The Breakdown

Series History - Arkansas

The Tigers hold a 15-11-3 lead in the series against the Razorbacks. The teams met twice last season - in the regular season finale, where LSU earned the highest ranked win in program history as they beat No. 4 Arkansas 4-2, and then in the quarterfinals of the SEC Tournament, where Arkansas won by a score of 2-1.

Last Time Out

LSU battled to a 0-0 draw on the road against No. 16 Tennessee last Friday night. LSU's defensive unit deserved praise for their performance on the night, limiting the Lady Vols in chances in terms of quality and quantity. LSU became only the second team this team to finish 90 minutes with a clean sheet against Tennessee.

Top goalscorers - Mix of Experience and Youth

Fifth-year senior Aleisa Garcia and freshman Ida Hermannsdottir have led the way for the Tigers this season. Hermannsdottir currently leads the team with six goals while Garcia has five. Freshmen Mollie Baker and Sage Glover both narrowly trail the top scorers with four on the year.

Hermannsdottir found her first collegiate goal in the 33rd minute against San Diego and then tallied her second and third career goals in the 27th and 82nd minutes against Grambling to earn the first brace of her collegiate career. As the match was all-even at 1-1 in the first half, Hermannsdottir led LSU to a 2-1 lead with a superb long-range effort just three minutes after her teammate Mollie Baker equalized the game. The freshman scored the final goal in the 82nd minute after shrugging off a defender and slotting a ball past the Grambling State goalkeeper.

Hermannsdottir tallied the fourth goal of her career at No. 6 Rutgers, when she intercepted a ball in the final third and hit a right-footed effort that beat the Scarlet Knights' goalkeeper and landed in the bottom left corner. Goal number five came in her SEC debut as she hit a free-kick from 25 yards out that was powerful enough to beat the diving goalkeeper and land in the bottom-left corner. The goal was the game winner for LSU, who won 2-1 on the day.

Her sixth and most recent goal came at Texas A&M. Hermannsdottir charged into the box before being upended by an Aggie defender and the referee pointed to the penalty spot. Not short on confidence, Hermannsdottir stepped up and calmly placed the ball on the left side of the goal to tie the match at 2-2.

Garcia's first goals of the season came on the team's road trip in California. The forward tallied her first goal against Pepperdine in the 54th minute. The Waves goalkeeper was unable to control the ball on a deflected shot from Jordan Johnson and Garcia seized the opportunity. She pounced on the loose ball and placed it into the back of the net. The goal was the first of the season for Garcia and the 26th of her collegiate career.

Garcia marked the second straight game she found the back of the net for the Tigers in the next game against San Diego, when she capped the night off in fashion for the Tigers as she scored the fourth goal in the 87th minute to secure the win. Garcia rounded the goalkeeper with a touch to her right-side and was collected enough to place the ball into the open goal. The Colorado native continued her scoring at Southern Miss in the 52nd minute for the Tigers as she sent a rocket into the top-right corner from 19 yards out to take the 1-0 lead in the match.

Garcia found her fourth finish against No. 6 Rutgers on a rebound goal after the Scarlet Knights goalkeeper loosely deflected a shot from Thoreson. Her fifth of the season and first in conference play came on Sunday. Defender Rammie Noel broke away down the left flank and sent a cross to the back post and found Garcia, who was unmarked and calmly headed the ball home. The goal was a strong response from the Tigers, who conceded the first goal of the match only 19 seconds prior to Garcia's goal.

After scoring three each in nonconference play, Baker and Glover both found the back of the net in SEC play for the first time in their collegiate careers last Sunday versus Kentucky. Glover gave LSU a 2-1 lead in the match as she finished off a fantastic team sequence with a 10-yard goal that landed in the right-corner. Baker's goal came in the 58th minute when the match was tied at 2-2. The freshman tracked a cleared ball to midfield and capitalized on a mistake in defense to break away with pace and beat the goalkeeper one-on-one.

Of LSU's 33 goals scored this season, 13 have come from true freshmen (39.3%) while 12 goals have come from 5th year seniors/graduate students (36.4%). The Tigers have 14 different goalscorers and have shown strong depth in the scoring department by scoring two or more goals in 12 out of 15 contests this season.

Terrific Thoreson

Angelina Thoreson leads the team in assists with seven on the year. The freshman has proven to be a weapon on both sides of the ball and continues to create scoring opportunities for the Tigers.

Thoreson recorded her first career assist in the season opener against Stephen F. Austin, where she sent in a ground pass inside the box that found Baker for the finish.

Her second assist came on the road at San Diego on a strong and accurate ground cross from the right side of the box that found Glover, who slotted it past the goalkeeper. She tallied assist No. 3 against Grambling when the ball on the edge of the box and laid off a simple pass to Hermannsdottir, who came in charging from midfield and smashed the goal from 24 yards out.

Thoreson tallied her fourth assist in the Tigers face off with No. 6 Rutgers and took a shot on goal, which fell loose off the goalie and found Garcia for the rebound finish. Her fifth assist came when against Missouri she laid a pass off to her teammate Taylor Dobles on the edge of the box. Dobles sent in a cross and found teammate Raelyn Prince, who timed her run and put the ball into the back of the net.

Assist number six came on against Kentucky as Thoreson was part of a terrific team sequence. She latched onto the ball into the box and sent a pinpoint ground cross to Glover, who blasted the ball into the right corner. She continued her ways in the next match against Texas A&M as she sent a ground cross to the back post that found Rammie Noel, who tapped the ball into an open goal.

Top Drawer Top 100 Freshmen

Freshmen Ida Hermannsdottir and Angelina Thoreson were named to Top Drawer Soccer's Top 100 Freshman list on Tuesday afternoon.

The list, announced by the organization, ranked the top 100 freshmen players in the country. Midfielder Ida Hermannsdottir ranked at No. 10 and forward Angelina Thoreson was ranked No. 38.

Hermannsdottir leads the LSU squad in goals scored with six in her first season with the Tigers.

As a freshman, Hermannsdottir has started in 12 out of the Tigers 15 matches and recorded six goals, two assists, 13 shots on goal and 19 points. She ranks ninth in the country in goals scored and

The Icelandic international has represented Iceland at senior, U19, and U17 levels and has made two senior appearances for the Iceland National Team. Prior to LSU, Hermannsdottir played professionally at Valur Reykjavik in Iceland, where she made 41 appearances for Valur Reykjavik and scored 10 goals. She helped claim the Iceland League Title and Reykjavik Cup in 2021 and the Icelandic Women's Super Cup in 2022.

Thoreson leads the Tigers with seven assists on the season. Along with a team-high seven assists, Thoreson has also recorded one goal, 10 shots on goal and nine points through 15 games. She started in 13 of those matches. The forwards ranks sixth in the country for assists.

The Sweden native played the last three seasons (2019, 2020, 2021) for IK Uppsala, a professional club back in Sweden and made over 50 appearances for the club. Thoreson played the 2019 season in the Damallsvenskan division, which is the highest level of women's soccer in Sweden. She scored five goals in 20 games played during the 2021 season.

The Captains

LSU is captained by the defensive duo of fifth year seniors Shannon Cooke and Lindsay Jennings.

Cooke has been a mainstay in the LSU squad since arriving on campus in 2018 and enters the season with 73 appearances for the Tigers, including 65 starts during that time. A former midfielder turned centerback, Cooke started at centerback for all 18 appearances in the 2021 season and will look to strengthen her defensive partnership with fellow captain Jennings.

Jennings is in her second season in Purple & Gold after spending the first three years of her collegiate career at Northern Colorado, where she made 51 appearances and received All-Big Sky honors all three years of playing. She'll look to build on a successful first year as a Tiger, where appeared in all 20 matches and started 12 of those.

A Roster Near and Far

The 2022 roster features 32 athletes, 11 of which are newcomers to the squad.

Five countries are represented in the squad (United States, England, Ghana, Iceland, and Sweden). Cooke, Kelci Bowers, Brenna McPartlan, and Tilly Wilkes hail from across the pond, Wasila Diwura-Soale comes from Ghana, Ida Hermannsdottir is a native of Iceland, and Angelina Thoreson is a proud Swede.

Of the remaining 25 athletes, five are native to Louisiana and Texas while Florida and Colorado both have four players each. The remaining states of Arizona, Georgia, New York, Nebraska, North Carolina, Virginia, and Washington each have one representative on the squad.

Hudson's Professional Tigers

Head coach Sian Hudson has had two players move on from LSU to the professional level in only two seasons in Baton Rouge.

Forward Tinaya Alexander is currently a member of Montpellier Hérault Sport Club (Pronounced MONT - PEE - LEE - UR) in the first division of France and defender Athena Kuehn plays in Spain's first division at Sporting Club de Huelva (WELL-VUH). Both players were members of the 2021 LSU Soccer team, Hudson's second season in charge.

Alexander, a five year member of the LSU soccer team from 2017-2021, tallied 21 goals and 22 assists (2nd highest in program history) in 81 games played. In her fifth and final season at LSU in 2021, the Reading, England native earned First Team All-SEC honors and was named the Louisiana Sports Writers Association Player of the Year after tallying nine goals and six assists in 20 matches played.

Alexander made history as she became the first LSU player drafted to the NWSL. The Washington Spirit selected Alexander with the 14th overall pick in the 2022 NWSL draft. Alexander spent seven months with the club, making nine appearances and starting one match in the NWSL.

On September 20, Alexander finalized a transfer deal to move to France as she joined Montpellier (Pronounced MONT - PEE - LEE - UR) HSC. Montpellier HSC competes in France's first division, the highest level of competition in France and one of the most competitive leagues in the world in club soccer.

Athena Kuehn joined the Tigers for the 2021 season and was one of the most consistent players throughout. Following a four year career at Minnesota, Kuehn joined LSU and moved from defender to midfielde, where she picked up three goals and three assists while being a mainstay in the lineup throughout the season.

Kuehn began her professional career with a move to Lithuania, where she signed with powerhouse FC Gintra ahead of the 2022 season. Kuehn spent seven months with FC Gintra, where she was a consistent starter in defense and helped FC Gintra to 37 of a possible 39 points (12 wins, 1 draw, 0 losses) start in league play. The Colorado Springs, Colorado native also made appearances in the qualifying round for the UEFA Women's Champions League, the most elite competition of women's club soccer.

Following a successful stay in Lithuania, Kuehn finalized a transfer to Spain with Sporting Club de Huelva (WELL-VUH) in September of 2022. Huelva play in the top division of women soccer in Spain, and Kuehn made her first start in a league match for the club only ten days after signing.

Alexander signed with Montpellier HSC in September of 2022.

Alexander and Kuehn celebrate a goal scored during the 2021 season.

Kuehn first signed with FC Gintra in March before moving to SC Huelva in September.

Tiffany Hansen - U17's World Cup

LSU's assistant coach Tiffany Hansen has been named an assistant coach by the United States Soccer Federation for the upcoming FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in India.

The event, set to take place between October 11 - October 30, will feature 16 nations contest for glory. The United States begin the competition in Group A alongside host nation India, Brazil and Morocco. The top two teams of each group (four groups) will advance to the single round knockout stages.

Hansen, who joined the LSU staff as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator in April, is no stranger to the USSF and its youth teams. She has experience coaching at both the U-17 and U-18 levels and has worked as a scout for US Soccer in addition to her time coaching in collegiate soccer. Hansen was most recently an assistant coach for the U17s at their gear-up camp in August, where they trained in Spain and faced Germany's U17s and Spain's U17s.

Sian (pronounced SHAWN) Hudson was named LSU's head coach on December 11, 2019. Since that date, she's helped take LSU to places its never been before. A No. 5 national ranking in the fall of 2021, the highest in program history, and she's already amassed five wins over nationally ranked teams. She helped LSU earn its seventh trip to the NCAA Tournament in the fall of 2021.

The 2021 fall season started off about as good as it could have with the Tigers winning eight straight under the direction of Hudson. Included in those eight straight wins were triumphs over three ranked squads – No. 15 USF, No. 19 UCF, and No. 21 Arizona State. Pair those eight wins with the final three from the spring season of 2021 and LSU had won a program record 11 straight games.

LSU tallied a total of four ranked wins during the 2022 season. The aforementioned three above in an 11-day span from late August to early September, and then the biggest one of them all came in the regular season finale against No. 4 Arkansas. With LSU's season on the line, the Tigers came out with a fiery passion under Hudson on Oct. 28, 2021, as the Tigers handed the Razorbacks their first and only loss of the conference regular season with a 4-2 victory. The win solidified LSU's positioning in the SEC and NCAA Tournament and was the highest ranked win in program history.

The LSU faithful caught on the wonderful display of soccer being played and showed out on Sept. 17, 2021 as LSU opened up SEC play against Mississippi State in Baton Rouge. A school record crowd of 3,021 showed up and supported the Tigers en route to a 2-0 shutout victory over Mississippi State in what was a raucous environment. Hudson and company have invested an ample amount of time in the Baton Rouge community and it has showed. The program is on the rise and the LSU faithful has a knack for supporting winners. LSU averaged 1,334 fans per home match during the 2021 season to set the program, and that average ranked as the 12th highest in the nation.

LSU scored 40 goals on the season while only conceding 25 times in 2021; that goal differential of 15 was the highest for the program since 2009. The 40 goals were the most in program history since 2009 as well. Fourteen different players factored into the scoresheet with goals to match the program record for most individual goals scorers in a single season.

Tinaya Alexander absolutely thrived under Hudson's style of play as she registered a career high 24 points during the 2021 season that included nine goals and six assists as she led LSU all season long. Those numbers earned her a spot on the All-SEC First Team and the United Soccer Coaches Southeast All-Region First Team. Not only did she receive those accolades, but her play caught the eyes of professional clubs and she was drafted No. 14 overall in the 2021 NWSL Draft to the Washington Spirit. She became LSU's second ever player to be drafted by the NWSL, and she was the first player from the SEC to be taken in the 2021 draft.

LSU had three different players collect hat tricks during the 2021 season. Tinaya Alexander (four goals) and Alesia Garcia (three goals) both did it in the same game on August 22, 2021, versus Sam Houston State; Alexander and Garcia became the first duo in program history to register a hat track in the same game. Molly Thompson scored three against UL-Lafayette on September 9, 2021.

Only three months into her gig at the helm of LSU soccer in March of 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic struck and halted all of collegiate athletics, but Hudson didn't let that deter her. Fast forward five months and the LSU soccer team returned to campus and began practice for the 2020-21 season, its first under Hudson. Hudson's first win of her LSU career came on November 13, 2020, as the Tigers shutout Alabama for a 2-0 win over Alabama in the first round of the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, Alabama. The Tigers followed that up with a 2-1 win over No. 14 Ole Miss two days later to advance to the SEC quarterfinals in their first SEC Tournament appearance under Hudson's reign.

The 2020-21 season featured fall and spring games counted towards LSU's team record and Hudson made the most of the spring with her team. She led her squad to a record of 6-1-1 in the spring of 2021 and the level of expectation within the program has risen heading into the fall of 2021. The Tigers ended the 2020-21 season with an RPI of 54.

Tinaya Alexander (21 points) had a career year in 2020-21 with nine goals and three assists to lead the scoring efforts for LSU. Molly Thompson did the same as well as she scored a career high five goals during her junior campaign. Rammie Noel and Maya Gordon were both named to the All-SEC Second Team for their play during the fall portion of the 2020 season under Hudson's guidance.

Hudson came to LSU with nearly 20 years of coaching experience. She came to Baton Rouge after serving as the head coach at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs for the past three seasons. During her time as head coach at UCCS, Hudson led the Mountain Lions to a 52-10-4 record. Each of those three seasons saw UCCS qualify for the NCAA Tournament, the first three appearances in school history, including a run to the national semifinals in 2017. Her win totals in each of the three seasons – 17 in 2017, 16 in 2018, and 19 in 2019 – were the three winningest seasons in program history.

Hudson earned her bachelor's in Sports Coaching Science, majoring in sport psychology from Cardiff Metropolitan University in 2002. She's graduated with her master's degree in sports coaching from the University of Denver in May of 2020.
