Arkansas Razorbacks | 2021 NCAA Indoor Champions

Arkansas successfully defended its 2019 NCAA Indoor championship with the 2021 title as the Razorbacks hosted the national meet. The Hogs made history by becoming the first women's team to claim a national indoor championship without having an individual or relay victory in the meet.

In producing the third-highest winning team score at NCAA Indoor with 68 points, the Razorbacks scored 58 points on the final day to overcome a 16-point deficit to Texas A&M, who finished as runner-up 11 points behind Arkansas.

Totaled 20 first-team All-America honors by 16 individuals and had 10 second-team All-America honors. The Razorbacks produced four silver medalists and three bronze medalists.

Final day started with Arkansas scoring 14 points in the mile off a silver and bronze medal finish from Krissy Gear and Kennedy Thomson. Three Razorbacks scored in the 3,000m, totaling 17 points, and pushed Arkansas into the lead and secured the title prior to the 4x400 relay. The effort was led by Lauren Gregory in second place while Katie Izzo and Abby Gray finished fourth and fifth, respectively.

7th consecutive SEC Indoor Championship, 11th overall for Razorbacks

In winning a seventh consecutive SEC Indoor championship, the No. 1 Arkansas Razorbacks totaled 141 points and bettered the conference field by 60 points.

Since the league expanded to 14 teams in 2012-13, this total for the Razorbacks was the second highest winning score, just 10 shy of the 151 points Arkansas scored in 2019, the last time they hosted the SEC Indoor meet.

This marked the eighth time for Arkansas men and women to sweep SEC Indoor titles since joining the league and it's the fifth time to accomplish the feat since 2012-13 when the conference expanded to 14 schools.
