Wild Band of Razorbacks
After returning from a historic victory over LSU in Memphis in 1909, the University of Arkansas football team was greeted by a large crowd of fans at the Fayetteville train station. Coach Hugo Bezdek said the team played "like a wild band of Razorback hogs." The next year the student body voted to change the official nickname from the Cardinals to the Razorbacks, giving birth to one of the most unique and recognizable mascots in the country.

HEAD COACH CHAD MORRIS

Chad Morris begins his second year as the 33rd head football coach at the University of Arkansas.

Morris began the second turnaround of his career in his first season with the Razorbacks in 2018. The transition to Morris' system showed the most improvement on the defensive side of the ball in year one. The defense improved in points allowed, rushing defense, total defense and third down conversions from the 2017 season. De'Jon Harris led the Hogs and the Southeastern Conference during the regular season with 118 tackles to become the first Razorback since Martrell Spaight in 2014. Harris' big season earned him All-SEC honors from the Associated Press following the season. The defense also produced two NFL Draft picks in Dre Greenlaw (5th round, San Francisco) and Armon Watts (6th round, Minnesota Vikings).

On the offensive side of the ball, Rakeem Boyd emerged as a steady force in the backfield rushing for a team-high 734 yards. Boyd rebounded from a slow start to his season to run for 423 yards during a four-game stretch in the middle of the year, including three 100-yard games. One of those 100-yard efforts came against Alabama to make Boyd the first Arkansas RB to eclipse 100 yards against the Crimson Tide since Darren McFadden ran for 195 yards in 2007. Cheyenne O'Grady emerged to lead a steady group of tight ends as the Razorbacks were among the nation's leaders in targeting the tight end. O'Grady finished the season leading the Hogs with six touchdowns with 400 yards receiving on a team-high 30 catches. Hjalte Froholdt was Arkansas' rock up front, starting all 12 games at center or guard. He earned All-SEC recognition from the AP prior to being the first Razorback selected in the NFL Draft when New England tabbed him in the fourth round.

Morris and his staff have been relentless recruiters since arriving on the Hill and have started to reap the benefits, reeling in one of the best signing classes in school history in the staff's first full year of recruiting. The 25-man class ranked 23rd in the nation according to the 247Sports composite on the strength of 11 four-star athletes – the most ever in an Arkansas signing class. The Razorbacks were the only team in the country to sign four, four-star wide receivers. Morris and the staff have also reestablished recruiting lines in the state of Texas with six signees coming from the Lone Star State. Morris continued to be a draw to quarterbacks, adding transfer QBs Ben Hicks (SMU) and Nick Starkel (Texas A&M) to the roster with Hicks leading Arkansas through spring practice. Hicks starred for Morris for two seasons with the Mustangs and left SMU as the school's all-time leader in passing yards (9,081), total offense (8,977), TD passes (71), TDs responsible for (74), completions (718) and 300-yard games (12). Starkel comes to Fayetteville with SEC experience having played in 12 games for the Aggies over two seasons, including five starts as a freshman in 2017.

SMU TURNAROUND

During his three seasons at SMU (2015-17), Morris used his Texas recruiting roots and offensive prowess to take the Mustangs from a 1-11 campaign in 2013 before he took over to the program's first bowl bid since 2012 with a 7-5 mark in 2017.

Morris' offensive scheme was exactly what SMU needed, as it increased the team's scoring output by 16.7 points per game in his first season – the second-largest increase in the nation in 2015. Even more impressive, Morris inherited an offense that ranked last (128th) in the FBS in scoring in 2014 (11.8) and turned it into the nation's eighth-highest scoring offense (40.1) in 2017.

The 2017 SMU offense marked the fourth time and third different program that Morris has either been the head coach or offensive coordinator of that has finished in the top 10 in the FBS in scoring average at more than 40 points per game. The Mustangs are one of just two FBS teams that featured a 3,000-yard passer, 1000-yard rusher and multiple 1,000-yard receivers in 2017.

His final SMU squad produced a pair of NFL wide receivers in Courtland Sutton (Denver) and Trey Quinn (Washington). Sutton was picked in the second round and Quinn was Mr. Irrelevant as the final pick of the 2018 NFL Draft. Both Sutton and Quinn saw the field in their rookie seasons with Sutton ranking second on the Broncos' roster with 42 catches and 704 yards with his four scores equaling the team lead.

CLEMSON OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

Morris' impact during his four years at Clemson as offensive coordinator helped result in a 41-11 record, the 2011 ACC Championship and four bowl berths, including two BCS Orange Bowl appearances. Under Morris' scheme, the Tigers established 127 offensive records (89 individual/38 team) and posted the top three scoring seasons in school history, as well as four of the top five passing seasons at Clemson.

The Clemson offense in its second season under Morris with ACC Player of the Year Tajh Boyd at quarterback set school records for total yards per game (512.7) and points per game (41.0), ranking sixth in the nation in scoring and ninth in the nation in total offense. The 2013 squad backed up those numbers with 508.5 yards and 40.2 points per game, figures that ranked ninth and eighth nationally.

Morris' record-setting offense in 2012 and 2013 marked the first time in ACC history that an active member of the conference had averaged more than 40 points per game in back-to-back seasons. Clemson was also one of just two FBS schools with a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver every year from 2011-13.

For his work, Morris was named AFCA National Assistant Coach of the Year and one of five finalists for National Offensive Coordinator of the Year by 247Sports.com in 2013, and the National Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Rivals.com in 2011.

Morris' offensive brilliance also helped attract and develop some of the best offensive players in Clemson history into current NFL stars. From the 2012 NFL Draft to 2015 NFL Draft, Morris saw seven of his offensive players drafted, including four wide receivers, tied for the most from any school over that span. Included in the quartet of wide receivers drafted were first round picks DeAndre Hopkins (Houston Texans) and Sammy Watkins (Los Angeles Rams). Morris also recruited 2015 All-Americans Deshaun Watson and Shaq Lawson, who both went on to be first round NFL draft picks.

INSTANT IMPACT

After a legendary 16 years as a head coach on the Texas prep level, Morris' collegiate debut came as the associate head coach/offensive coordinator at Tulsa in 2010. In his one season as offensive coordinator working specifically with the quarterbacks, Morris helped the Golden Hurricane average 41.4 points per game, good for sixth nationally, and finish with seven straight wins for a 10-3 record following a 5-7 mark in 2009. Tulsa scored 40 or more points seven times, including 50+ in four games, and finished as one of five FBS teams with over 30 rushing and 30 passing touchdowns.

TEXAS LEGEND

A native of Dallas, Morris became a legend in the state of Texas during his 16 years as a head coach at the high school level, posting a 169-38 record overall and winning back-to-back undefeated state championships in his final two seasons at Lake Travis High School. Over his 16 seasons, Morris led six of his teams to the Texas State Championship game, highlighted by three titles, and he earned Coach of the Year honors 11 times.

Morris earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics with a minor in statistics from Texas A&M University in 1992. He and his wife, Paula, have two children, daughter Mackenzie – who is enrolled in graduate school at Arkansas – and son Chandler.

JOHN CHAVIS

Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers
Second Season at Arkansas

John Chavis begins his second season over the Arkansas defense in 2019, his 25th as a defensive coordinator in the SEC, spending time at Tennessee (1995-2008), LSU (2009-14) and Texas A&M (2015-17) before arriving in Fayetteville.

The 2011 winner of the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in college football, Chavis has been a part of 21 bowl games, 12 10-win seasons and appeared in the SEC Championship game six times over his 24 years as a defensive coordinator in the SEC.

His first season at Arkansas produced two NFL Draft picks and an All-SEC honoree, as well as an improvement in several defensive categories from the season before. Fayetteville product Dre Greenlaw spent the entirety of the 2018 campaign atop the active career tackle leaderboard in the SEC, wrapping up his time at Arkansas with 320 stops and a selection by the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL Draft. Chavis also helped turn Armon Watts, who entered the year with 11 combined tackles over three years, into a sixth round pick in the draft by the Minnesota Vikings after a 42-tackle, seven-sack season in 2018. Juniors De'Jon Harris and McTelvin Agim also flourished under Chavis last year, as Harris led the conference in total tackles with 118 and Agim paced the squad with 10.0 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles.

Chavis, who has 29 years of experience in the rugged SEC, has produced a defense that has ranked among the top four in the league in total defense 15 times during his 24 seasons as a coordinator.

During his time at Texas A&M as associate head coach and defensive coordinator, the Aggies were one of five FBS programs (Alabama, Clemson, Penn State & Washington) to rank in the top 25 in sacks each season from 2015-17, highlighted by an SEC-best 43 in 2017. A key contributor to those sack totals was Myles Garrett, who led the SEC in sacks in 2015, and was a unanimous first-team All-American in 2016 en route to being the No. 1 overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Prior to his three seasons at Texas A&M, Chavis was a key piece to a successful six-year run at LSU that saw the Tiger defense finish in the top 15 nationally in total defense five times (2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014). During Chavis' tenure in Baton Rouge, the Tigers forced 152 turnovers and accounted for 14 touchdowns and two safeties. In 79 total games, Chavis' defenses held the opponent under 100 yards rushing 32 times.

LSU had its best year under Chavis in 2011, as the Tigers capped the year ranked in the top five in the nation in four categories including total defense (No. 2 at 261.5), scoring defense (No. 2 at 11.29), pass efficiency defense (No. 3 with 95.58 rating) and rushing defense (No. 5 at 90.1). LSU also ranked No. 8 nationally in pass defense with 171.43 yards allowed per game.

LSU's 2011 defense featured a young and explosive defensive front along with arguably the nation's top secondary with two national award winners in Tyrann Mathieu and Morris Claiborne. LSU allowed only six first-half touchdowns, including just two in the first quarter all season, as the Tigers rode their dominant defense's style of play to a 13-0 regular season mark, the SEC title and a spot in the BCS National Championship Game.

In both 2010 and 2011, Chavis and the Tigers defense featured the Thorpe Award winner (nation's top defensive back) in Patrick Peterson in 2010 and Claiborne in 2011, as well as the Bednarik Award winner (nation's top defender) in Peterson and Mathieu in 2011. LSU was also home to the SEC Defensive Player of the Year in Peterson (2010), Mathieu (2011 by AP) and Claiborne (2011 by Coaches).

Over Chavis' six years at LSU, the Tigers and Alabama were the only two SEC programs to rank in the league's top four in scoring defense every year from 2009-14. LSU finished in the top 12 nationally in scoring defense five of six years under Chavis, highlighted by No. 2 and

No. 4 in 2011 and 2014, respectively. The Tigers led the SEC in passing defense twice (2010, 2014) in his six years while they led the league in total defense his final season in 2014.

Prior to his arrival in Baton Rouge in 2009, Chavis spent 14 seasons as the defensive coordinator at Tennessee, helping the Vols win at least nine games in a season 11 times. The Vols reached the 10-win mark eight times during his time as defensive coordinator, which included a school-record 13 victories during their national championship season in 1998. The Vols had 11 wins in 1995, 1997 and 2001, and they won 10 games in 1996, 2003, 2004 and 2007.

With Chavis as the defensive coordinator, Tennessee made five appearances in the SEC Championship game, winning the league title in 1997 and 1998, and it was invited to three BCS bowl games.

Behind a recruiting belief that there is no substitute for speed and an aggressive defensive philosophy, Chavis has coached and mentored 72 NFL Draft picks, including 15 first rounders, during his time as a defensive coordinator in the SEC.

Chavis has seen one of his defensive standouts taken in 23 straight NFL Drafts as a defensive coordinator and 27 consecutive years dating back to his time as the defensive line/linebackers coach at Tennessee. Out of the 72 players selected, 42 have been taken in the top three rounds.

Over a run of eight NFL Drafts from 2006-13, Chavis saw eight players taken in the first round with at least one going in seven of them. In 2013, LSU became the first school in NFL Draft history to have six defensive players selected during the first three rounds. LSU finished with eight defenders selected in the 2013 NFL Draft, including the second straight year with a pair of first rounders.

In all, Chavis has coached 83 players taken in the NFL Draft during his time as a defensive coordinator or from his position room as an assistant coach. Over his 30 years in the SEC, he has seen a player taken in 28 of a possible 29 drafts.

Chavis, who is originally from Dillon, South Carolina, is married to the former Diane Crisp. They are the parents of sons, John and Jason. He graduated from Tennessee in 1978, as a three-year letterwinner at middle guard for head coach Johnny Majors.

JOE CRADDOCK

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks
Second Season at Arkansas

Joe Craddock is in his second season as the program's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas.

His first season on the Hill featured multiple players with 100-yard rushing games in Rakeem Boyd (3) and Devwah Whaley (1), as all three of Boyd's came during SEC play. Arkansas also featured one of the most consistent tight end units in the league, with the Razorbacks ranking second in the country in TE touchdowns and fourth in the nation in TE first downs. A big reason for their success was because of the unit blocking for them, led by fifth-round NFL Draft pick Hjalte Froholdt, who completed a second-straight season without allowing a sack in 2018.

This past spring, Craddock was reunited with quarterback Ben Hicks, who joined the Razorbacks as a graduate transfer from SMU. With the Mustangs, Hicks was the starting QB under Craddock for two seasons and the starter in his final season in Dallas in 2018 when he set numerous SMU passing records including career passing yards (9,081), total offense (8,977), TD passes (71), TDs responsible for (74), completions (718) and 300-yard games (12). Hicks led the Razorbacks' offense during spring drills, starting the spring game. Arkansas also added Texas A&M transfer Nick Starkel this summer and incoming four-star quarterback KJ Jefferson.

Craddock came to Fayetteville after spending three seasons (2015-17) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at SMU. Prior to SMU, he coached at Clemson for three seasons as an offensive graduate assistant (2013-14) and a player development coach (2012).

Over his three seasons with the Mustangs, Craddock's offense produced a 3,000-yard passer (Ben Hicks, 2017), two 1,000-yard rushers (Xavier Jones, 2017; Braeden West, 2016), and two 1,000-yard receivers (Courtland Sutton, 2017 and 2016; Trey Quinn, 2017).

Sutton, the 40th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft by Denver, posted career receiving totals of 3,152 yards and 31 touchdowns on 189 receptions in four seasons at SMU. He averaged 16.4 yards per catch in each of his last two seasons and finished third on the Mustangs' all-time receiving list.

During the 2017 regular season, Craddock's unit ranked No. 8 in the FBS in scoring offense (40.2 points), No. 13 in total offense (493.8 yards) and No. 16 in passing yards (308 yards) and was one of just two in the country that featured a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and multiple 1,000-yard receivers in All-Americans Sutton and Quinn.

Two of the most dynamic receivers in college football, Sutton and Quinn were the only pair of teammates to rank in the top 10 in touchdown receptions. Quinn finished the year with 13 TD catches, while Sutton had 12. The duo also combined for 12 100-yard receiving games with six apiece.

A Biletnikoff Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose semifinalist, Quinn led the nation in receptions with 114 and ranked inside the top 15 nationally in receiving touchdowns (No. 4, 13), receiving yards per game (No. 10, 95.1) and receiving yards (No. 11, 1,236). He turned in two of the three top reception performances in the FBS during the regular season with 17 catches twice and became the only player this century to register 15-plus catches in three straight games.

Hicks finished his sophomore season with 3,569 passing yards (No. 18 in FBS) and 33 touchdown passes (No. 9 in FBS).

In 2016, SMU had a 1,000-yard rusher (West, 1,036) and 1,000-yard receiver (Sutton, 1,246) for the first time since 2011 and three players with at least 1,000 all-purpose yards for the first time since 2011 (Sutton, West, James Proche). As a freshman, Hicks threw for 2,930 yards, third-best among all freshmen and eighth-best in a season at SMU.

In Craddock's first year at SMU, the Mustangs increased their scoring output by 16.7 points per game – the second-largest increase in the nation in 2015. He also helped develop two of the nation's top freshmen in Sutton and Jones. Sutton was named a Freshman All-American in 2015 after ranking No. 1 among freshmen with nine touchdown catches.

During his time at Clemson, Craddock, alongside Morris who was offensive coordinator, aided in the development of quarterback Deshaun Watson. In 2014, the Tigers' offense averaged 448.2 yards of total offense per game, ranked No. 21 in scoring offense (35.4) and was one of just 14 teams in the FBS to average both 200 yards rushing and passing per game.

Prior to his collegiate coaching career, Craddock was the offensive coordinator at Briarwood Christian School in Birmingham, Alabama, during the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Briarwood Christian went 25-4 during Craddock's tenure and finished as the state runner-up in 2010.

Following the 2011 season, he was hired as an offensive player development coach at Clemson by coach Dabo Swinney. After the 2012 season, Craddock was given on-field graduate assistant duties working with the quarterbacks, a role he held until December 2014.

Craddock played at Middle Tennessee from 2004-08 and was a team captain his senior year. He also played baseball for the Blue Raiders in 2008.

A native of Chelsea, Alabama, Craddock earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts at Middle Tennessee in 2008. He and his wife, Abby, have a daughter, Charlie, and a son, Cain.

Associate Head Coach / Running Backs
Second Season at Arkansas

Jeff Traylor enters his second season as the associate head coach and running backs coach for the Razorbacks.

His running backs corps racked up 1,721 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2018, led by sophomore-transfer Rakeem Boyd. The Houston native rushed for over 100 yards in three different SEC games, including a season-best 113 against Vanderbilt, making him the 26th Razorback to rush for 100-plus yards three or more times in a season. Boyd's steady improvement during the 2019 season was obvious as he became the team's starting running back in the fifth week of the season against Texas A&M and started the final seven games. His best stretch of the season came in four straight games against Alabama, Ole Miss, Tulsa and Vanderbilt as he ran for 100-plus yards in three games and totaled 423 yards. His 102 yards against Alabama made him the first Arkansas running back to eclipse 100 yards against the Crimson Tide since Darren McFadden in 2007.

Arkansas returns nearly 82 percent of the team's 1,409 rushing yards from last season with Boyd, Devwah Whaley and Chase Hayden all back on the roster.

Traylor joined the Razorbacks from SMU, where he spent the 2017 season as associate head coach/running backs. He served as the Mustangs' interim coach following the Razorbacks' hiring of Morris in December 2017.

Before SMU, Traylor spent two seasons at the University of Texas (2015-16). In his first season in Austin, he coached tight ends and was named Scout.com's Big 12 Recruiter of the Year. In 2016, Traylor coached tight ends and wide receivers for the Longhorns, who boasted the nation's No. 16 ranked offense that averaged 491.3 yards per game.

During his time in Austin, Traylor recruited punter Michael Dickson, who went on to earn multiple All-America honors, win Big 12 Conference Special Teams Player of the Year in 2016 and 2017 as well as the 2017 Ray Guy Award.

Prior to Texas, Traylor spent 15 seasons (2000-14) as head coach at Gilmer High School in east Texas, where he had a 175-26 record with three state championships and two state runner-up finishes.

Traylor's unit totaled 2,223 yards rushing in 2017, highlighted by three players who rushed for 500-plus yards with sophomore Xavier Jones leading the group at 1,075. The Mustangs topped the 200-yard mark on the ground six times with a season-best 311 in a win against Arkansas State.

At Texas, Traylor recruited punter Michael Dickson, who earned All-Big 12 honorable mention honors in, while the tight ends unit caught 22 passes for over 300 yards and two touchdowns. Dickson averaged 41.3 yards per punt on 77 attempts.

Under Traylor, Gilmer High School reached the 10-win mark 11 times, while also recording seven 13-win campaigns. The Buckeyes posted 15 wins three times, all of which resulted in undefeated state championship years, including two 16-0 seasons in 2004 and 2014.

In 2014, the Gilmer offense put up the second-most points in the history of Texas high school football with 950 in 16 games for an average of 59.4 points per game and won the 4A Division 2 state title. The Buckeyes scored 60-plus points nine times, including two 80-point performances. Gilmer also averaged 536.1 total yards per game (8,577) behind a balanced 293.9 passing yards and 242.1 rushing yards per contest. The defense was equally dominant, allowing only 276 points (17.3) with five single-digit efforts and two shutouts, while recording 23 interceptions and forcing 17 fumbles. Gilmer closed out the season with a win over West Orange-Stark at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, and had eight different players earn 4A All-State honors from either the Associated Press or Texas Sports Writers Association.

Gilmer's two other state titles under Traylor both came in 3A in 2004 (Division 2) and 2009 (Division 1), before the change in class structure in Texas high school football moved the school into 4A. After 15 years on its sidelines, Gilmer renamed Buckeye stadium to Jeff Traylor Stadium in Traylor's honor.

Prior to Gilmer, Traylor was an assistant coach at Jacksonville High School (1993-99) in Texas, where he served as passing coordinator, defensive backs coach, receivers coach and special teams coordinator.

Traylor began his coaching career at Big Sandy High School in Texas, where he spent four years as an assistant coach from 1990-1993. After graduating from Gilmer High School in 1986, Traylor played football at Stephen F. Austin as a walk-on.

He and his wife, Cari, have three children: Jordan, Jacob and Jaci.

STEVE CALDWELL

Defensive Line
Second Season at Arkansas

Steve Caldwell returned to Fayetteville for the second time in his career in 2018 with more than 30 years of coaching experience, highlighted by a 1998 national championship alongside coach John Chavis at Tennessee, and 20 bowl game appearances.

In his first season back on the Hill, Caldwell's defensive line put together a strong campaign, led by senior Armon Watts. After coming into the year with a combined 11 tackles over three seasons, Watts busted out with a 42-tackle, seven-sack performance en route to a sixth-round draft selection by the Minnesota Vikings. Next to Watts in the trenches was junior McTelvin Agim, who racked up 45 stops, 10.0 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles, becoming the first Razorback with double-digit TFLs in a season since 2015.

Caldwell helped put together an impressive recruiting class on the defensive line with seven prospects inking with the Hogs. Three four-star athletes – Eric Gregory, Mataio Soli and Zach Williams – enrolled early and participated in spring practice.

From 2014-17, Caldwell served as associate head coach at Boise State while overseeing the defensive line room. Over his four seasons, Boise State accumulated a record of 42-12 with three bowl wins in four appearances while his defensive line unit helped hold 24 of 54 opponents to under 100 yards rushing over that span.

Caldwell mentored an All-Mountain West first team selection in each of his four seasons at Boise State, including defensive end Sam McCaskill and nose tackle David Moa in 2016. In 2017, Caldwell coached defensive lineman Curtis Weaver, who became the first freshman in Mountain West history to earn first-team honors as a freshman. Weaver led the conference and led all FBS freshmen with 11 sacks (T-6th nationally) en route to being named to the USA TODAY Freshman All-America team.

Boise State tied for the Mountain West lead in sacks in 2017 and was the only program to finish in the top four in the conference in sacks each of Caldwell's four seasons (2014-17). The Broncos also ranked second in the Mountain West in rushing defense in 2017, highlighted by holding an explosive Oregon offense to a season-low 47 yards on the ground during their 38-28 win over the Ducks in the Las Vegas Bowl. It also marked the fourth time in Caldwell's four years that Boise State finished in the top four in the conference in rushing defense.

Caldwell oversaw one of the most dominant defensive lines in the country in 2015, as his front four was the Mountain West standard and ranked fifth in FBS in rushing defense, allowing just 108.2 rushing yards per game. The stubbornness against the run helped the Bronco defensive unit rank second in the conference and 18th in the country in scoring defense with 20.2 points allowed per game.

Among the numerous standouts in the trenches in 2015 was junior Kamalei Correa, who racked up a team-best 11.0 sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss and was selected by the Baltimore Ravens with the 11th pick of the second round (42nd overall) in the 2016 NFL Draft. Correa finished his collegiate career with a Defensive MVP performance during a Poinsettia Bowl victory over Northern Illinois after recording 2.0 sacks and 2.5 tackles-for-loss.

Prior to Boise State, Caldwell rejoined his alma mater Arkansas State for the 2013 campaign. The Red Wolves captured a share of the Sun Belt Conference Championship in 2013, and won the 2013 GoDaddy Bowl. Under Caldwell's tutelage, Ryan Carrethers garnered first-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors, and went on to be selected by the San Diego Chargers in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Caldwell's first stint at Arkansas came from 2010-12, when he was in charge of the defensive line. During his time with the Razorbacks, Arkansas posted back-to-back 10-win seasons (2010-11) and played in the Sugar Bowl. Arkansas ranked 36th or better nationally in sacks in each of Caldwell's three seasons, highlighted by finishing the 2010 campaign tied for eighth nationally in sacks.

In 2011, Arkansas' defensive end group of Jake Bequette, Tenarius Wright, Trey Flowers and Chris Smith combined for 27 tackles for loss and 16 sacks. Bequette earned All-SEC first team honors after leading the SEC with 10 sacks, a mark that was good for ninth nationally. Bequette was named the Defensive MVP of the Cotton Bowl after two sacks and a forced fumble. He was later selected by the New England Patriots in the third round of the 2012 NFL Draft.

Caldwell spent the 1995-2008 seasons coaching defensive ends at Tennessee alongside Chavis. Over 14 seasons, the Volunteers won the 1998 National Championship, made 13 bowl appearances and finished 10 seasons ranked in the top 25.

Tennessee ranked in the top four among SEC schools in total defense 10 times and led the league in rushing defense three times. In 2008, the Vols ranked third nationally in total defense (263.5), and in 2005 the team's rushing defense ranked second nationally (82.5).

A dean's list student at Arkansas State, Caldwell played four years of football as a defensive end and linebacker. The start of his coaching career came over three seasons at his alma mater from 1978-80. Caldwell then moved on to Northwest Mississippi Community College, where he coached the offensive line for four seasons and was part of a national championship team in 1982.

Caldwell rejoined Arkansas State in 1985 as the linebackers coach and was with A-State through 1989. The school won back-to-back league championships (1985-86) and made three-straight trips to the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs from 1985-87.

He worked as a graduate assistant at Tennessee in 1990, before moving on to Pacific from 1991-93. He was the linebackers coach in 1991 and added co-defensive coordinator responsibilities in 1992 and 1993.

Caldwell and his wife, Leisa, have three children: Lauren, Lendell and Landon.

RON COOPER

Secondary
Second Season at Arkansas

Ron Cooper brings more than 30 years of coaching experience to Arkansas in his second season in Fayetteville, including 10 as a head coach on the collegiate level and four stints as a defensive coordinator. He also worked one year in the NFL as a defensive backs coach while making stops at four other SEC schools during his career.

In his first year with the Razorbacks in 2018 working with the team's safeties, Cooper helped two players in his unit rank in the top four on the team in tackles, as senior Santos Ramirez finished second with 87 stops and sophomore Kamren Curl ranked fourth with 53. In his final season, Ramirez started all 12 games and recorded 10-plus tackles in six games, including a season-best 12 against Alabama. Curl earned 11 starts in the back end of the defense at strong safety posting the second-most pass breakups on the team with five.

Cooper also oversaw the development of true freshmen Joe Foucha and Myles Mason, who earned more playing time as the season progressed. Foucha played in nine games and earned the start in the season finale at Missouri.

Cooper took over a youthful secondary room at Texas A&M, as seven different underclassmen, including four freshmen, started in the defensive backfield for the Aggies during the 2017 season. One of the mainstays in the lineup was junior Armani Watts, who finished the season with 87 tackles, four interceptions, two fumble recoveries and one touchdown en route to being named to Associated Press (AP) All-America third team and the All-SEC first team (Coaches & AP).

Prior to Texas A&M, Cooper served as the interim head coach at FIU for the final eight games of the 2016 season. Cooper also served as head coach at Eastern Michigan (1993-94), Louisville (1995-97) and Alabama A&M (1998-2001).

Cooper spent two seasons at FIU with the first as the team's assistant head coach and defensive backs coach in 2015. He was elevated to the Panthers' defensive coordinator in 2016 before leading FIU to a 4-4 records as the interim head coach.

Prior to FIU, Cooper served as the assistant head coach and defensive backs coach at South Florida from 2013-14. He helped lead the Bulls to a team record 20-plus takeaways each season and the defense scored four touchdowns.

He coached one season in the NFL as the defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012.

Cooper has deep ties to Arkansas defensive coordinator John Chavis, having served as the LSU secondary coach under Chavis from 2009-11. He mentored one of the top secondary rooms in the country, highlighted by national award winners Morris Claiborne, Patrick Peterson and Tyrann Mathieu. In both 2010 and 2011, Cooper and the Tigers defense featured the Thorpe Award winner (nation's top defensive back) in Patrick Peterson in 2010 and Claiborne in 2011, as well as the Bednarik Award winner (nation's top defender) in Peterson and Mathieu in 2011. LSU was also home to the SEC Defensive Player of the Year in Peterson (2010), Mathieu (2011 by AP) and Claiborne (2011 by Coaches).

Cooper has also made stops in the SEC at South Carolina (2004-08) and Mississippi State (2003). In 2008, Cooper assisted with a defense that ranked No. 1 in the SEC and No. 2 in the nation in pass defense, allowing just 160 yards per game. With the Gamecocks, Cooper helped lead the team to appearances in the 2005 Independence Bowl, 2006 Liberty Bowl and 2009 Outback Bowl.

He broke into the head coaching ranks with Eastern Michigan and went on to become head coach at Louisville and Alabama A&M. Cooper's 1995 Louisville team led the nation in takeaways and finished No. 9 nationally in scoring defense. The following season, the Cardinals ranked No. 4 in both total defense and rushing defense.

At Alabama A&M, Cooper guided the Bulldogs to the Southwestern Athletic Conference Championship Game in 2000. His squad led the nation in rushing defense and they ranked No. 8 nationally in scoring defense. He also discovered defensive end Robert Mathis and coached him in his first three collegiate seasons. Mathis went on to a 14-year NFL career with the Colts, making six Pro Bowls and earning AFC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2013.

Before becoming the head coach at Eastern Michigan, Cooper served as an assistant coach at Notre Dame (1991-92), helping the Irish to victories in the 1992 Sugar Bowl and 1993 Cotton Bowl.

Cooper also served coaching stints at UNLV (1990), East Carolina (1989), Murray State (1987-88), Austin Peay (1985-86), Minnesota (1984) and Appalachian State (1983).

As a player, Cooper was a four-year letterman at Jacksonville State, where he helped the Gamecocks to Gulf South Conference titles in 1981 and 1982. Cooper played in the NCAA Div. II playoff three times during his career, including a semifinal run in 1982.

Cooper has three children: Deuce, Tyler and Tristan.

DUSTIN FRY

Offensive Line / Run Game Coordinator
Second Season at Arkansas

Dustin Fry begins his second season on the Hill as the offensive line coach.

His first season was headlined by three starters who found their way onto NFL squads after the season. Hjalte Froholdt completed his second consecutive season without a sack allowed, anchoring the OL primarily at left guard. Froholdt was drafted by the New England Patriots in the fourth round, while teammates Johnny Gibson Jr. (Eagles) and Brian Wallace (Broncos) were signed to their respective squads after strong senior year performances.

Fry's first season with the Hogs also saw the development of young linemen Noah Gatlin and Dalton Wagner, who both earned starts as freshmen. Arkansas' recruiting class added much needed depth with six offensive linemen signing with the Hogs, including junior college transfers Myron Cunningham and Chibueze Nwanna.

Fry joined the Razorback staff after spending three seasons at SMU (2015-17) as the offensive line coach. Prior to his stint in Dallas, he served as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson from 2012-14.

At SMU, Fry's offensive line cleared paths for a 1,000-yard rusher in both 2016 and 2017. His 2017 unit blocked for the Mustangs' offense to produce 3,000-plus passing yards and 2,000-plus rushing yards. The Mustangs averaged 5.0 yards per carry and were one of 18 FBS programs, including one of three in the American Athletic Conference, to accomplish that feat during the regular season. SMU's 2,230 rushing yards were its most in a regular season in 10 years.

According to Sport Source Analytics, Fry's offensive line in 2017 ranked No. 14 nationally in efficiency (79.6), based on tackle for loss percentage, sack percentage and third and fourth down run percentage.

In his three years at Clemson, he helped the Tigers to a 31-7 record with two top-10 finishes. He was a player development coach with the offensive line and helped center Dalton Freeman earn first-team All-America honors in 2012.

Fry lettered four years with Clemson and was a first-team All-ACC center and a National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) All-American on the 2006 offense that averaged a school-record 6.5 yards per play. He played in the Senior Bowl and was a fifth-round draft pick of the Rams, playing for St. Louis in 2007 and 2008. He also spent time with the Cleveland Browns, Denver Broncos and Carolina Panthers.

He and his wife, Laura, have two sons, Hudson and Ryan.

First Season at Arkansas

Kenny Ingram begins his first year as the defensive tackles coach, joining Arkansas from Auburn, where he served as the Director of Player Relations for the last two years in his second stint with the Tigers.

Ingram held the same position in 2013-14 at Auburn after going to The Plains from Arkansas State, where he helped the Red Wolves win a Sun Belt Conference title as the team's defensive line coach. In between stops at Auburn, he coached the defensive tackles at Cincinnati in 2015 and 2016.

Ingram began his collegiate career at Tennessee State in 2005 as the Tigers' defensive line coach. He quickly moved back to his hometown of Memphis in 2006, taking over the linebackers for the University of Memphis before being named defensive coordinator in 2009. While at Memphis, he helped the Tigers to the 2007 New Orleans Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Prior to his collegiate coaching career, Ingram was the head coach at Melrose High School in Memphis from 2002-04. He led the Golden Wildcats to a 37-4 overall record after serving as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. He was a three-time Regional Coach of the Year and the Commercial Appeal's 2004 Coach of the Year for Metro Memphis.

Ingram starred at Whitehaven High School in Memphis, then was a four-year letterman at Arkansas State, serving as team co-captain in 1992. At Arkansas State, Ingram played for Steve Caldwell.

He and his wife, Carla, have five children: Kendrien, Taylor, Kameron and twins Kennedy and Karleigh.

BARRY LUNNEY JR.

Tight Ends / Special Teams Coordinator
Seventh Season at Arkansas

Barry Lunney Jr., a former Arkansas starting quarterback, enters his seventh season as tight ends coach at his alma mater and his first as the Razorbacks' special teams coordinator. Lunney has strengthened the program's reputation as #TEU over his six years.

Last season, Arkansas made a living off production out of the tight end position, completing 58.8 percent of the group's targets, which was above the team average. The Razorbacks finished the year ranked second in the country in tight end touchdowns and tied for fourth in the nation in tight end first downs, as junior Cheyenne O'Grady led the team in receptions (30) and touchdowns (six).

Lunney's work has not only resulted success as Razorbacks, but also caught the interest of NFL personnel. Highlighted by Hunter Henry being the first tight end taken in the 2016 NFL Draft.

From 2014 to 2016, Lunney helped develop Henry into the best tight end in the nation. On December 9, 2015, that became official when Henry was named the John Mackey Award winner following his junior season. Henry joined D.J. Williams as former Razorbacks to win the award to make Arkansas the only program to have multiple winners in the award's history.

After earning All-SEC second team honors in 2013 and 2014, Henry won the John Mackey Award and was a consensus first-team All-American as a junior in 2015. He led all Football Bowl Subdivision tight ends with 739 receiving yards on 51 receptions – each career highs – and hauled in three touchdown passes. In addition, Henry and tight end mate Jeremy Sprinkle combined for a league-best 1,128 receiving yards and eight touchdowns. The 1,128 receiving yards are the most by an Arkansas tight end corps in program history.

During his career, Henry hauled in 116 passes for 1,661 yards and nine touchdowns. He is one of only eight tight ends in SEC history to reach the triple-digit mark in receptions while playing in the conference. Of the eight, he is one of four to tally more than 1,500 receiving yards. In addition, his 1,661 career receiving yards rank second in program history among tight ends, only trailing Williams (1,855, 2007-10). His 116 receptions and 1,661 receiving yards through those three seasons were both tops in the SEC among tight ends.

A fellow Arkansas native, Henry was selected with the 35th overall pick by the San Diego Chargers in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft. A year later, Sprinkle followed Henry's footsteps and was taken by the Washington Redskins in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft. During his senior season, Sprinkle set the Arkansas record for career TDs by a tight end with 11 and was also invited to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl.

Lunney also oversaw the transition of AJ Derby from quarterback to tight end. Derby finished fifth in the SEC with 303 receiving yards during the 2014 season and was a sixth round draft choice of the New England Patriots despite playing the position for less than a year.

In his first season coaching the Razorback tight ends, Lunney led Henry to second-team All-SEC, Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman Team recognition. Henry's receiving yards ranked third in the nation among freshman tight ends, and he was the only freshman tight end in the SEC with a 100-yard receiving game. Henry also led SEC tight ends and ranked third in the conference by gaining a first down on 78.6 percent of his receptions.

Before returning to the Razorbacks, Lunney served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Bentonville High School from 2005-13.

In his eight years at Bentonville, the Tigers won 78 games, including 25 straight in 2010-11, played in four state championship games, claiming state titles in 2008 and 2010, and won six straight 7A West Conference crowns from 2007-12. Bentonville played in three 7A state championship games and won at least 12 games in four of his last five seasons.

Bentonville quarterback Dallas Hardison broke the Arkansas state single-season completion percentage record in 2010 and bettered the record in 2011 under the direct guidance of Lunney. In 2011 and 2012, the Tigers won their first 12 games to advance to the state championship game with an offense that averaged 42.5 and 36.8 points per game, respectively.

The 2010 Bentonville team finished the season 13-0 and won the 7A state championship. The offense averaged 47.0 points per game and scored at least 40 points nine times, including 49 points in the semifinal round and the state championship.

Lunney's first state title at Bentonville came in 2008 as the Tigers won 12 games for the first time since 2001. The offense averaged 30.2 points per game and scored more than 30 points in seven of 13 games.

Before moving to the high school coaching ranks, Lunney compiled seven years of collegiate coaching experience.

Lunney spent two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at San Jose State. During his tenure, the offense produced six all-conference performers, and tight end Courtney Anderson was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the 2004 NFL Draft. In 2003, the Spartans ranked 17th in the NCAA in passing offense and quarterback Scott Rislov ranked third in the WAC in passing efficiency and total offense.

Prior to that, Lunney spent three seasons at Tulsa, first working with quarterbacks in 2000 and 2001 and then moving to wide receivers in 2002. In 2000, quarterback Josh Blankenship ranked fifth in the WAC in total offense and receiver Don Shoals led the conference and ranked 11th in the NCAA in receptions per game.

His coaching career began with two seasons as a graduate assistant at Arkansas following a standout career for the Razorbacks. In 1998, Arkansas won its first eight games and rose to No. 9 in the national rankings on the way to sharing the SEC Western Division title and earning a berth in the Citrus Bowl. Lunney served as the Razorbacks' running backs coach for the bowl game and throughout the spring of 1999. Arkansas spent the majority of the 1999 season in the top 25 of the national rankings and finished the year with a 27-6 win over No. 14 Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Lunney lettered from 1992-95, starting 40 games at quarterback, and was a team captain on the 1995 team that played in the SEC Championship Game for the first time in school history. In his first game as the starting quarterback, he led Arkansas to an upset win at No. 4 Tennessee. He left Arkansas holding school career records for passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass completions, pass attempts and total offensive plays. Lunney also played baseball at Arkansas. He was drafted by the Montreal Expos out of high school in 1992 and by the Minnesota Twins in 1996 and played one season of minor league baseball in the Twins organization.

Lunney graduated from Arkansas in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He and his wife, Janelle, have two sons, Luke and Levi. His grandfather, John lettered at Arkansas from 1946-49. His father, Barry Sr., retired after 28 years as a high school football coach in Arkansas, winning eight state championships at Bentonville HS and Fort Smith Southside HS.

Secondary
Second Season at Arkansas

Mark Smith begins his second season at Arkansas in 2019 working with the team's cornerbacks.

In his first year with the Razorbacks in 2018, Smith helped guide a young group along with junior Ryan Pulley. Pulley put together a strong all-around performance with three interceptions, seven pass breakups, a forced fumble and 3.5 tackles for loss in his final year on the Hill. Playing alongside Pulley for most of the season were freshmen Montaric Brown and Jarques McClellion. The duo combined to start 12 games with Brown starting three and McClellion nine. McClellion's 25 tackles ranked behind only Pulley's 37 at the cornerback position.

A stellar recruiter, Smith helped land a pair of four-star cornerbacks in Gregory Brooks and Devin Bush who both enrolled early and went through spring practice. Speedster Malik Chavis will join the group this fall as well.

Smith arrived at SMU as the Director of Recruiting in 2015 and added defensive analyst to his duties for 2017 season. He joined the Mustangs with experience at both the college and high school levels having spent time as a high school head coach and at Oklahoma as a defensive quality control coach.

Prior to SMU, he served at Hurst L.D. Bell from 2009 to 2014, earning a promotion to head coach in early 2011. With Smith at the helm, Bell made the playoffs for three straight seasons. He also served as an assistant at Irving MacArthur and Colleyville Heritage high schools in Texas.

Smith was a member of the Board of Directors for the Texas High School Coaches Association and served as the President of the North Texas Football Coaches Association.

He and his wife, Michelle, have three children: Makenna, Micah and Mailey Kay.

Wide Receivers
Second Season at Arkansas

Justin Stepp enters his second season at Arkansas after spending six seasons as a wide receivers coach at SMU (2015-17) and Appalachian State (2012-14).

His first season on the Hill saw the development of a young group of wideouts, led by freshman Michael Woods. The Magnolia, Texas, native played in 10 games, starting seven, and racked up 206 yards on 18 catches, averaging 11.4 to top returners coming back for the 2019 season. Junior Deon Stewart led the receiving corps in receptions with 22 and started eight games. In all, the Hogs return four receivers that caught passes last fall with Jordan Jones and Tyson Morris joining Stewart and Woods.

Stepp was active on the recruiting trail for the Razorbacks this past offseason being named as one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals thanks to the addition of four four-star receivers inking with the team including mid-year enrollees Trey Knox and Shamar Nash, as well as Treylon Burks and T.Q. Jackson. The Hogs were the only team in the nation to sign four four-star wide receivers.

In December 2017, he was selected to participate in the 2018 AFCA 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute, a prestigious program aimed at identifying and developing premier, future leaders in the football coaching profession. He was also named a finalist for the 2017 FootballScoop Wide Receivers Coach of the Year award.

During Stepp's seven seasons as a wide receivers coach, he's tutored three different players who have combined for four 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Stepp's protégés Courtland Sutton and Trey Quinn at SMU were two of the most dynamic wide receivers in college football in 2017 and each went on to be selected in the 2018 NFL Draft. The Mustangs boasted one of the most prolific passing attacks in the nation on the strength of All-Americans Sutton and Quinn each posting 1,000-yard receiving seasons. SMU was one of only two schools with multiple 1,000-yard receivers in 2017. In addition, Sutton and Quinn were the only pair of teammates to rank in the top 10 in touchdown receptions and combined for 12 100-yard receiving games with six apiece. Quinn finished the year with 13 TD catches, while Sutton had 12.

A Biletnikoff Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose semifinalist, Quinn led the nation in receptions with 114 and ranked inside the top 15 nationally in receiving touchdowns (No. 4, 13), receiving yards per game (No. 10, 95.1) and receiving yards (No. 11, 1,236). He turned in two of the three top reception performances in the FBS during the regular season with 17 catches twice and became the only player this century to register 15-plus catches in three straight games. The Lake Charles, Louisiana, native was selected by the Washington Redskins with the 256th and final selection of the 2018 draft.

Sutton, a second-round pick of the Denver Broncos, posted career receiving totals of 3,152 yards and 31 touchdowns on 189 receptions in four seasons at SMU. He averaged 16.4 yards per catch in each of his last two seasons, and finished third on the Mustangs' all-time receiving chart behind Emmanuel Sanders and Aldrick Robinson.

In 2016, Sutton led the SMU offense for the second straight season, hauling in 76 passes for 1,246 yards and 10 TDs to become SMU's first 1,000-yard receiver since 2013. Sutton was not the Mustangs' only threat through the air, though, as James Proche, caught 57 passes for 709 yards and six scores on his way to Freshman All-America honors.

Stepp's first season at SMU saw him develop Sutton into one of the country's top freshman. Sutton was named a Freshman All-American in 2015 after leading all FBS freshmen with nine receiving touchdowns. He set an SMU freshman record for receiving yards with 862 and tied Sanders for most touchdowns by a freshman.

Over Stepp's first two seasons at Appalachian State, he coached three players who combined to earn five All-Southern Conference honors, including All-American Sean Price who set NCAA Division I FCS freshman records with 81 receptions and 1,196 receiving yards in 2012.

Prior to Appalachian State, he spent three seasons at Clemson as an offensive graduate assistant coach (2011) and an offensive video graduate assistant (2009-10).

In 2011, Stepp played a key role in Clemson's offense, alongside Morris who was offensive coordinator. Stepp worked directly with the Tigers' running backs, quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends, while assisting in game-planning and in-game play-calling adjustments. With Stepp on the sideline, Clemson ranked second in the ACC and in the top 30 nationally in scoring (33.6) and total offense (440.8) and boasted a pair of All-Americans on the offensive side of the ball.

Stepp got his coaching start as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at NCAA Division II North Greenville in 2008. He also served as wide receivers and strength coach at Fort Mill (S.C.) High School in 2007.

Stepp was a standout wide receiver and punt returner at Furman from 2003-06. He earned All-SoCon recognition as a junior and senior and finished his playing career with 1,568 yards, 10 touchdown catches and 118 receptions, good for No. 4 on the school's career list at the time.

Stepp and his wife, Brooke, have a son, Courtland Spencer Stepp, and a dog, Holi.

Strength & Conditioning
Second Season at Arkansas

Trumain Carroll was named the program's head strength and conditioning coach on Jan. 9, 2018.

Carroll most recently worked with Morris at SMU, where he was the Mustangs' strength and conditioning coach for the last three seasons (2015-17).

Carroll joined the SMU staff after two seasons (2013-14) as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater Oklahoma State, his second stint with the Cowboys.

During his tenure at SMU, Carroll's efforts in the weight room aided in the development of wide receivers Courtland Sutton and Trey Quinn into All-Americans and NFL Draft selections. Sutton and Quinn were two of the most dynamic wide receivers in college football in 2017, each turning in 1,000-yard receiving seasons to become one of only to pairs of teammates in the FBS to accomplish that feat.

A second-round pick by Denver in the 2018 NFL Draft, Sutton posted career receiving totals of 3,152 yards and 31 touchdowns on 189 receptions in four seasons at SMU. He averaged 16.4 yards per catch in each of his last two seasons, and finished third on the Mustangs' all-time receiving chart behind Emmanuel Sanders and Aldrick Robinson.

Quinn, a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, led the nation in receptions with 114 and ranked inside the top 15 nationally in receiving touchdowns (No. 4, 13), receiving yards per game (No. 10, 95.1) and receiving yards (No. 11, 1,236). He posted two of the three top reception performances in the FBS during the regular season with 17 catches twice and became the only player this century to register 15-plus catches in three straight games.

Prior to Oklahoma State, Carroll was director of strength and conditioning South Carolina State (2011-12) after serving in the same role at the University of Missouri-Kansas City (2008-11).

Carroll joined UMKC from Oklahoma State, where he was the assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2006-08. While in Stillwater, Carroll designed and directed the strength program for the Oklahoma State women's basketball program that advanced to the Sweet 16 in the 2007 NCAA tournament. He also assisted in the strength and conditioning program with the Oklahoma State football team that won the 2006 Independence Bowl and the 2007 Insight.com Bowl.

Carroll was a defensive end at Oklahoma State from 2001 to 2005. During his playing career, he helped guide the Cowboys to three consecutive bowl games, including a victory in the 2002 Houston Bowl and appearances in the 2003 Cotton Bowl and 2004 Alamo Bowl.

Carroll received his Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach Certification in May 2007 and his USA Weightlifting Sports Performance Certification in February 2008.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Oklahoma State in December 2005.

Carroll and his wife, Jarne, have a son, Trumain "Deuce" Carroll, and a dog, Bo.

RANDY ROSS

Director of Football Operations
Second Season at Arkansas

A veteran in coaching and administration with more than 30 years of experience in college football, Randy Ross serves as coach Chad Morris' director of football operations.

Prior to coming to Fayetteville, Ross spent 11 years at SMU, where he served as the senior associate director of football operations, including three seasons under coach Morris.

In his role, Ross coordinates team travel, office management and administration, handles game-day responsibilities and serves as a liaison with athletics and university departments.

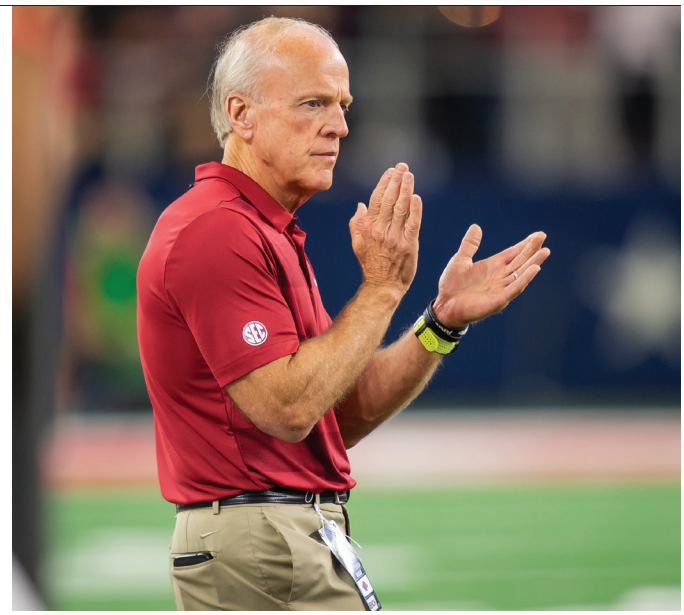

Ross is no stranger to SEC football having spent 17 seasons at Alabama, including the last four as director of football operations. He was an assistant coach from 1993-96 under Gene Stallings as well as the Crimson Tide's recruiting coordinator from 1990-98. He then spent one season in Alabama's development office before moving back to the football office in 2000 as the director of high school relations.

Prior to his time in Tuscaloosa, Ross was quarterbacks coach at Vanderbilt for three seasons.

Following his collegiate career at St. Bernard College, where he played baseball and earned All-Southern States Conference honors in 1975, Ross began his coaching career at Gaston High School before moving to Gadsden' Southside High School in 1976.

He served as Southside's head coach for nine seasons and then moved as head coach at Scottsboro High from 1985-86. He coached 15 players who later played college football, including former Tide quarterback David Smith. Ross was selected his area's Coach of the Year in 1980 and 1983. His 1980 squad finished 12-1 and was ranked third in the state.

Ross is married to the former Ann Lowe.

1964 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Without question, the proudest moment in the history of Arkansas Razorback football is the 1964 national championship. Head coach Frank Broyles led his 1964 team to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and a 10-7 Cotton Bowl victory over Nebraska.

The 1964 national championship was historic not so much for who won but for when the title was awarded.

In 1964, seven different entities named a mythical national champion. The two most notable polls to fans at the time – The Associated Press and the United Press International – did not wait until after the bowl games to award their champion. Because of that, Alabama was named the national champ by the AP, UPI and Litkenhous groups. However, the Crimson Tide went on to lose 21-17 to Texas in the Orange Bowl and finish 10-1 on the year.

Arkansas remained the only undefeated team in the country at 11-0 with its victory over Nebraska. Two groups who waited until after the bowl games to name their champion – The Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation – named Broyles' Razorbacks as national champs. Notre Dame and Michigan also were honored by lesser known polls. Both the AP (1965) and UPI (1974) eventually changed their procedure, choosing to wait until after the bowls to announce their final polls.

BILLY RAY SMITH SR. earned first-team All-Southwest Conference honors in 1956.

BILLY RAY SMITH JR. made the All-SWC first team in 1981 and '82.

LAMAR McHAN, who led the SWC in passing in 1953, was a three-time All-Southwest Conference selection from 1951-53.

RETIRED NUMBERS

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired, and in the 122 years the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only two players have had the honor bestowed upon them. Clyde Scott (No. 12) and Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) have worn numbers no future Razorback will ever wear.

12 CLYDE "SMACKOVER" SCOTT

(1946-49)

Following a glamorous career in the 1940s, the athletic department decided to retire No. 12. Nicknamed "Smackover" for his hometown, Clyde Scott made a name for himself in 1948, winning the silver medal in the hurdles at the Olympic Games in August and then reporting to football practice where he would earn All-America honors during his senior year.

Scott rushed for 1,463 yards during his career for a school record at the time. In 1948 he had an impressive 7.0 yards-per-carry average, gaining 670 yards on 95 attempts. Scott was the first Razorback athlete to win an Olympic medal as most of Arkansas' track success didn't come until 1978 with the arrival of John McDonnell.

When Arkansas was recruiting Steve Little, coach Frank Broyles asked Scott if Little could wear his retired No. 12. Scott graciously agreed and Little went on to an All-American career. Scott passed away in Little Rock, Arkansas, on Jan. 30, 2018 at the age of 93.

77 BRANDON BURLSWORTH

(1994-98)

The athletics department did not see fit to retire another football jersey until after the 1998 campaign, when the No. 77 worn by Razorback All-American offensive guard Brandon Burlsworth was retired.

One of the most inspiring stories in Razorback history, Burlsworth joined the Razorbacks in 1994 as a walk-on. Following a redshirt year, he earned a scholarship with his work ethic in the weight room. After serving as a backup guard for the 1995 SEC Western Division champions, he earned a starting position in the spring of '96 and never yielded it. He went on to start 34 consecutive games, concluding with the Florida Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 1999.

Burlsworth was an All-SEC offensive guard in 1997. In 1998 he not only earned all-conference honors, but was named a first-team All-American by The Football News. He was the leader of an offensive line that helped the Razorback offense score more points than it had since 1970 and produce more yards than it had since the 1989 season.

In the classroom, Burlsworth was equally astounding. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1997 and immediately went to work on his master's in business administration. In December 1998, Burlsworth completed his master's requirements to become the first Razorback football player to complete a master's degree before playing in his final game.

Burlsworth was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, but tragically died in an automobile accident less than two weeks later. The entire state of Arkansas was stunned and head coach Houston Nutt recommended that Burlsworth's jersey be retired. Athletics director Frank Broyles quickly agreed.

F.C. Longman was the final faculty member to serve as the football program's volunteer coach. Though the Cardinals suffered five shutouts during his tenure, they also earned a shutout win at Tulane and began Arkansas' series with Tennessee during the 1907 season.

HUGO BEZDEK

5 seasons | 1908-12
29-13-1

The first full-time, paid coach in Arkansas football history, Hugo Bezdek guided the Cardinals to a 5-4 campaign in his first season. In 1909 he led UA to what is widely regarded as the program's breakthrough season – a 7-0-0 campaign during which Arkansas outscored its foes 186-18. Upon the team's return from a win over LSU in Memphis, Tenn., that season, Bezdek told students his team had played "like a wild band of razorback hogs." The students liked the nickname and officially adopted it prior to the 1910 season.

E.T. PICKERING

2 seasons | 1913-14
11-7

After beginning his tenure 5-0 en route to a 7-2-0 debut season, E.T. Pickering's second and final season at the helm of the UA program is best known for a contest against Ole Miss that is still disputed more than a century later. Arkansas claims a 1-0 forfeit victory due to the Rebels' use of an ineligible player; Ole Miss denies the allegation and claims a 13-7 win on the field. The dispute led to the suspension of the series until 1924.

T.T. McCONNELL

2 seasons | 1915-16
8-6-1

The beginning of T.T. McConnell's tenure as head coach at Arkansas coincided with the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. After a 4-2-1 debut in 1915 and four-consecutive wins to open the 1916 season, McConnell's tenure culminated with consecutive losses to LSU, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi State.

NORMAN PAINE

8-3-1

Only a loss at Texas in the season finale prevented Norman Paine from an undefeated record in his first season, which began with five consecutive wins. His 1917 win over LSU was Arkansas' only victory against the Tigers in six games from 1915 to 1921. After playing the Sooners to a scoreless tie in 1917, Paine's 1918 team suffered the worst defeat in school history – a 103-0 loss at Oklahoma.

Although J.B. Craig's only season included a lopsided 63-7 loss to Tulsa (then known as Henry Kendall), it concluded with a 7-6 win over Oklahoma in the Razorbacks' most recent home meeting with the Sooners. The win avenged the 103-0 loss in Norman, Okla., the year before.

G.W. McLAREN

2 seasons | 1920-21
8-5-3

G.W. McLaren's Razorback teams yielded just 19 points in the six Southwest Conference games during his two-year tenure. His inaugural Arkansas team in 1920 shut out SWC foes SMU, Phillips and Rice en route to a 2-0-1 league mark. Because the SWC did not count ties toward winning percentage until 1925, the 1920 team is credited with a 1.000 league winning percentage but was not credited with a share of the league title won by Texas with a 5-0 conference mark.

FRED THOMSEN

56-61-10

Still the second-longest tenured head coach in Arkansas football history, Fred Thomsen was an offensive innovator who made the passing game an integral part of the UA attack. He led the Hogs to what would have been their first Southwest Conference title in 1933 only to vacate the championship for using an ineligible player. All-SWC performances by Jack Robbins and Jim Benton helped the Hogs to the SWC crown in 1936 and a tie for 18th in the final Associated Press poll in its first year of existence.

GEORGE COLE

1 season | 1942
3-7

The first of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, George Cole went on to serve as athletic director at the school from 1970 to 1972. An All-Southwest Conference quarterback and a shortstop on the UA baseball team during his collegiate career, Cole began his administrative career as a line coach for the Razorbacks in 1936 and served as assistant athletic director under John Barnhill. Arkansas' baseball facility, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field, bears his name.

GLEN ROSE

2 seasons | 1944-45
8-12-1

While guiding the Razorback football program through the final years of the World War II era, Glen Rose recorded back-to-back wins over Ole Miss and directed the Hogs in their most recent game against an in-state opponent – a 41-0 win over Arkansas-Monticello (then known as Arkansas A&M) in the 1944 season finale.

JOHN BARNHILL

22-17-3

Widely credited with uniting the state of Arkansas behind the Razorback program, John Barnhill led UA to a share of the Southwest Conference title and its first Cotton Bowl berth in the first of his four seasons before retiring from coaching to focus on his duties as athletic director. His coaching tenure included the debut of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark., the Hogs' second and third bowl appearances and the recruitment of 1948 All-American and Olympic silver medal winner Clyde Scott.

OTIS DOUGLAS

3 seasons | 1950-52
9-21

Despite personnel that included future NFL stars Fred Williams, Dave "Hawg" Hanner, Pat Summerall, Lamar McHan, Floyd Sagely and Lewis Carpenter, the Razorbacks managed just nine wins during Douglas' three-year tenure. The highlight of his stay was a 16-14 win over Texas in 1951 – the Razorbacks' first win over the Longhorns in Fayetteville.

BOWDEN WYATT

2 seasons | 1953-54
11-10

After an inauspicious 3-7-0 mark in his initial campaign, Bowden Wyatt led the "25 Little Pigs" to Arkansas' second Southwest Conference title in 1954. That season also saw the Hogs earn their first win at Texas in 17 years, followed the next week by a 6-0 upset of Ole Miss on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Bob Benson to Preston Carpenter known to Razorback fans as the "Powder River Play." Wyatt left after the 1954 season to coach Tennessee, his alma mater.

FRANK BROYLES

144-58-5

Frank Broyles' arrival at Arkansas prior to the 1958 season marked the beginning of a relationship between Broyles and the institution. He served as athletic director from 1973-2007. With 144 wins in 19 seasons, Broyles ranks as the winningest and longest-tenured head football coach in UA history. His 1964 team went 11-0 to earn the school's only national championship and No. 1 final ranking by the Football Writers Association of America. He led the Razorbacks to 10 bowl appearances, including nine New Year's Day Bowls.

LOU HOLTZ

60-21-2

One of just three head coaches to lead Arkansas to six consecutive bowl appearances, Lou Holtz's first Razorback team in 1977 recorded one of Arkansas' two 11-win seasons and posted one of the biggest upsets in school history with a 31-6 win over No. 2 Oklahoma in the 1978 Orange Bowl.

KEN HATFIELD

55-17-1

One of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, Ken Hatfield posted a UA-best .760 winning percentage and averaged better than nine wins per season during his six-year tenure. Hatfield led the Razorbacks to a bowl game all six years.

HOUSTON NUTT

75-49

Houston Nutt was the third Arkansas head coach to take the Razorbacks to a bowl game in each of his first six seasons. He led the Hogs to three SEC Western Division crowns, eight bowl games, two bowl victories, three final national rankings and four nine-win seasons. Nutt's 8-0 start in 1998 marked the best debut ever for a UA head coach and helped UA reach its first New Year's Day game since 1990. In 2001 and 2006, Nutt was voted SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and league coaches.

BOBBY PETRINO

34-17

Bobby Petrino was introduced as the head coach of the Razorbacks on Dec. 11, 2007. In just his third season, he led Arkansas to the first BCS game in school history against Ohio State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In his final season, he took the Razorbacks to a school-record-tying 11 wins and the first top-five AP finish since 1977.

BRET BIELEMA

29-34

Named the 32nd head coach in program history in December of 2012, Bielema came to Arkansas after having spent seven years as head coach at Wisconsin. He led Arkansas to three straight bowl appearances, highlighted by wins over Texas at the 2014 Texas Bowl and Kansas State at the 2016 Liberty Bowl. In 2014, Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents after blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss.

CHAD MORRIS

1 season | 2018-
2-10

Chad Morris was named the 33rd head football in University of Arkansas history on Dec. 6, 2017. Under Morris' fast-paced, no-huddle spread attack from 2010-14, Clemson shattered 127 offensive records (89 individual; 38 team). During his three seasons at SMU (2015-17), Morris turned a 1-11 program before he took over to the program's first bowl bid since 2012 in 2017.

OVERTIME GAMES

ARKANSAS' NCAA RECORDS SET IN OVERTIME

- Longest games in NCAA history: seven overtimes (Arkansas at Kentucky, 2003; Arkansas at Ole Miss, 2001; and North Texas at FIU, 2006)
- Fourth-longest game in NCAA history: six overtimes (Arkansas at Tennessee, 2002)
- Most points scored in overtime: 47 at Kentucky, 2003
- Most points scored in overtime (both teams): 86, UA at Kentucky, 2003
- Most plays in an overtime game (both teams): 202, UA at Kentucky, 2003
- Second-most points scored in an overtime game (both teams): 134, UA at Kentucky, 2003

On one of the most memorable plays in recent program history, HUNTER HENRY helped Arkansas convert a first down on 4th-and-25 in overtime at Ole Miss in 2015. The Razorbacks scored two plays later and won the game with a two-point conversion.

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (DWRRS) will serve as the home of Razorback Football for the 82nd season during the 2019 campaign. Since opening in 1938, the Razorbacks have played 294 games at the current site, winning more than 64 percent of their contests.

Located on the western side of campus, DWRRS was formerly known as Razorback Stadium before being renamed in 2001 in honor of the late Donald W. Reynolds. The playing field is named in honor of former athletics director and the winningest, longest-tenured head football coach in University of Arkansas history, Frank Broyles.

Upon undergoing many modifications, DWRRS gives the University of Arkansas one of the finest football facilities in the nation. A $160 million stadium renovation and north end addition was completed prior to the 2018 season. All existing suites and club areas were renovated, and additional elevators were constructed in the northwest and northeast corners of the stadium. As part of the same project, a south video board was added in time for the 2017 season. The north end addition is home to the new Broyles Athletics Center as well as suites, loge boxes, club seats and club areas. The addition also provided new concessions and restrooms as well as a stadium-wide concourse that allows the flow of fans throughout the stadium. A new football team locker room, press conference room, other team areas and various displays celebrating Razorback history and traditions were also part of the north end addition.

Prior to the 2001 season, the stadium underwent a dramatic advancement – a $110 million project, which included a $20 million gift from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, increased the seating capacity from 51,000 to 72,000.

The renovation included reconstructed concourses with a brick facade that completely enclosed the concrete and steel below the stands. In addition, the concourses were widened, and concession areas and restrooms were replaced.

Known as "Championship Alley," the east concourse displays all 13 conference championships, the 1964 national title and every football letterman. The south end zone concourse, "All-American Alley," is dedicated to the 57 Razorback All-Americans. The west concourse, "Bowl Alley," commemorates each of the program's 42 bowl teams.

Another noticeable addition was the enclosure of the south end zone, which features chair back seating and the addition of approximately 7,300 total seats as well as a food court with vendor space.

Along with an expanded press box, which includes Orville Henry Press Row, 68 luxury suites/skyboxes were added, bringing the total to 134.

The 3,800 square foot Wilson Matthews A Club was added on the east side next to a 6,500-seat upper deck that is complemented by enclosed premium club seating. The stadium's capacity includes 8,950 club seats, inside and out.

One of the first expansion projects occurred in 1950 and included the construction of a new press box and 5,200 more seats on the west side. Another 5,200-seat addition to the east side was completed in 1957.

Earlier building efforts in 1965 and 1969 raised capacity to 42,678 – a figure held steady for more than a decade.

Prior to 2001, the last previous expansion occurred before the 1985 season and added additional seats and skyboxes, bringing the facility to 50,000 seats.

Astroturf was added in 1969. The playing surface then returned to natural grass in 1995 prior to its transition to synthetic turf in 2009.

Making its debut on Sept. 24, 1938, as Arkansas defeated Oklahoma A&M, 27-7, the stadium was dedicated later that year on Oct. 8 when the Razorbacks hosted Baylor.

Constructed as a Works Progress Administration project with an original capacity of 13,500, the facility was first enlarged upon the arrival of John Barnhill as athletic director in 1947 when an additional 2,500 seats were added to the north end of the east and west grandstands.

Prior to 1938, the Razorbacks played in a 300-seat stadium built in 1901 on land atop "The Hill," now occupied by Mullins Library and the Fine Arts Center.

FRANK BROYLES

For more than five decades, Frank Broyles helped shape intercollegiate athletics as a legendary coach, nationally respected administrator and a tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state.

In July 2014, Broyles stepped away from his day-to-day duties with the Razorback Foundation after a combined 55 years of service with the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Razorback Foundation. Broyles served as Athletics Director Emeritus.

In his 19-year stint as Arkansas' head coach, the Razorbacks posted a record of 144-58-5, captured seven SWC championships, one national championship and earned 10 bowl berths. Broyles was a six-time SWC Coach of the Year and became the mentor to dozens of assistant coaches preparing them for successful head coaching careers in both college and pro football. His impact on the coaching profession is best measured in the development of more than 40 head coaches. Former Broyles' assistant coaches have combined to win five Super Bowls, five national championships, more than 40 conference titles and more than 2,000 games. His legacy is celebrated annually with the presentation of the Broyles Award to the nation's top assistant football coach.

Broyles assumed the role of athletics director in July 1973 and remained in that position long after retiring from coaching in 1976. While universally recognized for his coaching prowess, it was his keen administrative and business skills that allowed Broyles to charter a steady course of success for the Razorbacks. Broyles laid the groundwork for transforming the athletic program into an all sport program that produced 41 national championships, 57 SWC and 48 SEC championships, 22 bowl appearances and a bevy of other team and individual accomplishments under his tenure.

On Nov. 3, 2007, Frank Broyles Field, the on-campus football playing field for the Arkansas Razorbacks within Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, was named for the longtime head football coach and athletics director. The field was dedicated at halftime of the Arkansas-South Carolina game in an on-field ceremony that included Broyles once again leading former Razorback football lettermen through the "A" and a surprise visit from broadcasting legend and Broyles' former ABC Sports broadcasting partner Keith Jackson. The dedication culminated a memorable weekend that also included a reunion of former football lettermen spanning Coach Broyles' 19-year career as the Razorbacks' head football coach.

On Nov. 23, 2013, a bronze statue was dedicated in Broyles honor in front of the Broyles Athletic Center. The statue, sculpted by Dr. Gary Renegar, stands seven and a half feet and weighs more than 700 pounds.

Broyles, 92, died from complications of Alzheimer's Disease, on Aug. 14, 2017.

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The Razorbacks' home venue in Central Arkansas for 71 years, War Memorial Stadium/AT&T Field will host Arkansas football games through 2024. The Razorbacks will play three regular-season SEC games and three spring football games, pending SEC approval, at War Memorial Stadium during the tenure of the agreement. Arkansas will play the University of Missouri in an SEC game at War Memorial Stadium during the 2019, 2021 and 2023 seasons, unless SEC scheduling necessitates playing another opponent.

Three-year Arkansas letterman and Congressional Medal of Honor Winner Maurice (Footsie) Britt was the featured speaker during dedication ceremonies for War Memorial Stadium on Sept. 18, 1948. On that day, a crowd of 24,950 (a record football attendance in Arkansas at that time) watched the Razorbacks defeat Abilene Christian, 40-6.

During its existence, the facility has expanded from its original capacity of 31,000 to its current figure of 54,120.

A complete lighting system and Astroturf surface were added for the 1970 season with a new artificial surface to follow in 1974. Ten years later, another new layer of artificial turf was installed before a return to natural grass was made in 1994. AstroPlay was installed for the 2002 season. War Memorial Stadium installed a new turf manufactured by Field Turf during the summer of 2010 and the field was named AT&T Field. In addition, a new $7.5 million press box that includes 500 club seats was constructed for the 2010 football season. The War Memorial Stadium Commission, along with the University of Arkansas Athletic Department, has renovated the Razorback Letterman's Club and Recruit Room.

In 1974, the press box was honored as the best in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America, a recognition for the facility and the services provided. The press floor is now named for longtime sportswriter and an authority on Razorback history, Orville Henry.

AT&T STADIUM

In 2008, Arkansas and Texas A&M officials agreed to enter into an agreement with AT&T Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys in Arlington, Texas, to renew its long-time storied rivalry under the name "Southwest Classic."

After a 16-year absence, the 2009 season marked the return of the rivalry between the former Southwest Conference foes. This time, the Razorbacks and Aggies clashed in a non-conference showdown where Arkansas claimed a 47-19 victory. The matchup followed suit in 2010 and 2011, both resulting in Razorback victories.

Due to scheduling conflicts associated with the Aggies' move to the SEC in 2012, the schools were forced to alternate home venues for the 2012 and 2013 contests; however, the contest returned to Arlington in 2014 and kicked off the first game of an 11-year agreement.

Arkansas leads the all-time series versus the Aggies, 41-30-3.

One of the most expensive sports venues ever built, AT&T Stadium was completed in 2009 and is fourth-largest in capacity in the NFL. Capacity can expand to seat upwards of 85,000 people. The $1.15 billion project was spearheaded by Dallas Cowboys owner and former co-captain of the Arkansas 1964 national championship team, Jerry Jones.

Containing the world's largest column-free interior and the fourth largest high definition video screen, which hangs from 20-yard line to 20-yard line, the facility also serves as a multi-purpose venue for concerts and other college and high school athletic events.

FRED W. SMITH FOOTBALL CENTER

The 80,000 square-foot Fred W. Smith Football Center opened in 2013 and includes a spacious locker room, team meeting rooms, training room, equipment room, a student-athlete lounge and study area, coaches' offices, a recruiting reception area and football displays celebrating the tradition of Razorback Football. In the fall of 2012 as part of the football center project, two new practice fields and a parking deck were completed south of the Walker Family Training Center providing the football team with spectacular new practice venues and university faculty and students with approximately 225 covered parking spaces.

Fred W. Smith, former chairman of the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime benefactor of the University of Arkansas and Razorback Athletics, passed away at age 84 on April 29 in Santa Monica, California. Through his work with the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, Mr. Smith was instrumental in the university's securement of several multi-million-dollar gifts, including the Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium expansion, the Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center and the Student-Athlete Development program, within Razorback Athletics.

In 2011, under Mr. Smith's leadership, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation issued a $10 million challenge grant to help generate funding for a new football operations building for the University of Arkansas. In 2013, the $40 million Fred W. Smith Football Center was dedicated providing Razorback Football with a new home.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our coaches and student-athletes are encouraged, but we require all interview arrangements be made via the Arkansas Communications Office. Coaches and student-athletes are instructed to decline any interviews not pre-arranged by the Communications Office. University of Arkansas football coaches and student-athletes are generally available for in-person interviews during a game week. All student-athlete and assistant coach interview requests must be made at least one day in advance to allow time to facilitate the notification process. Telephone interviews can be arranged, but student-athletes' telephone numbers will not be provided and student-athletes are instructed to politely decline interviews when contacted by telephone. Student housing, the training room, the weight room and locker rooms are off-limits to members of the media.

DAILY PRACTICE

Following select practice sessions, select members of the coaching staff or student-athletes will be available for group interviews with the media. Video and still photographers from accredited media outlets wishing to shoot practices are asked to consult with the Arkansas Communications Office for current guidelines prior to arrival at the practice field.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Please consult the Arkansas Communications Office for the schedule of weekly press opportunities for Coach Morris and student-athletes.

SEC WEEKLY COACHES' TELECONFERENCE

In conjunction with the Southeastern Conference, head coach Chad Morris will participate each week in the league's teleconference of football coaches. The teleconferences will be conducted each Wednesday from Aug. 28 to Nov. 20 from 10 a.m. CT to 12:10 p.m. CT. Accredited media members only may access the broadcast-quality teleconference. Callers may participate in the question-and-answer session with an individual coach or all SEC coaches. For more information and the teleconference number, contact the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3000.

The Arkansas press box does have wireless access. Information on accessing the internet is available in the game day information packets in the press box.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and Learfield IMG College are in their 12th year of a powerful partnership that created Razorback Sports Properties. As the multimedia rights-holder, Razorback Sports Properties (RSP) is responsible for the corporate marketing and advertising for all 19 sports.

Along with corporate branding through the Razorbacks, RSP also creates new programming and publications for Razorback fans. They continue to expand the coverage of the Razorback Sports Network. This statewide radio network, consisting of 45-plus affiliates, covers all of Arkansas and parts of all six surrounding states.

The official radio and television shows of Razorback football continue to grow in attendance and viewership. The radio show is held weekly at the Catfish Hole and is aired live on the Razorback Sports Network. The official television show is aired statewide on Sunday nights and regionally throughout the week during football season.

CHUCK BARRETT – PLAY-BY-PLAY

Barrett is entering his 13th season as the play-by-play announcer for the Razorbacks, and he's no stranger to Arkansas fans or the Razorback Sports Network broadcast team. This is his 25th year on the broadcast crew, including spending 14 years as the executive producer. Prior to taking over play-by-play responsibilities in the 2007 season, his duties included hosting the pregame show, halftime and scoreboard shows, and the football version of the Razorback Report. He has also worked as the play-by-play man for baseball from 1992 to 2014 and added men's basketball play-by-play to his duties prior to the 2010-11 season. Barrett was recognized by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Hall of Fame as the 2007, 2008 and 2009 Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year.

QUINN GROVEY – ANALYST

Grovey is entering his 22nd overall season on the network, including his second as the analyst. The former Hog quarterback previously served as co-host of the pregame and postgame shows and the network's sideline reporter. A three-year starter for the Razorbacks, Grovey led Arkansas to Southwest Conference titles in 1988 and 1989, and was named to the program's 1980s All-Century team.

GENO BELL – CO-HOST & SIDELINE

Bell is entering his third season on the broadcast team as a sideline reporter, taking over the role from Grovey. Bell was a four-year letterwinner on the defensive line for the Razorbacks from 1993-95. He totaled 185 tackles, including 28 for loss, 11 sacks, four pass breakups and three fumble recoveries. Following his collegiate career, Bell played in the NFL with the New York Jets and the Cleveland Browns. He returned to Arkansas after his playing career and is a senior director of transportation at the worldwide headquarters of Walmart in Bentonville.

RICK SCHAEFFER – CO-HOST

Schaeffer is entering his 26th year with Razorback football. He was the analyst for 10 seasons and is now a co-host for the pregame, halftime and postgame shows. Schaeffer worked in the Arkansas Sports Information Department for 24 years, 21 of those years serving as director. Rick is the communications director for the Springdale School District and the co-host of Drive Time Sports on 103.7 The Buzz.

SCOTT INMAN – CO-HOST

Inman is entering his 13th year as co-host of the pregame and postgame shows. It will be his 21st overall season with the network, having first served as studio host. Inman currently is the director of business development for GenWealth Financial Advisors and previously worked as a news anchor for KATV in Little Rock.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS HUNTER YURACHEK

Entering his second full year as vice chancellor and director of athletics at the University of Arkansas, Hunter Yurachek has made the most of his time since Chancellor Joseph Steinmetz announced him as vice chancellor and director of athletics on Dec. 4, 2017.

Shortly after his arrival in Fayetteville, Yurachek introduced a program-wide strategic plan that focused on fostering student-athlete success and centered on achieving the program's mission of building Champions and Razorbacks for Life. Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Razorback student-athletes, coaches, administrators, Razorback Foundation members and fans, results are already being realized on and off the field.

In 2018-19, Arkansas finished No. 23 in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup, which was first among programs with 19 or fewer teams. Arkansas captured two NCAA team championships (women's indoor and outdoor track and field), four SEC team championships (women's cross country, women's indoor and outdoor track and field, men's golf) and four SEC team runner-up finishes (soccer, men's cross country, men's indoor track and field and women's basketball).

In addition, the Razorback baseball team won a share of the SEC Western Division title and advanced to its second-straight College World Series. A total of 14 programs were nationally ranked during 2018-19, including five in the top 10. Arkansas had four NCAA individual and 22 SEC individual champions.

Razorback student-athletes continue to achieve at a high level in the classroom, posting a cumulative GPA of 3.24. Arkansas earned a program record six APR public recognition awards and saw 97 student-athletes graduate. The program graduated 98% of student-athletes who exhausted their athletic eligibility.

In 2018-19, Arkansas hosted its first NCAA Men's and Women's Golf Championships at Blessings Golf Club. In addition, Arkansas was home to the 2019 SEC Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field Championships as well as both an NCAA Baseball Regional and Super Regional at Baum-Walker Stadium.

Yurachek launched several initiatives to further engage Arkansas and Razorback fans around the world. In August 2018, as part of the One Razorback campaign, the inaugural One Hog Call event was held in Fayetteville, Little Rock and around the globe. Razorback fans from more than 16 countries and 40 states participated in a simultaneous Hog Call. For the first time in more than a half century, Arkansas scheduled in-state non-conference opponents, when it initiated games with University of Arkansas system schools in multiple sports.

Yurachek's first full year in Fayetteville saw tremendous success. Arkansas tied a program record with a No. 16 finish in the 2017-18 Learfield IMG College Sports Directors Cup, a program that ranks the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletics programs. Arkansas finished first in the nation in the rankings among schools with 19 or fewer sports.

In 2017-18, Arkansas captured four SEC championships (men's and women's cross country, women's indoor track, women's golf), including the school's first SEC crown in women's golf. The Razorbacks earned three top-five national finishes including national championship runner-up finishes at the 2018 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2018 College World Series. Four Arkansas student-athletes earned individual national championships in 2017-18.

In the 2018 spring semester, Razorback student-athletes earned a record-tying 3.25 GPA and 282 student-athletes secured a spot on the department honor roll. In addition, nearly 125 Razorback student-athletes added their name to Senior Walk as graduates of the University of Arkansas.

Yurachek came to Arkansas from the University of Houston where he served as the vice president for athletics. Prior to Houston, Yurachek served as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University, where Coastal won 29 Big South Conference championships. Yurachek was named Under Armor FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014. He has also worked at the University of Akron, the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

In Yurachek's first two years at Houston, the Cougars' sport programs eclipsed 225 points in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in department history, securing top-three finishes in The American Athletic Conference both years. The Cougars improved to second in 2016-17 after finishing third in 2015-16. The feat was bolstered in 2016-17 by 11 of 17 programs qualifying for NCAA postseason competition. Houston's programs combined for a league-leading five American Conference team championships and 22 American Conference individual titles.

The success was not limited to the field of play, however, as UH student-athletes opened the fall semester with a record 96 student-athletes on the Dean's List. That record was short lived as 109 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors in the spring semester. Houston student-athletes combined for the highest spring GPA (2.95), highest cumulative GPA following a spring semester (2.93) and the highest average hours passed in a spring semester (14.1) in department history.

The 2016-17 year also saw the continuation of an aggressive facilities plan as construction began on the $60 million renovation of the Fertitta Center, the football indoor practice facility and a baseball player development center and clubhouse with more than $85 million of projects all privately funded.

In his first year in the role, Houston recorded its highest finish in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup since 1999-2000 and its second-highest finish in school history with 296.5 points to finish 73rd nationally.

The 2015-16 academic year saw the Houston Football program capture The American Athletic Conference Championship and a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Florida State, the Houston Men's Track & Field program win The American Indoor and Outdoor Championships and the Houston Women's Golf program claim an American Championship in only its second year with a full team. In addition, the Men's Basketball program returned to the NCAA postseason for the 29th time in program history and the Men's Golf program advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third straight year.

All of the athletic achievements occurred while UH student-athletes recorded the second-best fall GPA, 2.91, and second-best spring GPA, 2.87, in athletic department history while placing a record 88 student-athletes on the University's Dean's Honor List in the spring.

Yurachek led the Houston Athletics fundraising charge with a record amount $5.2 million in private donations to the Athletics general scholarship fund in the 2014- 15 fiscal year. Focused on improving the student-athlete experience, Yurachek has also led a department that unveiled the completed Guy V. Lewis Development Center for the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs, Carolyn and Ron Yokubaitis Field at Carl Lewis International Track & Field Complex, one of the nation's largest collegiate baseball video boards, a renovated Houston Football locker room and a short game facility for the Houston Men's and Women's Golf programs.

Named by Chancellor Dr. Renu Khator as Chair for a campus-wide steering committee established to oversee the grand opening events for the $128 million TDECU Stadium, Yurachek assisted in the cultivation, solicitation and securing of a 10-year, $15 million-naming rights agreement for TDECU Stadium with the per year value ranking in the top ten nationally for collegiate venue naming rights agreements.

Yurachek was instrumental in the national search and hiring of football and men and women's basketball head coaches (Tom Herman, Kelvin Sampson, Ronald Hughey) while overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 remodeling project to the men and women's basketball locker rooms.

He served as liaison with an architectural design firm on the plans for the $25-million Guy V. Lewis Development Center as well as overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 facility enhancement to the Athletics/Alumni Center, including the addition of Cougar Cafe, a student-athlete nutrition center.

Yurachek came to Houston after serving four years as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University where he oversaw a department featuring 18 men's and women's NCAA Division I sport programs. A testament of his vision, Yurachek was named the 2014 Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in May of 2014.

Under Yurachek's leadership, the Chanticleers won a total of 29 Big South Championships (both regular season and tournament championships), made 30 NCAA appearances and finished a program-best 79th in the 2012-13 Learfield IMG College Director's Cup.

During Yurachek's time of leadership, Coastal hosted an NCAA Baseball Regional; NCAA Baseball Super Regional; NCAA Division I Football championship contests in 2010 and '13; and NCAA Men's Soccer Championship matches in 2011, '12 and '13, as well as winning a competitive bid to host the VisitMyrtleBeach.com Men's and Women's Big South Basketball Championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015, sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce.

Coastal Carolina student-athletes posted a 3.028 grade point average (GPA) for the fall 2013 semester and saw its overall GPA rise from 3.053 to 3.108. Of the 434 student-athletes, 253 – or 58.3 percent – posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, including 28 who earned President's List (4.0 GPA for the semester) and an additional 117 who earned Dean's List recognition. Further breakdown shows that 125 of the 175 women student-athletes (71.4 percent) posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, while 128 of the 259 men (49.4 percent) accomplished the feat.

In addition, during Yurachek's tenure Coastal Carolina student-athletes earned:

- 363 All-Big South honors
- 31 All-Big South Player of the Year honors along with 13 Big South Freshman of the Year honors
- 28 All-America honors
- 11 Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in their respective sports

- 5 Academic All-America honors
- 4 national postgraduate scholarships
- 3 Big South Conference Christenberry Awards for Academic Excellence

With all the success, the Coastal Carolina department operated within a balanced budget during Yurachek's tenure, thanks to his zero-budget initiative and the unprecedented revenues generated since his arrival with his restructuring of the external relations department. In his first year, the department revenue was at $560,000, including $316,000 in ticket sales and sponsorships at $250,000. After the 2012-13 year, revenue came in at $1.4 million, thanks to $549,000 in ticket sales and $600,000 in sponsorships.

Since 2010, the Department of Athletics added women's lacrosse; launched Champions for Life, a life skills enhancement program for student-athletes; signed a five-year $1.1 million contract with an athletic apparel provider; established the Letterwinners Association; successfully completed NCAA Cycle 3 Recertification; and has been featured on the front page of the sports section of USA Today with the headline reading "Coastal Carolina Piles up Sports Success."

Also during Yurachek's tenure, several major projects that supported intercollegiate athletics totaling more than $250 million were included in the University's in ongoing capital improvements across the campus.

The HTC Center opened in 2012 and is the home for Coastal Carolina's men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball programs – as well as the three-year home to the Big South Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. In addition, Adkins Field House, the Boni Belle Baseball/Softball Hitting & Practice Facility, the Will Garland Academic Enhancement Center and the Richard M. Ward MD Sports Performance Center were completed and dedicated while the $10.2 million Baseball/Softball complex was completed in 2014. Yurachek also secured a 12-court tennis facility and a student-athlete training table facility.

Prior to his appointment at Coastal Carolina University, Yurachek was executive senior associate athletics director at the University of Akron. He led and managed the Zips' external relations unit, which included marketing and promotions, media relations, ticket operations, development (Z-Fund), video operations and merchandising. In addition, he was the sport administrator for men's basketball, men's golf and women's golf and worked closely with the football program.

Yurachek has also held various athletics administration leadership positions at the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management at Guilford College in 1990, where he was a four-year letter winner in basketball. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Richmond in 1994.

Born in Richmond, Virginia, and raised in Charlotte, North Carolina, Yurachek and his wife, Jennifer, have three sons; Ryan, Jake and Brooks. Ryan is a former football student-athlete at Marshall University and has been with both the Oakland Raiders and Dallas Cowboys in the NFL. Jake is a redshirt-freshman football student-athlete at the University of Arkansas.

FROM CHANCELLOR STEINMETZ

Welcome to another exciting season of Razorback football. All year long, intercollegiate athletics provide excitement, entertainment and pride. Our athletic teams are a source of great pride for the entire Razorback nation, and they remind us of the importance of teamwork, discipline and commitment to a common goal.

Our intercollegiate athletics program is also one most successful programs in the country. On the strength of two national championships in both women's indoor and outdoor track and field, our department again finished in the top 25 of the Learfield Directors' Cup standings last year - despite fielding far fewer teams than most of the top finishers. In short, we do more with less, and make the most of the opportunities we have.

Our student athletes are also highly successful in the classroom. This spring they recorded a cumulative GPA of 3.24 and extended their streak to 19 consecutive semesters with an average cumulative GPA of 3.0 or more. More importantly, 98% of our student athletes who exhausted their eligibility graduated. And in addition to studying, training and competing, our student-athletes also devote a great deal of time to volunteering on campus and in the region.

Finally, it bears mentioning that Razorback Athletics is one of the nation's few financially self-sustaining athletics programs and does not receive state funding or student fees. In fact, Razorback Athletics helps support the university's academic mission by contributing more than $3.4 million a year to the institution for academic programs and other initiatives benefiting University of Arkansas students. Your great fan support combined with the careful management of resources allows the department to be self-sustaining.

These are all things Razorback fans can cheer about. And we can't do any of this without you. So on behalf of the University of Arkansas, thank you for your passionate support of the Razorbacks.

Go Hogs!
Joe Steinmetz, Chancellor

JOSEPH E. STEINMETZ CHANCELLOR

Joseph E. Steinmetz became the sixth chancellor of the University of Arkansas on Jan. 1, 2016. Among his priorities as chief executive officer at the U of A are advancing student success, creating more need-based scholarships, growing graduate programs, and continuing to advance diversity.

To that end, Dr. Steinmetz oversaw the establishment of the university's eight Guiding Priorities, which have led to new programs and initiatives like the Advance Arkansas scholarship program to improve access for students from underrepresented areas and the Chancellor's Discovery and Innovation Fund, as well as increased investments in research and commercialization.

His support for the arts also helped facilitate the creation of a School of Art through a $120 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation and the Windgate Art and Design District through a $40 million gift from the Windgate Foundation. He continues to meet with a broad range of stakeholders across the state to advocate for public education and to learn how they can work together for the common goal of strengthening the flagship.

A nationally respected behavioral neuroscientist, Dr. Steinmetz was recognized in 1996 by the National Academy of Sciences for his contributions to the fields of experimental psychology and neuroscience. In 2012 he was named an AAAS Fellow. Prior to his appointment as chancellor, he was Ohio State's chief academic officer. As executive vice president and provost, he oversaw the administration, coordination, and development of all academic functions of the university.

Dr. Steinmetz earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Central Michigan University and his doctorate at Ohio University. He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons and five grandchildren.

GERALD JORDAN FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Gerald Jordan, associate professor of journalism, worked 25 years for metropolitan daily newspapers before he joined the UofA faculty in 1995. His 2017 appointment as Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) marks a return to his student journalism days when he was sports editor of the Arkansas Traveler and covered the Razorbacks.

Like his predecessor Dr. Sharon Hunt, Jordan is an Arkansas alumnus and he becomes only the fourth UofA faculty member to fill this position. Chancellor Joe Steinmetz appointed Jordan to take on the responsibility to certify the eligibility of student-athletes and serve as the university's representative to the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference.

Jordan graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1970 with a degree in journalism and earned his master's degree in journalism at Northwestern University in 1971. He is a 1982 Nieman Fellow at Harvard University.

Jordan began his career as a sports reporter for The Kansas City Star, where he subsequently wrote editorials and was a TV columnist. He wrote editorials for The Boston Globe. At The Philadelphia Inquirer, Jordan was a reporter, a Washington correspondent and worked as an editor in several departments before joining the journalism faculty.

He returned to The Inquirer as an editor for 15 summers. He also worked two summers on News21, a national investigative journalism project at the Walter Cronkite School, Arizona State University. Jordan has been an innovative teacher, developing the Digital Media Lab, a semester block of journalism courses designed to provide intensive teaching and training for a limited number of students in a realistic multimedia news environment. He also helped create the Lemke Journalism Project, which has brought minority high school students interested in journalism to the university for the past 17 years.

Jordan served as president of the Arkansas Alumni Association Board of Directors, and he is the founding leader of two alumni societies for UofA graduates.

He received the UofA's Silas Hunt Legacy Award in 2010, and a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Northwest Arkansas Martin Luther King Jr. Planning Committee.

Jordan was also the first faculty member to receive the university's national award as Volunteer of the Year.

He has been honored by Associated Student Government and the Student Alumni Board as Teacher of the Year and nominated an additional three times.

Jordan was presented the Faculty Gold Medal Award in 2013 by the UofA's State and National Awards committee.

The Arkansas Press Association presented Jordan with its 2016 Distinguished Service Award.

In 2017, the American Society of News Editors and the Association of Opinion Journalists presented Jordan with the Barry Bingham Sr. Fellowship for his career-long work to increase newsroom diversity.

RAZORBACK FOUNDATION

ABOUT THE FOUNDATION

The mission of The Razorback Foundation, Inc., is to support the athletic endeavors of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks. Razorback Athletics is one of a handful of NCAA Division I Athletic Departments in the nation that is financially self-sustaining and requires no UA student fees or taxpayer support.

Razorback Foundation members supply student-athletes with a first-class education and championship-caliber facilities while providing the yearly financial support needed to operate 19 Razorback Athletic sport programs.

Nearly one-third of our Annual Fund members give between $50 to $1,000 per year. Any amount makes a significant impact on the lives of Razorback student-athletes.

THE A CLUB

The A Club's mission is to create and foster enduring relationships with former Razorback student-athletes in all sports to facilitate a continued connection with Razorback Athletics and the University of Arkansas.

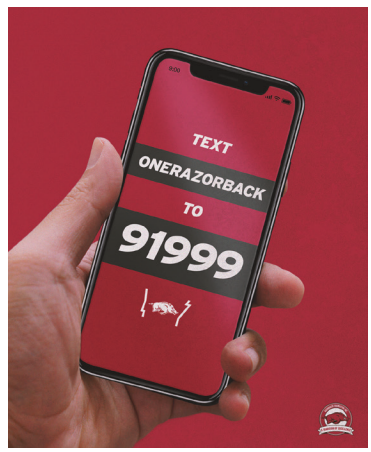

By cultivating a strong, active and diversified membership, the A Club pursues its core purpose of making a significant difference in the lives of current and former student-athletes while strengthening the Razorback spirit and further bolstering the tradition of Razorback Athletics. The A Club also provides financial support to ensure a successful and competitive future for Razorback Athletics.

RAZORBACK CLUBS

Razorback Clubs uphold the mission of the Razorback Foundation throughout Arkansas and the surrounding states. These non-profit clubs hold regular meetings throughout the year that feature University of Arkansas coaches and administrators, host fundraisers to support the Foundation and foster camaraderie among the Razorback Nation well beyond Northwest Arkansas. Contact the Razorback Foundation at 479-443-9000 or gohogs@razorbackfoundation.com to learn about the club nearest you.

NEW IN 2019

TEXT TO JOIN

In May, the Foundation launched a new, mobile-friendly opportunity to join the Foundation becoming one of the few, if not only, Power 5 schools to offer a text to join option for new members. Non-Razorback Foundation members can now text ONERazorback to 91999 to become a member of the Foundation from anywhere at any time.

For $4.17 a month, or $50 a year, anyone can become a member of the Foundation and make a positive, lasting impact on more than 465 Razorback student-athletes.

NEW MEMBER REFERRAL PROGRAM

The Razorback Foundation announced the creation of a New Member Referral Program in an effort to provide additional benefits to current members and attract new members. For every new member that joins the Razorback Foundation based on a documented referral, the current member automatically receives five (5) priority points plus one (1) entry into random prize drawings.

CARDINAL & WHITE

Cardinal & White is the philanthropic society of the Razorback Foundation to support facility construction and renovations, student-athlete development opportunities, scholarships and other operations of the Athletic Department designed to enhance the student-athlete experience. Gifts made to Cardinal & White are philanthropic in nature and are not associated with seating or parking benefits.

GREG SANKEY
COMMISSIONER, SEC

Greg Sankey became the eighth Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on June 1, 2015, and immediately embarked on a journey to build upon the SEC's recognized success, strong foundations and rich traditions.

Sankey has moved the conference forward while respecting the institutional traditions that make the SEC unique. With an understanding of the highly competitive environment of college sports, he has fostered the collaborative culture of the SEC that sets the conference apart and supports its continuing success.

Based upon the conference-wide success and growth, the SEC was the only college conference named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's League of the Year Award in 2017-18, a nomination shared with the National Basketball Association (NBA), Major League Baseball (MLB), Ladies' Professional Golf Association (LPGA), National Hockey League (NHL) and Major League Soccer (MLS).

Sankey brings a big picture approach to his position through continuing focus on a vision that positions the SEC to leverage its athletics success and popularity for a greater overall cultural and economic impact on the region, the nation and the world.

During his first major address as Commissioner, he introduced his concept of "Scholars. Champions. Leaders." to describe the ultimate potential of the SEC. "Educating scholars and supporting champions provides the platform for developing leaders who will influence the world," Sankey said in his opening remarks at SEC Football Media Days in 2015.

ADVOCATING FOR STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITY

Now in his fourth year at the helm of the SEC, Sankey has established himself as an advocate for the student-athlete, creating a framework to provide young people in the Conference with new leadership opportunities and resources to succeed at the highest levels of academic achievement and competitive success. New student-athlete focused initiatives under Sankey's leadership include:

- Creation of a new position in the SEC office for a Director of Student-Athlete Engagement, a role focused on offering student-athletes the opportunity to participate in Conference leadership and prepare for life after their intercollegiate athletics participation concludes. (August 2015)
- Introduction of Student-Athlete Leadership Councils for Football, Men's Basketball and Women's Basketball which, in addition to the Conference's longstanding Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, provide student-athletes with additional opportunities to engage with campus leaders and Conference office staff. (May 2016)
- Introduction of a Student-Athlete Career Tour during SEC Football Championship Week in Atlanta, which annually provides a group of student-athletes with opportunities to engage in career exploration with high level corporations and businesses. (December 2016 and 2017)
- Expansion of the student-athlete role at the annual SEC Spring Meetings when student-athletes participate in a robust agenda of interaction with administrators and coaches to provide their perspectives to Conference leaders. (May 2017 and 2018)
- Increased funding for the SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Post-Graduate Scholarship, established in 1986 to honor outstanding student-athletes in the SEC for their accomplishments in athletics and academics. The value of the post-graduate scholarships increased to $20,000 each for the two winners and $10,000 each for the 26 finalists. (December 2017)

ADVANCING THE CONFERENCE

Upon assuming the role of Commissioner, Sankey moved swiftly to address issues critical to college athletics, with an emphasis on integrity, ethics and sportsmanship:

- Appointed a Working Group on Student-Athlete Conduct consisting of campus leaders to develop recommendations for updated Conference policies governing conduct expectations for student-athletes. As a result:
  - The SEC adopted a serious misconduct policy governing transfers that has served as a model for similar policies subsequently adopted by other conferences and institutions. (June 2016, expanded definition June 2017)
  - The SEC expanded its serious misconduct policy to include all incoming prospective student-athletes. (June 2018)
- Appointed a Working Group on Compliance, Enforcement and Governance, designed to review and update principles which form the foundation of the Conference membership's commitment to SEC and NCAA rules compliance.
- Amended an SEC Bylaw to now require a university president or chancellor to consult directly with the SEC Commissioner before hiring someone "who has engaged in unethical conduct as defined under NCAA Bylaws or who has participated in activity that resulted, or may result, in a Level I, Level II, or major infraction." (June 2017)

Sankey prioritized the enhancement of Conference championship events to meet the goal of providing student-athletes with life-long memories and exceptional experiences for fans, which has included:

- An agreement with Atlanta's new Mercedes Benz Stadium to serve as the long-term home for the SEC Football Championship Game. (September 2015)
- An agreement with the City of Hoover, AL, to continue as host of the SEC Baseball Tournament after the city committed to construction of a $70 million baseball campus to enhance the baseball tournament experience for student-athletes and fans. (June 2016)
- Engagement with a security consulting firm to review and develop consistent and effective security plans for SEC Championship events. (August 2016)
- A three-year agreement with Greenville, SC, to provide a multi-year home for the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament at Bon Secours Wellness Arena. (May 2018)

Sankey has focused resources on the development of Conference officiating with a series of measures blending technology with effective leadership to create greater accuracy and consistency for officiating in all sports, including:

- Hiring new coordinators of officials in the sports of men's basketball, women's basketball and softball.
- Working with the NCAA to gain approval for a collaborative instant replay process in the sport of football, which was implemented successfully beginning with the Fall 2016 season. (May 2016)
- Collaborating with the American Athletic and Atlantic Sun conferences to create a men's basketball officiating consortium, later adding the Sun Belt Conference. (July 2016 and May 2017)
- Securing NCAA approval to implement a collaborative instant replay process in the sport of men's basketball beginning with the 2017-18 season. (May 2017)
- Implementing an NCAA-approved experimental process for expanding the number of permissible plays evaluated through instant replay in the sport of baseball for the 2018 season. (August 2017)

Another priority under Sankey's leadership is growing exposure for the Conference and effectively publicizing success stories of the SEC. Strategies pursued to achieve this objective include:

- Engagement with The Richards Group, a highly successful national marketing agency, to develop a comprehensive branding campaign to positively feature the SEC, its student-athletes, alumni, leaders and fans. The theme of the campaign – "It Just Means More" – communicates the history, legacy and overall positive impact the SEC has on its region, the nation and the world.
- Introduction of the SEC Graduate Patch, a logo placed on the uniforms of every sport displayed by SEC student-athletes who have earned their undergraduate degree and are continuing their participation in intercollegiate athletics.
- Collaboration with the SEC Network to create unique exposure opportunities for Conference universities, teams and student-athletes, including behind-the-scenes programming, expanding live championship coverage for Olympic Sports, covering all spring football games and adding unique coverage of halftime band performances in football.
- An agreement with SiriusXM to create the first college branded satellite radio channel, SiriusXM SEC Radio, an exclusive 24/7 audio channel dedicated to SEC sports. The new channel delivers fans and alumni across the country in-depth and comprehensive access to SEC-focused sports talk and news, plus an extensive schedule of SEC games. (November 2017)
- Move of SEC Football Media Days to a new market, taking the signature event to the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta while adding a fan event in Centennial Olympic Park to expand the kickoff week to five days of activities. It marked the first time SEC Media Days was held outside the Birmingham, Alabama, area since 1985.

A CAREER IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS

On March 12, 2015, the Presidents and Chancellors of the SEC announced Greg Sankey would succeed Mike Slive as Commissioner of the SEC.

Sankey, 54, first joined the SEC staff in 2002 as Associate Commissioner for Governance, Enforcement and Compliance and later added supervision of the league's championships staff to his responsibilities. He was elevated to Executive Associate Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer for the league office in 2012, becoming responsible for the day-to-day operation of the SEC Office.

Sankey has been active within the NCAA committee structure, including his current service on the Enforcement/Infractions Working Group created to address recommendations from the independent Commission on College Basketball. He has also served on the Division I Legislative Council, Committee on Academic Performance and the NCAA Committee on Infractions.

Before moving to the SEC, Sankey served as Commissioner of the Southland Conference for nearly seven years. He joined the Southland Conference staff in 1992 where he served as both assistant and associate commissioner before he was named its Commissioner in 1996 at the age of 31.

Prior to his term at the Southland Conference, he was Director of Compliance and Academic Services at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, Louisiana. While at Northwestern State, Sankey also coached the Demons' golf teams for two years, earning the Golf Coaches Association of America District VI Coach of the Year award in 1991. Before his tenure at Northwestern State, he was the Director of Intramural Sports at Utica College in upstate New York.

A native of Auburn, New York, Sankey earned his master's degree from Syracuse University and his undergraduate degree from the State University of New York College at Cortland. Sankey and his wife, Cathy, reside in Birmingham, Alabama, and have two adult daughters, Hannah and Moriah.

SEC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Southeastern Conference's Eastern and Western Division winners will meet in Atlanta's newly constructed Mercedes-Benz Stadium to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 27th-annual title game is set for December 1 and will be televised nationally by CBS Sports.

The game was born as a result of 1992 conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

The 2017 SEC Championship Game was the highest rated game in the nation for the entire regular season. No. 7 Georgia's 28-7 win over No. 2 Auburn drew an average overnight rating of 8.4 and 18 share, the best for CBS since 2013, when the Iron Bowl drew an 8.6/18 rating and share. Those figures are up 20 percent from last year's SEC Championship Game between Alabama and Florida (7.0/15).

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned an 11.8 rating and a 24 share, marking the highest-rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game matched the No. 1 Florida Gators (12-0) vs. the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide (12-0).

The SEC Championship Game has drawn 24 capacity crowds in its 26-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

The SEC, along with AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority (GWCCA), have an agreement to host the SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta through 2026. The new agreement allows the SEC the option of adding up to two successive five-year extensions.

The Georgia Dome hosted the SEC Championship Game for 23 years beginning in 1994, with capacity crowds in the last 21 consecutive years. By the end of the new agreement, including options, the Championship will have been played in Atlanta a total of 43 years.

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2006: Florida 38, Arkansas 28

Florida scored a touchdown with nine minutes left in the game and held on for the 38-28 victory over Arkansas. Down 17-7 at the half, Arkansas took a 21-17 third-quarter lead on a two-yard reception by Felix Jones and a 40-yard interception return by Antwain Robinson. Arkansas could have had a chance to build on the lead, but the Gators recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to move back in front 24-21 with 3:47 left in the third period. Percy Harvin, who scored on a 37-yard pass from Chris Leak in the second quarter, scored on a 67-yard run early in the fourth to put Florida up 31-21. Jones scored his second touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Cedric Washington to cut the margin to three. Darren McFadden finished with 73 yards on 15 carries and Jones 57 on 13. Casey Dick was 10-of-22 passing for 148 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. Harvin had 105 yards on six carries for Florida, which went on to win the national title at 13-1, while Leak was 16-of-30 for 189 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

2002: Georgia 30, Arkansas 3

Georgia scored on its first five possessions for a 23-0 halftime lead and posted a 30-3 victory. Georgia claimed the SEC title just 75 miles from its Athens campus. Musa Smith rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns. David Greene threw for 237 yards and a score, earning the game's MVP award. Terrence Edwards had seven catches for 92 yards, becoming the SEC's career leader in receiving yards. Arkansas had won six in a row to earn its second trip to the league championship game. The Razorbacks had a punt blocked by Decory Bryant on their first possession and Thomas Davis scooped up the loose ball and ran to the Arkansas 2-yard line. On Georgia's next possession, Smith, who scored after the blocked punt, finished off the drive with a 17-yard scoring run. Georgia's next three possessions ended with field goals by Billy Bennett, who connected from 29, 42 and 39 yards to provide the halftime margin. Arkansas led the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 243 yards per game but managed just 65 against Georgia. Fred Talley, a 1,000-yard rusher, was held to 51 yards on 17 carries while Matt Jones managed only 12 yards on nine carries. Jones completed 9-of-17 passes for 60 yards.

1995: Florida 34, Arkansas 3

A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome saw Florida post a 34-3 victory. Florida out-gained Arkansas by only 97 yards, 396-299, but the Gators committed no turnovers while Arkansas lost the ball four times. Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.
