THE MATCHUP

Northeastern State has faced Arkansas twice in exhibition play heading into Thursday evening's opener. Under now retired NSU head coach Randy Gipson, the RiverHawks faced the Razorbacks in 2009 and 2014. In the 2009 edition, the RiverHawks kept the contest within single digits and fell 55-48.

BOOKENDS

Alexis Hill, Miranda Griffin, and Destiny Strange all saw action for the first time in their careers in 2014 when the RiverHawks last visited Bud Walton Arena. The three who are now seniors and will start their final season at Northeastern State against the Razorbacks. Hill had three assists and three rebounds in the 65-32 loss to Arkansas.

GO LONG

NSU junior Cailyn Long is a returning All-MIAA performer for the RiverHawks after battling from a late season injury to average 13.7 points in 24 games. She missed three contests last season and came back late to grab a career high 29 points in the final contest of the season. In two seasons, Long has 622 career points, and has sank 95 three-pointers.

NSU NEWCOMERS

The RiverHawks have six newcomers who will hit the floor this season with transfers Joi Bertrand (Cal State Dominguez Hills / Cypress College), Tree Brooks (Collin College), Bailee Eldred (Murray State), and Morgan Hellyer (Adelphi), joining freshman Cailey Cunningham (Fort Gibson HS), and Cenia Hayes (Sequoia HS).

HOMECOMING

Thursday's meeting with the Razorbacks will be the first time head coach Fala Bullock will step onto the floor as head coach for the RiverHawks.

With six years of head coaching experience, Bullock is 97-75 overall and within conference play she is 61-53. She has spent the last four seasons (2013-17) as head coach at NCAA Division II Armstrong State University, where she recorded a career mark of 60-52. In her first season at Armstrong State, she led the Pirates to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in program history, and reached the Sweet 16.

Bullock replaces Randy Gipson who retired at the conclusion of the 2016-17 season after leading the NSU women's basketball program for 18 years.

Bullock is no stranger to the NSU program, playing for Gipson for two seasons, and was a graduate assistant under Gipson from 2004 to 2006. As student-athlete, Bullock played in 57 games and NSU went 36-19, winning the 2003 Lone Star Conference Tournament, and made the program's first NCAA Tournament berth. As a member of Gipson's coaching staff, NSU reached the Sweet 16 in 2004, and qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2005 and 2006.

NEW ASSISTANT

Joining Head Coach Fala Bullock in year-one of her tenure at Northeastern State will be Heidi Messer who spent the 2016-17 season at the University of Montevallo as an assistant coach and three seasons at Manchester University (Ind.). While at Manchester, Messer served as the team's recruiting coordinator, academic advisor, and oversaw individual player development. In 2014, Messer was named Senior Women's Administrator while at Manchester.

Messer served as a graduate assistant for two seasons at Georgetown College (Ky.) from 2009-11 where she coached two All-Americans and four All-Conference players.

In 2008-09, Messer began her coaching career as an assistant for her alma mater, Grace College (Ind.) where she played for two seasons, and was ranked eighth in career assists and served as team captain as a senior.

Fala Bullock

Head Coach • 1st Season at Northeastern State

Fala Bullock was named head women's basketball coach on April 1, 2017 by Director of Athletics and Chief Athletics Officer Tony Duckworth.

With six years of head coaching experience, Bullock is 97-75 overall and within conference play she is 61-53. She has spent the last four seasons (2013-17) as head coach at NCAA Division II Armstrong State University, where she recorded a career mark of 60-52. In her first season at Armstrong State, she led the Pirates to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in program history, and reached the Sweet 16.

Bullock replaces Randy Gipson who retired at the conclusion of the 2016-17 season after leading the NSU women's basketball program for 18 years.

Coach Bullock is no stranger to the NSU program, playing for Gipson for two seasons, and was a graduate assistant under Gipson from 2004 to 2006. As student-athlete, Bullock played in 57 games and NSU went 36-19, winning the 2003 Lone Star Conference Tournament, and made the program's first NCAA Tournament berth. As a member of Gipson's coaching staff, NSU reached the Sweet 16 in 2004, and qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2005 and 2006.

At Armstrong State, Bullock has coached five all-conference players, one Peach Belt Conference Freshman of the Year, and was named PBC Co-Coach of the Year in 2014.

Bullock came to Armstrong State from Central Georgia Technical College in Macon, Ga., where she started the program in 2011 and directed the Cougars to an impressive 25-6 record in just their second season of competition in 2012-13, advancing to the GCAA Championships.

Bullock was the assistant coach as well as the Senior Woman's Administrator (SWA) at Columbus State for two years. The Cougars featured a WBCA first team All-American selection and compiled a 32-23 record in her two seasons with the program.

Bullock earned her bachelors of science degree in health and human performance from Northeastern State in 2004 as well as her masters of science degree in kinesiology from NSU in 2006.

Following her time at NSU she spent one season as an assistant coach at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College before moving on to NCAA Division II Midwestern State as an assistant coach from 2007-09.

The Irvine, California, native began her intercollegiate career at Irvine Valley College, transferring to Northeastern State as a junior.

Bullock and her husband, Dermayne, were married in June of 2011.
