FASTBREAK

- Austin Peay State University looks to close out the nonconference schedule with a bang when the Govs take on Arkansas in a 7 p.m., Dec. 28 contest at Bud Walton Arena.
- The Govs head into the contest riding as high as they have in many years—winners of six in a row, with the last victory—a 75-66 win against Liberty—helping the Govs claim the 2018 St. Pete Shootout title, Austin Peay's first in-season tournament crown since 2000.
- Austin Peay closed out the home nonconference schedule with a 95-68 thumping of Purdue Fort Wayne last weekend, the Govs first win in five tries against the Mastodons.
- The Govs secured back-to-back non-conference road wins for the first time since 2010 during the Alabama swing against Troy and Alabama A&M to close November and start December.
- The Governors overtime road win against Troy was their first non-conference overtime road victory since Dec. 9, 1982 against Tennessee State, prior to their ascent into the Ohio Valley Conference.
- Austin Peay survived a mid-November scare against Central Connecticut in Jamaica; despite missing 10 of their first 11 shots and being down to only eight scholarship players, the Govs were able to rally to hold on for an 80-78 win in the Montego Bay Convention Center.
- Dayton Gumm's 11-point, 10-assist performance against Oakland City in the season opener was the first points-assists double-double for a Gov since Derek Wright, Jan. 31, 2008, against Murray State.
- Name a preseason accolade and Arkansas' Daniel Gafford earned it: preseason All-SEC, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award Watch List, Naismith Trophy Watch List and the John R. Wood Award Watch List. He added a spot on the Lute Olson Award Watch List earlier this season as well.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

Arkansas head coach Mike Anderson still deploys the 'Fastest 40 minutes in basketball' philosophy to great success; his Razorbacks have won at least 20 games four times in the last five seasons, winning NCAA Tournament games in 2015 and 2017.

Where Liberty secured no steals or blocked shots against the Govs, that figures not to be the case against the Razorbacks; Arkansas blocks 6.3 shots per game as a team (fifth nationally); in addition to averaging nearly a double-double (17.6 ppg, 9.3 rpg) per game, sophomore Daniel Gafford's 26 blocked shots has him tied for third in the SEC; meanwhile, the Razorbacks also rank fourth in the SEC in steals (8.3/game), third in turnover margin (plus-3.2) and tied for second in turnovers forced (16.73/game).

Whoever draws the defensive assignment against Jalen Harris—likely senior Steve Harris—will have their hands full. Arkansas' Harris, a New Mexico transfer, ranks third nationally with a 5.62-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio and is among the nation's most capable floor generals, despite sitting out last season as part of the NCAA's transfer regulations; he went from 4.5 ppg and 2.3 apg as a freshman for the Lobos to 9.2 ppg and 6.6 apg for the Razorbacks.

DEEPER MEANINGS

WHAT A WIN WOULD MEAN: Would give the Govs an unbeaten December for the first time in recorded program history and their first unbeaten month since January 2007 (9-0)... would be Austin Peay's first win against an SEC foe since 2011... would be Austin Peay's first seven-game winning streak since an 11-game streak from Dec. 20, 2006-Feb. 1, 2007... would be Austin Peay's win in the nonconference finale (Westminster, Dec. 30) and nonconference road finale (Lipscomb, Dec. 20) since 2015-16.

WHAT A LOSS WOULD MEAN: Would snap Austin Peay's six-game winning streak... would be Austin Peay's third straight loss in the nonconference finale.

LAST TIME VERSUS ARKANSAS

John Murry scored a game-high 23 points, but that's where the positives start and end from Austin Peay's 99-62 loss to the Razorbacks, Dec. 3, 2016 in Fayetteville. Zach Glotta, Steve Harris and Chris Porter-Bunton—the only remaining Governors from the 2016-17 team—combined for just 25 minutes against the Razorbacks that night, with Porter-Bunton using the opportunity to secure his 100th career rebound.

YEAR TWO YOUTH

Even in his second season, head coach Matt Figger fields a squad still relatively unversed in Austin Peay; only seniors Zach Glotta, Steve Harris and Chris Porter-Buntton have more than one year experience at Austin Peay, making the Gobs one of the nation's least-experienced units together.

Scholarship Players with more than one year experience at current school

1. 0 - Chattanooga
2. 1 - North Carolina A&T

TWIN TOWERS

Not only are 7-footers Ivan Cucak and Matheus Silveira unique to Austin Peay (the duo are the first pair of 7-foot Governor teammates), they are an anomaly among Division I schools; Austin Peay is one of nine schools with multiple 7-footers on the 2018-19 roster, and faced one of those (USF) back on Nov. 12.

Division I schools with multiple 7-footers on the active roster

GOVERNORS GAME NOTES

REPEAT PERFORMANCES

Only five freshmen in the long history of Austin Peay basketball had managed to amass at least 450 points in their first season on the squad; the latest, Terry Taylor, did so just a year ago. 3.	Trenton Hassell	1999-00	452
4.	Terry Taylor	2018-19	213
5.	Sam Drummer	1976-77	0^

* - Hassell was an academic non-qualifier in 1997-98; the 1998-99 season was his first in uniform.

^ - Drummer only played one season at Austin Peay before transferring to Georgia Tech (h/t Bibb family archives.)

OFFENSIVE DEFENSE

Over the last five games, Austin Peay is shooting 52.8 percent (149-of-279) from the floor. That's Austin Peay's best five-game stretch since a 54.5 percent performance from Dec. 19, 2013 to Jan. 4, 2014. Much of that has been due to pressure defense, which has led to a plus-52 turnover margin over the last five games.

CHAMPS

Austin Peay's victory against Liberty at the St. Pete Shootout earned the Gobs their first in-season tournament title since the 2000 Alaska Shootout. The victory also put the Gobs at 5-0 to open December for the first time in recorded program history.

DUO EARNS ST. PETE HONORS

Terry Taylor and Steve Harris were named to the All-Tournament team at the St. Pete Shootout; Taylor was MVP of the event after a 32-point performance in the championship game, while Harris averaged 13.5 points on 70.6 percent (12-of-17) shooting to earn his own all-tourney slot.

NOTHING AT ALL

Liberty recorded no blocked shots and no steals against the Governors, becoming the first team since Tennessee State (Jan. 29, 2004) to post no blocks or steals against the Gobs.

TTIK

Last year, Terry Taylor became just the second freshman in program history to register 500-plus points in his first season (he finished with 530). A similar performance as a sophomore would make him just the sixth player in program history to need just two seasons to reach 1,000 career points, joining James Williams, Howard Wright, Kenny Geraldts, Lawrence Mitchell and Travis Betran. At his current career pace (16.0 ppg), he would pass that milestone during the Feb. 23 contest against UT Martin.

REPEAT PERFORMANCES x 2

Terry Taylor's 291 rebounds as a freshman eclipsed a 58-year old freshman record held by APSU Hall of Famer Bob Bradley by one board. Chart one below shows the freshman-year outputs for the top-five freshman board-grabbers in program history; Chart two will keep track all year long as Taylor climbs the lists alongside those who came before him.

ALL-DAY THEFT

Austin Peay picked up a program-record 23 steals against Calvary, with Zach Glotta (six) and Jarrett Givens (five) accounting for nearly half as both set career-highs in thefts. They became the first Austin Peay teammates since Zavion Williams and Ed Dyson (Bryan College, Nov. 5, 2014) to record five or more steals in the same game. As a group, the Govs are averaging 15 steals the last three games.

RECORD DAY

Austin Peay's systematic drubbing of Calvary saw the Govs break program records for margin of victory (83 points), steals in a single game (23), fewest points allowed in the Dunn Center era (33), fewest field goals allowed in the Dunn Center era (12) and turnovers forced (35).

STREAK SNAPPING / STARTING I

With the Govs win at Alabama A&M, Austin Peay earned back-to-back true non-conference road wins for the first time since Dec. 12-15, 2010 against Saint Louis and Chattanooga.

LATE ARRIVALS

Austin Peay's hosting of Purdue Fort Wayne on Dec. 15 marks the second-latest a Division I team hosted a DI opponent, ahead of only Nicholls, which will not host a Division I foe at home until Jan. 6 (Stephen F. Austin).

STREAK SNAPPING / STARTING II

Austin Peay's win at Troy snapped a 16-game losing streak in true road non-conference contests, dating back to Dec. 20, 2015 at Lipscomb. It also made the Govs 5-0 all-time against Troy and gave them six straight wins against Sun Belt opposition.

DO IT FOR CHARITY II

The Govs went 8-for-8 from the charity stripe against Campbell, believed to be their first perfect showing at the line since 1999-00 (against Belmont).

DUO EARNS JAMAICAN HONORS

Terry Taylor and Jarrett Givens both earned All-Tournament honors for the island portion of the Jersey Mike's Jamaica Classic. Taylor averaged 19.0 points and 13.5 rebounds on 51.6 percent shooting in MoBay, while Givens made his first two starts as a Gov in Jamaica, averaging 11.5 points, 5.5 boards and a block.

TRAVELIN' MEN

Austin Peay's 30-day roadtrip, which came to an end last week in Huntsville, saw the Govs travel more than 5,000 miles, to Mississippi, Florida, Jamaica, Ohio and Alabama. The 30-day, seven-game, four-state, two-country jaunt ran from Nov. 9-Dec. 8 and was the longest stretch in program history Austin Peay was away from the Dunn Center.

OUTSIDE THE NORM

For the first time since 2012, the Govs will travel out of the country for regular season contests as part of the Jersey Mike's Jamaica Classic in Montego Bay. It will be just the fifth regular-season appearance for Austin Peay outside the contiguous 48 states; the Govs also competed in Cancun, Mexico (2012), St. Thomas, Virgin Islands (2004), Anchorage, Alaska (2000) and Honolulu, Hawaii (1996), going 5-5 in those contests.

FOUL FEST 2018

A total of 57 fouls were called in Austin Peay's overtime contest against USF to kick off the Jamaica Classic. Not only was that a single-game high for the Govs and for an Austin Peay opponent in 2018, it averaged out to a foul being called every 47.4 seconds throughout the contest.

MCGHEE'S ODYSSEY

Grad transfer Jabari McGhee is on his third Division I stop, joining the Govs after spending the last two-plus years at Western Kentucky and the first part of his career at Tennessee. Research suggests he's one of 21 players in the country with three or more Division I stops in his career.

BREAKING NABC

Austin Peay earned acclaim from the National Association of Basketball Coaches by earning the program's first Team Academic Excellence honor, given annually to teams that post a 3.0 grade-point average or better during the academic year. The Govs were one of 43 Division I schools to be among the honorees, joining only Belmont among Ohio Valley Conference member institutions. Individually, Zach Glotta was named to the NABC's Honors Court, recognizing those men's collegiate basketball student-athletes who excelled in academics during the past season.

ESPN DATES

The Govs road contest at Tennessee Tech, Jan. 31, will tip at 6 p.m. CT on either ESPN or ESPNNews, while Austin Peay's Valentine's Day Heritage Bank Battle of the Border contest against Murray State also is scheduled for a 6 p.m. tipoff in the Dunn Center. This does not take into account the Dec. 28 game at Arkansas, which could wind up on the ESPN-owned SEC Network or affiliates, which could give the Govs four ESPN appearances during the regular season.

GLOTTA'S BUSY BREAK

Senior guard Zach Glotta had a busy summer. In May, the O'Fallon, Mo., native said, "I do," to the former Ashley Slay, a long-time Austin Peay volleyball standout; days later, he was in Prague for a weeks-long adventure with Athletes in Action on its annual European Tour, one of 10 Division I athletes chosen for the prestigious event; the team played in the Czech Republic and Madrid, Spain.

FIGURING OUT FIGGER

2018 Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year Matt Figger was named a finalist for the 2018 Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year Award, presented annually by CollegeInsider.com to the nation's top mid-major coach. Figger was the fourth head

Figger, a Jenkins, Kentucky native, also was the first OVC coach to earn Coach of the Year honors in his first season at the helm since Steve Prohm (Murray State, 2011-12).

COURTSIDE FANCY

In a first-of-its-kind courtside seating arrangement in the Dunn Center will be 12 baseline seats, 24 in total, for the 2018-19 season. This offering, unique among Ohio Valley Conference institutions, is the most immersive, close-to-the-action seat of any school in the league. If you want a better seat, you'll have to earn a scholarship.

EARLY ADDITIONS

With the beginning of early signing period on Nov. 14, the Govs were busy despite being out of the country for the Montego Bay portion of the Jamaica Classic. By lunch the following day, Austin Peay had made three additions to the 2019-20 roster—Sam DeVault, a lanky stretch-four from Indiana, and Texas teammates Devon McCain and Jordyn Adams, childhood friends who will achieve their dream of playing college hoops together.

FIGGER AT CVC EVENT

In September, Figger was among the feature speakers at the American Cancer Society's Coaches vs. Cancer Tennessee Tip-Off, kicking off the event alongside ETSU's Steve Forbes and ESPN's Sean Farnham. The trio swapped stories and implored attendees to support the Coaches vs. Cancer mission. The event raised more than $100,000 for the American Cancer Society.

GOVS GOING PRO

A pair of former Governors inked their first professional deals during the offseason. Tre Ivory will play in Germany for Phoenix Hagen, while Averyl Ugba is off to Switzerland to suit up for Pully Basket, bringing the total number of Govs playing overseas up to eight. Before he departed, Ugba also suited up for the inaugural 3x3 National Championship in San Antonio during Final Four weekend. With the additions of Ivory and Ugba to the ranks of former Govs in the pros, nine Govs are or have dotted the lineup of a professional international team in 2018.

MATT FIGGER

Position: Head Coach • Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky, 1995

Experience: Second Season • Career Record: 27-19

at Austin Peay: Second Season • Career Record: 27-19

2017-18 Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year Matt Figger enjoyed an outstanding first season in Clarksville.

Under Figger's tutelage, the Governors made one of the NCAA's largest defensive turnarounds in 2017-18; Austin Peay went from allowing 83.8 points per game (ppg) the previous season to 71.2 ppg in 2017-18, with the -12.6 drop in points per game the second-largest in the nation behind only Central Michigan (-16.1 ppg). Some of those single-game milestones included holding Alabama A&M to 47 points on Dec. 2—the first time APSU held an opponent below 50 points since Brescia in 2010 and the first Division I foe the Gobs held below 50 since 2008 against Samford.

Overall, Figger's defensive unit held seven opponents below 60 points during the regular season, winning all seven contests; Austin Peay had held just seven opponents below 60 points in the previous four seasons combined.

The Gobs under Figger proved to be a pesky defensive unit, winning the turnover margin by double-digits on three occasions and forcing an average of 23.6 turnovers per game from Nov. 16 (Oakland City) to Dec. 6 (Illinois). And when injuries and illness took a toll, Figger proved he could do more with less, winning late-January contests against Eastern Kentucky and Morehead State despite dressing just nine players.

On Thursday, April 6, 2017, Figger was introduced as the 12th head men's basketball coach in Austin Peay State University history, coming to Austin Peay on the heels of a whirlwind Final Four run as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator under Frank Martin at South Carolina. The Gamecocks were the East Region champion, taking down Marquette, Duke, Baylor and Florida on the way to Phoenix.

After arriving at South Carolina in 2012, Figger assisted Martin in the revival of a program that hadn't enjoyed a 20-win season since 2008-09, had not advanced to an NCAA Tournament since 2003-04 and had not won an NCAA Tournament game since 1973. After winning 14 games the first two seasons in Columbia, Figger and Co. broke .500 for the first time in 2014-15, finishing 17-16, then won 25 games and reached as high as No. 19 in the Associated Press Top-25 poll last season.

In case you somehow missed it, the Gamecocks became NCAA Tournament darlings in March 2017. After bowing out to Alabama in the SEC Tournament quarterfinals, the seventh-seeded Gamecocks thrashed Marquette, 93-73, in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, erased a double-digit lead to score a mighty upset of second-seeded Duke to advance to the Sweet 16 and toppled Baylor 70-50 to advance to the East Region championship game against fellow SEC foe Florida.

Trailing at halftime for the third time during the NCAA Tournament, the Gamecocks shut down the Gators three-point assault in the second half and fed SEC Player of the Year Sindarius Thornwell—a find of Figger's in his capacity as Martin's recruiting coordinator—for a game-high 26 points and East Regional Most Outstanding Player honors. The Gamecocks were finally knocked out of the tournament by West top seed and top-ranked Gonzaga in the Final Four.

Two players on the Gamecocks Final Four squad got their NBA chance in June 2017—Thornwell, the 48th overall selection in the NBA Draft, with the Los Angeles Clippers via draft night trade with Milwaukee, and PJ Dozier, who inked a free-agent deal with the Los Angeles Lakers.

Figger served on Martin's staff dating back to 2007, Martin's first season at Kansas State. In his decade on Martin's staff, Figger served in a variety of roles, assuming the associate head coach role in 2013-14 upon Brad Underwood's departure for Stephen F. Austin.

At Kansas State, Figger was on a staff that secured at least 21 wins and finished fifth or better in the Big 12 each season. In his first season on staff, Kansas State won its first NCAA Tournament game since 1988 after posting a 20-win season—just its fourth since 1990. The 2009-10 team won a school-record 29 games and appeared in the program's first Elite Eight in over two decades, defeating six ranked opponents along the way and finishing the year ranked seventh in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top-25 polls.

At both Kansas State and South Carolina, Figger served as recruiting coordinator. He inked two McDonald's All-Americans at Kansas State, including Michael Beasley, who would earn National Freshman and Player of the Year in 2008 before becoming a first-round pick in the NBA Draft. Beasley was one of four All-Americans—along with Denis Clemente, Jacob Pullen and Bill Walker—tutored by Figger at Kansas State.

Figger's first Division I coaching experience came with John Pelphrey at South Alabama, helping lead the Jaguars to a Sun Belt Tournament title in 2006 and a regular-season championship in 2007. After building through recruiting the first three years under Pelphrey, the Jaguars broke through in 2006 with 24 wins, a 14-game improvement that was the biggest turnaround in the NCAA that season. Figger helped the Jaguars advance to their first NCAA Tournament since 1998, where they bowed out to eventual national champion Florida in the first round.

Figger earned his coaching stripes in the junior college ranks, breaking into coaching at Wabash Valley Community College in 1993-94, helping lead the Warriors to a 29-3 record, before heading to Vincennes (Ind.) College for five seasons, where he coached Clarksville native and future NBA All-Star Shawn Marion for two seasons, as well as future NBA player Tyrone Nesby. The Trailblazers went 132-39 during Figger's time on NJCAA Hall of Famer Dan Sparks' staff, advancing to three NJCAA National Tournaments and capturing four straight Region XII titles (1995-98); the 1998 Vincennes squad went 31-5 and finished fifth at the national tournament.

He capped his junior college coaching career with a three-year stop at Odessa College, helping lead the Wranglers to a 27-7 mark and NJCAA National appearance in 2001.

RECAPPING THE LIBERTY GAME

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Prior to Dec. 22, the last time Austin Peay won six in a row, the sixth win brought a championship back to Clarksville.

So too did the Govs sixth straight win in 2018—maybe not an OVC Tournament title, but it will do. The Govs rallied from a halftime deficit to take a 75-66 victory against Liberty—and also, the 2018 St. Pete Shootout title.

The first half offered frenetic pacing and outstanding offense. Austin Peay jumped out to a 9-2 lead thanks to a pair of buckets by Terry Taylor, who scored 16 points in the first half; Steve Harris picked up 10 points of his own.

But Liberty put on a late-half showcase from the floor, hitting 14 of their final 19 shots from the floor to close the frame. Over the final five minutes, the Flames outscored the Govs 18-10 with Pacheco-Ortiz and Cabbill netting five points apiece down the stretch and Gumbs beating the buzzer on a three to put the Govs down five points.

The Govs rallied. Quickly. Scarcely three minutes into the second half, jumpers by Harris and Dayton Gumm had the Govs within a point. At the 13:37 mark, Taylor tied it with a layup; two possessions later, his fourth three-pointer of the day put the Govs ahead for good. That sequence kicked off a game-altering 12-4 run that took the Govs from down a bucket to ahead by eight points. APSU then proceeded to put the clamps down defensively, holding Liberty to just five made field goals the rest of the way.

The Flames would get within a possession just once in the final five minutes, coming within three points after a James dunk with 5:34 to play. The Govs answered with a 6-0 burst on lay-ups from Jabari McGhee, Taylor and a Harris runner that put the Govs up nine with 2:24 to play; the Flames didn't get within seven for the game's remainder.
