BLESSINGS GOLF CLUB / HOME OF RAZORBACK GOLF

Blessings Golf Club, opened in 2004, was developed by Tyson Foods Chairman Mr. John Tyson with the vision of being a club of comfort to its members and their guests by providing a superior golfing experience designed to test championship golfers on every shot. The Club is located in Johnson, Arkansas, and is the home to the University of Arkansas Men's and Women's Golf Teams.

The impeccably maintained course stretches to over 7,900 yards from the back tees and plays through two distinct landforms – the Clear Creek floodplain and a plateau that rises to 65 feet above the floodplain where it's bisected by a series of ravines. Both the outward and inward nines climb up and down between the two topographies, creating drama and variety on each hole. The course was originally designed by architect Robert Trent Jones, Jr., with a redesign recently completed by noted architect Kyle Phillips. Phillips started work in 2015, and the project almost was complete in 2016 when extreme flooding covered several lower parts of the course along a creek. The redesign stretched into 2017.

The Blessings has a course rating of 80.9 and slope of 155 off the longest tees, marking it as among the most difficult golf courses in the world. (The average slope rating for a U.S. course is 113.) In fact, the 483-yard, par 4 might be one of the toughest opening holes in the game according to Golfweek.

The extensive practice areas are unrivaled and provide both indoor and outdoor facilities. The Indoor Short Game Practice and Fitness Facility includes a 9,000 square foot short game practice area with a 3,000 square foot putting and chipping green designed by Dave Pelz. The facility also provides a state-of-the-art 2,000 square foot fitness facility.

The Razorback Center houses five indoor hitting bays and one private teaching bay with video analysis equipment. The building also includes locker facilities and a break room for the University of Arkansas golf teams.

The outdoor practice areas feature a range with multiple teeing areas and numerous range targets to allow realistic practice sessions. The short game facilities include several bentgrass putting and short game greens as well as a bermudagrass green. A separate three-acre short game practice area has also been added which features practice greens that are 4,500 and 16,000 square feet in size, practice bunkers and a putting green.

The clubhouse, a Marlon Blackwell design, has won numerous awards including recognition by Architectural Digest as one of the top golf clubhouses in the world. Amenities include a well-appointed golf shop, locker facilities, multiple dining venues and a pool.

The Blessings has hosted the 2012 SEC Women's Championship, the 2013 NCAA Fayetteville Men's Golf Regional and the 2019 NCAA Division I Women's and Men's Golf Championships.

The course contact is Richard Cromwell, CCM, PGA, General Manager/COO; and Justin Sellin, PGA, Head Golf Professional.

MR. JOHN TYSON, founder and owner of Blessings Golf Course, addresses media and local dignitaries at a 2019 NCAA Championship event.

COURSE RECORD

OVERALL:

64 Julian Perico (Arkansas) 2020

COMPETITION:

66 Matthew Wolff (Okla. State @ NCAA) 2019

HOLE 1

470-Yard • Par 4

The long par-4 first hole is one of the most challenging holes on the course. The fairways on 1 and 18 cross, which provides a unique dynamic at the beginning and end of each round. The tee shot must be accurately placed between the wetlands and the tree line and hit long enough to reach the corner of the dogleg. Players choosing a conservative line down the right may not have a clear shot to the green, which is positioned along Clear Creek.

HOLE 2

617-Yard • Par 5

The tee shot on this par 5 must be placed between groups of bunkers to be in position to hit an aggressive uphill second shot. The upper landing area has a fairway that slopes from right to left into a wide green with significant movement. The green is open in the front which allows players the opportunity to run the ball onto the putting surface in two.

HOLE 3

186-Yard • Par 3

The par 3 third hole has a challenging green complex that is nestled along a pond on the left and guarded by deep bunkers on the right and rear. Two separate teeing areas provide variety and substantially different angles of play.

HOLE 4

405-Yard • Par 4

This medium length par 4 requires an accurate tee shot that must challenge a bunker complex on the right to provide the optimum line of play for the second shot. The relatively small green has several demanding hole locations and is situated along a tall rock wall on Clear Creek.

HOLE 5

590-Yard • Par 5

This sweeping dogleg left par 5 requires an accurate tee shot that challenges the inside of the dogleg to provide a chance to reach the green in two. The elevated green has a lot of movement and is well protected by deep greenside bunkers and a large tree in the right-center of the fairway.

HOLE 6

359-Yard • Par 4

Depending on the tee location, the short par 4 may be drivable with a tee shot long enough to carry the cross bunker. While there are no bunkers protecting the elevated green, the false front and steep slopes require an accurate approach shot.

HOLE 7

515-Yard • Par 4

The long dogleg right par 4 plays along Clear Creek on the right side of the hole. The sloping fairway leaves a shot across the creek to a difficult putting surface.

HOLE 8

145-Yard • Par 3

The green on this short par 3 is in a rock quarry with a steep drop-off into Clear Creek on the right. It is one of the most picturesque holes on the course, but an accurate short iron is required to avoid trouble around the well-contoured green.

HOLE 9

386-Yard • Par 4

This par 4 plays significantly uphill and requires a strategically placed tee shot to successfully negotiate the fairway bunkering and to provide the optimum angle of play. The deepest bunkers on the course protect the putting surface.

HOLE 10

605-Yard • Par 5

The back nine starts with a par 5 that plays across ravines that must be negotiated on each shot. A speed slot down the right side of the fairway off the tee will provide additional roll and the possibility of reaching the putting surface on the second shot.

HOLE 11

408-Yard • Par 4

The short par 4 bends slightly to the right away from a grove of pines. Position off the tee is important to provide players the correct angle for the approach. The unique green has plenty of slope and challenging hole locations.

HOLE 12

439-Yard • Par 4

The sharp dogleg right par 4 plays slightly downhill from the left tee and back uphill into the green. The green is surrounded by bunkers and features a false front and a lower back section of the putting surface.

HOLE 13

225-Yard • Par 3

This par 3 is the longest on the course and requires a carry over a ravine to a putting surface with three distinct levels. Putting from the wrong level can present significant challenges.

HOLE 14

496-Yard • Par 4

The long par 4 plays significantly downhill and provides the best views on the course. Players trying to cut the corner of the dogleg off the tee will need a properly flighted tee shot across the ravine and bunkers to a narrow landing area. The wide, sloping green is protected by a ravine and bunker in the front and a steep cliff behind the green.

HOLE 15

560-Yard • Par 5

A risk-reward par 5, the tee shot plays downhill to a landing area that features a tree in the middle of the fairway. A properly positioned tee shot will open an angle to run the ball onto the green with the second shot. The large green has a wide variety of interesting hole locations with a deep collection area to the right and a 20' tall rock wall dropping into Clear Creek to the left.

HOLE 16

460-Yard • Par 4

The long par 4 starts a challenging three hole stretch back to the clubhouse. A well-positioned tee shot will allow the proper approach angle into the green. The green drops off into collection areas in the front, right and over the green. Balls landing too far left on the green will roll off into a sand bunker.

HOLE 17

206-Yard • Par 3

The last par 3 requires a tee shot along and across Clear Creek to a green situated just off the creek bank. The prevailing wind blows into the golfer and off the creek, requiring the golfer to match the proper line and distance on the shot into the narrow, angled green.

HOLE 18

478-Yard • Par 4

The final par 4 is the best one on the course. A properly played tee shot must carry Clear Creek and a wetlands area, to an angled fairway that is protected by several bunkers. The second shot is played uphill into a green with strategic hole locations and the backdrop of the clubhouse.

Sikes Wins Crown On 1st Extra Hole

WICHITA, Kan., June 22 (AP).—R. H. Sikes won the National Collegiate Athletic Association individual golf championship Saturday, 1 up in 37 holes, over John Lotz of San Jose State.

Sikes, playing for the University of Arkansas, won with a birdie-three on the par 4, first hole of the Wichita Country Club course.

The second round of the championship match featured a hole-in-one by Sikes on the 11th hole, a par-3 measuring 155 yards.

Sikes had led most of the day until the 14th hole where Lotz pulled even with a par 4 to Sikes' bogey 5.

Sikes' ace on the 155-yard 11th put him 3 up on Lotz, but the Californian pulled even on the 14th and went one up on the 16th. Sikes won the 18th with a par 4 and the title match went into extra holes.

For the 36 holes of championship play, Sikes was 3-under-par, shooting a 68 in the first round and a 69 in the second. Lotz had a first round 71 and a second round 67.

MASON OVERSTREET / 2017 NCAA RUNNER-UP

OVERSTREET FINISHES RUNNER-UP AT NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

SUGAR GROVE, ILL. – University of Arkansas freshman Mason Overstreet made a surge during the final day of the NCAA National Championship, finishing runner-up at Rich Harvest Farms for the second-best individual finish in program history.

Overstreet becomes the second player in school history to finish inside the top five at the National Championship, joining R.H. Sikes who won the program's only National Title in 1963.

"What Mason accomplished this week is incredible," said Arkansas head coach Brad McMakin after the championship. "He never lost focus or let the moment get to him. He is a special player and this is just the beginning of a great career."

Entering the final round six shots off the lead, Overstreet quickly jumped into contention after birdies on two of the first three holes. As strong winds and high scores brought the leaders back to the field, Overstreet made the turn to the back nine just two shots off the lead and proceeded to hole out from the bunker for birdie on No. 10 to close the gap to one stroke.

After a bogey on 11 and birdie on 12, the Kingfisher, Oklahoma, native found himself alone in second place and chasing Ole Miss' Braden Thornberry. Overstreet would post bogeys on 16 and 17, but he came back with a tap-in birdie on the 72nd hole of the championship to secure a runner-up finish with rounds of 70-68-72-71 - 281 (-7).

EPIC FINISH AT NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

TOLEDO, Ohio — Andrew Landry did the improbable.

With the University of Arkansas men's golf team tied at 2-2 with Texas A&M for the 2009 NCAA Championship, Landry rallied from four down to even in his match play dual with the Aggies' Burgoon heading into the final hole.

Unfortunately, he could not do the impossible, which was hit a long putt to match Texas A&M senior Bronson Burgoon's birdie and continue the match into additional holes.

Landry hit a perfect drive down the middle of the par-4 18th hole, but Burgoon pushed his tee shot into the right rough. Landry's approach came to rest on the front fringe about 30 feet from the hole. After Burgoon slashed his second shot out of the rough, the ball landed on the green and trickled toward the hole, almost going in before stopping six inches from the cup.

The match came down to the No. 1 players for both teams after Arkansas' No. 4 and 5 players (Jamie Marshall and Jason Cuthbertson) won their matches.

The runner-up finish for Arkansas capped off one of the most impressive seasons in school history and the campaign to the championships was loaded with tournament victories, individual accolades and consistent top 20 rankings.

Arkansas' road to the championship began in the fall with victories at the Maryland and the Fighting Irish Invitationals. Ethan Tracy captured his first career collegiate win at the first tournament of the year winning at Maryland. The Razorbacks finished the fall season ranked No. 6 in the nation with only one finish out of the top six.

For the year, Andrew Landry and David Lingmerth each had four top 10 finishes. Landry led the team with a stroke average of 72.39, and Lingmerth came in at 73.04. Other Arkansas key players included seniors Will Osborne, Allen McFerram and Jason Cuthbertson; sophomores Jamie Marshall and Sam Chavez; and freshmen Ethan Tracy and Chris Arvidsson.

Arkansas had a second-place finish at the SEC Championships with a 2-under 862. It was the best performance for the Razorbacks since they took the title thirteen years ago in 1995. McMakin was named SEC Coach of the Year, Landry earned All-SEC first team honors, Lingmerth was selected to the second team and Tracy was named to the SEC All-freshman team.

Following SEC's —and for the fifth straight tournament — Arkansas finished in second place, placing runner-up at the 2009 NCAA South Central Regional Championship.

The Razorbacks closed out the 2008-2009 season with six second-place finishes. Landry earned third team PING All-America honors and Lingmerth taking an honorable mention selection. The Arkansas trio of Landry, Lingmerth and Tracy were each selected to the PING All-Central Region team.

ORTIZ WINS 2019 LATIN AMERICA AMATEUR

Alvaro Ortiz shot a final-round, 6-under-par 66 - playing the final seven holes at 5-under par - to win the 2019 Latin America Amateur Championship, played at Teeth of the Dog Golf Course at Casa de Campo. Overall, Ortiz shot rounds of 66, 72, 70 and 66 for a 14-under par total of 274 and two-stroke victory.

With the win, Ortiz, a member of the Razorbacks' golf team from 2015-18, received an invitation to play in The Masters. He was the first player to represent Mexico at The Masters since Victor Regalado in 1979.

Ortiz opened the final round with a birdie on the par-4, 1st hole and he birdied the par-5, 5th. After a bogey on the 8th hole, Ortiz made a clutch putt for par on the 9th hole. He was one stroke back at the turn behind eventual runner-up Luis Gagne, who birdied five of his first 11 holes with no bogeys.

Ortiz began his impressive run to the title with back-to-back impressive approach shots on holes 12 and 13. He would eagle the 12th, to tie Gagne at the time at -11. On the 13th hole from the rough, Ortiz knocked his approach to inside five feet for a birdie. After three pars, the last on the 16th hole which helped him take a one-stroke lead, Ortiz laid up on the short par-4, 17th hole. He nearly holed out from 99-yards out to set up a kick-in birdie and give him a two-stroke lead heading to the 18th hole. On 18, Ortiz split the fairway on the 548-yard, par-5 and reached the green in two. After lagging his eagle putt to a safe distance, Ortiz capped the Championship with a birdie to win the title with a 6-under-par 66 in the final round.

Ortiz led by three strokes after day one with an opening-round, 6-under-par 66. He shot an even-par round of 72 on day two and stood one stroke back. Ortiz posted a 2-under-par 70 in round three and lead by one stroke heading into the final round Sunday.

At the 2019 Masters, Ortiz shot a final-round, 3-under-par 69, which was third-best total on the day. Overall, Ortiz was 2-under for the Championship, shooting rounds of 73-71-73-69=286 to finish in a tie for 36th. He won the Silver Medal as runner-up for low amateur by one stroke.

A 2018 Arkansas graduate, Ortiz earned a berth to The Masters after winning the 2019 Latin America Amateur Championship in January. Ortiz became just the third Mexican-born golfer to play in The Masters.

BUHL WINS 2019 CANADIAN AMATEUR

William Buhl reeled off 17 pars and birdied the final hole to capture the 115th Canadian Men's Amateur Championship in convincing fashion (Aug. 5-8, 2019). He carded rounds of 69-68-67-69 for a 9-under-par, 72-hole-total of 273 to win by eight strokes at Glen Arbour Golf Course.

With the win, Buhl earned a berth into the 2019 U.S. Amateur and the 2020 RBC Canadian Open on the PGA Tour.

Buhl is the second Norwegian to play the Canadian Men's Amateur in the competition's 115-year history. With the victory, he is the first Norwegian to win a tournament on Canadian soil since Suzann Pettersen won the (now defunct) 2015 Manulife LPGA Classic as well as the 2009 CP Women's Open.

MATT BORTIS (pictured) and DARREN HOLDER own the school record by shooting a 63 in a single round. Interestingly, while it was Arkansas' third event of 2002-03, it was Holder's first career event played and his 63 came in round two after an opening-round 82. The Razorbacks established a school record by shooting a 21-under-par 267 in that second round as all four counting scores were in the 60's.
