SMITH TRAINING FACILITY

The Razorbacks took a giant leap forward in the spring of 2004 with the dedication of the Fred W. and Mary B. Smith Razorback Golf Training Facility at Blessings in Johnson, Ark.

Located on the practice tee of Blessings, the facility is home to six indoor-outdoor practice bays, an indoor video swing analysis station, office space and men's and women's locker room facilities for the Arkansas golf teams.

The long-time CEO of the Donrey Media Group, Fred Smith, is the chairman of the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation.

"We are excited to be a part of this facility that will help the Razorback golf programs continue to compete at the highest national level," Smith said. "Many members of our family play golf, so we have an appreciation for the commitment and many hours of practice that are required to succeed. We have a great love for the University of Arkansas and have always been proud to support the Razorbacks."

Arkansas head coach Shauna Estes-Taylor echoed those thoughts.

"I believe we have one of the best golf facilities in the country," said Estes-Taylor. "I can't thank Mr. Tyson enough for allowing us to call the Blessings our home. There is not a golf shot that we can not practice at our facility and it helps prepare us for championship golf. The Fred and Mary Smith Golf Center is another amazing facility that houses our offices, locker rooms, video bays, putting studio, and a lounge for our teams to call home. Many thanks as well to Fred and Mary Smith for their generous support for our golf center. I feel so lucky to have such a great place to show off to recruits. There is this "wow" factor that exists when people see our place for the first time. We are very lucky!"

Although the facility and golf course are just a couple years old, a recent expansion was added. The addition included more driving range tee space that allows the team to practice from many different angles, a new wedge tee, and a state-of-the-art video putting lab. Several finishing touches were also added to the interior including the completion of a trophy case housing a replica of John Daly's British Open trophy and Stacy Lewis' NCAA Tournament trophy.

SMITH TRAINING FACILITY

The Fred W. and Mary B. Smith Razorback Golf Training Facility is equipped with a putting studio. The system that was installed for use by both the women's and men's teams is the SAM PuttLab.

The SAM PuttLab is the most comprehensive putt training tool ever developed. The software and computer system is customized to exactly fit the needs of each individual player. It is used by the top players on the PGA and LPGA tours.

The training system gives you feedback on all of the following parts of your putting stroke: face angle, swing path, impact position, dynamic loft and rise angle, club face rotation, movement dynamics, rhythm and timing.

STACY LEWIS GIVES BACK

Former University of Arkansas and current Ladies Professional Golf Association star Stacy Lewis became the first female member of the Razorback Foundation's Century Circle, with her gift to the golf program.

Lewis, a The Woodlands, Texas, native, is the first former female student-athlete to donate $100,000 or more to the program. Her gift is earmarked for expansion of the Razorback golf training facilities at Blessings.

"We are grateful to Stacy Lewis for her generous gift which will directly benefit current and future Razorback student-athletes," Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long said. "Despite her demanding schedule, Stacy continues to support the Razorbacks in a variety of ways including remaining active with our women's golf program. Stacy's personal story of overcoming adversity to achieve success continues to serve as an inspiration to others. We are extremely proud of Stacy and what she is doing on the LPGA Tour and in our community. She is a tremendous ambassador for the University of Arkansas and for the Razorback program."

Lewis is a three-time winner on the LPGA Tour including two victories this season and a major championship at the Kraft Nabisco last year. Lewis is currently ranked No. 2 in the world and is the highest ranked American player.

"I was fortunate enough to get to know Stacy at a time when golf took a back seat to her getting healthy after surgery," said Arkansas head coach Shauna Estes-Taylor. "It was during this time I really began to understand her commitment to her dream of becoming a professional athlete. As I worked with her that first year when she was so limited physically, I saw that Stacy was invested in not only her own success but the success and growth of our program."

She had a great student-athlete experience at Arkansas and now her gift will enhance the experience of others who have the dream of being Razorbacks."

"We are so proud of all that Stacy has accomplished," said G. David Gearhart, the university's former chancellor. "This generous gift reflects her own pride in her alma mater and her commitment to helping other U of A students pursue their dreams and goals. We are most appreciative of her gift."

Lewis was a member of the Razorback women's golf team from 2005-08. She redshirted her first season on campus after having surgery to address her scoliosis. Lewis recovered quickly earning four All-Southeastern Conference and National Golf Coaches Association All-America honors. Lewis was a two-time SEC Championship medalist and won the 2007 NCAA Individual title shooting a course record 66 in the final round at LPGA International.

While at Arkansas, Lewis helped the Razorbacks to four NCAA Regional selections and three NCAA Championship team appearances. Arkansas won three tournaments and Lewis picked up a school record 13 individual titles during her collegiate career.

Lewis graduated in 2008 with a degree in finance from Arkansas. She won Qualifying School in the fall of 2008 earning her LPGA Tour Card in her first year as a pro.

The Razorback Foundation's Century Circle has more than 50 members who have contributed to fund various programs on campus.

BLESSINGS EXPANSION

The expansion of the Razorbacks Training facility, the Fred and Mary Smith Center, includes an indoor putting facility with surface that allows the Razorbacks to hone our short game skills in all areas. The space also includes expanded locker rooms, as well as a weight room that will allow each team to do golf specific training on site at the golf course.

BLESSINGS

Blessings Golf Club is an exciting 18 hole championship course located in Fayetteville, Ark.. From the back tees it plays 7,527 yards with a par of 72. The course was designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr., ASGCA and opened in 2004. The course contact is Tom Jones, General Manager/Director of Golf, and Stan Wright, Head Professional.

The Razorback Golf team moved into their home course at Blessings during the summer of 2004. The course is both challenging to players and was a challenge to create. Robert Trent Jones II and owner John Tyson (Chairman of Tyson Foods) had a number of goals in mind when designing Blessings.

A very hands-on client, Tyson wanted a flexible golf course where every shot required careful thought and precise execution. He also wanted a course sufficiently demanding to host major collegiate tournaments. To meet the dual goals of toughness and flexibility, RTJ II created a unique golf course with three adjustable holes-eight, nine and sixteen-which can be configured to play to different pars, depending on course setup.

Another challenge in designing Blessings was to route the golf course so that the clubhouse could be located outside of the floodplain of Clear Creek, the major topographical and strategic feature of the site. After considering a number of possibilities, a continuous eighteen-hole routing was recommended rather than a pair of returning nines.

A third challenge arose as the architect designed the short, par-three tenth hole, which plays to a green located on an exposed platform at the edge of a vertical rock quarry. The green site was shaded by a grove of hardwoods that designers wished to save, but needed to thin out to provide sunlight to the green. To solve this dilemma, they generated computer models that showed sunlight angles to the green at various times of day and season, and figured out how to save the greatest number of trees while allowing for enough light to grow grass on the green. This is a good example of how RTJ II delivers environmentally sensitive solutions to golf course design challenges-something we've been doing for more than 30 years.

Blessings stretches to nearly 7,500 yards from the back tees and plays through two distinct landforms-the Clear Creek floodplain and a plateau that rises to 65 feet above the floodplain where it's bisected by a series of ravines. Both the outward and inward nines climb up and down between the two topographies, creating drama and variety on a course where golfers will surely feel both tested and blessed by the glory of their surroundings.

CLUBHOUSE

The Blessings Clubhouse is a luxury clubhouse designed by architect Marlon Blackwell. A stand-alone structure set at the base of the hill, with its footprint minimally contacting the land, the Blessings Clubhouse acts as a type of covered bridge. This bridging creates an entry portal that operates as a breezeway framing the eighteenth green, acts as a threshold to the golf course beyond, and is an event space for golf tournaments. Conceived as an animate form, the building receives the visitor beneath its cool and shaded underbelly, not unlike the clefts and caves found in the nearby hills. The Blessings Golf Clubhouse attempts to demonstrate that a conventional commercial building system can be transfigured into a contemporary design solution that recalls a traditional lineage, that of the traditions of the game of golf. For details visit Blessings Golf Clubhouse by Marlon Blackwell Architect.

PINNACLE COUNTRY CLUB

Women's professional golf is a fixture in the state of Arkansas, joining the Razorbacks at one of their home courses - Pinnacle Country Club in Rogers. Located in the northwest portion of The Natural State, Pinnacle Country Club hosts an international field of LPGA Tour professionals at the Walmart Northwest Arkansas Championship presented by P&G at Pinnacle Country Club. The week-long championship included a variety of community events, Pro-Am play and three days of LPGA competition.

The Razorbacks are currently the only Southeastern Conference team whose course is hosting an LPGA event this year and are one of just a handful of major college programs with an event on their home course.

In addition, the Razorbacks compete all season to qualify for two of the Monday play-in spots for the championship.

Founded in 1990, Pinnacle Country Club is one of Northwest Arkansas' premier golf and tennis facilities. The course, designed by Don Sechrest in association with Bruce Lietzke, stretches 6,695 yards from the back tees with a course rating of 72.8 and a slope of 131. The Razorbacks compete from Pinnacle's white tees with a length of 6,102 yards.

Located 20 minutes north of Fayetteville in Rogers, Ark., Pinnacle is known both for its course difficulty and homesite elegance.

Pinnacle is graced with generous landing areas, but its large, undulated greens require both precision and accuracy. Its par 3s are extremely challenging including Pinnacle's signature hole, No. 15. This hole requires a golfer's most accurate mid-iron as the 160-yard downhill shot must carry to an island green.

While young in its existence, Pinnacle has a history as host of prestigious events including the Greg Norman Challenge in 1990 and the Philips Classic in 1992, an event that included several senior PGA players.

The grand clubhouse provides a comfortable setting for casual entertaining as well as formal events. The elegant design and location of the clubhouse evoke the Southern hospitality that welcomes all members "home."

WALMART NWA CHAMPIONSHIP

Stacy Lewis wins in 2014.

Northwest Arkansas returned to the Ladies Professional Golf Association's schedule in 2007 hosting the Walmart Northwest Arkansas LPGA Championship at Pinnacle Country Club.

Arkansas has been home to several events beginning with the Hardscrabble Women's Invitational Oct. 17-21, 1950, in Fort Smith, Ark. The event was won by Patty Berg.

The Hardscrabble Open returned to Fort Smith in 1952 and was followed by the Arkansas Open at the Country Club of Hot Springs, in Hot Springs, Ark., in 1956.

The LPGA added the Walmart Northwest Arkansas Championship in 2007. The commitment allows the Arkansas women's golf team and the Northwest Arkansas community to enjoy the sport at its best.

The inaugural event in 2007 was spectacular for Arkansas fans. Then junior Stacy Lewis earned a sponsor's exemption to play in the event and she blistered the course shooting a 65 in the first round.

Eight inches of rain, however, washed away Lewis' "win" as the tournament was declared a "non-event". Lewis was awarded the trophy and invited back for the 2008 event.

Players competed for their country in a 72-hole individual stroke play competition. In the event of a tie for first, second or third place, a play-off or multiple playoffs shall be conducted to determine the gold, silver and bronze medal.

CURTIS CUP

CURTIS CUP RESULTS WITH RAZORBACK PLAYERS

The Curtis Cup is the best known team trophy for women amateur golfers, awarded in the biennial Curtis Cup Match (not "Matches"). It is co-organized by the United States Golf Association and the Ladies Golf Union and is contested by teams representing the United States and "Great Britain and Ireland". The same two teams originally contested the Ryder Cup, but unlike that competition, the Curtis Cup has not widened the Great Britain and Ireland team to include all Europeans (nor has the analogous event for amateur men, the Walker Cup). Many women who have gone on to become stars of women's professional golf have played in the Curtis Cup.

SOLHEIM CUP

SOLHEIM CUP RESULTS WITH RAZORBACK PLAYERS

The Solheim Cup is a biennial golf tournament for professional women golfers contested by teams representing Europe and the United States. It is named for the Norwegian-American golf club manufacturer Karsten Solheim, who was a driving force behind its creation.

The inaugural Cup was held in 1990, and the event was staged in even number years until 2002, alternating years with the Ryder Cup (the equivalent men's event between the USA and Europe). As part of the general reshuffling of team golf events consequent to the one-year postponement of the 2001 Ryder Cup due to 9/11, the Solheim Cup switched to odd numbered years from 2003.

The US team is selected by a points system, with American players on the LPGA Tour receiving points for each top-twenty finish on tour.[1] For the European team, up to 2005, only seven players were selected on a points system based on results on the Ladies European Tour (LET). This allows top European players who compete mainly on the LPGA Tour to be selected to ensure that the European team is competitive. From 2007, only the top five players from the LET will qualify and another four will be selected on the basis of the Women's World Golf Rankings. This reflects the increasing dominance of the LPGA Tour, where almost all top European players spend most of their time.[2] In addition, each team has a number of "captain's picks", players chosen at the discretion of the team captains, regardless of their point standings, though in practice the captain's picks are often the next ranking players.

U.S. WOMEN'S OPEN

The United States Women's Open Golf Championship, one of thirteen national championships conducted by the United States Golf Association (USGA), is one of the LPGA's major championships along with the LPGA Championship, the Women's British Open, and the Kraft Nabisco Championship. It is the only event to have been recognized as a major by the LPGA since its founding in 1950; the other current majors were established later. The U.S. Women's Open is open to any professional or amateur female golfer. Amateurs must have an up-to-date USGA Handicap Index not exceeding 4.4. Players may obtain a place by being exempt or by competing successfully in qualifying. In 2002, a two stage method of qualification was introduced—18 holes for local qualifying and 36 holes for sectional qualifying. In 2010, the qualification process reverted to a single sectional stage of 36 holes played on a single day. The criteria for exemption from qualifying has changed through the years. In 2010, there were eleven exemption categories, including winners of the U.S. Women's Open for the last ten years, winners of the other three majors for the last five years, the top 50 from the previous year's LPGA Tour money list, the top five from the previous year's Japan LPGA Tour, Korea LPGA Tour, and Ladies European Tour money lists, and official winners of LPGA co-sponsored events for the 52 week period prior to the U.S. Women's Open.

LEWIS WINS ESPY

Stacy Lewis took home another trophy in 2013. Lewis, the No. 2 golfer in the world in the Rolex rankings, won the ESPY award as the top female golfer. Lewis won through a fan vote that ran on ESPN's web site. In 2012, Lewis won four events and had 16 top-ten tournament finishes, and has seven career wins and 47 top-ten finishes at that point in her career.

LEWIS WINS BRITISH OPEN

Winning her 2nd major at the Old Course at St. Andrews, the home of golf, by coming from behind with birdies on the last two holes - does it get any better than that?

Stacy Lewis won her third tournament of 2013 and, in the process, stopped Inbee Park's bid to win 4 majors in a row - the Grand Slam. After reaching the #1 ranking in March and holding it for 4 weeks, Stacy was passed by Park, who went on an unprecedented hot streak including 3 major wins in a row and overtaking Stacy for the #1 spot. But, by winning the Ricoh British Open, Stacy stopped another streak, by becoming the 1st non-Asian player to win a major since she won the Kraft Nabisco in 2011. The win also narrowed the gap between the top two players in the world and may be the beginning of another run to the #1 ranking.

Going into the Ricoh Women's British Open, Stacy was feeling pretty good about her chances. After all, she played her last amateur event at St. Andrews at the Curtis Cup, where she made history by achieving a 5-0 won/loss record and leading the US team to a commanding victory. She loved the course then and the Old Course loved her back on this major occasion. And her timing could not be more perfect as she will now lead the US team against the Europeans, this time at the biennial Solheim Cup, to be played in Colorado in two weeks in an effort to win back the Solheim Cup.

Whether it is winning a major for herself, or representing her country against the best golfers in the world, Stacy Lewis is proving time and again that she is the American face of golf and an inspiration for millions around the world.

CONGRATS, STACY!

- ▶ 2014 ROLEX PLAYER OF THE YEAR
- ▶ VARE TROPHY WINNER
- ▶ OFFICIAL MONEY TITLE

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) -- Stacy Lewis became the first American in 21 years to sweep the three biggest awards on the LPGA Tour, which she considered more valuable than a $1 million bonus.

The last American to sweep the awards was Betsy King in 1993.

"The $1 million would have been nice," said Lewis, who was six shots out of a playoff. "But those three, that's what I came here for. ... It's been hard to play the last four days, and it's nice to be done. I didn't have my best stuff. I'm pretty surprised to finish where I did."

Two years ago, the 29-year-old Lewis became the first American since Beth Daniel to win the points-based player of the year. She added the Vare Trophy a year ago. And on Sunday, she collected all three at the same time.

Inbee Park, the No. 1 in the world, was the only player who could have kept Lewis from the awards. She trailed in all of them, but struggled all week at Tiburon Golf Club and finished in a tie for 24th, four shots worse than Lewis.

Lewis finished atop the money list with $2,539,039, more than $300,000 over Park. Her scoring average was 69.532, while Park was second at 69.682. Michelle Wie was third in the Vare Trophy standings (69.818), followed by So Yeon Ryu at 69.978.

It was the first time in LPGA history that four women had a sub-70 scoring average.

Lewis felt as much stress during the week as at any major, mainly because Park was on a roll and Lewis was struggling. She received one good omen Saturday night when her family ordered Chinese food and her father tossed her a fortune cookie.

Lewis kept it in her pocket during the final day of the tournament and read it aloud to the media when she was done: "Good news of long-awaited event will arrive soon."

"The last couple of weeks have been tough," Lewis said. "The game hasn't been exactly where I wanted it to be. I figured (Park would) keep it rolling this week, and I knew I needed to find something. It was probably four of the hardest rounds of golf I've ever played."

Lewis won three times that year, though she failed to do so at a major. Still, she wouldn't trade what she ended up with.

"Before this week, it was good. Now it's a little bit better," Lewis said when asked to measure her year. "I'd like to have taken a major championship. But winning these three awards makes it almost great."

2016-17 REVIEW

The Razorback women's golf team at the Columbus Regional

There are many ways to define success but no matter how you define it, the University of Arkansas women's golf team will fit the definition to a tee.

On the course, in the classroom or in the community, the Razorbacks have enjoyed a successful year in 2016-17. Arkansas had a perfect 1,000 Academic Performance Rating (APR), finished eighth at the NCAA Regional and saw sophomore Cara Gorlei advance to the NCAA Championship.

TOURNAMENT RECAPS

ANNIKA Intercollegiate | 2nd/12 teams

University of Arkansas All-American Maria Fassi notched her second collegiate win finishing 11-under at the invitation-only ANNIKA Intercollegiate presented by 3M in Orlando, Florida. The Arkansas sophomore paced the 10th-ranked Razorbacks to a runner-up finish shooting 71-66-68-205 in the team's first event of the 2016-17 season. Fassi, who joined the team in January, also won her first tournament that season at the Lady Puerto Rico Classic. Arkansas had a record-setting day in the final shooting 18-under with all five players posting career low rounds. They continued to play well in the final round with two players in the top 10 as Fassi was joined by junior Alana Uriell who tied for eighth place. Fassi's final round was a balanced effort with three birdies and one bogey on each side. She led the field in par-3 scoring playing those holes 4-under and she carded 18 birdies to lead all players during the three-day event. Fassi's second round 66 was a career best along with her 205 total. Fassi's 205 ties the school record for lowest individual three-day round while Arkansas' second round 270 tops the previous team record. In addition, the Razorbacks' 18-under in the second round is a school record.

Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic 4th/12 teams

Victories by sophomore Cara Gorlei and junior Alana Uriell propelled the 16th-ranked University of Arkansas women's golf team to a match play win over Denver and third place at the 45th Annual Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic in Athens, Georgia. Arkansas, who went 1-1 on Saturday using a tie-breaker to defeat Auburn in the first match, also needed a tie-breaker to defeat Denver. Uriell won her match 3&2 after taking the lead on the ninth hole in the final match on Sunday. She finished all square against Auburn and won 1-up against Georgia capping off a good weekend of play. Gorlei was solid from start to finish in the 4&3 win on Sunday. She opened with a pair of birdies while her opponent bogeyed two holes allowing the Cape Town, South Africa, native to go up-4 in the first five holes. Sophomore Kaylee Benton trailed early, down by three holes. She took advantage of a bogey by her opponent on the 14th hole and picked up two birdies to finish all square in her match. Benton was a 3&2 winner yesterday and was also all square in her match against Georgia on Saturday. The tie-breaker to decide the team victory comes down to tie break points. Arkansas won matches 4&3 and 3&2 for seven points. Denver won two matches 1-up for two points. Benton's even finish helped secure the third-place finish for the Razorbacks. Senior Summar Roachell and sophomore Maria Fassi both fell in close matches.

University of Arkansas sophomore Cara Gorlei fired a 4-over 220 and finished tied for seventh to move on to the 2017 NCAA Women's Golf Championship next week. Gorlei helped Arkansas to its best round of the weekend with a 300 but the team fell two shots short of advancing at the NCAA Columbus Regional. Gorlei moves on as one of the top three individual players who are not on a team that advances. Gorlei was as steady as a player can be in her final round. She finished the day even with two birdies and two bogeys on Wednesday. The Cape Town, South Africa native carded rounds of 74-72-74-220 to move on. The challenging Scarlet Course saw the Razorbacks post some high numbers in the first round, digging a hole they could not overcome. Arkansas shot 309-301-300-910 finishing eighth in the field of 18. Gorlei is the second Razorback individual to advance out of regional play. Former Razorback Stacy Lewis moved on in 2007. Lewis went on to win the individual national title that season. The Razorbacks played well in the final round giving themselves a chance at moving on. Junior Alana Uriell finished with a 2-over 74 shooting (81-73-74) 228 for the week. Senior Summar Roachell concluded her collegiate career shooting 76 in the final round for (77-79-76) 232. 2017 SEC REVIEW

RAZORBACKS FOURTH AT SEC CHAMPIONSHIP

The 13th-ranked University of Arkansas women's golf team posted a 1-under 287 in the final round and finished fourth at the 2017 Southeastern Conference Championship in Hoover, Alabama.

No one could catch No. 8 Florida as the Gators (284-280-278) went 9-under on the day and 21-under for the tournament shooting an 842 to win their first league title since 2008. Hard-charging and top-ranked Alabama went 13-under on the day and moved up five spots into a tie for second with 295-285-275-855 with No. 6 Georgia (287-282-286). The Razorbacks (283-287-287) were fourth at 857 in the final standings.

Fifth-place featured a tie between No. 20 Texas A&M (282-290-288) and No. 11 South Carolina (286-290-284) at 860 rounding out the top spots in the tournament.

Junior Alana Uriell and sophomore Kaylee Benton tied for seventh overall shooting 212 at the Legacy Course at Greystone Golf and Country Club. Sophomore Cara Gorlei tied for 22nd with a 216 followed by senior Summar Roachell who was 24th with 217. Sophomore Maria Fassi rounded out the Razorback scoring shooting 231 to tie for 63rd overall.

Benton, in her first season with the Razorbacks, posted a final round 69. She was 1-under on the front nine and had five birdies on the back nine including three in a row on holes 15, 16 and 17, posting the best Razorback round of the day.

Since head coach Shauna Estes-Taylor took over the program in 2008, Arkansas has played to three runner-up finishes and eight top-4 finishes in 10 seasons. In addition, Estes-Taylor has coached the 2008 individual winner in Stacy Lewis and seven other top-5 individual finishes.

2017 NCAA REGIONAL

University of Arkansas sophomore Cara Gorlei fired a 4-over 220 and finished tied for seventh to move on to the 2017 NCAA Women's Golf Championship.

Gorlei helped Arkansas to its best round of the weekend with a 300 but the team fell two shots short of advancing at the NCAA Columbus Regional. Gorlei moves on as one of the top three individual players who are not on a team that advances.

Gorlei was as steady as a player can be in her final round. She finished the day even with two birdies and two bogeys on Wednesday. The Cape Town, South Africa native carded rounds of 74-72-74-220 to move on.

The challenging Scarlet Course saw the Razorbacks post some high numbers in the first round, digging a hole they could not overcome. Arkansas shot 309-301-300-910 finishing eighth in the field of 18.

Gorlei is the second Razorback individual to advance out of regional play. Former Razorback Stacy Lewis moved on in 2007. Lewis went on to win the individual national title that season.

The Razorbacks played well in the final round giving themselves a chance at moving on. Junior Alana Uriell finished with a 2-over 74 shooting (81-73-74) 228 for the week. Senior Summar Roachell concluded her collegiate career shooting 76 in the final round for (77-79-76) 232.

Sophomore Maria Fassi wrapped up with a 76 on Wednesday and newcomer Kaylee Benton added a 79 in the final round. Benton finished with a (77-77-79) 233 in her first Regional appearance as a Razorback while Fassi carded a (81-80-76) 237 for Arkansas.
