WELCOME TO ARKANSAS

Hello Razorback Fans!

It's a great time to be a Razorback and we are glad you want to learn more about Razorback women's golf.

The 2014-15 season is going to be a great one. We have some new events on the schedule and return a veteran group of players who know what it takes to win in the SEC.

We've also added some talented newcomers, who will have an immediate impact on this team.

Last season we made our 11th NCAA Regional appearance and we return three talented student-athletes who were a big part of our success. We are looking forward to improving on both of those finishes in 2014-15.

I'm glad you stopped by and want to know more about our team and program. Give us a call, check out our website at ArkansasRazorbacks.com or follow me on Twitter to learn more.

LEWIS AND FEHERTY

It's an hour of putting, driving, girl power and "Woo Pig Sooie!" in Fayetteville, Ark., on the episode of FEHERTY, when David Feherty goes face to face with the LPGA's brightest rising American star, Stacy Lewis. With warmth and candor, Lewis talks about her first taste of being World No. 1, the rapid resurgence of the LPGA Tour and her childhood dream of someday playing big-time golf despite struggling for 7 1/2 years with a painful spinal condition diagnosed as scoliosis. Other discussion highlights from the episode include the thrill of Lewis' first LPGA win, her conflicted decision to fire her father as her caddie, growing friendships with Tiger Woods and Rory McIlroy, as well as her 2007 NCAA Individual Golf Championship as a member of the Arkansas Razorback women's golf team. -- From lpga.com

Former Razorback and LPGA Player of the Year Stacy Lewis was asked by Golf Channel to be on the Feherty Show. She was told she could select any location for the shoot and Lewis decided to bring the world to Northwest Arkansas shooting the episode at Blessings in 2013.

The day-long event allowed for a lot of laughs, a great conversation and the chance for the world to know Lewis and the Razorback golf program a little bit better.

FACILITIES

SMITH TRAINING FACILITY

The Razorbacks took a giant leap forward in the spring of 2004 with the dedication of the Fred W. and Mary B. Smith Razorback Golf Training Facility at Blessings in Johnson, Ark.

Located on the practice tee of Blessings, the facility is home to six indoor-outdoor practice bays, an indoor video swing analysis station, office space and men's and women's locker room facilities for the Arkansas golf teams.

The long-time CEO of the Donrey Media Group, Fred Smith, is the chairman of the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation.

"We are excited to be a part of this facility that will help the Razorback golf programs continue to compete at the highest national level," Smith said. "Many members of our family play golf, so we have an appreciation for the commitment and many hours of practice that are required to succeed. We have a great love for the University of Arkansas and have always been proud to support the Razorbacks."

Arkansas head coach Shauna Estes-Taylor echoed those thoughts.

"I believe we have one of the best golf facilities in the country," said Estes-Taylor. "I can't thank Mr. Tyson enough for allowing us to call the Blessings our home. There is not a golf shot that we can not practice at our facility and it helps prepare us for championship golf. The Fred and Mary Smith Golf Center is another amazing facility that houses our offices, locker rooms, video bays, putting studio, and a lounge for our teams to call home. Many thanks as well to Fred and Mary Smith for their generous support for our golf center. I feel so lucky to have such a great place to show off to recruits. There is this "wow" factor that exists when people see our place for the first time. We are very lucky!"

Although the facility and golf course are just a couple years old, a recent expansion was added. The addition included more driving range tee space that allows the team to practice from many different angles, a new wedge tee, and a state-of-the-art video putting lab. Several finishing touches were also added to the interior including the completion of a trophy case housing a replica of John Daly's British Open trophy and Stacy Lewis' NCAA Tournament trophy.

AT OUR FINGERTIPS

The Fred W. and Mary B. Smith Razorback Golf Training Facility is equipped with a putting studio. The system that was installed for use by both the women's and men's teams is the SAM PuttLab.

The SAM PuttLab is the most comprehensive putt training tool ever developed. The software and computer system is customized to exactly fit the needs of each individual player. It is used by the top players on the PGA and LPGA tours.

The training system gives you feedback on all of the following parts of your putting stroke: face angle, swing path, impact position, dynamic loft and rise angle, club face rotation, movement dynamics, rhythm and timing.

STACY LEWIS GIVES BACK

Former University of Arkansas and current Ladies Professional Golf Association star Stacy Lewis became the first female member of the Razorback Foundation's Century Circle, with her recent gift to the golf program.

Lewis, a The Woodlands, Texas, native, is the first former female student-athlete to donate $100,000 or more to the program. Her gift is earmarked for expansion of the Razorback golf training facilities at Blessings.

"We are grateful to Stacy Lewis for her generous gift which will directly benefit current and future Razorback student-athletes," Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long said. "Despite her demanding schedule, Stacy continues to support the Razorbacks in a variety of ways including remaining active with our women's golf program. Stacy's personal story of overcoming adversity to achieve success continues to serve as an inspiration to others. We are extremely proud of Stacy and what she is doing on the LPGA Tour and in our community. She is a tremendous ambassador for the University of Arkansas and for the Razorback program."

Lewis is a three-time winner on the LPGA Tour including two victories this season and a major championship at the Kraft Nabisco last year. Lewis is currently ranked No. 2 in the world and is the highest ranked American player.

"I was fortunate enough to get to know Stacy at a time when golf took a back seat to her getting healthy after surgery," said Arkansas head coach Shauna Estes-Taylor. "It was during this time I really began to understand her commitment to her dream of becoming a professional athlete. As I worked with her that first year when she was so limited physically, I saw that Stacy was invested in not only her own success but the success and growth of our program. She had a great student-athlete experience at Arkansas and now her gift will enhance the experience of others who have the dream of being Razorbacks."

"We are so proud of all that Stacy has accomplished," said G. David Gearhart, the university's chancellor. "This generous gift reflects her own pride in her alma mater and her commitment to helping other U of A students pursue their dreams and goals. We are most appreciative of her gift."

Lewis was a member of the Razorback women's golf team from 2005-08. She redshirted her first season on campus after having surgery to address her scoliosis. Lewis recovered quickly earning four All-Southeastern Conference and National Golf Coaches Association All-America honors. Lewis was a two-time SEC Championship medalist and won the 2007 NCAA Individual title shooting a course record 66 in the final round at LPGA International.

While at Arkansas, Lewis helped the Razorbacks to four NCAA Regional selections and three NCAA Championship team appearances. Arkansas won three tournaments and Lewis picked up a school record 13 individual titles during her collegiate career.

Lewis graduated in 2008 with a degree in finance from Arkansas. She won Qualifying School in the fall of 2008 earning her LPGA Tour Card in her first year as a pro.

BLESSINGS EXPANSION

The proposed expansion of the Razorbacks Training facility, the Fred and Mary Smith Center, is scheduled to include an indoor putting facility with surface that allows the Razorbacks to hone our short game skills in all areas. The space will also include expanded locker rooms, pictured at the right, as well as a second floor with a weight room that will allow each team to do golf specific training on site at the golf course.

BLESSINGS

Blessings Golf Club is an exciting 18 hole championship course located in Fayetteville, Ark.. From the back tees it plays 7,527 yards with a par of 72. The course was designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr., ASGCA and opened in 2004. The course contact is Tom Jones, General Manager/Director of Golf, and Stan Wright, Head Professional.

The Razorback Golf team moved into their home course at Blessings during the summer of 2004. The course is both challenging to players and was a challenge to create. Robert Trent Jones II and owner John Tyson (Chairman of Tyson Foods) had a number of goals in mind when designing Blessings.

A very hands-on client, Tyson wanted a flexible golf course where every shot required careful thought and precise execution. He also wanted a course sufficiently demanding to host major collegiate tournaments. To meet the dual goals of toughness and flexibility, RTJ II created a unique golf course with three adjustable holes-eight, nine and sixteen-which can be configured to play to different pars, depending on course setup.

Another challenge in designing Blessings was to route the golf course so that the clubhouse could be located outside of the floodplain of Clear Creek, the major topographical and strategic feature of the site. After considering a number of possibilities, a continuous eighteen-hole routing was recommended rather than a pair of returning nines. A third challenge arose as the architect designed the short, par-three tenth hole, which plays to a green located on an exposed platform at the edge of a vertical rock quarry. The green site was shaded by a grove of hardwoods that designers wished to save, but needed to thin out to provide sunlight to the green. To solve this dilemma, they generated computer models that showed sunlight angles to the green at various times of day and season, and figured out how to save the greatest number of trees while allowing for enough light to grow grass on the green. This is a good example of how RTJ II delivers environmentally sensitive solutions to golf course design challenges-something we've been doing for more than 30 years.

Blessings stretches to nearly 7,500 yards from the back tees and plays through two distinct landforms-the Clear Creek floodplain and a plateau that rises to 65 feet above the floodplain where it's bisected by a series of ravines. Both the outward and inward nines climb up and down between the two topographies, creating drama and variety on a course where golfers will surely feel both tested and blessed by the glory of their surroundings.

Practice Facilities

CLUBHOUSE

The Blessings Clubhouse, is a luxury clubhouse designed by architect Marlon Blackwell. A stand-alone structure set at the base of the hill, with its footprint minimally contacting the land, the Blessings Clubhouse acts as a type of covered bridge. This bridging creates an entry portal that operates as a breezeway framing the eighteenth green, acts as a threshold to the golf course beyond, and is an event space for golf tournaments. Conceived as an animate form, the building receives the visitor beneath its cool and shaded underbelly, not unlike the clefts and caves found in the nearby hills. The Blessings Golf Clubhouse attempts to demonstrate that a conventional commercial building system can be transfigured into a contemporary design solution that recalls a traditional lineage, that of the traditions of the game of golf. FAYETTEVILLE COUNTRY CLUB

PARADISE VALLEY GOLF CLUB

SPRINGDALE COUNTRY CLUB

STONEBRIDGE MEADOWS GOLF CLUB

PINNACLE COUNTRY CLUB

Women's professional golf is a fixture in the state of Arkansas, joining the Razorbacks at one of their home courses – Pinnacle Country Club in Rogers. Located in the northwest portion of The Natural State, Pinnacle Country Club hosts an international field of LPGA Tour professionals at the Walmart Northwest Arkansas Championship presented by P&G at Pinnacle Country Club. The week-long championship included a variety of community events, Pro-Am play and three days of LPGA competition.

The Razorbacks are currently the only Southeastern Conference team whose course is hosting an LPGA event this year and are one of just a handful of major college programs with an event on their home course.

In addition, the Razorbacks compete all season to qualify for two of the Monday play-in spots for the championship.

Founded in 1990, Pinnacle Country Club is one of Northwest Arkansas' premier golf and tennis facilities. The course, designed by Don Sechrest in association with Bruce Lietzke, stretches 6,695 yards from the back tees with a course rating of 72.8 and a slope of 131. The Razorbacks compete from Pinnacle's white tees with a length of 6,102 yards.

Located 20 minutes north of Fayetteville in Rogers, Ark., Pinnacle is known both for its course difficulty and homesite elegance.

Pinnacle is graced with generous landing areas, but its large, undulated greens require both precision and accuracy. Its par 3s are extremely challenging including, Pinnacle's signature hole, No. 15. This hole requires a golfer's most accurate mid-iron as the 160-yard downhill shot must carry to an island green.

While young in its existence, Pinnacle has a history as host of prestigious events including the Greg Norman Challenge in 1990 and the Philips Classic in 1992, an event that included several senior PGA players.

The grand clubhouse provides a comfortable setting for casual entertaining as well as formal events. The elegant design and location of the clubhouse evoke the Southern hospitality that welcomes all members "home."

WALMART NWA CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Walmart NW Arkansas

LPGA CHAMPIONSHIP

Northwest Arkansas returned to the Ladies Professional Golf Association's schedule in 2007 hosting the Walmart Northwest Arkansas LPGA Championship at Pinnacle Country Club.

Arkansas has been home several events beginning with the Hardscrabble Women's Invitational Oct.

17-21, 1950, in Fort Smith, Ark. The event was won by Patty Berg.

The Hardscrabble Open returned to Fort Smith in 1952 and was followed by the Arkansas Open at the Country Club of Hot Springs, in Hot Springs, Ark., in 1956.

The LPGA added the Walmart Northwest Arkansas Championship in 2007. The commitment allows the Arkansas women's golf team and the Northwest Arkansas community to enjoy the sport at its best.

The inaugural event in 2007 was spectacular for Arkansas fans. Then junior Stacy Lewis earned a sponsor's exemption to play in the event and she blistered the course shooting a 65 in the first round.

Eight inches of rain, however, washed away Lewis' "win" as the tournament was declared a "non-event". Lewis was awarded the trophy and invited back for the 2008 event.

Stacy Lewis wins in 2014.

SOLHEIM CUP

2011 -- Stacy Lewis

2013 -- Stacy Lewis

The Solheim Cup is a biennial golf tournament for professional women golfers contested by teams representing Europe and the United States. It is named for the Norwegian-American golf club manufacturer Karsten Solheim, who was a driving force behind its creation.

The inaugural Cup was held in 1990, and the event was staged in even number years until 2002, alternating years with the Ryder Cup (the equivalent men's event between the USA and Europe). As part of the general reshuffling of team golf events consequent to the one-year postponement of the 2001 Ryder Cup due to 9/11, the Solheim Cup switched to odd numbered years from 2003.

The US team is selected by a points system, with American players on the LPGA Tour receiving points for each top-twenty finish on tour.[1] For the European team, up to 2005, only seven players were selected on a points system based on results on the Ladies European Tour (LET). This allows top European players who compete mainly on the LPGA Tour to be selected to ensure that the European team is competitive. From 2007, only the top five players from the LET will qualify and another four will be selected on the basis of the Women's World Golf Rankings. This reflects the increasing dominance of the LPGA Tour, where almost all top European players spend most of their time.[2] In addition, each team has a number of "captain's picks", players chosen at the discretion of the team captains, regardless of their point standings, though in practice the captain's picks are often the next ranking players.

2012--Emily Tubert (Nairn Golf Club, Nairn, Scotland)

The Curtis Cup is the best known team trophy for women amateur golfers, awarded in the biennial Curtis Cup Match (not "Matches"). It is co-organized by the United States Golf Association and the Ladies Golf Union and is contested by teams representing the United States and "Great Britain and Ireland". The same two teams originally contested the Ryder Cup, but unlike that competition, the Curtis Cup has not widened the Great Britain and Ireland team to include all Europeans (nor has the analogous event for amateur men, the Walker Cup). Many women who have gone on to become stars of women's professional golf have played in the Curtis Cup.

teur female golfer. Amateurs must have an up-to-date USGA Handicap Index not exceeding 4.4. Players may obtain a place by being exempt or by competing successfully in qualifying. In 2002, a two stage method of qualification was introduced—18 holes for local qualifying and 36 holes for sectional qualifying. In 2010, the qualification process reverted to a single sectional stage of 36 holes played on a single day. The criteria for exemption from qualifying has changed through the years. In 2010, there were eleven exemption categories, including winners of the U.S. Women's Open for the last ten years, winners of the other three majors for the last five years, the top 50 from the previous year's LPGA Tour money list, the top five from the previous year's Japan LPGA Tour, Korea LPGA Tour, and Ladies European Tour money lists, and official winners of LPGA co-sponsored events for the 52 week period prior to the U.S. Women's Open.

LEWIS WINS ESPY

Stacy Lewis took home another trophy in 2013. Lewis, the No. 2 golfer in the world in the Rolex rankings, won the ESPY award as the top female golfer. Lewis won through a fan vote that ran on ESPN's web site. In 2012, Lewis won four events and had 16 top-ten tournament finishes, and has seven career wins and 47 top-ten finishes.

LEWIS WINS BRITISH OPEN

Winning her 2nd major at the Old Course at St. Andrews, the home of golf, by coming from behind with birdies on the last two holes - does it get any better than that?

Stacy Lewis won her third tournament of 2013 and, in the process, stopped Inbee Park's bid to win 4 majors in a row - the Grand Slam. After reaching the #1 ranking in March and holding it for 4 weeks, Stacy was passed by Park, who went on an unprecedented hot streak including 3 major wins in a row and overtaking Stacy for the #1 spot. But, by winning the Ricoh British Open, Stacy stopped another streak, by becoming the 1st non-Asian player to win a major since she won the Kraft Nabisco in 2011. The win also narrowed the gap between the top two players in the world and may be the beginning of another run to the #1 ranking.

Going into the Ricoh Women's British Open, Stacy was feeling pretty good about her chances. After all, she played her last amateur event at St. Andrews at the Curtis Cup, where she made history by achieving a 5-0 won/loss record and leading the US team to a commanding victory. She loved the course then and the Old Course loved her back on this major occasion. And her timing could not be more perfect as she will now lead the US team against the Europeans, this time at the biennial Solheim Cup, to be played in Colorado in two weeks in an effort to win back the Solheim Cup.

Whether it is winning a major for herself, or representing her country against the best golfers in the world, Stacy Lewis is proving time and again that she is the American face of golf and an inspiration for millions around the world.

2013-14 REVIEW

Individual

The Razorback women's golf team won the Lady Puerto Rico Classic in 2014.

The University of Arkansas women's golf team enjoyed one of the program's most successful seasons in 2013-14.

Although the year did not end with a National Championship, the successes of this year's team can easily be measured in records set and program highs.

Maybe one of the most significant accomplishments for this year's program is the continued success in the class room. The Razorbacks were honored after earned a perfect 1,000 multiyear APR rate based on scores from the 2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12 and 2012-13 academic years. This is the five award for the @RazorbackWGolf since the APR public recognition program was initiated. In addition to this year's selection, the Razorback women's golf program was recognized for the 2004-05, 2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08 seasons.

Off the links success is no stranger to the Razorback women's golf team. Emily Podzielinski was selected as a member of the Southeastern Conferences' Community Service Team, the 11th selection in as many seasons.

Inside the ropes accomplishments were honored this season as well. Head coach Shauna Estes-Taylor became Arkansas' first women's golf coach named conference coach of the year. Senior Emily Tubert earned her fourth SEC First-Team honor and was joined by sophomore Gabriela Lopez on the first-team. Sophomore Regina Plasencia was an All-SEC Second-Team selection.

As a team, the Razorbacks tied a program-best winning three tournaments this season. The first victory came at the rain-shortened Mercedes Benz Collegiate Classic where Arkansas posted a two-round 563 defeating 16 other teams. The Razorbacks opened the spring with a win at the Lady Puerto Rico Classic and added the LSU Golf Classic title in late March.

And records, well, there were a few.

Gabriela Lopez

ARKANSAS FINISHES STRONG AT SECS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – University of Arkansas sophomore Gabriela Lopez powered her way through the 2014 Southeastern Conference Women's Golf Championships finishing tied for second overall and leading the No. 4 Razorbacks to a third-place finish at Greystone Golf and Country Club in Birmingham, Ala., in 2014.

Lopez's runner-up finish is second only to former Razorback Stacy Lewis who won the SEC title twice, first as a freshman in 2005 and again as a senior in 2008. It is the best finish by an Arkansas sophomore at the SEC Championship in two seasons.

Lopez opened the weekend Friday with a one-over 73. The front nine gave her fits in the first round as the Mexico City, Mexico, native was two-over with four bogeys to start off tournament play. Lopez rallied on day one with three birdies, including two in the final three holes, to count her 73.

The second round was even better despite the tough conditions. A rain-soaked golf course, and delayed the start but Lopez didn't mind as she played the first nine even in the second round. She maintained that consistency and was again even on the back nine with a two bogeys and two birdies for the day.

In her final round, Lopez began the day with 10 consecutive par holes before moving to one-under with a birdie on the 11th hole. She gave it back on 13 with a double but finished strong with a birdie on the 18th green for a 72. Lopez shot 73-72-72=217 for the weekend.

As a team, Arkansas posted a final round 301 and finished third with an 892, 13 strokes back of the winner. Senior Emily Tubert tied for 10th overall with rounds of 73-73-76=222 and sophomore Regina Plasencia tied for 19th overall shooting 72-75-79=226. Senior Emma Lavy tied for 53rd overall shooting 76-77-81=234 and freshman Summar Roachelle tied for 58th with 79-82-74=235.

"We didn't get the team result we hoped for this weekend," Arkansas head coach Shauna Estes-Taylor said, "but I'm so proud of the way we finished. We have such a great group of players and it was a joy to lead them around the course this weekend."

Surprise winner Vanderbilt posted a six-over 294 in the final round to get the win with an 879. Sixth-ranked South Carolina finished second with 890, followed by No. 4 Arkansas with 892. Seventh-ranked Alabama was fourth with 896 followed by No. 16 LSU with 898, No. 22 Auburn with 900, No. 36 Texas A&M with 908, No. 52 Georgia and No. 30 Kentucky tied for eighth with 909, Missouri and No. 19 Florida tied for 10th with 913, No. 29 Mississippi State posted 918, Tennessee with 921 and Ole Miss with 925.

INSIDE THE ROPES

- * The front nine was tough for Arkansas with seven double bogeys in the opening holes
- * Temps were in the low 70s and winds were gusty all day
- * Pin placements were tough and teams averaged 77.56 – the highest of all three days – for the round
- * Sophomore Gabriela Lopez played the front nine even with nine consecutive par holes

2014 NCAA REGIONAL

STILLWATER, Okla. – The fourth-ranked University of Arkansas women's golf team had three eagle chances on the final hole for an opportunity to force a playoff but the Razorbacks came up just short of qualifying for the NCAA Championship at the 2014 NCAA Central Regional Championship in Stillwater, Okla.

The Razorbacks counted 904 (309, 295–300) strokes over three days of play but came up two short in Saturday's final. Conditions were tough from the start on Thursday at Karsten Creek seeing Arkansas battle wind and heavy rain on day one. That first round saw Arkansas count 309 – unusually high for this team. They had a mountain to climb and put together a Herculean effort in the final two rounds but fell just short of their goal of advancing.

Arkansas' 300 was the second lowest total for Saturday's afternoon groups.

"We had Mt. Everest to climb today and unfortunately we came up a little short in the end," SEC Coach of the Year Shauna Estes-Taylor said. "It's a tough pill to swallow right now but I think you have to look at the whole body of work and we had a lot of firsts for our program. It's very clear that the foundation we've laid for our program is unbelievable.

"I mean Regina (Plasencia) birdies her last three holes today and we have three eagle opportunities here on 18," Estes-Taylor said. "The fight and the want in Gaby (Lopez), Regina and Summar (Roachell) excites me and fuels me to get back to work this fall."

With Arkansas four shots out of the coveted eighth-place spot, senior Emily Tubert ripped her second shot on the green, pin high and 20 feet out. She rolled her first putt attempt by the hole but sank the come-backer for a birdie moving Arkansas one shot closer.

Plasencia was on a roll to finish scoring three consecutive birdies including a big one on 18. Again her second shot gave her a chance at eagle but she left the putt just short and counted the birdie. The Razorbacks were now just two back from a playoff.

Lopez followed her teammates blasting her second shot over the pin leaving herself a 30-foot eagle putt. The greens were slowing down as the hot, humid and windy conditions continued and her long putt was just short of the pin as the Razorbacks were unable to force extra holes.

Lopez wrapped up tournament play as Arkansas' individual leader tying for 19th overall. The Mexico City, Mexico, native shoot a 222 with rounds of 77–71–74 including her spectacular play in round two birding five of her last six holes.

Plasencia rallied tying for 22nd overall shooting 223 with rounds of 81–69–73. She had an almost flawless second round with five birdies and finished strong playing the last nine holes three-under.
