KICKIN' IT

- Michigan State women's soccer prepares for its first ranked test of the 2022 season, as the Spartans face No. 11 Arkansas in a 1 p.m. (ET) game on Razorback Field.
- The Green & White return to action following a dominant offensive performance against the Dartmouth Big Green on Thursday, Sept. 1. Four different goal-scorers led the charge in MSU's third-straight win, posting a 4-1 decision over the Ivy League squad.
- MSU landed a pair of student-athletes in the most recent Big Ten Women's Soccer Weekly Honors, released on Aug. 30. Senior Lauren Kozal was named Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Week, while midfielder Courtney Koehler took home Freshman of the Week accolades.
- Kozal was named to the MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List on Thursday, Aug. 18. She becomes only the second Spartan in program history to be named to the list, joining program legend Laura Heyboer.

RESISTING THE RAZORBACKS

- Razorback skipper Colby Hale leads Arkansas into its fifth game of the season boasting a 3-1-0 overall record, with its only defeat coming against nationally-ranked Saint Louis in its season opener.
- Arkansas faces its second consecutive opponent from the Great Lakes State, having dispatched with the Western Michigan Broncos by a 3-0 score in its last game out.
- Ava Tankersley leads the way offensively for the Razorbacks, amassing six points on the year split between one goal and four assists. Jessica De Filippo and Ainsley Erzen each lead the team with two goals apiece.
- In net, Grace Barbara has recorded 15 saves this season while allowing only two goals.

MSU AGAINST THE SEC

- Michigan State will face Arkansas for the first time in program history on Sunday, marking the fourth SEC opponent MSU has challenged all-time. The game will stand as the first MSU vs. SEC meeting since 2005.
- The Green & White own a 4-2-2 ledger against current Southeastern Conference programs all-time, highlighted by a 3-1-2 record against the Kentucky Wildcats.
- MSU has also faced current SEC teams in Texas A&M and Vanderbilt, each in a one-off competition.
- The most recent meeting between Michigan State and an SEC foe came on Sept. 2, 2005, in which the Spartans booked a gritty 1-0 win over Texas A&M in East Lansing.

UP NEXT

- Michigan State women's soccer returns to the friendly confines of Old College Field at DeMartin Stadium, as the Spartans play host to the Oakland Golden Grizzlies in a 7 p.m. kick on Thursday, Sept. 4.

MSU Opponents are BOLDDED

THE BIG LEAGUES

- In a preseason poll of the 14 Big Ten women's soccer coaches, Michigan State was selected to finish sixth in the league table in 2022.
- Penn State and Rutgers tied for first place in the preseason poll, with Michigan, Wisconsin and Ohio State rounding out the top five.
- Returning All-Big Ten selections from 2021, Lauren Kozal and Samantha White, appeared on the preseason players to watch list, with graduate transfer Ruby Diodati also making an appearance.
- MSU published a 5-4-1 record in Big Ten Conference play in the 2021 season highlighted by a pair of wins over Wisconsin and Ohio State.

STARTIN' SPARTAN STRONG

- Michigan State owns a 4-0-1 overall record through the first five contests of the 2022 regular season, matching the best start for an MSU team since the 2018 squad posted an identical record.
- The Green & White have allowed only one goal through this point in the year, which matches the 2002, 2008 and 2018 teams for the most dominant defensive start in program history.
- In the three occasions in which the Spartans allowed a single goal through five games, the team averaged 10.33 overall wins on the season in addition to an average placement of 7.33 in the final Big Ten standings of the year.
- Both the 2002 and 2008 teams finished with 12-or-more victories and reached both the Big Ten and NCAA Tournaments. The 2008 squad advanced to the Big Ten Tournament Semifinals over Illinois.

BACK LINE? BRICK WALL.

- Through the first five games of the 2022 campaign, Michigan State has allowed a single score by an opponent, putting up a quartet of shutouts against Bowling Green, Cincinnati, Central Michigan and Binghamton before allowing a goal against Dartmouth.
- MSU owns a whopping 106-22 differential in shots over its opponents and has only allowed eight shots on target all season, resulting in six goalkeeper saves and one team save.
- The Spartans are tied for seventh in the nation in terms of goals-against-average, notching a GAA of .200 through 450 team minutes. Indiana is the only program in the Big Ten remaining with a perfect mark of .000.
- The Spartans matched the season-opening shutout record set by the 2018 team, allowing zero scores through four contests. Michigan State went 443 total minutes from the opening kick of the season without allowing an opponent goal.

7-7-7, LET'S GO

- In Michigan State's home-opening matchup with the Central Michigan Chippewas on Aug. 25, the Spartan offense logged seven goals scored by six different individuals.
- MSU's offensive onslaught in its third game of the season marked the first time any Spartan team recorded seven-or-more goals since a 7-0 demolition of Purdue Fort Wayne on Sept. 19, 2001. The program record for goals in a single game is set at 10, accomplished on four occasions.
- The Green & White accumulated a 29-2 shot margin and a 14-0 differential in shots on goal. Both margins were the highest by a Spartan team since MSU defeated Detroit Mercy 4-0 last season.

TURN THE BEAT AROUND

- In the first year of the Jeff Hosler era, Michigan State recorded the largest single-season increase in victories in program history with nine additional wins. MSU turned a one-win 2020-21 slate into 10 victories in the 2021 fall campaign.
- The Spartans forced 16 more goals and allowed 10 fewer than they did in the previous year.
- MSU tied the program record for the largest jump in year-over-year Big Ten wins with four additional victories in 2021, matching their single-season increase from 11 seasons ago. The Spartans turned a 3-4-3 season in 2010 into a 7-4-0 ledger in 2011.
- Despite being picked to finish 13th in the Big Ten in 2021, the Green & White finished in the top-four of the league table for the first time since booking a 7-4-0 record with a third-place finish in 2011.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

- The Spartans ranked in the nation's top-25 last season in goals-against average, placing 24th in the NCAA, third in the Big Ten and first among programs in Michigan.
- MSU allowed 13 goals in 18 games played while accumulating 1,680 team minutes, amounting to a goals-against average of .696.
- The Green & White additionally booked the nation's seventh-highest save percentage in goal, notching 82 saves with only 13 goals allowed for an average of .862.
- Michigan State recorded the best save percentage in the Big Ten and the second-highest mark among power five programs.

KEEPING KOZAL

- Senior goalkeeper Lauren Kozal continues the 2022 season as only the second United Soccer Coaches All-American in program history.
- Kozal earned preseason recognition as a MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List member, joining program legend Laura Heyboer as one of only two Spartans with that accolade.
- In the preseason, Kozal was one of 13 Division I goalkeepers named to the United Soccer Coaches Goalkeepers to Watch list, standing as the lone representative of the Big Ten Conference following her B1G Goalkeeper of the Year recognition last season.
- The Ada, Michigan, native averaged 4.5 saves per game in the 2021 campaign and led the Big Ten in save percentage with an 86.2% success rate in goal.
- Kozal earned her third career Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Week award on August 30, garnering weekly honors following a pair of shutouts against Central Michigan and Binghamton.

WINNING WITH WHITE

- Graduate defender Samantha White continues her fifth season at Michigan State and stands as one of three Spartans who took home All-Big Ten honors last season.
- In the preseason, White was named as one of the United Soccer Coaches Defenders to Watch, joining fellow defender Kelly Severini.
- The McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania, native has anchored the Spartan back line through its four season-opening shutouts and logged an assist in MSU's rout of Central Michigan on Aug. 25.
- White has started every game of her career in East Lansing, notching 72 starts over the past five seasons. She is tied for ninth with Becky Ketola for the most career starts at MSU.

BACK TO THE LAB(OVIC)

- Junior midfielder Zivana Labovic returns to the pitch for MSU in 2022 as the program's second-leading goal scorer from a year ago.
- The Schererville, Indiana, native accumulated her first two points of the season in the home-opener against Central Michigan, booking a pair of assists in MSU's seven-goal onslaught.
- Labovic notched four goals in addition to two assists in 2021, finishing with the second most points (10) on the roster behind only then-graduate forward Ava Cook.

WHO'S NEW ON THE BANKS

- The Green & White welcome 17 newcomers to the 2022 roster, split between seven transfers and 10 incoming freshmen.
- Transfers for the Spartans accumulated three All-Conference team selections in 2021, with Kelly Severini, Mia Hansen and Ruby Diodati earning those honors at their previous institutions.
- Severini, a junior transfer from Hartford, earned a place on the United Soccer Coaches Defenders to Watch list after leading the America East's premier defense in terms of goals against average (0.65).
- MSU signed a versatile recruiting class last November, composed of Isa Agrusso, Ella Alati, Madie Brady, Morgan Gerak, Maggie Illig, Courtney Koehler, Allie Mairn, Ella Osmussen, Emerson Sargeant and Maia Soulis.
- Freshman midfielder Courtney Koehler took home Big Ten Freshman of the Week accolades following a dominant outing in her first collegiate start against Central Michigan on Aug. 25. Koehler, a native of The Woodlands, Texas, posted a pair of goals in 54 minutes of action.

HEAD COACH JEFF HOSLER

17TH SEASON, 2ND WITH PROGRAM | ALMA COLLEGE '02

In his first season as head coach for the Green and White, Hosler guided the Spartans to a 10-4-3 record, finishing fourth in the Big Ten regular season with a 5-4-1 mark. The squad made their first Big Ten Tournament appearance since 2011 and were granted the opportunity to host their quarterfinal match, marking the first tournament game in East Lansing since 2002.

After being predicted to finish 13th in the league, the Spartans improved by leaps and bounds to finish within the top five. The Spartans boast the most decorated goalkeeper in the league in Lauren Kozal, and have had a dramatic offensive turnaround compared to last season's 1-10-1 showing. It was the first ten-win season for the team since 2011, the year of their last postseason appearance.

Michigan State received three All-Big Ten selections at the conclusion of the regular season, as Kozal was named to the First Team and Ava Cook and Samantha White garnered Second Team nods. Kozal was also selected as the Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Year, the first-ever Goalkeeper of the Year honor awarded to a member of the Spartans and the first position player of the year award for MSU since 2008.

With Hosler at the helm, Kozal and White also earned recognition on the United Soccer Coaches All-Region team, with Kozal going on to be named a United Soccer Coaches All-American. Kozal held the highest save percentage of any goalkeeper in the Big Ten (.862) during the season. She ranked second in the Big Ten with a goals against average of .0495, allowing just 13 goals to score over 18 games. She also had the second-most saves per game (4.5) and her seven regular-season shutouts were the third-most in the conference.

A total of 18 Spartans earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in Hosler's inaugural year.

Michigan State Vice President and Director of Athletics Bill Beekman announced the hiring of Jeff Hosler as the Spartans' next women's soccer head coach on June 14, 2021.

Hosler succeeds Tom Saxton, who was at the helm of the Spartans for 30 years.

Hosler, who concluded his seventh season as head coach of the Grand Valley State women's soccer team this spring, posted the highest winning percentage of any coach in Laker history, led GVSU to three NCAA Championships, five NCAA title game appearances and reached at least the Elite Eight in six seasons (there was no Division II NCAA Tournament in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic). He leaves GVSU with an overall record of 144-12-6, the best winning percentage in all of NCAA Soccer during that span, and a 63-2-2 mark in GLIAC play.

"I'm pleased to welcome Jeff Hosler to the Spartan family as our new women's soccer coach," Beekman said. "He's experienced exceptional success at Grand Valley State, including three national championships, while his student-athletes have been recognized for their performance on the field and in the classroom. Michigan State has a great soccer tradition, and I'm excited to watch Coach Hosler put his own mark on the Spartan program."

"I am so honored and grateful to Athletic Director Bill Beekman, Deputy Athletic Director Jen Smith, head men's soccer coach Damon Rensing and the entire search committee for entrusting me with the opportunity to lead this program," Hosler said. "I also want to thank Tom Saxton, Tammy Farnum and Stacy DeLonge for their dedication, and the incredible example they demonstrated to so many generations of Spartans. The pursuit of excellence for women's soccer in all facets begins now, while competing at the highest level within the Big Ten on and off the field. MSU and this community is a special place with amazing people, and I couldn't be more excited to come home."

With Hosler at the helm, 32 Lakers captured All-America honors and 43 earned All-Region. Twelve different Lakers were honored as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 56 Lakers garnered All-GLIAC honors. He also coached three Lakers to National Player of the Year honors, while guiding Marti Corby to the U-23 US Women's National Team camp in 2016.

Under Hosler's leadership, the Lakers dominated GLIAC play, winning six conference regular-season titles and seven GLIAC Tournament championships. The Lakers have also claimed the Midwest Regional title in six seasons and have reached the NCAA Elite Eight in 11 straight seasons.

In 2019, GVSU captured the program's sixth national title, a Division II record. The Lakers went 25-1, matching the single-season wins record, and scored a program-record 117 goals while guiding the nation's top offense.

Prior to GVSU, Hosler spent eight seasons at his alma mater Alma College. During his time, the Scots earned a 91-55-12 overall record, winning their only Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) regular season title in 2010. Alma also claimed the 2011 MIAA Tournament title to make its first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

As a two-sport student-athlete at Alma, he was a four-time All-MIAA honoree, earning All-Mideast Region and All-NCAA Tournament honors during the Scots' first trip to the Final Four in 1999. Hosler left Alma as the all-time leader in assists and ranked inside the top five in career points.

He also holds a United States Soccer Federation (USSF) National "B" License and USYSA National "Youth" License.

The East Lansing native earned a bachelor of arts in business from Alma College in 2002. He and his wife, Rochelle, are the parents of two daughters, Charlie and Kennedy, and a son, Steven.
