over 17 seasons with the Arkansas basketball program with Richardson. During that run, the Razorbacks made 15 post season appearances, five Sweet 16s, four Elite 8s, three Final Fours, finished as national runner-up in 1995 and won the NCAA Tournament in 1994.

Anderson was a part of perhaps the greatest run of basketball in Arkansas history as it matched many of the biggest names in the sport in total wins, NCAA Tournament appearances and Final Fours. The Razorbacks won five outright conference championships in his 17 years on the bench, an SEC Western Division title and Arkansas' only SEC Tournament Championship in 2000.

Anderson's coaching career began as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater, Tulsa, where he worked with Richardson for three years before moving to Arkansas. His teams were 69-22 (.758) in those three seasons and earned two NCAA Tournament berths.

He played two seasons for Tulsa after transferring to the Golden Hurricane program from Jefferson (Ala.) Junior College. A two-year starter, Anderson averaged 12 points per game. His hard-nosed play helped Tulsa win the NIT Championship in 1981 and make the NCAA Tournament in 1982. He earned his degree in Education in the spring of '82 from Tulsa.

Born in Birmingham, Ala., Anderson was an all-state and all-city guard at Jackson Olin High School. He averaged 19 points as a senior and took his team to the state semifinals as a junior.

Anderson and his wife Marcheita have three children; Darcheita (husband Keith), Michael Jr., and Yvonne and four grandchildren, Aiyanna, Mikayla, Laila and Anderson Keith. Michael Jr., played for his father at Missouri and Yvonne was the Missouri High School Player of the Year in 2008.

"I'm very excited with the announcement and hiring of coach Anderson. It's a start to a new era that will be exciting and up tempo, that will warrant the support of the fans and bring back Arkansas basketball to the prominence where it belongs."

"Under Mike's leadership, I am confident the Razorbacks will be successful in the future on and off the court. The decision to hire Mike Anderson as head coach is based on my firm belief that he is the right person to lead the Razorback program today and in the years to come."

• Jeff Long, Arkansas Athletic Director

"When Arkansas hired Mike Anderson, they made a statement to all of college basketball, that not only is Arkansas going to be in the thick of things in the SEC every year, but they are back to being a major player on the national stage as well. Bud Walton Arena will quickly become one of the most feared arenas in the country for visiting teams. Mike Anderson is the perfect fit at the perfect time for that program."

• Jimmy Dykes, ESPN Analyst, Arkansas graduate

The support for Anderson at Arkansas has come from all across the state and included former Razorbacks who have come to various events just to hear their former coach speak.

"I have watched Coach Anderson's progression as a head coach with much admiration. He has been a mentor to me as my coach and now as a colleague. The University of Arkansas is blessed to have this man, who holds Razorback Basketball close to his heart, as its new head coach. In his pursuit of excellence, Coach Anderson will reshape and redefine the culture of Arkansas Basketball. Wow, this is great day! Welcome home Coach A!"

• Corliss Williamson, former Razorback and NBA player, current Head Coach at Central Arkansas

Coach Anderson was a guest in the television booth of Arkansas' football season opener, even getting an opportunity to call a punt return for a touchdown.

A coaching veteran at the highest levels, Associate Head Coach Melvin Watkins is in his second year with the Razorbacks in 2012-13. A 35-year coaching career for Watkins has seen him as a longtime assistant, associate head and head coach at Charlotte, Texas A&M and Missouri.

Arkansas' recruiting coordinator and Associate Head Coach, Watkins was retained on staff at Missouri when Anderson took the head coaching duties at the school before the 2004-05 season and a fabulous relationship blossomed. Following a pair of sub-

.500 seasons with the Tigers, the Anderson-Watkins combination immediately turned Missouri into a winning program as the team went 18-12 in their first year together. Two years later, Missouri was dancing to the Elite 8 and winning the Big 12 Tournament, reaching heights that the Tigers had not seen in many years.

One of the best recruiters and assistants in the nation, Watkins was named Rivals.com's Top Assistant Coach in both 2009 and 2010 as he helped Missouri advance to a pair of NCAA Tournaments, go a combined 54-18 and win the Big 12 Tournament Championship during those years.

A stickler for recruiting players that are accountable both on the floor and in life, Watkins places heavy demand on his players' academic pursuits. While head coach at Texas A&M, 14 of the 17 players that completed their eligibility went on to earn degrees while the three that failed to do so began their professional basketball careers. His players during that time earned 15 Academic All-Big 12 first- or second-team honors.

Watkins joined the Missouri staff following an eight-year run as a head coach at both Texas A&M and his alma-mater Charlotte. He spent six years roaming the sidelines for the Aggies between 1999 and 2004 and helped rebuild the struggling program. His efforts in recruiting landed him eight top 100 recruits nationally including Texas A&M's No. 4 all-time leading scorer Bernard King, 2005 NBA first round pick Antoine Wright and 2007 first-team All-American and former Chicago Bull Acie Law.

Prior to landing the head coaching job at Texas A&M, Watkins was the head coach at Charlotte for two seasons and led his team to a pair of 20-win seasons and two NCAA Tournaments. After a 19-year stint with the 49ers as an assistant and associate head coach, Watkins was given the head coaching title for the 1997 season and led his squad to a 22-9 mark and second-round appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The fantastic first year for Watkins earned him Conference USA Ray Meyer Coach of the Year honors. Watkins second year at the helm of the program saw him guide the 49ers to a record of 20-11, a Conference USA divisional championship and another second-round NCAA Tournament run.

Charlotte fans knew about Watkins long before he took over the program for the 1996-97 season as he was an all-conference point guard for the school from 1973-77 and led the 49ers to the Final Four in 1977. Watkins then served as an assistant coach at the school for 10 years before getting promoted to associate head coach, a position that he served in for nine years. During his 19-year stint as an assistant and associate, Charlotte had three 20-win seasons, made five post-season tournaments and won three conference and conference tournament championships. Watkins was involved in every 20-win season in Charlotte history before leaving the program for Texas A&M.

Following his standout career on the hardwood as a collegiate, Watkins was drafted by the Buffalo Braves in the fourth round of the 1977 draft. His 49ers number (32) was retired following his senior season along with teammate Cedric Maxwell.

Watkins prep career at Reidsville High School saw him earn High School All-America honors as a senior in 1973. That season he acted as team captain and led his team to a state championship. Watkins was a three-year starter for Reidsville.

Along with his myriad duties as a coach, Watkins somehow finds time to be an invaluable member of the Columbia, Mo.; College Station, Texas; and Charlotte, N.C., communities. He is an active participant in Habitat for Humanity "Home Building Project," was a co-chair of the Battered Women's Shelter and is a member of the "100 Black Men of Charlotte" organization, a nationally known group that mentors young people and raises funds to assist individuals in their efforts to go to college.

Watkins and his wife Burrell are the parents of sons, Manuale and Marcus and daughter, Keia. Marcus played basketball for Missouri while Keia is a graduate of the Missouri Medical School. Watkins is also the grandfather to Nathan, Keia and her husband, David's son born in 2010.

ASSISTANT COACH MATT ZIMMERMAN

An Arkansas native and University of Arkansas graduate, Matt Zimmerman returned to the Razorbacks for the 2011-12 season, this time as a member of the coaching staff. A 17-year basketball coaching veteran at both the high school and collegiate ranks, Zimmerman has been with Arkansas head coach Mike Anderson for each of the past 10 seasons as an assistant with stops at Alabama-Birmingham, Missouri and Arkansas.

Known for his tireless work ethic and recruiting, Zimmerman is a high energy coach whose personality is infectious on the court. Working with both the guards and the posts, he takes great pride in the individual development of his players and has watched some of his protégés at Missouri, Matt Lawrence, Kim English and Marcus Denmon become some of the best players in Tiger history. Denmon completed his Missouri career as the No. 2 three-point shooter in school history while English earned All-Big 12 honors and was joined by Denmon in the back court to create one of the most feared guard tandems in recent memory in the Big 12 conference.

Prior to joining Anderson at Arkansas, Zimmerman was an assistant at Missouri and helped the Tigers compile a 111-57 record in Columbia. While just 34-28 in his first two seasons, the individual improvements of the Tigers were evident in year three as Missouri was credited with the best turnaround in the nation in 2008-09, going 31-7 overall, winning the Tigers' first Big 12 Tournament Championship and advancing to the NCAA Elite 8. That 2008-09 team's trip to the NCAA Tournament was the first of three straight post-season appearances for the Tigers.

Zimmerman's first collegiate coaching position was at Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) when he joined Anderson for his first season with the Blazers in 2002-03. In four seasons, UAB advanced to four post season tournaments including three straight NCAA bids and a dramatic Sweet 16 run in 2004. That year the Blazers knocked off the No. 1 overall seed in the tournament and No. 2 ranked Kentucky after defeating Southeastern Conference Western Division Champion LSU in the first round. Along with its postseason accomplishments, UAB also won a share of the Conference USA championship in 2004 with its impressive 12-4 C-USA record.

Zimmerman's coaching career began in the high school ranks in Arkansas where he spent seven years as a head coach at both Dardanelle and Planview-Rover high schools. He amassed an impressive 74-46 record as the head coach at Dardanelle over four seasons and guided his team in 2000 to the quarterfinals of the state's Class AAA tournament. The Sand Lizards ended the 2000 season with a record of 24-11 and a No. 7 ranking. After a 17-10 record and state tournament appearance in 2001, Zimmerman led his team to a District 4A tournament championship in 2002 with an 18-12 record. He earned District Coach of the Year honors in each of his final three seasons and was named the KARV Dream Team Coach of the Year and River Valley Radio Coach of the Year in 2000.

As the head coach and athletics director at Planview-Rover, Zimmerman led the Panthers to three conference championships and was selected as the South Conference's Outstanding Boys Coach in 1996. His girls' team competed in the 1997 state tournament and finished with a state ranking of No. 10.

A veteran of the "Fastest 40 Minutes of Basketball" style that Anderson employs, Zimmerman learned the basics of the system when he was a manager for his alma mater and then head coach Nolan Richardson. In his three years working with the Razorbacks, Arkansas won two Southwest Conference Championships, two SWC Tournament titles and made three NCAA Tournament appearances. He was a part of Arkansas' 1990 Final Four team which ended the year 30-5 and also assisted with Razorback Basketball Camps throughout his tenure as manager and high school coach.

A 1990 graduate of Arkansas with a degree in physical education, Zimmerman joined the United States Army after he earned his degree. He would spend five years in the military, earning the rank of captain, graduating from Airborne School in 1991 and serving with the 1st Infantry Division (The Big Red One) between 1991-95. His other experiences in the military included Platoon Leader, Shop Officer, Company Executive Office and Battalion S-1.

A former Razorback and one of the best young recruiters in the nation, T.J. Cleveland returned to the University of Arkansas for the 2011-12 season. A 10-year coaching and staff veteran since his playing days at Arkansas, Cleveland's career path back to Fayetteville mirrors that of his mentor, Razorback Head Coach Mike Anderson.

A player for the Razorbacks from 1998-2002, Cleveland joined Anderson's staff at the University of Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) upon graduation as a video coordinator and was named an assistant coach prior to the 2005-06 season. Cleveland joined his former coach at the University of Missouri for the 2006-07 season and in five seasons with the Tigers became known as a tireless worker and recruiter as well as one of the up-and-coming young coaches in the college game.

Following his fourth season with Missouri, Cleveland was asked to participate and was featured at Nike's Top Up & Coming Assistants Villa 7 Consortium. Those accolades were again extended to Cleveland following the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons.

Cleveland's efforts with the Razorback back court were seen almost immediately as the Razorbacks improved their turnover margin by 200 percent and moved from 101st in the nation to 19th in a single season. Arkansas led the Southeastern Conference in both turnover margin and steals in 2011-12, statistical categories that are synonymous with Anderson's "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball."

During his tenure with Missouri, Cleveland worked predominantly with the Tiger guards and his players flourished under his tutelage. In 2006-07, Cleveland's first season at Missouri, he mentored Stefhon Hannah to Big 12 Newcomer of the Year accolades. Another Cleveland trainee, J.T. Tiller, took co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2008-09 and in between and since there have been several Missouri players that either led or been at the top of the Big 12 and national rankings.

Along with the individuals that Cleveland has helped coach, executing Anderson's style of play from the guard position has been instrumental in the team success that Cleveland has enjoyed both as a player and coach. Missouri ranked second in the nation in turnover margin each of the last three seasons and led the nation in steals in 2010 (10.9 per game) and assists in 2009 (18.4 per contest). Cleveland's last team at Missouri ranked No. 2 in the nation in both steals per game (9.7) and turnover margin (5.4). The Tigers also ranked among the nation's top 30 in five other statistical categories including scoring offense (10), assists per game (15), assist-turnover ratio (24), blocked shots per game (26) and scoring margin (27).

Cleveland's coaching career started at UAB where he worked his way up from video coordinator to assistant coach. In his one year as a coach with the Blazers, UAB advanced to the first round of the NCAA Tournament and ranked third in the nation in steals per game at 10.9 per contest. UAB also led Conference USA in assists, assist-turnover ratio, turnover margin and field goal percentage while ranking second in scoring, scoring margin and steals. Former Blazer Carldell Johnson ranked ninth in the nation in steals per game that year with 6.3 per outing, while also ranking 20th in steals per game at 2.6.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Cleveland was instrumental in Arkansas' 2000 run to the SEC Tournament title, the only SEC Tournament championship in school history. During Arkansas' four-day run to the tournament title, Cleveland scored 23 points, grabbed 10 rebounds, dished 10 assists and made 11 steals, all off the bench. His best game in the tournament came in the semifinals against LSU where he shot 50 percent from three, grabbed two rebounds and made seven steals.

During Cleveland's four-year career at Arkansas, the Razorbacks compiled a 76-50 overall record and made three trips to the NCAA Tournament. A two-year captain, Cleveland led the team in steals three times in his four seasons in Fayetteville and continues to rank tied for fifth on Arkansas' all-time steals list. Cleveland led the Razorbacks in assists two times and three-point percentage in 1999-00. His 112 assists in Southeastern Conference games ranks seventh on the Arkansas career charts.

As a prep player for Minor High School in Birmingham, Ala., Cleveland was an all-state and all-metro player as well as the MVP of the state tournament as a senior when he led his team to the state championship.

A 2000 graduate from Arkansas with a degree in communications, he is married to Ami (Watson) and the couple have twins Caynen Thomas and Cayden James who were born prior to tipoff of Arkansas' 2011-12 season opener.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS JEFF DANIELS

Beginning his second season with the Razorbacks in 2012-13, Jeff Daniels assumed the role of Director of Operations for the Arkansas men's basketball program prior to the 2011-12 season. Joining Arkansas from Missouri where he spent five years on head coach Mike Anderson's staff, Daniels is a veteran of the game.

In his duties with the Razorbacks, Daniels is tasked with team travel, facility scheduling, the men's basketball budget and overseeing the administration of Mike Anderson's Razorback camps.

Daniels has been with Anderson for the past seven years, one at Alabama-Birmingham, five at Missouri and one at Arkansas. He joined his longtime friend at the Division I level after a 10-year coaching career at Montevallo and Division II Valdosta State. His coaching career at his alma mater, Montevallo, began in 1995 when he was named the program's fifth head coach. His teams were well known for their defensive prowess and he guided the Falcons to steady improvements throughout his tenure. He was named the Gulf South Conference Coach of the Year in 2002 before accepting a position as associate head coach at Valdosta State in 2003.

In two seasons with Valdosta State, the Blazers went 43-13, won a Gulf South Conference championship and ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation. Daniels' defensive mindset was instilled in the Blazers' arsenal and Valdosta State ranked No. 1 in the nation in field goal percentage defense each of his two years with the program.

Daniels' coaching career began as a graduate assistant coach at Montevallo. He spent two years as a graduate assistant before accepting the full-time assistant position in 1986 on Rob Spivery's staff, helping guide the Falcons to its most successful stint in the program's history. Daniels first met Anderson during his junior college playing days as the two began their post-high school careers at Jefferson State Community College in 1979-80. The teammates reached the National Junior College Athletic Association's national title game, losing to a Nolan Richardson coached Western Texas team.

Following his JUCO days, Daniels began a two-year playing career at Montevallo. Daniels was awarded the Dean's Trophy for scholastic achievement as a junior and was named a captain prior to his senior campaign.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Daniels attended Huffman High School. He and his wife, Robbie, have two children, son Andrew (16) and daughter, Makenzie (12).

No stranger to Arkansas Basketball, Scotty Thurman returned to the Razorbacks as Director of Student-Athlete Development for the 2010-11 season following a very good professional basketball and business career.

The man who hit the most famous shot in Arkansas basketball history, Thurman joined the Razorbacks in the summer of 2010 to assist Arkansas athletes in their growth as individuals off the court.

Tasked with developing programs that make Arkansas' players more well-rounded people, Thurman takes his charge very seriously and has scheduled numerous opportunities for the Razorbacks from financial planning seminars to community service projects.

Along with his duties as a mentor to Arkansas' student-athletes, Thurman has also been tasked with bridging the gap between Arkansas' current and former players. Those results are also noticeable as great Razorbacks like Ronnie Brewer, Lee Mayberry and others have already heard the call of one of their own. Thurman also assists with academics and scheduling.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Thurman was with the program for three years before beginning his professional career. He was an All-American as a junior and still ranks 10th on Arkansas' all-time scoring list with 1,650 points. He continues to hold Arkansas' single-season record for three-point baskets in a season with 102 and ranks third on the career three-point chart with 267. His signature moment, however, came in the finals of the 1994 NCAA Tournament when his three-point basket as time ticked down secured Arkansas a national championship against the Duke Blue Devils.

Thurman received a bachelor's degree from Philander Smith College in 2003 and is working toward his masters in secondary education from the University of Arkansas-Little Rock. He and his wife Regina have two children, Scotty Jr., and Romani. Scotty Jr. is a freshman at Arkansas and a walk-on to the Razorback football team.

Will Bartlett
Coordinator of Operations

Will Bartlett joined the Arkansas basketball program in the summer of 2011 following the hiring of head coach Mike Anderson. No stranger to Anderson's "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball," Bartlett worked with Anderson for five years as a student manager and graduate assistant at Missouri before taking Arkansas' Coordinator of Basketball Operations position prior to the 2011-12 season.

In his current role, Bartlett assists with video exchange, video editing, scouting and recruiting mail outs and assisting Arkansas' Director of Basketball Operations with day-to-day functions.

After earning his undergraduate degree, Bartlett was retained by Anderson and his staff to work as a graduate assistant at Missouri. In that role he coordinated film exchange, organized the video editing, assisted with scouting reports, oversaw the recruiting database and helped to organize summer camps. Prior to his increased roll, Bartlett was the head student manager for the Tigers and helped coordinate visiting team practices, supervised campers at summer camps, set up a training program for new managers, organized practice equipment and assisted coaches with drills and workouts.

A 2009 graduate of Missouri with a degree in psychology, Bartlett went on to earn his masters from the school in parks and recreation in the spring of 2011. He was a multi-semester member of the dean's list as an undergraduate and graduated in the top 15 percent of his class when he earned his masters.

A native of Macomb, Ill., Bartlett is the son of David and Martha Bartlett. He was a four-year letterwinner in soccer, basketball and baseball at Macomb High School.

Mike Anderson Jr.
Video Coordinator

Mike Anderson Jr. begins his second year as a member of the men's basketball staff in 2012-13. The son of Head Coach Mike Anderson, Anderson Jr. grew up with the Arkansas program where his father was an assistant with the Razorbacks most of his childhood.

As the video coordinator for the Razorbacks, Anderson Jr. is in charge of collecting game tapes, breaking down practice and game footage for instructional use and organizing scouting video for the Razorback coaching staff.

Prior to accepting the video coordinator's role at Arkansas, Anderson Jr. was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Missouri for two seasons. He assisted with practice set up and execution while working toward his master's degree.

A student-athlete at both Alabama-Birmingham and Missouri, Anderson Jr. earned four letters between the two schools. As a senior at Missouri, he played in 21 games and averaged 5.6 minutes per contest. He recorded a positive assist-turnover ratio in each of his three seasons with the Tigers and his final year added five steals to his career statistics. Anderson Jr. was a member of Missouri's 2008-09 team that went to the NCAA Regional Finals and ranked as high as No. 9 in the nation.

Anderson Jr. played one season at UAB before following his father to Missouri. That year he saw action in seven games and nabbed four steals in 26 minutes. The Blazers lost in the finals of the Conference-USA Tournament and played in the NCAA Championship first round.

A native of Fayetteville, Anderson Jr. earned his bachelor's degree in general studies with an emphasis in communication and sociology from Missouri in 2008. He is the son of Mike and Marcheita Anderson.

Beginning his second season with the Razorback men's basketball program, David Deets is no stranger to Mike Anderson's style of basketball. He is a six-year veteran of the up-tempo system having worked with Anderson and his staff at the University of Missouri for five seasons before joining them at Arkansas.

One of the most well respected men's basketball strength coaches in the country, Deets has been a featured speaker at national conferences and was one of seven individuals in Nike Basketball's SPARQ program. The Nike SPARQ program developed new testing measures for several sports with Deets contributing to the basketball standards.

Since his arrival at Arkansas, Deets wasted no time in transforming the Razorback strength and conditioning area into one that will best serve Arkansas and Anderson's style. He reorganized the room for more efficient training and renovated the overall look of the space.

His work with players has also produced significant results as the Razorbacks have transformed their bodies. A perfect example of Deets' work can be seen in Hunter Mickelson who added 30 pounds between his high school graduation and first day of official practice at Arkansas.

Prior to joining Anderson and his staff at Arkansas, Deets spent five years at Missouri. He was instrumental in the renovations of Sally O. Nichols weight room and mentored four National Strength and Conditioning All-Americans. Deets off-season regimen with the Tigers was key in Missouri's three NCAA tournament runs and Big 12 Tournament Championship in 2009.

After graduating from Northeastern State University in 2000, Deets went on to a graduate assistantship at Oklahoma State. He would spend one year with the Cowboys before landing his first full-time job at Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La. As head strength and conditioning coach, Deets oversaw all the aspects of strength training for NSU's 14 intercollegiate sports. His career path would then take Deets to Texas Christian and back to Oklahoma State before settling in at Missouri prior to the 2006-07 season.

Deets earned his degree from Northeastern State in Health and Human Performance in 2000. The Newcastle, Okla., native and his wife Angela have two daughters, Emery Rose (5), and Violet Beatrice (2).

SUPPORT STAFF

Terry Mercer
Executive Assistant

A major component of the University of Arkansas basketball program, Terry Mercer is in her 35th year as the executive assistant for Razorback basketball. Her friendly demeanor welcomes visitors to the basketball offices at Bud Walton Arena.

Mercer, whose career has spanned five head coaches, was one of the first people to welcome Mike Anderson back to Fayetteville as the two spent 17 years together in his first stint with the program.

She handles all correspondence for Coach Anderson and helps with the administrative details of the Mike Anderson Razorback Basketball Camp in addition to organizing Anderson's hectic schedule. Other duties include coordinating Coach Anderson's speaking engagements and handling the day-to-day business for Associate Head Coach Melvin Watkins.

Mercer has enjoyed the success of the Razorback program, making four trips to the Final Four and 23 NCAA Tournament excursions.

A native of Princeton, N.C., she graduated from Saratoga High School in 1972, she worked for Southern Piping Company in Wilson, N.C., for six years before her husband, Elton, was transferred to Fayetteville.

She and Elton have a daughter, Heather (33), a son, Jacob (26), and two granddaughters Caitlyn (10), and Kenleigh (7).

Amanda Creamer
Executive Assistant

Amanda Creamer begins her second year with the Razorbacks as an Executive Assistant. Joining the University for a second time, Creamer was a student at Arkansas and later assisted with the recruiting efforts and summer camps for three years before leaving, only to return when Mike Anderson was named head coach.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Creamer was the executive assistant to Mike Anderson at Missouri. With the Tigers she maintained the day-to-day aspects of the office, handled Coach Anderson's schedule and oversaw student workers, among other duties.

Creamer was the office manager for the women's basketball team at Alabama-Birmingham for two years before moving to Columbia. In that capacity she assisted with the statistical crew for home games along with her other day-to-day tasks for the Blazers and their Dragon Club.

A native of Harrison, Ark., Creamer earned her bachelor's degree in journalism from Arkansas in 2000 and is close to earning her masters in the same discipline. In six years with the Razorbacks she worked as a student assistant in the Women's Communications Office as well as an intern in the Men's Sports Information Office. She began her work with men's basketball during the summer of 2001.

In addition to her work in athletic departments, Creamer has also worked with the Columbia (Mo.) Chamber of Commerce in various capacities.

HUNTER MICKELSON

#21

Forward • 6-10 • 245 • Sophomore • 1L
Jonesboro, Ark. (Westside HS)

2012-13 Preview:

Solid defender that has a feel for blocking shots ... also has a nice shot and can hit the mid-range jumper ... CBS New York tabbed him as a breakout player this season ... ESPN tabbed him as the No. 9 shot blocker in the nation ...

33 points, 20 rebounds, and 15 blocks ... won the AAU National Championship with his Arkansas Wings team in 2011 ... rated the No. 54 player in the nation by ESPN, No. 100 by Rivals and No. 54 by Scout.com ... signed with the Razorbacks after also considering Baylor, Kansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Stanford and Wake Forest.

Personal:

Son of Darien and Lynne Mickelson ... born March 5, 1992 ... he is enrolled in the College of Education & Health Professions.

... Lindy's Sports preview has him as an honors candidate ... blocked seven shots in four games in Italy while hitting nearly 60 percent from the field ... according to Coach Anderson "last year he was thrown in to the fire and I thought responded in a positive way. He has a great pair of hands and can knock shots down. He will be a better rebounder this year, can block shots and move his feet. For a guy of his size, he can run the floor and move in traffic. Now we just need to get him more consistent."

2011-12 (Freshman):

Emerged as one of the best shot blockers in the nation while also contributing on the offensive end ... averaged 5.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.3 blocks ... led the team in blocked shots ... set the school record for blocked shots by a freshman (72) ... set the school record for consecutive games with a blocked shot to begin a career (20) ... sixth player in school history to block at least 70 shots in a season ... scored in double figures five times ... scored a career high 13 points against Texas Southern with four rebounds and a career best seven blocked shots ... matched his seven-block performance against LSU while adding four rebounds ... snagged a career best eight rebounds, six offensive, and five assists against Grambling State ... tallied 11 points on 5-of-6 shooting in Arkansas' upset of No. 20 Michigan with four rebounds ... made two appearances on ESPN SportCenter's Top 10 plays with a spin-drop-step against Vanderbilt and block against Georgia ... led Arkansas in rebounding five times including the final two games ... ranked fourth in the SEC and 39th in the nation in blocked shots ... given team defensive award by Razorback coaches.

In High School:

Three-time all-state ... four-year all-conference ... state MVP as a junior ... four-year state all-tournament team ... nominated for McDonald's All-American as a senior ... averaged 22 points, 12 rebounds and seven blocks per game as a senior ... Led Westside High School to a state championship as a junior ... career highs of

Newport News, Va. (The Miller School [Charlottesville, Va.]

2012-13 Preview:

Returning from a knee injury... Athlon Sports preseason magazine named him one of 12 players to watch returning from injury and the No. 9 Inside-Out player in their superlatives as well as a second-team All-SEC player ... Lindy's Sports preview has him as an honors candidate ... averaged more than 12 minutes in three games in Italy and did not turn the ball over ... according to Coach Anderson "I think that he has a great pair of hands and feel for the game. He can score inside and worked really hard on being able to score outside as well. The key is getting the rust off and into the game shape that he was in before he was injured."

2011-12 (Junior):

Got off to a fantastic start to the season before a knee injury ended his season after just two games ... averaged 19.5 points and 6.0 rebounds in his two games on the court in just 21.5 minutes per game while shooting 71.4 percent from the field ... scored 20 points and grabbed seven boards against Oakland ... named an honors candidate by Lindy's Sports College Basketball preview.

2010-11 (Sophomore):

Missed two games early as coaches eased him back from an off-season broken foot ... after a slow start, finished the year second on the team in scoring (10.8), rebounding (4.5) and shooting percentage (46.6) ... scored in double figures 15 times with four double-doubles ... ranked 30th in the SEC in points per game (10.8) and tied for 21st in points per game in league competition (13.0) ... season best 22 points and 10 rebounds in upset of No. 22 Kentucky including five offensive boards in career best 39 minutes ... scored in double digits in 12 of 16 SEC games ... 21 points against South Carolina on 7-11 from the floor and 7-12 from charity stripe ... double-double against Mississippi State with 14 points and career best 13 rebounds ... 19 points on 7-of-13 shooting and 5-of-8 at the free throw line against Ole Miss ... honorable mention preseason All-America (Athlon), preseason first-team All-SEC (Athlon, Blue Ribbon, SEC Coaches), preseason second-team All-SEC (SEC Media), No. 9 inside-out threat (Athlon-Hoops Superlative).

2009-10 (Freshman):

Rivals.com third-team Freshman All-American ... unanimous selection to SEC All-Freshman team by league coaches ... SEC All-Freshman team by Sporting News ... third leading scorer among freshmen in Arkansas history following the season (Scotty Thurman, Joe Johnson) ... second leading rebounder among freshmen in school history (Sidney Moncrief) ... No. 6 freshman in the nation in field goal percentage (.500) ... averaged 14.9 points and 6.7 rebounds ... ranked No. 78 in the nation and No. 6 among freshmen in field goal percentage (50.0) ... led the team in rebounds, blocked shots, points, games played, games started and field goal percentage ... SEC Freshman of the Week on Feb. 1 after the Miss. St. and Ole Miss games ... led the team in scoring 10 and rebounding 13 times ... tallied seven 20-point games ... scored in double figures in 23 of 32 games ... three double-doubles ... career high 29 points against Appalachian St. ... SEC career high 27 points against Vanderbilt ... scored 26 points on 10-16 from the floor and 6-7 from the line against South Carolina and 23 at Auburn for his first back-to-back 20-point games ... in first conference game scored 25 points against Miss. St. with eight rebounds (five offensive), three assists and two steals ... named No. 18 Impact Freshman by Foxsports.com in the preseason ... in the summer attended the Kevin Durant and LeBron James Skills Academies.

In High School:

Averaged 22.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocked shots as a senior ... the Miller School in Charlottesville, Va., went 32-4 his senior year and won the Virginia Independent Schools Division II title over Atlantic Shores where he scored 15 points in a 69-61 victory ... He tallied 14 points in a 48-45 victory over Blue Ridge to claim the Division I title ... ranked the No. 16 power forward and No. 47 overall prospect by Scout.com ... ranked the No. 25 power forward and No. 73 prospect by ESPN ... averaged 22.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocked shots as a junior on a club that went 34-3 ... state player of the year in both 2007 and 2008 ... also played one year of lacrosse at the Miller School ... signed with Arkansas after also considering Pittsburgh, Kansas State, Clemson, Virginia Tech, Virginia, Maryland, Florida State, New Mexico, North Carolina State, LaSalle and Massachusetts.

RICKEY SCOTT

Guard • 6-3 • 205 • Junior • 2L

Irving, Texas (MacArthur HS)

2012-13 Preview:

An athletic guard with strength to get rebounds and start the break ... good perimeter defender ... grabbed more than three rebounds per game in Italy and hit 7-of-8 free throws ... according to Coach Anderson "has improved in terms of playing with that toughness and grit that you have to have. He is a guy that can distribute and his strength is that he can get to the hole. I just really want him to broaden his game and become more assertive defensively. I think that he can be a great defensive player in our system."

2011-12 (Sophomore):

Was able to avoid the injury bug as a sophomore and tripled his output on the court ... averaged 9.1 points, 3.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists ... led the team in defensive rebounding and was No. 2 in assists ... scored in double figures 14 times ... scored a career high 23 points with five assists and six rebounds against Charlotte the game after tallying a then career best 18 points against Louisiana Tech ... dropped in 22 points in Arkansas' road win at Auburn with five assists, shooting 9-of-13 from the floor, 2-of-4 from three and grabbing six rebounds ... tallied 18 points in back-to-back games at Alabama and in Arkansas' upset of No. 25 Vanderbilt ... led Arkansas in scoring six times and rebounding seven times ... UA Athletic Department's AD's List (3.50-3.99) for fall semester ... named to SEC Winter Honor Roll ... given team playmaker and academic award by Razorback coaches.

2010-11 (Freshman):

Missed significant time due to a stress reaction in his foot and shortly after getting rolled on during a game ... played in just 13 games and only four after mid-December ... averaged 3.3 points and 1.1 rebounds with 14 assists and nine steals in 161 total minutes ... made his first career start against Oklahoma and scored five points and took two charges ... scored eight points, took two charges and led the team with four assists against Seton Hall ... played a career high 20 minutes against UAB, scoring five points and recording a career best two steals ... hit his first career three-point basket against Auburn ... UA Athletic Department Honor Roll (3.00-3.49) for fall and spring semesters ... SEC First-Year Honor Roll.

In High School:

Four-year letterwinner at MacArthur High School in Irving, Texas ... led the Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas area in scoring at 22.9 points per game as a senior ... led MacArthur to a 21-11 record his senior year ... named the 7-5A most valuable player as well as first-team all-district 7-5A ... Texas Association of Basketball Coaches all-state selection, second-team all-area ... Dallas Morning News' MVP of the Colony Basketball Tournament ... all-star participant and Academic All-American all-star participant ... led the Cardinals in scoring in each of his final two seasons ... three-time first-team all-district selection and four time honoree by the district ... led MacArthur to two state playoffs ... rated a three-star prospect by Scout.com and a four star by Rivals.com ... Rivals.com has Scott as the No. 75 freshman in the nation and ranks him as the No. 1 best defender among the class of 2010 shooting guards stating "name the perimeter position that needs to be stymied, and Scott, who is a natural defender, will be up for the challenge" ... second-team all-district player in football as a sophomore ... active participant in Big Dogs, a non-profit youth pals organization mentoring children ... signed with the Razorbacks after also considering Baylor, Kansas State, Memphis, Missouri, SMU and Texas Tech.

Personal:

Son of Rickey Sr. and Cynthia Scott ... born Dec. 15, 1991 ... he is majoring in broadcast journalism.

MARDRAGUS WADE

Guard • 6-2 • 176 • Junior • 2L

Memphis, Tenn. (Hargrave [Va.] Military Academy)

2012-13 Preview:

A gym rat who spent countless hours improving his shot ... led the SEC in three-point percentage as a sophomore ... Bleacher Report named him the No. 3 pure shooter in the nation and one of the 12 best shooters ...

Lindy's Sports preview has him as the top shooter in the SEC as well as an honors candidate ... Arkansas' leading scorer in Italy at 15.8 points per game, burying 57 percent from the field ... according to Coach Anderson "looking for him to really improve this year. Last year you saw it from an offensive standpoint, now I want to see it from a defensive standpoint. I think that he can be one of the better defensive guards in our league because he has great lateral quickness. He has that desire, he doesn't want anyone to beat him and that goes a long way."

2011-12 (Sophomore):

Improved his three-point shooting by 27 percent and shooting by eight percent between freshman and sophomore seasons ... led the SEC in three-point percentage at 47.6 percent, making him the third Razorback to lead the SEC in a season ... averaged 10.8 points and 1.8 rebounds ... led the team in minutes, average minutes, three-pointers taken, made and percentage, free throw percentage and steals ... scored in double figures 21 times ... scored a career high 20 points on 7-of-10 shooting and 4-of-6 three pointers against Mississippi Valley State ... was perfect (5-of-5) from three at Georgia on way to 15 points ... scored 12 points and dished five assists in Arkansas' upset of No. 25 Mississippi State ... scored 18 points in Arkansas' win at Auburn, connecting on 7-of-9 free throw attempts ... led Arkansas in scoring five times ... ranked 26th in the SEC in scoring, tied for seventh in the SEC and 179th nationally in steals and fourth in the SEC and 134th nationally in three-point field goals made ... given team free throw award by Razorback coaches.

2010-11 (Freshman):

One of five players and the only freshman to play in all 31 games ... averaged 4.0 points and 1.2 rebounds with 25 steals ... shot 87.2 percent from the free throw line (41-47) ... career high 11 points including 7-of-8 from the free throw line against Seton Hall ... scored nine points against Georgia, going 2-of-4 from the floor and 4-of-4 from the charity stripe ... career high four steals against No. 25 Texas A&M ... career best three defensive and five total rebounds against North Carolina A&T while also matching a career best with two steals and dishing a career best four assists ... named one of the toughest perimeter defenders in Athlon's preseason prospectus.

In High School:

Spent his final season of high school at Hargrave (Va.) Military Academy averaging 20.1 points, 4.0 rebounds, 5.0 assists and 5.0 steals per game ... Named to the all-prep team and led Hargrave to the National Prep Tournament Final Four ... played at Memphis Mitchell High School prior to his senior year averaging more than 23 points per game as a junior ... three-time all-district and all-regional performer for Mitchell ... all-state as a freshman and the freshman of the year for class AA ... four star recruit by Scout.com and the No. 23 shooting guard in the nation ... Rivals.com has him ranked as the No. 4 best defender among shooting guards stating "full of passion for the task and blessed with natural defensive ability, Wade will give SEC guards headaches" ... Rivals also ranks him as a three-star recruit and the No. 27 shooting guard ... signed with the Razorbacks after also considering Alabama, Baylor, Massachusetts, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Missouri, Oregon State and Vanderbilt.

Personal:

Son of Cannon and Pamela Davis ... born June 1, 1991 ... he is majoring in criminal justice.

11-12 REVIEW

SEC Honors

For his efforts on the court last season, freshman BJ Young was honored with All-SEC second-team honors as well as All-Freshman team accolades. Young led SEC freshmen in scoring this season with 15.3 points per game and had six 20-plus point games including a 31-point effort against Florida. Young is the 13th player in school history to be named to the All-Freshman team, third in as many years, and the 21st to be named to either the first- or second-team All-SEC by the league coaches.

Just the Fifth

BJ Young's second-team and freshman team honors by the SEC make him just the fifth player in school history to earn both in a single season. The last to accomplish the task was Patrick Beverley in 2007 and others include Joe Johnson (2000), Scotty Thurman (1993) and Corliss Williamson (1993). Thurman is the only Razorback to earn first-team and all-freshman honors.

The Most Ever

The Razorbacks set the record for most wins by any team at home last year with 17 victories. Two Razorback teams had won 16 games at home including the 1993-94 team that went a perfect 16-0 and the 2000-01 team that finished 16-2.

10th Longest

Arkansas' 17-game home winning streak which ended in February was the 10th longest in school history. The longest home winning streak is 30 games between Feb. 1, 1997 and Dec. 30, 1998. Following that are streaks of 28, 28, 26, 23, 21, 20, 19 and 19 games. The Razorbacks had won 16 in a row three other times with the last time coming between Jan. 30, 2008 and Jan. 6, 2009.

Non-Conference Home Winning Streak

The Razorbacks have won 22 straight non-conference games at Bud Walton Arena. Arkansas' last non-conference home loss came against No. 2 Texas, 96-85, on Jan. 5, 2010. It has been two full seasons since Arkansas has lost a non-conference home game.

Among the Nation's Best

Not only did the Razorbacks lead the Southeastern Conference in turnover margin and steals, but Arkansas was also among the national leaders in several categories. With statistics reported through games of Mar. 20, the Razorbacks' turnover margin (3.3) ranked 20th nationally, its blocked shots per game (5.0) also ranked 20th and its steals per game average (8.3) ranked 27th in the nation.

What a Comeback

It took everything that Arkansas had on Feb. 25, 2012, but the Razorbacks picked up their first road win in grand fashion, overcoming a 17-point deficit with 6:55 left to go in the first half to win, 77-71. Undeterred by the Auburn lead, Arkansas chipped away to close the first and went into the locker room down by just seven. The Razorbacks finally took the lead with 5:52 to play in the game and after a back-and-forth battle, took the lead for good on a BJ Young layup at 2:05. Rickey Scott scored 22 points, 18 in the first half, to lead the Razorbacks while Mardracus Wade added 18.

SEC Freshman of the Week

BJ Young was named the SEC Freshman of the Week on Jan. 9 after averaging 20.5 points and 3.0 rebounds in wins over Savannah State and No. 15/16 Mississippi State. Young scored 17 in the victory over Savannah State, then torched the Bulldogs for 24 points on 10-of-13 shooting. Young is the fourth Razorback to ever earn an SEC Freshman of the Week honor, which began in 2007. He joins Patrick Beverley (three times), Courtney Fortson (one time) and Marshawn Powell (one time) as the only Razorbacks to earn the award.

The Hair

Senior Michael Sanchez was known for his hair and for good reason. The Springdale, Ark., native grew it out for Locks of Love, an organization which provides hairpieces to children under 21 who have lost their hair to illness. ESPN.com's Dana O'Neil wrote a piece about Sanchez and his effort on Wednesday, Dec. 14. SEC Leader

Mardracus Wade became just the third Razorback in school history to lead the Southeastern Conference in three-point accuracy this season. Wade finished the year shooting 47.6 percent from beyond the arc. His percentage is the 14th best for a season from three-point range in Southeastern Conference history.

School Record

Hunter Mickelson's 72 blocks last season gave him the school record for blocked shots by a Razorback freshman. Oliver Miller held the school record for blocks by a first-year player for 20 years with 60 which he had during the 1988-89 season. Razorback notables that Mickelson passed include Steven Hill, Darian Townes, Chris Jeffries, Marshawn Powell, Alonzo Lane, Todd Day, Jason Jennings, Andrew Lang, Derek Hood, Vincent Hunter and Corliss Williamson.

Just the Sixth

Hunter Mickelson eclipsed the 70-block mark in the regular-season finale at Mississippi State and by doing so became just the sixth player in school history to record a 70-block season. Other Razorbacks to have a 70-block campaign include Oliver Miller, Steven Hill, Delvon Johnson, Andrew Lang and Nick Davis. Mickelson's 72-block season ranks as the 11th best in school history.

Longest Streak

Hunter Mickelson's block against Kentucky gave him the longest streak of games with at least one block to start a career in Arkansas history. His streak of 18 passed Steven Hill's 17-game streak which had been the school record. Oliver Miller, the school record holder for blocks as a freshman, did not play in Arkansas' first game his freshman year. Mickelson's streak ended at 20 games after he failed to get a block against Alabama.

Largest Deficit Overcome Since ...

Arkansas overcame a 17-point deficit at Auburn and it was the largest deficit overcome by an Arkansas team since Feb. 21, 2006, when the Razorbacks erased an 18-point deficit at home against Alabama to win 65-63. In that game Darian Townes led the Razorbacks with 15 points while Ronnie Brewer scored 12 points and grabbed a team high six rebounds. Sean McCurdy led the Hogs in assists with five. The largest deficit overcome on the road (going back to the 2003-04 season) was a 15-point deficit at Georgia on Feb. 3, 2010.

Premiere

Following Arkansas' game with South Carolina on Saturday, Feb. 11, the University of Arkansas premiered 40 Minutes of Hell, a piece in the SEC Storied line produced by ESPN. The hour-long documentary chronicles the professional career of former Arkansas Head Coach Nolan Richardson, the 1993-94 NCAA National Championship team and the Razorback basketball program. Roughly half of the 16,100 fans that came for the Razorbacks' record setting game against the Gamecocks stayed for the ceremony and premiere which welcomed back several former players and coaches.

ARKANSAS BASKETBALL

THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID - AMERICA

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena – The Basketball Palace of Mid-America - for 19 years and has drawn more than 5.2 million fans. In that time it has ranked among national attendance leaders every season and the Hogs have won 79 percent of its home games.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, then Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America's most nationally competitive league.

His attention turned immediately to basketball. The Hogs were very successful, coming off a Final Four trip earlier that year, but had just a 9,000-seat home, Barnhill Arena.

One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Walmart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC. Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, fabulous Bud Walton Arena was born.

Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months. The Razorbacks played in Bud Walton for the first time in November of 1993. Everything went perfectly during the first full year. Not only did Arkansas sell out the arena, the Razorbacks were unbeaten in their new home (16-0) and won the 1994 national championship.

The Hogs carry a 254-65 (.796) record into the 2012-13 season.

In 19 seasons, Arkansas has an all-time average attendance of 16,355 in Bud Walton Arena. Arkansas has ranked in the top 30 nationally in attendance every year in BWA, including a No. 23 ranking in 2012 with an average of 13,116 per game.

Entering the 2013 campaign, Arkansas has a combined mark of 558-159 in its last two homes for an outstanding home winning percentage of .778 over the last 55 years.

Bud Walton Arena houses a deluxe museum on the ground level that includes a tribute to Arkansas' 1994 NCAA championship and multiple Final Four appearances as well as the history of Razorback basketball, track and field, baseball, tennis and golf. Eye-catching displays on the concourse level salute recent Razorback highlights.

Enhancements prior to the 2009 season included the addition of courtside seating, electronic signage at the scorer's table, new retractable seats in the lower level, electronic ribbon boards along the bottom of the upper deck, replacing the Razorback on the court with the classic Razorback logo and opening up the student section by converting it from chairback seats to benches.

Eight suites were added prior to the 2008 season, raising the total to 47.

The Razorbacks received an expanded locker room in 2005, which was redesigned in 2012 and includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area.

The 2004 season marked the debut of a new custom scoreboard in the shape of a basketball hoop. The board, 24 feet, three inches wide by 22 feet tall, features four video screens, each 12 feet, six inches wide by eight feet, 10 inches tall. An LED ring at the top is used to display game statistics.

As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are hanging from the arena floor's ceiling, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral.

According to Rosser International in Atlanta, when the arena was built, there were more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It's no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting.

From pre-game to post-game, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Walton Arena is a rich experience leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

UA Basketball Facilities

While the championship-caliber basketball and the sellout crowds are the most noticeable parts of Bud Walton Arena, what it offers to the basketball program on a daily basis is so much more.

From the newly renovated spacious locker room and team lounge area to the artistically designed shower, Bud Walton provides top-notch accommodations for Arkansas players and coaches. Arkansas' locker room was expanded for the 2005 season and completely gutted and redesigned in 2012. It now includes a lounge with flat screen televisions and gaming stations. It also features a meeting area large enough to comfortably accommodate the entire team and staff.

Arkansas' basketball team utilizes a fully stocked weight room as well as top-notch training facilities.

Even the hallway leading to the basketball offices features a hardwood floor replica complete with court markings and logos.

Razorback basketball history is alive and well in the Tommy Boyer Hall of Champions and in displays on the concourse level. The Yvonne Richardson Great Moments Theater delivers Arkansas' rich history at the touch of a button.

Whether it's players preparing for the next game, fans reliving great moments of the past or crowds anticipating tip-off, one visit and you'll know why Bud Walton Arena is truly "The Basketball Palace of Mid-America."

Arkansas beat No. 4 Oklahoma and No. 7 Texas in 2009 and hold a 10-5 record in Bud Walton Arena against teams ranked in the top 10.

Championships were a tradition at Arkansas long before the Razorbacks earned the national title in 1994. The '94 championship was the grandest of them all, but the NCAA trophy isn't exactly the only one on the shelf in the fabulous Bud Walton Arena museum.

In fact, Arkansas has made six trips to the NCAA Final Four and earned 30 bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In conference play, Arkansas has won 24 league championships with 22 coming in the Southwest Conference between 1926 and 1991. The Hogs won the Southeastern Conference crown in 1992, their first year in the league, after winning three straight SWC titles. The Hogs have also won seven league tournament crowns.

Since joining the SEC, Arkansas has been a dominant member. The Razorbacks won overall titles in 1992 and 1994, and Western Division titles in 1992, '93, '94 and '95, and won the tournament crown in 2000.

Arkansas has a long-standing tradition of winning in basketball. It started in the 1920s and has carried through to this time. Even though Arkansas didn't begin playing basketball until 1924, the Hogs won more SWC championships than any other school.

It didn't take long for the Hogs to have an impact on the SWC. Two years after starting the program, Arkansas won its first league championship. It was the first of five in a row. Francis Schmidt, Arkansas' first basketball coach, guided the Hogs to the 1926, '27, '28 and '29 titles. Chuck Bassett was the coach of the 1930 championship squad.

Wear Schoonover, Arkansas' first football All-American, captained the 1930 club. He earned All-SWC honors three times. In fact, the Razorbacks dominated the all-conference squads of the late 1920s. In 1928, Arkansas had four of the five All-SWC selections when Glen Rose, Tom Pickell, Gene Lambert Sr. and Schoonover were named all-league. Rose was also the first Razorback to earn All-America honors (1928), followed a year later by Pickell and Lambert.

The Hogs were loaded with all-conference talent during that time. Rose was a three-time All-SWC pick, as was Pickell.

Lambert and Rolla Adams made it twice, as did Milan Creighton.

From 1926 through 1929, Arkansas was a combined 60-5.

When Schmidt left Arkansas as coach, he went to league rival TCU and was tough to beat until the Razorbacks hired Rose as head coach.

Rose began another glorious run with a co-championship in 1935. The Hogs won SWC titles in '36, '38, '41 and '42. The 1936 Razorbacks almost represented the United States in the Olympics, winning four games in an Olympic playoff before losing to a team of all-stars from California in the semifinals of the tournament.

Jim Lee Howell, Ike Poole, Taft Moody, Don Lockard, Jack Robbins, Howard Hickey and Johnny Adams were the stars of their day. Adams was an All-American in 1941. He was Arkansas' fifth All-American but the last one UA would have until Ron Brewer made it in 1977.

From 1945 to 1950, Arkansas had four second-place finishes and shared the 1949 title. The Razorbacks then went through a mild recession before claiming a co-championship in 1958. By winning a playoff game against SMU, Arkansas qualified for the NCAA Tournament. It wasn't a pleasant experience. Oklahoma State, which featured Eddie Sutton as a player, downed the Hogs by 25, 65-40, and Oscar Robertson exploded for 58 points as the Hogs were drilled by Cincinnati, 97-62, in a consolation game.

As unpleasant as the tournament experience was, Arkansas would have loved to have gone back, but it didn't happen for 19 years. Not even Rose, who led the Hogs to the '58 title in his second stint as coach, could return Arkansas to glory. He retired following the 1966 season, but neither of his two successors, Duddy Waller or Lanny Van Eman, put a contender on the floor.

Scotty Thurman's clutch three-pointer with the shot clock winding down and 51 seconds left to play gave Arkansas a 73-70 lead in the 76-72 victory over Duke in the 1994 NCAA Championship game.

The 1944 Razorback men's basketball team.

Van Eman did, however, bring excitement to the game. His teams regularly scored in the 80s and 90s at a time when the traditional powers played games in the 60s. Van Eman recruited Martin Terry from junior college and Terry set school single-season scoring records that still stand. He averaged 28.3 points per game as a senior. Even though he played only two seasons, Terry still ranks among Arkansas' top 20 all-time scorers.

Unfortunately, Van Eman's teams usually gave up more points than they scored. Twice in 1971, Arkansas scored 100 or more points and lost.

Van Eman's second club managed to win 16 games, but only five came in SWC play. Arkansas and Baylor, which paired for a thrilling 111-110 Baylor victory the year before, put on another wild show with the Razorbacks winning, 131-109, in Fayetteville, setting a league record for points scored by two teams in a conference game.

After the 1974 Hogs won just 10 games, Frank Broyles, newly appointed athletic director as well as an already established football coach, decided it was time to make a commitment to basketball. He turned things around by hiring Sutton.

Sutton caught the state's attention in his first season when the Razorbacks finished 17-9 and second in the SWC. By the time his second team finished its 19-9 campaign, construction workers were already renovating Barnhill Arena, a facility constructed in 1957.

The 1976 Hogs also featured the nucleus of what was to become one of the greatest teams in history. Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph were sophomores. Sidney Moncrief was a freshman and he quietly led the nation in field goal percentage (.665, 149-224), and Sutton knew he had something special.

With half of Barnhill's facelift completed before the 1977 season, a new wave of excitement swept through the entire state of Arkansas.

The Razorbacks blitzed through the SWC unbeaten, winning their first league title in 19 years. Brewer, Moncrief and Delph were the toast of the Ozarks. Arkansas finished 26-2 but lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when Moncrief fouled out, allowing Wake Forest to come from behind for a victory.

Expectations were high in 1978 and the Hogs didn't disappoint. For a week, the Razorbacks were even ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. A loss at Houston after two victories earlier in the week dropped the Hogs from their position at the top.

Arkansas shared the SWC title with Texas, but was upset by Houston, again on a last-second shot at the SWC Tournament. Stunned, the Razorbacks returned home unsure of whether or not they would receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The Hogs got in and victories over Weber State and No. 2 UCLA thrust Arkansas into the regional finals. Brewer hit a long jumper with less than a minute to play and Jim Counce scored on a layup at the end to seal a 61-58 victory over Cal-Fullerton, sending the Hogs to the Final Four.

No. 1-ranked Kentucky ended Arkansas' dreams of a national title with a semifinal victory, but Brewer hit another of his patented buzzer shots in the third-place game, giving Arkansas a thrilling 71-69 victory over Notre Dame.

With All-American Brewer and the sleek-shooting Delph gone, Moncrief and Steve Schall were left to lead the 1979 Hogs. It was almost a repeat performance of 1978.

Moncrief was brilliant. He simply refused to allow his team to lose. After a brief midseason slump, Arkansas won 14 straight games, including two at the SWC Tournament and two in the NCAA Tournament. A victory over Louisville sent Arkansas into the Midwest Regional finals against No. 1-ranked Indiana State and superstar Larry Bird.

Arkansas could not stop Bird, but ISU could not contain Moncrief. In one of the greatest games in UA history, the Hogs suffered a 73-71 setback when a last-second Sycamore shot bounced twice and fell in. Arkansas finished 25-5 and the Moncrief era was history.

Sutton won three more SWC titles and left behind a legacy when his teams won 20 or more games nine years in a row. Arkansas played in the NCAA Tournament in each of those nine seasons, but never came close to returning to the Final Four. The Razorbacks even featured a team that had three future first-round NBA draft choices when Scott Hastings, Darrell Walker and Alvin Robertson played together. Joe Kleine, another future NBA product, redshirted that year (1982).

When Sutton left for Kentucky, Broyles turned a completely different direction when he hired Nolan Richardson. Richardson's teams were noted for defense, just as Sutton's were, but it was a different style of defense. Richardson's defense usually turned quickly to offense and his teams at Tulsa had led the nation in scoring.

Inheriting a group of players recruited to play at a slower pace, Richardson had to bite the bullet as his first season resulted in a 12-16 finish. Then he started recruiting. His second team won 19 games and his third was 21-9. His 1989 squad won Arkansas' first SWC title since 1982 and breezed through the league tournament. Arkansas set school scoring records and downed Loyola-Marymount in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before bowing to Louisville.

Joe Johnson led the Razorbacks to a pair of NCAA Tournaments and the 2000 SEC Tournament Championship.

By then, Richardson's style and players had converted Razorback fans. Barnhill Arena was hopping every time the Hogs played. It wouldn't have taken a Final Four appearance for the state to go nuts, but when the Razorbacks reached the 1990 Final Four, the state went crazy.

The Hogs were SWC champs again and dominated the SWC Tournament for the second consecutive year. Triumphs over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas sent the Razorbacks into the Final Four. A loss to Duke in the semifinals ended the season at 30-5.

It nearly happened again in 1991. Arkansas won a school-record 34 games before falling to Kansas in the Southeast Regional finals. Arkansas ended its history in the Southwest Conference by winning the final three regular season and tournament championships.

A new era was launched in 1992 and the Razorbacks didn't miss a beat. Arkansas won the Southeastern Conference title with a 13-3 record. Included were two victories over Shaquille O'Neal-led LSU and a big win at Kentucky. The Todd Day-Lee Mayberry-Oliver Miller era ended with a 26-8 season and another trip to the NCAAs.

After winning the SEC's Western Division in '93 and pushing North Carolina to the limit in a Sweet 16 loss to the eventual national champions, Arkansas enjoyed its best season ever in 1994. UA won nearly everything possible. The Razorbacks were SEC champs, again sweeping LSU and winning at Kentucky, they made the school's fifth trip to the Final Four and completed their dream season by beating Arizona and Duke to win the national title.

A year later, Arkansas was No. 1 in all the preseason polls, but the Hogs stumbled early before making a late-season run. UA repeated as Western Division champion, then downed Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia to earn its sixth Final Four appearance.

A win over North Carolina in the semifinals allowed the Hogs to advance to the finals, but it was UCLA's year as the Bruins beat Arkansas for the 1995 crown, 89-78.

With every starter gone from the back-to-back Final Four clubs, Arkansas was expected to struggle in 1996. Richardson, however, molded together a young team and the Hogs peaked late. Seeded 12th in the NCAA East Regional, UA beat Penn State

Memorable Games

The history of Razorback basketball is filled with thrilling and even heart-stopping moments. The Final Four, conference championships and last-second, game-winning jumpers shape the memories of the "greatest" moments in Arkansas history. Following are 10 of those:

Corey Beck had 15 points, four assists and a team-high 10 rebounds in the championship game victory over Duke.

No. 2 ARKANSAS 76, No. 6 DUKE 72 NCAA Championship Game April 4, 1994, at Charlotte, N.C.

Despite UA's incredible basketball success through the years, the Razorbacks had never played for the national championship until their battle with Duke at the Charlotte Coliseum. The Hogs had been ranked No. 1 much of the year, but Duke had won two national titles in the three previous seasons and had defeated Arkansas in the 1990 Final Four at Denver.

Duke controlled the tempo in the first half and Corliss Williamson, who had been nearly unstoppable in the entire tournament, missed his first five shots for the Razorbacks. The Blue Devils led by as many as five points in the opening period, but Scotty Thurman drilled a late three-pointer to give UA a 34-33 halftime advantage.

Corey Beck hit a short jumper early in the second half to give the Hogs a 38-35 lead, but Duke scored 13 unanswered points and suddenly led 48-38 with 17:09 left. While the surge left Duke fans roaring their approval, it also sped up the tempo of the game. The Razorbacks trailed but actually had the Blue Devils right where they wanted them.

Playing at a quicker pace, Arkansas caught up in less than five minutes. When Al Dillard drilled a three with 8:08 remaining to give UA a five-point lead, it looked like momentum had swung to the Hogs for good. Duke fought back and tied the game at 65-65 and finally 70-all with 1:29 remaining. The Razorbacks took a timeout.

When Dwight Stewart fumbled a pass, he quickly passed it out to Thurman with the shot clock winding down. Thurman had no choice but to shoot. As his shot was narrowly clearing the outstretched hand of Antonio Lang, the shot clock hit zero. The shot, though, was true. It was a dagger to the hearts of the Blue Devils and surpassed U.S. Reed's halfcourt jumper against Louisville as the most famous shot in UA history.

Duke never recovered. Three free throws in the final seconds clinched the 76-72 victory that gave Arkansas the 1994 national championship.

RAZORBACK BASKETBALL HISTORY

and Marquette to advance to the Sweet 16 before falling to top-ranked Massachusetts.

In 1997, Arkansas was forced to endure an NCAA inquiry, which proved fruitless, but it damaged the Hogs' recruiting. The streak of nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances ended but the Bud Walton Arena crowds were rejuvenated by three NIT games. Fans who never before had the opportunity to buy Razorback basketball tickets were able to attend and helped UA advance to the NIT semifinals in New York.

It was back to the NCAAs in 1998 as the Razorbacks, who got 10.4 points and an SEC-leading 9.8 rebounds per game from Nick Davis, won 24 games and reached the second round with a win over Nebraska.

Mike Anderson was named the 13th head coach in Arkansas history on March 23, 2011.

Arkansas won its 10th straight NCAA Tournament first-round game in 1999 as Pat Bradley set school records for career three-point shooting (366-915, .400). Derek Hood recorded more double-doubles than anyone in UA history (18) and also led the league in rebounding (10.3), and Kareem Reid broke Mayberry's career record for assists (748).

UA also had one of the most unique weeks in its basketball history. The final two home games came over a five-day span against No. 5 Kentucky and No. 2 Auburn. Never before had Arkansas played two top 10 teams at home in the same week. Arkansas beat UK, 74-70, and topped Auburn, 104-88.

Following an up-and-down season in 2000, Arkansas won four games in four days, including wins over No. 16 Kentucky, No. 10 LSU and No. 23 Auburn to win the school's first SEC Tournament title. Brandon Dean was the MVP after averaging 15.2 points in the title run.

Charles Balentine's baseline jumper gave Arkansas a 65-64 victory over Michael Jordan and No. 1-ranked North Carolina in 1984.

ARKANSAS 65, No. 1 NORTH CAROLINA 64

Feb. 12, 1984, at Pine Bluff

North Carolina was 19-0 and ranked No. 1 nationally when the Tar Heels visited Pine Bluff. Arkansas was on its way to a second-place finish in the Southwest Conference and had defeated SMU in Dallas the day before.

Violent weather kept the Hogs from flying to Pine Bluff until the morning of the game, and the Razorbacks arrived in town two hours before the nationally televised contest.

If the Razorbacks were weary, they showed no signs of it. They defended North Carolina fiercely, holding the Tar Heels to 45 percent shooting. North Carolina had plenty of weapons. Michael Jordan, Sam Perkins and Brad Daugherty, all future NBA stars, were in the starting lineup along with Steve Hale, a guard from Tulsa whose second choice of schools was Arkansas.

The Hogs were armed with Joe Kleine and Alvin Robertson, but the unsung heroes were Darryl Bedford and Charles Balentine. Bedford, a freshman who had been a little used reserve, hit all six of his shots and scored 12 points. Balentine, of course, was the hero at the end.

A crowd of 7,529 was in a frenzy from the opening tipoff to the final buzzer. They watched Jordan score 21 points and Kleine answer with 20. Perkins had 17 and Hale 15. Leroy Sutton scored 11 points, Balentine 10 and Robertson nine for the Hogs.

North Carolina's largest lead of the first half was five points. UA led by as many as seven before taking a 38-34 advantage at the break. The second half was a nailbiter and the Tar Heels led by one with only seconds to play. Balentine drove the baseline and hit an eight-footer to give Arkansas the lead before UNC missed a buzzer shot.

The 2001 club rebounded from an 0-3 league start with a six-game winning streak late in the year to earn Arkansas' 13th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years and its 15th straight post-season tournament berth.

The Nolan Richardson era came to an end in 2002 when he was released from his contract. The Razorbacks dropped to 14-15, including a 13-14 mark under Richardson. Mike Anderson was 1-1 as interim head coach for the last two games of the season.

Stan Heath rebuilt the roster with recruiting classes ranked as high as No. 13 by Rivals.com in 2004 and No. 7 by Hoop Scoop in 2003. In 2005, the Razorbacks won the Paradise Jam tournament title and went 18-12.

In 2006, Heath had Arkansas back in the NCAA Tournament, going 22-10 behind honorable mention All-American Ronnie Brewer (18.4 ppg), All-SEC guard Jonathon Modica (16.1 ppg) and SEC Sixth Man of the Year Eric Ferguson (8.1 ppg).

Arkansas earned another NCAA bid in 2007. The Razorbacks won the Old Spice Classic, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and recorded the 27th 20-win season in school history by finishing 21-14. Patrick Beverley (13.9 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was the SEC Newcomer and Freshman of the year, and Steven Hill (6.2 ppg, 2.8 blocks) the SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

Sidney Moncrief and Larry Bird put on a great show in the 1979 Midwest Regional Final.

No. 1 INDIANA STATE 73, No. 5 ARKANSAS 71 NCAA Regional Final March 17, 1979, at Cincinnati, Ohio

A Final Four team in 1978, Arkansas was not expected to return in 1979 with the loss of Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph, two of the famed "Triplets." Sidney Moncrief, however, almost single-handedly pushed his team to greater heights than anyone expected.

Moncrief, senior Steve Schall and a cast of sophomores and freshmen put together a 14-game winning streak late in the year and arrived at the Midwest Regional finals ready to challenge No. 1-ranked and unbeaten Indiana State, and superstar Larry Bird. The stakes were a spot in the Final Four.

Bird was awesome. The Hogs simply could not stop him. With 9:22 left, he already had 27 points. Razorback Coach Eddie Sutton then made the ultimate gamble. He put the 6-4 Moncrief on the 6-9 Bird for the final seven minutes.

Bird scored just four more points. Moncrief, meanwhile, was almost as unstoppable as Bird had been. He finished with 24 points and eight rebounds, and had his team in a position to win late. Arkansas had the ball with 1:31 left and holding for the last shot with the score tied 71-71.

With 1:02 remaining, U.S. Reed tripped and was called for walking, giving the Sycamores the ball.

ISU held for the last shot, but could not get the ball to Bird, who was smothered by Moncrief. It was Bob Heaton who launched the shot with two seconds left and the Hogs watched helplessly as it hit both sides of the rim before dropping through, depriving the Hogs of a second straight trip to the Final Four.

John Pelphrey, an honorable mention All-American as a player at Kentucky, became head coach for the 2008 season. His background included playing for Eddie Sutton and Rick Pitino at Kentucky, and working as an assistant coach for Sutton at Oklahoma State, and Billy Donovan at Marshall and Florida.

Pelphrey's first Razorback team went 23-12, was 6-2 against ranked teams, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a win over No. 24 Indiana. Sonny Weems (15.0 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was first-team All-SEC and won the College Slam Dunk championship.

Pelphrey's second team, in 2009, was short on depth and experience. The Hogs finished 14-16, but had wins over No. 4 Oklahoma and No. 7 Texas, and won the Jim Thorpe Classic. He would lead the team for two more years, but failed to return the Razorbacks back to the NCAA Tournament.

On March 23, 2011, the Razorbacks ushered in a new (old) style of basketball with the hiring of longtime Razorback assistant Mike Anderson. Anderson left the program in 2002 when Richardson departed and went on to highly successful stints at UAB and Missouri before returning to Arkansas. Anderson's first job was to retain a highly-touted recruiting class that ranked among the top 10 in the nation, which he did, and has brought a new mindset to the Razorback program.

Anderson's first year as Arkansas' head coach included a school record 17 wins at home, three victories over ranked teams and an increase in attendance. The Razorbacks even earned votes in the Associated Press poll for the first time since 2009. Also on display in 2012 was the premiere of the SEC Storied/ESPN documentary "40 Minutes of Hell," which chronicled former head coach Nolan Richardson's life through his time with the Razorbacks.

Arkansas in the Final Four

During Arkansas' long, illustrious basketball history, the Razorbacks have been to the NCAA Final Four six times.

The Hogs have earned 30 bids to the NCAA Tournament and made 29 appearances, missing the 1944 event due to a car accident prior to the first-round games.

Only eight schools in the entire country have been to the Final Four more than Arkansas, and only eight schools have earned more than UA's 30 NCAA Tournament bids. Among Southeastern Conference schools, only Kentucky has been to the NCAA Tournament more often. In fact, Arkansas, Kentucky, LSU, Georgia, Mississippi State and Florida are the only other league schools to reach the Final Four.

It was tougher to get in the tournament in the early days, but it also took fewer games to win the title.

In the 1940s, only eight teams participated in the NCAA Tournament, which first became an event in 1939. Up to that point, the NIT was the top national post-season tournament. Twice in the '40s, the Razorbacks advanced to the Final Four.

The 1941 Hogs roared through the Southwest Conference with a 12-0 mark and carried a 19-2 record into the tournament. Arkansas downed Wyoming, 65-40, to reach the Final Four at Kansas City. Washington State handed the Razorbacks a 64-53 setback, meaning Arkansas and Pittsburgh tied for third since there was no third-place game.

UA returned in 1945, again to Kansas City. Arkansas was 16-8 entering the tournament but edged Oregon, 79-76, to reach the Final Four. Eventual national champion Oklahoma State, which Arkansas had defeated once earlier in the season, downed the Hogs and UA tied Ohio State for third place.

It took 33 years for Arkansas to return. In 1978, the Hogs were Southwest Conference champs and beat Weber State, second-ranked

Head coach Nolan Richardson and the 1994 national championship team returned to campus for a special ceremony in 2009.

Ron Brewer had 18 points while fellow "Triplets" Marvin Delph had 23 and Sidney Moncrief 21 as Arkansas beat No. 2 UCLA on the way to the 1978 Final Four.

No. 5 ARKANSAS 74, No. 2 UCLA 70 NCAA Tournament Regional Semifinal • March 16, 1978 Albuquerque, N.M. • Att.: 17,750

It had been an incredible year for Arkansas. The Razorbacks repeated as Southwest Conference champs but had to nervously await an NCAA at-large bid when they were eliminated from the league tournament by Houston in the semifinals. The "Triplets," Ron Brewer, Sidney Moncrief and Marvin Delph, were the ringleaders of one of the greatest teams in school history.

Still, the Hogs were underdogs and a new kid on the NCAA block when they faced second-ranked UCLA in the third round at Albuquerque. David Greenwood was the leader of the Bruins, who weren't far removed from their incredible string of NCAA championships.

UCLA was stunned as Arkansas roared to a 40-22 lead that was cut to 42-29 by halftime. The Bruins didn't panic. They pressed the Hogs and took a 60-58 lead.

Brewer tied the game with two free throws, Steve Schall hit a short turnaround and Delph drilled a jump shot to put the Hogs back in front. By game's end the Razorbacks were going strong.

Delph sizzled by hitting 11 of his 14 shots, finishing with 23 points. Moncrief had 21 and Brewer 18. Greenwood finished with 17 for UCLA.

The victory moved the Razorbacks a step closer to their eventual trip to the Final Four.

No. 20 ARKANSAS 74, No. 12 LOUISVILLE 73 NCAA Tournament Second Round March 14, 1981, at Austin, Texas

Defending NCAA champion Louisville and Southwest Conference champion Arkansas clawed at each other for 39 minutes and 55 seconds in the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the scoreboard read Louisville 73, Arkansas 72 after Derek Smith's short jumper for the Cardinals.

The Razorbacks, who had led by six points with 2:13 left, called timeout. U.S. Reed took the inbounds pass and coolly dribbled to the midcourt area near the sideline. With a second left on the clock, he launched a desperation 49-footer. The only thing desperate after the shot was the look on the faces of the Louisville players as they watched the ball hit nothing but net.

Reed shook hands with everyone on the press table after hitting a shot that will live forever in the minds of Razorback fans. He finished with 19 points. Darrell Walker had 23 and the Hogs were still alive in the NCAA Tournament.

Lenzie Howell, who averaged 13.9 points a game for the year and was the NCAA Tournament Midwest Regional MVP, helped UA knock off Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas to reach the 1990 Final Four.

RAZORBACK BASKETBALL HISTORY

UCLA and California-Fullerton to advance to the Final Four at St. Louis. Top-ranked Kentucky led by just one with two minutes to play and posted a 64-59 victory.

There was a third-place game and Ron Brewer hit a buzzer shot from the top of the circle to send the Razorbacks past Notre Dame, 71-69. Brewer had 20 points and Marvin Delph 21 in their final game as Razorbacks.

Nolan Richardson guided the Hogs to the Final Four in 1990, 1994 and 1995.

In 1990, wins over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas earned Arkansas a trip to Denver. UA was 30-4 heading into a semifinal showdown with Duke.

Richardson took his club to Denver a day early to adjust to the altitude, but the Hogs fell behind early in both halves and used plenty of adrenaline to catch up. UA led 69-62 with 10:38 remaining, but ran out of gas. Duke came back and won, 97-83, but also used most of its energy. The Blue Devils were beaten by Nevada-Las Vegas in the title game while UA tied Georgia Tech for third.

The ultimate came in 1994. The Hogs downed North Carolina A&T, Georgetown, Tulsa and Michigan to advance to the Final Four at Charlotte, N.C. The win over Arizona was Arkansas' first ever in the national semifinals and set up a clash with Duke.

With the score tied with less than a minute to play, a well-defended Scotty Thurman hit a three-pointer to lead the Razorbacks to a 76-72 victory and the national title.

With every starter from the championship squad returning, the Hogs were favored to return to the Final Four in 1995, and they did. Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia were knocked off along the way to the Final Four at Seattle, but none of the wins came by more than six points.

Arkansas fell behind early but rallied to get by North Carolina in the semifinals. Playing in the NCAA championship game for the second straight year, Arkansas came up short in an 89-78 loss to UCLA.

Marvin Delph averaged 18.0 points in two Final Four games in 1978.

Oliver Miller had 10 points, 10 rebounds, three blocked shots and three steals against the Tigers.

No. 7 ARKANSAS 106, No. 23 LSU 92

March 3, 1992, at Fayetteville

It was Arkansas' first year as a member of the Southeastern Conference. Earlier in the season, Todd Day had exploded for a career-high 43 points as the Razorbacks defeated LSU, 101-90, at Baton Rouge. The Tigers recovered from the defeat, though, and by the time they arrived at Barnhill Arena, they had tied the Hogs for the SEC lead.

LSU's first ever visit to Fayetteville would determine the SEC championship.

The Tigers started strong. Shaquille O'Neal did his best to quiet an overflow crowd of 9,518 with 11 points in the opening half as LSU roared to a 51-36 advantage. O'Neal, however, scored his last points with 11:37 remaining to give the Tigers a 69-58 lead before the Razorbacks charged back.

Lee Mayberry, who hit a then-school record nine three-point field goals and finished with 35 points, teamed with Day, who finished with 27, to bring the Hogs from behind. Mayberry's last three-pointer tied the game at 87-all and Oliver Miller blocked O'Neal's shot at the buzzer to force overtime.

Arkansas blitzed the Tigers, 19-5, in the extra period. Day scored nine points and Mayberry had four during that time. The victory sent Barnhill Arena into a frenzy and the Razorbacks on the way to their first SEC title.

The National Championship

Corey Beck averaged 12.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists in earning Final Four all-tournament honors in 1994.

Lee Mayberry's deep three sent the game to overtime and Arkansas never looked back.

No. 3 ARKANSAS 103, TEXAS 96 Feb. 4, 1990, at Austin, Texas

Arkansas already had a two-game lead over Texas in the Southwest Conference when the Razorbacks invaded Austin for a nationally televised game.

The Hogs owned a four-game winning streak over the Longhorns, and it was a must-win situation for Texas. The Razorbacks led for most of the first half but Texas gained a five-point advantage midway through the second half. It was 77-72 'Horns when Todd Day fouled out for Arkansas 3:31 from the end.

Texas still led, 86-83, and had Travis Mays at the free throw line with 12 seconds left, but Mays missed the free throw and Lee Mayberry stunned the Texas crowd of more than 16,000 with a long three-pointer three seconds from the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Arkansas made sure Texas never recovered. A three-pointer by Ernie Murry got the Hogs started and Mayberry's jumper at 3:20 put the Hogs in front to stay. Mayberry and Lenzie Howell each scored 23 points to offset 24 by Joey Wright, 23 by Mays and 22 by Lance Blanks. The victory gave Arkansas a three-game lead it never surrendered on its way to the SWC title.

Without a senior in the starting lineup, playing in the most palatial arena in college basketball with the President of the United States attending four games and led by a coach with a system that could not be drawn up on a blackboard, Arkansas vaulted into the elite of the elite when the Razorbacks won the 1994 NCAA Championship.

Construction workers built Bud Walton Arena in record time and the 19,200-seat showcase dazzled fans and opponents as much as the Razorbacks did. Sellout crowds each time the doors were opened watched the Hogs go 16-0 at home. Only one game, the 84-83 victory over LSU, was decided by fewer than 10 points. UA won those 16 games by an average of 30 points.

UA blitzed Murray State, 93-67, in the Bud Walton Arena opener on Nov. 29, but the building was dedicated a few nights later when Missouri came to Fayetteville for an ESPN showcase game. The Dec. 2 game was decided in the first few minutes as Arkansas roared to a 120-68 victory over a Missouri club which went unbeaten in the Big Eight and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

Ranked No. 1 nationally for 10 weeks during the regular season, the Hogs lost only twice during the regular campaign. Alabama beat Arkansas, 66-64, in Tuscaloosa, and Mississippi State edged the Hogs, 72-71, in Starkville.

Sophomores Corliss Williamson and Scotty Thurman carried much of the load, and junior Corey Beck was the blue collar leader. When the Hogs had to score, they went inside to Williamson, who averaged 20.4 points per game. He shot .626 from the field and 70 percent at the free throw line.

Thurman, though, was the last-minute hero. His three-pointer with seven seconds left gave Arkansas a one-point victory at Tennessee. He hit another three in the last 30 seconds to lift the Hogs past LSU at Baton Rouge in overtime.

Beck did much of the dirty work, defending with tenacity and leading the team in assists. He and junior Clint McDaniel were probably the best defensive guards in college basketball. Head coach Nolan Richardson certainly thought so. McDaniel also provided perimeter firepower, as did junior Dwight Stewart, Arkansas' fifth starter who was more a forward than a center.

Corliss Williamson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1994 Final Four after averaging 26.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in Arkansas' two wins.

Richardson used a deep bench to guide the Hogs to a 24-2 regular season finish. Al Dillard brought instant offense into any contest with his incredible three-point shooting range. He was Arkansas' third-leading scorer behind Williamson and Thurman (15.9 ppg) with an 8.9 average even though he played just more than 12 minutes a game. Roger Crawford, one of only two seniors on the squad, also brought instant firepower off the bench, but he was injured early in the NCAA Tournament run and was not available for the Final Four.

In his honor, UA players wore a No. 31 patch on their jerseys.

Freshmen Darnell Robinson and Lee Wilson, a pair of 6-11 centers, gave the Hogs size they didn't have in 1993 when they won 22 games and reached the Sweet 16 before falling to eventual national champion North Carolina. Senior Ken Biley and junior Elmer Martin also made significant contributions.

When President Bill Clinton visited Bud Walton Arena for a Dec. 28 blowout of Texas Southern, no one realized it would be a preview of later visits to the NCAA Tournament. The nation's most recognizable Razorback fan later appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated wearing sweats presented by Richardson.

A 13-game winning streak was snapped by Kentucky in the SEC Tournament, but the Razorbacks were still seeded first in the Midwest Regional at Oklahoma City. Williamson scored 24 points and had seven rebounds in a 94-79 first-round victory over North Carolina A&T. He followed with 21 points and Robinson, making a surprise start, added 13 in the 85-73 second-round win over Georgetown.

Earlier in the year, Tulsa gave Arkansas a scare before the Hogs won in overtime, 93-91, in Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane surprised UCLA and Oklahoma State to reach the Sweet 16 with UA in Dallas. This one was no contest as Williamson and Thurman scored 21 each, and McDaniel 19 in a 103-84 victory.

Michigan was Arkansas' regional final foe and the Hogs could not contain Juwan Howard, but neither could the Wolverines handle Thurman.

With Williamson smothered by Michigan's inside defense and held to 12 points, Thurman tossed in 20 as UA reached the Final Four with a 76-68 win attended by President Clinton.

Joe Kleine scored 22 points, forced Hakeem Olajuwon to foul out and the Hogs beat No. 2 Houston in 1984.

No. 12 ARKANSAS 73, No. 2 HOUSTON 68

March 4, 1984, at Fayetteville

Hakeem Olajuwon and Houston were on their way to their third consecutive Final Four, they were ranked second nationally and hadn't lost a Southwest Conference game in two years. The Cougars had gone 16-0 in 1983 and were 15-0 going into the regular season finale at Barnhill Arena.

Arkansas was outstanding as well. The Hogs already had upset top-ranked North Carolina at Pine Bluff, but at 13-2 couldn't catch Houston in the SWC standings. No one in the overflow crowd of 9,438 cared as they watched a terrific contest showcased by national television.

Olajuwon was held to 10 points before fouling out, but Michael Young picked up the slack with 22 and Alvin Franklin earned 21. They weren't as hot as the Hogs, though. Joe Kleine, whose inside power put Olajuwon in foul trouble, scored 22 points, hitting all 10 of his free throws. Charles Balentine added 16, Ricky Norton 14 and Alvin Robertson 13 points and nine assists.

Houston led at the half but saw its hopes dim when Olajuwon drew his fourth and fifth fouls in a 38-second span six minutes from the end while trying to stop Kleine inside. Kleine hit all four free throws and the Hogs had a huge victory.

By the time the Hogs arrived at Charlotte, N.C., they were a confident bunch. They also had been somehow convinced by Richardson that they were not nationally respected, even though they had been ranked No. 1. Arizona was the semifinal opponent and the Wildcat guards, Damon Stoudamire and Khalid Reeves, were billed as the top offensive guards in the nation.

Beck and McDaniel were motivated to the hilt and smothered them. They combined to hit just 11 of their 43 shots, including just two of 22 three-point attempts. Williamson scored 29 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, and the Hogs advanced to the championship game with a 91-82 victory.

An entire state stood still on April 4, 1994. Arkansas fans who could not be there (more than 3,000 made the trip to Charlotte) watched and listened in every corner of the state. President Clinton was there again, and so was Duke, the 1991 and '92 national champion.

After an airtight first half that ended with Arkansas holding a 34-33 lead, Duke jumped out to a 10-point advantage in the first three minutes of the second half. However, the pace of the game picked up during the run and it never slowed down. The Razorbacks took advantage and were even with the Devils less than five minutes later.

When Arkansas built a 70-65 lead late in the contest, it looked safe, but Grant Hill's three tied the game with 1:29 remaining.

Although Williamson finished with 23 points, there was no doubt who would take the next shot for UA. Thurman launched a high-arching three-point attempt with only seconds left on the shot clock. The shot fell with 51 seconds left and when it settled through the net, the outcome had been determined. A pair of free throws by McDaniel and another by Dillard sealed Duke's fate, 76-72.

Once the national championship belonged to the Hogs, an entire state celebrated. President Clinton embraced Richardson on the court and later officially honored the Razorbacks at the White House.

The 1994 NCAA championship trophy is on display at Bud Walton Arena.

Following a win over No. 5 Kentucky five days earlier, Kareem Reid's 10 points and 10 assists helped the Razorbacks knock off second-ranked Auburn, which came in 25-1, in 1999.

ARKANSAS 104, No. 2 AUBURN 88 Feb. 24, 1999, at Fayetteville

Auburn hadn't won a Southeastern Conference championship in 39 years but already had clinched the title and was ranked second nationally with a 25-1 record when the Tigers came to Bud Walton Arena for Arkansas' regular season home finale.

The Razorbacks had stunned fifth-ranked Kentucky four days earlier and believed a win over Auburn would clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

It was an emotional evening before the game started. Seniors Derek Hood, Pat Bradley and Kareem Reid, record-setters who persevered through four sometimes-difficult seasons, were introduced to the Bud Walton fans for the final time.

Arkansas' fans created the noisiest environment Coach Nolan Richardson, his players and long-time followers of the program could ever remember. An overflow crowd of 20,298 nearly shook the building with an incredible level of exhortation. Not a player or coach on either side completed an interview without mentioning the crowd.

The game itself was airtight throughout the first half. The Hogs surged ahead by 10 points twice but a last second three-pointer by Tiger star Chris Porter carved the advantage to four by intermission. It was a one-point game with 16:26 left but a rebound basket by Hood spurred the Razorbacks to a 30-10 run that left Auburn in shock. Both teams were quick, but the Tigers must have thought there were more than five Hogs on the floor as the noise pushed Arkansas beyond its highest previous performance level of the campaign.

When it was over, the Razorbacks had a 16-point victory and a spot secured in the NCAA Tournament. Bradley hit five three-pointers and finished with 23 points. Hood had 18 points and 13 rebounds. Reid earned 10 points and 10 assists. Junior Chris Walker added 21 points.

It was Arkansas' finest execution of the season and the entire state was buzzing about the contest long after the season was concluded.

Dwight Stewart had six points, nine rebounds, four assists and four steals in the 1994 national championship game victory over Duke.

One of many clutch shots by Scotty Thurman, this one a pull-up jumper with eight seconds left, was the game-winner against Kentucky.

No. 9 ARKANSAS 94, No. 5 KENTUCKY 92 Jan. 29, 1995, at Fayetteville

Kentucky's second-ever trip to Fayetteville was a highly-anticipated event. CBS moved the game to Super Bowl Sunday to ensure a large audience for the nationally televised event.

The Wildcats were 13-2, including 7-0 in the Southeastern Conference. Arkansas, the preseason No. 1 choice and defending national champion, had looked vulnerable at times during the season and was 15-4 with a 4-3 SEC mark.

By halftime it was obvious another special event was taking place, just as every Arkansas-Kentucky game had been. The Wildcats led by one when Reggie Garrett stunned the visitors with a halfcourt buzzer shot to give UA a 49-47 halftime lead.

UA was tied or led the entire second half until Walter McCarty's short jumper gave Kentucky an 82-80 lead with 5:19 left. From that point on, neither team led by more than four, and there were three ties and three lead changes.

The teams traded salvos until Clint McDaniel made just one free throw with 51 seconds remaining. When McCarty scored on a putback with 24 seconds to go, UK led by one.

Scotty Thurman, UA's greatest last-second shot maker ever, made sure the crowd went home happy. He drove past UK defenders, pulled up and hit an 18-footer with eight seconds to go to put the Razorbacks in front for good. McDaniel made a baseline steal in the final second and hit a free throw for the final two-point margin.

Thurman and Corliss Williamson combined for 50 points as the Hogs won their fourth straight regular season game over the Wildcats.

Corliss Williamson was the No. 13 pick by the Sacramento Kings in the 1995 NBA Draft.

Joe Johnson is one of six Razorbacks to be picked among the top 10 in the draft. He was taken No. 10 in 2001.

Like father, like son, Ronnie Brewer followed in his father's footsteps as a first-round NBA Draft pick from Arkansas in 2006.

MEDIA & OPPONENTS

MEDIA INFORMATION

The following policies have been prepared in consideration of your needs, as well as the needs of our student-athletes, coaches and staff, in hopes of creating a positive working environment for us all. As always, we welcome your suggestions and will try to accommodate special needs.

Game Credentials

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be made online at www.SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least one week in advance of the game.

Credentials must be requested and will be granted on a game-by-game basis only. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Please see the media credentialing guidelines online at www.SportsSystems.com/Arkansas.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Media Relations Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one to whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refused to comply with press row and/or photographic guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; and (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They must be picked up beginning two hours before tipoff at the media will call door to the right of the south entrance to Bud Walton Arena. Be prepared to present a photo identification when picking up credentials.

Media Will Call

Located on the south side of Bud Walton Arena, just right of the main ticket window. All passes are left at media will call - no credentials are mailed.

Gameday Parking

A limited number of spaces are available in the lot south of Bud Walton Arena, located at the corner of Sixth Street and Razorback Road. All requests should be made to Associate Media Relations Director Phil Pierce along with credential requests.

Media Services

The University of Arkansas has one of the top statistical crews in college basketball. Our crew has worked NCAA Tournament regional championships and conference tournaments. Media will be provided play-by-play, halftime and final box scores, and shot charts for each half.

Media Work Room

Bud Walton Arena's work room is one of the most spacious in the nation. It is located on the arena floor level, next to and adjoining the interview room. Weekly press briefings and Mike Anderson's post-game press conferences are held in the interview room. Media members can work and file from the work room or the press seating area on the floor. Wireless Internet is available in the work room and at courtside. Please see Associate Media Relations Director Phil Pierce or a member of the Media Relations staff for login information. In addition, several telephones are available in the work room.

Photographers

Bud Walton Arena features two photo "wells," located on the baselines next to each team bench. Tripods are not allowed on the floor at any time during play and photographers must sit on the floor so as to not block the view of spectators. Spots in the photo wells are limited and must be requested in advance of any Arkansas contest. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from either sideline due to space limitations. Arkansas Media Relations reserves the right to limit the number of strobe units used and requests to hang strobe lights at Bud Walton Arena must be made in writing one week prior to any contest. The hanging of strobe lights on game day is allowed, but must be completed prior to team shoot arounds and only with the accompaniment of a member of the Athletic Department.

Radio Broadcasts

Visiting teams may utilize the four courtesy phone lines available in Bud Walton Arena. ISDN is available. No banners are allowed to hang in front of any broadcast position.

Wireless Internet

Wireless internet is available at Bud Walton Arena. Please contact a member of the Arkansas Media Relations Department on game day if you have any problems logging on.

Interview Policy

Members of the media who wish to arrange interviews with Arkansas basketball student-athletes or coaches must first contact the Media Relations Office. Requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance and no player interviews will be granted the day of an event or during practice without prior arrangement. Student-athletes are instructed to not participate in phone interviews, unless they are arranged by the Media Relations Office.

The University of Arkansas Athletic Media Relations Office appreciates your interest in Razorback basketball and strives to assist you in your coverage. A list of our staff members, our address, and our telephone and fax numbers follows:

SEC Weekly Teleconferences

Each Monday from early January through the beginning of March the SEC teleconference features each league head coach for seven minutes on a broadcast quality hookup. The teleconference runs from 10 a.m. to approximately 11:45 a.m. (central). Mike Anderson's time slot is from 10:49 to 10:56. Media members who wish to ask questions must obtain the teleconference access numbers from Craig Pinkerton at the SEC Media Relations Office (205-458-3010 or cpinkerton@sec.org).

Razorback FTP Services

The Arkansas Media Relations Office will have highlight packages and press conference video available for media to download through the Razorbacks' FTP server throughout the season. For access to the Razorback FTP server, please contact a member of the Arkansas Media Relations Office.

ArkansasRazorbacks.com

The latest information on all Razorback athletics is at ArkansasRazorbacks.com - the official web site of University of Arkansas Athletics. Game notes, previews, blogs and game stories are a few of the items included. The site also offers biographical information on Arkansas coaches and student-athletes, statistics and schedules. Fans can also access live stats of most Razorback events. RazorVision is a premium site available for a subscription fee.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and Razorback Sports Properties formed a partnership in the fall of 2008. As the multi-media rights-holder, Razorback Sports Properties is responsible for all web site, broadcasts, corporate partnerships and marketing of the university's athletics program. Razorback Sports Properties brings a national presence to the overall marketing of Razorback sports.

Razorback Sports Properties exclusively produces and markets a variety of radio and television opportunities surrounding Arkansas Athletics, through the Razorback Sports Network from IMG, including all radio and television play-by-play broadcasts, pay-per-view broadcasts, and television and radio head coaches' shows.

Chuck Barrett is in his third season with the Razorback men's basketball team. He has worked with Arkansas for nearly 20 years as the radio personality of the baseball program and took on football duties prior to the 2007 season. The Director of Broadcasting for the Razorback Athletic Department, Barrett has been on both sides of the radio as a talk show host and play-by-play announcer. He has called numerous moments in Arkansas history including three College World Series runs and multiple bowl game appearances.

Rick Schaeffer is in his ninth year as the analyst, but his 32nd year overall. Schaeffer was not on basketball broadcasts from 2000-04, but the former Arkansas sports information director returned for the 2004-05 season.

Scott Inman is in his seventh season as the play-by-play voice for Razorback basketball on television. The co-anchor of KATV's 5, 6 and 10 p.m. newscasts, the Stuttgart native graduated from Arkansas State University in 1995.

Jimmy Dykes is in his 19th year on the television broadcast team while also serving as a college basketball analyst for ESPN. A 1985 graduate of Arkansas, he was a three-year letterman with the Razorbacks and a member of two South-west Conference championship teams.

Blake Eddins begins his seventh season assisting with color commentary for Razorback basketball. A four-year letterwinner (1999-03), he was a member of Arkansas' 2000 SEC Tournament Champions and three NCAA Tournament teams.

Throughout the history of men's college basketball, the Southeastern Conference has captured 11 NCAA Championships and four NIT titles, putting the SEC as one of the nation's top basketball conferences.

During the 2006-07 academic year the Southeastern Conference became the first conference to win the Division I National Championship in Football (Florida), Men's Basketball (Florida) and Women's Basketball (Tennessee) in the same school year.

Only the SEC and the Big East have ever won both the men's and women's basketball titles in one season. SEC won both three times in 1996, 1998 and 2007. The Big East has won both twice in 2003 and 2004.

The SEC swept both the NIT and NCAA Tournaments in 2006 when Florida won its first NCAA championship and South Carolina earned its second straight NIT title. Only four conferences have won both the NIT and NCAA title, including the Big East (2003), ACC (1992) and Big Ten (1979).

- The SEC has won three of the last eight NCAA titles (2006-Florida, 2007-Florida, 2012 Kentucky). No other conference has won more than two NCAA titles during that stretch.
- The SEC recorded a .500 record or better against the other five major conferences in 2012. SEC teams posted a .700 (7-3) mark against Big 12 teams, .643 (9-5) against the ACC, .555 (5-4) against the Pac-12 and .500 (5-5) against the Big Ten.
- The SEC has won at least 68 percent of its non-conference games since the league expanded to 12 teams in 1991-92.
- In the 2012 NCAA Tournament, the SEC posted a 7-2 record against the other five major conferences.
- The SEC led all other conferences with 12 players selected in the 2012 NBA Draft, including eight that were selected in the first round.
- The top three picks in the 2012 NBA Draft played in the SEC: Kentucky's Anthony Davis (1st overall), Kentucky's Michael Kidd-Gilchrist (2nd overall) and Florida's Bradley Beal (3rd overall).
- Over the last six NBA Drafts, 42 SEC players have heard their names called.
- A total of eight SEC teams received postseason invitations in 2012. Four received NCAA Tournament bids (Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, and Vanderbilt) while four (LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Tennessee) were invited to play in the National Invitation Tournament.
- The SEC has won 11 NCAA men's basketball tournament titles with Kentucky claiming eight (1948, 1949, 1951, 1958, 1978, 1996, 1998 and 2012). Florida has two (2006, 2007) and Arkansas has one (1994).
- Since 1993, the SEC has won six men's basketball national championships – Arkansas (1994), Kentucky (1996), Kentucky (1998), Florida (2006), Florida (2007) and Kentucky (2012). Only the ACC (6) has won as many men's basketball titles during this time.
- Each of the 126 conference games will be televised live as part of the SEC's historic 15-year agreements with CBS Sports and ESPN that began in 2009-10. Almost half of the SEC's league games will be distributed nationally with ESPN or ESPN2 televising 31 contests, ESPNU showing 18 and CBS Sports five. Additionally, nine games will be offered on ESPN3. The SEC's games on ESPN platforms are exclusively branded as the "SEC on ESPN."
- More than 2.4 million fans have witnessed SEC basketball in each of the last six seasons. Kentucky and Tennessee were both ranked among the top six nationally in average attendance in 2012. The Wildcats led the nation with an average of 23,721 fans per game while the Vols were sixth with an average of 16,543.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Founded in 1871, The University of Arkansas is the flagship institution of the University of Arkansas System. Located in Fayetteville in Arkansas' northwest corner, the U of A is the state's foremost partner and resource for education and economic development.

The U of A offers 213 baccalaureate, master's, doctoral, professional and specialist degree programs. In keeping with its status as Arkansas' land-grant university, the U of A has a 140-year-old mandate to educate, to conduct basic and applied research, and to extend knowledge and resources to the people of Arkansas and beyond through public engagement and service. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching recently classified the U of A as a national research university with a very high level of research activity, based on the number of doctoral degrees awarded, research grants received, and other factors. The U of A is the only Arkansas institution with such a ranking and is among just 108 institutions in the United States (out of 4,633) to have received that classification.

The U of A has enormous influence over Arkansans' social, cultural, and recreational life, especially the widespread passion for the university's athletics teams, the Arkansas Razorbacks. The U of A's location in northwest Arkansas is viewed as one of the university's strongest attributes. Fayetteville is widely recognized as one of the best college communities in the U.S. The city's Dickson Street district abuts the U of A campus and features scores of restaurants, shops, and entertainment venues. Northwest Arkansas is a vibrant economic region with a national reputation for its high quality of life.

Three of the U.S.'s largest corporations have their world headquarters in the region: Tyson Foods, J.B. Hunt Transportation, and the world's largest retailer, Walmart, Inc. Because of their presence, many other corporations have established primary or secondary headquarters in Northwest Arkansas. Their close proximity to the U of A campus, along with their executives' and employees' active involvement in university life, offers students and faculty exceptional opportunities for research partnerships, internships, and post-graduation employment.

The U of A boasts one of the most unique features and traditions found on any college or university campus: Senior Walk, a nearly three-mile stretch of concrete sidewalks crisscrossing campus into which the names of every U of A graduate is engraved. More than 140,000 names currently appear, grouped alphabetically by year of graduation. Senior Walk epitomizes the university's emphasis on "putting students first," a philosophy captured in its tag line, "the YOU of A."

OLD MAIN

One of the original buildings on Arkansas' campus, Old Main symbolizes the strong connection to the past and the focus upon the future which come together in the present at the University of Arkansas. Completed in 1875, Old Main stood the test of time until the mid-1980s when age and modern building codes threatened to send it to the wrecking ball as had happened to its sister building at the University of Illinois. A major fund-raising campaign by alumni totally renovated Old Main. Reopening in 1992, the building maintains the feel of a Victorian-era building with high ceilings and elaborate wooden trim. Just below the surface of the period hardwood floors, Old Main is hard-wired to the internet and built to last well into its second century.

Even with renovation, Old Main remained unfinished until 2005. One of the gifts during the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century specified the installation of a clock, originally planned for the blank faces of the south tower.

As mentioned, Old Main was built from shared plans with its counterpart on the Illinois campus, with one important difference. The north tower of Arkansas' Old Main is taller than the south tower. Legend says this was symbolic of the Civil War as the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

The U of A features distinctive architecture, including its signature building, Old Main, finished in 1875. As the original administrative facility, the iconic building now houses the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. The college is named in honor of former U of A President (and, later, U.S. Senator) J. William Fulbright, who helped create the prestigious international scholarship and fellowship programs that bear his name. The U of A's distinctive Fulbright Peace Fountain, designed by architect Fay Jones, recognizes its namesake's role in promoting peaceful resolution of world conflicts.

Academically, the U of A is organized into 10 schools and colleges: the Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences; the College of Education and Health Professions; the College of Engineering; the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences; and the Sam M. Walton College of Business. The university also features the Fay Jones School of Architecture, the Graduate School and International Education, the Honors College, the School of Law and the Global Campus, which provides academic outreach and programs to more than 15,000 learners a year.

The U of A's total annual operating budget for FY2012 is $528 million. Tuition and fee revenues make up the largest source of revenues, followed by an annual state appropriation. Almost 77 percent of all full-time undergraduate students receive some form of financial aid. U of A undergraduate tuition rates were ranked 38th lowest in the nation among land-grant universities, in keeping with the university's emphasis on keeping itself accessible and affordable.

In August 2011, the U of A enrolled a record 23,119 students. The student body consisted of students from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. More than 300 student organizations also exist on campus. There are plenty of things to do on- and off-campus. The HPER Center, the university's state-of-the-art recreational facility, offers a great place to climb, swim, run, lift weights, do aerobics and yoga, or play basketball. Cultural and recreational options include attending lectures, readings, and theatrical performances, shopping opportunities, and listening to live music on nearby Dickson Street.

In 2009, University Chancellor G. David Gearhart presented a long-range strategic plan that was formally endorsed by the elected leaders of the faculty, staff, and student body. The plan emphasizes a commitment to "students first," and outlines goals and strategies to ensure that all students receive the resources and support they need to achieve their academic goals. The plan also emphasizes the U of A's commitment to transparency and accountability to the people of Arkansas in its operation.

More information about the U of A may be found at www.uark.edu.

SENIOR WALK

The University of Arkansas is proud to be the last university in the nation maintaining what once was a common tradition of etching its graduates' names into the campus sidewalks. The 100,000th graduate's name went down in cement during the 1990s. The names on Senior Walk stretch over three miles of campus sidewalks.

The story of Senior Walk is a perfect example of how the University of Arkansas brings its commitment to the past together with innovations for the future. When the costs involved in hand-etching names into concrete forced numerous other universities to give up, the University of Arkansas turned to its physical plant and engineering school grads to create a one-of-a-kind computerized sandblasting machine -- the SandHog. Each summer, the SandHog roars across the front lawn of Old Main, etching the names of graduates into sidewalks.

DR. G. DAVID GEARHART

CHANCELLOR

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008, following 10 years of service to the university as vice chancellor for university advancement. Previously he was senior vice president of Penn State University, during which time he was named a Fulbright Scholar, studying at Oxford University in Oxford, England.

His Bachelor of Arts degree is from Westminster College in Missouri. Both his law degree and his doctor of education degree are from the University of Arkansas. He is a native of Fayetteville.

Prior to being appointed chancellor, Dr. Gearhart oversaw the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, the most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, which raised more than $1 billion for academic programs.

As chancellor, Dr. Gearhart instituted the first tuition freeze in 24 years and implemented a $220 million campus building renovation and refurbishment plan, as well as a campus-wide energy savings plan. He has also undertaken a renewed emphasis on the arts on campus, including the establishment of the "All Steinway Campus."

Dr. Gearhart has additionally implemented a major cost savings program that has already resulted in over $29.4 million in cost reduction and savings to the flagship campus. Campus enrollment has also grown by nearly 6,000 students in the past three years to almost 25,000 students. At the same time, diversity in the student body has increased significantly.

He and his wife of more than 35 years, Jane, have two children and two grandchildren.

DR. SHARON HUNT

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Chancellor G. David Gearhart appointed Dr. Sharon Hunt to be the faculty athletics representative (FAR) for the University of Arkansas in August 2010.

Dr. Hunt is the first woman and non-lawyer to hold the post. Dr. Hunt has been on the University of Arkansas faculty since 1990, and she served as the department head of the recently renamed Department of Health, Human Performance and Recreation from July 1, 1990 until June 30, 2011 except for the 2000-01 academic year, when she served as the interim dean of the College of Education and Health Professions. On June 30, 2011 Dr. Hunt stepped down as department head and returned to the faculty at the rank of Professor giving her more time to devote to the FAR position.

A high school athlete, Hunt's involvement with collegiate athletics dates back to her own college days at the University of Arkansas when she played extramural sports with the women's basketball and tennis teams prior to the enactment of Title IX.

After receiving her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the university, she went on to earn a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Georgia, where she taught a variety of undergraduate courses as a graduate assistant. Upon the completion of her doctoral degree, she joined the faculty of the University of Kentucky for 13 years, where she taught both undergraduate and graduate courses and served as the graduate coordinator for the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. In 1990, she and her family returned to Fayetteville.

The FAR's responsibilities lie in three broad areas: academic integrity within the athletics program, student-athlete well-being, and institutional control of the athletics program. Dr. Hunt is involved in the student-athlete advisory council on campus and chairs the Academic Credential Review Committee and Athletic's Academic Integrity Committee, and serves as an ex-officio member of the Faculty Athletics Committee. In addition, she travels to represent the University of Arkansas at various SEC and NCAA meetings.

Dr. Hunt was instrumental in establishing the graduate athletic training education program in the College of Education and Health Professions, and she has worked closely with athletics on that program. The athletics department provides support to students in the athletic training education program in the form of a stipend, books and travel to the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association annual meeting. Two endowed scholarships for athletic training students in honor of longtime Razorback trainers Dean Weber and the late Bill Ferrell were established through the athletics department.

Dr. Hunt has been married to David Hunt since 1973, and they have an adult son and daughter as well as a grandson.

JEFF LONG

VICE CHANCELLOR FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his fifth full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has guided the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics through a period of unprecedented transition and gained national attention for his leadership while revitalizing a tradition-rich athletics program encompassing 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes.

Long leads a comprehensive athletics program uniformly committed to the development of student-athletes academically, athletically and socially. A part of Chancellor G. David Gearhart's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community. In each of the past three years, Razorback Athletics has made a $1 million gift to support the university's academic mission. The department's total support of university and student programs and initiatives includes $1.9 million in direct funding of academic programs.

Long's leadership and unwavering commitment to the student-athletes and maintaining integrity within intercollegiate athletics has not gone unnoticed. In 2011-12, Long was named a finalist for the SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily Athletic Director of the Year. In the spring of 2012, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime chairman Fred W. Smith made a gift of more than $1.25 million to the program in recognition of Long's leadership of Razorback Athletics.

In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured 11 conference championships and advanced to 68 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football, while drawing more than a million fans annually to campus to cheer on the Razorbacks. In 2011-12, Arkansas finished No. 20 in the Learfield Sports Directors Cup, a year-long competition ranking the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletic programs, the fourth time in the past five years the Razorbacks have finished in the nation's top 25.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a student-athlete grade point average of 3.07 in 2011-12. It marked the fourth consecutive year Razorback student-athletes posted a GPA exceeding 3.0. Arkansas exceeds the national APR multi-year rate by more than 10 points in 18 sports and has seen a steady rise in graduation success rates.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority including the establishment of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference. In the community, Razorback student-athletes are more active than ever volunteering more than 5,000 hours of time for more than 100 agencies, organizations and schools.

One of the nation's most active athletic directors on Twitter, Long embraces the opportunity to interact with members of the Razorback Nation whether in person or through social media.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs into one combined athletic program. Long adeptly blended the men's and women's athletic departments into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

Long has also worked tirelessly to maintain long-time relationships and to forge new relationships for the benefit of the Razorback program including extending Arkansas' relationship with War Memorial Stadium and partnering with former Razorback Jerry Jones to develop the Southwest Classic, a football series with Texas A&M played at the spectacular Cowboys Stadium.

Under Long's leadership, the program has fortified its financial standing ensuring more support for the development of student-athletes. According to the Wall Street Journal, Arkansas is one of only 22 self-sustaining Division I-A athletic programs in the nation. As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guarantees the Razorback program $73 million during the course of the decade-long agreement. Long also negotiated an extensive all sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. that will outfit all 19 Razorback sports programs through the 2014-15 season. In December 2011, Forbes Magazine estimated the value of the Razorback Football program at $89 million, eighth in the nation. Arkansas saw the largest increase (59%) from the previous rankings released in 2009.

In 2010, Long moved to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all sports program. The athletic department launched the "Answer the Call" campaign through the Razorback Foundation which resulted in more than 2,600 new members and helped generate more than $6.5 million in additional support for Razorback student-athletes.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a comprehensive plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Unveiled in October 2011, the Razorback Athletic Facilities Master Plan provided a vision and the road map for $320 million of facility renovations and additions that will help all 19 Razorback sports remain competitive in the Southeastern Conference and nationally over the next 30 years. The first major project from the master plan, the football center, is currently being constructed with a targeted completion date in 2013.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in five of the six Bowl Championship Series conferences – the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and SEC – gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association. Long currently serves on the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure the Panthers' were selected as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

BEV LEWIS
ASSOCIATE VICE CHANCELLOR &
EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE AD

Bev Lewis has served the University of Arkansas and its Razorback athletic programs for more than three decades.

The former women's athletic director prior to the department merger in 2007-08, Lewis now serves as the associate vice chancellor and executive associate athletic director for administration and sport programs. Lewis is also the coordinator of a five-member sport administrator group that provides day-to-day administrative support for each of Arkansas' 19 sports. Lewis is the sport administrator for men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, softball and volleyball. In addition, Lewis is the primary administrator working with the Razorbacks' strength and conditioning units and athletic training and sports medicine program as well as overseeing media relations. She also serves as a liaison to the faculty senate and the faculty athletic committee, and coordinates the department's NCAA certification, Title IX compliance and strategic planning. Lewis was elected to the 2011-12 Southeastern Conference Executive Committee assisting the league office in a leadership role.

The largest portion of her service to the university was her 19-year tenure as the Director of Women's Athletics. As a result of her strong emphasis on the classroom, Razorback female student-athletes received numerous academic honors including national academic All-American of the year, team academic national titles and the university's first two SEC/H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Her leadership was also a part of the success of the university's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. Lewis directed Women's Athletics to over $11.5 million in direct support for women's teams. During the campaign, Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' $6 million facility be named the Bev Lewis Center. In 1998, she was voted into the University Of Arkansas Hall Of Honor.

Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, first with the NCAA Championship Cabinet and recently on the NCAA Management Council. Prior to assuming the duties of AD, Lewis was women's cross country and track coach. Her Arkansas coaching milestones included the first women's squad to achieve a national ranking and the first conference championship team with the 1988 Southwest Conference Cross Country Championships.

Lewis earned her bachelor's degree from Central Michigan in 1979 and followed it with her master's from Purdue prior to her arrival at Arkansas in 1981. The former Bev Rouse is married to Harley Lewis.

MARK SCOBEY
ASSISTANT AD FOR TICKET SERVICES

Charged with the supervision of ticket operations for all University of Arkansas men's athletic department-related sporting events, Mark Scobey is in his 36nd season with the Razorbacks. He was promoted to Assistant AD for Ticket Services in August 2012.

During his tenure at the University of Arkansas, Scobey has assisted with ticket sales for a wide assortment of events on the Fayetteville campus, including SEC and NCAA hosted championship events in baseball, tennis and track. He has also been affiliated with 20 post-season football bowl games, the 1995, 2002 and 2006 SEC football championship games, and 23 post-season basketball tournament teams, including the 1978, 1990, 1994 and 1995 Final Four clubs.

In December 2002, Scobey worked with Paciolan Systems, Inc., as the project manager for a major software upgrade of the athletic department ticketing system. The addition of on-line ticket sales is now 35% of ticket volume and has given the ticket office staff more time for customer service.

Scobey joined the UA athletic staff in 1977 as an assistant athletic ticket manager and became ticket manager in 1983.

A native of Warren, Ark., Scobey lives in historic Eureka Springs.

Dave England
HEAD BASKETBALL
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dave England is in his 29th season as the head athletic trainer for the men's basketball team while also working with baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and Razorback spirit squads.

In his 33rd full year and his 30th season as a member of the Arkansas athletic training staff, England has been responsible for basketball since the 1983-84 season.

In 2004, he received the District 6 Athletic Trainer Service Award from the National Athletic Trainers Association. He was honored in 2000 as the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association Trainer of the Year.

England also worked at Arkansas as a student and graduate assistant athletic trainer. He returned to Fayetteville following a stint in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization.

A 1980 graduate of Arkansas with a bachelor's of science degree in education, England worked the 1976 Cotton Bowl and 1978 Orange Bowl football games as a student athletic trainer. He was a graduate assistant for Dean Weber in 1980-81 and went with the Hogs to the 1980 Hall of Fame Bowl. He also worked with baseball as a student and graduate assistant.

He then accepted an offer to work with the Cardinals. After spending some time in the lower levels of the organization, he worked his way up to the position of head trainer for the Cardinals' Double-A team in Little Rock. He returned to Arkansas in January 1984 as an assistant and was promoted to head athletic trainer in 1989.

In working with Razorback basketball, England has been to 16 NCAA tournaments and two NITs. He's made three trips to the Final Four and worked with the 1994 NCAA champions and the 1995 national runner-up. He returned to the College World Series with the baseball Hogs in 1985 and 1987. While working with football he has been to the Liberty and Cotton bowls twice, and the Orange, Holiday and Hall of Fame bowls.

One of the founding members of the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association in 1987, England was inducted into the AATA Hall of Fame in 1999.

He has two daughters, Jennifer (29), and Alyson (20), and a granddaughter, Ellie (2). He is married to the former Heather Cullum, who is the Director of Guest Services for the Athletic Department.

Phil Pierce
ASSOCIATE MEDIA RELATIONS
DIRECTOR

Phil Pierce joined the University of Arkansas Athletic Department in the fall of 1996 and over the past 16 years has been a part of many Razorback sports and memorable moments. Currently he is the media relations contact for the men's basketball and men's golf teams while also overseeing the production of Razorback Game Day, Arkansas' official men's basketball game day program.

Joining the men's athletics department in 1996 as an intern, Pierce worked with four NCAA Championship track and field teams as well as the cross country and golf programs. Hired as an assistant communications director for women's athletics in January of 1998, Pierce worked primarily with the women's cross country/track and soccer programs, but also covered the media relations aspects for the swimming & diving and tennis teams at various points.

Following the blending of the Arkansas athletic departments, Pierce took over the media relations responsibilities for the baseball team and assisted with football. In the fall of 2009, he moved to the men's basketball and golf programs.

During Pierce's 16 years with the Razorbacks he has overseen the media responsibilities of four NCAA Championship track teams, 17 Southeastern Conference cross country and track titles, a College World Series run and was the media coordinator for eight NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships. In addition he helped build Arkansas men's athletics first web site and was a part of nine years of Razorback soccer radio broadcasts.

A 1996 graduate of Baldwin-Wallace (Ohio) University, Pierce received a Bachelor's degree in sports management and business administration. While at Baldwin-Wallace he worked in the sports information office for three years and with all of the Yellow Jackets 20 varsity sports. A native of Darien, Conn., Pierce, his wife, Stephanie, and son Matthew, reside in Fayetteville.

Robert Kisabeth
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Joining Arkansas after a four-year stint with the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League, Robert Kisabeth is in his second year with the Razorbacks.

In his duties with the Razorbacks, Kisabeth has assumed the equipment duties for the men's and women's basketball, track and field and cross country teams. He is tasked with placing all equipment orders, keeping inventory and supervising the student-managers program. Kisabeth has also overseen the reorganization of the equipment room at Bud Walton Arena including the installation of state-of-the-art equipment.

A native of Tiffin, Ohio, Kisabeth started down his career path while earning his undergraduate degree at Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio. While with the Falcons, he worked with several Olympic sports as well as the football team, fitting student-athletes, assisting with team budgets, meeting with sales representatives and supervising student managers.

During the summer of his junior year, Kisabeth spent time with the Browns, eventually joining the staff upon his graduation in 2009. He worked specifically with the team's quarterbacks during practice sessions while also handling the preparation, packing and logistics of equipment for travel, repairing helmets and hardware, preparing footballs for games, practice and charity events, and sustained records using state-of-the-art inventory software.

Kisabeth graduated Magna Cum Laude with a degree in education/sports management marketing focus with a marketing minor in May 2009 from Bowling Green State University.

Jean Nail
RAZORBACK SPIRIT SQUADS

Jean Nail is in her 29th year as spirit group coordinator for the Razorbacks. She coordinates the selection and performance schedule of the Razorback Cheerleaders, Pom Squads, RBI Girls and mascots.

As Director of Spirit Squads and the Razorback Mascots, Nail and her staff Craig Jimenez (cheer coach) and Brooke Bailey (dance coach) pace their student spirit leaders through daily practices in preparation for the Razorback football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, volleyball, gymnastics and tennis events. The groups also appear at various university functions and many community service events throughout the year. They are active in summer camp seminars and national competitions. Under Nail and her staff the squads have won numerous competitive awards.

Nail is married to Mike Nail who retired in 2010 after 29 years as the play-by-play "Voice of the Basketball Razorbacks". Nail received her bachelors in 1986 and masters in 1987 in education from the University of Arkansas.

Jean and Mike have two daughters, Michelle (Mrs. Doug) Kehn and Elsa Nail, and are the proud grandparents of John Michael and Aubrey Anne Kehn.

Felecia Saine
DIRECTOR OF STUDENT-ATHLETE
ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND ACHIEVEMENT

In her third year working with the Arkansas basketball team, Felecia Saine is no stranger to Razorback athletics as she begins her second stint at Arkansas, this time as the Director of Student-Athlete

Academic Support and Achievement. Saine joins the Razorbacks after six-plus-years as the Assistant to the Director of Athletics for Academics at Georgetown University where she worked with the Hoya men's basketball team.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Saine earned a bachelor's degree in business administration, finance from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock before receiving her Masters of Education, Sport Management from the Fayetteville campus in 1998. While earning her graduate degree, Saine worked with the Razorback football team as an academic counselor until 2002 when she took on the role of Academic Coordinator for Men's Basketball with the Razorbacks until her departure for Georgetown in 2004.

An active participant in national organizations and forums, Saine is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics and the Black Coaches Association.

Josh Howell
ASSISTANT MARKETING DIRECTOR

Josh Howell joined the University of Arkansas Athletic Department marketing staff in the fall of 2010.

A former marketing associate at Wichita State, Howell will be handling all marketing duties for men's basketball, softball, tailgating in The Gardens and will oversee group tickets for the Razorbacks.

Howell is a 2006 graduate of Wichita State. He worked with the Wichita Wranglers AA baseball team before becoming a marketing associate with the University of Arizona Athletics Department.

While at Arizona, Howell oversaw all aspects of marketing for volleyball and baseball, designed advertisements, flyers and website materials and served as the game day event manager for sponsor and VIP tailgating events.

While working at Arizona, Howell also worked as the director of sales and marketing for Next Level Lineup Cards in Tustin, Calif. He had relationships with more than 150 clients and produced more than $42,000 in sales in two years.

Howell returned to Wichita State in August 2009 and earned his Masters degree in Sport Management. In his second stint with the Shockers, Howell assisted in the game day operations of men's basketball including executing promotions and overseeing a staff of interns.

He also worked with volleyball and baseball writing game scripts, coordinating in-game presentations and working with sponsors. Howell was responsible for several new promotions as well while helping with season and group ticket sales.

Josh is married to Lori Howell from Wichita, Kansas. They have one daughter named Keira.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Recognizing the difficulty of balancing the demands of athletic competition at the highest level and completion of the rigorous academic standards of a Carnegie research-level university, the Razorback Athletic Department provides support services through both facilities and personnel to guide Arkansas student-athletes to their ultimate goal: University of Arkansas diploma.

The key components of the Center for Student-Athlete Success (CSAS) are personal development, career development, academic tutoring, study hall facilities, class attendance monitoring and incentive awards recognizing academic achievement.

BOGLE ACADEMIC CENTER

There is no higher priority for the University of Arkansas Athletic Department than the academic progress of its scholar-athletes. Thanks to the generous gift of Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the home of the Razorback Athletic Department's Student-Athlete Academic Support and Achievement program is the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center. The 15,000-square foot Bogle Academic Center is located in the east side of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Under the overall direction of Senior Associate Athletic Director Jon Fagg, the Bogle Academic Center houses the Arkansas Razorbacks Academic Support Program, the Razorback Student-Athlete Development Office and the Career Development Program.

Associate Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Services Eric A. Wood oversees the staff of professionals dedicated to directing student-athletes to reach their personal academic goals, and to do so in ways that balance their academic, athletic and personal lives.

STUDY HALL AND TUTORS

A quiet setting for uninterrupted study, the Bogle Academic Center provides three types of study hall space. The computer lab has more than 30 stations for individual computer-based study. An open study hall is available for group or individual study, and monitored by staff. There are 17 individual study carrels that provide space for tutors to meet with student-athletes for individual instruction in specific subjects.

Each Razorback team sets its own criteria for study hall attendance. The use of tutors is a key element for academic success, allowing for individualized assistance and for reaching academic excellence in advanced subjects.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

The mission of the Student-Athlete Development Office is to contribute to the personal growth and character development of Razorback student-athletes through holistic programming for success in life.

The Student-Athlete Development Office continues to expand its commitment to the offerings and opportunities in the following areas:

- * Academic Excellence
- * Athletic Excellence
- * Career Development and Graduate School Preparation
- * Community Service
- * Personal Development
- * Health and Wellness
- * Leadership and Character Development
- * Financial Planning

Our Goals

- * Provide the resources to support the academic progress toward intellectual development and graduation for our student-athletes.
- * Provide career development programs that will enable our student-athletes to develop and pursue career and life goals.
- * Engage our student-athletes in experiences involving the university, local, state, national, and global communities through services.
- * Support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle, decision-making skills, encouraging emotional well-being, and personal growth for our student-athletes.
- * Invest in the personal development of our student-athletes through various programs that enable them to be successful in the classroom, the community, and in their athletic activities.

The Student-Athlete Development Office coordinated more than 6,000 hours dedicated to service in Northwest Arkansas and worldwide. Razorback student-athletes worked with more than 100 agencies giving of their time and energy last season.

Razorback student-athletes took advantage of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the SEC in 2010-11 as well. Student-athletes, coaches and staff were shown steps to become better leaders on their teams, in the classroom, in the workplace and in life.

Finally, student-athletes participated in Hogs in Transition, a program designed to help Razorbacks make the move to life after college and athletics. Student-athletes took part in career fairs, corporate office visits and interview training.

New for 2011-12 was the debut of the Hogspy awards, modeled after the ESPY's, to recognize academic and athletic achievements as well as leadership and community service.

COMPLIANCE

The University of Arkansas Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is proud to have your interest and support in the Razorbacks. The Razorback Athletics Compliance Office works hard to educate its student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters on the rules and regulations mandated by the Southeastern Conference and the NCAA.

SEC and NCAA rules and regulations can be complex, and every situation is different. The Razorback Compliance Office makes every effort to disseminate information, and they encourage student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters to contact them if there are questions.

The Razorback Athletics Department is proud of your support of the Razorbacks, but we caution you that inadvertent actions by our fans may jeopardize the department, current student-athletes or potential student-athletes.

MARKETING

The excitement and support of the University of Arkansas athletic teams is at an all-time high. Recently, single-game attendance records have been set for many sports including football, baseball, gymnastics, soccer and soccer. Bud Walton Arena has also seen an insur-
gence of fans with Mike Anderson's return to Fayetteville with his "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball" recapturing the spirit of Razorback fans.

State-of-the-art facilities, the nation's best coaches and players and the greatest fans in college athletics come together for some of the most exciting events that take place in the state of Arkansas. The Razorback marketing staff is a big part of the behind-the-scenes success of all 19 teams at the university. They assist in the branding of our image, getting information to our fans and helping to fill our venues.

Their work is evident in our stadiums, on the videoboard and during pre-event, halftime and post-events. They work with sponsors, maintain the department's social media presence and welcome new fans with creative ticket and suite packages. The Razorback Marketing Office also handles the University's trademark licensing program ensuring fans get the Razorback quality they have come to expect.

SPIRIT SQUAD

Along with being a Razorback, serving as a Razorback Spirit Squad member has a long tradition at the University of Arkansas. Currently, the Razorbacks have two co-ed cheer squads - Arkansas Cheer and Razorback Cheer that inspire the crowds at all home and away football games, mens and womens basketball games, volleyball matches, gymnastics meets and many other pep rallies and on-campus and NWA community events.

Arkansas also has two dance teams, Arkansas Pom and Razorback Pom, that perform at all home football games, mens and womens basketball games as well as pep rallies and on-campus and community events. The squads also perform at baseball games as the RBI Girls. Both the cheer and dance teams compete nationally at the Universal Cheer and Dance team competitions in Orlando in January.

Arkansas has a team of uniformed mascots, led by the original Big Red, the Fighting Razorback. Sue E. joined the family along with kid-sized Pork Chop in the late 1990s. Boss Hog is a 9-foot-tall inflatable mascot and Ribby, the baseball mascot complete the mascot team. They can be found at all Razorback games and events.

Jean Nail serves as the director of the spirit squad program and is assisted by Kraig Jimenez, cheer coach and Brooke Bailey, dance coach. For more information on the cheer, pom and mascots and tryouts, go to the Spirit Squad section of ArkansasRazorbacks.com.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Arkansas Sports Medicine staff is committed to provide each Razorback student-athlete with state-of-the-art medical care. The goal of our sports medicine program is to assist every student-athlete in staying healthy and injury free. The athletic training staff, in conjunction with our team physicians, will coordinate the delivery of professional and comprehensive preventative, treatment, rehabilitation, and counseling services.

Performing the vital role of supporting the student-athletes at the University of Arkansas with financial support, the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is in its fourth decade of working alongside the athletic department to advance Razorback athletics.

The goal of the foundation is ensuring that the more than 460 student-athletes at Arkansas have the equipment, facilities, and overall support to achieve the goals of graduation and athletic achievement.

Over the past year, with the support of our dedicated members, the Razorback Foundation has experienced a year of dynamic growth in multiple areas. Our membership and annual fund dollars raised is at an all-time high and it can be directly attributed to the passion and commitment of those who love the Razorbacks. Additionally, the Razorback Foundation saw another increase in Capital gifts, and the result of this generosity is the construction of a new Football Center, which is scheduled for completion in 2013.

The Foundation, officially incorporated and relocated off campus in 1988, has helped provide financial aid for the construction of the Broyles Athletic Center (football and administrative offices), Charlie Baum Stadium at George Cole Field (baseball), John McDonnell Field (outdoor track and field), Randal Tyson Track Center (indoor track and field), Dills Indoor Tennis Center, the George M. Billingsley Tennis Center (outdoor), Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (football) and Bogle Park (women's softball). In the future, as new facilities are planned and others enhanced, we will again need the support of all those who have a desire for the University of Arkansas to provide the very best for our student-athletes.

Mission Statement

The stated mission of the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is to support the athletic endeavors of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks.

The Foundation assists our student-athletes by providing for scholarships, facilities and various programs that enable them to realize their dreams of achieving a quality college education while participating in athletics on a nationally competitive level.

Membership Levels

The opportunity to participate in the annual fund giving to the Razorback Foundation, Inc., has several levels, beginning at the $50 Razorback level and continuing up to Broyles-Matthews Scholarship Platinum ($20,000 or more). For more information about levels of giving and benefits, please visit the foundation's website at RazorbackFoundation.com.
