CARDINAL NOTES

- Louisville has participated in the Maui Invitational three times before in 1989, 2000 and 2004. The Cardinals are 5-4 alltime in the event and 21-11 overall in the state of Hawaii.
- UofL has won 45 of its last 101 games against AP ranked opponents. The Cardinals are 62-69 against Top 25 teams over the last 12 years, as well as 23-33 against Top 10 teams over that span.
- Louisville is the first team since at least 1980 to lose its first three games of the season by one point each, according to ESPN Stats & Info. Including last year's 51-50 loss to Virginia in the ACC Tournament, the Cardinals are the first team to lose four straight games overall by one point since Stetson in 1981-82.
- Per Ken Pomeroy, Louisville is 338th in the country in Division I experience with an average of 0.91 years.
- Through three games, the Cardinals have been outscored by a combined 113-92 in the first half, but have outscored their opponents 106-88 in the second half.
- Senior guard El Ellis' 72 points are the most by a Louisville player in the first three games of a season since Wes Unseld had 101 points against Georgetown College (45), Kansas (20), and Northwestern (36) to open the 1967-68 season. Ellis is the first Cardinal to score at least 29 points in back-to-back games since Reece Gaines (current team video coordinator) did it against TCU and Marquette on March 6-7, 2002. Ellis was tied for eighth in the country in scoring (24 ppg) as of Saturday.

LAST TIME OUT

Louisville vs. Appalachian State

KFC Yum! Center Louisville, Ky.

The Louisville men's basketball team suffered its third straight one-point loss to open the season Tuesday, falling 61-60 to Appalachian State at the KFC Yum! Center.

The Cardinals trailed 57-45 with 7:01 remaining and stormed back with a 15-4 run to finish the game.

Senior guard El Ellis appeared to score the game-winning basket on a layup in traffic at the buzzer, but it was waved off after an official review.

Ellis tied his career high with 29 points for the second straight game, marking the first time that a Cardinal has scored 29-plus in consecutive games since Reece Gaines did it against TCU and Marquette on March 6-7, 2002.

Ellis scored the Cardinals' final seven points, his last on a layup with 24 seconds left that cut App State's lead to 61-60. On the final play that was waved off, the ball was in the senior's hand for just one-tenth of a second after the horn.

Huntley-Hatfield had his first career double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Donovan Gregory led App State with 16 points.

NOTES ON THE PROGRAM

TRADITION OF WINNING

Louisville has an all-time 1,772-962 record in 109 seasons of intercollegiate basketball. The Cardinals rank among the top 15 all-time in winning percentage (does not include 123-3 record vacated by NCAA). The Cardinals played their first official men's basketball game on Jan. 28, 1912 when they lost 35-3 to Louisville YMCA, but did not field teams in 1916-17, 1922-23 or 1942-43. The Cardinals have produced winning seasons in 73 of the last 77 years, including winning 20 or more games in 18 of the last 20 seasons and 30 or more in three of the last 11 years in on court results.

TOURNAMENT SUCCESS

UofL is tied for eighth nationally with eight Final Four appearances. No other school went to the Final Four four times during the 1980s, and Louisville won two NCAA titles in that decade, winning the national championship in 1980 and 1986. Louisville's 39 NCAA Tournament appearances are tied for eighth best all-time, and its 102 NCAA Tournament games are tied for the ninth most played in the event (61-41 record) (does not include four NCAA appearances, a 15-3 record, two Final Fours and the 2013 national championship vacated by the NCAA). The Cards have reached the Sweet 16 on 17 occasions and have advanced to the Elite Eight 11 times.

Louisville has ranked among the top seven nationally in average home attendance in 40 of the last 41 years. UofL has played 12-plus seasons in its spectacular home, the 22,090 seat KFC Yum! Center in downtown Louisville. The Cardinals have a 179-39 record in 12-plus seasons in the KFC Yum! Center (.821). Louisville attracted approximately 3.9 million fans in its first 12 years in the Yum! Center, including a total attendance of 298,846 in 18 games in 2019-20 (last year pre-COVID).

CHAMPIONSHIP GUESTS

The eventual national champion has played in Louisville's home arena, the KFC Yum! Center, in seven of the arena's 12 seasons in existence. Louisville faced eventual champions Connecticut (2011, 2014), Duke (2015) and Virginia (2019) in home games, Kentucky (2012) won a pair of games in the 2012 NCAA second and third rounds in the KFC Yum! Center, 2016 champion Villanova won the NCAA South Regional in Louisville, and UofL won the 2013 itself (later vacated).

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

The Cardinals are one of the most televised teams in college basketball. UofL games will be televised on national networks during the 2022-23 regular season on double-digit occasions. Every possible UofL game over the past 39 years has been televised on either a live or delayed basis – a total of over 1,275 games – including over 575 national television appearances.

AMERICA'S TOP BASKETBALL MARKET

Louisville is consistently the highest-rated television market for college basketball. Louisville has been the top market for ESPN each of the last 20 years since tracking the data. Louisville's 4.2 rating during the 2018-19 season was well above the next closest market (Knoxville with a 2.9 rating).

AT HOME IN THE TOP 25

The Cardinals have been ranked on 656 occasions in the AP poll, sixth most all-time. Louisville has been among the top ten on 302 occasions, including 14 times in the 2019-20 season. Louisville's No. 1 ranking in the Dec. 2 and 9, 2019, Associated Press polls were just the third and fourth times UofL has ever been ranked as the No.1 team in the nation in the AP poll. The other two were March 16, 2009 in the final AP poll of the season; and Jan. 14, 2013. UofL has been ranked as the No.1 team in the nation in the coaches poll on five occasions, including twice in 2019-20. The other three were in the 1986-87 preseason UPI coaches poll; in the ESPN/USA Today poll on March 15, 2009; and in the final USA Today coaches poll of 2012-13 on April 8, 2013.

UofL has won 23 of its last 56 games when facing Top 10 teams, spanning the last 12 years.

THE 1K CLUB

Louisville is second to North Carolina for the national lead with 69 all-time 1,000 point scorers. Jordan Nwora (1,294 points in three seasons) was the latest Cardinal to reach that milestone in 2019-20.

CONSISTENT WINNING

Louisville is one of seven Division I schools in the nation that has won 20 or more games in at least 18 of the past 20 seasons on the court. Kansas tops the list with 33 consecutive years, followed by Duke (25 of last 26) and Gonzaga (25). UofL has won at least 20 games in 40 of the last 52 years. UofL has won at least 19 games in 46 of the last 52 years. However, the NCAA's vacation of 123 victories in four of those years (2011-15) negates the official results.

NON-CONFERENCE DOMINANCE

UofL has a 244-67 record (.785) against non-conference opponents over the last 22 seasons (includes post-season), including a 176-20 record in home regular season non-conference games. The Cardinals are 96-11 at home in regular season non-conference games over the last 13 seasons.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

The Cardinals have played a schedule ranked among the top 18 toughest by the ratings percentage index or NET in 11 of the past 15 seasons, including the nation's fourth-toughest schedule by the NCAA's NET ranking in 2018-19.

ACADEMIC STANDARD

Louisville has received an NCAA Public Recognition Award in seven of the last eight years awarded for ranking among the top 10 percent in men's basketball in the Academic Progress Rate (APR), which measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation for student-athletes. Louisville and Stanford are the only two schools from Power Five conferences that have earned the APR recognition in at least seven of the last eight years. The Cardinals have attained a collective 3.0 GPA in 24 of the last 28 semesters, including a 3.1 cumulative team mark for the Fall 2021 semester.

UPCOMING ANNIVERSARIES

The 2022-23 season marks notable anniversaries for two of Louisville's Final Four teams. It's the 40th anniversary for UofL's 1983 NCAA Final Four team (32-4 record). Guided by Hall of Fame coach Denny Crum, and captained by Scooter and Rodney McCray, the Cardinals won the Metro Conference title and took down No. 12 Kentucky in overtime in the NCAA Mideast Regional to reach the Final Four, before falling to No. 1 Houston. Louisville was led in scoring that year by Milt Wagner, who's currently the program's Director of Player Personnel and Alumni Relations. Lancaster Gordon, Rodney McCray and Charles Jones also joined Wagner in double figures scoring for that club.

It also marks the 10th anniversary of the Cardinals' 2013 NCAA national championship that was later vacated. Led by another Hall of Fame coach in Rick Pitino and captained by Luke Hancock and Peyton Siva, Louisville barrelled its way through the BIG EAST Tournament that season before a thrilling run to the NCAA title. The Cardinals defeated Wichita State in the Final Four and No. 10 Michigan in the championship game before the results were vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions. Retired number honoree Russ Smith led that team in scoring at 18.7 points per game, followed by Siva.

NOTES ON THE CARDINALS

PEEK AT PERSONNEL

The Cardinals have an even split of seven returning players and seven newcomers on their 2022-23 roster. UofL returns three players who started at least nine games last year in Sydney Curry, El Ellis and Jae'Lyn Withers. They return 32% of their scoring, 31% of their rebounding and 23% of their assists.

Louisville's newcomers include four transfers and three high school prospects. The high school haul includes two players ranked in the top 100 by multiple recruiting outlets in Kamari Lands (No. 47 by 247 Sports) and Devin Ree (No. 82). Tennessee transfer Brandon Huntley-Hatfield was a five-star, top-25 recruit before attending UT.

ROSTER FACTS

According to Ken Pomeroy, UofL is the fifth-tallest team in the country with an average height of 6-6. Louisville has just one player on its roster shorter than 6 feet, 3 inches. The team has seven players who are at least 6-8. The Cardinals represent nine different states, including California, Florida, Indiana, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

TRIO OF CAPTAINS

Louisville returners Sydney Curry, El Ellis and Jae'Lyn Withers have been named team captains for the 2022-23 men's basketball season. Although all three players bring experience in a Cardinal uniform, this is the first time as a captain for each member of the trio. Curry and Ellis are in their second year with the program, while Withers – a former ACC All-Freshman Team honoree – is a redshirt junior with two years of playing experience for Louisville.

JAMES ON THE MEND

Redshirt freshman guard Mike James suffered a torn Achilles tendon in his left leg in practice on Oct. 6, 2021, and missed the entire 2021-22 season, a redshirt year for James. He had successful surgery two days after the injury and has since been fully cleared to return to action.

JAMES MAKES BIG FIRST IMPRESSION

Mike James scored 16 points with three made 3-pointers against Bellarmine on Nov. 9 in his first college game. It was the fifth-most points ever by a Cardinal freshman in their debut.

Most Points by a Louisville Freshman in Their Debut

Player	First Game	Debut Points
Jerry Smith	vs. Northwestern State, 11/18/06	24
Marques Maybin	vs. Hofstra, 11/27/07	22
Samardo Samuels	vs. Morehead State, 11/22/09	18
Darius Perry	vs. George Mason, 12/12/17	17
Mike James	vs. Bellarmine, 11/9/22	16
Felton Spencer	vs. Northeastern, 11/28/86	15
Billy Thompson	vs. Florida, 11/26/82	15

WITHERS SHOWS OFF VERSATILITY

Redshirt junior forward Jae'Lyn Withers had 15 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high five steals against Wright State on Nov. 12. It was the first time a Cardinal has had at least 15 points, 10 rebounds and five steals in a game since Terrence Williams had 23 points, 12 rebounds and five steals against Providence on Jan. 13, 2007. There were only five total instances nationally all last season of a player tallying at least 15 points, 11 rebounds and five steals in a game.

ELLIS HAS STRONG TUNE-UP

El Ellis' 28 points in the Cardinals' exhibition win over Chaminade on Nov. 3 were tied for the most by a Louisville player in an exhibition since 2008. Jordan Nwora also had 28 against Bellarmine in 2019.

CURRY'S LATE SURGE

Sydney Curry was a force to be reckoned with late last season for the Cardinals. The 6-8 senior forward averaged 17.6 points and 9.0 rebounds in his last five games of the 2021-22 campaign while shooting 64.4 percent from the field (38 of 59).

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

The Cardinals have three players on the roster whose fathers also played for Louisville. Junior forward JJ Traynor's father Jason Osborne played two years at UofL (1993-95) and was a McDonald's All-American at Louisville Male High School, where he was Kentucky's Mr. Basketball in 1993. Junior guard Ashton Myles-Devore's father Ellis Myles was the starting center on Louisville's 2004-05 NCAA Final Four team that achieved a 33-5 record. Ellis averaged 10.4 points and 9.2 rebounds as a senior that season for the Cardinals and ranks sixth in career rebounding with 998 boards while also scoring 1,045 points. Graduate senior Zan Payne is also the son of head coach Kenny Payne, a former UofL standout and 1986 national champion.

NOTES ON THE COACHING STAFF

PAYNE STANDS ALONE

Louisville head coach Kenny Payne is the only Division I men's basketball head coach in the country who was selected in the NBA Draft, as well as won a national championship as a player and a coach. Payne was selected 19th overall by the Philadelphia 76ers in 1989, which followed him winning the 1986 national championship as a player at Louisville. Later in his career, he won a national title in 2012 as an assistant at Kentucky.

THE MOST UNIQUE STAFF IN AMERICA

Louisville is believed to be the only program in the country with three coaches (head coach and assistants) who were NBA Draft picks and won a national championship as players. In addition to Payne, that list includes associate head coach Danny Manning – a national champion as a player at Kansas in 1988 and the No. 1 overall pick in the '88 draft – and assistant coach Nolan Smith, a national champion as a player at Duke in 2010 and the 21st-overall pick in 2011. Manning's impressive basketball résumé also includes being a member of the Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame, a two-time first-team All-American, a two-time NBA All-Star, 1998 NBA Sixth Man of the Year, a three-time Division I head coach and an Olympian.

PAYNE'S NBA PIPELINE

During Kenny Payne's 15 years as a college assistant at Kentucky and Oregon, 39 players on his teams were selected in the NBA Draft. That includes 23 lottery picks and two overall No. 1 draft picks. Before coming to Louisville, he spent two years as an assistant with the New York Knicks. In his first season, they went 41-31 and finished fourth in the Eastern Conference, a 20-win improvement from the year before.

CARDS IN SMITH'S DNA

Assistant coach Nolan Smith's father Derek Smith was a member of Louisville's 1980 NCAA Championship team and is seventh in career scoring at UofL with 1,826 points. Derek, who passed away on Aug. 9, 1996, is one of 20 Honored Jersey recipients for the Cardinals and is a member of the UofL Hall of Fame. Smith was the leading scorer (15.7 ppg) on Louisville's 1982 NCAA Final Four team. He played nine years in the NBA from 1982-91 and scored 5,232 career points in the league. Photo of Derek Smith below.

WAGNER RETURNS HOME

Milt Wagner, a top 10 career basketball scorer for Louisville whose honored jersey hangs in the KFC Yum! Center, joined the Cardinals' staff as Director of Player Development and Alumni Relations in May. One of the most prolific scorers in UofL history during his career from 1981-86, Wagner ranks sixth all-time in scoring with 1,834 career points. A starter on the Cards' 1986 NCAA Championship team, UofL reached three NCAA Final Fours (1982, 1983, 1986) and participated in the NCAA Sweet Sixteen in all four of his playing seasons. Wagner was selected by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round of the 1986 NBA Draft with the 35th overall pick and played professional basketball for 13 years in various professional leagues, including as a member of the 1988 NBA Championship Los Angeles Lakers.

POSTSEASON PROWESS

Kenny Payne is in his first year as a head coach, but he's no stranger to the NCAA Tournament. In addition to winning a national championship as a player at Louisville in 1986, Payne made 10 trips to the NCAA Tournament as an assistant at Kentucky and Oregon, including seven Elite Eight appearances, four Final Fours and the 2012 national title with the Wildcats.

NCAA DOMINANCE

Not only have Payne and his staff competed in the NCAA Tournament as players and coaches, but they've advanced and won at a high rate. Kenny Payne, Danny Manning, Nolan Smith and Josh Jamieson have made 42 total NCAA appearances as players and coaches, with 30 trips to at least the Sweet 16. In those 42 appearances, the four coaches have a combined record of 110-37 (70.1%). Payne has made 13 NCAA trips as a player and a coach, with 11 visits to the Sweet 16 or better and a 41-11 record (78.8%).

FATHER-SON DUOS

Kenny Payne will be coaching his son, graduate senior guard/forward Zan Payne, this year after Zan transferred from Kentucky, where he previously played under his father as an assistant. Coming into the 2022-23 season, there are 22 pairs of father-son, coach-player duos in basketball this season.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT KENNY PAYNE

Julius Randle, New York Knicks forward

"It's bigger than basketball when it comes to K.P., and that's why he's so special. And that's why he has so many great relationships around the league with so many players because he's gonna push you on the court, but everything he does is out of love. Everything he does is because he cares about you as an individual. He cares about your family. He cares about my wife. He cares about my sons. For him to be able to come back to his alma mater is honestly like an incredible storybook ending or however you wanna say it. It's crazy, man. Like, that's crazy, honestly."

Tom Thibodeau, New York Knicks Coach

"He's come into the league; he's played in the league. And obviously having been in college, he studies the game, great with players. He's fit in seamlessly (with the Knicks). He'd be ideal for Louisville. He's strong on both sides of the ball, he's strong with individual development. And he's been around. He brings a lot of experience to any situation he goes to."

Leon Rose, New York Knicks President

"We are beyond thrilled for Kenny Payne that he will have the opportunity to coach his alma mater, Louisville. We wish him nothing but the best and thank him for his contributions over the past two seasons."

LaPhonso Ellis, ESPN Analyst

"He's a super connector. I got a chance to know him during the time where I was at Kentucky calling a game, and just watching how he is with people, and the kind of respect kids give to him. I think he's connected to all the right sources."

Dick Vitale, ESPN Analyst

"Louisville made the right choice as Kenny Payne is the guy that can bring back the glory days. He will create back the Cardinals spirit of the past as the fan base is excited he came back home."

Immanuel Quickley, New York Knicks guard

"He is somebody who is calm on the bench, but holds everybody accountable. It doesn't matter who you are. But you can always go talk to him totally away from basketball. I call him 'Pops' because he is like another father to me."

Ernie Kent, Washington State and Oregon former head coach

"Having been the first coach to give Kenny Payne his first coaching job, I saw and witnessed first hand his growth as a coach and recruiter. Kenny is by far the best recruiter in college basketball–not because he has the best facilities (we didn't have that at Oregon to start), but because of the ability he has to relate to young people like no other coach can. In this day and age, the key to dealing with young people is to gain their trust, and Kenny has an ability to establish relationships and trust in such a genuine way that an individual knows and feels that it's real. He has a gift unlike any coach I've been around to open up his heart and young people follow him and trust him and believe him."

Mike DeCourcy, The Sporting News

"Payne is a Louisville alumnus working as an assistant coach with the NBA's New York Knicks. He has an extensive background as a Division I assistant and was acknowledged as a wildly successful recruiter and elite position coach who helped broaden the talents of such Kentucky big men as Anthony Davis, Willie Cauley-Stein and Karl-Anthony Towns. He checks pretty much every box of the ideal major-conference candidate, save for experience as a mid-major head coach."

Kenny Payne, a veteran college and NBA coach with seventeen years of coaching experience and a former Cardinal basketball great, was named the new head men's basketball coach at the University of Louisville on March 18, 2022.

Payne most recently served as an assistant coach with the NBA's New York Knicks after fifteen years as a college assistant or associate head coach with both the University of Oregon and the University of Kentucky.

Payne's contract with the Cardinals will be for six years, extending through the 2027-28 season. He is just the sixth head coach to guide the Cardinals in the last 48 years, following Denny Crum (1971-2001), Rick Pitino (2001-17), David Padgett (2017-18, interim), Chris Mack (2018-22) and Mike Pegues (2021-22, interim). Payne is the 23rd head coach in Louisville's 108-year history, the ninth in the past 77 years, and just the fourth since 1971, excluding interim coaches.

Payne has been a part of successful coaching staffs. The Knicks posted a 41-31 record in 2020-21, finishing fourth in the NBA Eastern Conference and were 35-45 through April 6. While an assistant at Oregon and Kentucky, he reached four Final Fours, participated in 10 NCAA Tournaments (two at Oregon) and won six conference tournaments (one at Oregon), compiling a collective 395-165 record (.705).

The 2006-07 Oregon team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for only the fifth time in school history at that time. Kentucky reached the Final Four in 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015 with Payne, winning the 2012 NCAA Championship.

Coming into the 2022-23 season, Payne was the only Division I men's basketball coach in the country who was an NBA Draft pick and also won national championships as a player and a coach (including as an assistant).

Payne was honored in the A STEP UP Assistant Coaches Hall of Fame Class of 2020 for his track record of success, outstanding and significant contributions to the game, as well as his high character, integrity and respect among colleagues.

Payne, who served as associate head coach at Kentucky from 2014-20, played a key role in assembling 11 impressive recruiting classes while at Kentucky, all of which were among the nation's top three and five that were recognized as the No. 1 class, plus he helped gather a top 20 class at Oregon. He has been nationally recognized for player development. In Payne's 10 years at Kentucky, the Wildcats had a player selected in the NBA Draft lottery and had multiple players picked in the first round in every year, including two overall No. 1 selections. In addition, three Oregon players were selected in the first and second rounds of the NBA Draft in Payne's time there.

As a student-athlete at UofL, Payne scored 1,083 points in his four years (1985-86), connecting on 40.1 percent of his career three-point goals (85-of-212, fourth-highest in UofL history). He was a member of Louisville's 1986 NCAA Championship team as a freshman and during his collegiate career, Louisville participated in three NCAA Sweet 16s and won three Metro Conference championships and three Metro tournament titles while posting a combined 98-41 record.

As a senior playing under Hall of Fame Coach Denny Crum, Payne averaged 14.5 points and 5.7 rebounds and was named to the All-Metro Conference second team as Louisville posted a 24-9 record and reached the NCAA Sweet 16.

He was selected in the first round of the 1989 NBA Draft with the 19th overall pick by the Philadelphia 76ers, where he played four seasons (1989-93). He continued to play professional basketball abroad and in the Continental Basketball Association until 2000, with stops at the CBA Tri-Cities (Washington) and with teams in Italy, Japan, Brazil, the Philippines, Cypress, China, Argentina and Australia.

Payne earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sport administration from Louisville in 2003.

He and his wife, Michelle, have two children: Alexis and Alexander (Zan), who is a graduate senior on the UofL basketball team.
