JERRY AND GENE JONES FAMILY STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS CENTER

There is no debate about the most influential newcomer to Razorback Athletics in 2015-16. Opened for the start of the academic year, the Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center, was officially dedicated on September 19 with members of the Jones Family, Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long, Arkansas Governor Asa Hutchinson, Southeastern Conference Commissioner Greg Sankey and hundreds of Razorback student-athletes looking on.

The 55,000 square-foot facility dedicated to the development of more than 460 Razorback student-athletes was made possible by a $10.65 million gift from the Jones family. The Jones Success Center addresses the academic, nutritional, personal and professional development of our student-athletes and creates an integrated academic support program focused on the graduation of all student-athletes at the University of Arkansas.

The Student-Athlete Success Center is the home of the Bogle Academic Center and provides student-athletes with multiple learning environments including academic advising and course preparation, leadership training through the Razorback Leadership Academy and career planning and service learning. It also houses the Sports Nutrition Center, serving the fueling needs of student-athletes competing in 19 sports.

MARSHA AND MARTY MARTIN FAMILY BASKETBALL PERFORMANCE CENTER
EDDIE SUTTON MEN'S BASKETBALL PRACTICE GYM

The 66,000 square-foot Basketball Performance Center opened in the fall of 2015 and is the home of the Razorback Basketball program. In May 2019, the University of Arkansas System Board of Trustees adopted a resolution to name the men's facility the EDDIE SUTTON MEN'S BASKETBALL PRACTICE GYM after the Hall of Fame coach. Then, on Jan. 26, 2023, a $5 million donation secured naming rights to the Basketball Performance Center. The newly named MARSHA AND MARTY MARTIN FAMILY BASKETBALL PERFORMANCE CENTER was unveiled on Mar. 4, 2023, prior to the Arkansas-Kentucky men's basketball game.

The facility includes two full-court gymnasiums, locker rooms, a weight room, an athletic training room, coaches' offices, team meeting rooms, a student-athlete lounge, study areas and an equipment room.

The largest components of the facility are two identical practice gyms, which are approximately 12,280 square feet each. Each gym has six wall mounted goals and two portable goals that are identical to the goals used in Bud Walton Arena.

The Performance Center's training room is approximately 1,720 square feet and contains a large treadmill treatment pool, cold plunge pool, hot plunge pool and a dual extremity pool.

The weight room is 4,030 square feet with a dedicated plyometric training area, private massage rooms and strength coach offices.

I don't care if you're experienced or not, I don't think you see many environments like this. It's a different kind of thing.

JON SCHEYER (DUKE)

Bud Walton Arena is AMAZING.

JAY BILAS (ESPN)

Bud Walton is as good of a arena, as good as any environment, as anywhere I've ever been in college basketball.

TYSON FOODS JERSEY PATCH

Expanded partnership reinforces shared commitment to community, students, and nutritious protein.

• Tyson Foods and the University of Arkansas Department of Intercollegiate Athletics announced in March of 2026 an expanded partnership, introducing one of THE FIRST EVER JERSEY PATCH SPONSORSHIPS and creating one of the most visible brand integrations in college sports.

• Beginning with the 2026-2027 athletic season, the TYSON FOODS logo will appear on the jerseys of all 19 men's and women's varsity Razorback teams. ON-COURT SUCCESS

A "players-first" coach whose biggest goal is helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, reached 900 career wins with an overtime in the 2025-26 regular-season finale, while guiding six teams to the Final Four and helping 65 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 34-year college coaching career with his pros amassing over $5.8 billion in contracts.

Calipari, a member of six Halls of Fame overall, took UMass to the Final Four in 1996, guided Memphis to the National Championship game in 2008 and led Kentucky to four Final Fours - including the 2012 National Championship and a runner-up finish in 2014 - to become only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four. He has racked up 24 NCAA Tournament appearances and numerous National Coach of the Year honors.

In his first two years at Arkansas, Calipari led the Razorbacks to a back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances and became just the third coach in NCAA history to take four programs to the Sweet 16. He win the 2026 SEC Tournament Championship for his 16th conference tourney title and become the first coach to win SEC championships at two different schools. Coach Cal helped Darius Acuff Jr. become the most decorated player in school history as he was a finalist for the 2026 National Player of the Year, the Bob Cousy Award winner, unanimous first team All-America and SEC Player of the Year.

At every collegiate stop, Calipari's career has been successful throughout, but his 10-year stretch at Kentucky (2009-19) was among the best decades in NCAA history, reaching four Final Fours (with a 2012 championship and 2014 national runner-up), seven Elite 8 berths and nine trips to the Sweet 16.

The 2015 campaign was highlighted by Coach Cal directing the first-ever college basketball team to own a 38-0 record (before falling in the Final Four) and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of that 2015 season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Coach Cal has led three teams to an NCAA-record 38 wins on the court in a season (once at Memphis and twice at Kentucky), led the NCAA in wins six times (at least once at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky) and tallied 30, 20-win seasons (including 11 30-win campaigns). With his sustained success, Coach Cal received the John R. Wooden Award Legends of Coaching honor in 2024.

While building a program out of obscurity at UMass and returning Memphis and Kentucky to national contenders, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

PLAYER SUCCESS

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 77 players realize their dreams by being drafted or playing in the NBA. Calipari's NBA players have amassed over $6 billion in contracts, which does not include endorsements nor players that have played overseas. He has had four No. 1 overall picks, tying for most overall, among his 62 players drafted and 43 first-round picks, both ranking second-most all-time. In 2010, he had a record five first-round draft picks. Two years later, six of his players heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. Then in 2015, Cal would have six picks again, including a record-tying four lottery selections.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 43 All-Star selections, including a record-breaking seven in 2024, with Anthony Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011 and Shai Gilgeous-Alexander was voted NBA MVP in 2025 and 2026 to make Cal just the third person to coach two NBA MVPs in college (with John Wooden and Dean Smith). Nine of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (a combined 21 times), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year and 18 players have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. He is the only coach in history to have a player win each of the NBA's major honors: MVP (three times), Rookie of the Year, Most Improved Player, Sixth Man of the Year (twice) and Clutch Player of the Year (twice).

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80%, Calipari has stressed academics. Seventeen of his last 20 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 31 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including five players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari's teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

COMMUNITY SUCCESS

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, in 2017 for victims of Hurricane Harvey, played a leading role in the "Kentucky United" efforts that generated more than $5 million for victims of devastating tornadoes in Western Kentucky in 2021, and raised nearly $4 million with the Kentucky Flood Relief Telethon and open practice at Rupp Arena in 2022. In his second month on the job at Arkansas, Cal helped with cleanup efforts after tornadoes hit the state. He has continued the Suits & Sneakers Gala in NW Arkansas and continued his tradition of helping families at Christmas with food, presents and paying for rent.

Calipari launched his THE CALIPARI FOUNDATION in 2012 and has worked with several key partners to donate more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2019, when federal workers were without pay due to a government shutdown, he, his wife and his foundation assisted workers with financial help and grocery gift cards. He and his wife, Ellen, teamed up with Fayette County Public Schools to help families in need during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Additional efforts include spearheading the creation of the JOHN McLENDON MINORITY LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE, a nationwide coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship. Participants in the initiative will be known as MLI Future Leaders. In 2026, the McLendon Foundation honored Coach Calipari with the 2026 Legacy of Impact Award.

He was awarded the Jefferson Award for Outstanding Public Service in Sports by Multiplying Good in 2022. For more than 50 years, Multiplying Good has honored those who put others first. Those receiving the Jefferson Award are empowered to do more, while their stories of extraordinary public service inspire others to action. It is an award that underscores impact. He earned the Race Amity Medal of Honor in 2023.

OTHER SUCCESS

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo. Also, he won gold as head coach of the 2012Dominican Republic team at the Centrobasket Championship.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that "it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

Naismith Hall of Fame coach John Calipari, who has led six teams to the Final Four, was named the 14th Razorback head men's basketball coach on April 10, 2024. Overall, the 2026-27 season will be his 35th as a collegiate head coach and third at Arkansas.

Calipari is one of the most successful and decorated coaches in college basketball history, having been inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2015 while being inducted into five additional Halls of Fame. However, he takes the greatest pride in the success his players experience in college, in professional basketball and life after their playing days are over.

Calipari has coached 65 players to be selected in the NBA Draft – 44 first-round picks, including 30 among the top 15 and four as the overall first pick – during his 34-year coaching career. In 2025 and 2026, Shai Gilgeous-Alexander was named NBA MVP, joining former Calipari pupil Derrick Rose as 2011 MVP. Coach Cal is just the third person to coach two different NBA MVPs in college.

He has amassed a record of 905-286 (.760), including a 50-23 tally at Arkansas, a 410-122 mark in 15 seasons at Kentucky (2009-24), 214-69 in nine seasons at Memphis (2000-09) and 189-71 in eight seasons at UMass (1988-96). In fact, Calipari became the third-fastest coach to 900 on-court wins.

Calipari also coached in the NBA for the New Jersey Nets for three seasons (1996-99) and internationally for the Dominican Republic national team (2011 and '12) and the United States U-19 basketball team (2017).

Calipari has been named both the Naismith (1996, 2008, 2015) and NABC (1996, 2009, 2015) National Coach of the Year three times – once at each collegiate stop – and AP College Coach of the Year (2015). He has added SEC Coach of the Year honors four times (2010, 2012, 2015, 2020), C-USA Coach of the Year three times (2006, 2008, 2009) and Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year three times (1993, 1994, 1996).

Of the 32 NCAA Tournaments held during his collegiate coaching career, he has led 24 teams to the NCAA Tournament, including 16 trips to the Sweet 16, 12 appearances to the Elite 8, six Final Four berths, three national title games and a national championship. (Note, in 2019-20, Kentucky was 25-6 and won the SEC with a 15-3 record, but the NCAA canceled the tournament due to COVID-19.) By reaching the Sweet 16 in his first year at Arkansas, Calipari improved his NCAA Tournament win total to 59, tying for the fifth-most in NCAA history.

Calipari is one of two coaches in NCAA history to take three different programs to the Final Four and one of just three coaches all-time to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. His teams have won an NCAA record 38 games three times – twice at UK (2012 and 2015) and once at Memphis (2008). With his first-year success at Arkansas, he became the third coach to lead four different programs to the NCAA Sweet 16..

AT ARKANSAS

The Razorbacks reached the NCAA Sweet 16 in each of his first two seasons, but did so in different ways each year.

In his first year in Fayetteville, Calipari beat a pair of Hall of Fame coaches at Kansas and St. John's, before falling to 9th-ranked Texas Tech in overtime. An injury-plagued season contributed to a 1-6 start in the SEC play, including an 0-5 start. However, a win over #12 Kentucky started an impressive run, as the team went 7-4 to close the season and secured a #10 seed in the NCAA Tournament. In fact, Arkansas became just the second team in the shot clock era to start league play 0-5 and earn an NCAA Tournament bid.

In year two, Darius Acuff Jr. emerged to be one of the top players in all of college basketball, being a unanimous first team All-America, the winner of the Bob Cousy Award and a finalist for the Naismith and Wooden Award National Player of the Year Awards. The Razorbacks finished with an SEC-best 28 wins, won the program's second SEC Tournament title, finished second in the SEC regular season and, thanks to an 18-5 record from January one including a 7-1 record in March, finished as one of the hottest team in the nation.

AT KENTUCKY

Calipari made an immediate impact at Kentucky with his first three Wildcats teams dominating college basketball. His inaugural team (2009-10) posted a 35-3 record and reached the NCAA Elite 8. Later that spring, he saw five of his players selected in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft, the first time a school had ever produced five first-round picks in a single draft. Among those picks was the first Wildcat ever taken as the No. 1 overall selection, John Wall.

The next season, Calipari took the program to the next level, reaching the Final Four before falling to eventual national champion UConn. Despite losing three players from the 2011 runner-up team, the progression reached the pinnacle of college basketball in year three. Led by the #1 recruiting class in the nation – featuring National Player of the Year Anthony Davis and All-American Michael Kidd-Gilchrist – Kentucky won the 2012 national championship, going 38-2 overall and 16-1 in the SEC. The 38 wins tied the NCAA record for most victories in a season (matching his own mark set at Memphis in 2007-08). The 2011-12 team was later tabbed the team of the decade by the AP.

Kentucky's 21-win season in Calipari's fourth season was not enough to receive an NCAA bid. However, the following year, the 2013-14 Wildcats were NCAA runners-up, beating three teams in the NCAA Tournament that were in the Final Four the previous year. Kentucky rode that momentum the following year. With the core of the 2014 team returning and adding one of the top recruiting classes, the Cats used a two-platoon system to win its first 38 games of 2014-15, marking the third time Calipari matched his own NCAA record for wins in a season, before losing in the Final Four. For that historic 2014-15 season, he earned National Coach of the Year from the AP, Naismith and NABC.

Over the next four seasons, Kentucky played in four NCAA Tournaments, reaching the Sweet 16 three times including two Elite 8s. In 2019-20, the Wildcats were on their way to another NCAA Tournament, posting a 25-6 record and winning the SEC regular-season crown, before the SEC and NCAA Tournaments were canceled due to COVID-19.

The remnants of COVID carried over to 2020-21 and Kentucky did not reach the postseason. However, in each of his last three years with the Wildcats, Kentucky went 71-30 (.703), finishing among the SEC's top three teams each year and earning NCAA Tournament berths each year.

AT MEMPHIS

After his NBA tenure, Calipari returned to the college game in 2000 at Memphis, where he led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game. Memphis' 38 wins in 2007-08 set the NCAA record for most wins in a single season (a number he tied twice at UK). As a result, Calipari was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year for a second time in his career.

Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine straight 20-win campaigns and nine consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 wins – 28.0 wins per season – as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history.

He was named C-USA Coach of the Year three times and his 2006 and 2008 Tigers were #1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament. Over his last five seasons at Memphis, the Tigers won 30 games each year and posted a 61-1 C-USA record.

NBA EXPERIENCE

From 1996-99, Calipari served as the head coach and executive VP of basketball operations for the New Jersey Nets. The 1997-98 Nets reached the NBA playoffs before losing to the eventual NBA champion Chicago Bulls in the first round. He additionally served as an assistant coach under Larry Brown with the Philadelphia 76ers for the 1999-2000 season. That squad reached the second round of the NBA Playoffs.

AT UMASS

Calipari started his head-coaching career at UMass in 1988-89, guiding a struggling program to the top of college basketball, capped off by a Final Four appearance in 1996.

At 29, when he was named head coach, Calipari's first two Minutemen teams went 27-32. In year three (1992), UMass won its first Atlantic 10 championship with a 30-5 overall record, including a 13-3 mark in league play. The '92 campaign was highlighted with a 77-71 overtime win over Syracuse in an East Regional second-round game to lead UMass to its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

Including that 1992 season, UMass won five-straight A10 titles while compiling a 66-12 league record over the span and made five straight NCAA Tournaments including three Sweet 16s.

Calipari's 1995-96 team posted a 35-2 record and reached the Final Four. He was named the 1996 Naismith National Coach of the Year and The Sporting News National Coach of the Year. He was also named the A10 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years.

In addition to his Naismith National Coach of the Year honors in 1996, Calipari was a Naismith Coach of the Year finalist in 1994 and 1995. He was the USBWA District I Coach of the Year in 1993.

Calipari 3rd Fastest to 900 Career Victories

With Arkansas's overtime 88-84 win at Missouri on Feb. 7, 2026, John Calipari reached 900 on-court wins. He is the fifth coach to collect 900 wins as head coach while at an NCAA DI program and is 1 of 11 to have 900 on-court wins coaching at any level.

Calipari is the third-fastest coach to reach 900 wins (1,185). Roy Williams (1,161) and Mike Krzyzewski (1,183) reached the milestone faster. Cal is the second-youngest to reach 900. Coach K won 900 games at the age of 64. Cal turned 67 on Feb 10 and edges Bob Knight, who won his 900th at 67 and 2+ months.

Calipari was the fourth-fastest coach to 800 on-court wins at 1,037 games. Only Adolph Rupp (972 games), Roy Williams (1,012 games) and Dean Smith (1,029 games) did it faster.

NOTE: Coach Cal's 800th win and his 900th win were both in overtime. Cal was the fourth-fastest to 800, beating Mississippi State, 82-7, on Jan. 25, 2022.

When he defeated Mississippi State on Jan. 17, 2024, Calipari became the third-fastest active head coach to 400 wins at a single program, trailing only Bill Self (Kansas - 484) and Mark Few (Gonzaga - 499). Overall, Calipari needed just 516 games to reach 400 wins while coaching at UK to rank the eighth fastest in Division I history.

First Ballot Naismith Hall of Famer

John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September of 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot. Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White. Calipari was inducted in Springfield, Mass., and nearly 70 of his former players joined him on stage during his acceptance speech.

The following are the six Halls of Fame Calipari has been inducted into:

- 1995 Clarion University Sports Hall of Fame
- 2004 UMass Athletic Hall of Fame
- 2004 National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame
- 2015 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame
- 2022 Conference USA Hall of Fame Class
- 2026 Memphis Sports Hall of Fame

Coach Cal Immortalized at UMass and Clarion

John Calipari's Hall of Fame rise began at UMass, and the school honored his program's breakthrough in the 1990s by unveiling a statue of Calipari on the Amherst campus in September 2021. Calipari was one of four icons synonymous with UMass basketball to earn the honor. Calipari's statue was unveiled next to Marcus Camby, Julius Erving and the late Jack Leaman outside the Mullins Center.

At UMass, Calipari led the Minutemen to a 193-71 on-court record in his eight seasons as head coach from 1989-96. His .731 career winning percentage remains the best in school history. Calipari led UMass to five straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1992 to 1996 after UMass had gone to the NCAAs only once in the first 81 years of the program. His Minutemen made the Atlantic 10's first and only Final Four appearance during the 1996 season, during which they went 35-2 overall and spent 10 weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation. Following the 1996 season, Calipari was named National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, The Sporting News and Naismith.

He was inducted into the UMass Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.

Clarion honored Calipari by having a statue erected and naming the basketball court in his honor. Tippin Gymnasium's floor was officially renamed the John V. Calipari Court in September 2021 and is better known as "Coach Cal Court." Calipari started his college playing career at UNC Wilmington before transferring to Clarion in 1981, helping the Golden Eagles reach their first NCAA Division II Tournament in program history that year.

He was inducted into the Clarion University Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

Also in the Italian-American, C-USA and Memphis Sports Halls of Fame

Calipari, who holds dual citizenship in both the USA and Italy, was part of the 2004 National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame. His class included NFL Hall of Famer Dan Marino, Cy Young Award winner Frank Viola, two-time World Boxing Champion Bobby Czyz, NFL Hall of Famer Jim Covert, Tampa Bay Devil Rays CEO Vince Naimoli, middleweight boxing great Joe DeNucci, women's sports pioneer Margaret Gisolo, baseball great John Beradino and former N.C. State head coach Jim Valvano.

In the summer of 2022, Calipari was enshrined into the Conference USA Hall of Fame. Calipari was honored by the league for his impressive tenure as head men's basketball coach at the University of Memphis, where he coached from the 2000-09. Calipari led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game, including an NCAA, single-season record 38 wins. As a result, he earned his second Naismith National Coach of the Year honor, becoming only the second coach to earn the honor multiple times since its inception in 1987. Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine straight 20-win campaigns and nine consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 on-court wins – 28.0 wins per season – as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history. From 2006-08, the Tigers won 104 games, making Calipari the winningest head coach in NCAA Division I history in a three-year span.

Calipari was inducted into the Memphis Sports Hall of Fame in 2026 for his unprecedented success while serving as head coach of the Memphis Tigers.

Calipari is the winningest coach in Memphis basketball history, winning 78.5 percent of his games overall (252-69) and going 117-25 (.824) in Conference USA games. In fact, the Tigers went 61-1 in C-USA regular-season games over Cal's final four years. In Cal's nine years as head coach, Memphis won seven regular-season titles, while adding four C-USA Tournament championships. A Wooden Award Legend of Coaching

On Oct. 3, 2023, it was announced that John Calipari would receive the John R. Wooden Award "Legends of Coaching" honor. On April 12, 2024, the newly named Razorback head basketball coach was on hand for the trophy presentation at the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

The "Legends of Coaching" honor recognizes coaches who exemplify Coach Wooden's high standard of coaching success and personal integrity. The award was adopted by the Wooden Award Steering Committee in 1999. The honorees are selected based on character, success on the court, graduation rate of student-athletes in their basketball program, coaching philosophy, and identification with the goals of the John R. Wooden Award. He will be presented the honor along with the 2024 Wooden Award winners on April 12, 2024.

Chairman of the Wooden Award Steering Committee Sam Lagana said, "Coach John Calipari has been a significant part of the Wooden Award experience, dating back to his first head coaching assignment at UMass. He has supported the Award and stood with his candidates and winners every step of the way. Coach Wooden had an appreciation for Coach Cal that carried through the years and Coach Calipari has demonstrated great reverence for Coach Wooden as both shared a 'players first' mentality, with emphasis on care for the student-athlete and in the value of competitive greatness. John Calipari is a wonderful addition to the fraternity of Wooden Award 'Legends of Coaching' recipients."

Calipari's on-court success is well publicized and culminated with the highest honor in the sport by being inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame. Off the court, Coach Calipari's impact has been felt in his community and abroad. In 2012, he founded the John Calipari Foundation which has partnered with many organizations, including: Samaritan's Feet, 4 Paws for Ability, One Parent Scholar House and Team Focus. He has partnered with the American Red Cross to raise millions of dollars to help people affected by disasters such as the 2010 Haitian earthquake, 2012 Superstorm Sandy, and the 2022 flooding in Eastern Kentucky. He helped spearhead the creation of the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a national coach-driven initiative to provide minorities with a jump-start to their careers.

Calipari Honored by McLendon Foundation with 2026 Legacy of Impact Award

The McLendon Foundation is pleased to announce that John Calipari, head basketball coach at the University of Arkansas, has been selected as the 2026 recipient of the Legacy of Impact Award, the Foundation's highest honor. The award will be presented at the second-annual Secret Summit on Thursday, April 2, 2026, in downtown Indianapolis ahead of the 2026 Men's Final Four weekend.

The Legacy of Impact Award recognizes individuals whose leadership and actions have meaningfully advanced the values and vision of Coach John McLendon, one of the most influential figures in the history of sports. Coach McLendon was a trailblazer whose legacy centered on access, education, leadership, and opportunity both on and off the court.

Coach Calipari was selected by the McLendon Foundation Board of Directors for his commitment to creating opportunities and opening doors for aspiring leaders in sports. He was instrumental in the early vision and formation of the McLendon Leadership Initiative and has supported the program through advocacy, personal investment, and the encouragement of others across the coaching community to engage and contribute.

KENNY PAYNE

Associate Head Coach
3rd Year at Arkansas
Louisville, 2003

Kenny Payne, who has over 20 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and professional levels, enters his third season on the Razorback staff.

A former Louisville Cardinal basketball great and first-round NBA selection, Payne spent two seasons (2022-24) as head coach at his alma mater. He has additionally served as an assistant coach with the NBA's New York Knicks as well as spending 15 years on staffs with both the University of Oregon and the University of Kentucky.

Payne has helped the Razorbacks reach the NCAA Sweet 16 in each of his first two years (2025 and 2026). One of Payne's primary focuses is working with the bigs. In 2025, Jonas Aidoo and Trevon Brazile were one of the top two 1-2 punches in the post, while Zvonimir Ivisic ranked second in the SEC/21st in the NCAA in blocked shots. Adou Thiero ranked second in the SEC in field goal percentage and was among the league leaders in free throws, rebounds and steals. The quartet's efforts helped Arkansas rank sixth in the NCAA in blocked shots. In 2026, Brazile and Malique Ewin played a key role down the stretch as the Hogs finished second in the SEC during the regular season and win the 2026 SEC Tournament. Brazile had a career year, earning SEC All-Tournament team honors and becoming the first Razorback to ever reach 40-40-40 in 3's made (45), blocked shots (58) and steals (53), while Ewin had three double-doubles in the Hogs' six postseason games.

Payne has also been part of successful teams while on staff with the Knicks, Wildcats and Ducks. The Knicks posted a 41-31 record in 2020-21, finishing fourth in NBA Eastern Conference. In his 10 years at Kentucky, he helped the Wildcats win the 2012 NCAA Championship, play for the 2014 NCAA Championship, advance to four Final Fours, reach a total of eight Sweet 16s, win six SEC Tournament titles and had 41 players drafted including 31 first round selections. At Oregon, the Ducks won the 2007 PAC-10 Championship and went to two NCAA Tournaments, including an Elite 8 berth in 2007.

For his contributions, Payne was honored in the A STEP UP Assistant Coaches Hall of Fame Class of 2020 for his track record of success, outstanding and significant contributions to the game, as well as his high character, integrity and respect among colleagues.

Payne, who served as associate head coach at Kentucky from 2014-20, played a key role in assembling 11 impressive recruiting classes while at Kentucky, all of which were among the nation's top three and five that were recognized as the No. 1 class, plus he helped gather a top 20 class at Oregon. As head coach at Louisville, his 2023 recruiting class was ranked in the top six nationally by both Rivals and 247Sports.

He has been nationally recognized for player development. In Payne's 10 years at Kentucky, the Wildcats had a player selected in the NBA Draft lottery and had multiple players picked in the first round in every year, including two overall No. 1 selections. In addition, three Oregon players were selected in the first and second rounds of the NBA Draft in Payne's time there.

As a student-athlete at UofL, Payne scored 1,083 points in his four years (1985-86), connecting on 40.1 percent of his career three-point goals (85-of-212, fourth-highest in UofL history). He was a member of Louisville's 1986 NCAA Championship team as a freshman and during his collegiate career, Louisville participated in three NCAA Sweet 16s and won three Metro Conference championships and three Metro tournament titles while posting a combined 98-41 record.

As a senior playing under Hall of Fame Coach Denny Crum, Payne averaged 14.5 points and 5.7 rebounds and was named to the All-Metro Conference second team as Louisville posted a 24-9 record and reached the NCAA Sweet 16.

He was selected in the first round of the 1989 NBA Draft with the 19th overall pick by the Philadelphia 76ers, where he played four seasons (1989-93). He continued to play professional basketball abroad and in the Continental Basketball Association until 2000, with stops at the CBA Tri-Cities (Washington) and with teams in Italy, Japan, Brazil, the Philippines, Cypress, China, Argentina and Australia.

Payne earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sport administration from Louisville in 2003.

He and his wife, Michelle, have two children: Alexis and Alexander (Zan), who played on the UofL basketball team.

CHIN COLEMAN

Associate Head Coach
3rd Year at Arkansas
Lamar, 1997

Ronald "Chin" Coleman was named associate head coach to the Razorback staff on May 1, 2024, and enters his third season at Arkansas.

In his 15 years as a collegiate coach, he has built a reputation as having a relationship-driven focus with his players that forges success on the court and on the recruiting trail. With that, Coleman is recognized as one of the top coaches in the country.

Coleman helped solidify his reputation by helping Arkansas reach the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2025 and 2026 and win the 2026 SEC Tournament while producing three recruiting classes among the nation's top 4.

In 2025, Arkansas overcame early injuries to make an impressive run late in the season thanks to Coleman's work as defensive coordinator. In 2026, Coleman worked heavily with Darius Acuff Jr. and Meleek Thomas. Acuff finished the season as the most decorated player by a Razorback for a season, earning unanimous first team All-America, winning the Bob Cousy Award and being a national Player of the Year finalist (Wooden Award and Naismith Trophy). Thomas would have set the Razorback freshman record for scoring had he not played with Acuff. However, Thomas did set a UA school record for 3-point shooting in SEC play by making 48.7% of his 3-pointers.

Prior to Arkansas, Coleman served on Calipari's staff at Kentucky for three seasons (2021-24).In his first season in Lexington, Coleman helped in the development of guards Sahvir Wheeler, who was a Bob Cousy finalist and led the Southeastern Conference in assists per game, as well as TyTy Washington Jr., who set the UK single-game record with 17 assists against Georgia. Coleman aided in the development of guards Cason Wallace and Antonio Reeves in 2022-23. Reeves became the 2023 Southeastern Conference Co-Sixth Man of the Year and Wallace ranked among league leaders in assists per game, assist-to-turnover ratio and steals per game. In 2023-24, Reeves earned All-American honors while freshmen Reed Sheppard and Robb Dillingham were tabbed SEC Freshman of the Year and Sixth Man of the Year, respectively, as well as both being named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.. Also part of that 2023-24 freshman class was D.J. Wagner, who was named to the SEC All-Freshman team, and Justin Edwards, one of the top three recruits in the country.

At Illinois, Coleman was instrumental in the development of Ayo Dosunmu, one of the country's best point guards. Under his guidance, Dosunmu raked in dozens of national and conference honors – including USA Today National Player of the Year, Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year and NCAA Consensus All-America First Team honors – while leading Illinois to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

With Coleman on the bench, Illinois posted back-to-back 20-win seasons the last two years for the first time since the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons and finished second in the Big Ten in 2021. With Coleman serving as a defensive coordinator in 2020-21, the Illini finished seventh in the country in the Ken Pomeroy's adjusted defensive rankings and hovered around the top spot for much of the season.

Prior to Illinois, Coleman served two years as an assistant coach under Steve McClain at UIC. The Flames underwent a remarkable turnaround in Coleman's two seasons on staff, winning 17 games in 2016-17, a 12-win increase over the previous season.

At UIC, Coleman helped recruit and develop Dikembe Dixson, who was named the 2016 Horizon League Freshman of the Year and earned a spot on the All-Horizon League Team after setting the league's scoring record by a freshman. During his first season with the Flames, Coleman was key in the development of sophomore Tai Odiase, one of the top rim protectors in the country. Odiase led all NCAA Division I players with 3.23 blocks per game during the regular season and was named to the Horizon League All-Defensive Team.

Coleman was at Bradley for three seasons before UIC and was elevated to assistant head coach in his final season in 2014-15. In his first year with the Braves, Coleman helped BU to its first winning record in three seasons.

Prior to his time at Bradley, he was an assistant coach at Colorado State under Tim Miles. The following season, Miles brought Coleman with him to Nebraska as the Director of Player Development.

In his lone season at Colorado State, Coleman helped pilot the 2011-12 Rams to their first 20-win campaign in 14 years and their first NCAA Tournament berth since the 2003 season. CSU featured three All-Mountain West players that season, including first-team pick Wes Elkmeier.

Before entering the college ranks, Coleman served as head coach of the Chicago-based Mac Irvin Fire AAU squad from 2005 to 2011. Coleman laid the foundation for Mac Irvin Fire into becoming one of the premier AAU teams in the country.

Coleman also coached Illinois prep hoops for Benjamin E. Mays Academy and Whitney Young High School in Chicago. In 2006, he directed Mays to a perfect 35-0 record and a District 299 City Championship. He then moved back home to lead Whitney Young as the associate head coach, and from 2007 to 2011, Whitney Young finished in the top 25 nationally for four consecutive seasons, including an Illinois High School Association title in 2009.

The Chicago native played high school ball at Chicago's South Shore Career Academy before competing collegiately for Weber State and Lamar. Coleman spent his first season and played his final three seasons at Lamar, Coleman led the Cardinals in scoring all three seasons and earned three consecutive All-Sun Belt First Team honors. His 1,316 points was the 10th-best mark in Lamar school history at the conclusion of his career.

Coleman played seven seasons of professional basketball, including stints with the Houston Rockets and the Grand Rapid Hoops in the Continental Basketball Association. He also competed overseas in Finland and in Latvia's top league before returning to the United States to begin his coaching career.

Coleman earned a bachelor's degree in applied arts and science from Lamar in 1997.

He and his wife, Angela, have a daughter, Rahni.

Kentucky, 2019

Brad Calipari joined the Arkansas staff for the 2024-25 season and serves as assistant coach/director of on-court player development. He took on a more active role in recruiting responsibilities in the summer of 2026.

In each of his two seasons, Arkansas showed marked individual improvement throughout the year, especially over the final two months, to reach the NCAA Sweet 16 in both 2025 and 2026 as well as win the 2026 SEC Tournament. In February and March, Arkansas posted a 22-9 record in both seasons, including a 7-1 mark in March 2026. The Razorbacks had Adou Thiero get picked in the second round of the 2025 NBA Draft while Darius Acuff Jr., Meleek Thomas and Trevon Brazile are projected NBA picks in 2026.

Calipari came to Fayetteville after two seasons working in player development at Vanderbilt and Long Island.

Calipari was the director of on-court player development at Vanderbilt for the 2023-24 campaign. He helped Erza Manjon and Tyrin Lawrence rank among the top scorers in the SEC while Ven-Allen Lubin was one of the most improved players in the league.

In 2022-23, Calipari was the director of player development for Long Island University in Brooklyn. At LIU, Calipari worked alongside head coach Rod Strickland – an NBA veteran who made the transition to collegiate coaching.

Prior to his time in Brooklyn, Calipari was a graduate assistant for the Kentucky men's basketball program, earning his master's certificate in sports kinesiology in 2022.

As a student-athlete, Calipari began his career at Kentucky, suiting up for the Wildcats for his first three seasons (2016-19) on teams that made two Elite 8's and a Sweet 16. He played the final two seasons of his collegiate career at Detroit Mercy for the 2019-20 and 2020-21 seasons.

Calipari graduated from Kentucky in 2019 with a bachelor's degree in communications and media studies before earning a master's degree in liberal arts from Detroit Mercy in 2021.

RONNIE BREWER

Assistant Coach
Director of Student-Athlete Development & Mid-South Recruiting
6th Year at Arkansas
Arkansas, 2015

Razorback All-American, NBA first-round draft pick and 2026 University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor selection Ronnie Brewer joined Arkansas's basketball staff as recruiting coordinator on July 20, 2021. Two years later, prior to the 2023-24 campaign, he added assistant coach duties to his resume. Since the 2024-25 season, Brewer has served as the program's director of student-athlete development and Mid-South Recruiting while returning to his role as an assistant coach in the summer of 2026.

In addition to his role as an assistant coach, Brewer works with the players in their personal and professional development off the court as well as coordinates the team's community service efforts, as he has been and continues to be entrenched in the Northwest Arkansas community.

Brewer made an immediate impact in his first year (2021-22) as the Razorbacks landed the consensus #2 class in the nation – with three five stars and all six being among the ESPN and SI top 100. Three of those – Anthony Black (#6), Nick Smith Jr. (#27) and Jordan Walsh (#38) – were "one-and-dones" and Arkansas was one of two programs with three players drafted in 2023 but the only school with two – much less three – taken inside the top 40. In his six years, Arkansas has earned four Sweet 16 berths, advancing to the Elite 8 in 2022, and brought home the 2026 SEC Tournament title.

Brewer, the 14th pick in the 2006 NBA Draft by the Utah Jazz, spent 10 seasons playing professional basketball (2006-16). Brewer played three seasons (2006-10) with the Utah Jazz and played in the 2008 NBA Rookie-Sophomore Game. He was traded to the Memphis Grizzlies in January of 2010. He then signed with Chicago prior to the 2010-11 season and spent two seasons with the Bulls. Over the next two seasons, Brewer played with the New York Knicks (2012-13), Oklahoma City Thunder (2013), Houston Rockets (2013-14) and a second stint with the Bulls (2014). He ended his professional career playing one season (2015-16) with the Santa Cruz Warriors.

He scored 3,940 points in his NBA career with 1,427 rebounds and 828 assists. Highlights include him playing and starting a career-high 81 games while averaging a career-high 13.7 points in 2008-09 with the Utah Jazz and playing 81 games in 2010-11 to help the Chicago Bulls post the best record in the NBA (62-20) and reach the Eastern Conference finals.

After his rookie season in the NBA, he started the Ronnie Brewer Foundation in 2007 to support communities in at-risk situations while promoting education, physical fitness, and the importance of working together as a team. He additionally organized annual summer basketball camps for the youth in Fayetteville and has created jobs in Farmington with his Brew Crew Transportation Trucking Company.

In 2009, Brewer was the recipient of the University of Arkansas' Silas Hunt Legacy Award, which recognizes African Americans for their significant contributions to the community, state and nation.

After retiring from professional basketball and in addition to his Foundation and trucking company, Brewer has worked at Fayetteville High School with the boy's basketball team and a communications teacher as well as coaching the Woodz Elite U16 AAU basketball team. Brewer has also put his communications background to use by serving as host on sports radio talk shows in South Florida and Northwest Arkansas.

During his playing career at Arkansas, Brewer was a 2006 All-American, a two-time first team All-SEC selection (2005 and '06) and a two-time All-District pick (2005 and '06) by both the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association.

Brewer ranks 16th on Arkansas' all-time scoring list with 1,416 – trailing his father and fellow NBA first-round pick Ron with 1,440 points – in his three seasons with the Razorbacks. He led the Razorbacks in steals in each of his three seasons, including leading the SEC in 2006 with 83, and ranks eighth on the school's all-time steals list. Brewer additionally led the Hogs in scoring, rebounding, field goals made and free throws made in both 2005 and 2006 while leading the team in assists and 3-point field goal percentage in 2005.

Born in Portland, Ore., Brewer grew up in Fayetteville and was inducted into Fayetteville High School's Hall of Greats in 2017. While with the Purple Bulldogs, he was selected Mr. Basketball in Arkansas as a senior in 2003. He broke Corliss Williamson's conference scoring record as a senior and averaged 25 points, nine rebounds and six assists that season.

Although he only played three seasons for the Razorbacks (2004-06), Brewer received his degree in journalism from Arkansas in 2015.

BRUISER FLINT

Special Assistant to the Head Coach
3rd Season at Arkansas
Saint Joseph's, 1987

James "Bruiser" Flint, a former John Calipari assistant at UMass and Kentucky with more than 30 years of coaching experience at the head coach and assistant levels, joined the staff as the special assistant to the head coach for the 2024-25 season.

Arkansas reached the Sweet 16 in each of Flint's two seasons and added an SEC Tournament title in 2026. Flint's role includes helping Coach Calipari in game planning, scouting opponents, and formulating the team's approach in practices and in games.

Flint was originally hired at Kentucky as an assistant coach from (2020-23). Then, in 2023-24, he was elevated to assistant to the head coach in 2023-24 where he was tasked with an increased role off the court in helping head coach John Calipari run the program.

A former member of Calipari's staff at UMass for seven seasons, Flint served the previous three seasons at Indiana under Archie Miller. He has 20 years of experience as a Division I head coach at Drexel (2002-16) and UMass (1996-01).

With a blue-collar background and an infectious personality, Flint is well-known in the college basketball fraternity for his success in both recruiting and developing players. His honest, engaging approach has been the consistent variable behind 20 successful seasons as a Division I head coach at Drexel and UMass, plus several prominent assistant coaching stops, including seven seasons at UMass under Calipari.

Flint won 331 games as a head coach during his 20 seasons at the helm at UMass and Drexel. Four times he was named Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year (2002, 2004, 2009 and 2012) and National Association of Basketball Coaches District Coach of the Year (1998, 2007, 2009 and 2012).

The Philadelphia native was a member of Calipari's staff at UMass from 1989-90 through the 1995-96 season, helping build a national program in Amherst, Massachusetts, after 11 straight losing seasons. With Calipari and Flint on staff, the Minutemen made five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 1996 Final Four run, to go along with five Atlantic 10 regular-season and five A-10 Tournament titles.

Flint played a key role in the development of Marcus Camby, who won the John R. Wooden Award and the Naismith Trophy as the national player of the year in 1996. Camby was drafted No. 2 overall in the NBA Draft that spring.

After Calipari departed for the NBA, Flint took over the program for five seasons, including NCAA Tournament berths in the first two seasons. He also posted the best record of any first-year coach UMass in school history.

Following his stint in Amherst, Flint took the reins at Drexel, where he racked up more victories (245) than any other coach in school history over his 15 seasons. With stingy defenses and a culture of toughness, Flint set new standards at Drexel, leading the Dragons to 20 or more wins three times while recording at least 10 CAA wins in nine seasons.

During his tenure, Drexel featured the CAA Defensive Player of the Year on four occasions, 23 All-CAA selections, 12 members of the conference's All-Defensive Team, six players named to the league's All-Rookie Team and two CAA Rookies of the Year.

Flint's Dragons had a record-breaking season in 2011-12. His squad set a school record with 29 wins and won the CAA regular-season title, going 16-2. The Dragons won a program-best 19 straight games and advanced to the CAA title game for the second time ever.

His teams were an unfriendly foe for some of the nation's top teams. In 2010-11, Drexel stunned No. 20 Louisville, handing the Cardinals their first-ever loss in the new KFC Yum! Center. The Dragons also defeated NCAA teams Old Dominion and VCU. In 2006-07, on its way to a 23-9 overall record, Drexel won 13 road games (tied for most in Division I). The Dragons won at Syracuse, Villanova and Creighton. Flint became the first coach in Drexel history ever to beat three Philadelphia Big 5 teams in one season.

Langford and Jackson-Davis were named McDonald's All-Americans and Langford was a lottery pick by the Boston Celtics.

  ^ Meleek Thomas SEC All-Freshman team
- ACUFF is just the third player – and the second coached by John Calipari – to be tabbed SEC Player of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year in the same season, joining Anthony Davis (Kentucky, 2012) and Brandon Miller (Alabama, 2023).
  ^ Acuff is the 13th Conference Player of the Year and 21st Conference Freshman of the Year coached by Calipari.
  ^ He set a league record by earning eight SEC weekly awards this season, including a record seven Freshman of the Week honors – with a record five-straight – and once being named SEC Player of the Week.
  ^ Acuff is the fourth Razorback (fifth honor) to win SEC Player of the Year, joining Corliss Williamson (Coaches & AP) in both 1994 and 1995, Bobby Portis (Coaches & AP) in 2015 and Mason Jones (AP) in 2020.
- RICHMOND earned SEC All-Defensive team as he is routinely asked to guard the opponents' top player, whether he be a point guard, shooting guard, small forward and power forward. He finished the regular season with 26 blocked shots (19 in SEC play) and 33 steals (24 in SEC play). In addition to his defense, Richmond had a breakout season on the offensive end. Thanks to five-straight game scoring 20 points, Richmond shot 57.4% (97-169) from the field in SEC games only to rank second in the league.
  ^ Richmond is the ninth Razorback to be named to the SEC All-Defensive team.
- THOMAS was named to the SEC All-Freshman team as he completed the best scoring tandem in the NCAA this season and one of the best freshman scoring tandems in NCAA history. He averaged 15.65 points, which ranked 18th in the SEC. The Pittsburgh native also ranked 10th in the SEC in both steals (1.54) and 13th in 3-pointers made (2.22 avg.). In SEC play, Thomas was sixth in steals (1.67) and 13th in the field goal percentage (46.2%). Thanks to a strong finish to the regular season, which he was named SEC Freshman of the Week, Thomas shot 48.7% (38-of-78) from 3-point range in SEC games to set the Arkansas season record. (Note, the previous mark was by Rotnei Clark, who shot 47.4% (45-of-95) from 3-point range in SEC games in 2011.)
  ^ Acuff and Thomas are the 21st and 22nd Razorbacks to earn SEC All-Freshman honors. They are the third pair of teammates to be honored in the same season with Ronnie Brewer and Olu Famutimi (2004) and Scotty Thurman and Williamson (1993).

THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID AMERICA

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena - The Basketball Palace of Mid America - for 33 years and has drawn over nine million fans. In that time, it has ranked among national attendance leaders every season and the Hogs have won 81 percent of their home games.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, then-Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America's most nationally competitive league.

His attention turned immediately to basketball. The Hogs were very successful, coming off a Final Four trip earlier that year, but had just a 9,000-seat home, Barnhill Arena.

One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Walmart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC. Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, Bud Walton Arena was born.

Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months. The Razorbacks' first official game in Bud Walton came on Nov. 29, 1993, a 93-67 win over Murray State. A few days later (Dec. 2), the facility was officially dedicated in a 120-68 win over Missouri. Everything went perfectly during the first full year. Not only did Arkansas sell out the arena, the Razorbacks were unbeaten in their new home (16-0) and won the 1994 National Championship.

Through 33 seasons in Bud Walton Arena, the Hogs carry a 459-105 (.814) record and over 9.1 million have come through the doors. Arkansas has ranked in the top 30 nationally in attendance every year since moving in to Bud Walton Arena.

Arkansas led the NCAA in total attendance in 2020-21 and 2021-22. The last five seasons (2020-21 to 2025-26) were sellouts before the first game was played. On Feb. 8, 2022, a then record crowd of 20,327 saw the Razorbacks upset top-ranked Auburn. Then, on Nov. 29, 2023, that number was bettered when 20,344 saw Arkansas beat #7 Duke as part of the SEC/ACC Challenge.

Entering the 2026-27 campaign, Arkansas has a combined mark of 781-210 in its last two home arenas for an outstanding home winning percentage of .788 over the last 72 years.

Bud Walton Arena houses the TOMMY BOYER HALL OF CHAMPIONS that includes a tribute to Arkansas' 1994 NCAA Championship and multiple Final Four appearances as well as the history of Razorback basketball.

Enhancements prior to the 2009 season included the addition of courtside seating, electronic signage at the scorer's table, new retractable seats in the lower level, electronic ribbon boards along the bottom of the upper deck, replacing the Razorback on the court with the classic Razorback logo and opening up the student section by converting it from chairback seats to benches.

Eight suites were added prior to the 2008 season, raising the total to 47.

The Razorbacks received an expanded locker room in 2005, which was redesigned in 2012 and includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area.

In the summer of 2015, a $4 million investment was made to the arena to maximize fan experience, featuring a center hung video board with four LED displays. To go along with the visual enhancements, a brand new sound system was also installed to enhance volume and clarity for every seat in the arena.

As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral.

According to Rosser International in Atlanta, when the arena was built, there were more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It's no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting.

From pre-game to post-game, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Bud Walton Arena is a rich experience, leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

NOLAN RICHARDSON COURT/DRIVE/STATUE

The University unveiled Nolan Richardson Court at Bud Walton Arena on October 20, 2019, prior to a season-opening exhibition game with Arkansas-Little Rock. Arkansas won the game 79-64 on the newly-named court.

On March 28, 2019 the University of Arkansas System Board of Trustees unanimously approved a resolution to name the court at Bud Walton Arena for the Hall of Fame coach.

The Razorbacks have posted an overall 100-20 (.833) record on Nolan Richardson Court in its seven seasons.

On April 16, the street running between Bud Walton Arena and the Marsha and Martin Family Basketball Performance Center – formerly Leroy Pond Avenue – was renamed Nolan Richardson Drive.

During halftime of the Arkansas-Texas game on March 4, it was announced that a statue of Nolan Richardson will be placed outside the west entrance of Bud Walton Arena.

Richardson was 389-169 in 17 seasons as Arkansas head coach and set a school record for wins. Among his many honors are NABC and Naismith Coach of the Year (1994), USBWA Most Courageous Award (1995), University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor (1996), Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame (1998), College Basketball Hall of Fame (2008), the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame (2014) and NAIA Hall of Fame (2023). He was honored with a banner in the rafters of Bud Walton Arena on Feb. 24, 2015.

He led the Razorbacks to 13 NCAA Tournament appearances including six Sweet 16's (1990, 1991, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996), four Elite Eights (1990, 1991, 1994, 1995), three Final Fours (1990, 1994, 1995) a national runner-up finish (1995) and the 1994 NCAA Championship.

In Richardson's 22 combined years as a head coach at the collegiate level – at Western Texas Junior College, the University of Tulsa and the University of Arkansas – he compiled a record of 508-206 (.711) and became the only head coach in college basketball history to win a National Junior College Championship, NIT Championship and NCAA Championship.

Note: Arkansas was a member of the Southwest Conference from 1924-91 and has been a member of the Southeastern Conference since 1992.

Note: Barnhill Arena's capacity was expanded from 5,000 to 6,200 in 1977 and to 9,000 in 1978.

Championships were a tradition at Arkansas long before the Razorbacks earned the national title in 1994. The '94 championship was the grandest of them all, but the NCAA trophy isn't exactly the only one on the shelf in the fabulous Bud Walton Arena museum.

In fact, Arkansas has made six trips to the NCAA Final Four and earned 31 bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In conference play, Arkansas has won 24 league championships with 22 coming in the Southwest Conference between 1926 and 1991. The Hogs won the Southeastern Conference crown in 1992, their first year in the league, after winning three straight SWC titles. The Hogs have also won seven league tournament crowns.

Since joining the SEC, Arkansas continues to be an upper-echelon program. The Razorbacks won overall titles in 1992 and 1994, Western Division titles in 1992, '93, '94 and '95, and won the tournament crown in 2000.

Arkansas has a long-standing tradition of winning in basketball. It started in the 1920s and has carried through to this time. Even though Arkansas didn't begin playing basketball until 1924, the Hogs won more SWC championships than any other school.

It didn't take long for the Hogs to have an impact on the SWC. Two years after starting the program, Arkansas won its first league championship. It was the first of five in a row. Francis Schmidt, Arkansas' first basketball coach, guided the Hogs to the 1926, '27, '28 and '29 titles. Chuck Bassett was the coach of the 1930 championship squad.

Wear Schoonover, Arkansas' first football All-American, captained the 1930 club. He earned All-SWC honors three times. In fact, the Razorbacks dominated the all-conference squads of the late 1920s. In 1928, Arkansas had four of the five All-SWC selections when Glen Rose, Tom Pickell, Gene Lambert Sr. and Schoonover were named all-league. Rose was also the first Razorback to earn All-America honors (1928), followed a year later by Pickell and Lambert.

The Hogs were loaded with all-conference talent during that time. Rose was a three-time All-SWC pick, as was Pickell. Lambert and Rolla Adams made it twice as did Milan Creighton.

From 1926 through 1929, Arkansas was a combined 60-5.

When Schmidt left Arkansas as coach, he went to league rival TCU and was tough to beat until the Razorbacks hired Rose as head coach.

Rose began another glorious run with a co-championship in 1935. The Hogs won SWC titles in '36, '38, '41 and '42. The 1936 Razorbacks almost represented the United States in the Olympics, winning four games in an Olympic playoff before losing to a team of all-stars from California in the semifinals of the tournament.

Jim Lee Howell, Ike Poole, Taft Moody, Don Lockard, Jack Robbins, Howard Hickey and Johnny Adams were the stars of their day. Adams was an All-American in 1941. He was Arkansas' fifth All-American, but the last one until Martin Terry made it in 1973.

From 1945-1950, Arkansas had four second-place finishes and shared the 1949 title. The Razorbacks then went through a mild recession before claiming a co-championship in 1958. By winning a playoff game against SMU, Arkansas qualified for the NCAA Tournament. It wasn't a pleasant experience. Oklahoma State, which featured Eddie Sutton as a player, downed the Hogs by 25, 65-40, and Oscar Robertson exploded for 58 points as the Hogs were drilled by Cincinnati, 97-62, in a consolation game.

As unpleasant as the tournament experience was, Arkansas would have loved to have gone back, but it didn't happen for 19 years. Not even Rose, who led the Hogs to the '58 title in his second stint as coach, could return Arkansas to glory. He retired following the 1966 season, but neither of his two successors, Duddy Waller or Lanny Van Eman, put a contender on the floor.

Van Eman did, however, bringing excitement to the game. His teams regularly scored in the 80s and 90s at a time when the traditional powers played games in the 60s. Van Eman recruited Martin Terry from junior college and Terry set school single-season scoring records that still stand. He averaged 28.3 points per game as a senior. Even though he played only two seasons, Terry still ranks among Arkansas' top 20 all-time scorers.

Unfortunately, Van Eman's teams usually gave up more points than they scored. Twice in 1971, Arkansas scored 100 or more points and lost.

Van Eman's second club managed to win 16 games, but only five came in SWC play. Arkansas and Baylor, which paired for a thrilling 111-110 Baylor victory the year before, put on another wild show with the Razorbacks winning, 131-109, in Fayetteville, setting a league record for points scored by two teams in a conference game.

After the 1974 Hogs won just 10 games, Frank Broyles, newly appointed athletic director as well as an already established football coach, decided it was time to make a commitment to basketball. He turned things around by hiring Eddie Sutton.

Sutton caught the state's attention in his first season when the Razorbacks finished 17-9 and second in the SWC. By the time his second team finished its 19-9 campaign, construction workers were already renovating Barnhill Arena, a facility constructed in 1957.

The 1976 Hogs also featured the nucleus of what was to become one of the greatest teams in history. Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph were sophomores. Sidney Moncrief was a freshman and he quietly led the nation in field goal percentage (.665, 149-224), and Sutton knew he had something special.

With half of Barnhill's facelift completed before the 1977 season, a new wave of excitement swept through the entire state of Arkansas.

The Razorbacks blitzed through the SWC unbeaten, winning their first league title in 19 years. Brewer, Moncrief and Delph were the toast of the Ozarks. Arkansas finished 26-2, but lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when Moncrief fouled out, allowing Wake Forest to come from behind for a victory.

Expectations were high in 1978 and the Hogs didn't disappoint. For a week, the Razorbacks were even ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. A loss at Houston after two victories earlier in the week dropped the Hogs from their position at the top.

Arkansas shared the SWC title with Texas, but was upset by Houston, again on a last-second shot at the SWC Tournament. Stunned, the Razorbacks returned home unsure of whether or not they would receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The Hogs got in and victories over Weber State and No. 2 UCLA thrust Arkansas into the regional finals. Brewer hit a long jumper with less than a minute to play and Jim Counce scored on a layup at the end to seal a 61-58 victory over Cal-Fullerton, sending the Hogs to the Final Four.

No. 1-ranked Kentucky ended Arkansas' dreams of a national title with a semifinal victory, but Brewer hit another of his patented buzzer shots in the third-place game, giving Arkansas a thrilling 71-69 victory over Notre Dame.

With All-American Brewer and the sleek-shooting Delph gone, Moncrief and Steve Schall were left to lead the 1979 Hogs. It was almost a repeat performance of 1978.

Moncrief was brilliant. He simply refused to allow his team to lose. After a brief midseason slump, Arkansas won 14 straight games, including two at the SWC Tournament and two in the NCAA Tournament. A victory over Louisville sent Arkansas into the Midwest Regional finals against No. 1-ranked Indiana State and superstar Larry Bird.

Arkansas could not stop Bird, but ISU could not contain Moncrief. In one of the greatest games in UA history, the Hogs suffered a 73-71 setback, when a last-second Sycamore shot bounced twice and fell in. Arkansas finished 25-5 and the Moncrief era was history.

Sutton won three more SWC titles and left behind a legacy, when his teams won 20 or more games nine years in a row. Arkansas played in the NCAA Tournament in each of those nine seasons, but never came close to returning to the Final Four. The Razorbacks even featured a team that had three future first-round NBA draft choices when Scott Hastings, Darrell Walker and Alvin Robertson played together. Joe Kleine, another future first-round NBA pick and member of the 1984 Olympic team, redshirted that year (1982).

When Sutton left for Kentucky after the 1985 season, Broyles turned a completely different direction when he hired Nolan Richardson. Richardson's teams were noted for defense, just as Sutton's were, but it was a different style of defense. Richardson's defense usually turned quickly to offense and his teams at Tulsa had led the nation in scoring.

The 1944 Razorback men's basketball team.

Inheriting a group of players recruited to play at a slower pace, Richardson had to bite the bullet as his first season resulted in a 12-16 finish. Then he started recruiting. His second team won 19 games and his third was 21-9. His 1989 squad won Arkansas' first SWC title since 1982 and breezed through the league tournament. Arkansas set school scoring records and downed Loyola-Marymount in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before bowing out to Louisville.

By then, Richardson's style and players had converted Razorback fans. Barnhill Arena was hopping every time the Hogs played. It wouldn't have taken a Final Four appearance for the state to go nuts, but when the Razorbacks reached the 1990 Final Four, the state went crazy.

The Hogs were SWC champs again and dominated the SWC Tournament for the second consecutive year. Triumphs over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas sent the Razorbacks into the Final Four. A loss to Duke in the semifinals ended the season at 30-5.

It nearly happened again in 1991. Arkansas won a school-record 34 games before falling to Kansas in the Southeast Regional finals. Arkansas ended its history in the Southwest Conference by winning the final three regular season and tournament championships.

A new era was launched in 1991-92 and the Razorbacks didn't miss a beat. Arkansas won the Southeastern Conference title with a 13-3 record. Included were two victories over Shaquille O'Neal-led LSU and a big win at Kentucky. The Todd Day-Lee Mayberry-Oliver Miller era ended with a 26-8 season and another trip to the NCAAs.

Day finished his career as the program's all-time leading scorer (2,395 pts) and second in steals (271) while Mayberry was third on the all-time scoing list (1,940 pts) and first in steals (291). Miller finished seventh on the career scoring list (now ninth with 1,674 pts), is the school's all-time leader in field goal percentage (.636) and is third in career rebounds (886).

After winning the SEC's Western Division in '93 and pushing North Carolina to the limit in a Sweet 16 loss to the eventual national champions, the Razorbacks enjoyed its best season ever in 1994. Arkansas won nearly everything possible. The Razorbacks were SEC champs, again sweeping LSU and winning at Kentucky, they made the school's fifth trip to the Final Four and completed their dream season by beating Arizona and Duke to win the national title.

A year later, Arkansas was No. 1 in all the preseason polls, but the Hogs stumbled early before making a late-season run. Arkansas repeated as Western Division champion, then downed Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia to earn its sixth Final Four appearance.

A win over North Carolina in the semifinals allowed the Hogs to advance to the finals, but it was UCLA's year as the Bruins beat Arkansas for the 1995 crown.

With every starter gone from the back-to-back Final Four clubs, Arkansas was expected to struggle in 1996. Richardson, however, molded together a young team and the Hogs peaked late. Seeded 12th in the NCAA

East Regional, Arkansas beat Penn State and Marquette to advance to the Sweet 16 before falling to top-ranked Massachusetts.

In 1997, Arkansas was forced to endure an NCAA inquiry, which proved fruitless, but it damaged the Hogs' recruiting. The streak of nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances ended but the Bud Walton Arena crowds were rejuvenated by three NIT games. Fans who never before had the opportunity to buy Razorback basketball tickets were able to attend and helped Arkansas advance to the NIT semifinals in New York.

It was back to the NCAAs in 1998 as the Razorbacks, who got 10.4 points and an SEC-leading 9.8 rebounds per game from Nick Davis, won 24 games and reached the second round with a win over Nebraska.

Arkansas won its 10th straight NCAA Tournament first-round game in 1999 as Pat Bradley set school records for career three-point shooting (366-915, .400). Derek Hood recorded more double-doubles than anyone in Arkansas history (18) and also led the league in rebounding (10.3), and Kareem Reid broke Lee Mayberry's career record for assists (748).

The Razorbacks also had one of the most unique weeks in its basketball history. The final two home games came over a five-day span against No. 5 Kentucky and No. 2 Auburn. Never before had Arkansas played two top 10 teams at home in the same week. Arkansas beat UK, 74-70, and topped Auburn, 104-88.

Following an up-and-down season in 2000, Arkansas won four games in four days, including wins over No. 16 Kentucky, No. 10 LSU and No. 23 Auburn to win the school's first SEC Tournament title. Brandon Dean was the MVP after averaging 15.2 points in the title run. Joe Johnson was the 2000 SEC Newcomer of the Year and went on to be a 2001 honorable mention All-America and an NBA first-round draft pick.

The 2001 club rebounded from an 0-3 league start with a six-game winning streak late in the year to earn Arkansas' 13th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years and its 15th straight post-season tournament berth.

The Nolan Richardson era came to an end in 2002 when he was released from his contract. The Razorbacks dropped to 14-15, including a 13-14 mark under Richardson. Mike Anderson was 1-1 as interim head coach for the last two games of the season.

Stan Heath rebuilt the roster with recruiting classes ranked as high as No. 13 by Rivals.com in 2004 and No. 7 by Hoop Scoop in 2003. In 2005, the Razorbacks won the Paradise Jam tournament title and went 18-12.

In 2006, Heath had Arkansas back in the NCAA Tournament, going 22-10 behind honorable mention All-American Ronnie Brewer (18.4 ppg), All-SEC guard Jonathon Modica (16.1 ppg) and SEC Sixth Man of the Year Eric Ferguson (8.1 ppg).

Arkansas earned another NCAA bid in 2007. The Razorbacks won the Old Spice Classic, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and recorded the 27th 20-win season in school history by finishing 21-14. Patrick Beverley (13.9 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was the SEC Newcomer and Freshman of the year, and Steven Hill (6.2 ppg, 2.8 blocks) the SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

John Pelphrey, an honorable mention All-American as a player at Kentucky, became head coach for the 2008 season. His background included playing for Eddie Sutton at Kentucky and working as an assistant coach for Sutton at Oklahoma State.

Pelphrey's first Razorback team went 23-12, was 6-2 against ranked teams, reached the finals of the SEC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a win over No. 24 Indiana. Sonny Weems (15.0 ppg, 4.5 rpg) was first-team All-SEC and won the College Slam Dunk championship.

The Razorbacks ushered in a new (old) style of basketball with the hiring of longtime Razorback assistant Mike Anderson for the 2011-12 campaign. Anderson left the program in 2002 when Richardson departed and went on to highly successful head coaching stints at UAB and Missouri before returning to Arkansas.

The Razorbacks were 169-102 in Anderson's eight seasons and made five postseason tournament berths – three in the NCAA (2015, 2017 and 2018) and two in the NIT (2014 and 2019). Anderson, who did not a losing record in his tenure, also produced NBA draft picks Bobby Portis and Daniel Gafford.

Eric Musselman was named Arkansas' 13th head men's basketball coach on April 7, 2019 and introduced to the fans on April 8. In his first season, the Razorbacks won 20 games before the season was cut short during the SEC Tournament due to CO-VID 19 pandemic. Under his guidance, Arkansas led the NCAA in 3-point field goal percentage defense (.272) and Mason Jones led the NCAA in free throws made (232) and attempted (282) – both school records. Jones was also voted honorable mention All-America and 2020 AP SEC co-Player of the Year as he was the first Razorback to lead the SEC in scoring (22.0 ppg). Isaiah Joe was drafted by the 76er and Jones played with both the Rockets and 76ers.

Year two and three under Musselman saw the program reach heights it had not attained since mid 90's. The Razorbacks won 25 and 28 games, respectively, reached back-to-back NCAA Elite 8's, defeated the AP #1 team twice in 2022 and finished ranked among the nation's top 10 each year. Moses Moody was voted honorable mention All-America, the SEC Freshman of the Year, first team All-SEC and became the program's first ever "one-and-done." The following year JD Notae was consensus third team All-America and Jaylin Williams was drafted by the Oklahoma City Thunder.

In 2022-23, Arkansas reached its third straight Sweet 16, beating top-seed Kansas in the second round, and saw three "one-and-dones" in Anthony Black (#6 overall pick), Nick Smith Jr. (#27 pick), and Jordan Walsh (#38 pick), while All-SEC pick Ricky Council IV signed a two-way, free agent deal.

The program moved to uncharted territory on April 10, 2024 when Hall of Fame coach John Calipari was named head coach. The Razorbacks reached the NCAA Sweet 16 in year one of the Calipari era thanks to wins over Hall of Fame coaches in rounds one and two, beating Kansas and fifth-ranked St. John's.

Year two of the Calipari era resulted in an SEC Tournament Championship and a return to the Sweet 16. Leading the way was the program's first unanimous first team All-America, Darius Acuff Jr., who additionally won the Bob Cousy Award and was a finalist for the Naismith Trophy and Wooden Award. He went on to be the 7th pick in the 2026 NBA Draft and was joined by second-round picks Meleek Thomas and Trevon Brazile.

1994 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Without a senior in the starting lineup, playing in the most palatial arena in college basketball with the President of the United States attending four games and led by a coach with a system that could not be drawn up on a blackboard, Arkansas vaulted into the elite of the elite when the Razorbacks won the 1994 NCAA Championship.

Construction workers built Bud Walton Arena in record time and the 19,200-seat showcase dazzled fans and opponents as much as the Razorbacks did. Sellout crowds each time the doors were opened watched the Hogs go 16-0 at home. Only one game, the 84-83 victory over LSU, was decided by fewer than 10 points. Arkansas won those 16 games by an average of 30 points.

Arkansas blitzed Murray State, 93-67, in the Bud Walton Arena opener on Nov. 29, but the building was dedicated a few nights later when Missouri came to Fayetteville for an ESPN showcase game. The Dec. 2 game was decided in the first few minutes as Arkansas roared to a 120-68 victory over a Missouri club that went unbeaten in the Big Eight and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

Ranked No. 1 nationally for 10 weeks during the regular season, the Hogs lost only twice during the regular campaign. Alabama beat Arkansas, 66-64, in Tuscaloosa, and Mississippi State edged the Hogs, 72-71, in Starkville.

Sophomores Corliss Williamson and Scotty Thurman carried much of the load, while junior Corey Beck was the blue collar leader. When the Hogs had to score, they went inside to Williamson, who averaged 20.4 points per game. He shot 62.6 from the field and 70 percent at the free throw line.

Thurman, though, was the last-minute hero. His three-pointer with seven seconds left gave Arkansas a one-point victory at Tennessee. He hit another three in the last 30 seconds to lift the Hogs past LSU at Baton Rouge in overtime.

Beck did much of the dirty work, defending with tenacity and leading the team in assists. He and junior Clint McDaniel were probably the best defensive guards in college basketball. Head coach Nolan Richardson certainly thought so. McDaniel also provided perimeter firepower, as did junior Dwight Stewart, Arkansas' fifth starter who was more a forward than a center.

Richardson used a deep bench to guide the Hogs to a 24-2 regular season finish. Al Dillard brought instant offense into any contest with his incredible three-point shooting range. He was Arkansas' third-leading scorer behind Williamson and Thurman (15.9 ppg) with an 8.9 average even though he played just more than 12 minutes a game. Roger Crawford, one of only two seniors on the squad, also brought instant firepower off the bench, but he was injured early in the NCAA Tournament run and was not available for the Final Four.

In his honor, UA players wore a No. 31 patch on their jerseys.

Freshmen Darnell Robinson and Lee Wilson, a pair of 6-11 centers, gave the Hogs size they didn't have in 1993 when they won 22 games and reached the Sweet 16 before falling to eventual national champion North Carolina. Senior Ken Biley and junior Elmer Martin also made significant contributions.

When President Bill Clinton visited Bud Walton Arena for a Dec. 28 blowout of Texas Southern, no one realized it would be a preview of later visits to the NCAA Tournament. The nation's most recognizable Razorback fan later appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated wearing sweats presented by Richardson.

A 13-game winning streak was snapped by Kentucky in the SEC Tournament, but the Razorbacks were still seeded first in the Midwest Regional at Oklahoma City. Williamson scored 24 points and had seven rebounds in a 94-79 first-round victory over North Carolina A&T. He followed with 21 points and Robinson, making a surprise start, added 13 in the 85-73 second-round win over Georgetown.

Earlier in the year, Tulsa gave Arkansas a scare before the Hogs won in overtime, 93-91, in Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane surprised UCLA and Oklahoma State to reach the Sweet 16 with Arkansas in Dallas. This one was no contest as Williamson and Thurman scored 21 each, and McDaniel 19 in a 103-84 victory.

Michigan was Arkansas' regional final foe and the Hogs could not contain Juwan Howard, but neither could the Wolverines handle Thurman. With Williamson smothered by Michigan's inside defense and held to 12 points, Thurman tossed in 20 as Arkansas reached the Final Four with a 76-68 win attended by President Clinton.

By the time the Hogs arrived at Charlotte, N.C., they were a confident bunch. They also had been somehow convinced by Richardson that they were not nationally respected, even though they had been ranked No. 1. Arizona was the semifinal opponent and the Wildcat guards, Damon Stoudamire and Khalid Reeves, were billed as the top offensive guards in the nation.

Beck and McDaniel were motivated to the hilt and smothered them. They combined to hit just 11 of their 43 shots, including just two of 22 three-point attempts. Williamson scored 29 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, and the Hogs advanced to the championship game with a 91-82 victory.

An entire state stood still on April 4, 1994. Arkansas fans who could not be there (more than 3,000 made the trip to Charlotte) watched and listened in every corner of the state. President Clinton was there again, and so was Duke, the 1991 and '92 national champion.

After an airtight first half that ended with Arkansas holding a 34-33 lead, Duke jumped out to a 10-point advantage in the first three minutes of the second half. However, the pace of the game picked up during the run and it never slowed down. The Razorbacks took advantage and were even with the Devils less than five minutes later.

When Arkansas built a 70-65 lead late in the contest it looked safe, but Grant Hill's three tied the game with 1:29 remaining.

Although Williamson finished with 23 points, there was no doubt who would take the next shot for Arkansas. Thurman launched a high-arching three-point attempt with only seconds left on the shot clock. The shot fell with 51 seconds left and when it settled through the net, the outcome had been determined. A pair of free throws by McDaniel and another by Dillard sealed Duke's fate, 76-72.

Once the national championship belonged to the Hogs, an entire state celebrated. President Clinton embraced Richardson on the court and later officially honored the Razorbacks at the White House.

The 1994 NCAA championship trophy is on display at Bud Walton Arena.

The Final Four

Boss Hogs

CORLISS WILLIAMSON was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1994 Final Four after averaging 26.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in Arkansas' two wins.

The history of Razorback basketball is filled with thrilling and even heart-stopping moments. The Final Four, conference championships and last-second, game-winning jumpers shape the memories of the "greatest" moments in Arkansas history. These are a few selected memorable games:

No. 2 ARKANSAS 76, No. 6 DUKE 72

NCAA Championship Game
April 4, 1994, at Charlotte, N.C.

Despite Arkansas' incredible basketball success through the years, the Razorbacks had never played for the national championship until their battle with Duke at the Charlotte Coliseum. The Hogs had been ranked No. 1 much of the year, but Duke had won two national titles in the three previous seasons and had defeated Arkansas in the 1990 Final Four at Denver.

Duke controlled the tempo in the first half and Corliss Williamson, who had been nearly unstoppable in the entire tournament, missed his first five shots for the Razorbacks. The Blue Devils led by as many as five points in the opening period, but Scotty Thurman drilled a late three-pointer to give Arkansas a 34-33 halftime advantage.

Corey Beck hit a short jumper early in the second half to give the Hogs a 38-35 lead, but Duke scored 13 unanswered points and suddenly led 48-38 with 17:09 left. While the surge left Duke fans roaring their approval, it also sped up the tempo of the game. The Razorbacks trailed but actually had the Blue Devils right where they wanted them.

Playing at a quicker pace, Arkansas caught up in less than five minutes. When Al Dillard drilled a three with 8:08 remaining to give Arkansas a five-point lead, it looked like momentum had swung to the Hogs for good. Duke fought back and tied the game at 65-65 and finally 70-all with 1:29 remaining. The Razorbacks took a timeout.

When Dwight Stewart fumbled a pass, he quickly passed it out to Thurman with the shot clock winding down. Thurman had no choice but to shoot. As his shot was narrowly clearing the outstretched hand of Antonio Lang, the shot clock hit zero. The shot, though, was true. It was a dagger to the hearts of the Blue Devils and surpassed U.S. Reed's halfcourt jumper against Louisville as the most famous shot in Arkansas history.

Duke never recovered. Three free throws in the final seconds clinched the 76-72 victory that gave Arkansas the 1994 national championship.

Corey Beck had 15 points, a team-high 10 rebounds and four assists in the championship game victory over Duke.

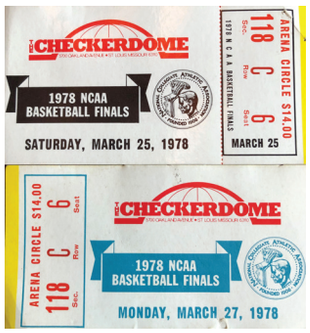
ARKANSAS IN THE FINAL FOUR

YEARS TO REACH THE FINAL FOUR

1941 - 3RD-T
1945 - 3RD-T
1978 - 3RD-T
1990 - 3RD-T
1994 - NATIONAL CHAMPION
1995 - RUNNER-UP



During Arkansas' long, illustrious history, the Razorbacks have been to the NCAA Final Four six times.

The Hogs have earned 30 bids to the NCAA Tournament and made 29 appearances, missing the 1944 event due to a car accident prior to the first-round games.

Only eight schools in the entire country have been to the Final Four more than Arkansas, and only eight schools have earned more than UA's 30 NCAA Tournament bids. Among SEC schools, only Kentucky has been to the NCAA Tournament more often. In fact, Arkansas, Kentucky, LSU, Georgia, Mississippi State and Florida are the only league schools to reach the Final Four.

It was tougher to get in the tournament in the early days, but it also took fewer games to win the title.

In the 1940s, only eight teams participated in the NCAA Tournament, which first became an event in 1939. Up to that point, the NIT was the top national post-season tournament. Twice in the '40s, the Razorbacks advanced to the Final Four.

The 1941 Hogs roared through the Southwest Conference with a 12-0 mark and carried a 19-2 record into the tournament. Arkansas downed Wyoming, 65-40, to reach the Final Four at Kansas City. Washington State handed the Razorbacks a 64-53 setback, meaning Arkansas and Pittsburgh tied for third since there was no third-place game.

Arkansas returned in 1945, again to Kansas City. Arkansas was 16-8 entering the tournament but edged Oregon, 79-76, to reach the Final Four. Eventual national champion Oklahoma State, which Arkansas had defeated once earlier in the season, downed the Hogs and UA tied Ohio State for third place.

It took 33 years for Arkansas to return. In 1978, the Hogs were SWC champs and beat Weber State, second-ranked UCLA and California-Fullerton to advance to the Final Four at St. Louis. Top-ranked Kentucky led by just one with two minutes to play and posted a 64-59 victory.

There was a third-place game and Ron Brewer hit a buzzer shot from the top of the circle to send the Razorbacks past Notre Dame, 71-69. Brewer had 20 points and Marvin Delph 21 in their final game as Razorbacks.

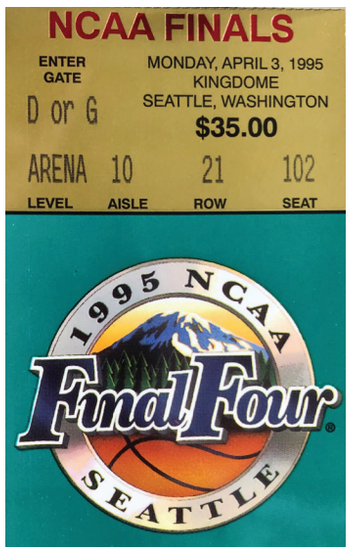
Nolan Richardson guided the Hogs to the Final Four in 1990, 1994 and 1995.

In 1990, wins over Princeton, Dayton, North Carolina and Texas earned Arkansas a trip to Denver. The Razorbacks were 30-4 heading into a semifinal showdown with Duke.

Richardson took his club to Denver a day early to adjust to the altitude, but the Hogs fell behind early in both halves and used plenty of adrenaline to catch up. Arkansas led 69-62 with 10:38 remaining, but ran out of gas. Duke came back and won, 97-83, but also used most of its energy. The Blue Devils were beaten by Nevada-Las Vegas in the title game while Arkansas tied Georgia Tech for third.

The ultimate came in 1994. The Hogs downed North Carolina A&T, Georgetown, Tulsa and Michigan to advance to the Final Four at Charlotte, N.C. The win over Arizona was Arkansas' first ever in the national semifinals and set up a clash with Duke.

With the score tied with less than a minute to play, a well-defended Scotty



Thurman hit a three-pointer to lead the Razorbacks to a 76-72 victory and the national title.

With every starter from the championship squad returning, the Hogs were favored to return to the Final Four in 1995, and they did. Texas Southern, Syracuse, Memphis and Virginia were knocked off along the way to the Final Four at Seattle, but none of the wins came by more than six points.

Arkansas fell behind early but rallied to get by North Carolina in the semifinals. Playing in the NCAA championship game for the second straight year, Arkansas came up short in an 89-78 loss to UCLA.

NCAA Tournament Regional Semifinal
March 16, 1978, at Albuquerque, N.M.

It had been an incredible year for Arkansas. The Razorbacks repeated as Southwest Conference champs but had to nervously await an NCAA at-large bid when they were eliminated from the league tournament by Houston in the semifinals. The "Triplets," Ron Brewer, Sidney Moncrief and Marvin Delph, were the ringleaders.

Still, the Hogs were underdogs and a new kid on the NCAA block when they faced second-ranked UCLA in the third round at Albuquerque. David Greenwood was the leader of the Bruins, who weren't far removed from their incredible string of NCAA championships.

UCLA was stunned as Arkansas roared to a 40-22 lead that was cut to 42-29 by halftime. The Bruins didn't panic. They pressed the Hogs and took a 60-58 lead.

Brewer tied the game with two free throws, Steve Schall hit a short turnaround and Delph drilled a jump shot to put the Hogs back in front.

Delph sizzled by hitting 11 of his 14 shots, finishing with 23 points. Moncrief had 21 and Brewer 18. Greenwood finished with 17 for UCLA.

The victory moved the Razorbacks a step closer to their eventual trip to the Final Four.

No. 1 INDIANA STATE 73, No. 5 ARKANSAS 71

NCAA Regional Final
March 17, 1979, at Cincinnati, Ohio

A Final Four team in 1978, Arkansas was not expected to return in 1979 with the loss of Ron Brewer and Marvin Delph, two of the famed "Triplets." Sidney Moncrief, however, almost single-handedly pushed his team to greater heights than anyone expected.

Moncrief, senior Steve Schall and a cast of sophomores and freshmen put together a 14-game winning streak late in the year and arrived at the Midwest Regional finals ready to challenge No. 1-ranked and unbeaten Indiana State, and superstar Larry Bird. The stakes were a spot in the Final Four.

Bird was awesome. The Hogs simply could not stop him. With 9:22 left, he already had 27 points. Razorback Coach Eddie Sutton then made the ultimate gamble. He put the 6-4 Moncrief on the 6-9 Bird for the final seven minutes.

Bird scored just four more points. Meanwhile, Moncrief was almost as unstoppable as Bird had been. He finished with 24 points and eight rebounds, and had his team in a position to win late. Arkansas had the ball with 1:31 left and holding for the last shot with the score tied 71-71. With 1:02 remaining, U.S. Reed tripped and was called for walking, giving the Sycamores the ball.

ISU held for the last shot, but could not get the ball to Bird, who was smothered by Moncrief. It was Bob Heaton who launched the shot with two seconds left and the Hogs watched helplessly as it hit both sides of the rim before dropping through, depriving the Hogs of a second straight trip to the Final Four.

NCAA Tournament Second Round
March 14, 1981, at Austin, Texas

Defending NCAA champion Louisville and Southwest Conference champion Arkansas clawed at each other for 39 minutes and 55 seconds in the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the scoreboard read Louisville 73, Arkansas 72 after Derek Smith's short jumper for the Cardinals.

The Razorbacks, who had led by six points with 2:13 left, called timeout. U.S. Reed took the inbounds pass and coolly dribbled to midcourt near the sideline. With a second left on the clock, he launched a desperation 49-footer. The only thing desperate after the shot was the look on the faces of the Louisville players as they watched the ball hit nothing but net.

Reed shook hands with everyone on the press table after hitting a shot that will live forever in the minds of Razorback fans. He finished with 19 points. Darrell Walker had 23 and the Hogs were still alive in the NCAA Tournament.

ARKANSAS 65, No. 1 NORTH CAROLINA 64

Feb. 12, 1984, at Pine Bluff, Ark.

North Carolina was 19-0 and ranked No. 1 nationally when the Tar Heels visited Pine Bluff. Arkansas was on its way to a second-place finish in the Southwest Conference and had defeated SMU in Dallas the day before.

Violent weather kept the Hogs from flying to Pine Bluff until the morning of the game, and the Razorbacks arrived in town two hours before the nationally televised contest.

North Carolina had plenty of weapons. Michael Jordan, Sam Perkins and Brad Daugherty, all future NBA stars, were in the starting lineup along with Steve Hale, a guard from Tulsa whose second choice of schools was Arkansas.

The Hogs were armed with Joe Kleine and Alvin Robertson, but the unsung heroes were Darryl Bedford and Charles Balentine. Bedford, a freshman who had been a little used reserve, hit all six of his shots and scored 12 points. Balentine, of course, was the hero at the end.

A crowd of 7,529 was in a frenzy from the opening tipoff to the final buzzer. They watched Jordan score 21 points and Kleine answer with 20. Perkins had 17 and Hale 15. Leroy Sutton scored 11 points, Balentine 10 and Robertson nine for the Hogs.

The second half was a nailbiter and the Tar Heels led by one with only seconds to play. Balentine drove the baseline and hit an eight-footer to give Arkansas the lead before UNC missed a buzzer shot.

No. 12 ARKANSAS 73, No. 2 HOUSTON 68

March 4, 1984, at Fayetteville

Hakeem Olajuwon and Houston were on their way to their third consecutive Final Four, they were ranked second nationally and hadn't lost a Southwest Conference game in two years. The Cougars had gone 16-0 in 1983 and were 15-0 going into the regular season finale at Barnhill Arena.

Arkansas was outstanding as well. The Hogs already had upset top-ranked North Carolina at Pine Bluff, but at 13-2 couldn't catch Houston in the SWC standings. No one in the overflow crowd of 9,438 cared as they watched a terrific contest showcased by national television.

Olajuwon was held to 10 points before fouling out, but Michael Young picked up the slack with 22 and Alvin Franklin earned 21. They weren't as hot as the Hogs, though. Joe Kleine, whose inside power put Olajuwon in foul trouble, scored 22 points, hitting all 10 of his free throws. Charles Balentine added 16, Ricky Norton 14 and Alvin Robertson 13 points and nine assists.

Houston led at the half but saw its hopes dim when Olajuwon drew his fourth and fifth fouls in a 38-second span six minutes from the end while trying to stop Kleine inside. Kleine hit all four free throws and the Hogs had a huge victory.

No. 3 ARKANSAS 103, TEXAS 96

Feb. 4, 1990, at Austin, Texas

Known as the "Strollin' with Nolan" game, Arkansas already had a two-game lead over Texas in the Southwest Conference when the Razorbacks invaded Austin for a nationally televised game.

The Hogs owned a four-game winning streak over the Longhorns, and it was a must-win situation for Texas. The Razorbacks led for most of the first half but Texas gained a five-point advantage midway through the second half. It was 77-72 'Horns when Todd Day fouled out for Arkansas 3:31 from the end.

Texas still led, 86-83, and had Travis Mays at the free throw line with 12 seconds left, but Mays missed the free throw and Lee Mayberry stunned the Texas crowd of more than 16,000 with a long three-pointer four seconds from the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Arkansas made sure Texas never recovered. A three-pointer by Ernie Murry got the Hogs started and Mayberry's jumper at 3:20 put the Hogs in front to stay. Mayberry and Lenzie Howell each scored 23 points to offset 24 by Joey Wright, 23 by Mays and 22 by Lance Blanks. The victory gave Arkansas a three-game lead it never surrendered on its way to the SWC title.

No. 7 ARKANSAS 106, No. 23 LSU 92 (OT)

March 3, 1992, at Fayetteville

It was Arkansas' first year as a member of the Southeastern Conference (SEC). Earlier in the season, Todd Day had exploded for a career-high 43 points as the Razorbacks defeated LSU, 101-90, at Baton Rouge. The Tigers recovered from the defeat, though, and by the time they arrived at Barnhill Arena, they had tied the Hogs for the SEC lead.

LSU's first ever visit to Fayetteville would determine the SEC championship.

The Tigers started strong. Shaquille O'Neal did his best to quiet an overflow crowd of 9,518 with 11 points in the opening half as LSU roared to a 51-36 advantage. O'Neal, however, scored his last points with 11:37 remaining to give the Tigers a 69-58 lead before the Razorbacks charged back.

Lee Mayberry, who hit a then-school record nine three-point field goals and finished with 35 points, teamed with Day, who finished with 27, to bring the Hogs from behind. Mayberry's last three-pointer tied the game at 87-all and Oliver Miller blocked O'Neal's shot at the buzzer to force overtime.

Arkansas blitzed the Tigers, 19-5, in the extra period. Day scored nine points and Mayberry had four during that time. The victory sent Barnhill Arena into a frenzy and the Razorbacks on the way to their first SEC title.

No. 9 ARKANSAS 94, No. 5 KENTUCKY 92

Jan. 29, 1995, at Fayetteville

Kentucky's second-ever trip to Fayetteville was a highly-anticipated event. CBS moved the game to Super Bowl Sunday to ensure a large audience for the nationally televised event.

By halftime it was obvious another special event was taking place, just as every Arkansas-Kentucky game had been. The Wildcats led by one when Reggie Garrett stunned the visitors with a halfcourt buzzer shot to give Arkansas a 49-47 halftime lead.

Arkansas was tied or led the entire second half until Walter McCarty's short jumper gave Kentucky an 82-80 lead with 5:19 left. From that point on, neither team led by more than four, and there were three ties and three lead changes.

Scotty Thurman, Arkansas' greatest last-second shot maker ever, made sure the crowd went home happy. He drove past UK defenders, pulled up and hit an 18-footer with eight seconds to go to put the Razorbacks in front for good. McDaniel made a baseline steal in the final second and hit a free throw for the final margin.

Thurman and Corliss Williamson combined for 50 points as the Hogs won their fourth straight regular season game over the Wildcats.

ARKANSAS 104, No. 2 AUBURN 88

Feb. 24, 1999, at Fayetteville

Auburn hadn't won a SEC championship in 39 years but had already clinched the title and was ranked second nationally with a 25-1 record when the Tigers came to Bud Walton Arena for Arkansas' regular season home finale.

The Razorbacks had stunned fifth-ranked Kentucky four days earlier and believed a win over Auburn would clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament. It was an emotional evening before the game started. Seniors Derek Hood, Pat Bradley and Kareem Reid, record-setters who persevered through four sometimes-difficult seasons, were introduced to the Bud Walton Arena fans for the final time.

Arkansas' fans created the noisiest environment Coach Nolan Richardson, his players and long-time followers of the program could ever remember. An overflow crowd of 20,298 nearly shook the building with an incredible level of exhortation. Not a player or coach on either side completed an interview without mentioning the crowd.

It was a one-point game with 16:26 left but a rebound basket by Hood spurred the Razorbacks to a 30-10 run that left Auburn in shock. Both teams were quick, but the Tigers must have thought there were more than five Hogs on the floor as the noise pushed Arkansas beyond its highest previous performance level of the campaign.

ARKANSAS 80, No. 1 AUBURN 76 (OT)

February 8, 2022 at Fayetteville

Bud Walton Arena had never hosted the No. 1 team in the nation and had never had a bigger crowd until the Razorbacks beat top-ranked Auburn 80-76 in overtime in front of an arena record 20,327.

Down one with 2:39 left in overtime, Jaylin Williams and JD Notae made seven straight free throws to give the Razorbacks a lead it would not relinquish.

The game featured 15 ties and 17 lead changes.

The last lead change came when Auburn led, 70-69, with 2:39 left in overtime. From that point, Williams made two free throws, Notae made two free throws and Williams finished the 7-0 run with three free throws to put the Hogs up six, 76-70.

Auburn battled back as Jabari Smith sank a 3-pointer with 36 ticks left to cut the Tiger deficit to three (76-73). After two free throws by Chris Lykes, Smith drilled another 3-pointer to get the Tigers to within two with 19 seconds remaining. Au'Diese Toney went 1-of-2 at the line but Williams grabbed an offensive rebound on the miss. Notae was fouled with 12 seconds to go for a 4-point Razorback lead. Auburn missed a jumper on the ensuing possession and Williams grabbed the defensive rebound to seal the win.

No. 17 ARKANSAS 74, No. 1 GONZAGA 68

Mar. 24, 2022, at San Francisco, Calif.

The Arkansas Razorbacks reached the Elite 8 for the second straight year with a 74-68 win over top-ranked and NCAA overall #1 seed Gonzaga in the Sweet 16 of the West Regional, played at Chase Center, home of the Golden State Warriors.

Arkansas, thanks to a win over AP #1 Auburn earlier in the season, became the first men's college basketball team to beat two different No. 1 teams from the AP poll in the same season since 1992-93..

Arkansas' defensive effort was the difference against the Bulldogs, holding the nation's best scoring offense (87.8 ppg) and best shooting offense (52.6%) to just 68 points on 37.5% shooting. After enduring a four-minute scoring drought midway through the first half, the Razorbacks responded with a 9-0 run to take the lead and finished the half on a 13-2 run to take a 32-29 lead into the locker rooms. The late half run was fueled by forcing four Gonzaga turnovers and holding the Zags to just 1-of-7 from the field over the final 6:29.

Gonzaga quickly he drew even to open the second half but again the Razorbacks answered with a run again fueled by defense. Arkansas held the Bulldogs without a field goal for nearly five minutes to help build an eight-point lead.

Nursing a five-point lead with just eight seconds left, Au'Diese Toney's block of a Drew Timme shot was the final momentum swing the Hogs needed. Toney put an exclamation point on the victory with a dunk with one second remaining to keep the Hogs dancing.

ARKANSAS 80, No. 7 Duke 75

Nov. 29, 2023, at Fayetteville

Before the largest crown in Bud Walton Arena history (20,344) and on the 30th anniversary of the first game played in the facility, Arkansas got 21 points from Khalif Battle and a double-double from Trevon Brazile to defeat #7 Duke, 80-75, in the inaugural SEC-ACC Challenge.

Arkansas played without its leading scorer Tramon Mark, who was injured versus North Carolina in the Razorbacks' final game at the Battle 4 Atlantis. However, Battle picked up the slack by adding five rebounds and five assists. Brazile made a career-high four 3-pointers, including a key triple with 2:16 left to put the Hogs up 12, and finished with 19 points and 11 rebounds.

Duke entered the game 21st in the NCAA in field goal percentage (50.7%) but the Razorbacks held the Blue Devils to just 35.8% shooting thanks to 10 blocked shots – a career-high six from Chandler Lawson. Duke was also eighth in the NCAA in assist-to-turnover ratio, but only had 10 helpers with eight turnovers against the Hogs On the other side, Arkansas dished out 17 assists – on 26 made baskets – in the win.

The first half featured eight ties and 16 lead changes. The last lead change came on a Jeremiah Davenport 3-pointer with 24 seconds left before the break to give the Razorbacks a 33-32 halftime lead. Arkansas opened the second half with a pair of field goals and held the lead the rest of the game.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAS

The NCAA recognizes consensus All-America teams back to 1905. These teams have drawn from two to six major media sources over the years, and are intended to reflect the opinions of most college basketball experts.

In the early days, there was just the Helms Foundation All-America team (later Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation) and a person was considered both first team and consensus All-America. Later, the Helms was joined by Converse Yearbook, College Humor and Pic, among other. The United Press International was a major All-America team from 1949-97.

Today the four outlets used to select consensus teams are the Sporting News (since 1944-46; 1960-62 & 1997-pres.), the Associated Press (since 1948), the National Association of Basketball Coaches (since 1957), the United States Basketball Writers Association (since 1957). Since 1984, the NCAA has applied a standardized point system to those teams designated as "major" All-American teams to determine consensus teams. The point system consists of three points for first team, two points for second team and one point for third team. No honorable mention or fourth team or lower are used in the computation. The top five totals plus ties are first team and the next five plus ties are second team.

The following is the list of Razorbacks men's basketball players to earn consensus All-America honors.

Glen Rose	1927-28	just one All-American team
Ike Poole	1935-36	just one All-American team
John Adams	1940-41	consensus 1st team
Ron Brewer	1977-78	consensus 2nd team
Sidney Moncrief	1978-79	consensus 1st team
Corliss Williamson	1993-94	consensus 2nd team
	1994-95	consensus 2nd team
Bobby Portis	2014-15	consensus 2nd team
Darius Acuff Jr.	2025-26	unanimous 1st team

CHANCELLOR CHARLES F. ROBINSON

Charles F. Robinson, the seventh chancellor of the University of Arkansas, is committed to advancing the university's land-grant mission to provide opportunity and transform lives through education, research and service.

Dr. Robinson was appointed chancellor in November 2022, after serving as interim chancellor since August 2021. The U of A has set several institutional records under his leadership, including those for graduation rate, retention rate, scholarship funding and enrollment. In addition, the university conducted a record $221.5 million in research in fiscal year 2023, while investing $136 million more of its own resources into applied research facilities since 2021. Under Robinson's leadership, the university contributes over $3 billion annually to the state's economy, underscoring its role as a driver of economic growth and innovation.

Chancellor Robinson prioritizes supporting student success, augmenting the institution's research enterprise and enhancing the university's status as an employer of choice. He initiated and is guiding the $200 million Land of Opportunity Scholarship campaign, a transformative initiative aimed at bridging financial gaps for Arkansas students with the greatest financial need. Robinson has minimized, or at times frozen, tuition increases for in-state students while adding several million dollars in scholarship support for Arkansans and raising employee pay. He is also overseeing the development of world-class research facilities such as the Institute for Integrative and Innovative Research (I3R), the Multi-User Silicon Carbide Research and Fabrication Facility (MUSiC), and the Anthony Timberlands Center for Design and Materials Innovation – helping ensure the university remains a leader in applied research that solves real-world problems, improves lives and strengthens the economy.

Robinson became chancellor after serving the U of A in several capacities over the course of more than two decades. He joined the university as an assistant professor of history in 1999 and was promoted to full professor in 2011. He was then promoted to positions of increasing responsibility, including vice chancellor for Student Affairs and provost and executive vice chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.

Before becoming chancellor, Robinson led initiatives such as Advance Arkansas – a $10 million scholarship effort for first-generation, low-income Arkansans – and the College Access Initiative, a need-based college readiness outreach program serving students and under-resourced schools statewide. Under his leadership, the university constructed Adohi Hall, which is the only residence hall in the United States to use sustainable cross-laminated timber. Robinson also oversaw an expansion of Pat Walker Health Center and led strategic planning for the university's 71,000 square foot Student Success Center.

An accomplished historian, Robinson's research and teaching focus on southern history. He has earned many awards for his teaching, including the Fulbright College Master Teacher Award, Arkansas Student Alumni Board Teacher of the Year, and induction into the university's Teaching Academy.

Robinson holds a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Houston, a master's degree in history from Rice University and a doctorate in history from the University of Houston.

Known as an engaged and approachable leader on campus, Robinson is also heavily involved with multiple regional, state and national organizations including recent or current roles on the Arkansas Research Alliance Board of Directors, AETN Foundation Board, Northwest Arkansas Council Advisory Committee, ARVEST Bank Board of Directors, National Merit Scholarship Corporation Board of Directors, Center for First-Generation Student Success Advisory Board and the Association of Public & Land-Grant Universities Council of Presidents.

The Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas serves as the institution's governing body. The board is comprised of 10 trustees representing each of the state's four congressional districts, and two at-large appointees. The president is the chief executive officer of the University of Arkansas System and reports to the Board of Trustees. Each campus has a chancellor as its chief executive officer, reporting directly to the president.

DR. PAUL ADAMS FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Dr. Paul Adams, professor of biochemistry in the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry and faculty member in the U of A's interdisciplinary cellular and molecular biology program, earned a B.S. in biochemistry from Louisiana State University and a Ph.D. in biophysical chemistry from Case Western Reserve University.

Adams' research and scholarly activities have garnered federal funding from the National Institutes of Health, the National Science Foundation, as well as from state agencies such as the Arkansas Biosciences Institute, the Arkansas Science and Technology Authority and the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Foundation at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences.

He has directed the research projects of over 70 honors, undergraduate, graduate and postdoctoral students in his laboratory at the university and has mentored many other students since arriving to the U of A.

Honors and awards Adams has recently received include: the William and Wilma Haines Distinguished Lecturer in Biochemistry, Wabash College, Crawfordsville, IN (2017); the Distinguished Faculty Award from The Honors College (2017); Top 10 Most Outstanding Faculty Member, U of A Student Government and Student Alumni Associations (2018); Faculty Researcher National Role Model, National Minority Access Inc. (2019); Lifetime Achievement Award, Northwest Arkansas Martin Luther King Jr. Council (2020).

Adams' most recent accomplishment came in the form of an election to the Executive Board of Directors of the National Organization for the Professional Advancement of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers in the summer of 2020.

Since 2017, Adams has served as principal investigator of an NSF grant that funded the U of A's Honors College Path Program, which recruits talented high school students from underrepresented populations to help them thrive and succeed at the university.

In December 2019, Adams was selected as a member of the first cohort of the UARK Leaders Program, a program offered through the Office of the Provost, the Office of Human Resources and Walton College of Business Executive Education. This new leadership development program was launched to support the professional growth of influential and up-and coming university leaders while enhancing collaboration and innovation on campus.

VICE CHANCELLOR AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS HUNTER YURACHEK

Guided by the program's mission of building Champions and Razorbacks for Life, vice chancellor and director of athletics Hunter Yurachek has helped lead the University of Arkansas' Department of Athletics to unprecedented success on and off the field throughout his tenure on The Hill.

Since being introduced as the vice chancellor and director of athletics on Dec. 4, 2017, Yurachek has led efforts to make all 19 Arkansas sports successful and enhance the student-athlete experience for 465 student-athletes. Thanks to the efforts of Razorback student-athletes, coaches and administrators alongside the loyalty from Razorback Foundation members, season-ticket holders and fans, results are being recognized in competition and in the classroom.

Now in his ninth full year at the University of Arkansas, Yurachek has firmly positioned the Razorbacks as one of the nation's elite athletics programs having finished in the Top 20 of the Learfield Directors' Cup each of the last six years. His leadership has helped build one of the nation's best all-sports programs while attracting elite coaches, including Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Men's Basketball Coach John Calipari, to Fayetteville.

Arkansas has more than made its mark in the most competitive conference in the nation, winning 43 Southeastern Conference Championships over the past eight years, including 25 conference titles in the past five years alone. Both marks lead all SEC programs and the Razorbacks' 43 titles are more than six other league programs combined in that same timeframe.

The Razorbacks extended the school-record streak to six consecutive years in the Top 20 of the Learfield Directors' Cup in 2025-26 with a 14th place finish led by a pair of track and field national championships to push the department's total to 10 over the last eight years. In addition to the most recent Top 20 finish, Arkansas finished No. 11 in 2024-25, No. 18 in 2023-24, No. 13 in 2022-23, No. 7 in 2021-22 and No. 8 in 2020-21.

Arkansas added to the program's overall national championship total in 2025-26, adding national titles in men's indoor and outdoor track and field in Head Coach Doug Case's first national meets at the helm. Head Coach Courtney Deifel's softball program punched its first-ever ticket to the Women's College World Series in June after sweeping through the NCAA Fayetteville Regional and Super Regional. The GymBacks returned to the NCAA Championship for the second time during Jordyn Wieber's tenure. Maria Jose Marin led the Arkansas women's golf team to a third-place finish – the best in program history – at NCAA Championships after victory at the Augusta National Women's Amateur during the fall. Women's track and field secured podium finishes at NCAA outdoor championships (third) and NCAA indoor championships (fourth).

Coach Calipari once again led the Hogs back to the Sweet 16 after winning the SEC Tournament championship – the first for Arkansas since 2000. Three Razorbacks heard their name called in the first 35 picks of the NBA Draft in June with Darius Acuff Jr. selected seventh overall by Sacramento, Meleek Thomas 34th overall by Cleveland and Trevon Brazile 35th overall by Denver.

Along with the men's basketball's SEC Tournament title, men's track and field and soccer won SEC crowns to give the Razorbacks four during the 2025-26 year. Yurachek named Case the men's track and field head coach after Head Coach Chris Bucknam retired in December. Case responded by becoming the first coach since 1982 to win each of his first four conference and NCAA Championship meets. Colby Hale's soccer program continued to be a juggernaut in the league, winning the program's fifth trophy in seven seasons.

Yurachek named Ryan Silverfield the 35th head coach of the Razorbacks in December. Since naming Silverfield the Head Hog, the athletic department has embraced Coach Silverfield's 'All In' mantra with a renewed devotion to the football program with more resources for staff and operating costs.

The Razorbacks once again performed at a high level in the classroom with nearly half of the program's student-athletes earning SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition. A total of 113 athletes earned their degrees with an overall department GPA of 3.3, registering the department's 34th consecutive semester of at least a 3.0 GPA and 23rd straight semester with at least a 3.2 GPA. The football team recorded a program-best 3.274 GPA during Coach Silverfield's first semester on campus.

Six Arkansas teams made deep runs in the NCAA postseason during the 2024-25 year with men's basketball reaching the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in five years in Coach Calipari's first season. Powered by individual NCAA champion Maria Jose Marin, the women's golf program advanced to match play for the first time in program history. Baseball and softball hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional rounds with Dave Van Horn leading the baseball team back to the College World Series for the eighth time in his legendary tenure before finishing ranked No. 3 in the season's final poll. The soccer program once again hosted in the NCAA postseason, making a return trip to the Sweet 16 for the third time in four years. Gymnastics advanced to a NCAA Regional final before coming up just short of a return trip to NCAA Championships.

The Hogs claimed three SEC titles with the men's cross country team securing their fourth SEC crown in five years. The men's and women's track programs delivered SEC titles with the men claiming their fifth-consecutive outdoor trophy and the women winning the program's 13th straight SEC Indoor Track & Field championship.

An incredible nine Arkansas student-athletes were named the player of the year in their respective sports during the year, including baseball's Golden Spikes Award winner Wehiwa Aloy, softball's National Player of the Year Bri Ellis and women's track's National Indoor Track Athlete of the Year Isabella Whittaker.

Arkansas student-athletes are also excelling in the classroom. In 2024-25, Arkansas student-athletes recorded the highest GPA on record with a 3.32 and marked the department's 32nd consecutive semester with at least a 3.0 GPA. Of the 19 programs, 18 posted a 3.0 cumulative GPA or better. A total of 102 Razorback student-athletes earned their degrees with the program once again achieving a 100% Razorback Graduation Rate, which is based on student-athletes who complete their athletics eligibility and earn their degree.

The Razorbacks tallied two NCAA championships in 2023-24, recorded nine Top 10 national finishes and won five Southeastern Conference championships in the 2023-24 athletics season. Arkansas finished in the Top 10 at every men's and women's cross country and track and field NCAA championship contested in 2023-24 and recorded a program best Elite Eight finish in volleyball.

In February 2024, Yurachek was appointed to the prestigious College Football Playoff Committee, where he will serve for the next three seasons. He has also previously served as a member of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and the Football Competition Committee. Yurachek has also served on the SEC Executive Committee, which approves the annual operating budget and oversees all financial and fiscal affairs of the conference.

Yurachek was selected as a 2021-22 Football Bowl Subdivision Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year by his peers. He was also a finalist for the Sports Business Journal 2022 Athletics Director of the Year.

Yurachek's leadership is also making a difference within Arkansas, the SEC and throughout intercollegiate athletics. In 2020, Arkansas Governor Asa Hutchinson named Yurachek to the Governor's Economic Recovery Task Force, to help guide state reopening in the wake of COVID-19. Yurachek was honored as the Arkansas Press Association Headliner of the Year in 2021 and was named the inaugural Celebrate Arkansas Influencer of the Year in 2022.

In 2022-23, the Razorbacks recorded a third-consecutive Top 15 finish with a No. 13 finish. Arkansas finished first among programs with 19 or fewer sports. The Razorbacks captured two NCAA Championships (MITK, WITK), earned 13 Top 25 finishes and six Top 10 national finishes. Seventeen of 19 programs were ranked in the top 25, with eight breaking into the top 10. The Hogs won a bowl game for the second-straight year, advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament's Sweet Sixteen for the third-consecutive year and won the program's first match in the NCAA Volleyball Tournament in 18 years. Arkansas won five SEC Championships (baseball, men's indoor and outdoor track and field and women's indoor and outdoor track and field).

Academically, Razorback student-athletes combined for a 3.20 cumulative GPA and 166 student-athletes earned academic personal bests. A total of 72 Razorback student-athletes graduated and another 12 earned graduate certificates.

In the 2021-22 academic year, Arkansas recorded the most successful year in the program's history, finishing seventh in the Learfield Directors' Cup. The Razorbacks finished first among programs with 19 or fewer sports, second among SEC schools and earned only its second Top 10 Directors' Cup finish. Arkansas earned a total of nine Top 10 NCAA finishes and 12 Top 20 NCAA finishes. The Razorbacks won eight Southeastern Conference championships (men's and women's cross country, soccer, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field, softball regular season, softball tournament) and won a New Year's Day bowl game in football for the first time since 2000. In addition, the Razorbacks advanced to the College World Series, the Elite Eight in men's basketball and women's soccer, and the NCAA Golf Championships in both men's and women's golf.

In the classroom, Razorback student-athletes earned a then program-record 3.27 GPA and a total of 97 Razorback student-athletes earned their degrees and added their names to Senior Walk in the 2021-22 academic year.

In 2020-21, Razorback Athletics earned a then program-best eighth place finish in the 2020-21 Learfield Directors' Cup. Arkansas' previous best finish, prior to 2020-21, was 14th in the competition that tracks the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletics programs.

The Razorbacks won another NCAA title (Women's Indoor Track & Field), earned eight Top 10 NCAA finishes and a remarkable 10 Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championships, including SEC triple crown sweeps in both men's and women's cross country & track and field, a second-straight soccer regular season crown, the program's first softball regular season title and a baseball regular season and tournament championship. Arkansas' championship total led the league and doubled the next closest SEC program.

Meanwhile, Razorback student-athletes combined for a 3.25 GPA and 104 student-athletes graduated from the University of Arkansas. A multi-million-dollar renovation of the Randal Tyson Track Center was completed, while brand new facilities, including the $27 million J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center and the $15 million Frank O'Mara Track and Field High Performance Center were constructed.

Even in an abbreviated 2019-20 competition schedule, Razorback Athletics built an impressive resume, including winning its first NCAA championship in women's cross country and its first SEC title in soccer. In addition, the Razorbacks earned SEC championships in women's cross country and men's and women's indoor track and field. Razorback student-athletes followed suit in the classroom, earning a 3.24 cumulative GPA with 107 student-athletes adding their names to Senior Walk as University of Arkansas graduates.

Razorback Athletics was also at the forefront of several key initiatives in 2019-20. In October, Nolan Richardson Court was dedicated at Bud Walton Arena. The Eddie Sutton Men's Basketball Practice gymnasium was created at the Basketball Performance Center.

In 2018-19, Arkansas finished No. 23 in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup, including finishing first among programs with 19 or fewer teams. Arkansas captured two NCAA team championships (women's indoor and outdoor track & field), four SEC team championships (women's cross country, women's indoor and outdoor track & field, men's golf) and four SEC team runner-up finishes (soccer, men's cross country, men's indoor track & field and women's basketball).

In addition, the Razorback Baseball team won a share of the SEC Western Division title and advanced to its second straight College World Series. A total of 14 programs were nationally ranked during 2018-19, including five in the top 10. Arkansas had four NCAA individual and 22 SEC individual champions.

Razorback student-athletes continued to achieve at a high level in the classroom, posting a cumulative GPA of 3.24. The program graduated 98% of student-athletes who exhausted their athletic eligibility.

In 2018-19, Arkansas hosted its first NCAA Men's and Women's Golf Championships at Blessings Golf Club. In addition, Arkansas was home to the 2019 SEC Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field Championships as well as both an NCAA Baseball Regional and Super Regional at Baum-Walker Stadium.

Yurachek launched several initiatives to further engage Arkansas and Razorback fans around the world. In August 2018, as part of the One Razorback campaign, the inaugural One Hog Call event was held in Fayetteville, Little Rock and around the globe. Razorback fans from more than 16 countries and 40 states participated in a simultaneous Hog Call.

Yurachek's first full year in Fayetteville saw tremendous success. Arkansas tied a program record with a No. 16 finish in the 2017-18 Learfield Sports Directors Cup, and first in the nation among schools with 19 or fewer sports.

In 2017-18, Arkansas captured four SEC championships (men's and women's cross country, women's indoor track, women's golf), including the school's first SEC crown in women's golf. The Razorbacks earned three Top 5 national finishes including national championship runner-up finishes at the 2018 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2018 College World Series. Four Arkansas student-athletes earned individual national championships.

In the 2018 spring semester, Razorback student-athletes earned a record-tying 3.25 GPA and 282 student-athletes secured a spot on the department honor roll. Nearly 125 Razorback student-athletes added their name to Senior Walk as graduates of the University of Arkansas.

Yurachek came to Arkansas from the University of Houston where he served as the vice president for athletics. Prior to Houston, Yurachek served as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University, where Coastal won 29 Big South Conference championships. Yurachek was named Under Armor FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014. He has also worked at the University of Akron, the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

In Yurachek's first two years at Houston, the Cougars' sport programs eclipsed 225 points in the Learfield Directors' Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in department history, securing Top 3 finishes in The American Athletic Conference both years. Houston's programs combined for a league-leading five American Conference team championships and 22 American Conference individual titles.

The success was not limited to the field of play, however, as UH student-athletes placed 96 and 109 student-athletes on the Dean's List in the fall and spring semesters, respectively. Houston student-athletes combined for the highest spring GPA (2.95), highest cumulative GPA following a spring semester (2.93) and the highest average hours passed in a spring semester (14.1) in department history.

The 2016-17 year also saw the continuation of an aggressive facilities plan as construction began on the $60 million renovation of the Fertitta Center, the football indoor practice facility and a baseball player development center and clubhouse with more than $85 million of projects all privately funded.

In his first year in the role, Houston recorded its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 1999-2000 and its second-highest finish in school history with 296.5 points to finish 73rd nationally. The 2015-16 academic year saw the Houston Football program capture The American Athletic Conference Championship and a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Florida State, the Houston Men's Track & Field program win The American Indoor and Outdoor Championships and the Houston Women's Golf program claim an American Championship in only its second year with a full team. In addition, the Men's Basketball program returned to the NCAA postseason for the 29th time in program history and the Men's Golf program advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third straight year.

All of the athletic achievements occurred while UH student-athletes recorded the second-best fall GPA, 2.91, and second-best spring GPA, 2.87, in athletic department history while placing a record 88 student-athletes on the University's Dean's Honor List in the spring.

Yurachek led the Houston Athletics fundraising charge with a record amount $5.2 million in private donations to the Athletics general scholarship fund in the 2014-15 fiscal year. Focused on improving the student-athlete experience, Yurachek also led a department that unveiled the completed Guy V. Lewis Development Center for the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs, Carolyn and Ron Yokubaitis Field at Carl Lewis International Track & Field Complex, one of the nation's largest collegiate baseball video boards, a renovated Houston Football locker room and a short game facility for the Houston Men's and Women's Golf programs.

Named by Chancellor Dr. Renu Khator as Chair for a campus-wide steering committee established to oversee the grand opening events for the $128 million TDECU Stadium, Yurachek assisted in the cultivation, solicitation and securing of a 10-year, $15 million-naming rights agreement for TDECU Stadium with the per year value ranking in the top ten nationally for collegiate venue naming rights agreements.

Yurachek was instrumental in the national search and hiring of football and men and women's basketball head coaches (Tom Herman, Kelvin Sampson, Ronald Hughey) while overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 remodeling project to the men and women's basketball locker rooms.

He served as liaison with an architectural design firm on the plans for the $25-million Guy V. Lewis Development Center as well as overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 facility enhancement to the Athletics/Alumni Center, including the addition of Cougar Cafe, a student-athlete nutrition center.

Yurachek came to Houston after serving four years as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University where he oversaw a department featuring 18 men's and women's NCAA Division I sport programs. A testament of his vision, Yurachek was named the 2014 Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in May of 2014.

Under Yurachek's leadership, the Chanticleers won a total of 29 Big South Championships (both regular season and tournament championships), made 30 NCAA appearances and finished a program-best 79th in the 2012-13 Learfield Director's Cup.

During Yurachek's time of leadership, Coastal hosted an NCAA Baseball Regional; NCAA Baseball Super Regional; NCAA Division I Football championship contests in 2010 and '13; and NCAA Men's Soccer Championship matches in 2011, '12 and '13, as well as winning a competitive bid to host the VisitMyrtleBeach.com Men's and Women's Big South Basketball Championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015, sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce.

Coastal Carolina student-athletes posted a 3.028 grade point average (GPA) for the fall 2013 semester and saw its overall GPA rise from 3.053 to 3.108. Of the 434 student-athletes, 253 - or 58.3 percent - posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, including 28 who earned President's List (4.0 GPA for the semester) and an additional 117 who earned Dean's List recognition.

In addition, during Yurachek's tenure Coastal Carolina student-athletes earned:

- 363 All-Big South honors
- 31 All-Big South Player of the Year honors along with 13 Big South Freshman of the Year honors
- 28 All-America honors
- 11 Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in their respective sports
- 5 Academic All-America honors
- 4 national postgraduate scholarships
- 3 Big South Conference Christenberry Awards for Academic Excellence

With all the success, the Coastal Carolina department operated within a balanced budget during Yurachek's tenure, thanks to his zero-budget initiative and the unprecedented revenues generated since his arrival with his restructuring of the external relations department. In his first year, the department revenue was at $560,000, including $316,000 in ticket sales and sponsorships at $250,000. After the 2012-13 year, revenue came in at $1.4 million, thanks to $549,000 in ticket sales and $600,000 in sponsorships.

Since 2010, the Department of Athletics added women's lacrosse; launched Champions for Life, a life skills enhancement program for student-athletes; signed a five-year $1.1 million contract with an athletic apparel provider; established the Letterwinners Association; successfully completed NCAA Cycle 3 Recertification; and has been featured on the front page of the sports section of USA Today with the headline reading "Coastal Carolina Piles up Sports Success."

Also, during Yurachek's tenure, several major projects that supported intercollegiate athletics totaling more than $250 million were included in the University's ongoing capital improvements across the campus.

Prior to his appointment at Coastal Carolina University, Yurachek was executive senior associate athletics director at the University of Akron. He led and managed the Zips' external relations unit, which included marketing and promotions, media relations, ticket operations, development (Z-Fund), video operations and merchandising. In addition, he was the sport administrator for men's basketball, men's golf and women's golf and worked closely with the football program.

Yurachek has also held various athletics administration leadership positions at the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management at Guilford College in 1990, where he was a four-year letter winner in basketball. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Richmond in 1994.

Born in Richmond, Va., and raised in Charlotte, N.C., Yurachek, and his wife Jennifer have three sons: Ryan, Jake and Brooks. Ryan, a former Marshall University football student-athlete, is the tight ends coach at Appalachian State. He and his wife Morgan reside in Boone, N.C. with their son Trace. Jake is a University of Arkansas graduate and former Razorback football student-athlete and is the co-founder of Banner Sports Group. Brooks is a redshirt junior linebacker at Appalachian State.

My Path to Senior Walk (and Beyond)

› With more than 30,000 students on our campus and over 230,000 graduates, everyone has a story to tell, and everyone has a different path to earning their name on Senior Walk.

"I am a fourth-generation Razorback, so the U of A has always felt like home to me."

Allison Primm
Rogers, AR

Allison Primm, a 2023 University of Arkansas graduate and fourth generation Razorback, is helping shape one of the nation's most recognizable breakfast foods as an associate manager at Tyson Foods. Working with cross-functional teams, she oversees the planning, production, distribution, and marketing of Wright Brand and Jimmy Dean bacon, ensuring quality and consistency for millions of pounds of product served in schools, hospitals, and restaurants. Primm credits the Sam M. Walton College of Business and the connections she built at the U of A for preparing her career. Today, she says her work supports Tyson's mission of feeding people around the world.

"I always imagined myself attending the U of A and being a Razorback!"

Elijah Conley
Melbourne, AR

A first-generation college graduate, Elijah Conley turned his dream of becoming a lawyer into reality through opportunities at the University of Arkansas. A journalism and political science graduate, he credits the Honors College Path Program with helping him secure internships, leadership roles, and mentorship that led to graduating magna cum laude a year early and earning admission to Georgetown University Law Center. After graduating in 2024, passing the bar and completing a federal judicial clerkship, Conley joined a national law firm in Washington D.C. He continues to mentor U of A students, encouraging them to create opportunities for those who follow.

"The U of A gave me the chance to stay in-state while still feeling like I was stepping into something new."

Dalaiah Johnson
Little Rock, AR

Dalaiah Johnson, a public health senior from North Little Rock, found a sense of community and purpose at the University of Arkansas through campus involvement and service. Active with the Volunteer Action Center and Dream B.I.G., she says those experiences strengthened her commitment to serving others while preparing her for a career in health care. After graduation, Johnson plans to apply to dental hygiene programs and gain experience in the dental field before working in an underserved Arkansas community. She credits her public health education with inspiring her passion for improving access to preventive care and oral health education.

If you or someone you know has a story to share about everyday student successes at the U of A, please nominate them for a #MyPathToSeniorWalk spotlight to be shared on uark.edu and social media.
