A CONVERSATION PATCH: Texas Tech will have a patch on its jersey all season that was the idea of Kyler Edwards with collaboration from his teammates. The patch depicts a rotten apple core and is described by Edwards as: "The team wanted to make a patch that was unique and not just something that everyone else had. We want to get rid of all the bad apples in all walks of life, including police brutality, sexism and racism. These are topics around the world and we have the support of our coaches. We need to keep talking about it until it gets fixed." The NCAA Playing Rules Oversight Panel approved rules to allow student-athletes in all sports to wear patches on their uniforms for commemorative and memorial purposes, as well as to support social justice issues.

TEXASTECH.COM PREVIEW: VS. ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS

INDIANAPOLIS — No. 21 Texas Tech will play No. 10 Arkansas in the 2021 NCAA Tournament Second Round at 5:10 p.m. (CST) on Sunday at the Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis, Indiana with the opportunity to advance to its third straight Sweet 16. The game will be televised on TNT.

The Red Raiders (18-10) are coming off a 65-53 win over Utah State in the NCAA Tournament First Round, while the Razorbacks (23-6) secured an 85-68 victory over Colgate with both teams pulling away in the second half in close first-half games. Former Southwest Conference rivals, Texas Tech is 40-39 all-time against Arkansas with the last matchup resulting in a 67-64 win by the Red Raiders in the 2019 Big 12/SEC Challenge in Lubbock.

The Texas Tech-Arkansas winner will advance to the Sweet 16 to face the winner of the Florida-Oral Roberts matchup. The Gators earned a 75-70 win over Virginia Tech, while ORU knocked off second-seeded Ohio State with a 75-72 win on Friday. The Sweet 16 is scheduled for March 27-28.

Mac McClung leads the Red Raiders with 15.8 points per game this season after going for 16 in the win over Utah State, while Terrence Shannon, Jr. is scoring 12.6 per game. Kevin McCullar and Kyler Edwards are both at 10.1 points per game to give Tech four double-digit scorers going into the second round of the national tournament. Marcus Santos-Silva, who is the lone senior on the team and played in the 2018 NCAA Tournament with VCU, leads TTU with 6.5 rebounds per game and 1.1 blocks (32 total). Edwards leads Tech with 2.7 assists per game and has the most tournament experience on the team after playing as a freshman during the run to the national championship final. A junior from Arlington, Edwards scored 12 points with two 3-pointers in the title game against Virginia. Avery Benson, Edwards and Santos-Silva are the three players on the TTU roster with tournament experience coming into this year's event in Indiana. Benson was on the Elite 8 team and played in games against Buffalo and Michigan in the 2019 tournament.

DATES: All NCAA Tournament games will be played in Indiana this year with the First Four games to be played on March 18. The First Round is on March 19-20 followed by the Second Round on March 21-22. Advancing teams will compete in the Sweet 16 on March 27-28 followed by the Elite 8 on March 29-30. The Final Four is set for April 3 before the national championship final on April 5 at Lucas Oil Stadium.

Tech is in its 18th NCAA Tournament in program history and is now 17-19 all-time after the win over Utah State. The program has made the tournament in 1954, 1956, 1961, 1962, 1973, 1976, 1985, 1986, 1993, 1996, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2007, 2016, 2018 and 2019. In the past three tournaments no program has won more games with the Red Raiders securing wins in the 2018 NCAA Tournament over SFA, Florida and Purdue to advance to the program's first Elite 8 before reaching the 2019 NCAA Championship Final with victories over Northern Kentucky, Buffalo, Michigan, Gonzaga and Michigan State in the Final Four.

TEXAS TECH STORY LINES

• Texas Tech has an opportunity to make the Sweet 16 for the third straight season... The program has made the Sweet 16 four times in its program history coming in the 1996, 2005, 2018 and 2019 seasons. Going into games on Saturday, Gonzaga, Michigan and Florida State are the only other programs who can make the Sweet 16 the past three tournament. Purdue had made two straight but was upset by ORU on Friday.

• Texas Tech advanced with a 65-53 win over Utah State on Friday... The 53 points allowed matched a program record low in the NCAA Tournament and was the 13th time this season the Red Raiders have held an opponent under 60.

• Texas Tech now has a 9-2 record in the NCAA Tournament under head coach Chris Beard with trips to the 2018 Elite 8 and the 2019 National Championship Final... The 9-2 record over the past two NCAA Tournaments is the best in the nation after the run to the program's first Final Four... TTU earned a win over Michigan State in the national semifinals before an overtime loss to Virginia. The run to the 2019 National Championship came with wins over Northern Kentucky, Buffalo, Michigan and Gonzaga before topping the Spartans in Minnesota to reach the final Monday night of the 2019 college basketball season.

• Texas Tech is in its 18th NCAA Tournament and its third straight which is a program record... The team was projected to make the 2020 tournament before it was canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic. • At No. 21 in the final week of the national polls, Texas Tech has been ranked throughout the 2020-21 season which is the first time in program history... The Red Raiders began the year at No. 14 in the AP Preseason Poll and were as high as No. 7.

 Avery Benson, Kyler Edwards and Marcus Santos-Silva are Red Raiders who have competed in the NCAA Tournament... Benson, an Arkansas native, is the only current player who was on the 2018 Elite 8 and 2019 Final Four teams while Edwards played as a freshman during the 2019 tournament... Santos-Silva played in the 2019 tournament at VCU... McCullar was a redshirt on the 2019 team.

 Four Red Raiders were honored with All-Big 12 awards with Mac McClung being named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year to go along with All-Big 12 Second Team and Big 12 All-Newcomer Team recognition... Terrence Shannon, Jr. was named to the All-Big 12 Third team while Kyler Edwards and Kevin McCullar were All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selections.

 TTU is a six seed in the tournament for the fourth time, most recently in 2005 where the team opened with a win over UCLA in the West Region before falling to Gonzaga... The Red Raiders were a three seed in the past two tournaments.

• TTU is now 8-10 all-time in the first round of the tournament after the win over Utah State and is 4-1 in the Round of 32.

 Tech is 7-10 this season against teams in the NCAA Tournament field: vs. Oklahoma 2-0; vs. Texas 2-1; vs. Abilene Christian 1-0; vs. LSU 1-0; vs. Baylor 0-2; vs. Oklahoma State 0-2; vs. Kansas; vs. West Virginia 0-2; vs. Houston 0-1; vs. Utah State 1-0.

• The Red Raiders are one of seven teams from the state of Texas in the NCAA tournament, joining Baylor and Texas from the Big 12 along with North Texas, Texas Southern, Houston and Abilene Christian. TTU played Houston and ACU during the regular season, dropping a neutral-court matchup against UH on Nov. 29 in Fort Worth before securing a 51-44 win over ACU on Dec. 9 in Lubbock. The Red Raiders were 2-1 against UT this season and 0-2 against Baylor.

STAT RANKINGS: Texas Tech comes into the second round of the NCAA Tournament fourth in the nation with a 5.4 turnover margin advantage and 20th with 16.3 turnovers forced per game this season after having only eight turnovers and forcing 22 in the win over Utah State. The Red Raiders also forced 20 turnovers against the Longhorns in the conference tournament and have now forced 15 or more turnovers in 18 of 28 games this season. Tech leads the Big 12 and is 23rd nationally by holding teams to 63.0 points per game after holding 13 opponents under 60 points. Offensively, the Red Raiders are averaging 72.8 points per game and are shooting 44.2 percent from the field. The team is 9th nationally with 438 free throws made (16.0 per game) after going 6-for-8 at the line on Friday in Bloomington. Tech had a season-best 25 free throws made in games against Sam Houston and Oklahoma State. Tech's defense is limiting opponents to 41.1 percent shooting with 10 teams being held under 35 percent. USU shot 44.0 percent from the field, but was limited to just 4-for-19 on 3-pointers.

SERIES HISTORY: The programs played their first games against each other on Dec. 28, 1942 with the Razorbacks winning 43-38 in Oklahoma City. The game on Sunday will be the 11th neutral court matchup with Tech leading 6-4 in games played away from home venues. The programs have split their last four matchups since 2005 after having not played each other since 1991.

RED RAIDER REPORT: The Texas Tech roster consists of 12 players with one senior, four juniors, three sophomores and four freshmen. The program returned six players from last year's roster in Kyler Edwards, Avery Benson, Kevin McCullar, Terrence Shannon, Jr., Clarence Nadolny and Tyreek Smith while adding graduate transfer Marcus Santos-Silva (VCU) and transfers Mac McClung (Georgetown) and Jamarius Burton (Wichita State). The team is strengthened by true freshmen Micah Peavy, Chibuzo Agbo and Vladislav Goldin.

Marcus Santos-Silva is the lone senior on the Texas Tech roster and is playing in his second NCAA Tournament — first as a Red Raider. He is coming off a game against Utah State where he scored six points and had six rebounds to take his season averages to 8.4 points, 6.5 rebounds and a team-leading 32 blocks (1.1 per). A Taunton, Mass. native, Santos-Silva is in his first season at Tech after transferring from VCU where he played three seasons. Santos-Silva played in the 2019 NCAA Tournament as a sophomore at VCU. He scored seven points and had five rebounds in an opening round loss to Central Florida. This season he has recorded two double-doubles in non-conference play and was coming off going for 10 points and nine rebounds in the Big 12 Championship quarterfinal loss to Texas. He is currently second in the Big 12 and 42nd nationally with 3.04 offensive rebounds per game. He scored a season-high 14 points in wins over lowa State and Kansas State and recorded double-digit rebounding totals in four games with a season-high 13 in the opener against Northwestern State where he also had 10 points for his first double-double. He's had two or more blocks in nine games, including a career-high four blocks in games against Abilene Christian and Oklahoma State. He had three blocks to go along with eight points in the regular-season finale at Baylor. Santos-Silva has recorded 1,064 points, 801 rebounds and 124 blocks through 125 games in his collegiate career.

Kyler Edwards is coming off scoring 12 points and contributing six rebounds, four assists and three steals in the win over Utah State. An All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection this season, he is playing in his second NCAA Tournament and is now averaging 10.1 points, 4.7 rebounds and a team-leading 2.7 assists per game. An Arlington native, Edwards played in all six games during the run to the 2019 National Championship Final where he would cap his freshman season by going for 12 points with two 3-pointers against Virginia in the title game. He scored seven points in the win over Arkansas in 2019 as a freshman in 16 minutes as a reserve. Edwards scored a season-high 20 points in a home win over TCU to begin the month of March and would lead Tech with 18 points by hitting four 3-pointers in the regular-season finale at Baylor. He leads Tech with 53 3-pointers this season, including hitting two or more in 16 games after going 2-for-5 on Friday. His stat sheet also has him making four in three games this season. Edwards comes into the matchup against Arkansas with 845 points, 339 rebounds and 213 assists through 97 games in his career. He averaged 5.8 points and 2.0 rebounds through the six games of the 2019 NCAA Tournament where he was 8-for-12 on 3-pointers. His 12 points in the win over Utah State on Friday all came in the second half with him shooting 3-for-4 from the field and 4-for-4 at the free-throw line to help TTU advance.

Mac McClung was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and earned All-Big 12 Second Team and Big 12 All-Newcomer Team honors in his first season with the program after transferring from Georgetown. He led the Red Raiders with 16 points in the first-round win over Utah State after hitting three 3-pointers. Along with his conference honors, he added all-district selections to his list of honors from the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association on Tuesday. A junior from Gate City, Virginia who has started all 28 games, McClung leads the Red Raiders with 15.8 points per game this season where he averaged 17.0 in Big 12 play. A dynamic scorer, McClung had a season-high 30 points at West Virginia where he had four 3-pointers and came into his first NCAA Tournament experience with 10 games this season with 20 or more points. His last 20-point performance came in the home finale against lowa State before being limited to seven at Baylor and seven against Texas in the past two games. McClung is 103-for-128 from the freethrow line (80.5 percent) for the season and is second on the team with 46 3-pointers. He hit a season-high four 3-pointers in the team's home game against Baylor where he scored 24 points by also going 8-for-10 at the line and matched a season-high six assists in the home win over TCU. McClung is averaging 2.1 assists per game to go along with his scoring after also having six assists in a non-conference win over Corpus Christi and having three or more assists in 11 games. He scored a career-high 38 points as a freshman at Georgetown against Little Rock and comes into the matchup against Arkansas with 1,151 points through 78 collegiate games.

Kevin McCullar continued filling the stat sheet and helping Tech win games by going for 10 points, seven rebounds and three assists in the win over Utah State following a career-high six steals against Texas and 11 points against Texas in the conference tournament. Playing in his first NCAA Tournament, he is averaging 10.1 points, 6.2 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.8 steals per game in his redshirt sophomore season. A San Antonio native who earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention, McCullar redshirted during the historic run to the 2019 NCAA Final Four and was with the team throughout the experience. He missed the first nine games this season due to a preseason injury but has played in all 19 since returning with 18 straight starts. McCullar-season finale in Waco. He scored a career-high 16 points in a road win over Texas in his fifth game back this season and has recorded two double-doubles with 15 points and 11 rebounds at Iowa State and then 10 points and 10 rebounds at home against Baylor in mid-January. McCullar comes into the second round of the NCAA Tournament with 367 points, 210 rebounds and 69 steals through 48 games in his career. He has recorded 10 games (19 played) with two or more steals, including four steals against Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and at home against Texas before his six-steal performance in Kansas City at the conference tournament.

Terrence Shannon, Jr. earned All-Big 12 Third Team honors and is a Julius Erving Award Finalist in his sophomore season. A Chicago, Illinois native, Shannon is playing in his first NCAA Tournament where he opened by going for 10 points and three assists against Utah State on Friday. Shannon is averaging 12.6 points and 4.0 rebounds per game after leading the Red Raiders with 18 points against Texas in the conference tournament where he was 4-for-7 on 3-pointers. He had made seven 3-pointers in the last two games before the NCAA Tournament after also going 3-for-3 and scoring 11 points in the regular-season finale at Baylor. Shannon has scored in double figures in 21 of 27 games played this season with a high of 23 coming in a road win at LSU in the Big 12/SEC Challenge. He would add 10 rebounds in Baton Rouge to record his first career double-double in the game where he went 9-for-10 at the free-throw line. Shannon, who scored a career-high 24 points as a freshman in his hometown at DePaul, has made 27 3-pointers through 27 games played this season after making nine in 29 games during his freshman season. Shannon is second on the team with 31 steals this season, averaging 1.1 per game with a high of three coming in a home game against Kansas State where he added 22 points and six rebounds. He comes into the second round of the national tournament having scored 624 points, securing 228 rebound and with 57 steals through 56 games in his career.

Micah Peavy has started 25 of 28 games in his freshman season where he is averaging 5.9 points and 3.1 rebounds per game after going for seven points against Utah State in the first round. He is averaging 7.6 ppg. in the past five game after he had six points at Baylor and six against Texas in the conference tournament. A Cibolo, Texas native, Peavy scored a season-high 14 points in the season-opener against Northwestern State and then scored 12 against Corpus Christi and in the home finale against Iowa State. Against the Cyclones, Peavy was 6-for-8 from the field and also had three assists in the second game of March. He's shooting 47.1 percent from the field this season and has had four or more rebounds in 12 games. Peavy was the Texas Class 6A Player of the Year and helped lead Duncanville High School to a state championship under his father David Peavy. In his first collegiate season he's averaging 20.5 minutes per game and has supplied 39 assists after having four against the Longhorns in the conference tournament

Avery Benson is in his fourth season with the program and is the only player on the roster who was part of the 2018 Elite 8 run. A junior from Arkansas, Benson has played in 70 games during his career and is currently 6-for-9 on 3-pointers this season. Benson scored a career-high 10 points last season in a win over No. 1-ranked Louisville in the Jimmy V Classic in Madison Square Garden where he also had two blocked shots. He scored a season-high six points with two 3-pointers in a non-conference win over Incarnate Word and also had one 3-pointer in the regular-season finale at Baylor. Tyreek Smith is a redshirt freshman who has played a reserve role in all 28 games this season where he is averaging 2.7 points and 2.5 rebounds per game. A Baton Rouge native who played high school basketball in Dallas, he scored a season-high nine points against TCU in the first game in March where he was 4-for-4 from the field and also had six rebounds. Smith is second on the team with 21 blocked shots, including a career-high three blocks in wins over Kansas State and Troy. Smith had four points and three rebounds in the conference tournament against Texas

Jamarius Burton is averaging 4.5 points and 1.3 assists per game. He returned to the court against Utah State after he had missed the past six games with a toe injury. A junior from Charlotte, North Carolina who transferred from Wichita State, Burton has scored 630 points and has 256 assists through 89 games of his collegiate career after scoring two points on Friday. He scored a season-high 10 points in the win over Grambling in non-conference play and had a Big 12-best of nine at West Virginia where he was 4-for-7 from the field with one 3-pointer. Burton had a season-high five assists in the win over Northwestern State and has an 11-assist performance against Oklahoma State on his resume from Wichita State. Burton has made four starts and appeared in 18 games as a reserve this season.

Clarence Nadolny had three assists, a steal and scored two points against Utah State in his first NCAA Tournament game. A sophomore from France, he scored a season-high seven points against Oklahoma where he was 2-for-2 from the field, including hitting one of his four 3-pointers for the season. He also had three assists at West Virginia in the first matchup where he played 17 minutes before scoring his seven points in 15 minutes against OU. He had a previous season-high of six points in the win over Corpus Christi and has a career-high of nine points last season against Houston Baptist as a freshman. He is currently 9 points away from 100 in his career after scoring three against Texas at the conference tournament. Chibuzo Agbo and Vladislay Goldin are true freshman along with Peavy and have had some strong moments in their first season at Tech. A San Diego native, Agbo is averaging 1.9 points per game after scoring a Big 12-best four points in the wins over TCU and Texas. In the win over the Longhorns at home he made a layup and then two free throws in the final minute to help ice the game. He scored a season-high five points coming in the opener against Northwestern State. He had three points at West Virginia with a 3-pointer and also had two points at LSU. Agbo has hit six 3-pointers this season. Goldin is the tallest player on the roster at 7-foot-1 and is averaging 2.1 points and 1.1 rebounds per game through nine games played. A forward from Russia, Goldin scored a career-high six points against Grambling in non-conference play and also added four rebounds in the win. Goldin played one minute against UT after he had not played since the win at lowa State on Jan. 9 in Ames.

BIG 12 NOTE: The Big 12 placed a nation-high 70 percent of its teams in the 2021 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. The Conference has seven selections for the sixth time in the last 11 tournaments, including five seasons in the past seven years the event was conducted. The Big 12's average seed of 4.0 is the best in conference history. Six have led teams to the Final Four, tied for the best in the nation among conferences. Half of Big 12 institutions have made an appearance in the Final Four with Texas Tech playing in the most recent title game in 2019.

SECURING POSSESSION: Beard stresses a 10-or-less turnover game is one of the keys to victory in every game the Red Raiders play which the team has accomplished 13 times this season after having only nine in the win over TCU and seven at Baylor. The season has been highlighted by a two-turnover showing at West Virginia which matched the Big 12 single-game record. The Red Raiders are currently averaging only 11 turnovers per game which is the second in the Big 12. In Big 12 play, Tech also had only seven turnovers at Texas and Kansas, nine in the win over Kansas State and 10 at Iowa State. The team averaged only 10.5 turnovers per game in Big 12 play. Tech had only one turnover at halftime in Ames against ISU to get out to a 24-point lead in the first matchup. In non-conference play, Tech had only four turnovers against Corpus Christi which was the low in the Beard era before the two in Morgantown. During his five seasons, Tech has committed 10 or less turnovers 64 times under Beard. The program's low turnover output was highlighted at the 2019 Final Four with only seven in a win over Michigan State and eight in the overtime loss to Virginia in the National Championship game. Tech currently has a 5.1 turnover margin advantage. The Red Raiders have drastically improved in the turnover category after committing 13.7 last season

FORCING THE ISSUE: Texas Tech forced 22 turnovers in its win over Utah State after forcing 20 against Texas in the conference tournament. The Red Raiders now have seven games this season with 20 or more turnovers forced and had a season-high 30 against Grambling for the most since the 2009 season opener against South Dakota. Tech traveled to Indianapolis after forcing 20 turnovers against Texas in the Big 12 Championship which was the sixth time it has forced 20 or more this season before coming away with eight steals and 22 turnovers by the Aggies. The Red Raiders forced 16 against Baylor after 15 turnovers at Texas and Iowa State. Tech has recorded 13 steals in two games this season, against Grambling and Northwestern State before having eight at KSU. The 13 steals against Grambling and Northwestern State is the most steals in a game since a 15-steal game by the team against Rice on Dec. 16, 2017. Tech had nine steals against the Cyclones with Edwards having three and McClung coming away with two. Edwards led Tech with three steals in the win over Utah State while Peavy had two.

RED RAIDERS TURN PRO: Four players would still have the opportunity to be playing for the Red Raiders this season if their talent hadn't caught the eye of the professional ranks. Zhaire Smith, Jarrett Culver and Davide Moretti would be seniors on this year's team while Jahmi'us Ramsey would be a sophomore. Smith was selected in the 2018 NBA Draft with the 17th pick of the first round, Culver turned pro after his sophomore season and was selected No. 6 overall by Minnesota and Moretti left to play professional back in his home country of Italy after his junior season. Ramsey left after his freshman season and was selected by the Sacramento Kings in the second round.

OUR LEADER: Beard is in his fifth season as the Texas Tech head coach where he has led the program to a 112-54 record, including an 8-2 mark in the NCAA Tournament. Beard was named the 2019 Associated Press National Coach of the Year and earned Big 12 Coach of the Year in 2018 and 2019. An assistant coach at Texas Tech under Bob and Pat Knight, Beard has amassed an impressive 142-59 record as a Division I head coach that started with one season at Little Rock where he was 30-5. He also has head coaching stops at Fort Scott Community College, Seminole State, McMurry and Angelo State in his collegiate career. Beard is the 17th head coach in Texas Tech history and reached 100 wins on Dec. 12, 2020 against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. He is the fastest Tech coach to reach that milestome following James Dickey (148 games), Bob Knight (150), Gerald Myers (152) and Polk Robison (170).

RED RAIDERS TURN PRO: Four players would still have the opportunity to be playing for the Red Raiders this season if their talent hadn't caught the eye of the professional ranks. Zhaire Smith, Jarrett Culver and Davide Moretti would be seniors on this year's team while Jahmi'us Ramsey would be a sophomore. Smith was selected in the 2018 NBA Draft with the 16th pick of the first round, Culver turned pro after his sophomore season and was selected by Minnesota and Moretti left to play professional back in his home country of Italy after his junior season. Ramsey left after his freshman season and was selected by the Sacramento Kings.

THE STAFF: Beard is assisted this season by associate head coach Mark Adams, assistant coaches Ulric Maligi and Bob Donewald, Casey Perrin (Chief of Staff), Sean Sutton (Advisor/Player Development), John Reilly (Strength & Conditioning) and associate athletic trainer Mike Neal. Adams is entering his fifth season on Beard's staff and also assisted him at Little Rock. A 1979 graduate of Texas Tech, Adams is a former head coach at Clarendon College, Wayland Baptist, West Texas A&M, Texas-Pan American and Howard College. He earned 2019 TABC Assistant Coach of the Year and is a member of multiple hall of fames, most recently being inducted into the NJCAA's Men's Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame Class for 2020. Donewald is in his second season on the staff, but his first as an assistant. He has extensive experience in professional basketball and worked last season as the program's director of player development. Maligi is also in his second season on the staff and is widely respected as one of the top emerging assistants in the nation. He led the charge in the recruitment of this year's signing class which was the highest ranked in program history. Reilly, a Killeen, Texas native who competed on the BYU Track & Field team, is also in his fifth season having led the strength and conditioning each year for Beard. Neal is in his second season, coming over from Little Rock where he played basketball and was the team's athletic trainer during Beard's year leading the program.

UNCOMFORTABLE – BEARD EXPLAINS: "Being comfortable gets you beat every single time. You see it all the time in sports. You win a big game and the next time there's a letdown and a loss. We've all seen that. Life is the same way. You can have a great day at work and you could take the edge off. It takes a special person, we use the word 'elite', to remain uncomfortable. Coach Knight would talk a lot about when things were going good that we need to shake the tree from time to time. Everybody expects the best and have focus during times of adversity, but only the elite people can push themselves each day to stay uncomfortable. I think being uncomfortable is where growth comes from. Uncomfortable is what you have to be to compete in the Big 12. Our guys have embraced this. Each season we try to have a theme and with this year's group, we just feel that if we can stay uncomfortable we'll be where we need to be. We like our talent. We like our culture. If this team can keep pushing and not get too high or too low by staying uncomfortable right there in the middle, we think we have a great chance to grow."

SENIOR MOMENT: Tech head student manager Ty Larson played in the team's final home game against lowa State. Larson, who has been with the program for two years after playing at Eastern Wyoming College, took a charge in the final minute and became a viral sensation. He is now back to his full-time student manager position and will graduate in May. He plans on becoming a college basketball coach.

DEPARTURES: The Red Raiders have had two players leave the program during the season with Joel Ntambwe departing on Dec. 1 and Nimari Burnett on Jan. 7. Ntambwe, who redshirted last season after transferring from UNLV, played in three games before making his decision. Burnett played a reserve role in the first 12 games, averaging 5.3 points per game and with 17 total steals.

COVID IMPACT: In an effort to ensure adequate levels of safety, Texas Tech will implement a reduced capacity to approximately 25% at The United Supermarkets Arena this basketball season. In addition to the limited seating capacity, fans will see the following safety protocols this season: Big 12 Conference has mandated an established perimeter around the playing surface – 20 feet behind both team benches and 12 feet on all other sides of the court. Face coverings for all patrons (fans and staff) will be required at all times. A 100 percent mobile ticketing process. Mobile ordering in our concession areas to decrease contacts throughout the concourse. Kirby Hocutt said: "Our staff has worked diligently to ensure we accommodate as many of our fans as possible at our home basketball games. We also want to ensure we offer a safe and enjoyable experience, while being socially responsible."

NCAA BOUND: The Red Raiders were projected to make their third NCAA tournament last season before the season was canceled due to COVID 19. Tech, which advanced to the 2018 Elite 8 and 2019 National Championship final, had never made the NCAA tournament three straight seasons in program history. The Red Raiders finished last season with an 18-13 overall record and were 9-9 in conference play.

ABRUPT ENDING: Texas Tech was on the Sprint Center in Kansas City court warming up for its first-round matchup of the Big 12 Championship against Texas on Thursday, March 12, 2019 when both teams were pulled off the court. With the tournament being canceled, the Red Raiders went to the airport and returned home to Lubbock. Before arriving back to Texas that afternoon by plane, news broke that the NCAA had canceled the remainder of the season.

COVID RINGS: While the 2019-20 season ended without the opportunity to play for any postseason championships, Beard wanted to show his appreciation to the players who battled throughout the year. Each player on the roster received a ring to commemorate the season, a token of respect from Beard who felt it was important that the players could keep to remember the season that was cut short.

NBA DRAFT: Texas Tech's Jahmi'us Ramsey was selected by the Sacramento Kings with the 43rd pick of the 2020 NBA Draft on November 18, 2020. An Arlington, Texas native, Ramsey earned Big 12 Freshman of the Year, All-Big 12 Second Team, NABC All-District First Team, Big 12 All-Newcomer Team, Big 12 All-Freshman Team and was a three-time Big 12 Newcomer of the Week selection. Ramsey, who is the first Red Raider to earn Big 12 Freshman of the Year, finished the season fifth in the Big 12 in scoring and was second with a 42.6 percentage on 3-pointers and fifth with a 44.2 shooting percentage. Ramsey's selection in the NBA Draft gives the Red Raiders three straight years with a pick following Zhaire Smith (2018) and Jarrett Culver (2019). Tech has now had 25 players picked in the NBA Draft in its program history.

HISTORIC RUN: Texas Tech has ascended into one of the top college basketball programs in the nation under Beard. The program advanced to the 2018 NCAA Elite 8 in only his second season and then reached the Final Four for the first time in program history in his third season. The Red Raiders won the 2019 Big 12 regular-season championship before making their historic run in the 2019 NCAA Tournament. Tech started the postseason journey with wins over Northern Kentucky and Buffalo in the first and second rounds hosted in Tulsa and then went through Michigan and Gonzaga in the Sweet 16 and Elite 8 in Anaheim. TTU topped Michigan State in the Final Four in Minneapolis before falling to Virginia in the 2019 NCAA Championship Final in overtime. The national runner-up finish is the best showing in program history. Edwards, Benson and McCullar are the only players on the current roster who were on the Final Four team.

FIRST-ROUND STUDENTS: Zhaire Smith and Jarrett Culver remain Texas Tech students despite being drafted in the first round of the NBA Draft as underclassmen. Both are currently enrolled in online classes at TTU where they remain focused on graduating while also being in the early stages of their professional playing careers. Smith said: "It is very important to me to get my education while playing because graduating was my first goal before playing basketball. I also made a promise to my mom and Coach Beard that I will finish. It means a lot to have Coach Beard motivating me by saying that education is the key. It's going to mean a lot to my family to see me graduate because school is not easy at all for me. They are going to cry tears of joy when I finish."

CONTINUING EDUCATION: Davide Moretti left the program following his junior season to pursue a professional career back home in Italy, but remains a Texas Tech student in pursuit of his degree. Moretti took a full load of classes in the 2020 Fall Semester and is on track to graduate in May. A Bologna, Italy native he now plays for Olimpia Milano in the EuroLeague. Moretti finished his Tech career with 969 points and 166 3-pointers which ranks ninth all-time in the program. His 90.6 career free-throw percentage (213-for-235) is the all-time record that he established through 106 games played. He earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors following the 2019-20 season as a human science major at Texas Tech with a 3.68 GPA.

MALIGI DRAWS ATTENTION: Maligi was recognized during the offseason as one of 40 coaches on ESPN's "40 Under 40" list which highlights the top young coaches throughout the national college basketball landscape and The Athletic's 40 Under 40 which identified influential people in a variety of roles within college basketball who are under the age of 40. Maligi is entering his second season with the Red Raiders and was identified at No. 13 by ESPN on the list of head and assistant coaches. In the ESPN article, Myron Medcalf highlighted Maligi who turned 36 on May 14 by saying: "The Howard University product has identified and recruited some of the most talented players in the state of Texas and beyond, as proved by successful tenures as an assistant with Texas A&M, SMU and Stephen F. Austin before joining Chris Beard's staff before last season. By all accounts, Maligi possesses the attributes and leadership qualities necessary to one day guide a Power 5 program."

DOCUMENTING HISTORY: Over the summer ESPN aired "Eddie", a documentary about legendary college basketball coach Eddie Sutton.

The film covered many aspects of Eddie Sutton's life, including his family. Sean Sutton, one of Eddie's sons, was featured in the film and is entering his fourth season working with Beard at Tech as the program's director of player development and Beard's advisor. Sean played for his father at Kentucky and Oklahoma State and also worked for him as an assistant coach before being named the head coach at OSU. Talking about the documentary, Sean said: "To open up and talk about some of the things that went on behind the scenes for the public to view, I wouldn't necessarily say it was easy, but it was important. It was important to get an accurate depiction of his life and career."

ON THE NBA SIDELINES: Tech legend Darvin Ham continues to rise among the ranks of NBA assistant coaches where he helped lead Milwaukee to the best regular-season record (56-17) in the NBA last season. Ham, who became an iconic player nationally by ripping down a rim in the 1996 NCAA Tournament and winning the 1996 NCAA Slam Dunk Contest, played in the NBA from 1996-2005 and was on the Detroit Pistons' 2004 NBA Championship team. Ham was an Atlanta Hawks assistant coach from 2013-18 and has been on the Bucks sideline since the 2018 season where he is the lead assistant. He recently completed his bachelor's degree, earning his Texas Tech degree in 2019 – 23 years after leaving Lubbock to begin his professional basketball career.

HALL OF FAME SELECTION: Ronald Ross was selected for the 2020 Texas Tech Hall of Fame class during the offseason. Ross remains one of the beloved greats in the history of Texas Tech men's basketball as the former walk-on helped lead the Red Raiders to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including their first-ever trip to the Sweet 16 in 2005. Ross, a native of nearby Hobbs, New Mexico, was an All-Big 12 first team selection and an All-American by Basketball Times as a senior after averaging 17.5 points per game, 5.5 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 2.6 steals per game under head coach Bob Knight. Ross also established the single-season and career school records that year by recording 86 steals, pushing his career total to 204 over 132 games. He served as a graduate assistant the past two season under Beard following a professional career overseas.

CONTINUED IMPACT, DREAM COURT: Nancy Lieberman Charities teamed up with Texas Tech University and The Culver Foundation to give the City of Lubbock a brand new Dream Court. The new Dream Court is located at Duran Park in Lubbock. This court will serve as a safe play space for youth in the community to interact with friends, family and local law enforcement. "I am so excited for the Red Raiders, Jarrett Culver and the City of Lubbock to partner with Nancy Lieberman Charities to honor our beloved, Andre Emmett. We all deeply miss him and want his legacy to live on forever in the lives of people who were touched by his genuine kindness." Basketball Hall of Famer, Nancy Lieberman said. The Dream Court™ is 50-by-84 feet with two brand new basketball goals, and features a high-performance PowerGame™ surface from Sport Court® in signature Texas Tech red and black colors. Its centerpiece is the Dream Courts logo, flanked by the brands of all supporting organizations. Emmett, who is Texas Tech's all-time leading scorer, was murdered in 2019. A dedication ceremony was held on Friday, October 23.

TYSON SIGNS: Beard announced the signing of Jaylon Tyson to his national letter of intent for the 2021-22 academic year. A 6-foot-7 guard/forward from Allen, Texas, Tyson is a senior at John Paul II High School where he helped lead his team to its first-ever Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS) state championship last season. A four-star recruit by ESPN, Rivals and 247Sports, he earned TAPPS All-State first-team honors as a junior after averaging 24.4 points and 5.5 rebounds per game. ESPN currently lists Tyson as the seventh-best recruit in the state of Texas and 18th by the small forward position. 247Sports puts Tyson at No. 4 in Texas, while Rivals has him as the No. 34-ranked player nationally.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

BIG 12 PRESEASON POLL: Texas Tech was picked fifth in the 2020-21 Big 12 Men's Basketball Preseason Poll with Baylor at the top of the rankings as voted on by the league's head coaches. The Big 12 Preseason Polls began in the 1996-97 season with Tech being selected sixth. The Red Raiders were picked seventh in the 2018-19 preseason poll before going 14-4 to win their first Big 12 regular-season championship and were third in last year's preseason poll for their highest preseason ranking in program history.

BIG 12 PRESEASON AWARDS: Santos-Silva was named the Big 12 Preseason Newcomer of the Year while juniors Edwards and McClung are Big 12 Preseason Honorable Mention selections in the conference's preseason awards. Santos-Silva played the last three seasons at VCU where he was named NABC All-District Second Team and led his team in scoring (12.8), rebounding (8.9) and blocks (1.2). The senior forward also registered 10 double-doubles during the shortened season. Texas Tech boasts the preseason newcomer of the year in consecutive seasons as Chris Clarke grabbed the honor in 2019-20. Santos-Silva graduated from VCU over the summer and is the lone senior on this year's Texas Tech roster. Clarke and Charles Burgess (2006-07) are the only Red Raiders to be selected as the Big 12 Preseason Newcomer of the Year before Santos-Silva. Santos-Silva said: "I didn't come here for individual awards. I came here to win the Big 12 and win the National Championship. Awards and recognition are nice, but that's not my focus. I'm focused on team goals and success."

DR. TJ: Shannon has been selected as one of 20 players on the watch list for the 2021 Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year Award. Named after Class of 1993 Hall of Famer and 16-year professional basketball player Julius Erving, the annual honor in its seventh year recognizes the top small forwards in Division I men's college basketball. A national committee of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates that was announced by Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. A Chicago native, Shannon was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team last season after averaging 9.8 points and 4.1 rebounds per game. He started 21 of 29 games played and scored a season-high 24 points against DePaul and grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds at Kansas.

RED RAIDER CULTURE As decribed by coach Chris Beard following Final Four run

4:1 – The mental is to physical as four is to one. We talked a lot about being the most mentally tough team in the country. We knew our physical talent was there, but we thought for our team to compete and get over the top we would have to be able to overcome adversity and play tough at the end of games. I thought our team embraced it as well as I've ever seen and it's a huge reason we accomplished what we did.

The Secret's In The Dirt – We got it from Jason Whitten last summer when he retired. He spoke to his team about not playing the game for what the game can give you, but rather respect the game and putting in the day-today work. It really became a part of the culture during the season. No matter what happened throughout the season, we took the mentality that it was time to get back to work. When we had success, we would go right back to the dirt and work even harder. When we had adversity, we immediately refocused and got back to work. The secret for us was in the dirt."

Smell the Roses – We wanted to be one of the teams that put ourselves in a position to win the whole thing and part of that was a plan. It started for us with smelling the roses. We wanted to embrace the NCAA Tournament and the fact that we had won the Big 12 regular-season championship. We weren't going to shy away from enjoying the experience. We were going to enjoy the bus rides, flights, meals, press conferences, practice and games.

Street Dogs – We pride ourselves on being the underdog and proving people wrong. Even though we were ranked and competing for championships, we still never lost that street dog in each of us. We didn't have five-star recruits or guys that felt entitled. We had a bunch of hungry, tough guys who fought for each other.

Stone-Faced – I got this when I was coaching the Swiss National Team and we played Russia. I had never seen anything like it. They were tough with zero emotion. They would make a great play and went on to the next play. They hit some adversity and moved right on. A call went against them, no emotion. I loved that terminology of stone-faced and our team proved to be level-headed throughout to lock in. It was a big part of our run where we stayed the course. Be Us – When it came time to play the game we wanted to be the same team that had won the Big 12, that had earned a three seed. We didn't want to change who we were just because of the stage we were now on. I thought our guys did a great job of being themselves throughout everything all season.

Truth Tellers – It sounds obvious, but we pride ourselves in telling every player and every coach the truth all the time. We don't play mind games. We don't have time for fluff in our culture. We weren't going to feed into egos by trying to build someone up too much and we weren't going to shy away from coaching them tough. We were truth tellers from the first day and it helped build really solid relationships.

Get in the Fight – We put ourselves in the fight and ultimately won it this year. You have to continuously put yourself in the fights to win them. It's a series of fights that you have to win. You're never going to win anything if you don't put yourself in a position to be in the fights along the way. The perennial powers go about a season by winning parts of the season that progresses to the ultimate goal. Our team did a great job of winning fights.

Don't Lose Your Chip – Our closed-door scrimmage against Houston was a great experience for our guys and after the game coach (Kelvin) Sampson came in and talked to our team. We have nothing but respect for him and he told us to never lose our chip. He reminded us who we were. We're not North Carolina or Kansas with their tradition. We are Texas Tech. A younger, immature team may not have understood but we did. It was a message to never lose that edge you need to be great. We were unranked at that time and our guys fed into. Coach Sampson reminded us to be true to who we are and to play with that chip on our shoulder.

Dreamers – At my press conference when I was hired here at Tech I said that we were going to compete for the conference championship and to make the Final Four. A lot of people thought I was crazy, so I need to associate myself with people who dream like I do. The first step to doing anything special is having high expectations and a vision. Then you go to work. This year's team was on the same page. We thought from the first day that we could win the Big 12 championship and then for the national championship. This was a group of dreamers who worked to reach their dreams.

"T'm fearless and not afraid of the big moments. I'll always compete at the highest level. My goal for this team is to win a national championship. We're all on the same page with that. The biggest thing about this program and our team is our culture. Everyone cares about each other and what we're doing to achieve our goals. Everyone is focused. I expect myself to make a huge leap this year. Our coaching staff has a belief in me that gives me confidence and makes me understand the potential I have. I'm trusting the process and really looking forward to this season."

Terrence Shannon, Jr. Sophomore | Guard | Chicago, Illinois

"I feel confident in being able to get downhill at a high level and I'm improving my shooting. I really worked hard on each part of my game throughout the offseason to be the best player I can be. My mindset with the ball in my hand is to make the right play and take what the defense gives me. I can drive on them but I've worked to be able to produce in other ways too. On defense I can get off-the-ball steals and have become an overall better defender than last year. For us to win we have to play hard on every possession. Defense leads us to winning. I feel like everyone here wants everyone else to succeed. From the coaches to each of my teammates, we're all in this together. Everyone roots and pushes each other every day. I feel like I can achieve a lot of stuff this year. I'm not putting a limit on anything. I'm going to be the best version of myself every day."

Twe really learned throughout my career how important each possession is. Taking care of the ball and not turning it over is really important to winning games. I believe the team that plays harder and smarter has a great chance at winning each and every night. I'm a strong guard who is always willing to guard the other team's best player. Wheever is in front of me is going to be tested to find a good shot. They will always shoot a contested shot against me. The togetherness of this program is great. We are a big family who supports each other. Everyone is confortable with other players shining and we all work hard to get better. We are embracing being uncomfortable. You have to be comfortable being uncomfortable and that's what we're working towards. We can never be content. By us putting ourselves in uncomfortable situations right now and working through everything going on in the world, it's going to enable us to grow as players and as a team."

"I love to compete. I'm going to be a lockdown defender and make plays for my teammates. I've been working on a lot of things, but especially my decision making. My defense is improving and my shot. I'm really confident that I'll be able to knock down big shots for the team this year. I'm locked in and ready to win. We are a really tight team with great team chemistry. There's a lot of talent and everyone wants to win and compete. The best thing we have right now is everyone is listening and wanting to get better. We're a good team that wants to improve. I want to be the best on-ball defender and never give up an easy basket. I'm ready to get out of my comfort zone and push myself to get better."

© @mjpv5 | @mjpv5 | © "Tm a versatile player who is always going to compete. I can do a lot of different things offensively and can defend multiple positions. Coming in this season I'm ready to learn from our older guys. I'm here to take everything in and put it into my game to be successful this year. My mentality on offense is to score or make the right play. I'm ready to drive to the basket or make a pass to set up the open man. I'm coming from a winning program and see a lot of similarities. Everyone here wants to win and are doing everything it takes to achieve our goals. Our culture is one that is just like a family.

© @cutup_reek | @cutup.reek © "Tm going to bring toughness, big dunks and a lot of energy. I think I grew a lot last year when I was sitting out and not playing. I feel like my basketball IQ got better and I see the game a different way now. I'm going to play my role and help the team. That's all I care about right now. I want to swat every shot that comes into the paint. I'm going bring energy and get the clean-up buckets."

AWARDS

• Big 12 Preseason Newcomer of the Year (2020-21)

PRIOR TO TEXAS TECH: Santos-Silva arrived at Texas Tech after playing three seasons at VCU and earning his bachelor's degree in Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness... He is coming off a junior season where he earned NABC All-District Second Team and Atlantic 10 All-Academic Team... He transfers having accumulated 828 points, 620 rebounds and 92 blocked shots through 97 games in his career... Santos-Silva recorded 10 double-doubles during the 2019-20 season for the Rams and led VCU in scoring with 12.8 points per game after averaging 10.0 points per game in his sophomore season... A 6-foot-7 forward, he's coming off a season where he also led his team in rebounds (8.9) and blocks (1.2) per game and finished the shortened season shooting 56.9 percent from the field... Santos-Silva led VCU in scoring in 20 games after he earned Atlantic 10 All-Tournament honors as a sophomore following a 26-point, 22-rebound game against Rhode Island in the quarterfinals... He matched that career-high performance last season by going off for 26 points at George Mason where he was 10-for-14 from the field and also had 14 rebounds.

PERSONAL: Son of Jackie and Louie... Has two siblings, Luis and Arianna. Signed with Texas Tech on April 30, 2020.

• @Marcus7345 | @marcus_silva97 • "I'm going to bring leadership and make sure we compete every single day. We're not going to have any bad days. The game is not just physical, it's mental. You have to bring it every day. If you don't then you're going to be exposed. It's a different animal at this level of basketball. We're a close team that is already treating each other like we're brothers. Our connections are good on the court and off the court. We're a lot of hardnosed dudes. Coach likes to say we're street dogs and we go after it every single day. Our main goal and focus is to win the national championship. Everything we do is to get closer to that goal. No matter what's going on, once we get to the arena we know it's time to work as a hard as we can to reach our goals."

Kevin McCullar Redshirt Sophomore | Guard | San Antonio, Texas

"I see myself coming in and doing anything I can to help the team win. I'm the type of player that gives it everything I have on offense and defense to create plays for the team. When I see the ball in the air I'm just going up to secure it however I need to. Every possession counts and I value every play. We're a very talented group this season and we're coming together more every time we step on the court for practice. We're building our chemistry. All I try to do is win every day and embrace anything that comes my way. You never know what's going to happen, but if you work hard and are never unsatisfied you're going to get better and become more prepared for big moments."

"I bring toughness. I'll never take a day off and will knock down shots. I'm coming in trying to be a solid player right away with no turnovers, make open shots and the right play. I can do the dirty work and get rebounds on defense and score on offense. If there's space between my defender and me, I'm going to shoot it and know that I can make it. On the court, you have to understand when you make a mistake and not make it again. At this level, one mistake can be the difference in a game and I have to do everything I can to help us win."

"Tm going to be a leader and be the toughest guy on the court. My goal this year is to become a better leader and help fulfill that role for the team this year. I'm a fourth-year guy who can help the younger guys through their first year. Our team goal in this program is to always play on that final Monday night under the big lights. We're a program that has the goal to win championships every season and I like the team we're going into the year with. This team has some swagger and basketball-savy guys who love the game. Our young guys have come in ready to play and ready to learn. Marcus, Kyler and myself are some of the old dogs who are tough and ready to fight every day. I think it's going to be a really exciting season for our team and fans."

Vladislav Goldin Freshman | Forward | Nalchick, Russia

"I think I can do many things but I need to work hard to get better. I want to play aggressive, play hard and be smarter. I've always been the tallest player on all my teams and try to use that as an advantage. I take up more space and work hard around the basket. I don't want to give up the middle on defense. I want to make it hard on them. Blocking shots is important. I'm tall and that's my job. I'm excited to be on this team. It's an amazing place and I've never seen anything like it. We have everything here to help us. Our team hangs out all the time and the coaches believe in us."

CAREER AND TEXAS TECH

Chris Beard has led Texas Tech to a 112-54 record where the Red Raiders have advanced to the 2019 National Final after reaching the Elite Eight in 2018 for the first time in program history. With the win over Utah State, Beard is now 9-2 in the NCAA Tournament leading Tech and 10-3 overall. He was named the program's 17th head coach on April 15, 2016 by Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt and Interim University President Dr. John Opperman. Beard was named the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year for the second straight season after guiding the team to the Big 12 Conference regular-season championship and then earned Associated Press National Coach of the Year honors.

In the shortened 2019-20 season due to the coronavirus pandemic, Beard led the Red Raiders to an 18-13 overall record and to a third-place tie in the Big 12 standings before the postseason was canceled due to the virus. The season was highlighted by knocking off No. 1 Louisville with a 70-57 win at the Jimmy V Classic at Madison Square Garden in New York and a 46-point victory over TCU (88-42) which is the largest margin of victory in Big 12 play in the program's history. Beard's record in home games is at 74-13 as the Texas Tech head coach.

Beard led the 2018-19 team to a national runner-up finish and a 31-7 overall record after earning NCAA Tournament wins over Northern Kentucky and Buffalo in the first and second rounds in Tulsa, a Sweet 16 victory over Michigan and then an Elite Eight win over Gonzaga in Anaheim. The program reached the Final Four for the first time in program history under Beard and knocked off Michigan State with a 61-51 victory to advance to the title game. Beard and the Red Raiders took Virginia to overtime in the championship game before falling 85-77 to finish as the national runner-up.

Beard elevated the Red Raiders to an elite level of success following a 27-10 record and the program's first NCAA Elite Eight trip in 2017-18. The 27 wins are the second-highest in program history only behind the 30-2 mark put together by the 1995-96 team under James Dickey. He came away as the 2018 Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year, the 2018 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 8 Coach of the Year, the 2018 United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District VII Coach of the Year and the 2018 John McClendon National Coach of the Year award recipient.

Texas Tech garnered a program-best No. 6 final ranking in the USA Today/Coaches Top 25 poll. The Red Raiders checked in as a consensus Top 15 program for the final 10 weeks of the regular season highlighted by six Top 10 rankings. The 1995-96 season was the only other time the program was ranked among the nation's Top 10.

Texas Tech earned a program-best second place finish in the Big 12 regular season and set a program single season mark with 11 Big 12 wins. The Red Raiders registered the program's first victory at Allen Fieldhouse during a wire-to-wire 85-73 win over No. 10 Kansas on Jan. 8, 2018, the largest conference home loss for the Jayhawks under Bill Self.

Over his first two seasons in Lubbock, Beard has captured 45 victories which is tied with Bob Knight for the most wins in program history for a coach during their first two seasons. He has already picked up 11 wins over AP Top 25 opponents, the second-highest total for a head coach in program history and shattering the program's record during a two-year span. Beard also has been a part of 13 of Texas Tech's 20 wins over AP Top 10 foes as either a head coach or an assistant coach.

Beard has either coached and/or recruited 15 of Texas Tech's 20 All-Big 12 selections highlighted by seven of the 10 players listed on the first, second and third teams in program history. Keenan Evans was named Texas Tech's first All-Big 12 First-Team pick since Jarius Jackson in 2006-07. He took his game to another level in 2017-18 and became the third player in program history to claim consensus All-America status from the AP, NABC, Sporting News and USBWA. Evans also was a Top 10 finalist for the Bob Cousy Award, a Top 15 finalist for the Wooden Award and a Top 10 semifinalist for the Naismith Trophy.

Zhaire Smith and Jarrett Culver finished the 2017-18 season ranked first and second on the program's scoring list among freshmen. Smith was the program's first one-and-done NBA prospect and program's second NBA Draft First Round selection. He was chosen No. 16 overall by the Phoenix Suns and traded to the Philadelphia 7ders as part of a draft night trade. Evans has signed a two-way contract with the Detroit Pistons, while Zach Smith has earned a training camp invite by the Charlotte Hornets. The last time the Red Raiders had three players on NBA rosters during the same season was in 2004-05 when Tony Battie was with the Orlando Magic, Andre Emmett was with the Memphis Grizzlies and Darvin Ham was with the Detroit Pistons.

Texas Tech's defense allowed 64.8 points per game and limited opponents to a 40.1 shooting percentage to pace the Big 12 conference in 2017-18. It marked the first time in program history that the Red Raiders ended the season as the Big 12 leader and both marks ranked inside the NCAA's Top 20. Offensively, Texas Tech has connected for over a 46.0 percent team field goal percentage during consecutive seasons for the first time since 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Texas Tech has had six seasons with a winning record in Big 12 conference play, five of which came when Beard was an assistant coach. The Red Raiders also have recorded five of their six top half finishes in the Big 12 during Beard's time as an assistant coach.

Beard guided Little Rock to a historic turnaround in 2015-16 fueled by 30 victories, which was a program single season record and Sun Belt single season mark. The Trojans claimed the Sun Belt regular season and tournament titles en route to the program's fifth NCAA Tournament bid.

Little Rock overcame a 14-point deficit during the final five minutes of the second half and won an 85-83 double overtime thriller over No. 12-ranked and fifth-seed ed Purdue in the NCAA Tournament. The Trojans also registered road victories over San Diego State, Tulsa and DePaul to spark a 10-0 regular season start. The 10game winning streak to start the season matched a Little Rock program record.

Beard's 30-5 record in his only season at Little Rock was a 15-game improvement from a 13-18 campaign prior to his arrival. The 15-game improvement was tied for the NCAA's top spot in 2015-16, while his 30 victories was tied for sixth by a first-year Division I head coach. Little Rock's 27 wins and .871 winning percentage led the nation during the regular season. For his efforts, Beard collected National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 24 and Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Beard's roots in Lubbock and West Texas run deep. He spent 10 years at Texas Tech which included seven seasons as an assistant coach under Hall of Fame Coach Bob Knight and three seasons as an associate head coach under Pat Knight. He was on the Texas Tech bench on January 1, 2007, when the Red Raiders defeated New Mexico making Bob Knight the NCAA's men's all-time career wins leader.

The Red Raiders racked up 188 victories -- the best 10-year stretch in program history -- while Tech piled up four NCAA Tournament bids and three NIT appearances. His tenure with the Red Raiders was highlighted by Tech's run to the 2005 NCAA Sweet 16 where the Red Raiders defeated UCLA and No. 11-ranked and three-seeded Gonzaqa in the first two rounds.

Beard spent two seasons at Angelo State from 2013-15 where he secured NABC South Central Region and Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year after he guided the Rams to a program record-setting 28 wins and the program's first NCAA Division II Sweet 16 appearance in 2014-15. Angelo State began the season with a 17-0 record and finished with a No. 19 national ranking. Prior to Beard's arrival, the Rams suffered three consecutive losing seasons which included a 9-17 mark in 2012-13.

Before Angelo State, Beard was the head coach at McMurry University and for the American Basketball Association's (ABA) South Carolina Warriors. McMurry went 19-10 with Beard at the helm during the program's first season as a Division II member in 2012-13. The Warriors won the 2012 Mid Atlantic Championship, advanced to the ABA finals and notched a 31-2 mark as a first-year franchise.

Along with developing successful players throughout his career, Beard has helped three of his assistant coaches land head coaching roles with Wes Flanigan taking over the Little Rock program in 2016, Chris Ogden being named the UT Arlington head coach in 2018 and Brian Burg's hire at Georgia Southern in 2020.

Raised in Irving, Texas, Beard's coaching career began in the Lone Star State as a graduate assistant at Incarnate Ward followed by a pair of assistant coaching stints at Abilene Christian and North Texas. He worked under the guidance of Danny Kasper at UW, Shanon Hays at ACU and Vic Trilli at UNT.

Leading into his time as an assistant with Texas Tech, Beard's first two head coaching opportunities came at Fort Scott Community College in Kansas and Seminole State College in Oklahoma. He led Seminole State College to a 25-6 record and a No. 14 national ranking in 2000-11 after Fort Scott came away with 19 victories and a NJCAA Regional appearance in 1999-2000.

Beard earned his Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas in 1995 where he worked as a student assistant for Tom Penders. He completed his master's degree in education from Abilene Christian in 1998.

Beard played his high school basketball for Mike Kunstadt at Irving High School and for Terry Priest at McCullough High School. He has three daughters: Avery, Ella and Margo.
