RAZORBACK NOTES

CLOSING HOMESTAND ON HIGH NOTE - Arkansas finishes its 11-game homestand Wednesday when it hosts New Orleans for a single midweek game at Baum Stadium. The homestand has been the longest of the year for Arkansas and it has done everything you would expect from a team playing at home. Over the last 10 games, Arkansas has hit .289 as a team with 15 home runs and the pitchers have a 1.90 ERA with 112 strikeouts. The Razorbacks have gone 9-1 so far during the homestand and have scored five or more runs in six of the 10 games.

HOMERIN' HOGS - The Razorbacks have been hitting home runs at an unreal pace this year. Currently lead the SEC with 30 home runs this year, the Hogs have nine more home runs than Mississippi State and South Carolina, which are second in the league in long balls. The 30 homers is also the eighth-most in the country, trailing first-place Virginia Tech and Wake Forest by just seven. Arkansas is the only team with multiple players with five or more home runs this year. No

SEC team has more than one player with five or more home runs. Catcher Grant Koch is second in the SEC with six home runs, while infielder Carson Shaddy and outfielder Dominic Fletcher each have five long balls. Fletcher's home run total is the most for a Razorback freshman since Zack Cox corked 13 during the 2009 season, setting the Arkansas freshman record.

CHADWICK TAKES ON CLOSER ROLE - Prior to the SEC opening weekend, head coach Dave Van Horn said senior Cannon Chadwick earned the right to be Arkansas' closer. Chadwick didn't disappoint in his first SEC test, recording back-to-back saves in the first two games of the series, his first two saves of the year. Chadwick struck out two of the three batters he faced in game one to preserve a two-run lead. Then, in game two, he earned the three-inning save, striking out five of the final seven batters he faced. Chadwick currently has a 24:1 strikeout-to-walk ratio, second to Blaine Knight (34:1).

After finishing his 14th season at the helm of the Arkansas baseball program in 2015-16, head coach Dave Van Horn continues to elevate the Razorbacks to one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his 14 seasons as head Hog, Van Horn has led Arkansas to four College World Series appearances, 13 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, three SEC Western Division championships and a total of 550 wins.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 27-year coaching resume, beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made six College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 17 appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to an SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, 14 NCAA Tournament berths and four College World Series appearances. His players have earned 17 All-America honors, 24 All-SEC nods, 104 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 11 Capital One Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

With Van Horn's success over the years, fans have also flocked to Baum Stadium and last year was no different. In 2016, Arkansas finished fourth in the nation in average attendance (7,815) and fifth in total attendance (265,718). It's the fourth straight year that Arkansas has finished in the top-five nationally in attendance, while boasting one of the best stadiums in college baseball.
