MATCH NOTES: The Razorbacks headed to Stillwater, Okla., for the weekend and faced Dartmouth on Friday. Despite losing the doubles point, the No. 1 pair of Nott/den Toom managed to defeat Dartmouth's #36 ranked pair in a closely contested match. Arkansas lost the first two singles points, falling behind 3-0, before senior Fess and freshman Marino rallied back to win the next two and bring Arkansas within 3-2. The next two matches wrapped up in close timing and, despite Lee winning a back-and-forth match, the Razorbacks still fell to Dartmouth 4-3.

ARKANSAS RECORD: 3-2 0-0 SEC • 2-0 Home 0-1 Away 1-1 Neutral
MATCH NOTES: On their second day in Stillwater, Okla., the Razorbacks brought home a tough-fought victory. Again losing the doubles point, Arkansas started down 1-0 but climbed their way back to a 4-3 victory. Sophomore Munoz and senior Fess recorded the first two singles points, giving the Razorbacks their first lead of the weekend. After dropping the next two matches, ETSU's Pabon earned his third penalty point of the afternoon on court 6 which gave freshman Marino the set and eventually the game. With the score tied, Parlic calmly came back from a 2-6 defeat to win back-to-back sets and give the Razorbacks the match point, securing a victory.
