BY THE NUMBERS

There are only six active NCAA head coaches who have more career Division I wins to their credit than Rick Barnes (749).

All-SEC candidate Santiago Vescovi has made more 3-pointers during SEC play (54) than any player in the league.

Tennessee allows a stingy 62.0 ppg during SEC home games this season, with a scoring margin of +10.5 ppg and an unbeaten record.

NOTEWORTHY

DOUBLE-BYE IN TAMPA SECURED

- Tennessee has secured a double-bye in the SEC Tournament in Tampa. The top-four seeds earn automatic placement in Friday's quarterfinal round.
- If the tournament started today, the Vols would enter as the No. 3 seed.

SECOND TIME'S A CHARM

• Since 2018, Rick Barnes and his staff have guided the Volunteers to an 18-5 record in regular-season rematch games (SEC Tournament games not included).

NATION'S THIRD-RATED DEFENSE

- Twice during the Barnes era, Tennessee's adjusted defensive efficiency (per KenPom) has ranked among the top 10 nationally.
- KenPom currently rates Tennessee's defensive efficiency as the third-best in the country.
- Last year's Vols finished the season with the nation's fifth-best defensive efficiency, allowing only 88.1 points per 100 possessions.

SEASON	DEF. EFF.	NAT'L RANK
2021-22	87.2	3
2020-21	88.1	5
2019-20	95.8	62
2018-19	96.5	42
2017-18	92.4	6
2016-17	97.5	55

DEFENSIVE HIGHLIGHTS

- The Vols rank fourth in the country in steal percentage, logging steals on 13.8 percent of opponents' possessions.
- Six times this season, the Vols have held an SEC foe to 60 points or fewer; UT is 5-1 in those games.
- In handing No. 6 Arizona its first loss of the season, the Vols were the first team to hold the Wildcats who boasted the highest scoring average in Division I (91.0 ppg)—to fewer than 80 points.
- Tennessee's 76-36 win over UNC Greensboro on Dec. 11 marked UT's fewest points allowed during the shot-clock era. It was the lowest point total for an opponent since Ohio Northern scored 33 in 1983.
- The Vols are forcing 16.5 turnovers per game and averaging 18.5 points off turnovers
- The Vols have forced 25 or more turnovers three times this season, including a Barnes-era best 27 turnovers forced in the win over Ole Miss (Jan. 5).
 The Vols average 27.6 pass deflections per game.
- The opponents' leading scorer this season averages 17.9 ppg against the Vols. Only nine different players so far have scored 20 or more against Tennessee.

SANTI SEEING A BIG RIM, BUT NOW MORE THAN JUST A SNIPER

- With 84 made 3-pointers this season, All-SEC candidate Santiago Vescovi is on pace to finish the season with the seventh-most made threes in program history (90).
- Vescovi is averaging 2.9 made threes per game.
- It took Vescovi only 18 games this season to surpass his total of 53 3-pointers in 27 games last year.
- Vescovi this season is a more balanced scorer as well. While he made just 18 total 2-point field goals last season, he's made 40 2-point field goals this year—many of them layups.

FULKY AT THE FOUR

- Tennessee is +34 in 42:40 over its last five games when John Fulkerson is playing the four (8.5 mins per game). For much of the past two seasons, Fulkerson's minutes came primarily at the five spot.
- While playing the four during the Feb. 15 win over Kentucky, Fulkerson used his quickness to effectively guard Keion Brooks Jr. and Jacob Toppin.
- Fulkerson over the last five games is averaging 7.0 points and 4.6 rebounds while making of 11 of 12 attempts at the free-throw line.

AIDOO'S EMERGENCY EMERGENCE

- A Feb. 5 injury to starting forward Olivier Nkamhoua created an immediate need for additional frontcourt support, and 6-11 true freshman Jonas Aidoo has answered the call.
- Prior to Nkamhoua's injury, Aidoo had logged just 14 total minutes in six appearances this season.
- But in the win over No. 4 Kentucky, Aidoo delivered a breakout performance against the Cats and national player of the year candidate Oscar Tshiebwe. In 18 productive minutes, Aidoo totaled five points, seven rebounds (three offensive) and three blocks. Two of those blocks were on attempts by Tshiebwe.
- Aidoo's plus/minus rating vs. Kentucky was a gamehigh +18.
- Over the last five games, Aidoo is averaging 4.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 1.2 blocks.

GUP STEPPING UP IN TIME FOR MARCH

- Another true freshman forward, Brandon Huntley-Hatfield (known to his teammates as "Gup"), is playing his best basketball of the season as the Vols enter March.
- A starter for each of the last seven games, BHH averaged 5.5 points, 7.0 rebounds (4.5 offensive) and one block spanning last week's wins over Missouri and No. 3 Auburn.

AS POSTSEASON APPROACHES, VOLS CRASHING OFFENSIVE GLASS

- Tennessee has risen to 28th in the country in offensive rebounds per game (12.3).
- At the end of January, the Vols ranked 50th nationally in offensive rebounding.
- Tennessee is averaging 11.8 orpg during SEC play and has totaled 10 or more offensive boards in 14 of 17 SEC games this season.
- The Vols pulled down 21 offensive rebounds in its win over No. 3 Auburn on Feb. 26.

VOLS SECOND-BEST IN NATION AT DENYING SECOND-CHANCE POINTS

- Per analytics website Haslametrics.com, Tennessee ranks second in the nation in defensive second-chance point conversion percentage.
- The Vols' defensive SCC% of 2.74 is a result of dividing the field goal conversions that occur five seconds or less after an offensive rebound by the total number of opponents' missed field goals.
- Tennessee's active hands on defense often lead to a block or strip steal after offensive boards by the opposing team.

ABOUT ARKANSAS

- Arkansas (24-6, 13-4 SEC) has won five straight games and 14 of its past 15 games entering Saturday's regular-season finale in Knoxville.
- A win on Saturday would guarantee Arkansas no worse than a No. 2 seed in the SEC Tournament, which would mark their second straight season finishing the regular season as the SEC's secondplace team.
- The Razorbacks are 11-4 in Quadrant 1 and 2 games this season, including wins over Kentucky, Tennessee, Auburn and LSU (twice).
- Arkansas is 5-3 in true road games this season while owning a 17-1 mark at home. The Razorbacks have lost at Mississippi State, Texas A&M and Alabama in conference play.
- Senior guard JD Notae has led the way for Arkansas on offense this season, averaging 18.8 points per game—a mark that ranks second in the SEC.
- Notae also ranks second in the SEC in steals per game, averaging 2.1 per contest.
- Notae ranks 13th in the nation and leads the SEC in field-goal attempts with 16.2 per game.
- Razorback forward Jaylin Williams is averaging nearly a double-double with 10.9 points and 9.7 rebounds per game. Williams ranks fourth in the SEC and 28th in the nation in total rebounds.
- In conference games only, Arkansas has three players in the top 13 of the league in scoring— Notae (2nd, 19.7 ppg), Stanley Umude (12th, 13.9 ppg) and Williams (13th, 13.8 ppg).
- Through the games of March 2, Arkansas ranks No. 19 in KenPom.com's rankings. The Razorbacks rank No. 15 in adjusted defensive efficiency and No. 46 in adjusted offensive efficiency.

LAST MEETING WITH ARKANSAS

- Tennessee strung together a standout defensive performance but fell to No. 23 Arkansas on the road on Feb. 19, 2022, 58-48.
- The Vols held Arkansas to 31 percent shooting for the game but shot just 27 percent themselves.
- SEC Sixth Man of the Year candidate Zakai Zeigler led the Vols with 12 points, while Kennedy Chandler had 11. Santiago Vescovi totaled seven points and a career-high 11 rebounds.
- JD Notae and Jaylin Williams led Arkansas with 13 points apiece.
- Neither team led by more than four points until the 6:25 mark of the second half, when Arkansas' Davonte Davis kicked off a 7-0 Hogs run that put the UA in front by nine with 5:17 remaining at 51-42.
- Tennessee responded by holding Arkansas scoreless for the next four and a half minutes, but the Vols were unable to come up with enough production on the offensive end. The Big Orange never drew closer than five points the rest of the way.
- Spanning from the 8:19 mark of the second half to the 0:28 mark, Tennessee made just one field goal going 1-for-10 from the floor during that stretch.
- The first half was a low-scoring, back-and-forth affair, as the Razorbacks took a 24-23 lead into the locker room. Both teams shot below 30 percent from the field during the period, with the lead changing hands six times.
- The Vols and Hogs made a combined 15 field goals in the first half, also posting a combined 14 turnovers.
- Chandler led all scorers with nine first-half points, but also picked up three fouls.

MEMORABLE VOL PERFORMANCES AGAINST ARKANSAS

- Bristol, Tennessee, native Bobby Hogsett scored eight points and added 10 rebounds as Tennessee won its first-ever game against Arkansas, 77-57, on Dec. 27, 1963, in Shreveport, Louisiana.
- In front of 21,237 orange-clad fans, UT knocked off Nolan Richardson's fifth-ranked Razorbacks, 83-81, in Knoxville on Feb. 5, 1992. Lang Wiseman and Allan Houston both scored 26 points.
- The Vols upset No. 13 Arkansas in Fayetteville, 101-91, on Feb. 16, 1993, thanks to a double-double by LaMarcus Golden (22 points, 11 rebounds).
- Cleveland, Tennessee, native JaJuan Smith dropped 32 points on the Hogs during a 93-71 win over Arkansas in Knoxville on Feb. 5, 2008.
- Jordan McRae fueled Tennessee to an 81-74 win over Arkansas on Jan. 22, 2014, exploding for 34 points including UT's final 13—at Thompson-Boling Arena.

MUSSELMAN HAS FAMILY TIES

- TO FORMER UT COACH RAY MEARS
- Eric Musselman has said that some of his approach to marketing comes from popular former Tennessee head coach Ray Mears.
- Musselman's father, the late Bill Musselman, was a longtime NCAA, ABA and NBA head coach who played collegiately for Mears at Wittenberg College in Ohio, enrolling in 1958.
- Bill Musselman, and later Eric, took note of Mears penchant for showmanship and entertainment to boost program interest and generate fan support.

OFFENSE: MONTH-BY-MONTH

• Tennessee's offense output and efficiency took a dip in December and January but rebounded during an impressive February.

MONTH	PPG	FG%	3FG%	FT%	RECORD
November	82.0	.473	.379	.779	5-1

VOLS EIGHTH NATIONALLY IN STEALS

- Tennessee is logging steals at its fourth-highest rate in program history, averaging 9.6 per game. That ranks eighth among Division I teams.
- · Through Barnes' first six seasons on Rocky Top, Tennessee averaged just 6.0 steals per game. And UT's highest per-game average during that span was 7.3 steals per game last season (with two firstround NBA Draft picks manning the wings).
- · This year's team is flirting with the Tennessee singleseason record for steals per game:

RANK	SPG	STEALS/GAMES	SEASON
1.	10.03	301/30	2005-06
2.	9.73	292/30	1988-89
3.	9.60	336/35	2006-07
	9.59	278/29	2021-22

KC & ZIGGY SMOOTH CRIMINALS

- UT has a pair of freshmen guards who rank among KenPom's national top 30 in steal percentage.
- · Zakai Zeigler ranks seventh nationally, logging a steal on 4.93 percent of opponents' possessions while he is on the floor. Kennedy Chandler ranks 27th with a steal percentage of 4.32.
- · Chandler leads the SEC and ranks 12th among all Division I players with 2.29 steals per game. His 64 total steals rank 10th among all players nationally.
- During SEC play, Chandler and Zeigler account for 50 percent of Tennessee's total steals (77 of 155).

20 WINS BEFORE MARCH

• For the third time under Rick Barnes, Tennessee hit the 20-win mark before the month of March.

FULKERSON NOW OWNS SEC's

- CAREER GAMES PLAYED RECORD
- After taking advantage of a sixth (COVID) year this season, John Fulkerson has seized both the Tennessee program record as well as the SEC record for career games played.

ZEIGLER MAKING CASE FOR SEC SIXTH MAN OF THE YEAR HONORS

- True freshman guard and SEC Sixth Man of the Year candidate Zakai Zeigler has proven to a rock-solid addition to this Tennessee roster.
- Zeigler is Tennessee's fourth-leading scorer in SEC play (9.9 ppg) and ranks second on the team with 2.3 steals per game vs. conference foes.
- Zeigler leads the league with a .902 free-throw percentage in SEC games.
- · He twice exploded for 18 points in wins over North Carolina and South Carolina-two of his 12 doubledigit scoring performances off the bench this season.

NKAMHOUA SIDELINED INDEFINITELY

- Junior forward Olivier Nkamhoua suffered a left ankle injury during the second half of Tennessee's win at South Carolina Feb. 5 and is out indefinitely.
- · He had started every game to that point and was UT's second-leading rebounder (5.6 rpg) and thirdleading scorer (8.6 ppg).

TEAM NOTES

WINDICATORS

- The Vols are 15-0 this season when Kennedy Chandler and Santiago Vescovi combine for eight or more assists.
- Tennessee is 10-1 this season when it makes at least 10 3-pointers.
- Dating to the start of last season, Tennessee is 21-2 when John Fulkerson scores in double figures.
- The Vols are 11-2 during Josiah-Jordan James career when he records five or more assists.
- Tennessee under Rick Barnes is 73-10 when holding its opponent below a .390 field-goal percentage.
- Tennessee under Rick Barnes is 62-3 when it takes a double-digit lead into halftime.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

- Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes has vastly expanded the program's recruiting pipelines since arriving on Rocky Top, including internationally. The 2021-22 roster includes five international student-athletes and six total nationalities.
- Since his hiring in 2015, Barnes has signed eight international players for the Vols, including two from Canada and two from France. At least one international player has been in UT's starting lineup for 191 of the 225 games during the Rick Barnes era.
- The Vols' five international team members this season are Olivier Nkamhoua, from Helsinki, Finland, Uroš Plavšic, from Ivanjica, Serbia, Santiago Vescovi, from Montevideo, Uruguay, Quentin Diboundje from Montpellier, France and Handje Tamba, from Kinshasa, Democratic Republic of the Congo.

BOOST FROM THE BENCH

- Through 29 contests, Tennessee's bench is averaging 24.1 points per game. The Vols' reserves are outscoring the opponents' reserves by 6.6 points per game.
- Zakai Zeigler has scored in double figures off the bench in 12 games—including separate 18-point outbursts in wins over North Carolina and South Carolina. Justin Powell has scored 10+ off the bench in four games.

VOLS' DEPTH EXTENDS TO SCORING

- Tennessee boasts impressive depth not only in terms of capable rotation players, but also as it relates to explosive scoring ability.
- Seven different Vols have scored 20+ at least once.
- Santiago Vescovi has a team high six career 20-point games, while John Fulkerson has five. Victor Bailey Jr. has four, followed by Kennedy Chandler, with three. Josiah-Jordan James, Olivier Nkamhoua and Justin Powell each have two 20-point games under their belt.

WIN/LOSS COMPARISON

 Several statistical differences stand out in a comparison of Tennessee's wins vs. its losses.

"QUOTABLES"

COMMENTS THAT TELL A STORY

"They wanted to win the fight. We wanted to win the basketball game. We did what we wanted to do... I think we did both, actually."

- Uroš Plavšic

(on UT's Jan. 22 win over No. 13 LSU)

"What it appeared to me is (Tennessee) needed it more, wanted it more, more physical, took us out of stuff physically and then physically banged us around offensively, too. We got manhandled."

- John Calipari, Kentucky Head Coach (on UT's Feb. 15 win over No. 4 Kentucky)

"The top floor general in the class of 2021, Chandler gets to his spots and makes those around him better. He's already very comfortable playing with and making other high level talent better which is a huge asset when making the leap from high school to college."

- Eric Bossi, 247sports.com (on Kennedy Chandler)

"Guys like Josiah, Santi, Justin—there are several they're always helping someone else, even when coach is getting after them, or even when they're getting their butt kicked. The culture of the team is really neat."

- Associate head coach Mike Schwartz

"A decade ago, a player like this would have broken a lot of people's brains; these days, James is understood for the massive value addition he represents. (He can thank Draymond Green et al. for this.) With him on the floor, Tennessee can get away with playing a wide range of lineup configurations. It can play a true big man and three guards; it can reasonably defend two-big lineups and create matchup problems on the other end; it can snuff out teams that prefer to snipe with a stretch-four. It can switch basically everything on the defensive end with very little downstream consequence. Thus James occupies a massive role, and has taken on a huge amount of interpersonal and leadership responsibility to go with it.

- Eamonn Brennan, The Athletic (on Josiah-Jordan James)

VOLS GETTING TO THE LINE LATELY

- In its 11 games prior to entering SEC play, Tennessee attempted just 13.0 free throws per game. But through 17 conference outings, the Vols are shooting an average of 20.5 free throws per game.
- Guards Kennedy Chandler (62), Zakai Zeigler (61) and Santiago Vescovi (56) lead the team in freethrow attempts during SEC play.

VESCOVI CLUTCH AT THE

FREE-THROW LINE IN CRUNCH TIME

- Junior Santiago Vescovi has proven to deliver at the
- free-throw line in crunch time for the Vols.For his career, Vescovi is 57 of 63 from the foul line in the final four minutes of regulation and all of overtime. That's a percentage of .905.

POWELL FIRING ON THE CATCH

- Sophomore wing Justin Powell has given the Vols additional firepower along the perimeter and has proven adept at getting his shot off in a flash.
- The Vols' seventh-leading scorer (4.0 ppg), Powell has made 37 field goals this season, and more than half of them have been 3-pointers.
- Of Powell's 24 made 3-pointers, 18 (75 percent) have come directly off the catch—no dribble.

SENIOR CITIZEN FULKY SEEKING COMMUNITY SERVICE CREDIT

- 24-year-old super senior John Fulkerson was asked after Tennessee's Nov. 26 game against Tennessee Tech about playing alongside four freshmen during the first half of the eventual win.
- Fulkerson's response: "I'm trying to get community service hours in for babysitting."
- Fulkerson went on to explain that the four-freshmen lineup made him think back to his true freshman season (2016-17), when he and fellow freshmen Grant Williams, Jordan Bone and Jordan Bowden joined senior Robert Hubbs III on the court at times.

FULKY PAYING IT FORWARD ($2,131)

- The day before Tennessee's season-opener, John Fulkerson announced that he'd be using a portion of his NIL earnings to donate $1 to the Tennessee Fund for every point the team scores this season.
- "My time as a Tennessee student-athlete has been life-changing and everything I could have asked for... This year, I've been very blessed to capitalize on some great NIL opportunities. And those opportunities would have never been possible without the amazing support I've received over the last five-plus years from so many people across the athletics department and campus. This is my way of giving back and saying, 'thank you,' for the incredible support I've received as a Tennessee student-athlete for all these years."

BARNES' VOLS PIN TWO MORE BLUE-BLOOD PELTS TO THE WALL

- Tennessee under head coach Rick Barnes has logged several wins over college basketball "blue bloods."
- The list of highly successful programs that have suffered losses to the Vols dating to 2015-16 includes Kentucky (nine times), Kansas, Gonzaga, Purdue, North Carolina and Arizona.
- This season's win over the ranked Tar Heels on Nov. 21 was an emphatic, 17-point triumph. A month later, the Vols dealt No. 6 Arizona their first loss of the season.

VOLS', LADY VOLS' IN 1K CLUB

- Tennessee is one of only 10 Division I schools whose men's and women's basketball programs have both won more than 1,000 games.
- Joining Tennessee in that unique men's/women's 1K club is: Baylor, Georgia, Maryland, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Stanford, Texas, UConn and Western Kentucky.

CHANDLER UP FOR MULTIPLE NATIONAL HONORS

- True freshman point guard Kennedy Chandler is one of 15 names on the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year watch list. He is also among 10 finalists for the Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year Award.
- Chandler has scored (382) or assisted (316) on 33 percent of Tennessee's total points this season (698 of 2,131).
- He is the first Vol since Josh Richardson in 2014-15 to total 100 assists and 50 steals in a season.
- Chandler also was the first freshman in Division I this season to total 300 points, 100 assists and 50 steals.

CHANDLER ASSISTING VESCOVI

- In addition to being Tennessee's leading scorer (13.6 ppg), freshman phenom Kennedy Chandler also has a team-high 129 assists (4.6 apg).
- Chandler's assists have led directly to 316 points this season, and junior Santiago Vescovi has benefited the most, as he has 85 points off Chandler dimes.
- Chandler's presence has allowed Vescovi to play off the ball, a shift from the last two seasons, during which Vescovi served as the Vols' primary ball-handler.
- Vescovi is now averaging career-bests in scoring, rebounding and steals per game.

UPDATE THE RECORDS IN PENCIL

- After the Vols shattered the program record for 3-pointers made (with 17) in their season-opener, it appears that section of the Tennessee records book is one to watch this winter.
- The Tennessee record for 3-point attempts in a game is 50, against North Carolina A&T on Nov. 27, 2007.
- In terms of 3-point attempts per game, the most the Vols have ever averaged is 25.6 per game in 2006-07. Look for that to be challenged this season; UT is currently averaging 25.0 3-point attempts per game.
- During the Rick Barnes era, the most 3-point attempts in a game is 40, which was set this year against UT Martin (Nov. 9) and vs. Texas Tech (Dec 7).
- 3-pointers accounted for 27.5 percent of Tennessee's total points last year. This season, 35.3 percent of Tennessee's points have come from beyond the arc.

EDGING ARIZONA: A WIN WITH "SHELF LIFE"

- In the words of ESPN's Jimmy Dykes, Tennessee's 77-73 triumph over No. 6 Arizona on Dec. 22 is a win that has "shelf life."
- Arizona entered the showdown in Knoxville boasting the No. 1 scoring offense in Division I at 91.0 ppg, but the Vols were the first team all season to hold the Wildcats to fewer than 80 points.
- Tennessee forced Arizona into turnovers on 22.7 percent of its possessions (17 total). UT also held the Wildcats below 1.0 points per possession (0.97 ppp).
- Arizona scored just 21 points in the first half, its lowest output in any half this season.
- Vols super senior John Fulkerson drew 13 fouls in the win. Projected NBA Draft picks Azuolas Tubelis and Christian Koloko combined for almost as many fouls (9) as points (10).

NUMBERS PROVE TENNESSEE HAS NATION'S MOST PASSIONATE FANS

- Tennessee yet again is on pace to be the only school in America to rank in the top 10 in average home attendance for football, men's basketball and women's basketball.
- In football, the Vols ranked ninth with an average home attendance of 86,386 in 2021.
- In hoops, the Vols and Lady Vols currently rank fifth (17,971) and sixth (7,728), in the NCAA, respectively.

FACILITIES NOTES

ELITE ATTENDANCE

- For each of the last two non-COVID-impacted seasons, Tennessee finished fourth nationally in average home attendance. The Vols drew an average of 18,990 fans to 17 games at Thompson-Boling Arena in 2019-20.
- The Vols have ranked among the top 20 in men's college basketball attendance for 16 consecutive years, including nine seasons ranked in the top five nationally.
- Tennessee's total number of season tickets sold in 2019-20 (15,500) exceeded the average home attendance of all but 11 Division I programs. In other words, before selling any single-game tickets, the Vols were already assured of finishing at least 12th in average home attendance for 2019-20 (they finished fourth).

SEASON TICKETS EXCEED 13K AGAIN

 For the third straight full-capacity season, Tennessee has sold more than 13,000 season tickets.

20,000 STRONG

 Since Rick Barnes was named head coach prior to the 2015-16 campaign, Tennessee has played in front of 21 home crowds of 20,000 or larger.

A TBA FIRST: THREE STRAIGHT SELLOUTS

 A sellout for Saturday's Arkansas game would give the Vols three consecutive home sellouts for the first time in the history of Thompson-Boling Arena, which opened for the 1987-88 season.

COMMITMENT TO BASKETBALL

- Prior to the 2007-08 season, UT added a basketball-only practice facility, Pratt Pavilion, which houses two full-size gyms as well as an athletic training room, weight room and film-study room.
- Construction of Pratt Pavilion also marked the beginning of the "first phase" of renovations to Thompson-Boling Arena. This $19 million phase included the addition of 32 luxury suites located in the north balcony, a loge area just below the suites that includes 166 side court seats, new seats for the entire arena, a $3 million center-hung scoreboard and concourse refurbishments, such as graphics and other amenities.
- In the "second phase" of Thompson-Boling Arena renovations, the athletics department overhauled the men's and women's basketball offices during the 2010-11 campaign, creating a new and impressive "front door" for both programs.
- New to Thompson-Boling Arena for the 2013-14 season was a 360-degree LED ribbon board that runs along the bottom of the upper deck.
- In March of 2014, Thompson-Boling Arena became the third college basketball arena to install an LED lighting system, which features fixtures that are smaller, brighter, and up to 85 percent more efficient than conventional arena metal halide lights.
- The weight room in Pratt Pavilion was renovated and expanded to 4,350 square feet in the summer of 2016. Additions include a full-court-length stretch of synthetic turf, a custom rubber floor, a 40-foot, steel-reinforced throwing wall, six Keiser Functional Trainers, four TRUEStretch Cages, three custom, 10foot Power Lift pulley units (ideal for taller student-athletes), seven sets of 90-pound PowerBlocks and a zoned, high-powered stereo system.
- In September 2018, work concluded on a $5 million locker-room renovation at Thompson-Boling Arena. In addition to the beautifully revamped spaces for the men's and women's teams, the Larry Pratt Basketball Locker Room Complex also includes an athletic training facility featuring world-class hydrotherapy systems.

MISC NOTES

ONE FLY, WE ALL FLY: 15:00 PREGAME APPOINTMENT VIEWING

- Tennessee basketball's newest tradition only dates to the 2018-19 season, but it has become appointment viewing during pregame warmups.
- At approximately the 15:00 mark on the pregame clock, the Vols execute their "One Fly, We All Fly" unified slam dunk.
- Each game's "dunker" is determined by feel—the Vol who is feeling especially bouncy that day is identified. His teammates then begin circling the paint before the dunker explodes toward the rim.
- When the dunker takes flight, so too do each of his teammates. As the ball is slammed and the Vols land in unison, Tennessee fans in attendance let out a roar. The Vols then briefly return to the locker room for final pregame preparations.
- Teams across all levels of basketball across the globe—including multiple NBA teams (even LeBron weighed in on Instagram)—have replicated OFWAF, which is believed to have been named by VFL Admiral Schofield.

FIVE VOLS DRAFTED SINCE 2019

- Over the last three NBA Drafts, five Tennessee Vols have been selected. That includes three first-round selections.
- Three Vols (Grant Williams, Admiral Schofield and Jordan Bone) were drafted in 2019. And two one-anddone phenoms were selected this past July (Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer).
- To add context to the "Rick Barnes effect" on Tennessee's talent influx, only six Vols were drafted in the 20 years preceding Barnes' arrival on Rocky Top.

COMPREHENSIVE EXCELLENCE

- Tennessee's men's hoops squad isn't the only team enjoying success on Rocky Top.
- 12 UT teams are currently ranked in the top 25 of their respective sports—with three ranked in the top 10.
- Those teams include men's tennis (No. 1), women's swimming & diving (No. 3), women's soccer (No. 6), men's track & field (No. 11), men's golf (No. 12), men's basketball (No. 13), women's track & field (No. 16), baseball (No. 16), softball (No. 16), men's swimming & diving (No. 17), women's basketball (No. 18) and women's tennis (No. 20).
- The Lady Vols won their second SEC swimming & diving championship in the last three years on Feb. 19.

BARNES' KD CONNECTION PUTS HIM IN RARE MVP COMPANY

- Rick Barnes is one of only five active college head coaches who has developed an NBA MVP, as Kevin Durant was honored as the NBA MVP in 2014.
- The other active head coaches who have produced an NBA MVP are Kentucky's John Calipari (Derrick Rose [Memphis], 2011), Mississippi State's Ben Howland (Russell Westbrook [UCLA], 2017), Davidson's Bob McKillop (Steph Curry, 2015 and 2016) and Santa Clara's Herb Sendek (James Harden [Arizona State], 2018).

VOLS WELL REPRESENTED IN THE NBA

- Seven Tennessee alums are active in the NBA, including five who were recruited and coached by Rick Barnes.
- Forward Tobias Harris (2010-11) is a regular starter for the Philadelphia 76ers and is one of the team's top scorers. This is his 11th NBA season.
- Guard Josh Richardson (2011-15) transitioned from the Boston Celtics to the San Antonio Spurs in February. Richardson averaged 12.1 points and shot .330 from 3-point range in 59 games last season.
- Now in his third NBA season, forward Grant Williams (2016-19) comes off a 2020-21 campaign that saw him average 4.7 points and 2.8 rebounds per game.
- Admiral Schofield (2015-19) is spending his third NBA season with a new team—the Orlando Magic.
- After being drafted in the first round this summer, oneand-done guards Keon Johnson (2020-21) and Jaden Springer (2020-21), are in their rookie campaign with the Portland Trailblzaers and Philadelphia 76ers, respectively.
- And forward Yves Pons (2017-21) used a fantastic NBA Summer League showing with the Memphis Grizzlies to earn a free-agent contract with that franchise.
- New York Knicks Vice President for Player Leadership & Development Allan Houston (1989-93) continues to play a key insider's role with the franchise he once starred for. He also serves as GM of the NBA G-League's Westchester Knicks.

VOLS AD WHITE HAS HOOPS DNA

- Tennessee's director of athletics, Danny White, played college basketball at both Towson (1998-2000) and Notre Dame (2000-02).
- White's father, Kevin White, is a legendary career AD who recently retired following a long career at Duke. Danny's older brother, Mike White, played basketball at Ole Miss and is now the head coach at Florida.

BARNES 16th ON DIVISION I WINS LIST

• In December of 2019, Rick Barnes became the 22nd all-

- time men's head coach to log 700 Division I victories. • Barnes currently ranks 16th on the all-time Division I list with 749 wins.
- Barnes ranks seventh among active coaches (see chart on the left).

UNDER BARNES, VOLS ARE 93-31 AS AN AP-RANKED TEAM

 Tennessee has played 124 games as a ranked team (AP poll) under head coach Rick Barnes, and the Vols are 93-31 (.750) in those contests.

RACKING UP TOP-FIVE WINS

 Tennessee has defeated five AP top-five foes during the Rick Barnes era, including two this February.

DATE	OPPONENT	SITE	SCORE

CONTEXTUALIZING TENNESSEE'S SUCCESS VS. UK UNDER BARNES

- From 1995-2015—a period that spanned the tenures of six UT head coaches—Tennessee's record against Kentucky was a combined 9-33, including a 7-26 mark against ranked UK squads.
- The Vols under Rick Barnes are 9-7 vs. Kentucky over just seven seasons, with an 8-5 record against ranked UK teams.
- For four of UT's Barnes-era wins over the Wildcats, Kentucky was ranked No. 4 in the AP Top 25.

TOP SPOT: BARNES IS ONE OF SIX

- Rick Barnes guided Tennessee to four straight weeks at No. 1 in 2019. He had previously led Texas to the No. 1 ranking for two weeks in January 2010.
- He is one of seven coaches ever to lead multiple schools to a No. 1 ranking, joined by John Calipari, Frank McGuire, Bruce Pearl, Rick Pitino, Eddie Sutton and Roy Williams.

ON THE BENCH

MICHAEL SCHWARTZ

Associate Head Coach • Texas, 1999 • Sixth season at Tennessee; played two years under Barnes at Texas and was a member of the 1999 Big 12 Championship team (then became a GA on Texas' staff). • In 2019, Schwartz earned feature placement on The Athletic's list of the nation's top 25 up-and-coming college basketball coaches.

• Since the 2017-18 campaign, Schwartz has served as Tennessee's "defensive coordinator."

• No stranger to the Southeast and East Coast, Schwartz spent six years on staff at Miami (Fla.) in the ACC.

JUSTIN GAINEY

- Assistant Coach NC State, 2000 • Gainey, who boasts 15 years of Division I coaching and administrative experience, is in first season on the Tennessee staff after joining the program in April 2021.
- Immediately prior to coming to Tennessee, Gainey spent the 2020-21 season as the associate head coach at Marquette; he also coached at Marquette from 2014-17.
- In between his stints in Milwaukee, Gainey was an assistant coach at Santa Clara in 2017-18 and Arizona from 2018-20.
- A native of High Point, North Carolina, was a standout point guard at NC State from 1996-2000 (giving some of Rick Barnes' Clemson squads fits).

ROD CLARK

- Assistant Coach Lindsey Wilson College (Ky.). 2015
- Clark, a young and energetic rising star in the profession at age 28, is in just his third season as a collegiate assistant in 2021-22 and his first at Tennessee. • A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Clark spent the 2020-21 season as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tennessee.
- His first stop as a collegiate coach came in the Horizon League as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2019-20.
- From 2017-19, Clark honed his coaching skills as the top assistant coach at Sunrise Christian Academy in Kansas—a national prep basketball powerhouse.

GARRETT MEDENWALD

- Director of Sports Performance Wisconsin-Whitewater, 2013
- Seventh season at Tennessee; he had three previous years of experience working alongside head coach Rick Barnes at Texas from 2012-15.
- As a football running back at UW-Whitewater, he helped lead the Warhawks to back-to-back national championships in 2010 and 2011.
- An elite powerlifter, Medenwald was a national qualifier in Olympic weightlifting and was a coach and co-founder of the UW-Whitewater Olympic Lifting Club.
- Native of Green Bay, Wisconsin (lifelong Green Bay Packers fan).

CHAD NEWMAN

- · 26th season with the Tennessee basketball program.
- Under his care, the Vols have advanced to postseason play 16 times, including 12 NCAA Tournament berths and six Sweet Sixteen appearances.
- 2009 Tennessee Athletic Trainer's Society (TATS) Athletic Trainer of the Year.
- Native of Chattanooga, Tennessee

BRYAN LENTZ

- Fourth season at Tennessee; is a North Carolina native.
- Had four previous years of experience as a member of Rick Barnes' basketball staff at Texas.
- His father, John Lentz, was a legendary head coach at Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory, N.C., and was Barnes' roommate during college.
- Spent the 2014-18 seasons as an assistant coach at Appalachian State University in Boone, N.C.

MARY-CARTER EGGERT

Director of Basketball Operations • Tennessee, 2011

Video Coordinator • Bowling Green, 2018

Director of Player Development • Lenoir-Rhyne, 2000

- A two-time Tennessee graduate, Eggert is in her seventh season working in the lead basketball operations role.
- One of very few women currently holding the role of director of basketball operations with a men's program at a major-conference school.
- Spent three years on UT's media relations staff, working closely with the Tennessee football program from 2012 to 2014.
- Native of Richmond, Virginia

- Schapker is in his fourth year with the Tennessee basketball program in 2021-22 after first joining the program as a graduate manager in 2018.
- He spent four years as a men's basketball student manager at Bowling Green State University in Ohio.
- Schapker was the head manager during the final three years of his four-year tenure with the BGSU program.
- He earned a master's degree in Sport Management from Tennessee in 2020.

KEN MCDONALD

Director of Student-Athlete Development • Providence, 1992

- The 2021-22 season marks McDonald's 11th season on staff with Rick Barnes and his third season on Barnes' staff at Tennessee.
- Their relationship dates to McDonald's collegiate playing career on Barnes' Providence teams from 1990-92.
- McDonald's career on the bench includes 27 years of extensive coaching experience at the collegiate, professional and international level.
- Was the head coach at Western Kentucky from 2008-12; also was head coach of the G League's Austin Spurs from 2013-17.

Athletic Trainer • Tennessee, 1994

O OVICTOR_BAILEY10

- Completed his degree in Political Science in May of 2021.
- Is 110 points shy of scoring his 1,000th Division I point. He scored 513 points during his two seasons at Oregon.
 Scored an SEC season-high 11 points at Missouri (2/22/22) on 5-for-8 shooting.
- Recorded the game-tying basket with 1:23 remaining at Texas (1/29/22) with an offensive rebound and tip-in layup. Also posted two assists and three rebounds in 16 minutes off of the bench.
- Scored seven points in 20 minutes off the bench in the SEC opener at Alabama (12/29/21).
- Shot 4-for-8 from beyond the arc against Presbyterian (11/30/21), scoring 14 points in 18 minutes.
- Scored nine points on 4-of-6 shooting while also tying a career high in steals with three vs. ETSU (11/14/21).
 Possesses extraordinary drive to become a "complete" player.
- Has vastly improved as an on-ball defender—described by coaches as "disruptive" on the ball.
- Was Tennessee's third-leading scorer overall (10.9 ppg) and in SEC play (10.8 ppg) last season.
- Scored 15 or more points a team-high eight times last year and was UT's top scorer a team-high nine times.

SU-SR Forward | 6-9 | 219 | Agricultural Leadership, Education & Communication Kingsport, Tennessee | The Christ School (N.C.)

- Completed his degree in Recreation & Sport Management in May 2020.
- Has played in a Tennessee and SEC record 159 career games.
- Scored 12 points—including four straight to stop a late Bulldog run—on 5-for-8 shooting at Georgia (3/1/22).
- In what was his seventh career win over Kentucky (2/15/22), scored 14 points, was a perfect 6-for-6 at the free-throw line and had a team-high eight rebounds.
- Compiled a 12-point, six-rebound, three-assist and two-block performance in the Vols' win over Vanderbilt (2/12/22).
 Scored 24 points, grabbed 10 rebounds and drew 13 fouls during the win over #6 Arizona (12/22/21)—notching
- his second double-double of the season. Earned SEC Player of the Week honors for his performance. • Recorded his sixth career double-double against Texas Tech (12/7/21) with 10 points and 10 rebounds, also
- adding a career-high-tying five blocks.
- Using a portion of his NIL earnings to donate $1 to the Tennessee Fund for every point the Vols score this season.
- Currently owns the sixth-best career field-goal percentage in school history, at .560 (minimum 500 attempts).
- Has benefited from new NIL legislation perhaps more than any other Tennessee student-athlete.

- First-year Vol transferred from Auburn over the summer.
- Shooting 39 percent from the beyond the arc this season (24-for-62).
- Made back-to-back threes late in the win over Texas A&M (2/1/22) to help Tennessee pull away.
- Played a season-high 29 minutes at Vanderbilt (1/18/22), making a pair of threes and scoring eight points. In 26 minutes during the win over #6 Arizona (12/22/21), shot 3-for-4 from the field and grabbed four rebounds, finishing with 11 points.
- Shot 5-for-5 from 3-point range against Presbyterian (11/30/21), becoming the ninth Vol in program history to make five or more threes without a miss in a single game.
- Made three 3-pointers for the second straight game, scoring 11 points against ETSU (11/14/21).
- Came off the bench in the Vols' season-opener against UT Martin (11/9/21), scored 13 points and hit three 3-pointers. • Entered the NCAA Transfer Portal on March 10, 2021 before enrolling at Tennessee in May of 2021. A June 3 SEC legislative ruling on intraconference transfers granted him immediate eligibility with the Vols for the 2021-22 season.
- Appeared in 10 games as a true freshman at Auburn before being sidelined with a season-ending head injury.

Santiago Vescovi was the third Vol to score in double-figures, with 10 points. Vescovi also tied career-highs in both The Big Orange offense got in rhythm early and never looked back, draining 3-for-4 from beyond the arc to start the game. Leading 15-11 midway through the opening period, the Vols separated themselves from UNCG with a 13-0 run that lasted 4:04. UT was 5-of-7 from the floor during that span, with five different Vols logging a bucket.

Tennessee's strong four-game span of defense continued Satuday in the friendly confines of Thompson-Boiling Area. The Vols held the Spartans to 7-of-21 (333) shooting from the field and 1-of-9 (.111) on 3-pointers during the first half. John Fulkerson was stingy around the rim, swatting away three UNCG shots. Vescovi was also strong on the defensive end, snagging three steals in the half.

• The second half was all UT. The Big Orange shot 16-of-32 (500) and opened up a 19-0 run lasting from 12:32 to 4:39. UNCG attempted only 17 field goals and UT forced the the second Spartans to turn the ball over 12 times.

Spartans guard De'Monte Buckingham was the only UNCG player to score in double figures, finishing with 10 points

 Tennessee's most complete performance of the season was on display Dec. 14, 2021, at Thompson-Boling Arena, as the Volunteers took down USC Upstate, 96-52. • Kennedy Chandler notched his first career double-double, scoring 15 points and adding

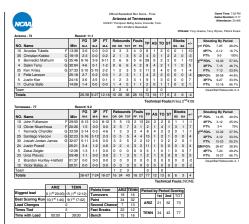

10 assists. He became the first Volunteer this season to log 10+ assists in a game. The team compiled 29 assists, the most in a game since Jan. 4, 2014, when the Vols had 30 against Tusculum

Olivier Nkamhoua led the 18th-ranked Volunteers with 21 points on 9-of-10 (.900) shooting. The junior also led the Big Orange in rebounds with eight. Nkamhoua now owns apair of games shooting better than 90 percent this season, as he fired an 8-of-8 game against Tennessee Tech on Nov. 26. John Fulkerson reached double-figures in scoring for the fifth time this season, notching 12 points on 6-of-7 shooting Tuesday.

The defensive output continued to impress, as Tennessee (8-2) nabbed 15 steals—a Rick Bares-ren high. The Vols recorded double-digit steals for the sixth game this season. Tennessee has been especially stout at home, averaging 12.3 steals at Thompson-Boling Arena. UT took care of the ball on offense too, only conceding 10 turnovers.

The Volunteer offense soared in the first half, winning the period 51-24. Tennessee scored its most points in any half this season with the 51, and its 27-point lead was the largest at the break all year. Nkamhous spearheaded the first half offense, sinking 6-0-7. (.857) shots from the floor. Tennessee shot 21-of-39 (.538) as a team, and 8-of-16 (.500) on Spointers. It was efficient play all around, as UT logged 15 first-half assists-four from both Chandler and Santiago Vescovi—and out-rebounded USC Upstate, 24-12.
 Tennessee improved on an impressive offensive first half after the break, shooting 17-of-29 (.586) from the floor in the second. 11 Vols found their way on the score sheet.

 On a night when he matched the program record for games played, super senior John Fulkerson posted a double-double to lead 19th-ranked Tennessee to a 77-73 victory against No. 6 Arizona in front of a raucous crowd at Thompson-Boling Arena on Dec. 22, 2021. The Vols never trailed.

• The Kingsport, Tennessee, native scored a season-high 24 points and grabbed 10 boards while adding two assists in 30 minutes of action. Fulkerson, who made his 142nd appearance for the Vols, tied Wayne Chism for the most games played in program history.

While not officially a triple-double. Fulkerson also drew 13 fouls as the Wildcats (11-1) struggled to guard him all game long. He made Arizona pay at the line, knocking down eight of his 11 free throws.

In a matchup between one of the nation's top offenses and UT's elite defense, the programs battled the entire 40 minutes of the game. Tennessee (9-2) entered the contest as the No. 2 team in the country in defensive efficiency, according to KenPom, while Arizona's 91.0 points per game led the nation.

 The Vols' stifling defense held the Wildcats, who entered the αame at No. 1 in the NFT The vois summer and the vindeals, who entered the gained rive, in the vict rankings, to a season-low 73 points and kept them from ever taking the lead during the contest. UT forced 17 turnovers in the game behind eight steals and five blocks.
 Santiago Vescovi scored 12 of his 15 points during the second half to help spark the Volunteer offense. He knocked down three 3-points during the second han to help spark the and one steal. Josiah-Jordan James posted an all-around performance with 12 points, five rebounds, two blocks, two steals and one assist.

 Justin Powell rounded out the double-digit scorers for the Big Orange with 11 points. He knocked down three free throws with 4:08 left in the game to push Tennessee's lead to 66-62 and then iced the game with a free throw in the final seconds to make it a two-possession game.

 Kennedy Chandler finished the game with eight points, four assists, three rebounds and three steals in a team-high 34 minutes of action. • Tennessee opened the game scorching hot on both ends of the floor, shooting 8-of-12 from the field to jump out to an 18-5 lead with 13:56 left in the first half. Six different Vols scored during the stretch Tennessee held Arizona to just 21 first-half points on 7-for-25 (.280) shooting.

Inst 18:58 of the second half, but never led by more than six points. • Facing its largest deficit of the second half at 63-57 with just over six minutes remaining, Alabama strung together a 10-2 run—capped off by a Jaden Shackelford layup that gave

Tennessee quickly responded with a 3-pointer from Nkamhoua with 50 seconds remaining to regain the lead at 68-67, but Alabama fired back once more with a deep three from Keon Ellis to pull in front, 70-68.

After the Vols missed a 3-point attempt on the other end and Alabama's JD Davison vert 1-for-2 at the line, Zeigler missed a potential game-tying 3-pointer. UT led by as many as 10 in the first half, but the teams went into the halftime tied at 33.

The Vols and Tide played a tightly-contested first 12 minutes before Tennessee used a

 After hitting just two of its first 12 field goal attempts, Tennessee rebounded by making 11 of its next 16 shots, capped off by a Brandon Huntley-Hatfield layup that extended the Vols' lead to 10.

Alabama however quickly responded with a 10-0 run to end the first half that knotted up the score at the break.

· Clutch 3-point shooting late in regulation and a strong offensive overtime pushed the 18th-ranked Tennessee Volunteers past Ole Miss, 66-60, on Jan. 5, 2022, in Knoxville. The Volunteers (10-3, 1-1 SEC) made four consecutive 3-pointers to tie the game at 51,

Take in regulation. Tennessee did not take its first lead of the night until overtime, when Olivier Nkamhoua drained a jumper 18 seconds into the extra frame. The Vols offense clicked in overtime, making 5-of-6 shots from the field, 2-of-3 from beyond the arc and 3-of-3 from the free-throw line

 Tennessee totaled 17 steals, its most in a game since it had 21 on Dec. 23, 2009, against North Carolina A&T, and its most in an SEC game since Feb. 21, 2007, when the Vols had 18 against Alabama. It was the eighth time this year UT posted double-digit steals as a am. The Vols have swiped 10+ in both games of SEC play thus far. Santiago Vescovi came through in the clutch for the Big Orange, exemplified by his "and-1" 3-pointer with 3:39 left in the game to jumpstart a Tennessee comeback. Following that 4-point play, he then sum another three to tie the game with 1:10 left, that number would hold for the remainder of regulation. Fifteen of Vescovi's 17 points came in the second half or overtime.

Vescovi led all Vol scorers with his 17. Nkamhoua finished with 13 points on 5-of-7 shooting.

Josiah-Jordan James added 10 points and led the team in rebounding with eight.
As a team, the Vols had 21 assists on 25 made field goals.
Zakai Zeigler had a career-best five steals, Kennedy Chandler had four takeaways and Vescovi had three. • Ole Miss (8-5, 0-1 SEC) was led by Tye Fagan, who scored 23 points on 8-of-11 shooting, Fagan was 7-of-7 from the floor in the second half, with four of the field goals coming from 3-point range. Matthew Murrell scored 17 for the Rebels.

Tennessee overcame a 12-point deficit in the win, its first double-digit comeback of the Permissee over came a 22-point derict in the wini, its inst double-ougle comedation the season. The rally was fueled by offensive rebounds, as the Vols out-rebounded the Rebels II-S and 7-1 in the second half.
 • Defenses owned the first half of the game, as the night's first point wasn't scored for 4:12. The half ended with Ole Miss leading, 21-19.

The 18th-ranked Tennessee basketball team rallied in the second half, but eventually fell on the road to No. 21 LSU on Jan. 8. 2021, 79-67.

Sophomore Tari Eason led the way for LSU with 24 points. Second-chance points played a major role in the game, as LSU outscored Tennessee, 18-5. • After holding a seven-point lead at halftime, LSU was hot out of the gates in the second half, exploding for a 20-7 run that extended its lead to 20 points at 62-42. Refusing to go away quietly, Tennessee responded by gradually chipping away at the Tigers' lead, cutting it down to as few as five points at 71-66 on a Vescovi 3-pointer with three minutes remaining. Following Vescovi's three, two straight fast-break layups from LSU guard Brandon Murray and Eason quickly pushed the Tigers' lead back to nine points, paving the way for LSU's 12-point win.

 A balanced offensive effort, coupled with stout defense, led the No. 22 Tennessee Volunteers past South Carolina, 66-46, on Jan. 11, 2022, at Thompson-Boling Arena. • Charleston, South Carolina, native Josiah-Jordan James provided the spark for Tennessee (11-4, 2-2 SEC), sinking a 3-pointer at the buzzer in the first half. That gave the Vols' offense confidence and momentum to start the second period. James finished with Il points and 12 rebounds for his second career double-double and first of the season. He also had a pair of assists, one block and a steal.

Zakai Zeigler brought an energetic presence to the floor when he checked in. The rebound, an assist and two steals his first rotation in the game. Zeigler finished the game with 11 points, four steals and four assists.

 In total, four Vols scored in double figures, as Santiago Vescovi led the team with 14 points. John Fulkerson added 10 and blocked two shots. • South Carolina (10-5, 1-2 SEC) was led by James Reese V, who notched 15 points on 3-of-6 shooting from beyond the 3-point arc.

The Gamecocks were stifled in the paint as the Volunteers did not allow either starting The demectors were stilled in the paint as the volunteers and not allow either starting forward for Carolina to make a field goal. South Carolina was only 1-o-50 (36.7 percent on 2-point field-goal attempts, as the Vols made it tough to get shots up around the rim The offenses battled in the first half, both jockeying to sustain a lead. As the first period wound to a close, 3-pointers from Zeigler and Kennedy Chandler helped the Big Orange build a lead, but it was James' trey as the buzzer sounded that extended Tennessee's lead to a 30-24 lead, and the Vols would never look back. The Vols rode the offensive momentum to start the second half, starting on a 9-2 run for the first four and a half minutes. The steadfast defense Tennese has boasted all season held the Gamecocks to 8-of-25 (32 percent) shooting from the floor after the break. UT caused 12 turnovers in the first half, seven coming on steals, and carried that success over to the second half, forcing 11 more turnovers

Tennessee held South Carolina to just 0.667 points per possession

No. 24 Tennessee led wire-to-wire and avenged an early-season loss to No. 13 LSU in front of a season-high crowd of 21.061 on Jan. 22, 2022, at Thompson-Boling Arena. Santiago Vescovi led Tennessee with 16 points, including five made 3-pointers. Vescovi also tallied a team-high-tying six rebounds and five assists. Making his second straight start. Uros Plavsic had 12 points on 5-for-7 shooting and six rebounds.

In what was a matchup of two of the nation's top-five teams in terms of adjusted defensive efficiency, Tennessee held LSU to a season-low 50 points.
 Tari Eason led LSU offensively with 16 points.

Coming out of the halftime break with a 29-24 lead. Tennessee opened the second half on a 13-4 run, pulling in front by 14 on a Kenedy Chandese opened the second remaining. In the opening six minutes of the second half, LSU scored just two points and made just one of its first nine shots.

 The Vols looked to be in control leading by 15 with nine minutes remaining, but LSU answered Tennessee's hot start to the second half with a 13-4 run, drawing to within six points on an and-one layup from Eason with 5:00 remaining.
 LSU's spurt was immediately answered by the Big Orange, as a jumper in the paint from John Fulkerson and a 3-pointer from Zakai Zeigler sparked a 13-0 Tennessee run Just as efficiently as it started the second half, Tennessee was even hotter out of the gates to start the game, opening with a 14-0 run over the first six minutes. Vescovi, Chandler and Josiah-Jordan James all hit 3-pointers to spark the run. • The Vols forced LSU to miss its first seven field goal attempts, as the Tigers did not score until the 13:38 mark.

LSU however quickly countered Tennessee's hot start, reeling off a 12-3 run to pull within five points. The Tigers drew within one, but never took the lead during the first half. • Vescovi hit four threes in total during the first half, totaling 12 points to lead all scorers in the opening period.

With an eight-point outing, Eulkerson reached the 1000-point mark for his career. becoming the 53rd Vol in program history to do so.

 Solid play on both ends of the floor in the second half helped the No. 18 Tenness men's basketball come from behind to defeat the Florida Gators, 78-71, on Jan. 26, 2022, at Thompson-Boling Arena a trioniportPointg Arena.

• Santiago Vescovi posted a tremendous scoring night with 23 points, tying a career-high.
It was his fourth game of 20+ points this season; before this year he only did so once.
His big night came primarily from beyond the arc, as he sank 5-of-8 from 3-point range. • Freshmer Kennedy Chandler and Zakai Zeigler also scored in double figures with 17 and 11, respectively. Zeigler was accurate from beyond the 3-point arc, making 3-of-5, and he set a new career-high in rebounds, pulling down six. Chandler, on the other hand, was automatic from the free-throw line making all six of his attempts.

 Tennessee (14-5, 5-3 SEC) separated itself from Florida (12-8, 3-5 SEC) on the boards and in the playmaking game. The Big Orange out-rebounded Florida, 34-24 and tallied 22 assists to Florida's 15.

Tennessee finished the game 17-for-18 (.944) at the free-throw line

 The crowd of 20,789 was electric during the midweek battle, nearly blowing the roof off of Thompson-Boling Arena after a clutch and-1 from John Fulkerson with four minutes remaining in the game. Fulkerson tallied three blocks on the night, his sixth contest this season with multiple swatted shots

Season with induline swated shots. The Gators' offense was led by Anthony Duruji and Tyree Appleby who both scored 16. Appleby added a team-high seven assists. • Florida began the evening white hot, shooting 5-of-6 on 3-pointers and 8-of-11 from the floor. Tennessee's offense found an answer after the under-12 media timeout, sinking three treys in a row-two from Ziegler and one from Chandler-to bring the Big Orange back from a 13-point deficit to within four. Vescovi cashed in eight points in the last two minutes, as Tennessee trailed, 42-34, at the break.

Hinduce, as remease played a complete second half to complete the comeback over the Gators. The Vols held Florida to only 29 points in the period and capitalized on an 11-2 run lasting five minutes in the middle of the frame. UT fired at a 50 percent clip from the floor in the second half and could not miss at the line, making all 13 attempts from the charity stripe ennessee's furious late comeback fell just short on Jan. 29, 2022, as the No. 18 Vols fell at Texas in the Big 12/SEC Challenge, 52-51.

at rexa in the eight 25 eSC challenge, 32-91. • The Vols (1-4) of trailed by as many as 17 points in the second half before reeling off a 19-2 run spanning from the 6.37 mark to the 1.23 mark. Tennessee's run came largely thanks to the efforts of Josiah-Jordan James and Zakai Zeigler on the offensive end; the duo tallied eight and seven points apiece during the run.

Austin native Victor Bailey Jr. capped off the spurt and tied the game at 51 with a tip-in layup with 1:23 remaining. • After the Vols had held Texas scoreless since the 5:32 mark, Timmy Allen made the second of a pair of free throws with 6.2 seconds that gave the Longhorns a 52-51 lead. Tennessee had a shot to win at the buzzer, but James' 3-pointer rimmed out. • Zeigler led Tennessee in scoring with 12 points, while James added 11. Olivier Nkamhoua finished with nine points and eight rebounds.

Courtney Ramey led Texas (16-5) with 18 points.

Leading by just two at halftime, Texas stormed out of the gates in the second half to take control of the game. The Longhorns opened the second half on an 11-2 run to take a 40-27 lead at the 14:20 mark of the second half.

 Tennessee made just one of its first 14 field-goal attempts to start the second half, while Texas made six of its first 0 shots of the period.
 Texas extended its lead to as many as 17 at 49-32 with 7:57 remaining, which then led to Tennessee's run. Texas took a 27-25 lead into the halftime break, finishing the period on a 5-0 run

 After Zeigler put together a quick 5-0 spurt by himself on a 3-pointer from the top of the key and a pair of free throws, Tennessee held a 25-22 lead heading into the final minute of the first half. However, the Longhorns closed the period strong with a three from Devin Askew and two free throws from Ramey.
 Neither team led by more than five points in a first half that featured four lead changes

Trailing 9-4 nearly seven minutes into the game, Tennessee reeled off a 10-0 run to take its largest lead of the first half at 14-9. Texas then answered the Vols' run with a 10-0 run of their own to take a 19-14 lead with 4:42 remaining.

 Shooting 57 percent in the second half and boasting five players who scored in double figures, the No. 22 Tennessee men's basketball team defeated Texas A&M, 90-80, on Feb. 1. 2022. at Thompson-Boling Arena.

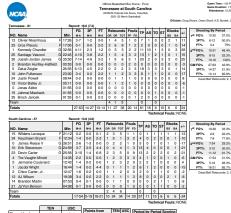

1, 2022, at hounpoor bound Arena. Tennessee (15-6, 6-4 SEC) was in rhythm all night shooting the basketball, making 29-of-57 (509) from the floor and 11-of-26 (.423) from 3-point range. The second half was especially successful, as the Volunteers were 15-of-26 (.577) from the field, sinking 4-of-8 on 3-pointers.

Chord of Sponters.
The offense was marked by balance, as five Vols scored in double figures. Kennedy Chandler led the Vols in scoring with 16 points. He also dished out seven assists and had three steals. Olivier Nkamhoua tallied 15 points and swatted away three shots, while Josiah-Jordan James and Zakai Zeigler each posted 14 points. Santiago Vescovi finished with 13 points while shooting 4-of-8 from beyond the arc. • James' had an all-around big night as his 15 points were the most he has scored this season. He grabbed eight rebounds, leading the team in boards for the seventh time season in graduet and the graduet is a season of the search and the second the second the second the second first time in an SEC game this season.

 Texas A&M (15-7, 4-5 SEC) was led by freshman Wade Taylor IV, who scored 19 points.
 The Volunteer offense was in a groove right from the tip, scoring its most points firsthalf points in an SEC game this season with 43. James came out firing, draining eight of Tennessee's first 12 points. Nkamhoua led a balanced offensive attack with 11 points on 4-of-5 shooting from the floor, he also pulled down four rebounds in the frame. Chandler was a force distributing the ball, dishing out five assists in the first 20 minutes.

 Tennessee had to fend off a speedy Aggies comeback, as the visitors shot 10-of-18 from the floor in the first 14 minutes of the second half. The Big Orange halted the Texas A&M and two steals that Tennessee turned into four points. The Vols never looked back, holding A&M at an arms length for the remainder of the game.

 Tennessee's backcourt delivered standout offensive performances and the No. 22 Vols came away with a convincing 81-57 win on the road over South Carolina at Colonial Life Arena on Feb. 5. 2022.

Charleston, South Carolina, native Josiah-Jordan James led the Vols in scoring and finished with a career-high 20 points on 7-for-14 shooting, making four 3-pointers.
 SEC Sixth Man of the Year candidate Zakai Zeigler, who was held scoreless in the first half, finished the game with a career-high-tying 18 points. In the second half, Zeigler was 6-for-9 shooting, including 4-for-4 from 3-point range. • Kennedy Chandler recorded his second career double-double-scoring 11 points and dishing out 10 assists. Santiago Vescovi finished with 13 points.

James. Zeigler and Chandler also each had three steals on the defensive end.

 James, Zeigler and Chandrer also each had three steads on the detensive end.
 As a team, Tennessee hit 14 3-pointers on Saturday, its most in an SEC game this season.
 After Tennessee (16-6, 7-3 SEC) took a four point lead into halfitime, the Vols and Gamecocks battled evenly for the first four minutes of the second half before Tennessee blew the game open with a 24-4 run spanning from the 16:04 mark to the 9:07 mark-extending its lead from one to 21 in the process.

 Olivier Nkamhoua started the run with a layup before Zeigler put it into full speed with back-to-back threes that put Tennessee ahead by 11 with 13:48 remaining. Zeigler quickly followed up his back-to-back threes with a mid-range jumper and then a pair of free throws, ultimately scoring 10 straight points by himself.

Defensively, Tennessee held South Carolina to just four made field goals in the final 16 minutes of the game.

 After a closely contested first half, Tennessee took a 33-29 lead into the halftime break. Tennessee raced out of to a 16-9 lead to open the game, hitting six of its first nine shots-four of which were 3-pointers.

 Despite Tennessee's fast start. South Carolina was able to use a five and a half minute scoring drought from the Vols to climb back into the game and regain the lead on two occasions before the Vols closed the opening period on a 7-1 run.

Kennedy Chandler and Josiah-Jordan James both provided standout performances fensive end and hit shots in the clutch to help No. 19 Tennessee pull away from on the o Mississippi State on Feb. 9, 2022, on the road, 72-63.

Chandler and James led Tennessee with 18 points apiece. Chandler was 8-for-13 from the Santiago Vescovi and SEC Sixth Man of the Year candidate Zakai Zeigler also scored in double figures for the Vols with 11 points each.

 Defensively, Chandler and Zeigler each had five steals.
 In Tennessee's first game without injured starting forward Olivier Nkamhoua, freshman Brandon Huntley-Hatfield recorded his first career start, scoring four points. Freshman forward Jonas Aidoo also stepped up, playing a career-high 12 minutes and finishing with two points and four rebounds. • In what was a back and forth, closely-contested second half, neither team led by more than five points for the first 19 minutes of the half. Despite the close nature of the final period, Missign) State took the lead just one time—a one-point lead on a Garrison Brooks 3-pointer with 5:15 remaining. • From that point forward, Tennessee (17-6, 8-3 SEC) allowed just four points by the Bulldogs-finishing the game on a 14-4 run.

 Sparking the Vols' final push was James, who buried a deep 3-pointer from the right wing to put Tennessee back in front by two points. After Mississippi State quickly responded with a mid-range jumper by Cameron Matthews, the Vols fired right back with a driving layup from Chandler, followed by a deep three from Vescovi.

 Zeigler finished the game on a 6-0 run by himself to seal the win, driving straight to the rim for a layup with 2:26 remaining to put the Vols back in front by five and then going 4-for-4 at the the free throw line in the final minute.

Overall. Tennessee finished the game by hitting eight of its final nine field-goal attempts Despite a red hot offensive start to the game from Tennessee, the Vols led by just two at halftime, 35-33.

Tennessee controlled the game out of the gates, making its first six field goal attempts and storming out to a 14-2 lead four minutes into the game

 Earning its seventh consecutive SEC win and 13th in a row at Thompson-Boling Arena. Lamma its seven to backtive Sicc with and soft in a row at homport-boing Areina, the No. 19 Tennessee (18-6, 9-3 SEC) got meaningful contributions from all 10 players who saw the floor, each of whom scored for the Big Orange, and held off a ferocious second-half rally from Vanderbilt (13-11, 5-7 SEC) to close out the victory.

The Vols had four players reach double figures, as SEC Sixth Man of the Year candidate Zakai Zeigler notched a team-high 16 points, Josiah-Jordan James tallied 14, John Fulkerson had 12 and Santiago Vescovi scored 10.

• Vescovi was limited to only 21 minutes, his second-lowest run of the year, due to foul trouble in the second half. His impact was immense when he was on the floor, however, as he logged a game-best plus/minus of +21.

James posted his second double-double of the season, pulling down 10 rebounds in addition to his 14 points. The junior guard was strong from the charity stripe, connecting on 9-of-10 from the line.

Thompson-Boling Arena was rocking, with 20,019 filling the stands and making their presence felt. Vol Nation supplied the energy needed to finish out the game, exploding after UT halted Vandy's run in the second half. The Tennessee faithful packed more than 20,000 fans inside TBA for the fourth time this season and have played a critical role in

Tennessee's undefeated home record thus far during the 2021-22 season

 Tennessee put together a strong first half on both ends of the floor. The Big Orange used a 9-0 run spanning 3:43 in the back end of the period to gain a 13-point advantage. The Volunteers' made an impact with physical play on the boards, out-rebounding the Commodores, 20-15, in the half, Vanderbit came out firing in the second period, sinking 5-of-7 shots from beyond the arc in the first five minutes of the half. The Commodores brought the score to within two, 61-59, but James sank a pair of free throws and Kennedy Chandler found his offense, connecting on three baskets in a row, to extend the UT lead. The 8-0 run gave the Vols some much-needed breathing room and they never looked back. • Scotty Pippen Jr. led the Commodores with a game-high 23 points.

Coupling an offensive explosion with strong defense and an impactful capacity crowd on hand, No. 16 Tennessee defeated No. 4 Kentucky, 76-63, on Feb. 15, 2022, at Thompson-

Boling Arena.
 Tennessee (19-6, 10-3 SEC) earned its fifth win over a top-five team in the Rick Barnes era and first since it defeated No. 4 Kentucky at the 2019 SEC Tournament.

Tennessee's offense was firing on all cylinders, with four players scoring in double Igures, igniting the crowd of 21,678 with regularity. All-SEC chadidate Santiago Vescovi led all scorers with 18 points, Kennedy Chandler notched 17, while John Fulkerson and SEC Sixth Man of the Year candidate Zakai Zeigler each recorded 14.

A sa team, the Vols were 8-of-17 (47) from 3-point range and got to the line 23 times, making 20. Chandler was 3-of-5 from beyond the arc and made all four of his free-throw attempts, while Fulkerson sank six from the charity stripe.

feld-goal percentage in a game this season. Before tonight, their low was 56.2 percent against both Texas A&M and LSU. The Vols blocked eight UK shots, the most any team has blocked the Wildcats in a game this season. In Tennessee's last five games, the Vols True freshman forward Jonas Aidoo had a huge game in the post, playing an increased role after a recent injury to junior Olivier Nkamhoua. Aidoo pulled down seven rebounds, and the post, playing an increased role after a recent injury to junior Olivier Nkamhoua. Aidoo pulled down seven rebounds, swatted three shots and scored five points-all career-highs.

Kentucky (21-5, 10-3 SEC) was led by Oscar Tshiebwe, who had 13 points and 15 rebounds, his eighth double-double in a row and 20th this season.
 It was a heavyweight battle through the first eight minutes of play, with three technical fouls called and both teams sinking well-contested buckets. Chandler stepped on the gas to give Tennessee a lead it would not relinquish, sinking a 3-pointer from the left wing with 12:10 left in the half. After a Kentucky possession came up empty. Chandler ran back down the floor, spotting up from the right wing, and drained another trey. The Naismith Defensive Player of the Year candidate started 4-of-4 overall and 3-of-3 from beyond the arc

A hot-shooting night led 17th-ranked Tennessee to a definitive road win on Feb. 22, 2022, at Missouri, 80-61.

All-SEC candidate Kennedy Chandler led the way for the Vols with 23 points on 9-for-12 shooting with a career-high eight rebounds and six assists. • Joining Chandler in double figures was fellow All-SEC hopeful Santiago Vescovi, who scored 14 points on 4-for-6 shooting from 3-point range, and Victor Bailey Jr., who scored Javon Pickett had 16 points to lead Missouri.

 Javon Pickett had 16 points to lead Missouri.
 Carrying a nine-point lead into the start of the second half, Tennessee (20-7, 11-4 SEC).

opened the final period by hitting just one of its first six shots, but quickly regained its shooting stroke. • The Vols and Tigers played back-and-forth for the first four minutes of the final period before a Jonas Aidoo and-one fast-break dunk on a feed from Chandler kicked off a 16-3 Tennessee run that gave the Vols a 21-point lead at 57-36 with 10:44 remaining.

 Missouri responded with a 14-5 run to cut the Tennessee lead to 12 at 62-50 with 6:37 left, but never was able to draw any closer, as Vescovi's three 3-pointers in the final six minutes helped the Vols maintain distance.

 Tennessee led Missouri at halftime, 36-27, after shooting 50 percent (15-for-30) from the field during the first half.

 Despite its high shooting percentage for the first half as a whole, the Vols hit just two of their first seven shots from the field to start the game. Trailing 17-15 just under nine minutes into the opening period, Tennessee took control by rattling off a 13-0 run spanning nearly five minutes—bookended by contested midrange jumpers from Bailey Jr. • After it made seven of 12 shots to start the game, Missouri made just four of its last 16 to end the half.

Chandler led all scorers with 14 first-half points on 6-for-8 shooting
