RAZORBACK NOTES

FEELS GOOD TO BE BACK - Arkansas kicks off an 11-game homestand Tuesday against ULM. The Hogs will play two against the Warhawks in the midweek and three this weekend against Rhode Island. The Hogs are a perfect 6-0 at home this year with series sweeps over Miami (Ohio) and Bryant. The Razorbacks are one of six teams in the SEC still undefeated at home this year, but are one of three to have played six or more games at home and still be undefeated.

HOGS SCORE MAJOR COMEBACK - Arkansas had what is believed to be the biggest comeback in the Dave Van Horn era Wednesday at Louisiana Tech. Down 10-1 after two innings, the Hogs chipped away at the lead, hitting five home runs and scoring 13 unanswered runs to give the Bulldogs their first loss of the season. The five long balls was the most in a single game since 2010, when the Hogs launched nine against Grambling State in the NCAA Fayetteville Regional. Freshman Jordan McFarland hit the go-ahead two-run home run in the seventh inning, while sophomore Barrett Loseke shutdown the La. Tech offense on the mound, throwing four scoreless innings and striking out a career-high seven batters.

SHADDY TAKES HOME TOURNAMENT MVP - Redshirt junior Carson Shaddy had a week to remember. Over the five games last week, the Fayetteville native hit .438 with four of his seven hits going for doubles. He also had one home run coming against Louisiana Tech to give him two for the year. Being a tough out against some of the best pitching at the Frisco Classic, Shaddy hit a staggering .556 with six RBIs, including a career-high three doubles against Nebraska. His weekend performance outshined the rest to earn him Frisco Classic Most Outstanding Player honors.

LOSEKE AND ALBERIUS SHINE AT LOUISIANA TECH - Lost in the major offensive outburt in Wednesday's comeback at Louisiana Tech, redshirt senior Josh Alberius and sophomore Barrett Loseke shined on the mound over the two-game stretch. Starting his first collegiate game on Tuesday, Alberius pitched a career-high 5.1 innings and struck out a career-high seven batters. Alberius was near untouchable into the sixth inning, but was saddled with the loss after an error allowed two unearned runs home. As for Loseke, the Tulsa, Oklahoma native stifled the La. Tech bats for 4.0 innings, striking out seven batters, also a career-high. So far this season, there have been seven outings by Hog pitchers where they have tallied five or more strikeouts.

KNIGHT GOES TOE-TO-TOE AGAINST ARIZONA - Even though he was saddled with the loss Friday against No. 5 Arizona at the Frisco Classic, sophomore pitcher Blaine Knight threw, arguably, the best game of his young career. The Bryant, Arkansas native matched the Wildcats number one pitcher, lefty J.C. Cloney pitch for pitch through six innings and totaled a career-high 10 strikeouts. Knight set down 11 of the first 12 batters he faced and had his 10 strikeouts by the fifth inning. The 10 strikeouts is the most by a Hog pitcher since Dominic Taccolini's 10-inning masterpiece against Kentucky last season. In his three starts this year, Knight has had at least four strikeouts or more and has only walked one batter in 15 innings. The walk total makes him one of five pitchers in the SEC with one walk or less this year.

KOCH LEADING THE WAY - After a brief slow start to the year, catcher Grant Koch has become the hottest hitter for the Razorbacks through 11 games. Last week against Louisiana Tech and the Frisco Classic field, Koch went 6-for-20 (.300) and hit his third and fourth home run of the year along with three doubles and slugged .750. Koch's bat wasn't silent during the nine-run comeback at Louisiana Tech on Wednesday, as he went 3-for-5 at the plate including a three-run home run. Against Nebraska, Koch hit a grand slam, part of a 2-for-3 day. Currently hitting a team-leading .362, the Fayetteville native is having the best 11-game start, offensively, by a Razorback catcher in 13 years. Brady Toops began the 2004 season hitting .321 with eight RBIs, three doubles, and five walks, but Koch has topped him with 16 RBIs and four home runs, which both lead the team. His 16 RBIs is also the most by a catcher in the SEC this year.

HOME RUNS GALORE - After beating Nebraska at the Frisco Classic and splitting the midweek series at Louisiana Tech, the Hogs moved to 8-3 on the year and have done so by scoring in bunches. In six of its last nine games, Arkansas scored 10 or more runs. Through 11 games this year, the Razorbacks have touched the plate 97 times, third-most in the SEC and 21st in the nation. Much of how Arkansas seems to be getting their runs is by the home run ball. 15 home runs have been hit by Arkansas this season, good for tops in the league and 15th in the nation. Grant Koch leads all Hogs with four home runs, followed by Carson Shaddy, Jake Arledge, and Dominic Fletcher, who each have two. At least one home run has been hit in eight of Arkansas' 11 games this year.

STEPHAN CONTINUES STRONG START - Junior pitcher Trevor Stephan has only been a pitcher for two seasons, but he looks like a seasoned veteran on the mound after his first three starts this season. Stephan has been the Saturday starter for all three weekends this year and he has yet to give up more than three hits or two runs each time. Stephan currently leads all Hog pitchers with a 1.15 ERA and a perfect 3.0 record. Last week against Nebraska, Stephan battled through a tough first two innings to go a season-high six innings, giving up one earned run, and striking out eight batters, also a season-high. The run support has been healthy for Stephan as well. In his three starts, the Razorbacks have scored 33 runs, 11.0 per game, which is the highest among all starters on the staff. Stephan's ERA is the ninth lowest among all SEC pitchers and he is one of four with three wins already this year.

After finishing his 14th season at the helm of the Arkansas baseball program in 2015-16, head coach Dave Van Horn continues to elevate the Razorbacks to one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his 14 seasons as head Hog, Van Horn has led Arkansas to four College World Series appearances, 13 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, three SEC Western Division championships and a total of 550 wins.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 27-year coaching resume, beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made six College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 17 appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to an SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, 14 NCAA Tournament berths and four College World Series appearances. His players have earned 17 All-America honors, 24 All-SEC nods, 104 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 11 Capital One Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

With Van Horn's success over the years, fans have also flocked to Baum Stadium and last year was no different. In 2016, Arkansas finished fourth in the nation in average attendance (7,815) and fifth in total attendance (265,718). It's the fourth straight year that Arkansas has finished in the top-five nationally in attendance, while boasting one of the best stadiums in college baseball.
