GYMNASTICS SCORING

In collegiate team competition, six gymnasts perform on each of the four apparatus. The five best scores per event are added together to make up the cumulative team total.

At least two judges are required to evaluate an athlete's performance. Choices of elements "up to the competition level" are defined by basic requirements for each event. The scores are averaged to arrive at a final mark.

Other deductions are taken, usually up to and no more than 0.3, for such things as bent arms and legs, or separation of legs.

|--|-----|
| Fall from apparatus or on floor                          | 0.5 |
| Stepping out of bounds (floor exercise)                  | 0.1 |
| Heavy brush of feet, or hand touch on floor              | 0.3 |
| Presentation to judge omitted (before or after exercise) | 0.1 |
| Intermediate swing (bars)                                | 0.3 |
| Concentration pauses longer than two seconds             | 0.1 |
| Coach blocking judges' view                              | 0.2 |
| Competing out of order (taken from the team score)       | 0.1 |
| "Up to the competition level" deduction                  | 0.1 |

VAULT

Vaulting requires speed, quickness and explosive power. Vaults are divided into three categories: handspring, Tsukahara and round-off entry. Deductions are taken for technical errors in the areas of preflight (approach to the horse) and after flight (distance and height) from the horse to point of landing.

| Vault/Gymnasts   | Value |
|--|-------|
| Yurchenko 1/2 on pike front with half twist:Katherine Grable  | 10.0  |
| Yurchenko full:Emily BatesStephani CanizaroHeather ElswickParis RyderAmanda WellickBailee Zumwalde | 10.0  |
| Yurchenko layout with half twist:Scarlett Williams  | 10.0  |
| Tsukahara layout with full twist:Samantha Nelson  | 10.0  |

2014 Razorback Vaults

Gymnastics skills are divided into different categories (A,B,C,D,E), with E containing the exceptionally difficult skills. An asterisk denotes E-level skills (*).

UNEVEN BARS

At least two elements must be on the low bar. Good composition includes elements showing great amplitude, several bar changes, grip changes and direction changes. Pauses for concentration, intermediate swings and uncharacteristic elements are to be avoided. After a fall, the gymnast must resume the exercise within 30 seconds.

Razorbacks to Watch in 2014:

BALANCE BEAM

The beam routine should be composed of elements from the following groups: acrobatic elements with and without flight, strength elements such as turns, leaps, body waves and running steps. Special requirements of this event are an acrobatic series, a gymnastics series, a full turn and a leap. The balance beam is 16 feet long, four feet high and only four inches wide. The entire routine must last between 30 seconds and one and a half minutes. A bell is rung at the 1:20 mark of the routine. If the gymnast does not complete the routine at the end of one and a half minutes, an overtime penalty of .10 is deducted from the score. There is no under-time deduction. Requirements for the beam (failure to complete requirements results in .2 start value deduction) include:

1. Acro series: Minimum of two (2) flight elements, one element must be a minimum of C with or without hand support (both elements must start and finish on the beam).
2. Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements, one element C or higher.
3. A leap or jump requiring 180 degree split (this may be part of the dance series).
4. Minimum of 360 degree turn. No hand support permitted.

The exercise must contain two different acrobatic series and one series must contain at least two saltos. The musical accompaniment is to be instrumental only. The exercise must last between 1:10 and 1:30 minutes. The "competition level" for floor exercise are defined by the basic standards (failure to meet competition level is a .10 deduction):

1. One acro series with two (2) saltos (same or different).
2. Three different saltos within the exercise.

Arkansas at 2013 NCAA Regionals

2014 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP REVIEW

Senior All-American Katherine Grable broke the program-record at the Southeastern Conference Championship in the all-around competition with a 39.55 as the Razorbacks scored a 194.900 and finished seventh at the 2014 SEC Gymnastics Championship.

Grable started off the meet with a 9.85 in the team's first rotation on the bars and then followed with three-straight scores of 9.90 on the beam, floor and vault to match the program record in the SEC Championship on vault and beam. Grable finished the meet in the top-two on each event in Session I. Grable won the vault, beam, floor and all-around competitions in the Razorbacks' session and finished second on the bars.

Arkansas also had more gymnasts among the top-three places in Session I. Sophomore Sydnie Dillard finished second on the beam with a 9.85, which is the fifth-best score by a Razorback at the meet. Dillard also finished second on the floor with a 9.80. Freshman Samantha Nelson finished second on the floor with a 9.80 and she was the top-freshman in Session I on the beam with a 9.80.

"Unfortunately, our team underperformed tonight at the SEC Championships," co-head coach Mark Cook said. "We have about two weeks to rectify our mindset before we go into the NCAA Regionals and try to advance to the NCAA Championships. We had some good routines tonight but as a team, we need to be more determined and ready to fight harder."

"We had to count a mistake on bars tonight and that is something that we will need to work on," Grable said. "We need to focus on staying aggressive from start to finish throughout the meet. That is our biggest concern right now, I know if we can stay aggressive throughout the meet we will be successful at Regionals."

The Razorbacks will continue post-season action by hosting the 2014 NCAA Fayetteville Regional in Barnhill Arena on Saturday, April 5, at 4 p.m.

2014 NCAA REGIONAL REVIEW

GYMBACKS IN FAYETTEVILLE AT THE REGIONAL

Senior All-American and Southeastern Conference (SEC) Gymnast of the Year Katherine Grable and SEC Freshman of the Year Amanda Wellick each advanced to the NCAA Championship Meet as all-around individuals as the University of Arkansas gymnastics team placed third in the NCAA Fayetteville Regional on Saturday afternoon in Barnhill Arena.

The Razorbacks posted a 196.375 to finish behind the Regional Champions in top-seeded Utah with a 197.300 and No. 2 seed UCLA with a 196.600. Both Utah and UCLA qualified for the NCAA Championship Meet by finishing in the top-two of the Regional.

Grable started out the meet by matching her career-best mark on the vault of 9.95 to anchor the rotation for the Razorbacks and claim a share of the Regional title. The Gymbacks scored a 49.25 for the rotation by posting four different marks of 9.80 plus. Wellick matched her career best mark with a 9.90 while seniors Scarlett Williams and Bailee Zumwalde added a 9.85 and 9.80, respectively.

The Gymbacks would then rotate to the bars and post a season-best rotation score of 49.375 after sticking the best landings of the season. Wellick set her career-best mark with a 9.90 and Grable followed with a score of her own of 9.90 to tie her career-best mark for the fourth time this season. Senior Shelby Salmon and junior Stephani Canizaro each rocked their routines for a pair off 9.875's.

Arkansas would then rotate to the beam where the Razorbacks would not have to count a fall but was deducted for a few wobbles during routines. Then, the Razorbacks would make their way out to the floor for the final rotation in Barnhill Arena of 2014 where the Razorbacks posted a 49.275 but could not overcome the deficit to finish in the top-two for the meet.

"After hitting the best bar routines that we could possibly do, the team was so excited and confident," co-head coach Rene Lyst said. "Then we go to the beam and did not stay as focused than we needed to. We fought really hard tonight and did not have to count a fall but we didn't have the strongest routines to end the meet like we did in the past."

Grable and Wellick will continue the season at the NCAA Championship Meet in Birmingham, Ala., on April 18. The rotation order and teams that each of the Gymbacks will follow in rotation will be announced on Monday, April 7.

2014 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP REVIEW

All-American senior Katherine Grable laid claim to the first and second national titles in Arkansas gymnastic program history on the vault and floor during the NCAA women's gymnastics championship in Birmingham, Ala., on Sunday.

"I am honored to be the first national champion in program history," Grable said. "It has been a dream of mine for my floor and vault routines to be recognized during my time as a Razorback. To win both events in the final meet of my career is surreal."

The Oshkosh, Wis., native won the vault national title after posting a career-best 9.975 in the second-position, which would stand for the whole first flight. LSU's Rheagan Courville would stick her vault in the second flight as well to share the Co-National Championship. The 9.975 is the highest winning vault score in NCAA history. Grable's vault title, marked the second individual national championship on the vault in co-head coach Mark Cook's Career. Grable claimed three scores of a perfect 10.0 from half of the judges on the event.

"We have gotten close with a few gymnast in the past, but this is a history breaking moment for our program," Cook said. "It is such an honor to bring back these national championships for our program but also for the Arkansas Razorbacks and for the whole state of Arkansas."

On the floor, Grable was the last to go for the event. She needed to beat a three-way tie of 9.95's to claim the outright title. Grable completed her routine to the tune of a 9.962 and claimed her second national title of the day. She did so by scoring two perfect 10.0's from the judges to count one of them and earn the edge she needed to claim the outright title.

"It is such an honor to see your hard work and dedication pay off," assistant coach Samantha Cortez said. "To be a part of the first team to advance to the national championship and now be a part of the team's first national championship is incredible."

Grable completed the storybook ending for her career as a Razorback by claiming the first two national championships in program history and collecting a share of the program record on four of the five events.

Where Dreams Come True

The long wait was over and No. 18 Arkansas made the program's first appearance at the NCAA Championship in Corvallis, Ore., in 2006. Arkansas, wrapping up its fourth season of gymnastics, became one of the final 12 teams competing after a second-place finish at the South Central Regional in Barnhill April 8. Arkansas opened in the evening session facing Georgia, Iowa State, Oregon State, Florida and Arizona State. Arkansas entered the meet as the underdog as the program's first senior class had guided the Razorbacks from a start-up to a contender. Seniors Katie Hardman, Melissa Leigh, Audra Loveless, Hannah McLeod and Dana McQuillin competed in their final meet in the Cardinal and White in Corvallis. Arkansas scored a 194.375, finishing behind a blistering 197.300 from defending national champion Georgia, which won the second session to advance. Iowa State snuck in ahead of Florida with a 196.250 while the Gators posted a 196.225 as both teams advanced to the finals.

ARKANSAS' TWO-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPION – KATHERINE GRABLE

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. – All-American senior Katherine Grable laid claim to the first and second national titles in Arkansas gymnastic program history on the vault and floor during the NCAA women's gymnastics championship in Birmingham, Ala., on Sunday.

"I am honored to be the first national champion in program history," Grable said. "It has been a dream of mine for my floor and vault routines to be recognized during my time as a Razorback. To win both events in the final meet of my career is surreal."

The Oshkosh, Wis., native won the vault national title after posting a career-best 9.975 in the second-position, which would stand for the whole first flight. LSU's Rheagan Courville would stick her vault in the second flight as well to share the Co-National Championship. The 9.975 is the highest winning vault score in NCAA history. Grable's vault title, marked the second individual national championship on the vault in co-head coach Mark Cook's Career. Grable claimed three scores of a perfect 10.0 from half of the judges on the event.

"We have gotten close with a few gymnast in the past, but this is a history breaking moment for our program," Cook said. "It is such an honor to bring back these national championships for our program but also for the Arkansas Razorbacks and for the whole state of Arkansas."

On the floor, Grable was the last to go for the event. She needed to beat a three-way tie of 9.95's to claim the outright title. Grable completed her routine to the tune of a 9.962 and claimed her second national title of the day. She did so by scoring two perfect 10.0's from the judges to count one of them and earn the edge she needed to claim the outright title.

"It is such an honor to see your hard work and dedication pay off," assistant coach Samantha Cortez said. "To be a part of the first team to advance to the national championship meet and now be a part of the team's first national championship is incredible."

Grable completed the storybook ending for her career as a Razorback by claiming the first two national championships in program history and collecting a share of the program record on four of the five events.

ARKANSAS' SUPER SIX TEAMS

2009 - 5TH PLACE

The leadoff on back-to-back events, Nagashima was up first on the vault and stuck her landing earning a 9.775. The sticky feet continued for Arkansas with freshman Mariah Howdeshell tying her career-best with a 9.85. LaChance added a 9.80 and Magee tallied a 9.875 but Arkansas saved the best for last. Pisani and Stout both finished with 9.90s giving Arkansas a 49.325 for the event. The Razorbacks sat through their second and final bye in the third rotation and when the dust settled and all six teams had two events done, Arkansas was tied with LSU in fourth place. Just as in the preliminaries, Arkansas would finish on bars and beam as the night continued. Arkansas had the task of following third-ranked Alabama on the bars after the Crimson Tide posted a 49.325 on the event. Scores were a bit tighter for the Razorbacks staying in the 9.7s for the first four routines. Nagashima finally broke through with a 9.80 and Stout finished with a team-leading 9.875 for a 48.975. Meanwhile, top-ranked Georgia and No. 2 Utah separated themselves with the Gym Dogs scoring a 49.575 on floor with no score lower than 9.90. The Utes tallied a 49.525 on the vault and after three events and four rotations, Georgia led the field with a 148.200, followed by Utah at 148.150 and Alabama in third with 148.075 in a very close race for the top spots. The Razorbacks closed their evening on the balance beam and scores were again tough to come by for Arkansas. Pisani opened with a 9.75, followed by a 9.65 from LaChance and a 9.775 from junior Amy DeFilippo despite some solid performances. Arkansas' next performer fell putting a bit of pressure on the final two to stay on the equipment - and they did just that. Nagashima stepped up with a 9.85 and Magee put a cap on the meet with a 9.90 as the Razorbacks' first Super Six appearance wound down.

2012 - 6TH PLACE

Junior Amy Borsellino opened with a 9.80, followed by freshman Stephani Canizaro with a 9.80 and sophomore Shelby Salmon a 9.775. Sophomore Katherine Grable scored a 9.85, and Pisani followed with a 9.875 before senior Mariah Howdeshell ended the rotation with a 9.85. The 49.175 is the second-best score for the Razorbacks in the NCAA Championship, trailing only the 49.275 from Friday. After the first rotation, Florida led with a 49.475 vault, followed by UCLA (floor) and Utah (beam) with 49.35, and Arkansas 49.175. Arkansas moved to beam for the second rotation, where the Razorbacks set a school record in Friday's semifinal with a 49.45. In the Super Six, Arkansas scored a 49.225, which is the third-best for the championship. Grable closed the rotation with a team-high mark of 9.90. Pisani had a 9.875, Salmon a 9.85, Borsellino a 9.825 and Williams a 9.775. Grable's 9.90 ties for the fourth-best for a Razorback in the championship. Arkansas went into its first bye with a 98.40. Through three rotations and with every team completing two events, Alabama led with a 99.075, followed by Florida 98.90, UCLA 98.875, Stanford 98.675, Utah 98.675 and Arkansas 98.40. For the fourth rotation, Arkansas was on floor and was forced to count a couple of mistakes, finishing with a 48.45. Freshman Bailee Zumwalde led off with a 9.825 and Grable had a team-best 9.875. Borsellino scored a 9.85, junior Kelci Lewis a 9.65 and Pisani a 9.25. "We are really excited about getting here," Pisani said. "It wasn't our greatest performance on floor. I'm so happy for the opportunity to make the Super Six as a freshman and again as a senior." Through four rotations, Florida led with 148.375, followed by UCLA at 148.35, Utah 148.075, Arkansas 146.85, Alabama 99.075 and Stanford 98.675.

To the rest of the world, the 10th-ranked University of Arkansas gymnastics team might have been the Cinderella story but the Razorbacks acted liked they belonged at the 2009 NCAA Super Six Championship in Lincoln, Neb., Friday.

The Razorbacks made the program's first Super Six appearance and might well be the youngest team to reach the second night of competition. The highlights continued as Arkansas scored a 196.475 finishing fifth overall in the final team event of the 2009 season. Arkansas edged SEC-foe No. 4 LSU beating the Tigers for the first time in program history.

Arkansas drew nearly the same rotation for the Super Six as the Razorbacks had in their session previous night. They opened the meet in the locker room with a bye in the preliminaries followed by the floor. Friday, the Razorbacks opened the meet on the floor exercise and would end the meet with the final bye.

It was difficult to hear the floor music over the roar of the SEC-friendly crowd as they erupted for each competitor on every event. Despite the distractions, All-American Sarah Nagashima knocked it out of the park opening with a 9.8 on the floor. Freshman Molly Lewis followed with a 9.825, tying her career-high mark.

Senior All-American Alex LaChance took center stage and posted a 9.85 as the Razorback scores continued to climb. All-American Michelle Stout was fourth in the order for Arkansas and was solid in her tumbling passes earning a 9.80.

All-American Casey Jo Magee took it to another level leading the team with a 9.90 - the top Razorback score of the night. All-American Jaime Pisani finished strong with a 9.875 leading the Razorbacks to a 49.25 on the floor - the highest floor score for Arkansas at the NCAA Championships.

Arkansas' gymnastics team finished sixth at the NCAA Championship finals on Sunday for its fourth top 10 finish in the last five years.

The Razorbacks advanced to the Super Six for the second time by finishing third in Friday's NCAA Championship Session II semifinal. In the last five years, Arkansas has finished 10th in the nation in 2008, fifth in 2009, tied for ninth in 2011 and sixth in 2012. The Razorbacks reached the Super Six for the second time in four years after advancing for the first time in 2009.

"We had a lot of questions marks toward the end of the season and even leading up to the regional with injuries," co-head coach René Cook said. "Just to get to the Super Six is fantastic."

Alabama won the national championship Sunday at the Gwinnett Center in Duluth, Ga.

The final team standings were No. 4 Alabama 197.85, No. 1 Florida 197.775, No. 2 UCLA 197.75, No. 10 Stanford 197.50, No. 7 Utah 197.375, No. 8 Arkansas 196.30.

"I'm really proud of the team," senior All-American Jaime Pisani said. "We gave it our all."

Pisani and sophomore Katherine Grable still have another day to complete. Both are in the individual event finals on Sunday at noon (central). Pisani is competing on floor and on beam, and Grable on beam.

Arkansas' 196.30 is the school's fourth-best in the championship and the Razorbacks tied the overall school record with a 49.45 on vault, led by sophomore Scarlett Williams' career-high 9.925.

"It means a lot to get to the Super Six," Williams said. "We came out and fought hard."

The Razorbacks started on bars. A day after posting a 49.275 in the NCAA Session II semifinal, Arkansas opened the Super Six with a 49.175.

ALL-AMERICANS

To be named as an All-American, athletes must be at the NCAA Championship competition. Places 1-4 (plus ties) in each event and the all-around in each session of Thursday's preliminary team competition are considered first-team All-Americans. Places 5-8 (plus ties) are considered second-team All-American.

Casey Jo Magee tied for fifth on both the vault and bars in the first session of the 2008 NCAA Championship April 24. Magee scored a 9.85 on the vault and a 9.90 on bars (Arkansas' first rotation of the meet) earning second-team all-America honors on both events. Magee's bar routine is technically Arkansas' first all-America performance because the Gym'Backs opened on bars at the meet.

Michelle Stout tied for first place in the first session of the 2008 NCAA Championship April 24. Stout scored a 9.90 on the event and advanced to the event finals on Saturday. Not only is Stout Arkansas' first first-team all-American but she is the program's first event finalist. Gymnasts are given two vaults in the finals and the scores are averaged. Stout finished fourth in the finals earning a medal.

ACADEMIC HONORS

In 2011, Arkansas became the first gymnastics program in the Southeastern Conference to be recognized by the NCAA as one of the top performing programs in the nation by receiving a public recognition award for its standing among the top 10 percent in the nation in multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR). The Razorbacks were a repeat honoree in 2012.

"We had a very successful season in the gym and in the classroom," co-head coach René Lyst, who completed her doctorate in education in 2011, says. "To make the Super Six and have our second straight public recognition from the NCAA for our multi-year APR gives us a lot of pride in our team and our program. Our goals are to have our student-athletes reach their potential in the gym and in the classroom."

Arkansas produced eight All-America honors in the gym in 2012 while earning five Scholastic All-America honors from the National Association for Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women. Arkansas has placed at least four on the national list every year the program has existed.

Razorbacks on the list for 2012 are Kelci Lewis and Amanda Siebert, Bailee Zumwalde, and graduated seniors Jaime Pisani and Genny Salvatore. Pisani and Salvatore tied for the best mark in the nation with perfect 4.0 grade point averages for the year.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Each semester, the University of Arkansas Athletics Department recognizes its student-athletes' success in the classroom with selection to a department honor roll. The Athletics Department honors student-athletes who earn a perfect 4.0 grade point average as Academic Champions. Student-athletes with grade points ranging from 3.50-3.99 earn Athletic Directors List honors and those with grades in the 3.00-3.49 range are honored on the Honor Roll. Here's a look at the Razorbacks' all-time selections.
