INSIDE THE ROPES

- » Despite having a relatively young roster during the 2020-21 season, Head Coach Shauna Taylor's Hogs clinched the 19th Regional Bid in program history.
- » This is the 18th straight bid, and the 13th for Taylor since she took over the program.
- » The Hogs were led by Brooke Matthews, who has put together a great campaign.
- » She had four top-10 finishes, three top-five finishes, two runner-ups and one win on the season, which came at the Blessings Collegiate Invitational.
- » Matthews' 72.50 stroke average during the course of the 20-21 season is the 10th best mark in program history.
- » Freshman Cory Lopez was big during her freshman season, as she has played in all nine events, posting a stroke average of 73.70, the second best mark on the squad.
- » The sophomore trio of Ela Anacona, Julia Gregg and Kajal Mistry have also contributed to the cause during the season, as each has played 24+ rounds.
- » Arkansas once again advanced to match play at the SEC Tournament, falling to No. 1 seed LSU.
- » The Hogs fell in a playoff at the NCAA Louisville Regional, losing to No. 1 South Carolina after tying the Gamecocks for sixth.
