Arkansas Razorbacks finish 7th in 2021 NCAA Indoor

Scoring 22 points, 16 of which were accomplished on the final day, enabled Arkansas to finish in a tie for seventh place at the NCAA Indoor Championships

In placing fourth in a very competitive 60m hurdle final, Phillip Lemonious set another career best in clocking a 7.54 to improve upon the 7.60 he ran in the prelims. Another Razorback claiming fourth place points was Amon Kemboi in the 3,000m as he posted a time of 7:50.54.

In the 4x400 relay, the Razorbacks placed sixth overall clocking a 3:06.35. An anchor leg split of 45.64 by James Milholen followed the first three legs that included Jeremy Farr (47.56), Jalen Brown (46.88), and Rhayko Schwartz (46.27).

Kieran Taylor finished seventh in the 800m with a 1:50.79, joining his father Gary as an individual Razorback All-American.

Arkansas produced a pair of sixth place efforts on the second day of the meet.

The distance medley relay ran 9:33.65 with a foursome of Reese Walters (2:58.61), James Milholen (45.85), Jadon Bartholomew (1:49.98) and Andrew Kibet (3:59.21). Ryan Brown reached a distance of 25-8 ¼ (7.83) for sixth in long jump.

Razorbacks defend SEC Indoor title, claim title No. 24

Claiming it's 24th SEC Indoor championship among the 30 contested since Arkansas joined the league, the Razorbacks achieved the title with a very rare feat.

Arkansas displayed the importance of its depth in securing the team title without an individual or relay title among the 17 events contested indoors. It's the first time in the history of the SEC Indoor, dating back to 1957, for a team to accomplish a championship in such a manner.

Arkansas totaled 116 points for the victory, scoring in every event except three – 200m, high jump and shot put.

The Razorbacks also completed its third set of consecutive titles since 2013, when the conference expanded to its current configuration. The set of title years includes 2013 & 2014, 2016 & 2017, as well as 2020 & 2021.

"It shows our depth, but also shows how tough this conference is and the great athletes across the board," noted Bucknam. "It's hard to compete in this league and on top of that to win."

"We put the lineup together to score points. We might not have hit any homeruns, but we hit a lot of doubles and triples and singles. Our on base percentage was pretty good because we ended up winning the meet."

Finishing behind Arkansas were LSU (93), Alabama (72), Ole Miss (70.5), Florida (57), Tennessee (50), Kentucky (47), Auburn (45), Texas A&M (44.5), Georgia (31), South Carolina (16), Missouri (15), and Mississippi State (5).
