NEWS & NOTES

FOUR HOGS PARTICIPATE IN US WNVV TRYOUTS

USA Volleyball is gearing up for the U.S. Women's National Team Open Tryouts taking place Feb. 21-23 at the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, with four Razorbacks Maggie Cartwright, Hailey Dirrigl, Jillian Gillen and Taylor Head vying for a chance to represent the Stars and Stripes.

"This is the third year we have sent athletes to the tryout," head coach Jason Watson remarked. "Each time, it's been a valuable and rewarding experience. It exposes our athletes to the best college volleyball players in the country."

GILLEN NAMED TO SEC ALL-FRESHMAN TEAM

Jillian Gillen was selected to the SEC All-Freshman Team as announced by the conference office in December. She is Arkansas' first SEC all-freshman selection since 2015 and 13th overall. The Stilwell, Kan. native led the league's freshmen in kills per set (3.74) and ranked seventh among all players. Her success on the attack ranked her eighth among freshmen in division I and 81st overall. She stands as the only SEC player with a performance of 20 kills and 20 digs and is the only with three performances of 28 kills or more.

GILLEN GARNERS NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Jillian Gillen spent her freshman season impressing national scouts as she earned an honorable mention to the 2019 VolleyballMag.com All-Freshman Team. The honor is Gillen's fourth award of her rookie campaign after being named to the SEC All-Freshman Team earlier this month. She earned SEC Freshman of the Week in the opening week of the season after starting her collegiate career averaging 5.00 points, 4.36 kills and 2.36 digs per set in the Arkansas Classic. She earned SEC Freshman of the Week again in week 13 when she led the Arkansas volleyball team to back-to-back five-set victories and registered her fourth consecutive 20+ kill performance.

SIDELINE ADDITIONS

Fifth-year head coach Jason Watson has announced the addition of, 2018 USMC/AVCA Division II National Assistant Coach of the Year, Lauren Ramatowski as Arkansas volleyball's newest assistant coach. Ramatowski will be responsible for working with and analyzing the Razorbacks' defensive systems.

Ramatowski comes to Arkansas after a two-year stint at Washburn University. After finishing with a record of 27-4, the

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC

On August 1, 1990, the University of Arkansas officially accepted an invitation to become the 11th member of the Southeastern Conference. After 76 years as a member of the Southwest Conference, the Razorbacks made a bold move to a new conference home, a decision that would lead to unprecedented growth for both the University of Arkansas and the SEC and help ignite a change in the landscape of intercollegiate athletics.

SCHOOL RECORD 7 TEAMS EARN APR PUBLIC REC. AWARDS

The Razorbacks' women's cross country, women's golf, gymnastics, softball, women's swimming and diving, women's tennis and volleyball teams were honored for their standing among the top 10 percent of academic performing teams in the country in their respective sports in the multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the 2018-19 academic year. Volleyball made its second consecutive appearance on the listing of programs honored by the NCAA for APR excellence. The recognition was the fifth overall for volleyball. The programs earned a perfect 1,000 multiyear APR rate based on scores from the 2015-16, 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19 academic years. The seven awards are the most in school history, topping the six programs that were recognized last year in 2017-18. The University of Arkansas has earned a total of 36 awards since the start of the APR Public Recognition program, including 13 such honors in the past two years alone.

RAZORBACK ATHLETICS LAUNCHES HOGS UNITED

The University of Arkansas Department of Athletics has restructured, expanded and rebranded its diversity and inclusion program into Hogs UNITED. Calls for action regarding social injustice from around the country prompted the department to examine and enhance its existing Cultural Competency Working Group under the leadership of Dr. Christopher Bader. Bader joined the University in July 2019 as the Assistant Athletics Director for Mental Health and Performance. One of the first priorities of Hogs UNITED was to create a collaborative effort between the student-athletes, coaches, and staff. This effort is aimed at promoting education, advocacy, and action in the areas of diversity and inclusive excellence.

HEAD COACH JASON WATSON | 4TH YEAR AT ARKANSAS (15TH OVERALL)

Jason Watson was named the head coach of the University of Arkansas volleyball team on January 7, 2016, to become the third head coach in program history. In 11 prior seasons as a head coach at BYU (2005-07) and Arizona State (2008-15), Watson enters the 2019 season with a 239-197 (.548) record and has guided his teams to seven NCAA Tournament selections.

Heading into his fourth season at the helm, Watson is looking to put the Hogs back in forward motion after closing out the 2018 season at 11-17. The Razorbacks are predicted to finish two spots higher in the SEC than where they finished in 2018 - one could contribute the improvement from the recognized incoming class that earned Highest Honorable Mention by PrepVolleyball.com.

In his second season in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks tallied a 10-win improvement from the previous year, finishing the campaign with a 19-11 overall record and 9-9 mark in SEC play. Arkansas' 10 wins at Barnhill Arena marked the program's highest home-win total since 2012. Arkansas finished the year at No. 47 in the season-ending RPI rankings.

Individually, senior Pilar Victoria led the NCAA with 5.47 kills per set and 6.08 points per set in 2017 and earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention and All-SEC honors. Additionally, setter Rachel Rippee collected AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention accolades.

The Razorbacks matched their SEC output from the previous season with a 7-11 mark in league play during Watson's first year including six wins in their last nine matches of the year. Individually, senior Danielle Harbin emerged to finish third in the SEC with 4.22 kills per set on her way to AVCA All-South Region honors.

In eight years in Tempe, Ariz., Watson transformed ASU Volleyball from a perennial sub-.500 program into a post-season regular. In his last four seasons, the Sun Devils averaged more than 19 wins per season with four-consecutive bids to the NCAA Tournament. Watson also coached a pair of All-America performers, one in each of the past two seasons, for ASU's first national honorees since 2000.

Arizona State began the 2015 campaign with a 15-0 record and reached as high as No. 5 in the AVCA Top 25 poll. The Sun Devils also opened conference play with their best start in the Pac-10/12 era with four wins including the program's first win over Stanford in 15 years.

In 2014, ASU opened the season with six straight wins on the way to a 20-14 record. The Sun Devils were ranked in each AVCA regular season poll. Making its third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, ASU defeated Texas A&M 3-1 to advance to the second round of the Tournament for the first time since 2006.

Watson led ASU to a 19-13 overall record in 2013 including a 3-0 upset of then-NCAA defending champion Texas. The Sun Devils started the season without dropping a set in their first seven matches. Making its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, ASU dropped a five-set match to BYU in the first round.

In 2012, the Sun Devil squad opened with an 11-2 record, the best start since 1992. The Sun Devils finished with 20 wins - the most in a single season at ASU since 1993. The nine conference wins equaled the most since 2000. ASU made the program's 16th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and Watson became just the fifth coach from ASU to guide the Sun Devils to a NCAA postseason berth.

Watson arrived as the head coach at ASU in 2008. In 2013, he was also named head coach of the sand volleyball team when the sport was added to the athletics program.

In June 2015, Watson was selected by USA Volleyball to serve as the head coach of the U.S. Collegiate National Team on a six-match tour of China.

In his three seasons at the helm of the BYU program, Watson compiled a 74-18 (.804) overall record while leading BYU to three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. During his first season as head coach, Watson was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year after leading his team to a 25-4 record, the program's best mark since 1998. In addition to leading BYU to the MWC regular-season title, Watson also helped lead the Cougars back to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2007, he led the Cougars to a 24-8 overall record and an Elite 8 finish in the NCAA Regional Final. His team also finished the year ranked 12th nationally, and at one point through the season, the Cougars held a rank as high as ninth in the country. No stranger to the best competition, Watson's teams have been ranked as high as eighth on RPI, showing the character and strength of the teams he builds. Never backing down from challenges are also another hallmark trait of Watson-led teams.

Prior to his head-coaching debut, Watson had amassed 11 years as an assistant coach at four universities. After an All-American playing career at BYU, Watson coached for two years under his former coach, Carl McGown, before beginning his career in women's volleyball with extremely successful stints at Kansas State, Arkansas State, and Montana State.

Watson had an All-American playing career at BYU from 1990-1994, where he was a four-year starter and two-time captain. He graduated from BYU in 1995 with a degree in physical education and sports business management after leaving his native home of Homebush, Australia.

He and his wife, Larissa, have two sons and a daughter.
