DOUBLING UP

Gillen's 21 kill –20 dig performance against NC State was the first of its kind since 2017 and the first 20–20 (kills and digs) performance by any SEC player this season. Mississippi State marked the fourth time this season that three hogs recorded double–doubles in the same contest, something that before this season hadn't happened since 2016. It's also been three years since four or more different Razorbacks reached double–double status at least once in a season.

MARYLAND ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Junior transfer Devyn Wheeler averaged 2.55 kills per set over the weekend, knocking down 28 kills behind a .313 clip. Wheeler also recorded six digs and six blocks en route to an all–tournament selection.

ON THE HOME FRONT

Arkansas saw the most success at home last season, recording seven wins, including a sweep of its Arkansas Classic opponents and four conference wins. Of those seven home wins, only twice did the opposing team win multiple sets. Under Coach Watson, the Razorbacks are 26–21 (.553) at home.

GILLEN GOES BIG, EARNS SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

The outside hitter from Stilwell, Kansas, averaged 5.00 points, 4.36 kills and 2.36 digs per set in the Arkansas Classic this past weekend. In her opening match against Northwestern State, Gillen posted 13 kills, becoming the first Razorback with double–digit kills in her freshman debut. She then recorded her first double–double of 26 kills and 13 digs against Montana State, becoming one of only 22 Razorbacks to ever record 25+ kills in a single match. Gillen's honor is the first of its kind since 2014 and only the seventh since the award was introduced during the 2005 season.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

By team vote, junior outside Hailey Dirrigl and sophomore setter Gracie Ryan will serve as the Razorbacks' captains. Dirrigl finished the 2018 season leading the Hogs in kills, while Ryan covered the defensive side as the returning leader in digs per set at 1.87.

RECORD BREAKING RIPPEE

Senior Rachel Rippee is getting ready to close the door on her career at Arkansas, but not before etching her name in the record book, over and over again. The Springfield, Mo. native is currently in the top five in Arkansas history for: assists, assists per set, service aces, service aces per set, and sets played.

FRESH(MAN) FACES

Arkansas welcomes six newcomers—four freshmen and two transfer juniors—to this year's roster. The team's incoming class was named a Highest Honorable Mention group, just outside the top 30 by PrepVolleyball.com.

ACROSS THE NET

This year's schedule features 13 home matches at Barnhill Arena and seven opponents that played in last year's NCAA Tournament. Arkansas will play 10 matches against eight teams that were ranked inside the final RPI Top 55; six of Arkansas' opponents participated in the 2018 NCAA Volleyball Tournament. The Hogs will also see four first–time opponents this season: Arkansas – Pine Bluff, Princeton, San Diego State and West Virginia.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

For a third–straight year, Arkansas earned an AVCA Team Academic Award for the 2018–19 season, including a special spot on the AVCA Honor Roll as well. Returning Hogs, Lauren Evans, Maylin Garrett, and Gracie Ryan were also named to the SEC First–Year Academic Honor Roll earlier this summer.

PRESEASON RANKINGS

At the conclusion of the 2018 campaign, the Razorbacks sat in 11th place in the SEC and coming into the new season, the Hogs were predicted to finish 9th in the league as voted on by the conferences' coaches.

ALL-TIME SERIES IN SERIES OPENERS

Friday's match queded the start of the 2019 season and the 26th season opener. All–time, the Razorbacks are 17–9 in season openers and 2–2 in the same under Coach Watson.

SIDELINE ADDITIONS

In early August, Coach Watson announced that Megan Wargo–Ke- arney, who enters her third season with Arkansas volleyball, had been promoted to associate head coach. Coach Watson also added Macey Gardner–Donathan (Arizona State '15) to the staff as an assistant coach and Lexi MacLean (TCU '18) as a graduate assistant.

HEAD COACH JASON WATSON | 4TH YEAR AT ARKANSAS (15TH OVERALL)

Jason Watson was named the head coach of the University of Arkansas volleyball team on January 7, 2016, to become the third head coach in program history. In 11 prior seasons as a head coach at BYU (2005-07) and Arizona State (2008-15), Watson enters the 2019 season with a 239-197 (.548) record and has guided his teams to seven NCAA Tournament selections.

Heading into his fourth season at the helm, Watson is looking to put the Hogs back in forward motion after closing out the 2018 season at 11-17. The Razorbacks are predicted to finish two spots higher in the SEC than where they finished in 2018 - one could contribute the improvement from the recognized incoming class that earned Highest Honorable Mention by PrepVolleyball.com.

In his second season in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks tallied a 10-win improvement from the previous year, finishing the campaign with a 19-11 overall record and 9-9 mark in SEC play. Arkansas' 10 wins at Barnhill Arena marked the program's highest home-win total since 2012. Arkansas finished the year at No. 47 in the season-ending RPI rankings.

Individually, senior Pilar Victoria led the NCAA with 5.47 kills per set and 6.08 points per set in 2017 and earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention and All-SEC honors. Additionally, setter Rachel Rippee collected AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention accolades.

The Razorbacks matched their SEC output from the previous season with a 7-11 mark in league play during Watson's first year including six wins in their last nine matches of the year. Individually, senior Danielle Harbin emerged to finish third in the SEC with 4.22 kills per set on her way to AVCA All-South Region honors.

In eight years in Tempe, Ariz., Watson transformed ASU Volleyball from a perennial sub-.500 program into a post-season regular. In his last four seasons, the Sun Devils averaged more than 19 wins per season with four-consecutive bids to the NCAA Tournament. Watson also coached a pair of All-America performers, one in each of the past two seasons, for ASU's first national honorees since 2000.

Arizona State began the 2015 campaign with a 15-0 record and reached as high as No. 5 in the AVCA Top 25 poll. The Sun Devils also opened conference play with their best start in the Pac-10/12 era with four wins including the program's first win over Stanford in 15 years.

In 2014, ASU opened the season with six straight wins on the way to a 20-14 record. The Sun Devils were ranked in each AVCA regular season poll. Making its third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, ASU defeated Texas A&M 3-1 to advance to the second round of the Tournament for the first time since 2006.

Watson led ASU to a 19-13 overall record in 2013

including a 3-0 upset of then-NCAA defending champion Texas. The Sun Devils started the season without dropping a set in their first seven matches. Making its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, ASU dropped a five-set match to BYU in the first round.

In 2012, the Sun Devil squad opened with an 11-2 record, the best start since 1992. The Sun Devils finished with 20 wins - the most in a single season at ASU since 1993. The nine conference wins equaled the most since 2000. ASU made the program's 16th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and Watson became just the fifth coach from ASU to guide the Sun Devils to a NCAA postseason berth.

Watson arrived as the head coach at ASU in 2008. In 2013, he was also named head coach of the sand volleyball team when the sport was added to the athletics program.

In June 2015, Watson was selected by USA Volleyball to serve as the head coach of the U.S. Collegiate National Team on a six-match tour of China.

In his three seasons at the helm of the BYU program, Watson compiled a 74-18 (.804) overall record while leading BYU to three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. During his first season as head coach, Watson was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year after leading his team to a 25-4 record, the program's best mark since 1998. In addition to leading BYU to the MWC regular-season title, Watson also helped lead the Cougars back to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2007, he led the Cougars to a 24-8 overall record and an Elite 8 finish in the NCAA Regional Final. His team also finished the year ranked 12th nationally, and at one point through the season, the Cougars held a rank as high as ninth in the country. No stranger to the best competition, Watson's teams have been ranked as high as eighth on RPI, showing the character and strength of the teams he builds. Never backing down from challenges are also another hallmark trait of Watson-led teams.

Prior to his head-coaching debut, Watson had amassed 11 years as an assistant coach at four universities. After an All-American playing career at BYU, Watson coached for two years under his former coach, Carl McGown, before beginning his career in women's volleyball with extremely successful stints at Kansas State, Arkansas State, and Montana State.

Watson had an All-American playing career at BYU from 1990-1994, where he was a four-year starter and two-time captain. He graduated from BYU in 1995 with a degree in physical education and sports business management after leaving his native home of Homebush, Australia.

He and his wife, Larissa, have two sons and a daughter.
